DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presided at the weekly meeting of the above on Friday. Also present—Messrs. T. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman, P. O'Dwyer, J. Dahill, J. Christopher, P. Quinn, P. Byrne, J. J. Crotty, J. F. Foley.

Payments
A pay-sheet amounting to £16 2s. 2d., and other payments amounting to £277 4s. 7d., were passed; also a sum of £850 to the Co. Council and £170 in respect of compensation to Messrs. Condon, O'Mahony, Miss Maher and Mrs. Noonan, in respect of loss sustained by them due to disturbance under the Compulsory Purchase Scheme.

Reduction Of Water Rate
Mrs. Alice Nugent, Abbeyside, wrote asking for a reduction of the water rate from 6s. to 3s. 6d. Consideration was deferred. A complaint by Thomas Barry, John Hally, and Margaret Quinlan, Mary St., re shortage of water to their premises was read. The Water Inspector said the three supplies were off the same pipe.

Compensation to Owners
Mr. T. C. Williams, solicitor, wrote, re the Housing Financial and Miscellaneous Provisions Act 1932, stating that he had received a letter from Messrs. E. A. Ryan and Co., stating that they had not understood that the sites owned by the following parties are now cleared—Miss Kate Ryan, Mr. Patrick Ryan, Mrs. Annie F. McIlwain, John McGrath, Mary Cullinan, Rees, J. Hudson, Rees, Col. Shine. If the Engineer certifies this to be so, there is no reason why you should not issue Paying Orders and enable them to complete the sales forthwith. Chairman—Refer the letter to the Architects. Clerk—We have the money to pay when we get the certificates.

Notice To Quit
Mr. Farrell, solicitor, wrote on behalf of Mr. Thomas Morrissey, Cross Bridge St., offering to pay the Council £1 a week rent plus 1/6 a week off the arrears until they are cleared off, when the rent would revert back to 1/6 a week. Mr. Crotty—If he did that all along there would be no trouble. Mr. McCarthy—I understood such a letter would have been before us at the last meeting. Chairman—We have already made an order on this. Mr. McCarthy—Can that order be rescinded? Chairman—That is a matter for the Council.

Water Scheme
A letter from Messrs. De Lapp and Waller, stated that in regard to the Council's proposal to carry on some of the work in connection with the Water Scheme the Department was reluctant to commit itself to the carrying out of the remainder of the work for if a difficulty arose afterwards they would be left with an incomplete scheme. The Minister agreed with them that it should be ascertained if it would be possible to enlarge the present Glendine supply so that a full supply for future requirements would be available, even if the Kilmaree one was not included. Chairman—If we could satisfy the Department regarding the intake at Deelish we might be allowed to go ahead with the scheme. Mr. Christopher—Wouldn't they have told us that at first. It seems they mean to get a job here at any cost. It was decided to await the Engineers report on the new proposal.

Cutting Off Water
Regarding the cutting off of the water from defaulters it was agreed that the matter be adjourned for 6 weeks to give defaulters a chance of paying.

Sympathy
A resolution of sympathy with the relatives of the late M. Halpin, Cross Bridge St., was passed in silence. All members standing.

Housing
Mr. McCarthy stated that the public should know that the delay in the housing scheme was the fault of the Department and not the Council's. They will be going around at an election said Mr. McCarthy, stating that the Council was at fault. Such is not the case and the public should know it.

Light At Skehacrine
A letter from the E.S.B. in reply to the Council's protest re the price for the erection of 17 1/2 ft. and the cost of the light £3 for 6 months was read. The Board regretted that the light could not be erected unless the charges mentioned were agreed to by the Council. Mr. Christopher—Why do they charge for the six months gone? Mr. McCarthy—Because they have a monopoly. Mr. Crotty—It is strange that they were to give no concession for six months gone. Chairman—It is a small thing to be arguing about, but it is the principle of the thing. Mr. McCarthy—they are too independent. Mr. Foley—I consider it very sharp practice. He proposed that the light be erected. This was passed. As regards the position of the light, Mr. Walsh, Town Inspector, said all the residents with one exception (Mrs. Draper) wanted the light at the cross. The Council decided to have the light placed at the cross.

Recent Rescue at Abbeyside
The Carnegie Hero Trust Fund, wrote re the recent rescue work by Mr. Joseph Downey, asking to be supplied with a brief but comprehensive account of Downey's act. The matter was referred to the Clerk to deal with. A letter on the same subject enclosing a form to be filled in, giving particulars of the rescue was received from the Royal Humane Society. This was also referred to the Clerk.

TOURANEENA BAZAAR
On Sunday night last the final phase of the Touraneena Bazaar was reached, when at the local schoolroom a packed house, representative of almost every household in the Parish, manifested in an unmistakable manner their keen and grateful appreciation and acknowledgment of the service rendered to them by their devoted and zealous Pastor, Very Rev. J. Cullinan, who, assisted by Rev. B. McGrath, C.C., and an energetic parochial committee, succeeded in finally disposing of the incubus of debt which had paralysed all parochial activities during the past fifteen years. Before the drawing for the many valuable prizes donated for the occasion took place a very varied entertaining and instructive programme was staged before a highly interested and appreciative audience. The piece de resistance was, of course, the lantern slide lecture on Rome which was delivered by Rev. H. Conway, Ardinnan, in his own racy and inimitable style, kept the audience enthralled and fascinated for the greater part of two hours. The tumultuous applause which signalled the termination of the lecture displayed very forcibly, not only the keen appreciation of the audience, of the highly-instructive elevating and inspiring nature of the lecture itself, but was also a marked and vivid demonstration of the great love and esteem which the people of the parish entertain for the Reverend lecturer, who laboured among them for many years. Following the lecture a delightfully entertaining concert programme was contributed to by a number of local artists, while Mr. and Mrs. Bulfin, Dungarvan, on the piano accordion, Miss Walsh, Abbeyside, vocalist and Mr. L. O'Calla, on the bagpipes, helped to make the concert one that will long remain a pleasant memory in the minds of a delighted audience. At the conclusion of the concert, Very Rev. J. Cullinan, P.P., paid a graceful tribute to the lecturer, Father Conway, as well as to the many talented artists who had contributed so much to an excellent night's entertainment, and last, but not by any means least, to the hosts of friends far and near who had helped so generously in bringing to a triumphant conclusion one of the most successful bazaars ever held in the district. List of Prize-Winners:— 1st Prize (£10)—Rev. Peter Dower, Manor Hill, Waterford, ticket No. 15521. 2nd Prize (£5)—Miss M. Sweeney, N.T. Moonamean, N.S., Dungarvan, No. 20086. 3rd Prize—Drawing Room Lamp—Mr. J. McNamara, Ballinamulla, No. 3860. 4th Prize—Afternoon Tea Set—Mr. T. Norris, Englishstown, Stradhally. 5th Prize—Suit Length of Irish Tweed—Mr. J. Cliffe, Carrigaun, No. 4089. 6th Prize—"Butler's Lives of the Saints"—Miss M. Walsh, Coolna smear, No. 13335. 7th Prize—Lady's Handbag—Mrs. J. Nugent, Touraneena, No. 25302. 8th Prize—Case of Wine—Mrs. Raher, Kilmacaden—No. 21578. 9th Prize—Silk Cushion—Mrs. E. Cullinan, Clonocogalle—No. 26913. 10th Prize—Case of Pipes—Mrs. Murphy, Lacken, Cappoquin—No. 9020. Special Prize—Ornamental Clock—Mr. W. Fitzgerald, Bleanis—No. 3978.

CO. WATERFORD VOCATIONAL EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

Very Rev. Canon T. O'Brien, P.P., Chairman, presided at the monthly meeting of the above on Tuesday. Other members present were—Rev. M. F. Hearne, C.C., Rev. Bro. McMahon, Jas. Mansfield, Liam Meehan, An Fear Mor, Vice-Chairman.

New Technical School
At the request of Mr. Bowen, Architect, a sum of £1,000 on account was passed to Messrs. Kavanagh Bros., Contractors for the New Technical School. The Secretary in reply to a member said the total payments including the £1,000 passed was £7,000 odd. The question of the erection of a stairway at the back to act as a separate exit in case of emergency, which was raised by Mr. Mansfield at a previous meeting was referred to Mr. Bowen for his views on its utility.

Manual Instructor
A letter from the Department approved the appointment of Mr. Mairin O'Cuainin, Spiddal, Co. Galway, as Itinerant Manual Instructor under the committee at a commencing salary of £30 plus the appropriate cost of living bonus.

Engineering Instructors Appointment
A letter was read from the Department of Education relative to the terms of the appointment of Mr. O'Kelly, as Engineering Instructor, stating that owing to his failure to qualify in Irish the temporary whole-time position must be re-advertised. Father Hearne—Could we not ask the Department to allow us to re-appoint Mr. Kelly temporary for 12 months. He is a very competent instructor. An Fear Mor—He is certainly a most competent man, and was making steady progress with the language. A member said that in nearly all appointments two years were given to qualify. On the proposition of Mr. Meehan, seconded by Rev. Bro. McMahon, a resolution was unanimously passed asking the Department to allow the committee to re-appoint Mr. Kelly for 12 months.

Building A Boundary Wall
The Department approved of the committee's proposal to build a boundary wall to the New Technical School at a cost of not more than £300. In reply to a member, the Secretary said the length of the wall would be 500 feet. It was decided to advertise immediately for contractors, and the Secretary was directed to call a special meeting to consider tenders on Tuesday 13th October.

Sewerage From New School
A letter was read from the Dungarvan U.D.C. with reference to the committee's request for permission to connect the sewerage from the new school. The letter stated that there is no sewer on the main road with which a connection can be made without creating a nuisance, and that the Urban Council cannot permit that. The Secretary said he forwarded a copy of the letter to Mr. Bowen and to Dr. O'Farrell, Co. M.O.H. A long letter on the subject was read from Mr. Bowen in which he maintained that the sewer is undoubtedly a public one, that the committee have a right to connect thereto and that they should insist on their right. After a short discussion it was decided to send a copy of Mr. Bowen's letter to the Urban Council.

Resignation Accepted
The Committee accepted the resignation of Mr. S. O'Connell, B.E., Clerk of Works at the New Technical School. The Secretary said he understood Mr. O'Connell had secured a position under the South Tipperary Co. Council.

Annual Increments
The usual annual increments of salaries were passed to the teaching staff. Mr. T. Maher, B.S.C., was on the completion of his probation period as temporary whole-time officer, placed on the whole-time permanent basis and granted an increment of salary. Mr. D. Lynch, permanent whole-time officer on probation was also appointed a permanent whole-time officer on the completion of his probation period with usual increment of salary.

Maximum Salaries
The Department approved of payment of the maximum salaries of £200 with appropriate cost of living bonus to the three Irish Teachers—Messrs. Patrick Millett, L. Kiely, and S. Downey.

School Of Textiles
A resolution from the Co. Kerry Vocational Committee re the establishment of a school of textiles at Dublin or Cork was approved.

Art Subjects
For the position of teacher of Art subjects under the committee, Mr. Jas. J. Lavelle, was appointed.

BALLYDUFF NOTES

St. Michael's Day
Tuesday 29th September, being the feast of St. Michael, Patron of this Parish, Quarene Ore devotions opened on Sunday at 11.30 a.m. when the Missa Cantata was celebrated by Rev. Father Walsh, C.C., after which the procession of the Blessed Sacrament took place to the High Altar for Exposition. In preparation for the devotions large numbers went to confession on Saturday and received Holy Communion on Sunday morning. Confessions were again heard on Monday when the Rev. Fathers Dunphy, Cappoquin, O'Gorman and Murphy, Lismore, assisted the priests of the parish. The huge congregations attending the devotions and receiving the Blessed Sacrament clearly demonstrated the religious fervour of the people of Ballyduff Parish. The devotions concluded at 10.30 a.m. on Tuesday when the Missa Cantata was celebrated by Very Rev. Fr. Dooley, P.P. The Masses were sung by the children of Ballyduff school under the guidance of Mrs. B. Prior, N.T.

At the conclusion of devotions the Parish Priest entertained the Choir at the Parochial House where they had dinner followed by games and sports, the winners of each event being presented with a prize of books.

Vocational Education
Irish classes which are well attended are being held each Wednesday evening in the boys school by Mr. L. Kiely. It is worthy of note that one of the twelve scholarships offered by the Co. Committee last year was won by Miss Baby Tobin, Ballyduff, a student of this class, and a younger student, Miss Rosaleen Daly, obtained an "Irish Independent" scholarship and spent a month in the Connacht Gaeltacht.

Farming
At the time of writing the weather seems to have at last settled and we sincerely hope that it will remain so for some time. Farmers say they do not want any more rain this side of Christmas. Threshing operations are now in full swing after being delayed by the rain and generally unfavourable conditions. By the way the farmers are pleased with the increase in price of wheat only of course like the old song: "They want some more." We wonder who pays this increase, and what will be the price of the "staff of life" and seed what.

Library
In this column about twelve months ago we remarked about the meagre supply of books to our local library, especially the non-fiction variety. Now that the reading season is nearly on us, may we again hope for a better selection. The Librarian informs us that the demand is very good and that readers are, without exception careful of the borrowed books, and that there is a constant demand for travel and nature study books.

Fishing
The fishing season closed on the 30th September. Takes of salmon during the open period were slightly below the average. Of course the variable weather was to blame to a large extent. The river did not remain "settled" for any lengthy period and this militated against good salmon fishing. Fishing visitors were few only a few of the regulars turning up. Mr. I. V. Stewart of Dromana seldom missed a day from the Ballyduff waters, and owing to his experience and perseverance had a pretty good season. The trout fishing was, however, an improvement on last year and our local enthusiasts had some good bags. Jim Sullivan says it was the best year for a long time. It may interest some of our friends from other districts to hear that Jack O'Brien and Jer Sullivan, are still going strong. These two famous ghillies are still as well able to throw a line or spin a yarn as ever they were. Interviewed recently they maintained that the medicine obtained from St. James' Gate has been of great assistance in keeping them fit and fluent.

APEX
DUNGARVAN MARKETS
Meal (special) 21/6; middletint 21/-; flour 22/- and 23/- per 105 lbs.; bran 9/-; pollard 8/- and 8/6; coal 40/- ton; wheat 27/6 barrel; barley 15/- barrel; white oats 11/- barrel.

Factory Classes
The Committee approved the formation of a new class of 20 pupils in connection with the Leather Factory. The Secretary said Mr. Dickens wanted a class at a suitable age. He would like to be able to take them on at 18 years, so that if necessary they can be kept on to work overtime.

Class For Ring
An Fear Mor referred to the offer of the Fisheries Association of a Marine Engine free for the purpose of instruction and said the fishermen of Ring were very anxious that a class be formed. They would prefer the classes held on Fridays and Saturdays. The committee approved of the formation of the class.

G.A.A. NOTES & NOTIONS

By "CROTOG."

The Waterford Senior Hurling Final of 1936 decided at Lismore last Sunday will long be remembered as one of the greatest if not actually the greatest, event in the history of Gaelic games in the Decies. New records were set up on all sides—a great crowd of several thousands helped to swell the "gate" to a figure which far exceeded anything previously known in a County Final. From all Waterford and many widely separated areas in East Cork (Fermoy, Middleton, Riverstown and Castlemartyr to mention but a few) the enthusiasts crowded in. The glamour of the All-Ireland Football Final Broadcast did not diminish one iota the extraordinary appeal of this Tallow-Mount Sion encounter. Everything contributed to a splendid game—the day was cool but gloriously dry and the spacious pitch in perfect order. The special train from Waterford brought many City Gaels, many more travelled by bus and car. The Railway Company were adversely criticised for timing the return so early as little, if any, opportunity was afforded excursionists for refreshments after the match. The game itself was so far above any final of recent years that it is in a class all apart by itself. More than anything else perhaps it serves to show the great improvement in the standard of Decies hurling.

There is no finer spectacle on earth than two great hurling teams engaged in a neck-and-neck all-out struggle for mastery; and that is what the thousands in Lismore were treated to on Sunday. No wonder they went home with feelings of pride and satisfaction that Waterford hurling could rise to such heights. To Tallow and Mount Sion belong the credit of having placed this final on such a plane that it will for long serve as a model to the finalists of the future. It was a fast scientific game fought out with the utmost determination to the last whistle, but with such a spirit of chivalry and sportsmanship as to make it the grandest display ever in Waterford G.A.A. history. Not a single discordant note marred the contest and it would be difficult to praise the teams too highly for their splendid behaviour all through the game.

With drums beating and pipes playing martial airs, the thirty hurling athletes marched round the arena while the admiring thousands cheered their encouragement. Sharp to time, the ball is thrown in and Bill Sheehan's men, facing a moderate wind, rush to the attack. Keane clears to mid-field where some hectic bouts ensue between George Kehoe and 'Pa' Sheehan. The City lads draw first blood with a point and a free shortly after gives them their second minor. The pace is terrific. The defences on both sides are excellent. Midfield exchanges are even. The Mount Sion attack, led by O'Mahony, Phelan, Greene and M. Doyle, is the more dangerous and incisive—their speed, neat striking and accuracy are telling factors. The Tallow forwards, with Noel Condon, Doyle and Tom and Ned McCarthy in the van, are over-eager and not as coolly methodical in their tactics. Doyle bangs home a goal to give Tallow the lead. The pace gets hotter. Up and down the game fluctuates. Mount Sion are away on the wing, their forwards combine beautifully and in comes a centre to O'Mahony. Quick as a flash he drives and blocks the flying ball which hops high into the air. "Batted up" on all sides and unable to use cannon Danny gets a hand free to under-cut handball-fashion to the net past the surprised Mick Curley. A spectacular goal indeed and a triumph for quick-witted hurling. The Sheehan brothers, "Pa" Tom and Bill, weave their way through the City defence but Ryan on goal is impassable and Tallow must be content with minor scores. Another sustained Mount Sion attack ends in M. Doyle scoring with a fierce ground ball from an almost impossible angle. Half-time and Tallow are six points in arrears, the scores reading 2-3 to 1-2. Dashing about on the resumption, Tallow set about overhauling the lead in determined style. Aided by the wind, Curley and Burke move upfield to re-inforce the attack. Despite the desperate defence of Keane, Hogan, Duggan and O'Connor, points come in regular succession, 'Pa' Sheehan being the outstanding marksman. Ten minutes to go with the City lads clinging with fierce tenacity to a three-point lead. And then Tallow made a fatal tactical blunder. They discarded the point-scoring policy and concentrated all their efforts on scoring that all important goal. Now the exchanges was fast and exciting—the minutes tick on and still the Tallow forwards, all eagerness and all anxiety, hurl themselves in vain against that stone-wall defence. Four minutes to go and then Mount Sion come with a characteristic finishing spurt, launching a sudden counter-attack, they are through the Tallow lines and bombarding the goal but Jack McGrath saves well twice in rapid succession. Not to be denied, Greene streaks along the left wing and a grand angle shot sails all the way over the bar. The game is over though Tallow recover to stage a last desperate assault on the Mount Sion net. It is beaten off just as the final whistle sounds. Mount Sion are Waterford Senior Hurling Champions for the first time. It has been a terribly hard-fought game and the score of 2 goals and 6 points to 1 goal and 5 points reflects the nature of the struggle.

On the day's play, the better team won. The victors were the flecter on the ball, their striking was surer and their forward play more astute. Their ability to put in a strong finish was once more demonstrated and their backs were steady under the hottest pressure. The vanquished owe their defeat to the blunder which they made in changing their forward tactics at a critical period of the game; had they continued to take the points which offered they may have lived to fight another day. Both teams are worthy representatives of as fine a hurling combination as any Irish County boasts today.

There is no rest for the hurler nowadays. Next Sunday the National Hurling League opens in full blast and Waterford is set the task of taking on Dublin in Croke Park. A pretty tough proposition indeed, but the Decies selection carries the full confidence of the whole county and will make the Metropolitan fight every inch of the way. This Waterford team carries any amount of "punch" and determination with plenty of dash and all round hurling ability. Dublin's stout suit is downhearted and vigour. Our representatives should be the fitter though the long journey will not conduce to muscular looseness. The international football contest between Britain and Ireland is the main feature of next Sunday's Croke Park programme. This will follow the hurling match so that the Decies fifteen will be appearing before a distinguished and widely representative and, it is hoped, a numerous audience. Our team is as follows—M. Curley, N. Condon, C. Curley and P. Sheehan (Tallow); C. Moylan, D. Goode, J. Halpin (Dungarvan), J. Keane, D. Hogan, P. Green (Mount Sion); C. Ware, M. Wynn (Erin's Own); J. Mountain (St. Stephen's); E. Daly (Ballyn); M. Hickie (Dunhill), T. Greaney (Dungarvan).

Dick Ryan, the well-known Erin's Own player and inter-county half-back has left Waterford to take up residence in his native Cork. Dick (who like Tom Greaney, is a Civil Servant, has a great grasp for the caman—he loves a manly game. The ubiquitous hannels and tennis racket so much affected by the "nigher" people in the "Services" have no appeal for him. His departure necessitates a re-shuffle in next Sunday's team.

Ned Daly, the inter-county full forward, is another hurler who has changed his address. Called to training as a teacher in St. Patrick's College, Drumcondra, he will find ample scope to perfect his game in the robust hurling so characteristic of Dublin. He will still be available for his native county and will field out for Waterford next Sunday in Croke Park. His display in his new surroundings will be watched with interest.

Now that the Senior Hurling Championship has been brought to such a highly successful conclusion no time should be lost in completing the County G.A.A. programme for 1936. The Senior Football tie, Fenor v. De La Salle did not take place last Sunday in Kill. To facilitate the College, the alternative of playing off De La Salle, was adopted. The winners meet Clonsa in the Eastern Final on October 11th at Ballyduff Lower. If a repetition of last year's crop of bleak finishes is to be avoided, the various Gaelic Committees concerned must speed up their programme and adhere rigidly to it.

THE WINTER SEASON

The official opening of the winter season by putting back the clock one hour on Sunday morning next will raise the question of how to spend the long dark evenings to the best advantage. Now that there are so many diversions no idle time should be unaccounted for. There are dance halls for those who wish to indulge in the charms of the light fantastic; books provided by Co. Libraries Scheme for all who care to cultivate their minds with all that is best in literature; and Technical classes at several centres for those who wish to complete their education and Irish classes for those who wish to learn their native tongue or improve their present knowledge of the language. In fact, there was never an age when so much provision was made for our boys and girls to improve themselves in every way and prevent time from lying on their hands too heavily.

But do they make the most of it? We say no. The only centre of which full advantage is taken is the dance hall. It has the lighter appeal and entails no concentration. Reading and study mean work and work is not fashionable to the rising youth. There is no royal road to education. It is an uphill fight and to succeed you must as of old burn the midnight oil. Unless you do that you will not succeed. Another excellent way our young people have to shorten the long evenings is to establish Dramatic Classes and produce one of the many tragic-comedies of which there are so many available. In fact, there is no limit of what could be done to make life pleasant if only there was the will.

KILMACTHOMAS NEWS.

A LOVEABLE PRIEST—

On Friday night of last week the Rev. Michael Flynn, C.C., of the English Mission, returned to the seat of his priestly labours, after spending a very pleasant holiday at his old home, Father Flynn is a son of Mrs. Flynn, and the late Mr. Pat Flynn, Killergule, Kilmaclomah, and is a brother of the well and popularly known Clona hurlers, Messrs. Willie and Pat Flynn. His reverence, himself, was a hurler of considerable merit before his ordination, and he still harbours a great grudge in his heart for the games and pastimes of the Gael. He was present at the All-Ireland Hurling Final and at a number of Co. Waterford championship matches during his holiday. He is in excellent health, and immensely enjoyed his latest sojourn in our midst.

Mr. Conway, of the Board of Public Works, is in charge of a party of men at present employed in carrying out a Government sanctioned drainage scheme in the townlands of Kilrossanty, Curraheen, Knockyelan, Robertstown, Ballingown and Durrow. The completion of the work will spell a great boon to the local farmers.

Widespread sympathy is extended to Mr. John Fitzgerald and Miss B. Fitzgerald of Knockyelan Lower, Kilrossanty, in their bereavement occasioned by the death of their sister, Mrs. Margaret Forrest, which happened at the home of her adoption in Los Angeles, S.A., after a brief illness and at a comparatively early age.—R.I.P.

A REGRETTED DEATH—

News of the death of Mrs. Helena Lyons, wife of Mr. James Lyons, Corballymore, Dunmore East, came as a shock to her numerous friends throughout Kill and Kilmaclomah districts, and particularly to the respected members of her family circle, to whom the sympathy of all classes in the whole wide community is tendered in their deep sorrow. The deceased lady was conspicuous for her sanctity, amiability and benevolence, and, indeed, it may be truly said of her that she was one of nature's gentlewomen. She was the youngest daughter of Mr. John Morrissey and the late Mrs. Morrissey, Shanbally, Kilmaclomah, and was a sister of Mr. Patk. Morrissey, do., Mr. Edmond Morrissey, Kilbeg, Kill, and Mr. John Joe Morrissey, New York City. She was only twelve months married. The funeral from Curraheen to Kill Churchyard was largely attended by all her friends and neighbours, as well as by a large circle of the general public, and when it reached Kill, where she resided for some years with her most estimable cousin, Mrs. M. Fadden (licensed vintner), every house had doors closed and blinds drawn, and weeping women were much in evidence, thus testifying how greatly she was respected and loved. Rev. M. Power, C.C., Kill, read the burial service. A number of beautiful floral tributes were laid on the grave, and numerous Mass cards and messages of sympathy were sent.—May she rest in peace.

A MONSTER MARAUDER—

Equipped with pointed snodes, a Kilrossanty farmer and his two workmen were three and three-quarter hours digging before they succeeded in effecting the capture of a badger, who had been in the possession of a fox-hunter in the region. They killed the marauder. The animal proved to be the biggest of the specie ever seen in the locality; it measured 36 1/2 inches in length, which is something like 8 inches more than the average length of a European badger. Its fur was of the normal hue—grey above and black underneath—and its head was white, with a black stripe on each side.

OF A VERITY—

The recent spell of improved weather has done much to relieve the agricultural community from the anxiety and worry which threatened a less successful winter up in the storing of grain than had been anticipated from the inclement conditions prevailing a few weeks previously. On all sides corn crops have been saved and are now securely ricked in sheds and haggards against the demands of the winter and spring. Potatoes have blackened to some extent, but not so seriously as had been expected. Other crops promise a pretty good return. Turf has been saved in very large quantities, and the recent weather conditions have helped considerably its removal from the Comrags and from the Leamybrien and Glen bogs.

A DISTINGUISHED BONMAHON MAN—

The death occurred on the 19th ult. at the age of 81 years, of Mr. Michael O'Mahony, who left Ireland at the age of 17 and rose to great eminence in Catholic and Journalistic circles in Liverpool. The late Mr. O'Mahony was born in Bonmahon, and throughout his life maintained an interest in his native place, and in the problems of his native land. In 1881 he wrote the historical romance, "The Maid of Greenchurch," dealing with the Irish anti-the war of 1834. This story was published in serial form in "The Catholic Record" more than twenty years ago. Sims Fein found in him an ardent supporter. After the formation of the Irish Free State he identified himself with the Irish Political Party in Liverpool, and was elected an Irish Catholic Party representative on the City Council, in 1922. During six years in this capacity he did great work for Catholic education in Liverpool. For some years Mr. O'Mahony was chairman of Liverpool Catholic School Managers' Association. He became very popular at lecturer and his last book, "Irish Humour," enjoyed a wide circulation. The funeral took place to Ford Cemetery, Liverpool, after Requiem High Mass in St. Sebastian's Church, Fairfield, celebrated by Rev. J. Wareing, assisted by Rev. Father Mathias, O.M.L., and Rev. Fr.

O'Ryan, O.M.L., as deacon and sub-deacon, respectively. Right Rev. Monsignor Moloney, and Right Rev. Monsignor Adamson, were in the Sanctuary, representing Most Rev. Dr. Downey, Archbishop of Liverpool.

There was a large congregation representative of all classes of the community. All the Catholic Societies in Liverpool were represented and Messrs. John Morrissey, Thomas Wernock (Secretary) and Miss Alice McNamee, representing the Gaelic League. The panegyric was delivered by Rev. T. Jackson, O.S.R.

"C.R." writing in the Liverpool "Echo" of the late Mr. Michael O'Mahony says:—"A very lovable Irishman has passed to his rest. Though he spent most of his life in Liverpool, his heart remained in his native Ireland. The cause of its people and the faith of his fathers shared his life's allegiance."

"He had a great gift of friendship, and his friendships were wonderfully Catholic, being independent of politics, religion, race, or social grade. The things he looked for and responded to were intellect, spirituality, and spontaneous wit, all of which he himself possessed as a national endowment."

"The soul of geniality and generosity, he had an Irishman's facility of happy speech, a fund of humorous anecdotes, and keen appreciation of the paths and quaintness to be found in even everyday events. These gifts made for camaraderie and drove dullness away."

ROAD-MAKING—

The re-making of the Ballynabogue-Bowe's Hill road goes on apace. Between 50 and 100 County Council workmen are keeping two steamrollers going on the job. Messrs. Richard Cahin, senior, Ballynabogue; Walter Walsh, Ballysogarty; and Bartholomew Casey, Kill, are the efficient and popular gangers in charge of the men engaged at the work. In these days of T.T. races, and ideal roads in Ireland, it is curious to recall that the repairing of the roads in the country a century and a quarter or so ago devolved upon the owners of property. For instance, when a new stage coach was arranged to run from Waterford to Cork at that period, it was announced: "Every gentleman is bound properly to repair such parts of the mail-coach road as are defective." And again, country gentlemen were "exhorted to see that the roads are kept in proper repair" on the mail-coach route. It is not difficult to imagine what a state these old roads, mended at haphazard, would have been in for modern motoring. It is satisfactory to learn that in course of time "the coach services and roads were gradually so improved that the journey from Waterford to Cork came to be accomplished in twelve hours." List to that ye speed merchants of the 30, 60, 80-100 m.p.h. machines. And our forefathers considered it a go-ahead and enterprising age!

DEATH—

Fortified by the rites of his Church, Mr. John Power, blacksmith, Stradbally, passed away into his eternal reward last week, after a protracted illness and in his 60th year. Deceased had won the respect and esteem of a large circle of friends by his many amiable traits of character. He was laid to rest in Stradbally Catholic Churchyard in the presence of numerous relatives, friends and sympathisers. Rev. P. O'Farrell, C.C., officiated at the graveside. A great wave of public sympathy goes out to deceased's widow, who is left with a family of eight children to mourn his loss. Peace to his soul.

LEFT FOR LONDON—

Mr. Patrick Power, who, for the past two years has been a shop-assistant at Mr. Edward Hill's establishment in Kilmaclomah, crossed over to England on Tuesday night, to continue in Mr. Hill's employment at that notably progressive go-ahead gentleman's business house at Ludbrooke Road, London. Mr. Power is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Power, Kilbrien. The possessor of many admirable qualities of head and heart, and highly efficient at his calling, he made hosts of friends here in the heart of the Deise, and he carries with him to his new sphere of activities the sincere good wishes of all for his future welfare in Albion capital.

OVER THE PAST FORTNIGHT—

Mr. J. Cotter, Stationmaster, Kilmaclomah, has been away on a holiday in his native West Cork, and the genial gentleman has returned looking like a giant refreshed. In his absence, the duties of his office were carried out by Mr. F. X. O'Brien, Relief Stationmaster, with that well and popularly known courteous and capable official's wonted ability. By the way, Mr. O'Brien is a native of Lismore; he is a very cultured gentleman of a high intellectual calibre, and his friends are legion in country and in town—good luck to him.

EARWIGS ON THE MOVE—

Many Mid-Deise dwelling houses are now being invaded by myriads of earwigs. We are told that not since August 1914, have the insects appeared in such large numbers in homesteads throughout the area.

THE FAIR—

Held at Kilmaclomah on Tuesday. Small stock of cattle, and usual buyers saw rather quiet trading, though springers sold at good figures, £7 10s. to £12 each. Heifers, 14-years, £6 12s. 6d. to £9; bullocks 14 years, £6 to £8; spring calves, Angus, 14 years, £6 to £8; fat lambs (under 12 months), long wools, 25s. to 35s.; downs and cross-breeds, 28s. to 38s.; store sheep (breeding ewes), long wools, 32s. to 37s.; downs and cross-breeds, 30s. to 35s.; store sheep (other ewes and wethers), 1 to 2 years, downs and cross-breeds, 27s. 6d., to 35s.; fat sheep 2 years and over, long wools, 25s. to 35s.; bonhams and store pigs, 20s. to 37s. 6d.

CLOSE OF MISSION

The forenight's Mission, which had been conducted in the parish of Stradbally and the Ballynaneen, was brought to a most successful close on Sunday night amidst scenes of the greatest devotion and impressiveness. The two eminent preachers who were in charge of the Mission were the Rev. Father Cyril and Rev. Father Antoine, of the Franciscan Friary, Waterford. The various exercises of the Mission were splendidly attended by the faithful Catholics of the parish all through the fortnight; large numbers being present at the morning Masses and lectures, while the attendances at the evening devotions and sermons constituted a record, and the Very Rev. P. O'Neill, P.P., and Rev. T. O'Shea, C.C., and Rev. P. O'Farrell, C.C., as well as the two Missionary Fathers, have good reason of being proud of the wonderful success of the Mission. In the Parish Church of the Holy Cross, Stradbally, the closing sermon was preached by Father Cyril; while in St. Anne's Church, Ballynaneen, the final discourse was delivered by Father Antoine. The pretty and spacious sacred edifices held extremely large congregations. Having exhorted their hearers to live up to the teachings of the Mission so as to retain all the graces and blessings which it had showered upon them, both preachers warmly complimented the parishioners for the magnificent manner in which they had attended the Mission, and also for the manner in which they had gone to Confession and Holy Communion. The saintly Missioners expressed their heartfelt thanks to the dear priests of the parish for their kindness towards both during their stay amongst them, and they paid a high tribute to the choirs and the altar boys and all others who had assisted in many ways in making the Mission such a pronounced success, and the preachers concluded by invoking God's blessing on them all. A truly brilliant and inspiring scene was witnessed in both Churches during the solemn renewal of the Eucharistal Vows, which was followed by the impartation of Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, which terminated the august proceedings in each of the two Churches.

STORES ENTERED—

On Saturday night last a robbery took place at Mahonbridge Co-Operative Creamery and Stores. The lock-up shop was entered forcibly and the safe rifled, and a sum of about £13 in cash stolen, together with some articles of clothing. Discovery of the loss was made by the manager, Mr. Joseph Twomey, on Sunday morning, and he immediately reported the matter to the Gardaí at Leamybrien and Kilmaclomah. Later a young labourer named Glavin, of Briskey, Kilrossanty, was arrested in connection with the affair. He was brought before a local P.C., and remanded in custody until the next District Court at Kilmaclomah.

CAPPOQUIN DISTRICT COURT.

ANNUAL LICENSING SESSIONS

This being the annual licensing Sessions all the Publicans' Licences in Cappoquin were signed, Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, stating that there was no objection on behalf of the Guards.

The Supt. added that in the case of those publicans from outside Cappoquin, who were in the Dungarvan Guards' area, he had been informed by Supt. Walsh, Dungarvan, that there was no objection in those cases either, and all those licences were also signed by the Justice.

The usual Exemption Orders were renewed for all the Cappoquin Publicans which entitle them to open their premises at 7 a.m. on the mornings of Fair Days once a month.

CONFIRMATION OF TRANSFER

Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solr., Dungarvan, applied on behalf of Mrs. Mary Walsh, "Walsh's Hotel," Cappoquin, for confirmation of an interim transfer granted to her from her late husband William Walsh, who died last October.

Mr. Ryan said that Mrs. Walsh had been carrying on the licensed business in the Hotel, and everything was in perfect order as regards the transfer of the licence to her.

Supt. Quinlan stated that there was no objection, and confirmation of the transfer was accordingly granted.

RENEWAL OF DANCE HALL LICENCE

Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, applied on behalf of Mr. James Daly, for a renewal of the dance hall licence granted last September for the Boathouse Hall, Cappoquin, the property of the Cappoquin Rowing Club.

He said the present application was for a licence to hold eight all-night dances from 9 p.m. to 3 a.m. the hours granted last year being from 9 to 4.30 a.m., so that the Rowing Club was now voluntarily restricting the length of those dances by an hour and a half in order to comply with the wishes of the Bishop of Waterford in the matter.

They also wanted to hold eight Cinderella Dances from 9 p.m. to 1.30 a.m., these hours being the same as last year, and they wanted a licence for 40 Practice Dances from 8 to 11 p.m., which were also the same hours as those in force during the past year.

Mr. O'Gorman added that all the dances held in this hall were under the strict supervision of an efficient Committee, so that everything was carried out in the most proper and orderly manner, and not a single complaint had been made as to the manner in which they had been conducted during the year.

Supt. Quinlan said he had heard no complaints, and he had no objection to the hours asked for, (and there being no objection on behalf of the Clergy, the Justice granted the licence for the above hours, subject to the same conditions imposed last year, viz., that no persons under the age of 18 years be admitted to the dances, no intoxicating liquor to be consumed in the dance hall, and nobody outside a radius of 10-miles from Cappoquin to be admitted to Cinderella dances, there being no restriction as to area in the case of Practice and all-night dances.

UNLICENSED DOGS

Guard King, Cappagh, summoned Pk. Burke, Graigavura, Modeligo, for having an unlicensed dog in his possession, and defendant was fined 5/-.

ROAD NUISANCES

IN MEMORIAM

CURRAN—Fifth Anniversary—In sad and ever loving memory of my dear husband, Michael Curran, who departed this life, October 2nd, 1931. On whose soul Sweet Jesus have mercy. In the bosom of Thy Sacred Heart may his precious soul find rest. Inserted by his wife and daughter.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

BALFIN—Mrs. Hainin and family, Cross Bridge Street, Dungarvan, wish to thank all relatives and friends for their kindness and sympathy; also for Mass Cards, telegrams and letters received during the time of their recent sad bereavement. Trusting this acknowledgment will be accepted by all.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

BANK MANAGER WEDS—

At Mount Mellary Abbey, recently the marriage took place of Mr. James F. Bowen, Manager Provincial Bank, Dungarvan, son of the late Mr. P. Bowen, J. P. Monistown, Cork and Miss Eileen Flannery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Flannery, Churchtown, Mallow. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Ignatius, O.M.Cap., Kilkenny. Since his appointment to the Management of the Provincial Bank, Dungarvan, Mr. Bowen, has proved himself an expert in all matters of financial concern and is held in the highest esteem by the Bank's clients and his numerous friends. Heartiest congratulations are tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Bowen, with length of years in health and prosperity.

WINTER TIME—

Summer Time ends and Winter Time begins officially on Sunday morning next. At the Parish Church on Sunday Masses will be at 8.10, and 11 o'clock (old time) and at St. Augustine's at 8.0, 9.30, and 11 o'clock (old time). The weather outlook at present points to summerlike conditions, and that it will continue in that way until Xmas is the prayer of all who believe in the fine day as the cure for most ills.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN CONDON, O'CONNELL ST., DUNGARVAN

The death took place at his residence O'Connell street, on Sunday last of Mr. John Condon, after a brief illness and fortified by the rites of the church. The late Mr. Condon who had reached an advanced age farmed extensively in his young days at Ballykerrin, Modbury, but through adverse times he was forced to leave and settling down in Dungarvan as a Dairyman he built up a large trade and was a very popular citizen. He was associated with every popular national movement, and was a sound and consistent Irishman. He reared a most respectable family to whom the sincere sympathy of the general public is extended in their sorrow.—R.I.P.

There was a large concourse of mourners present at the removal of the remains to the Parish Church. On Tuesday the funeral took place at the family burial ground at Newcastle, the cortege being large and representative.

CHRISTIAN FRONT—

Meetings to form branches of the Christian Front are being held in various parts of this old land. What about a Branch for Dungarvan? No part of the country has a better record in the fight for the Church than the Co. Waterford. Was it not in this County that the great battle for Catholic Emancipation was fought over 100 years ago when in the General Election of 1826 Lord Stuart of Decies defeated the forces of reaction led by Lord Beresford and so paved the way for Daniel O'Connell to win Emancipation for his co-religionists and give freedom to our Church so long oppressed by penal enactments.

At the present time when the forces of good and evil, of Christ and Anti-Christ—are in the throes of conflict on the battle fields of Spain, it is only right that our good Catholic people should band themselves together in a solid Christian front and show the world at large that St. Patrick did not bless us and our land in vain, but that we are, as always, heroic defenders of our Priests, Nuns and religion.

GOLF DANCE—

There was a very big attendance at the annual dance of the Dungarvan Golf Club at the Ocean View Hotel, Clonca, on Wednesday night. Patrons from all the surrounding clubs were present and had a very enjoyable time. The music by Mr. Sylvester and his Accordion Band was excellent, and the catering left nothing to be desired. The Committee in charge were highly complimented on the excellence of the arrangements.

NURSING ASSOCIATION—

The Annual General Meeting of the Dungarvan and District Nursing Association will take place at the Town Hall, on Tuesday 6th October, at 8.30 p.m. All subscribers are welcome.

SCHOOL MEDICAL INSPECTION— The scheme for the Medical Inspection of school children of County Waterford which was adopted last year is now in operation in the Urban District of Dungarvan. The advantages to be gained by the routine examination of school-going children must be very great. We understand that under this system of examination disabilities and diseases in their early stages may be detected and steps taken to prevent their progressing to serious limits. The old saying "Prevention is better than cure" still holds good and for this reason parents are advised to take full advantage of the facilities offered. The Co. Medical Officer of Health (Dr. O'Farrell) will commence on an early date, full details of which will appear in a later issue of the "Observer."

FOOTBALL FINAL—

At Dublin last Sunday before an attendance of 50,000 (gate receipts £4,000) Mayo beat Leitrim in the All-Ireland Football Final by 4-11 to 0-5.

LOST AND FOUND—£2,000 BANK NOTE—

The police of New Jersey, are looking for some one who lost a £2,000 bank note without noticing it. Mrs. Worth, who found the money on the pavement hopes the loser will not be found as the Government Authorities informed her the £2,000 will then be hers.

A HARDY FELLOW—

According to the "Freeman's Journal" of July, 25th 1825, Mr. Ryland of Sackville St., Dublin, aged 95 years was married to Miss Frith, South Earl St., aged 17 years. There was a courageous hardy old man for you!

PREFERRED HER PIPE TO HER BREAKFAST AND LIVED TO 103 YEARS—

Died on the 5th November, 1821, in Cappoquin, Co. Waterford, at the advanced age of 103, Ellen Crotty. She was always in very humble circumstances, and very much addicted to smoking tobacco, of which she was so fond, as often to say, that she would prefer her pipe to her breakfast or dinner. She had several children, one of whom only survives her, a son aged about 68, who had the appearance of being her husband than her son. The poor fellow is in the greatest grief for her death, he having lived a bachelor and continually resided with her. (From "Freeman's Journal" Nov. 17th, 1821.)

BADMINTON—

A meeting of the 1935-'36 members of the Green Badminton Club will take place at Egan's Hotel, on Saturday 3rd inst., at 9 p.m. All who intend to rejoin are requested to attend. Intending members will please make application in writing before the meeting to J. Lynch, Hon. Sec.

45 DRIVE—

A 45 Drive (27 tables) will be held at the Scouts' Den, Abbeyside, on Sunday night commencing at 8 p.m. £3 in prizes.

SYMPATHY—

Touraneena File and Drum Band at their last meeting voted sympathy to John and Patrick Harris, Knockboy, on the death of their father and adjourned as a mark of respect.

IN SPAIN—

The Anti-Reds are pushing along to victory according to the reports from that country, but as there is no give or take on either side it will be a drawn out business. General O'Duffy who has been with the Patriotic forces at Burgos, was told that no foreign help in the shape of men to fight was required.

DEATH OF MISS KITTY BRETT—

The death took place at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Friday last, September 26th, after a protracted illness borne with true Christian fortitude of Miss Kitty Brett, Sarsfield St., Abbeyside.—R.I.P.

The deceased young lady was the possessor of a gentle and amiable disposition which endeared her to all who knew her. To her father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brett, as well as to her sister and brothers, the deep sympathy of the public is extended.

On Friday evening the remains, followed by a large cortege were removed to the Abbeyside Parish Church, where they were received by Very Rev. N. Dunphy, P.P., and on Saturday, after the celebration of Requiem Mass, the remains were laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

Accident— Mr. John Fives, lorry driver, at the Blackwater Co-Operative Society, Cappoquin, had his hand injured while unloading churns. He was attended by Dr. White and is all right again. Mr. Fives in a prominent member of the Rowing Club and helped his club to win several cups in the recent regatta season.

Good News For Farmers—

Farmers who may find it too expensive to fatten pigs for the Cappoquin Bacon Factory owing to the present high cost of feeding stuffs, will be glad to hear that the Factory will start purchasing Porkers on next Tuesday, 6th inst., and will continue to do so every week during the season at the highest possible prices. The experiment of purchasing and killing Porkers in the Cappoquin Factory was started only last year, but it proved so successful that the Management feels justified in continuing this branch of business this season, in addition to the purchase and killing of bacon pigs, for which a ready and profitable market will always be found here.

Poulard Gentleman's Recovery—

Mr. George Russell, who had been indisposed for some weeks past, has now returned home in the best of health and spirits, and has been warmly congratulated on his complete recovery by his hosts of friends here. He is one of the most popular young business men and a most generous and unassuming supporter of all classes of sport in Cappoquin.

The Rowing Club—

The usual dance licence having been granted for the Boathouse Hall at last week's District Court, all lovers of the Terschorean art in West Waterford will be glad to learn that the usual programme of dances will be carried out in this popular hall during the winter months, and that the usual Sunday night practice dances will commence on an early date, full details of which will appear in a later issue of the "Observer."

LISMORE NOTES.

Local Industries—

It is a matter for considerable comment that the people of Lismore, who are most energetic and enterprising would be so silent in the matter of securing some little public interest is taken in the matter and the people will have only to look around and see the various kinds of industries which have been established in other towns of the country.

Lismore Coursing Club Dance—

The Annual Dance under the auspices of the Lismore Coursing Club, took place in the Town Hall on Sunday night, when a brilliant assembly from the County Waterford and East Cork attended. There were about 150 couples on the floor. The beauty of the hall, its lighting and decorative effects were admired by all. Non-dancers had a full view of the floor from the balcony. Viewed from all points the assembly hall impressed as a modern affair which should be a distinct success as avenue for big dances.

Lismore On Sunday Last—

Close on 5,000 people were present in Lismore on Sunday last. This was the largest attendance ever at a hurling game at Lismore, and fittingly demonstrated the public's appreciation of the Gaelic pastimes. To add to the enjoyment of the day, the weather was delightful and that contributed greatly in popularising Lismore venue for sport.

After the match the town was crowded with visitors until about 11 o'clock, when the visiting team Mount Sion left for Waterford.

Waterford Meat Factory 100 Men Called Out On Strike

About 100 skilled and unskilled workers at the Waterford Co-Op Meat Company's factory have gone on strike. Mr. Dunne, T.C., secretary of the local branch of the I.T.G.W.U., to which the strikers belong, stated that the strike was due to the dismissal, which the union held to be wrongful, of one member. Picketing was carried out at the factory and at the shops in Waterford City and district where products of the factory are retailed. Several workers, members of the Engineering Union, remain at work.

YOUGHAL NOTES.

Carnegie Free Library— It has been somewhat of a reproach to Youghal hitherto that there was no public library—properly so called—in the town. The various institutions may have had libraries for their members, but these libraries, in addition to being confined, were also rather on the small side. In some years past we have had a "Carnegie Free Library" in which there was a limited supply of daily and weekly papers and also books. Unfortunately, though the latter include some interesting volumes, the number is too small and there is no change. The reading public will be glad to learn that the Urban Council have at long last come to terms with the Cork Co. Library, with the pleasing result that they can look forward in the near future to a substantial supply of literature, selected by experts and which will be changed periodically. So that in addition to providing a comfortable meeting room for the people during the long and dreary winter nights, those availing of it will have an opportunity of diving into some really interesting, books of travel, biography, fiction, etc. This is bound to be of immense advantage to many, who would otherwise be at a loss to fill their leisure hours otherwise, than fooling round trying "to kill time."

Shocking Conditions— Youghal being an old town—one of the oldest in the country probably—many of the older houses are consequently suffering from senile decay in addition to the effects of bad weather. With the assistance of the Government, the Urban Council has been endeavouring to get rid of this evil. Some of our older inhabitants will remember the numerous wretched lanes, in which dwelt some of them pretty large, "lived, moved and had their being," by degrees they are being closed up and the residents removed to cosy, new houses in healthy situations. Unfortunately there are quite a number of those wretched lanes still in existence. There is hardly a meeting of the Council, but complaints are received from poor people so situated, but owing to the law which "is very often an ass" the Council cannot give one of their vacant houses to perhaps the most deserving applicant. Quite recently a case came before them of a peculiarly distressing nature. A poor man, the father of 6 young children, wrote asking for a house. The roof of his own wretched home was in such a condition that the house was flooded after every heavy shower. A short time ago his wife had been confined and he was compelled to borrow an old mackintosh to cover her. Yet before he can qualify for one of the Council's houses, his own must be formally condemned, and even then, it is questionable if he can get it.

Dunne's Park— Is rapidly becoming perhaps the most popular rendezvous for the young people of the northern portion of the town. During the week evenings the youngsters assemble there and indulge in suitable games, the apparatus having been provided by means of a Carnegie grant. Instead of being cooped up in narrow lanes, or playing on the street, through which a stream of motor traffic with all its dangers constantly flows, they gather here after school hours, enjoying themselves to their hearts content, and with great benefit to their health. On Sunday afternoons the bigger youngsters come along, and eagerly watched by a big gathering of their elders indulge in various athletic competitions. For this purpose the town has been divided into North, Centre and South, and the rivalry between them is well worth seeing, and hearing even at a distance. So keenly do they play up to the game, whatever it is that, at times one or two leave the "field of battle" with scars of which they are evidently quite proud. Dunne's Park is evidently proving the means of developing a healthy spirit of fun and recreation, that deserves every encouragement. It is, indeed, a fine monument to the memory of the man who originated it—the late Mr. Patrick Dunne, Cork Hill.

BRIDES FOR HITLER'S GUARDS MUST COOK

Food worth £120,000,000 goes to waste every year in Germany, according to the official Ueolische Beobachter. Half of this loss is due to careless housekeeping, and the balance to losses incurred on the way from producer to consumer. Hitler Guards will in future get permission to marry if the bride can prove knowledge in housekeeping.

FIANNA FAIL

Meeting of West Waterford Ceanntair

Mr. Michael O'Ryan (Chairman) presided at the annual general meeting of the West Waterford Fianna Fail Comhairle Ceanntair, in Dungarvan. Mr. Sean Gouling, T.D. and Mr. J. Keyes, (organiser), attended, while there were delegates from 12 cummuns. Mr. Gouling appealed to the delegates to perfect organisation in the different areas, and thereby ensure proper working when the general election came. After having explained the Government programme, the speaker appealed to all true Irishmen to unite under the banner of Fianna Fail, which he considered was now the only true national Party in the Free State. Mr. Keyes also spoke and appealed to the delegates to work in the national interest in their own districts. Following discussion, it was decided to hold the annual collection on October 6th. All the outgoing officers were unanimously elected and the Chairman was appointed as delegate to the Ard Fheis and all resolutions were entrusted to him. A resolution was passed congratulating the electors of Galway and Wexford on the results of the recent by-elections.

MID-WATERFORD COMHAIRLE CEANNTAIR

At a meeting of the mid-Waterford Comhairle Ceanntair, Fianna Fail, held in the Temperance Hall, Kilmacthomas, Mr. T. J. Power, P.C., Kilrossanty (Chairman), and representatives of fourteen Cumannns were in attendance. A resolution of sympathy and regret at the death of Mr. Eamonn Deen, one of the pioneers of the Republican movement in Co. Waterford, was passed, on the motion of the Chairman, who paid a glowing tribute to the services of the deceased to the national cause. Mr. P. Tobin, Rathgarra, (hon. secretary), in seconding the resolution, also paid a nice tribute to the memory of the late Mr. Deen. Resolutions urging the speeding up of the housing scheme and Technical School for Kilmacthomas; the giving of grants for carrying out repairs to houses in all eligible applicants for same in the area, and of the distribution of acquired ranch lands to genuine evicted tenants and un-economic holders, were also passed. Mr. Sean Gouling, T.D., who was also present, then addressed the meeting and stressed the importance of maintaining the strength and efficiency of the organisation in the national interest. The Chairman announced that there were about 400 acres of suitable land, conveniently situated available for tree planting in the Ballyaneen district. Mr. Gouling said the planting of that acreage would give considerable employment, and he promised to put the project before the Forestry Board as soon as possible. A vote of thanks to Mr. Gouling was passed with acclamation, and the meeting concluded.

ANTI-REDS ADVANCE TO VICTORY IN SPAIN

SWIFTLY following up the capture of Toledo, General Franco is gathering his forces for a mass attack on Madrid. "We shall get there as fast as we can march," the Patriot leader is reported to have declared.

When the flying column of the Patriots entered Toledo it was immediately joined by the cadets of the Alcazar, who rushed wildly from the citadel as the first of the attackers reached the centre of the city.

Many of the women, overcome with joy at their liberation after the ten weeks' siege, fell on their knees and wept, while their husbands fought like furies through the Reds' ranks to join their newly-arrived comrades.

The Red forces in Toledo evacuated with little resistance, and took up defensive positions on the road to Madrid. The defence of Madrid is expected to be concentrated near Navalcarnero, 15 miles from the city, on the new motor road to Talavera, where a combined Patriot attack on two sides is likely to be delivered.

It is thought that the anti-Reds will lose no time in pushing eastwards to take the vital railway junction of Aranjuez, through which Madrid now gets all its supplies from the coast. If this is done and they succeed in investing the capital its population of just over 1,000,000 will be faced with the grim alternative of surrender or serious privation, as the normal water supplies, in addition to food, are drawn from some distance outside the city.

General Franco, on learning of the capture of Toledo by his troops, declared: "Now there is no time to waste. Madrid's plans of resistance make me smile." "We shall get there as fast as we can march, crushing whatever ridiculous resistance is attempted. In the capture of Toledo we were aided by the gallant defenders of the Alcazar. In the same way Nationalists living in Madrid will help us at the right moment."

"You notice," he added, "that in the two months of civil war the militia have learned to retreat in a military manner, as was shown in the Toledo battle. At the same time the Nationalists have become fully practised in storm and advance, and are still improving. Madrid will be captured soon."

Colonel Yague, who until a few days ago led the relief column to Toledo, is now back at Caceres, the Patriot G.H.Q. "Spain," he declares, "has found her saviours and a new ruler in General Franco."

O'DUFFY IS "GUEST OF HONOUR" IN SPAIN

ENTHUSIASTIC shouts went up in the old Plaza del Castillo in Pamplona, Spain, as a smiling grey-haired, pink-faced man was conducted through the crowd by senior officials of the city. That man wore no military uniform but a plain lounge suit and a soft felt hat.

General O'Duffy was receiving the "Olas" and "Givas" of the Carlists of Navarre.

When the General arrived at the Spanish frontier post of Alessandria with his Secretary the Carlist guards, who had instructions to admit no one on any pretext, waved aside his passport and conducted him to the captain of the guards with almost royal ceremony.

When he arrived in Pamplona he visited the military commander, the president and council of the province of Navarre, and the war committee of the Carlist movement.

In the Government building of the province he and his secretary were installed in the royal suite near the throne room. He received me with—"I am just going to say hoy d'ye do, and nothing more." He kept his word.

Later, in a car provided by the military commander, and with a military escort, he left Pamplona. I understand he plans to return to Ireland in two or three days.

By then he will know when and where will be wanted the 2,000 Irishmen who have been chosen from 10,000 who volunteered to come and fight on behalf of the Catholic faith.

SEED WHEAT

From communications which have been received by the Department of Agriculture in connection with the supply of seed wheat for the coming season, it appears that unusually high prices are being quoted for imported seed of winter varieties and in the circumstances merchants and growers have inquired as to the possibility of substituting home-grown seed.

The Department wish to point out that upwards of half the area devoted to wheat last season was planted with home-grown seed and that resultant crops were fully as satisfactory as those grown from imported seed. There is, therefore, no need to pay an excessive price for imported seed wheat. Farmers whose crops were reasonably true to type and saved in good condition need not hesitate to use their own seed or, alternatively, to procure seed from a grower who has a suitable variety or from a merchant stocking home grown seed.

It is also desired to direct the attention of growers to the fact that disappointing results were obtained last season from some lots of imported seed of spring varieties. Growers who are in a position to do so are advised to retain some of their own spring wheat for seed or to purchase it in due course from a reliable source. Where any doubt exists as to the germinating capacity of home-grown wheat a sample should be sent to the Department's Seed Testing Station to be tested for germination. Envelopes for the purpose may be obtained from the Department on application.

WAR AGAINST INFLUENZA

Prospect Of A Conquest

The final conquest of influenza was foreshadowed in a report at the Tercentenary Session of the Harvard Medical School and Medical Alumni Association at Cambridge (Mass.), according to Mr. W. L. Lawrence, in the "New York Times". Dr. Wilson G. Smillie reported on the development of a "hyper-immune serum" against influenza, and also on a vaccine which has immunised human beings against the disease.

The hyper-immune serum was developed at the National Institute for Medical Research, Hampstead, England, by Dr. P. P. Laidlaw. The vaccine was prepared by Dr. T. Francis, Junr., and Dr. T. P. Magill, of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, New York City.

"By subcutaneous inoculation of living influenza virus into horses," Dr. Smillie said, "Dr. Laidlaw had produced a hyper-immune serum which has great protective value to inoculated mice. Some degree of passive immunity was secured even 72 hours after the mice were injected."

"There were no reports as yet concerning the results that had been secured by treatment of human influenza patients with this serum."

"Doctors Francis and Magill," he said "have vaccinated a group of human volunteers with living tissue-culture virus of human influenza. Three subcutaneous injections were given at weekly intervals. No constitutional symptoms were produced. In every instance a marked and rapid increase in virus neutralisation bodies was determined by mouse protection tests in the serum of the subjects that submitted to the vaccination."

The virus of epidemic influenza, Dr. Smillie said, was widely distributed. All the strains isolated thus far were closely related antigenically. Infection with the virus produced a high degree of immunity which is apparently of short duration. Dr. Laidlaw had some evidence that the specific immunity following an attack had largely disappeared in two years. In animals this lost immunity might be rapidly regained by a single subcutaneous injection of living virus.

"These results," he added, "have led workers in this field to hope that it may be possible to produce artificially an active immunity in human beings against the virus of epidemic influenza. "It seems probable that such an immunity would be of short duration, but that it might be renewed by appropriate means."

Gravel From Foreshore

The Town Supt. (Mr. Troy) reported that M. Slattery, removed gravel from Claycote inside the breakwaters. When warned he said it was his own field.

Replying to Mr. Power, the Superintendent said that Slattery had been previously warned.

Mr. Daly said it was doubtful if he had power to act, if he took it from his own field.

Mr. Troy said that Slattery had been already warned by the Civic Guards.

The Chairman—He took the stuff inside the breakwaters, from his own field. Mr. Savage—Can he take it from his own field to the detriment of the protected works?

The Clerk said he was endangering the breakwaters by taking away the material. Mr. Power said they ought procure more particulars before moving in the matter.

The Clerk—Slattery was warned about it before.

The Chairman suggested that they write to Slattery.

Mr. Daly said they should find out their exact position in the matter.

The Clerk said the unfortunate aspect of the case was that the Council had registered a mortgage for £70 against the Slatterys for the removal of gravel some years ago, but they had not executed it. There had been a long correspondence and the Slatterys agreed not to take sand or gravel from certain parts.

Replying to Mr. Daly, the Clerk said it would be very serious, if the removal of the gravel weakened the breakwater.

Mr. Whelan said the Council were doing their best to protect the Strand and the removal of sand and gravel should be stopped.

It was decided to consult the Council's solicitors, Messrs. Hodnett, and to write to Slattery warning him.

Water To Mental Hospital

The Water Curator reported that the water meter at the Mental Hospital registered 87,000 gallons for the week as compared with 80,000 for the previous week.

Pound Question

The question of providing a pound and appointing a keeper was again taken up, and after a short discussion it was unanimously decided to adjourn it for six months.

Strand Church Fund

The Rev. M. Twomey, D.D., C.C., wrote on behalf of the Strand Church Committee, applying for the use of the Town Hall from December 16th to 27th, to hold a sale of work, amusements, etc., in aid of the fund.

On the proposition of Mr. Savage, seconded by Mr. Whelan, it was granted unanimously.

Rates On Clearance Areas.

The Local Government wrote stating that, as already pointed out with regard to the condemned houses in Murphy's Row and Kenny's Lane, and rates amounting to 40 15s. ad., the Minister had no power to authorise the writing off of rates legally due to the Council.

The Clerk said that once the notice appeared declaring them Clearance Areas landlords received no rents, and it, therefore, seemed very hard that the landlord should be asked to pay rates on property bringing in no revenue.

Mr. Savage said it was really unjust. The landlords in question got no compensation and their houses were demolished. It was adding insult to injury to ask them to pay rates.

Mr. Power—What can you do?

The Chairman—I see no way of getting out of it.

Mr. Whelan said the law in the matter was unfair and unjust.

On the proposition of Mr. Savage, seconded by Mr. Whelan, the Clerk was directed to write again to the Department pressing the Council's views.

Vacant Houses

The Local Government wrote re houses which were about to become vacant, stating that if the houses which are about to be vacated are houses in respect of which subsidy towards loan charges is payable they should be allotted to persons whose present houses are the subject of a confirmed Clearance Order.

The Minister also desired to know what was the present position as regards the demolition of houses in respect of which Clearance Orders had been confirmed.

The Clerk said the letter seemed rather strange in view of what had already taken place in similar circumstances.

Mr. Whelan—Do they refer to the future?

The Clerk—They couldn't, as they are not yet confirmed.

Mr. Daly—Are we in a position to put in a tenant not in a condemned area?

The Clerk said there was no reason why they could not fill a vacancy by condemning an individual house.

The Clerk was directed to communicate with the Department again.

Demolition

On the demolition question, the Clerk said the Local Government was already aware of the position.

Sympathy

Resolutions of sympathy were passed to the relatives of Eamonn O'Dee, ex-T.D. and Sean O'Glynn.

Mr. Keane, acting for Messrs. D. Casey, State Solicitor, Mitchelstown and E. A. Ryan, State Solicitor, Dungarvan.

Dance Licenses

Mr. Hodnett applied on behalf of Mr. M. H. Walsh, P.C., Town Clerk, for a renewal of the dance license for the Town Hall.

Supt. Kelly, Midleton, said there was no objection.

The application was granted.

Mr. Keane applied on behalf of Mr. R. L. Atkins, Strand Palace and Mr. D. McCarthy, Parochial Hall, Gurtroe, for a renewal of their dance licenses, which were granted.

Mr. Hodnett applied on behalf of Mrs. Susan Hurley, for a dance licence for a definite period on Sunday nights from 10 to 3 a.m.

There being no objection the application was granted.

License Transfers

Mr. Keane applied on behalf of Miss H. Riordan, North Main street, for confirmation of an ad interim transfer of a license already granted.

The application was granted.

A similar application by Mr. Keane, on behalf of Donal Keen, Brown street, was also granted.

A number of applications by Messrs. Keane and Hodnett for renewals of Wholesale Beer Dealers Licences and Exemption Orders were granted.

School Cases

Guard P. Reilly, Kilsenagh, had two farmers charged with the non-attendance of children at school.

In one case the defendant was fined 2/6, and in the other, a caution was given.

Guard Ceasar, charged Margaret Smyth, Youghal, with a like offence.

From the evidence it appeared the children's father was dead and the boy refused to go to school for the mother.

A nominal fine of 6d. was imposed with the object of qualifying the boy for committal to an Industrial School on a new summons.

No Lights

Guard Carroll, had a large number of persons charged with using unlighted cycles after lighting up time.

In imposing a fine of 2/6 in the majority of cases, the Justice said that a stop must be put to the practice of cycling without lights, and he wished to give notice to all concerned that he would impose heavy penalties in future.

Mr. P. Duane said the lesson would not be lost on the farmers of the country as to who was working for their welfare.

Mr. P. Joyce said the Minister for Agriculture and the millers ought realise that the farmers who stored his wheat should get some return for storage, and all the incidental expense. The millers ought be grateful to the Government for promoting wheat cultivation, and the farmers who produced the wheat.

Mr. M. Corry said as a member of the Grain Committee, he was thankful that their efforts were appreciated, but much yet remained to be done. Two big concerns in the country—the Sugar Company concerns and the millers—were anxious for a flat rate, and there was no encouragement to a farmer to produce a good crop. They got help from the Minister for Agriculture in the negotiations, but in regard to spring wheat their efforts did not meet with success. It was unfair that a man who sowed his wheat would receive a few shillings in the difference for his efforts.

Mr. C. Meaney said they would always have to be alive to the interests of the farmers. Food production was an important factor. At present Europe is a powder magazine, and in the event of a war, a blockade would be made on neutral countries. Food was essential, and the millers and general public should look on the matter in that light. Cash was no good if food was not available, and the farmer to produce it.

Mr. T. Hales said it would be well to point out to the Minister that wheat loses weight in storage, and there was a lot of consequential losses following the storing of grain.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Minister for helping the negotiations.

The Chairman said while they might at present congratulate themselves on the price obtained, perhaps in six months they would be dissatisfied. If a war breaks out the price of grain will soar. The weather this year was bad, and the ordinary yield was four or five sacks to the acre. The price charged by the merchants for seed was outrageously high in comparison to what the farmers got for the grain.

A resolution was passed asking the Council to consider the question of seed wheat at a reasonable price.

Mr. P. S. Murphy said they should advise their members to retain as much wheat for seed as they could.

Mr. Corry said it would be well to have a known that the Minister for Agriculture arranged with the millers to retain suitable wheat for seed and not sell it.

OATS AND BARLEY

Mr. Ahern said the prices for oats and barley should receive attention too. Oats were scarce this year, and the scarcity would adjust the price. Brewers and distillers were paying a low price for barley, but there was no reaction in the price of their products to the consumer.

Mr. Joyce—Could Mr. Corry, with his profound knowledge, tell us if five grains of barley would make a glass of whiskey (laughter)?

Mr. Corry—I do know that the farmer is not getting a fair crack of the whip from the brewers and distillers. The poor man's drink is as dear as ever.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the Board held a conference with a deputation from the Haulers' Association, recently formed in the Mallow area. The haulers representatives were Messrs John O'Leary, Donoughmore; J. A. Thompson, Mallow, and Jeremiah Murphy, Coachford.

The deputation explained that their association was about to amalgamate with the Carlow Beet Haulers' Association. They were confident that in the Mallow area the members of the association had sufficient lorries to deal with the transport of at least 23,000 tons of beet.

Mr. Meaney said while he would like to see the railway companies prospering, he would welcome a certain amount of healthy competition.

It was decided to hold a further conference on next Sunday, when the Haulers' Association will give details of their terms and conditions of transport.

Proposing a vote of thanks, Mr. P. O'Donoghue said the manner in which the Grain Committee handled the situation deserved the gratitude of the farmers for the greatest service rendered to farmers for a long time. There were difficulties in grain production this year, and with the improvement in the milling trade it was only fair that the farmers should get a share in the improvement. The Association and the Grain Committee had dealt with it in time, and the successful outcome of the negotiations was the most pleasing news for some time for the farmers. The Association had worked hard for the farmers, who were the backbone of the country (applause).

Mr. E. Ahern said that morning's papers had brought news of a meeting to the farmers. Some gentlemen in Cork City and parts of the county made a futile attempt to settle the question. They thought they would pluck the plums, but the successful negotiation of the Beet Growers Grain Committee knocked them out of court. They made an attempt for propaganda purposes about the wheat, but prior to that they were absolutely opposed to the policy initiated by the present Government to promote beet and wheat, but later availed of both schemes to push themselves forward. The Beet Growers' Association was doing a noble work helping towards the uplifting of the country, and one of the fruits of the work was apparent in the news of the day.

Mr. P. Duane said the lesson would not be lost on the farmers of the country as to who was working for their welfare.

Mr. P. Joyce said the Minister for Agriculture and the millers ought realise that the farmers who stored his wheat should get some return for storage, and all the incidental expense. The millers ought be grateful to the Government for promoting wheat cultivation, and the farmers who produced the wheat.

IRISH BEET GROWERS

Mallow Board Meeting

At the Hibernian Hotel, Mallow, there was held the general meeting of the newly-elected Mallow Board of the Irish Sugar Beet Growers' Association. Mr. W. O'Callaghan, Lombardstown, outgoing chairman, presided. The others present were—Messrs. C. Meaney, M.C.C., Millstreet, Vice-Chairman; P. S. Murphy, T.D., Mitchelstown; M. J. Corry, T.D., Cove Junction; E. Ahern, M.C.C., Dungourney; P. O'Regan, M.C.C., Charleville; T. Hales, T.D., Bandon; T. Looney, Burnfort; E. Cronin, Killarney; W. Desmond, M.C.C., Newcestown; T. Guiney, M.C.C., Kanturk; P. O'Donoghue, M.C.C., Coachford; M. O'Dwyer, Knocklog; P. Duane, Dungarvan; P. Joyce, Fermoy.

Mr. O'Callaghan and Mr. Meaney were re-elected unanimously as chairman and vice-chairman, respectively. It was decided that the working committee be the Chairman, vice-Chairman, with Messrs. Cronin, Duane and O'Donoghue. The five representatives of the Mallow factory area on the National Council of the Association were re-elected—Messrs O'Callaghan, Meaney, Joyce, Murphy and Corry.

A discussion took place on the lateness of the season this year owing to bad weather. It was decided to ask the Sugar Beet Factory management to postpone the opening of the manufacturing to Oct. 20th.

WHEAT PRICES

A vote of thanks was passed to the Grain Committee of the Association on the successful negotiations with the millers, whereby a good price was guaranteed for wheat.

Proposing a vote of thanks, Mr. P. O'Donoghue said the manner in which the Grain Committee handled the situation deserved the gratitude of the farmers for the greatest service rendered to farmers for a long time. There were difficulties in grain production this year, and with the improvement in the milling trade it was only fair that the farmers should get a share in the improvement. NORTH TIPPERARY CLERK OF WORKS

IS HE ANOTHER "CORK MAN"

For the position of Clerk of Works for Tountina and Templehallow New Bridges, eight applications were received by the finance committee of North Tipperary on last Wednesday week.

Mr. W. J. Chadwick, B.E., County Surveyor, wrote stating he had examined the applications for the positions, but had recommended Mr. Paul Humphreys, B.E., Lakeside Hotel, Ballina, Kilkaloe, who worked with him previously. The post carries with it remuneration at the rate of 46s. per week.

Mr. C. Meaney proposed, and Mr. Clery seconded the appointment of Mr. Humphreys.

The Chairman (Mr. J. B. O'Driscoll), managing Director Kilkaloe Slate Quarries, proposed the appointment of Mr. James J. McGrath, C.E., of the Cottage, Curragh, Ardmore, from whom there was also an application. He worked with him on a previous occasion, and he knew him to be an excellent man, and one who would give good service in the job.

Mr. C. Meaney—While I would rather see a Tipperaryman getting the position we are very pleased with the work Mr. Humphreys did on the Ballina Water-supply scheme. He gave great satisfaction, and did a very good job.

Mr. O'Driscoll—I think that Mr. McGrath would give equally good service if appointed, being equally qualified.

On the recommendation of Mr. Chadwick, B.E., Mr. Humphreys was appointed to the position.

OPEN SEASON GAME DATES

Mr. B. J. Newcombe, Secretary, Irish Game Protection Association, writes that the authorised Open Season dates for the seasons 1937-38 as fixed by order of the Minister for Justice are:—Wild duck, geese and plover, 12th August to end of February; pheasant, 12th August to 10th December; snipe and woodcock, 1st September to end of February; pheasant, 15th October to 31st January; partridge, 15th October to 15th November; hares, 26th September to end of February. The killing of taking of pheasants and partridge has been prohibited in Cork for this year.

Every holder of a (2) certificate should see that it is accompanied with the list of "open season's dates." Mr. Newcombe draws attention to the Minister's Order prohibiting the exportation of partridges, pheasants and grouse and the necessity for licensed game dealers observing the law as to dates for purchasing and selling game and keeping of registers for inspection. His Association desires to acknowledge the Government's realisation of the valuable asset game constitutes and the Association's desire to further every effort for its preservation.

IN SPAIN

Day by day the war goes on in Spain with increased bitterness on each side. How it can be stopped without the whole Spanish people being exterminated is the job. There appears to be no shortage of arms, ammunition, men or money on either side. Executions according to eye-witnesses have reached a gigantic scale in which men, women and even children pay the penalty. Priests, nuns and religious Communities have been treated with a ferocity never equalled before and the most Catholic country in the world is being presented with fendish cruelty. In the words of Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Bishop of Kilkaloe, the "Reds" in Spain, are killing against God and Jesus Christ like wild beasts.

POOR HONEY CROPS

The Department of Agriculture announces that owing to the poorness of this season's honey crop in the Searat, applications for licences to import honey, free of duty, will be considered in the case of manufacturers, wholesale distributors and retailers who purchased not less than one ton of Searat honey direct from producers or their Associations last season. Forms of application are to be obtained from the Department.
