DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

At the weekly meeting of the above Mr. T. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman, presided. Also present—Messrs J. Mansfield, P. Byrne, F. Quinn, J. Foley, J. J. Crotty.

Correction
Mr. Crotty asked if the tenants of the new houses could take in the electric light scheme only if they wished to. Clerk—There is no compulsion. Mr. Foley said that he wished to correct a statement in the Press. It was stated that: "I am dead against it" (Electric Light Scheme) whereas he meant that he was dead against it before the Scheme was explained.

Clearance Area
Regarding the clearance area, Mr. Foley said that it was not the Architects' business to certify the area as cleared. It was the duty of the B.S.

The Chairman also stated that the architects were not responsible for the clearing of the area.

The B.S. was accordingly instructed to inspect the area and give the necessary certificate where the owners had cleared the area to his satisfaction.

Mr. Dahill dissented from the order.

Milk Inspection
Adverting to his reported statement that "I would not like to be a Dairy man under that crowd" Mr. Quinn stated that the word crowd should have been cloud. He would not like to cast any aspersion on the responsible Minister he stated.

Ejection Order
Regarding the ejection order against a tenant in the Loughmore area. The tenant appeared before the meeting and stated that she would pay 6d. per week off the arrears.

Mr. Byrne proposed and Mr. Mansfield seconded that the matter be adjourned for a week to give the tenant a further opportunity of clearing off the arrears.

This was agreed on.

Unemployment Stamps
The Clerk stated that in respect of Denis Dec, caretaker of the water works, the Council were called upon to pay a sum of £36 due for stamps. He (the Clerk) said that when he became the official he only followed the precedent that was before him.

The payment was passed.

Widening of Sheare Street
On the proposition of Mr. J. F. Foley, seconded by Mr. Christopher, the Council decided to acquire 165 yards of Mr. J. J. Crotty's field for the sum of £20 with a view to widening of the road.

Mr. Foley—Mr. Crotty met the Council very fairly in giving them portion of his plot at Abbeyside for the improvement of the very dangerous corner at Sheare Street.

Sewerage
In connection with the application of the Technical Committee to be allowed to connect up with the Sewer at Shandon, the proposition of Mr. Foley's that for the purpose of draining the school the sewer be connected up with Davis Street and included in the proposed sewerage schemes, was passed.

Egan Fund
On the suggestion of the Chairman it was agreed that the local T.D.'s be written to regarding the fund opened some time ago for the dependents of the late John Egan.

Water Scheme
Concerning the water improvement scheme, the B.S. stated that the new alternative would give soft, more head. In his opinion the supply under the new scheme would be quite adequate. It was a better scheme than the first one but the other scheme was put forward first as it was the cheapest.

Applications For Hall
The hall was granted to the following Clubs—
The Dickens Leather Co. Sports Club Friday night November 6th; Garda Síochána, November 18th; Green Bardonian Club, Monday 2nd and Thursday 5th November.

The hall was also granted to the Cathal Brugha H. and F. Club, subject to payment in advance and an instalment off arrears.

Application For Water
Mr. Thomas Lannon, Quay, wrote asking to have a two-inch water pipe extended to the gate of his premises. The matter was referred to the Water Inspector for report.

Sewerage Works
A letter was read from the Ministry Local Government in regard to the preparation of plans, etc., in relation to the proposed sewerage schemes at Shandon Road and King Street, requesting an early reply to the Department's letter of the 30th.

Recent Discussion At Urban Council

REV. BRO. McMAHON'S REPLY

(To The Editor "Dungarvan Observer")

Dear Sir—In your last issue there appears a report of the proceedings at the Dungarvan Urban District Council, when a discussion took place on a report made by Mr. Walsh, Secretary Children's Health Committee, with regard to an interview he had with me, in which he asked me to meet a deputation from the Committee, with a view to our providing a room in the schools for the giving of meals to the poor boys attending our schools. I, as the Superior of the School and representing in Dungarvan the Order of which I am a member, have no grievance with regard to the manner in which Mr. Walsh reported our interview, but the discussion which followed on this, and the insulting remarks passed by some of the members, to which wide publicity has been given, has caused both myself and the Brothers associated with me considerable pain.

This question of our providing a room for the boys to have their meals in did not arise only the other day. Since the Committee was formed some years ago for the purpose of carrying out this very charitable work, both my predecessors and myself have been approached on more than one occasion with regard to providing facilities for the feeding of the boys attending the schools, and on each occasion the Superior had no difficulty in satisfying the Committee that this was entirely impracticable, as we have not at our disposal a room which could be devoted to the purpose. On the other hand, until lately, the room at which the boys got their meals was available and convenient, and I am given to understand that the chief objection to meals being still provided there is that cleaning up after the boys, interfered with the use of the premises by the members of the Club in the evenings. A moment's consideration should show to any reasonable person that the feeding of a great number of boys in one of our schoolrooms, and the consequent cleaning up after the meals by us, who are a male Community, would lead to the complete and absolute breakdown of our discipline and the dislocation of our teaching, and, after all, we do not profess to be any more than a teaching order, and our primary and sole duty to the poor boys and the others who come under our care is to see that they are educated during school hours.

When Mr. Walsh called on me, I did nothing more than to repeat what had already been said, namely, that we had no room and could not undertake the work, and that consequently, there was very little use in meeting a deputation to discuss the matter as it was entirely out of the question.

The Christian Brothers have never sought publicity or advertisement for the work they have been doing for the education of the poor of Ireland for years before Catholic Emancipation, and generation after generation of them have devoted their lives to this work, giving up all the ordinary pleasures of social life, and, therefore, I am sure it will be a matter that will give considerable pain to many of our friends that we should have been publicly insulted in the manner reported. For instance one of the members is reported to have said: "They ought to change their name." He did not rechristen us, but the insult intended should be plain and obvious to all. Another member is reported to have stated: "They are not up against the Committee but up against the poor people." The first-class Secondary education which the Christian Brothers have given, and still continue to give, not alone in Dungarvan, but throughout Ireland and in foreign lands; the number of boys who obtained and still obtain important and lucrative position in every walk of life, boys who could not pay a penny for their education, and could never have obtained these positions were it not for the gratuitous education they received from the Christian Brothers, are facts so well known that they need only be mentioned in order to refute the vile and baseless insinuations contained in the above remark. This member, with what object God only knows if he does not know himself, further is reported to have said that: "We have Spain in Dungarvan." Is he out to provoke an attack on Religious Orders?

Since the Christian Brothers came to Dungarvan in the year 1807 over 130 years ago, they have devoted themselves, in common with the other Brothers of the Order, as bound by their vows to do, to the gratuitous instruction of the poor, and it is well known that in the matter of education there has been no distinction between the poor boy, and the boy whose parents could afford to pay whatever small fees may be required, and it is a sad thing that I should now be driven to publish a letter such as this, in order to defend my Order from the insinuations referred to above, and I assure you that the necessity of having to do so has been a painful experience and I hope and trust that the occasion will never arise again.

Yours faithfully,
JAMES F. McMAHON,
Superior Christian Brothers,
5th Nov., 1936. Dungarvan.

DUNGARVAN CIRCUIT COURT.

Held on Wednesday before Mr. Justice Sealy, K.C.

Fahy v. Lyons

Mr. Ryan, solr., for applicant, Mr. McDonald, B.L., (instructed by Mr. T. C. Williams, solr.) for respondent.

Mr. Ryan said this was an equity civil bill brought by Thomas and Alice Fahy, Knockanaffrin, Ballymacarbry, against their son-in-law, James Lyons, in respect of charges on the lands of Knockanaffrin which were transferred to the defendant on his marriage to applicants daughter in consideration of a sum of £30 and the right of applicants to reside and be supported during their lives. Unfortunately the marriage was a complete failure, and at the last Circuit Court, on the recommendation of his Lordship, the parties were got together outside the Court and a settlement arrived at which was to the effect that the old couple would leave the house on payment by the defendant of 10/- a week. Defendant did not live up to this settlement.

Mrs. Fahy deposed that her daughter got married to the defendant who had returned from America in February 1934. A settlement was drawn up under which the lands and all the stock were transferred to the defendant. She was paid £100 with which she paid all the debts on the place and she was to receive £30 later on. Under the settlement she and her husband had a right to live and be supported in the place. About three weeks after the marriage there was a row between the husband and wife. Witness was not the cause of it, it occurred over the buying of two calves in Clonmel. She is not the cause of their unhappiness; her whole desire being that they should live together. Witness had ten sheep of her own on the mountain and when she would not give them to defendant he would not give her anything. He was good enough for the first year, but for two years he did not bring a bit of meat or butter to the house. He brought them into Jack Fahy's. Witness left the place on the 15th June because as she was feeding fowl she had to go to her hand and asked what she had to feed them. He caught the dish out of her hand and threw it over the fence, and made a kick at her, but she did not get it. Another time he put sulphur in her bed. Witness is 63 years and the defendant left her without fire and brought all the fowl he had out to Jack Fahy's. All the stock were now gone off the farm.

To his Lordship—Mr. Ryan said the farm consisted of 132 acres of which 70 acres was good land and 222 mountain. The valuation was £14 10s. Witness sent her husband to live with his sister and she went to live with her brother to give the young couple a chance. Witness would not go back to the house again, but would be willing to take any agreement made.

To Mr. McDonald, B.L.—Jack Fahy is a cousin of witness's husband. Witness was not to do the cooking; defendant's wife did it at first. Witness did not refuse to do it, but was not asked. There are only two beds in the house. Witness was not always nagging, but she admitted she called him names when he would not stop fighting. He was very tight about money. Witness cannot remember defendant bringing flour and she refusing to bake it. Since the row she did not bake any bread. Her daughter is now in service in Clonmel. Her daughter went back to her husband after the settlement at the last Court, but witness did not suggest she should leave him. She told her daughter she should live with him. All the stock are gone off the farm now except one cow. For two years witness never got anything but bread and tea except what she bought for herself. His wife had the money from the fowl and got no other penny but that. She went ever go back to live with Lyons.

To his Lordship—Witness said Lyons went to live at Jack Fahy's about August 1935. He would bring home flour and when he wanted it he would bring a bucket of it into Jack Fahy's. She had no turf to bake. Before he went to Fahy's they had their breakfast together and he had his other meals at Fahy's. That was between August and October. Then he had all his meals in the house up to June.

His Lordship—Then there was a row? Witness—Yes. Lyons went to town and sold a sow, but did not bring home any meat. His wife asked her father to get the horse and drive her to town for which she could sell. When defendant saw them with the horse he came out and there was a row. He struck his wife and then went and swore an information on her husband who was committed to a mental home.

James Lyons replying to Mr. McDonald, B.L., said he was married in 1934 and everything went well for about a year, and they all lived together. After that the mother-in-law was nagging and calling names to witness because there was no family. In June the time of the row the father-in-law was not fit to be in charge of the horse and witness took the horse off him. The house was never without plenty of food. After the row the wife took the bed out of his room and he had to sleep on the floor. He carried on as best he could for twelve months. He generally got his supplies from the Co-Operative Stores when he went with the milk. He brought meat, butter, tea and sugar from the Co-Operative Stores. After the row in June 1935 they locked away all the food. Witness had to get his own breakfast, while they were all in bed. He had to cook his own breakfast. Witness always had his meals in the house except when he was giving a day to any of his neighbours. He bought pigs heads and occasionally fresh meat. There was always plenty of milk. Witness had an acre of potatoes in 1935, but when they were dug out they were put in a loft over plaintiff sleeping room and he could not get one for himself they were all fed to the fowl. His wife lived with him about three weeks after the last Court. She then went to see her mother and when she came back the first thing she said was that her mother had £50 and witness would not get a halfpenny of it. Witness was willing to take them back.

MOLONEY v. MOLONEY

Mr. McGuire, B.L., (instructed by Mr. Ryan, solr.), for applicants.

Mr. McDonald, B.L., (instructed by Mr. Williams, solr.) for defendant.

Application by plaintiffs—Messrs. A. Moloney and Son, to his Lordship to review the amount of compensation granted by the Court to Daniel Hislop, in respect of an injury to his back on 6th February, 1935, while on the employment of applicants loading barley on a lorry.

Mr. McDonald explained that the accident took place on February 6th 1935. Hislop was in receipt of 26/3 a week compensation up to July 1936 when it was reduced to 17/- a week. Since July Hislop had made several attempts to get light work but had failed.

After hearing evidence from Hislop, Doctors Casey and McCarthy, His Lordship said it was sad to see this man in this condition. He looked perfectly strong and healthy. He had this accident which made it impossible to do ordinary work. The compensation was reduced from 26/6 to 17/- last July. Since then this man had to go to hospital. To his mind Hislop is at present capable of light work, but the labour market is in such a state that it is very hard for a man to get this work. He would increase the compensation to 20/- a week until further orders.

Molloy v. Lee
Mr. McGuire, B.L., (instructed by Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr.) for plaintiff.

Mr. McDonald, B.L., (instructed by Mr. E. A. Ryan, solr.) defended.

This was an application by Mr. P. Molloy, Bridge Street, Dungarvan, to review the amount of compensation, 16/- per week granted to Thomas Lee, Loughmore, Dungarvan, in respect of an injury to his leg on 27th February, 1935, while in the employment of Mr. Molloy erecting a monument in the Dungarvan cemetery.

Mr. McGuire, B.L., said that his case was that this workman has long since recovered from this accident, and that it is a case of malingering.

Dr. Shipsey, Waterford, said he examined Lee on November 1935, who complained of pains in the foot, leg and thigh. Witness found that there had been a fracture of two bones which had joined perfectly normal. He took X-Ray photographs (produced). He again examined him in May 1936, when he complained of stinging pains in the instep, leg and thigh and his nerves. He found nothing to account for his complaints. He again examined him today and found the same conditions. There is a certain amount of stiffness, through disuse of the leg. He had dealt with similar cases, but never one that took a year and eight months.

To Mr. McDonald, B.L.—Witness said Lee was not fit at the present time through disuse of the leg. He found on examination that two bones were broken. The tendons were damaged at the time of the accident, but had recovered. The man would not help in any way at the examination. Witness found no lack of action at any time in three of the toes. He didn't believe there is any necessity for Lee to walk on his heel. Lee is making no effort to get well.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

45 Drive

A great "45 Drive" in aid of the Melleray District Sacred Heart Band will be held in the Girls' National School, Mt. Melleray gate, on next Sunday 8th inst., commencing at 2 o'clock, sharp.

This splendid string Band was started only in the early part of this year by a number of the workmen employed at Mt. Melleray Monastery, who have since displayed such high-class musical talent and such rare proficiency with the violins and other instruments, that it has now reached such a high stage of perfection that its stirring and select programmes of Irish music are a treat to listen to. During the great Bazaar held in Cappoquin last June in aid of the Mount Melleray Abbey New Church Building Fund, delightful performances were given by the Band each evening, which formed some of the most attractive features of the event, so that it has a very strong claim on the generous support of the public, and we hope to see a record attendance of players at this popular "Drive" on next Sunday afternoon, as the substantial sum of £12 is offered in prizes, this being made up of £6 for the winning pair, £4 for the second pair and £2 for the third pair, so that this should attract all the best card-players from Melleray, Cappoquin and all the surrounding districts.

All the arrangements will be carried out in a perfect manner by Mr. John O'Brien, Hon. Sec., and an efficient Committee.

Rice's Talkie Pictures

Generous support continues to be given to "Rice's Talkie Pictures" in the Boat-house Cinema, on Tuesday and Friday nights each week, and it is evident that the people in Cappoquin and the surrounding districts have begun to fully appreciate this welcome form of indoor amusement during the long and dreary winter nights.

There was a very large audience present on Tuesday night when a splendid Dramatic Picture, "The Ringer" adapted from the novel by the late Edgar Wallace, was shown, and also the sparkling and romantic comedy, "Over The Garden Wall," and there should be another big audience on Friday night, 6th inst., when the sensational Aerial Picture, "Lost in the Stratosphere," and the brilliant comedy, "King Kelly of the U.S.A.," will figure on the screen. The full programme for next week will be found in our advt. columns.

The Rowing Club Concert

Active rehearsals are now in full swing for the vocal and instrumental concert to be held by the Rowing Club in a few week's time. No effort will be spared to make this event a rare vocal and musical treat, and with this end in view, all the available talent in Cappoquin and many other centres in the Co. Waterford is being recruited for the programme.

The Grand Drawing Of Prizes

A full report will be found in another column of the Grand Drawing of Prizes held here on Thursday night 29th ult., together with the full list of names and addresses of the prize-winners, but, alas, not a solitary name of a Cappoquin ticket holder will be found in the list.

Perhaps 'tis well, after all, that this should be so, because if some of the prizes were retained in Cappoquin it might be suggested by the uncharitable that the Draw was "faked," but the fact that they have been distributed throughout various distant parts of Ireland affords convincing proof that everything connected with the event was conducted in the fairest and most impartial manner.

The Feast of All Souls

The usual Practice Dance was not held in the Boat-house Hall on last Sunday night, owing to the Feast of All Souls, but a dance was held on the previous Wednesday night instead and was very well attended. The Practice Dances will be resumed on next Sunday night, and continued each Sunday night in future until the end of the season.

The usual household games associated with "Hallowe'en" were carried out in many homes on Saturday night, including the old-time sport of "Snap Apple," which provided endless amusement for the juveniles.

Several young girls of riper years, indulged in the interesting game of burning nuts on the bars of the grate to find out if their lovers were true to them. It is a pity that many of the grand old games and customs of the past should now have fallen into disuse, and be scoffed at by many of those living in a more materialistic age, because, after all, they were harmless and amusing in the extreme, and provided the occasion for many happy reunions amongst relatives and friends, as well as making Irish life far more bright and happy than it is in many cases today.

FREE MEAL TRAVEL

Free meals for long-distance passengers at approved restaurants at every meal-stop are now offered in certain omnibus lines in the United States.

Successful Sale of Land

On Tuesday, Mr. M. F. Walsh, P.C., Auctioneer, Cappoquin, offered for sale on behalf of Mr. T. F. Walsh, Touraneena, 45 acres, 2 roads and 39 perches of valuable land situated at Cloncoigale, Touraneena, held under an annuity of £6 17s. 3d., to the Irish Land Commission. After spirited bidding, the lot was knocked down to Mr. Michael Gleeson, Knockboy, for the sum of £140, and usual auction fees. Two other lots, comprising 47 and 25 acres, respectively, were withdrawn, as the reserve price was not reached, but private offers for the purchase of same will be received by the vendor, Mr. M. F. Walsh, Auctioneer, Cappoquin.

Reduction In Price of Pigs

A substantial decrease in the price for fat pigs has taken place this week following the new scale of prices fixed by the Pigs Marketing Board for the period Nov. 2nd to December, 6th. Under this scale the price for "Grade A" bacon pigs is 58/6 per cwt., dead weight; "Grade B" 57/- per cwt.; and "Grade C" 53/- per cwt., so that farmers can see the advantage of turning out only "Grade A" pigs, which are 3/6 a cwt. higher than those classified under "Grade C."

The new prices came into force in the Cappoquin Bacon Factory this week.

BLACKWATER FISHERIES.

DEPARTMENT AND RATES ARREARS

WAGES OF BAILIFFS

The monthly meeting of the Lismore Board of Fishery Conservators was held at the Grand Hotel, Fermoy. Mr. J. Kennedy (chairman) presided. Also present—Lord Charles Cavendish (vice-chairman), Major Longfield, Capt. Holroyd-Smith, Messrs. E. Hey, J. Power, T. Murphy, W. Dunne, W. O'Neill, W. Baldwin, M. J. Sheehan, Carey-Joyce, J. Hackett, M. Keniry, T. E. Montgomery, R. G. Annesley, E. P. Maxwell, and Ion Villiers Stuart.

The Department of Agriculture (Fisheries Branch) wrote with reference to the minutes of the Lismore Board of Conservators on 30th September, and to the decision at that meeting to withhold legal proceedings for recovery of fishery arrears until February next.

The Minister, the letter stated, was quite unable to acquiesce in the view that where the rated occupier of a fishery was not in actual receipt of an income therefrom, such person was released from liability for rates. He accordingly desired pressure should be brought to bear on defaulters to collect rates as, clearly, there was a danger of the protection service breaking down if rates were not collected, which would be very unfair to those who had paid their rates.

The Secretary (Mr. Drohan) stated he had over and over again at meetings directed attention to that point. The fact that fishing was not let did not exonerate the owner from liability to pay rates thereon. However, notwithstanding all that had been said, and the publicity given to the matter, the idea still prevailed that where there was no letting there was no legal responsibility for rates.

The Chairman—The Minister in his letter says rates must be paid. The Minister also wrote notifying the Board he could not acquiesce in any mitigation of the fine of £10, with costs, imposed on Thos. Keating, and Daniel Leahy, both of Fermoy, at Fermoy Court in June last, for a breach of the fishery regulations.

Bailiffs' Wages

Water Bailiffs M. J. Sinclair and Wm. O'Neill petitioned the Board requesting that their wages be 35s. weekly in closed as well as the open season.

Inspector Buckley said those men had a very big area to cover, which necessitated much travelling in the winter. The Secretary stated the men were employed about the third week in Jan., and kept on right into the summer. Within that period they had 35s. weekly, and 30s. for the remainder of the period. At the present time funds were getting tight and as in winter time the Board tried to man the river with as many men as possible, it took all their available cash for that purpose to do so.

In reply to Mr. Montgomery, the Secretary said all the bailiffs got 30s. weekly but they were only on the temporary staff. At present it was a question of trying to save all the money the Board could.

No action was taken on the letter. Arising out of a discussion at the previous meeting, Mr. Hackett asked if permission was to be given to the Fermoy Anglers' Association to fish for pike.

Chairman—No. The position is they can fish for pike, but not with the Board's permission. Major Longfield said a pike fisherman must use a gaff or a taffer. Nobody was permitted to use a gaff during the close season, but if the taffer was used no one could object. The danger was the disturbance of spawn during the close season.

Mr. Hackett said the danger of disturbing spawning beds would hardly arise at all. The Chairman pointed out that the Board was not preventing the Anglers' Association from fishing for pike but they could not give permission.

The May Conference

The following notice, handed in by Mr. Annesley, was discussed:—"With a view to avoiding all the irregularities in the proceedings of this Board in connection with the election of its representatives for the May Conference of Conservators in Dublin," as evidenced in (1) the Chairman suggested to the Clerk that Major Longfield should attend the Conference; (2) the Clerk in writing Major Longfield to send him notice of motion for forwarding to the Conference; (3) Major Longfield submitted his proposals to the Clerk for forwarding to the Conference; (4) the calling of a special meeting at insufficient notice, and (5) the proposing at the special meeting of a resolution affecting a member without due notice of motion—all the proceedings shall be declared out of order and expunged from the minutes."

Proposing the motion, Mr. Annesley said he did so to try to end this matter, which had been hanging fire since May last. Chairman—The first item is not correct. I did not suggest Major Longfield should attend the Conference.

Mr. Annesley—Now, my idea in bringing on this resolution was to try to stop this. I am, I think, the senior member of this Board. I was here in 1904, and during that time we all have made mistakes, and they must be overlooked if we are going to work together. I only ask that all this whole thing should be struck out and let us make a fresh start now that we are beginning a new financial year. Mr. Drohan has made a mistake and Major Longfield admits he made a mistake. The Chairman said he was on the Board since 1914 without a break and he never had any difference with anyone on the Board until latterly. Who started it? He asked.

Mr. Annesley—After all, we must have frequent views on certain questions. The net interest must be contrary to the rod

MOUNT MELLERAY ABBEY NEW CHURCH BUILDING FUND

SUCCESSFUL DRAWING OF PRIZES AND WHIST DRIVE IN CAPPOQUIN

A Grand Drawing of Prizes in aid of the Mount Melleray Abbey New Church Building Fund was held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall, Cappoquin, on Thursday night, October 29th and proved a remarkable success.

This event was a sequel to the very successful Bazaar held in Cappoquin last June in aid of the same worthy object, and the wonderful support accorded both events reflecting to a remarkable extent the great love and reverence entertained for the Lord Abbot and the Cistercian Community of Mount Melleray, as well as the burning desire of the public from all parts of the world to give their practical assistance by helping to pay the heavy expenses involved in the building of the magnificent new church now in course of erection there.

Although work on the new edifice was started only in the early part of last year, building operations have proceeded without a hitch, even in face of adverse weather conditions over long periods, and so satisfactory and expeditious has the work been carried out so far, that the new Chapter-house and Sacristy are now practically finished, whilst the Sanctuary of the great Church is ready for roofing, and wonderful progress has also been made with other parts of the sacred building.

This is a high tribute to the eminent Contractors for the work, Messrs. Maguire and Short, Dublin and Cork, and also to the efficient and experienced Foremen in charge, Messrs. V. Doyle and P. Banks, under whose able personal supervision the work has been carried out from the start. Although much has already been done, and it still remains a good deal of time and a heavy expenditure of money before this building is completed as a rare gem of structural art which will remain as an enduring monument to the great piety, zeal and enterprise of the Cistercian Community in embarking on such a stupendous project for the greater honour and glory of God.

The good Monks, however, have placed their trust in God, and their confidence in the inexhaustible generosity of the Irish people, as well as the Irish Catholics scattered throughout the globe, and that this confidence was not misplaced was proved by the generous support given to the Bazaar last June, a measure of support which was even exceeded in the case of the Grand Drawing of Prizes, for which tickets were purchased in every land where faithful Catholics are to be found, so that subscriptions poured in from practically all parts of the world.

The project of the Bazaar last June was initiated by Mr. M. J. Sargent, P.C., Cappoquin, who acted as Hon. Sec. of the representative committee formed from amongst the leading townsmen of Cappoquin, and no more efficient or energetic Hon. Sec. could have been found at the head of such a project.

Having made the Bazaar such a wonderful success, Mr. Sargent immediately set to work in organising a Grand Drawing of Prizes to be held some months later, and for several months past he has worked with untiring energy and enthusiasm in carrying out all the details, and sending thousands of books of tickets all over the world, and the marvellous success of the event now marks him as being an Organizer of boundless energy and resource, and one whose great services to Mount Melleray should never be forgotten by the Community.

There was a very large and representative gathering in the C.Y.M.S. Hall when the Drawing of Prizes took place, the Very Rev. T. Fitzgerald, P.P., Cappoquin, presiding over the function.

Amongst others on the platform were: Rev. Father Paul Barry, O.Cist., Mount Melleray; Rev. Father Malachy Dahill, O.Cist., do.; Rev. T. Murphy, C.C., Cappoquin; Mr. M. J. Sargent, Hon. Sec., and most of the members of the Committee.

The counterfoils, which numbered many thousands, were placed in a large revolving drum, after having been thoroughly mixed, and so fairly and impartially was the draw conducted that not a solitary prize was won by a holder of a ticket in Cappoquin or Melleray, although a huge number of tickets were held by the people of those districts.

The Very Rev. Chairman having briefly opened the proceedings in a witty and humorous address, warmly thanked all for the generous support which they had given to the Melleray Church Building Fund, after which the Draw was proceeded with, each counterfoil being carefully drawn from the drum in turn by two young local schoolboys who were selected from the audience.

The result of the Draw for the 12 valuable prizes was as follows:—1st Prize, £30, presented by the Organising Committee, won by Mr. Wm. Regan, 60, College Road, Cork; 2nd prize, Life-size Statue of the Sacred Heart, value £12, presented by the Lord Abbot, Mount Melleray, won by Mr. John Bailey, Ballinacorney, Co. Limerick; 3rd, Gold Watch, or its value, £10, presented by the Mount Melleray Seminary, won by Mr. M. C. Quigley, Clones, Co. Cavan; 4th, History of the Great War, 22 vols., presented by Mr. James Sheridan, Navan, won by Mr. P. Creed, Christ Church Place, Dublin; 5th, Splendid Gramophone and Records, presented by Mrs. M. C. Power, Baker and Confectioner, Dungarvan, won by Miss Kathleen Finn, Ballygarra, Cranford; 6th, Side of Cappoquin Bacon, presented by the Cappoquin Bacon Factory, won by Mrs. Cronin, The Lodge, Dunmanway; 7th, Overcoat, or its value £5, offered by the Glenacree Abbey Cistercian Convent Community, won by Mr.

Mr. Baldwin asked what authority Major Longfield had to propose his resignation at the Conference. Major Longfield—Are you going to start it all over again? Mr. Baldwin said he and others were there in the interests of the net fishermen who had to depend on the river for their livelihood, which was threatened by the action of Major Longfield. Major Longfield—I would do nothing of the kind. Mr. Keniry said the net fishermen would insist on their rights, no matter what the sacrifice. Mr. Annesley, again appealing for unity, said he had brought forward his resolution with that object. The whole thing was unfortunate, and should stop. Mr. Baldwin—Who started it?—You and Major Longfield. The Chairman again denied he suggested to the Clerk Major Longfield should attend the Conference, whereupon the Clerk said Major Longfield made his own suggestion to the Chairman.

The letter from the Clerk to Major Longfield asking for proposals having been quoted, Major Longfield said if the Chairman had instructed the Clerk to write to Dublin stating the proposals did not emanate from the Board, all would have been settled. Mr. G. P. Maxwell seconded the proposition of Mr. Annesley. Mr. Hey then proposed as an amendment, which was seconded by Mr. Baldwin:—"That the irregularities which have occurred were caused by Major Longfield and not by the Board; such being the case, the minutes to remain as entered."

On a poll there voted For the amendment—Lord Charles Cavendish, Messrs. Hey, Dunne, Murphy, Keniry, Holroyd-Smith, Carey-Joyce, Villiers Stuart, Power, O'Neill, Baldwin and the Chairman—(12). Against—Messrs. Hackett, Sheehan, Montgomery, Maxwell and Annesley—(5). Did not vote—Major Longfield. The amendment was declared carried.

MUSICAL TREAT AT TALLOW CELEBRITY CONCERT

Under the auspices of the Tallow Coursing Club, a musical treat was staged by the committee for its patrons at the Cinema Hall, on Wednesday night last. The entertainment opened with a delightful instrumental musical item by the Fermoy Revellers Party. This was followed by a song "Break O' Day" rendered fantastically by Miss Maureen Payne, Fermoy. Professor Seamus O'Mahoney, Mitchelstown, of Broadcasting fame, then thrilled the audience with a violin selection of Irish Airs, his playing of the Coflin in the second part of the programme, holding the audience spellbound. A Duet "Lambert Watch," by two local artists—Messrs. Frank Ryan and Thomas Clancy, was an item of outstanding melody, and merited the applause given it. Mrs. Fetherston of Dungarvan, another Broadcasting artist and well-known exponent of Operatic items, was heard to great advantage in her song "Coming Home," her listeners insisting on an encore. She provided a further treat in a Duet with Mr. Frank Ryan, entitled "Life's Dream is O'er," for which the audience would not be denied an encore, and their rendering of "Home to Our Mountains" was much appreciated by the packed house, rounds and rounds of applause ringing out.

As an interlude in the programme, dancing items for which Professor O'Mahoney, provided the music were given, which included Maureen O'Keefe, and they delighted the audience with reels, jigs and hornpipes, which merited the rounds of applause which were showered on them. Professor Fraser, and family, held the audience spellbound by their Gymnastic Display, and an Exhibition of Judo-Jitsu wrestling, in which Mr. A. Conway was Professor Fraser's partner was a special treat, which the male members thoroughly enjoyed, and by some of the weaker sex also. Messrs. F. Ryan, and T. Clancy, added further pleasure to the night's entertainment by their singing of Song of Songs and "My Dark Rosaleen" respectively. Mrs. Fetherston, by her singing of "The Last Rose of Summer" excelled her previous efforts. Miss Ita Murphy, was the accompanist and added further to her laurels on this occasion. Mr. James Cashman, N.T., made his debut at Stage Manager, in which capacity he excelled. The Entertainment was brought to a close by the playing of the National Anthem, all present standing in attention.

RESTRICTIONS PLACED ON MULTIPLE SHOPS

Because the growth of multiple shops and one-price stores is threatening the livelihoods of small shopkeepers in Belgium certain restrictions are to be placed on them. In future shops employing more than five assistants which desire to open new branches must first seek permission from the authorities. Similar permission is required before any more big stores be opened.

Dan O'Connell, Castlecree, Co. Cork; 8th, Stations of the Cross in Book Form, presented by the Loretto Convent, Navan, won by Mrs. O'Donnell, An 8-Day Medal Clock, presented by Cleary's Ltd., Dublin, won by "Never Lucky" 17, Morgan Street, Waterford; 10th, A Raleigh Bicycle, presented by Mr. M. J. Sargent, Cappoquin, won by Mr. Paddy Reale, 42, John's Hill, Waterford; 11th, Books, value £2 2s. od., presented by the Educational Co., of Ireland, Ltd., won by Mrs. J. Drohan, Scarahan, Kilmacthomas; 12th, Cut Glass Salad Bowl and Servers, presented by Mr. M. Roche, Jeweller, Cork, won by Mr. John McSweeney, Dublin Castle.

The special prize of £5 for the seller of the largest number of tickets was won by Miss M. Kirwan, Mount Melleray Seminary, Cappoquin; the Schools and College Prize was won by Mrs. Joseph Barry, Conna, N.S., Tallow; the Individual Student's Prize was won by Master Sean O'Gorman, Mount Melleray Seminary, and the prize for the Civid Guards' Competition was won by Garda M. Kelly, Banteer, Co. Cork.

At the conclusion of the Draw, Father Fitzgerald thanked all those who had so kindly assisted in the proceedings, but he was sorry that nobody from Cappoquin had won a prize, but, of course, this was all "the luck of the Draw," and only showed how fairly and honest everything connected with it had been conducted that night, (hear, hear). However, he hoped they would have better luck the next time, as they were not finished yet, and the people would get plenty of other opportunities of trying their luck on behalf of Mount Melleray on a future occasion (applause).

Immediately after the Draw in the C.Y.M.S. Hall, the entire party proceeded to the more spacious Boathouse Hall, where a Monster Whist Drive was held in support of the same Fund. This event was also very generously supported, as there were 45 tables occupied, representing 172 players, and this was not surprising, considering the unusually valuable prizes offered to the winners, which were the best ever seen at a similar "Drive" in Cappoquin.

All the arrangements were carried out in excellent style by Mr. M. J. Sargent, Hon. Sec., ably assisted by Messrs. M. F. Walsh, P.C., P. Cahill, Senr., T. E. Ebrill, B.A., J. McCarthy, B.A., H. Dip. Ed., V. P. Shiel, Mount Melleray Seminary; P. Cahill, do., Frank McDermot, do.; Martin Regan, do.; M. P. Carr, do.; Sean O'Gorman, do.; and Masters William and Michael Sargent, do.

The attendance was representative of every district in West Waterford, and all present spent a most interesting and profitable evening. Mr. R. J. Colander proved a most efficient and courteous M.C., and at the conclusion of a series of closely-contested games, the prize-winners were announced as follows:—Ladies Class—1st prize Magnificent Picture of The Madonna and Child, 3 ft. x 2 ft. 6 ins., won by Miss Gretta Waters with a score of 181.

2nd Splendid Silk Bedspread and a valuable cushion, won by Miss Kerfoot, Cappoquin, (177). 3rd The Stations of The Cross, in Book Form, a valuable Travelling Rug, won by Miss Chris. O'Donnell, Lismore, (175).

Three special number prizes were won by the following ladies:—Miss M. Tobin, Tourin House; Mrs. Bain, Ballyduff, and Miss Kathleen Rea, Cappoquin.

Gents Class—1st Prize, A Valuable Picture, 3 ft. 6 x 2 ft. 6 ins., depicting "Our Lord Disputing with the Doctors in the Temple," won by Mr. W. O'Neill, Lismore, after a tie with Mr. J. Lacey, Cappoquin, on a score of 177.

2nd—A Stuffed Hare mounted in Glass Case, and a case of valuable pipes, won by Mr. J. Lacey (177). 3rd—Safety Razor Set, in Nickel Case, and also a valuable Fruit Stand, won by Mr. J. F. Murphy, Ballyduff (176).

Three special number prizes were won by the following:—Messrs. J. Stack, Dungarvan; M. Flanagan, Mount Melleray Seminary and Jas. Donovan, Publican, Cappoquin.

After the prizes had been distributed, Mr. R. J. Colander, M.C., returned sincere thanks to all the ladies and gentlemen who had attended from such distant parts of West Waterford that night in order to support the Mount Melleray Church Building Fund, and he could assure them that the Lord Abbot and Community would deeply appreciate their generosity in turning up in such large numbers for such a worthy and deserving object (applause).

THE INSPIRATION OF MATT TALBOT

MOST REV. DR. KINANE'S VIEW

In olden times Ireland was known as "The Island of Saints and Scholars," but in modern times they had produced no canonised saint, said Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, when, at the Theatre Royal, Waterford, he introduced Sir Joseph Glynn, who lectured on "Matt Talbot and his Friends."

He was inclined to believe, his Lordship added, that their failure in regard to saints was chiefly due to the absence of that wonderful atmosphere which permeated the families to which saints belonged. Their failure in that important matter was a reproach to them. Matt Talbot's life was a light and inspiration to the Catholic faith. It showed them to what sanctity they might attain and stimulate them towards its attainment.

His Lordship described Sir Joseph Glynn as the greatest authority there was on the subject of the lecture. But for Sir Joseph's labours and research, he added, Matt Talbot would, in all probability, have remained unknown.

TALLOW REPUBLICAN MEMORIAL

The committee in charge of the above held a most successful "45" Card Drive on Sunday night week in the Cinema Hall, Tallow. First Rounds, Semi-Finals and Finals were played off, and keen card playing was the order of the night. Messrs. George Curran and Patrick Grey, were declared the winners of the first prize. Miss Kemeally and partner, Grange, Youghal, for whom two substitutes played, winning second prize, the third prize being won by Messrs. J. O'Brien and P. Keating, Lismore. Supporters from Youghal, Middleton, Duncorney, Piltown, Lismore, Cappoquin, Mount Melleray, Ballyduff, etc., attended. All of whom expressed themselves delighted with the night's entertainment.

The proceeds of the drive are intended to augment the funds already collected for erecting suitable memorials to the

KILMACTHOMA

AN IRISH IRELAND

The well-known Irish song Downey has a big band of pupils at Kilmacthoma, teaching lessons in the Irish step-dancing. The Ceilidhe on Friday night and this is immensely enjoyed by the pupils in the neighbourhood. Downey has a class of pupils in the neighbourhood of Lismore, and the members of the League has just been and a very energetic work has been formed. With assistance, the Butterstown stage a Feis there next week.

POPULAR BANK CLERK TRANSFERRED

Mr. Cornelius O'Farrell, clerical Bank, Kilmacthoma, transferred on promotion to City Branch of the Bank of Ireland for the past few years, he displayed notable ability as a sportsman, and an estimable gentleman. His friends locally unite in him continuous success. Mr. O'Farrell is a native of Kilmacthoma. Mr. Fred Tilson, from branch, is now in charge.

A DISTINGUISHED SOPHIST BROADCAST

At 8 o'clock on the night of the 5th, the Radio Athlone Broadcasting Station pleasure of hearing "Keep Dreams" (the song by Richard Tauber) sung by a young vocalist furnished the condition of the beautiful melody, by the way, is a daughter of Mrs. C. J. Halpin, B. Cloness, Carrick-on-Suir, and faces a brilliant future in song.

HALLOWEEN

Hallowe'en was observed with many of its old traditions. The occasion, longer linked with ghosts, and hobgoblins. These superstitions at least, have been purged from the popular imagination. We dare say there are some Ireland still prepared to believe that spirits haunt the night, and many a maiden of a new lease of hope on a when a roasted nut proclaims it is nice to think that people such as we are hope the Deise some can still almost childlike simplicity of a blazing nut. The scorn the challenger of an "apparition" is even has to do with "Loves Vow."

CIVIC GUARD TRANSFERRED

Guard Michael Naughton, stationed at Leamydown, months, left there on Wednesday, on transfer to Dublin, him the best wishes of the district, as during his term he proved himself straight right as well as courteous of his duty.

KILMATHOMAS NEWS.

AN IRISH IRELAND ITEM—

The well-known Irish teacher, Mr. Sean Downey has a big band of enthusiastic pupils at Kilmaden, to whom he is giving lessons in the Irish language and in Irish step-dancing.

POPULAR BANK CLERK TRANSFERRED—

Mr. Cornelius O'Farrell, of the Provincial Bank, Kilmathomas, has just been transferred on promotion to the Waterford City Branch of the Bank.

A DISTINGUISHED SOPRANO'S BROADCAST—

At 8 o'clock on the night of the 28th ult. listeners-in to the Radio programme of the Athlone Broadcasting Station had the pleasure of hearing "Vienna, City of My Dreams" (the song immortalised by Richard Tauber) sung by Miss Pearl Halpin, who is a Gold Medalist at this year's Father Mathew Fests (Dublin).

HALLOWEEN—

Halloween was observed in Kilmathomas with many of its old customs and traditions. The occasion, however, is no longer linked with ghosts, witches, spirits and hobgoblins.

CIVIC GUARD TRANSFERRED—

Guard Michael Naughton, who had been stationed at Leamybrien for the past 18 months, left there on Wednesday last (4th inst) on transfer to Dublin, and takes with him the best wishes of the people of the district.

We Put It To You (Serious And Not)—

That every genuine Sliabh Gúna gentleman has a dream kitchen, the kind of room in which he can move freely— That the "At Home" held by the Metal Man on Monday opened "Umbrella Week" in Tramore—

AND—

That there is a limit, even in these days to how far romance can go in the Rathgormack region. That a person who draws things on the blotting paper while he is trying to concentrate is dubbed a "doodler" by the always wise and witty women of Windgap—

WINTER—

With the installation of winter the hot water bottle has come into its own again and out of Comeragh Valley. For several months it has lain dormant in some obscure corner of the house with never a second thought cast in its direction, but now it has been retrieved and installed into its rightful place.

YOUGHAL NOTES.

Nothing Doing—

The past week has been about the quietest and tamest experienced locally for a long time. Our usual sources of news, the Urban Council and the District Court, failed us with the result above referred to.

Late Mr. Edward Fitzgerald—

Time after time it becomes our painful duty to record the passing of "old landmarks." This week it is that of Mr. Edward—or "Ned" as he was better known—Fitzgerald, of McCurtainstown, formerly Williamstown, some years ago a well-known and highly popular member of the staff of the local Post Office.

Late Mrs. Richard Morgan—

General regret and sympathy was aroused by the sad and entirely unexpected death of the wife of Mr. R. Morgan, North Main street, on Monday. It appears the deceased lady was in her usual health up to Sunday. On that evening she was taken ill. Although everything possible was done, she succumbed the following morning.

League Of The Cross—

The Youghal Coursing Club having recently made a fine gesture to other bodies in the region of sport, that admirable institution, the League of the Cross, has now come forward with a similar move in another and an even more important direction.

LISMORE NOTES.

G. A. A.—

Our minor hurling team travel to Dungarvan on Sunday next to contest the final of the County. We hope that the match will be more of a manly affair than the Junior Hurling Final and the victory for either side will be earned.

Mr. Melleary District String Band—

The finals of the '45' Drive in aid of the above will be played off at Mount Melleary Schoolhouse on Sunday next, November 14th, at 2 p.m. The Committee in charge are making elaborate arrangements to ensure that everything will be carried out without a hitch.

Rice's Talks—

The people of Lisimore have the pleasure of seeing the Talks once again in their midst, at the Cinema Hall. Mr. Rice intends to show pictures on two nights weekly.

Lisimore Coursing Club—

At a recent meeting of the above the Club decided with the permission of the Tallow Club to run off a Cup on the Tallow Club preserves on Sunday December 14th.

DEATHS IN EAST WATERFORD

There was a large attendance at High Mass at Carrickbeg Church, for the repose of the soul of the late Mr. Michael O'Mahony, Clonea. The interment took place at Carrickbeg Parish Church cemetery.

REWARD FOR BRAVERY

At Carrick-on-Suir Urban Council on Monday, the Chairman (Mr. P. Kenny) presented the Royal Humane Society's Parchment Certificate and £1 to Thomas Treacy, Carrickbeg, for having saved a child from drowning in the river Suir on August 7th last.

SAINT ANTHONY WONDER-WORKER!

Clients of Saint Anthony, seeking favours through his intercession are reminded of an offering for 1936 for "St. ANTHONY'S BREAD" and LAMP at Shrine at Convent of Mercy, Stradbally, Co. Waterford.

alone does this afford recreation, but it also tends to bring out and develop the faculties. It is to be hoped that the example thus set will be followed by other local societies.

EASY MONEY—

If there were not such serious considerations in the background, it would be actually comical to see the rush of all sorts and conditions of men, women and even children to bet on a race, about which they know practically, little or nothing. In many cases it is not the matter of getting a bit of a thrill, but of "Cows afloat wearing very long horns."

The Clock Gate—

For many years past the old Clock Gate has been quite a blot on the locality. The dome was actually black with the dirt of years and it was almost impossible to make out the time of day, not to mention the night. This state of things was recognised by the Urban Council, who on several occasions invited tenders for painting it, etc., but with no result.

Called To The Bar—

Among the students of the King's Inn, Dublin, admitted to practice in the Courts of Saorstát Eireann, in the Supreme Court, Dublin, on Monday, was Mr. John Gordon Hurley, son of Mrs. S. Hurley, Esplanade Hotel, Youghal. The new b.L., has the best wishes of his fellow-townspersons for his future success.

WATERFORD V. LIMERICK

Limerick, 4-3; Waterford, 2-3

At Limerick on Sunday in bad weather and in a sodden pitch Waterford after a great game were defeated by the Limerick Champions on the score of 4-3, to 2-3. Limerick had the better of the opening exchanges, keeping their rivals on the defensive for many exciting moments.

Big Waterford Improvement

In the second half Waterford's display was a vast improvement on their first half performances and Limerick were fortunate in having compiled an initial margin sufficient to meet the scores registered by the visiting side in the concluding stage of the game, which continued in dreaching showers.

LOCAL HAPPINESS

DUNGARVAN HOUSES

Now that the Department of Local Government has sanctioned a scheme of houses to be built on Grath's field and in the site, the public may rest assured that the Urban Council will be making the necessary preparations out and all preparations ahead with the scheme. The carrying out of the scheme will create much local employment needed.

OUR NEW HOSPITAL

It is to be hoped that the Government will be taken to have the new hospital proceed with all possible haste. As a matter of fact, the money is available from Sweep Funds. Nothing more than the erection of a modern Hospital here. The Hospital is far too small for all who need its aid. In not all the modern equipment to-date Hospital, and it is to Dr. McCarthy and his Staff in that it does not offer opportunity of carrying out duties under the best conditions. There is no hope no time will be lost with this most necessary interests of the community are dependent on it.

A Gift to Waterford Free Library—Historical and Political Addresses of John Redmond

A very interesting book for Waterford people has just been presented to the Waterford Public Free Library by the well-known archeologist, Mr. James Coleman, of Cobh. The title is "Historical and Political Addresses by John E. Redmond, M.P., from 1883 to 1907." The volume is excellently bound and printed. The Donor has inserted a number of Press photographs of the late John Redmond, also an autograph letter of invitation to English Journalists sent by the Irish Leader from the House of Commons in 1904 to a meeting that was convened in London for the purpose of enlightening the English people on the principles and policy of the Irish Party at a critical period in the history of British politics. Not long ago Mr. Coleman made another generous gift of three very valuable books to the Waterford Library, viz., "Smith's History of Waterford," "Ryland's History of Waterford," and "Hassards History of Waterford." The three volumes are well preserved and will be available for students of history in the Reference Department of the Free Library.

Asphalt—The Best Road Metal For City Streets

The South of Ireland Asphalt Company are at present re-surfacing a number of streets in Waterford City, the cost of which is being defrayed out of the Road Board Grant. The operations of the Company as the name might imply are not confined to the South; for a few years ago I noticed the employees of the firm laying new roadways in Drogheda and other towns up North. Asphalt is described as a smooth hard bituminous substance—a mixture of bitumen, pitch and sand. It is considered far superior to concrete for city streets. The Asphalt surface has qualities of resistance and durability which renders it very suitable for heavy traffic and a very economic method of road-metalling; and it is much more presentable than the concrete roadway. There is an additional advantage that it does not produce thunderous traffic sounds. The Quay is one of the longest and most spacious thoroughfares of any city in Ireland. A huge volume of traffic passes over it daily. The splendid three-inch asphalt surface on the Quay roadway looks as good today as when Messrs. Moran of Dublin finished the job over eight years ago. There was a complaint of horses slipping on the smooth surface. The animals quickly adapted themselves to the up-to-date road metal and accidents were very few and far between. If there was any mishap it was generally a country horse that came a cropper!

Luke Wadding—The Great Waterford Man Who Introduced St. Patrick's Day Festival

In his recent broadcast on the County Waterford, Very Rev. Canon Power, referred to Father Luke Wadding, O.F.M., as probably the greatest Irishman of all time. In a Memoir of Luke Wadding, written by Dr. Gregory Cleary, O.F.M., and published in 1925 on the occasion of the Tercentenary of St. Isidore's, Rome, the learned writer says: "It is no exaggeration to add that to write the full history of Wadding's life in Rome is to write the history of the Church in Ireland during a large part of the seventeenth century. Each year on March 17th Wadding celebrated the Feast of St. Patrick in the Church and College of St. Isidore, with great solemnity. And we owe it to his influence that the name of our National Patron was inscribed in the Calendar of the Universal Church. He himself tells us so in the Annals, observing that as far back as 1390 a General Chapter of the Franciscans ordered the Festival of St. Patrick to be kept in the whole Order."

The Feast of Saint Otteran—A Name That is Very Scarcely Known

The Feast of Saint Otteran, patron of the Diocese of Waterford, took place on Tuesday, October 27th. In commemoration of the event Solemn High Mass was celebrated in the Cathedral at which His Lordship, the Bishop, the Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, presided. The music of the Mass was beautifully sung by the students of St. John's College. It is surprising how little is known about the life of St. Otteran. He is regarded as a hidden saint. In Waterford city there is a very nice street named after him—St. Otteran Place, South Parade. The extensive schools at Philip street, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy are called St. Otteran's Schools. What surprises me is: how few Waterford men are christened Otteran. In the neighbouring diocese of Ossory there are quite a host of men and boys bearing the name Kieran—called after St. Kieran, Patron of the Diocese. A suggestion which is made by an Irish-land Sogarth is that: the second Christian name given to Irish boys and girls should be that of our Irish saint. The custom that has obtained of giving Irish children the name of their parents or grand-parents need not be altered. The names of Irish saints should be more prominent in the Island of Saints. There is a grand catalogue of names to draw upon.

Painting Commenced—Caused by An "Outward Push"

A correspondent has asked me the question: Why come sting at the approach of wet weather? I have consulted a first-class authority on the subject—a doctor of Science. Here is his explanation: Normally the internal pressure of the body is equal to the external atmospheric pressure. Under this circumstance if a shoe is a good fit no discomfort is felt from a corn. At the approach of bad weather the atmospheric pressure decreases and the result is a difference in pressure between the atmosphere and the interior of the body. This means an "outward push" the corn being literally squeezed between the shoe and the bone of the toe.

A Busy Week For Corporators

There has been a temporary cessation of Committee meetings of the Corporation during the period of the Sworn Inquiry, due to the fact that officials have been very busy preparing data for the Inquiry. The business proper of the Corporation was resumed this week when a Committee meeting of the whole House was held on Monday Nov. 2nd, also a meeting of the Schools Meals Committee. The usual monthly meeting of the Corporation took place on Thursday Nov. 6th. There was also a meeting of the Home Assistance Committee on Tuesday Nov. 3rd, as well as the monthly meeting of the Maternity and Child Welfare Committee. There are many activities of the general public have a very vague idea.

Raising The Wind—In Remote Rural Areas

In the window of Mr. T. J. Sheridan's Cycle Depot, Parade Quay, I noticed what resembled the propeller of a small aeroplane spinning around—the motion was similar to that which takes place when a flying man puts the blades in motion preparatory to doing a taxi for a jump off. The propeller which I saw has nothing to do with aeroplane equipment. It is called a wind charger and ingenious piece of mechanism which is used for charging wireless batteries in country districts where a supply of electricity is not available. The propeller is fixed to a gable-end of a house like a windmill, and when the autumn breezes blow the owner of a wireless set gets his music, etc., as the propeller fans the air. It is interesting to note that there is a storage battery attached so that in the case of dead calm weather ensuring there is a reserve of electric power to keep the machine going for thirty hours. In our breezy climate there should be no difficulty in "raising the wind" in remote rural areas to keep listeners-in in constant touch with world affairs. The wild wind however, will play a different tune to that which it whistled through the door in the bye-gone happy days of yore!

The Need For A Public Ambulance

The need for an ambulance for accident cases in the Waterford City is generally admitted: it is a service just as essential as fire brigade equipment. The Workers' Council have passed a resolution asking for the provision of an ambulance, and Dr. Vincent White, Surgeon County Hospital, has stressed the necessity for such a conveyance in a letter to the Press not long ago. According to statements made at the last meeting of the Waterford County Board of Public Assistance the County Hospital ambulances are only available for conveying patients to the County Hospital. I think that the second County Hospital ambulance should be utilised for the City. The problem would be the payment of the driver. It should be possible to make arrangements whereby the expenditure for the driver's wages and insurance would be shared by the Corporation and the County and City Infirmary and possibly Maypark Hospital. A charge could be made for the conveyance of private cases which would help to cover the cost of the service. The experience of the past twelve months when we had serious city accidents cases brought to the County Infirmary in motor lorries and motor delivery vans should be sufficient to prove the absolute need for more humanitarian and up-to-date methods of dealing with injured persons.

CO. WATERFORD I.N.T.O.'s PROTEST AGAINST SPANISH ATROCITIES

Mr. J. Connelly, presided at a special meeting of the Committee of Co. Waterford I.N.T.O. held in Dungarvan. Others present—Messrs. Wade (Waterford), Miss Brennock (Dungarvan); Messrs. B. Thompson (Waterford); J. Walsh (Dungarvan); F. O'Leary, (Lismore).

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:—"That we condemn and deplore the atrocities committed in Spain, the denial of the name of God, the burning and destruction of Catholic Churches, the terrifying cruelties committed on Bishops, Nuns and Priests, as well as on lay citizens. We assure the Catholic people there of our sympathy in their fight for civilization and we offer them our material support." Proposed by Mr. J. Connelly, seconded by Mr. F. O'Leary.

The following was adopted on the proposition of Miss Wade seconded by Miss Brennock:—"That we emphatically demand that the best interests of education regulations concerning to Irish National teachers security of tenure during good conduct and efficient service. That under present conditions the teachers cannot possibly give of their best, while the terror of averages which hangs over them to the detriment both of health and efficiency." Proposed by Mr. Thompson and seconded by Mr. Brennock: "That we again urgently demand the restoration of the 1923 cuts on teachers salaries. That we resent glaringly unfair discrimination against the teaching body in this respect. We are the one body of public servants in the Irish Free State whose salaries have not been restored. From the treatment meted out to us we cannot help feeling that the protestations regarding the restoration of the Irish language are merely hypocritical." Proposed by Mr. Thompson, seconded

Death of Mr. James Clancy, Coolydoody, Tallow

Very deep regret has been caused over a large area of West Waterford and East Cork by the death of Mr. James Clancy, Coolydoody, Tallow, which took place at his residence on Tuesday after a prolonged illness, borne with Christian fortitude. The funeral, which took place on Wednesday week to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Tallow, was a most representative one and bore testimony to the esteem in which the deceased, his family and friends are held.

The interment took place on Thursday in the adjoining cemetery at the conclusion of Solemn High Mass and Office, which was celebrated for the repose of his soul. Very Rev. Canon Prendergast, P.P., presided at the ceremonies, the celebrant being Rev. Father Carey, C.C., Youghal (cousin of deceased); deacon, Rev. Fr. Corbett, C.C., Tallow; sub-deacon Rev. Fr. Hickey, C.C., Knockanore.

In the choir were—Rev. M. Morrissey, Adm., Knockanore; Very Rev. M. Dowley, Ballyduff, Rev. J. O'Connor, C.C., Lismore; Rev. J. Walsh, C.C., Ballyduff; Rev. J. Law, C.C., Lismore. The chief mourners at the funeral and interment were—Mrs. Clancy (widow); Donald and James Clancy (sons); Gertrude, Catherine, Patricia (daughters); Miss Hannah Clancy (sister); Mrs. Patk. Condon, Kilmacow, Tallow, Mrs. Wm. Smiddy, Beanfield, Youghal (sisters-in-law); Wm. Gould, Coolcap, Killeagh, Co. The funeral arrangements were admirably carried out by Michael Lynch, Undertaker, Tallow.

Mr. Brennock:—"That the heating, cleaning and upkeep of our schools should be defrayed entirely from the rental funds. That under present conditions many of our schools are a disgrace and a serious menace to public health. This is a matter which deserves immediate attention in National interest and if neglected dire results will follow."

14 YEAR OLD GIRL'S FATAL FALL FROM BICYCLE

Death from shock and haemorrhage was the cause of an infant's death at Carrick-on-Suir on Monday on Mary O'Connell, aged 14, who fell from a man's bicycle she had borrowed to go to see her sister who was working with a neighbouring farmer. The fall fractured the base of the girl's skull and she died a few hours afterwards.

FINE GAEL.

MR. COSGRAVE'S POLICY

A Reconstruction Loan

THE importance of being prepared for a general election in the near future was stressed by Mr. W. T. Cosgrave, T.D., Fine Gael leader, at a meeting at Navan, when he outlined the Fine Gael programme in regard to agriculture, and also made a strong plea for a settlement of the economic war.

If Fine Gael were entrusted with the Government of the country they proposed, he said, recognising the losses of the last few years, an agricultural reconstruction loan at a rate of not more than three per cent, along with complete de-rating of agricultural land.

Mr. Cosgrave, referring to the agricultural situation, quoted from the "Irish Trade Journal," a Government publication, and said the total value of agricultural output in 1920-30 was estimated at £4,865,000 compared with the 1934-35 return of £4,536,000. The main cause of the drop in the value of the agricultural output was attributable to the conflict with Great Britain.

It was inevitable that along with that big fall in agricultural production there should have occurred a fall in agricultural wages throughout the country. The labourer was hit in two ways—less wages, and for the wages he got he could buy less than for a similar sum in 1930.

There was no doubt that the coming months, especially as they approached a general election, would be filled with rumours of settlement and that the better to give plausibility to these rumours some negotiations might be entered upon. Indeed, negotiations for the renewal of the Coal-Cattle Pact were due shortly and would add verisimilitude, in help to deceive the people at a vital juncture.

"We can no longer afford to allow every improvement in world conditions to pass as by," he stated, "without affecting a proportionate improvement in our conditions. There is at present in Great Britain and in the United States a distinct upward trend in trade. We in this country owing to our geographical position, our natural resources and the brains and industry of our people should have a considerable share in that increase in wealth and comfort.

"Are we sharing in it? Or are we sharing in it to anything like the extent we ought? The figures which I have just given you showing an immense decrease in agriculture production, the continued huge numbers of unemployed, and the state of our country towns, as we can all see them, indicate that we are not."

The Irish Trade Journal, in the tables published of the estimated output of agricultural production for the year 1920-30 and 1934-35 showed that the output of certain tillage products, wheat, barley, oats, beet, potatoes, cabbage and hay was up by £1,500,000, which emphasised the fall in value of other agricultural products and the total net output having fallen by £24,000,000.

The general decrease of £24,000,000 was never mentioned by Government propagandists, but the same propagandists made great play with the £1 millions increase—though strangely enough it had not resulted in increased agricultural employment. They ignore entirely the increased cost to the public in respect of wheat (flour) and beet (sugar), which is approximately £2,500,000.

"Our Government's policy," he stated, "prevents them from working at home and selling the produce of their labour in England, thus benefitting all classes of workers here. We are at war with Britain but we send her free gratis and for nothing strong vigorous young men and women.

It was possible to find a satisfactory and permanent solution of the financial and economic conflict between this country and Great Britain if the matter was approached in a straightforward honest fashion with the will and the courage to make a settlement," said Mr. Cosgrave.

Now that the Coal-Cattle Pact will come up for renewal, let them again emphasise the necessity of a final favourable settlement. That necessity provided an issue of the first importance between the Government and the country.

If Fine Gael were entrusted with the government of the country it was their policy to achieve the prosperity of the agricultural industry with the minimum of sacrifice to people engaged in the industry.

In the course of the campaign now beginning, they proposed to develop every phase of their policy and to demonstrate that the Government policy was responsible for a reduction in the wages paid to the labourer and for increasing the altogether unnecessarily high cost of living.

Farmers Only

QUEEN WILHELMINA WHEAT

Queen Wilhelmina Wheat Seed produces a magnificently heavy crop. The trouble is that it is difficult to obtain this Seed. But perhaps that should make farmers all the keener to get it—as well as knowing that Queen Wilhelmina Seed is the money-maker of Wheat Seeds. By acting quickly you can get some of this Seed from Harpur Bros. of Waterford. But you must act quickly. The supply is very limited. Harpurs have been able to obtain this Seed from the finest Wheat Growing Districts of England, and are authorised to sell it with a guarantee of Purity and Germination, but, unfortunately, they have not been able to obtain nearly enough for requirements. Therefore, quick action on your part is necessary. Before other farmers snap it up place your order for Queen Wilhelmina Seed without delay.

WAR IN SPAIN

The war in Spain continues with all its fury and no quarter is being given by either side. The Spanish Reds' counter-attack during the last few days has failed and the Patriots are now pressing in on Madrid once more.

On Wednesday they advanced several miles South-West of Madrid, occupying Pinto, 12 miles south of the capital, and three miles from where Madrid's suburbs tramway terminus begins, and Villaviviosa, only ten miles from Madrid due West.

To the North of Madrid, after months of inactivity, another Nationalist column has burst through the snow-capped Guadarrama mountains, and is claimed to be sweeping down towards the capital from this direction, too.

RUSSIAN TANKS CAPTURED. The Anti-Reds captured large quantities of arms and munitions and three Russian tanks. They also took many prisoners. From Brunete the victorious columns advanced to Villaviviosa and occupied the town. The capture of Brunete threatens the Export.

BAN ON EXPORT OF SILVER

General Queipo de Llano has issued a decree forbidding the export of silver from La Linea to Gibraltar. As a measure to enforce this decree, hundreds of British and Spanish workers were searched at the La Linea Customs when on their way to work in Gibraltar. In addition to the silver restriction, workers returning to La Linea are compelled to change their sterling wages into Spanish money at the rate of 40 pesetas to the pound. The actual rate in Gibraltar is 62 pesetas to the pound.

WORLD MASSES FOR DEAD

In accordance with the decree of His Holiness the Pope, Masses were celebrated in Catholic Churches all over the world on the Feast of All Souls, for the repose of the souls of those who have lost their lives in the Spanish Civil War. The Holy Father celebrated Mass for the same intention in his private chapel.

THIS YEAR— THOUSANDS OF FARMERS ARE SOWING MORE WHEAT

Year by year since the Government started the "Grow more Wheat" campaign the acreage under this crop has steadily gone up—from about 20,000 acres in 1931 to 255,000 acres this year. This indicates beyond doubt that farmers who put in wheat as an experiment are now convinced that it is a paying crop. These farmers—thousands of them, in every county—have proved for themselves that wheat is no more difficult to grow than oats or barley. And it has the big advantage of an assured market and guaranteed prices.

So why hesitate? Put in the plough now—and follow the example of thousands of farmers who are already growing wheat. The Government guarantees you a good price for all the millable wheat you grow.

Guaranteed minimum prices

Next season's guaranteed MINIMUM prices per barrel will range from 23/- after harvest time to 27/- in the Spring, according to quality. Note that these are MINIMUM prices. 27/6 per barrel on the farm is now being paid for home grown wheat of good quality.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

Present—Messrs. R. C. Farrell, Vice-Chairman, presiding, E. D. Condon, D. McCarthy, J. Daly, B.E.; R. Savage, J. N. R. Macnamara, solr., R. Power, M. Ahern, T. Beausang, J. Whelan, M. D. Broderick, J. Forrest W. J. Broderick, T.D.

Wages
A cheque for £60, wages, etc., for week was passed on the proposition of Mr. McCarthy, seconded by Mr. Savage.

Water To Mental Hospital
The Water Curator reported that the water meter at the Mental Hospital registered 673,000 gallons for the past fortnight.

Water Taps Damaged
A report was read that a number of water taps were maliciously damaged recently. After a short discussion it was decided to have them repaired and to warn the residents of the localities concerned that if they did not take steps to prevent a recurrence, the water would be cut off altogether.

Strand Church Concert
Mr. Savage applied on behalf of the Strand Church Fund Committee, for the use of the Ball Room, to hold a Concert on 4th November. On the proposition of Mr. Whelan, seconded by Mr. McCarthy, the application was granted unanimously.

Meat Inspection

The report of the Veterinary Inspector on his inspection of meat for the month was read and declared satisfactory. The meeting ended at 8.35 which the Chairman declared "a record."

YOUGHAL LEAGUE OF THE CROSS

A very successful inaugural public meeting of the Debating Class, recently formed, was held in the principal room of the hall on Oct. 27th. Mr. W. J. Broderick, T.D., Chairman, Cork Co. Council, presided, and there was a large and representative attendance, including the Rev. E. J. Fox, C.C., Spiritual Director, several prominent professional and public members of the League, and other members of the Urban Council.

The Chairman having briefly pointed out the necessity of adding the advantages to be derived from an active Class of the kind, which was not confined to actual members of the League, introduced Professor Keane, B.Comm. H.Dip., who read a most interesting paper on "Differences of Government" dealing with the following points, as objects for debate—

(1) Objects of Government; (2) Forms of Government; (3) Types of Government; (4) Democratic, B. Dictatorship; (5) Governments of today; Italy, Germany, England, Russia. A most interesting discussion ensued, the following taking part— Messrs. J. C. Condon, J. L. Keane, solr., J. N. R. Macnamara, solr., R. Savage, U.D.C., J. Daly, B.E., U.D.C.;

One of the speakers recalled the fact that it was at a similar class, held in the hall some years ago, the present Chairman made his debut in public life proving positive of the advantages to be derived (hear, hear).

It being suggested that the subject for debate was too big to finish that night, the Chairman expressed agreement, and it was unanimously decided to adjourn it to another night.

A cordial vote of thanks was passed to Professor Keane, on the proposition of Mr. Condon, seconded by Mr. Keane, for his splendid paper.

A large number having given in their names for membership, the meeting adjourned.

CATHOLIC TRUTH SOCIETY

Youghal Branch

At the Annual General meeting of the above held in the Carnegie Free Library on Sunday week, Very Rev. D. Canon Dinneen, D.D., P.P., presided and amongst those present were—Messrs. C. O'Flynn, J. L. Keane, solr., J. Murray, T. Hanson, Dr. M. Twomey, P.C.; T. P. Walsh, E. D. Condon, U.D.C.; W. Coughlan, Mrs. Twomey, Miss O'Ryan, Mrs. Walsh, W. J. Lehane, N.T., Hon. Sec., etc.

The Hon. Sec. read the Annual Report which stated that there had been a satisfactory increase in the membership since their last general meeting. Their esteemed Colleague, Mr. Coughlan, who had charge of the C. T. S. Bookstalls, reported an increase of 1,045 booklets, as compared with last year's returns, due to the publication of a number of new pamphlets. In Mr. Coughlan they had a most painstaking custodian. They were again indebted to the local newspapers for returns regarding the weekly sales of Catholic newspapers. There was a weekly sale of 137 copies, an increase of 28 over last year's sales including the "Standard," "The Universe," the "Irish Catholic," "The Catholic Times," "The Catholic Fireside" and the "Catholic Herald." The newspapers continued to dispose of an increasing number of Catholic periodicals. Their local schools were as usual to the fore in promoting the propagation of Catholic literature. They were to be credited with the sale of 50 per cent. of the booklets and periodicals sold in the Parish. In conclusion there circulated annually in the Parish between Catholic newspapers and Periodicals a total of 27,000 copies, an increase of over 1,000 on the total for 1935. That was, they might safely presume, as good a record as was to be found in any Parish in Ireland.

Mr. Keane, proposing the adoption of the report said it was most gratifying and encouraging to know that they had turned the corner, he hoped the good work would go on increasing. He was glad to notice the remarks regarding the great work of Mr. Coughlan, who was nothing if not thorough, and the same could be said of their Secretary, Mr. Lehane.

Dr. Twomey seconding, endorsed the remarks of the proposer.

Mr. Flynn said he earnestly hoped they would soon see a big increase in the sales of their Catholic newspapers.

The Very Rev. Chairman, in putting the proposition with great pleasure, said he identified himself heartily with what had been so well said regarding the work of Messrs. Coughlan and Lehane. The report showed a satisfactory increase in the various departments. The hardest work was the sale of the booklets, but they were fortunate in having a real live wire in the person of Mr. Coughlan in charge and the schools had done wonderful work.

On the proposition of Mr. Walsh, seconded by Mrs. Walsh, Mr. Keane and Miss O'Ryan, were re-elected Hon. Treasurers.

Mr. Lehane was re-elected Hon. Sec. on the proposition of Mr. Condon, seconded by Dr. Twomey.

A cordial vote of thanks having been passed to Messrs. Lehane and Coughlan, the proceedings terminated.

YOUGHAL MENTAL HOSPITAL

HOSPITAL

At the usual monthly meeting of the Committee of the above there attended: Very Rev. D. Canon Dinneen, D.D., P.P., presiding, S. O'Loaghraire, T.C.; Rev. D. Duane, C.C., Dr. T. Twomey, P.C., Visiting Physician.

The Manager's report stated that since last meeting one patient had been admitted from the Cork Mental Hospital; one patient had been transferred and two (one female and one male) had died, leaving in residence at present a total of 426 (249 men and 177 women). Attend M. Flynn, who had married recently was now entitled to the marriage allowance. Contracts had been satisfactorily carried out during the month. The corn was threshed on the 19th ult., and there were about 50 barrels of barley for sale. Quotations had been invited and three offers had been received which were submitted for the consideration of the Committee. Stockholder's Inventory and Report of the stock was submitted and the condemnations were ready for the Committee's inspection. Estimate for re-flooring of kitchen and passages as recommended by the Inspector were submitted. Sums amounting to £46 9s. 4d., towards the maintenance of patients and £35 9s. 7d., for the sale of 9 pigs had been received and lodged to the credit of the Mental Hospital Account. Thanks were due to Miss Evans, South Abbey, for gifts of magazines and pictorials for the Institution.

In his usual monthly report, the Visiting Physician reported that since his last report there had been two deaths; five patients were confined to bed on the male side of the house and eight on the female side owing to debility and other causes. There had been no case of seclusion, restraint, injury or violence. The food supplies had been regularly examined and found up to standard requirements. There had been no case of zymotic disease. There had been no complaint of the water supply. The general health of the Institution was excellent.

A letter was read from the Department sanctioning the appointment of Mr. J. J. Walsh, M.R.C.V.S., as Veterinary Inspector for meat to the Hospital at a fee of 10/- per visit, one visit per week.

Mr. O'Loaghraire asked had not all meat to pass through his hands as Inspector of the Local Authority.

The Chairman—If killed within the Urban Area.

Mr. O'Loaghraire—Even if he didn't visit the Institution, he will not permit any dishonest tendering.

The Chairman said his certificate would only cover the question of being fit for human consumption.

Mr. O'Loaghraire said they only wanted to make sure that they were getting the proper meat.

Fr. Duane said the only safeguard was to see the meat there.

The Chairman—How is one visit per week to effect that?

After further discussion the meeting were unanimous in the opinion that one visit per week would not meet the requirements of the case, and it was decided to put the matter before the Department again, in the meantime authorising the Hospital Authorities to bring the Inspector in, if they deemed it necessary.

Mr. O'Loaghraire said the opinion of many was that public institutions through out the country were being robbed right, left and centre, decent contractors refusing to tender in present circumstances.

Then tender of Messrs. M. J. Fleming, Youghal, of 16/- per barrel for the barley, was accepted.

There was only one tender for coal—Messrs. Fleming, Youghal, 36/- for 50 tons best house coal and 35/- for 150 tons best steam coal.

Mr. O'Loaghraire thought the price for steam coal was rather high, but it was pointed out that the delivery involved two miles of cartage.

G.A.A. NOTES & NOTIONS

By "CROTOG."

It was a thousand pities that a violent rainstorm ruined the eagerly awaited encounter between Limerick and Waterford at the Anna Road Grounds, last Sunday. It would be idle to speculate on what may have happened had the day held fine. Undoubtedly, the appalling weather conditions, with seriously handicapping both teams, weighed far more heavily against the Limerick and less experienced Decies side. Losing the toss, they were set the herculean task of holding the fast moving Limerick attack in the teeth of a furious wind and blinding rain. For a half an hour they battled heroically against lashing elements and crashing forwards and came through the ordeal so well that Limerick's lead at the interval was far from safe even though the figures read 4 goals to 1 goal and 1 point.

The second half-hour was all Waterford's but lack of forward finish and erratic approach tactics denied us the scores which every moment threatened. The Limerick defence had its back to the wall during all this period and though at times, so sorely pressed that it appeared on the point of cracking up, yet it managed to keep the Decies score within limits not all representative of our share of the game. As the precious minutes flew by, our lads fought with reckless abandon and heading dash for the goals that never came. But something more than those qualities are needed to outplay the best defence and the safest goal-keeper in Ireland—craft and guile and method are the leaven which our attack needs to improve its efficiency. Though the Champions won on the score of 4-3 to 2-3, they were given the toughest and most anxious game they got for many a long day. The Decies hurlers were glorious in defeat and won the admiration of all for their magnificent display. They have proved themselves a rattling good team and Sundays game, so far from disheartening them, will harden their temper and spirit and give them invaluable experience.

A feature of the match which aroused widespread comment was the presence of a large following of Decies Gaels who had made the long trip under dripping skies to cheer on their fellow countrymen. This development in itself shows how much the Decies has taken these young hurlers to its heart. Indeed, they are a Gaelic side of which any county might justly feel proud.

Pleasure at the gallant fight made in Limerick must not blind us to the defects which were evident in Sunday's team. There are two places in defence which are still far from satisfactory. Right back and centre-half require to be strengthened before the rearguard can be judged sound. Curley, Charlie Ware, Fanning, Walsh and Mountain are excellent in their respective positions—that was confirmed beyond any doubt in Sunday's crucial test. Ware proved that he is the only full who can checkmate the powerful McMahon; Fanning, apart from a few side-slips, kept the robust Dave Cloghesy nice and quiet and comparatively harmless; Walsh, as usual was superlatively cool whilst John Mackey is still wondering why he failed so conspicuously to shine against the tenacious Jimmy Mountain. Young Skehan was asked too much. It was his first inter-county game and Roche, of All-Ireland fame, was to him a handful for a new competitor. Yet Skehan was no failure—he settled down after a time, but he was obviously 'green'. Lucky Ryan, in his place during the second half, did not inspire any greater confidence.

Greaney and Keane were not as powerfully impressive as in Limerick and Dublin. Tim Ryan was in devastating form but at close quarters Keane was more than his equal. Tom Greaney put in a hard hour against Limerick's latest 'ind'—Givens. Our forwards I have already commented on. They have speed, dash, spirit and stamina in plenty, but they lack combination and astuteness. Mick Wyse played his best game yet on the right wing, while 'Pa' Sheehan on the left sparkled all through despite the treacherous sod. Christy Moylan, gave an exhibition of dare-devil hurling which amazed his opponent the redoubtable Paddy Cloghesy—seldom indeed has Paddy been so blotted out. "Dec" Goode, tough trier that he is, was treated in severe fashion throughout by Hickey of Ahane, whose full-back tactics savoured of all-in wrestling at its worst. Biting seemed to be the only eric barred by this gladiator and though "Dec" is none too ceremonious himself, the harsh methods of Hickey were a bit too much for him. Withal, he crashed the Ahane man aside in the second half to get the best goal of the game. Green and D. Wyse in the corners were too light in the heavy going and the superior physique and experience of Carroll and Twomey gave them very little scope.

There is a tendency to minimise Waterford's display by stressing the absence of some famous players from the Champions' line-out. The only absentee who could be considered a loss was Mick Mackey. The men who played instead of Mick Ryan, Howard Cross and Tom McCarthy, were younger men, just as strong and effective and certainly much fitter. Moreover, Mick Carthy is probably the only one who will again don Garretstown colours as the others are about to retire owing to Anno Domini and other considerations. Whilst our lads have no absurd ideas of their own capabilities, they have no hurling inferiority complex where Limerick is concerned. Whenever and wherever they meet again they are confident of giving them as good a game if not better than any team in Ireland.

The selection to meet Leix in Waterford on Sunday week in the fourth round of the National Hurling League is announced as follows—M. Curley, P. Sheehan, (Tallow); D. Goode, T. Greaney, C. Moylan (Dungarvan); J. Skehan and J. Hickey (Dun. I.); J. Mountain (St. Stephen's); W. Wolshe, (Passage); J. Keane, D. Hogan, P. Greene, D. O'Mahony and J. Walsh (M. Sion); W. Lynch, (Ferrybank); C. Ware, J. Ware, J. Fanning, M. Wyse, D. Wyse, J. Ryan and P. Brown (Erin's Own).

On next Sunday in Dungarvan the last of the County Championships for 1936 are listed on the programme. Sliabh Cua meet Fenor in the Junior Football Final. Robbed of the honours last year by the great snowstorm, the Touraneena boys are confidently expected to reach the goal of their ambitions this year. They are fighting fit and with the experience of such stalwarts as the Dalton brothers, Cliffe, Power and Loneragan, will make a bold bid for victory. Fenor have other ideas and, having come through a gruelling time in East Waterford, will fight every inch of the way with the Comeragh boys. Many of them are hardy hurlers too, who help to make things hum in the Durhill Club and the brothers Jack and Mick Skehan, the Powers and Hickey will be in action to maintain the football prestige of Fenor.

Prior to the football encounter, the Minor Hurling Final between St. Carthage's and Padraig Pearse's of Ferrybank will be decided. This should be an attractive exhibition as many of the rival contenders have had experience of inter-county hurling. Minor matches invariably please because of the whole-hearted earnestness of the youngsters and the absence of that rancour and irritating quarrelsomeness which occasionally detract from junior and senior games.

The Western boys hail from the Lismore area and the majority of them are students in the Christian Brothers' Secondary College there. In Feeney, Moore, Lane and Ryan, they have very stylish exponents of the game who have plenty match experience in junior competition. Ferrybank too has a nicely balanced side of polished hurlers who favour the traditional Kilkeny style. Sneyd, Waters, McEvoy and McGrath, are sterling players who know and employ every trick in the hurling art. It should be a rousing game with the pace a cracker throughout. With youthful rivals so evenly matched, it would be presumptuous to venture a forecast, yet somehow I have the impression that the St. Carthage's big centre field goals will be the decisive factor in the final stages of the struggle.

DEATH OF MR. E. G. C. PRESTON, FINISK LODGE, CAPPOQUIN.

DAYS OF THE "GLENAGEHEARY BOMB" RECALLED

A wave of sorrow and regret was caused in Cappoquin last week when the sad news of the death of Mr. Elystan George Compton Preston, M.V.O., and ex-District Inspector of the R.I.C., was announced on Friday, October 30th.

The late Mr. Preston was a member of an old and distinguished Protestant family, being son of the late Rev. George Preston, Rushmills, and had a brilliant record as an officer in the Royal Irish Constabulary.

He lived for many years in Cappoquin, where he was in charge of the extensive Cappoquin Police District, which included the district of Ballymacarbery, which became famous during his charge owing to the sensational "Glenageheary Explosion" in 1907, when a Lodge belonging to Lord Ashdown an intolerant member of the "Ascendancy Class," was blown up, for which Lord Ashdown later sought compensation at the expense of the ratepayers of the Co. Waterford. It was during those memorable proceedings that District Inspector Preston proved his honesty and fearlessness by taking the popular side on behalf of the Nationalist people of the Co. Waterford, and much against his own personal interests as a Police Officer, and his unselfish and unflinching stand on that occasion was never forgotten or forgiven by a grateful people.

Those present in Dungarvan Court-house at the Quarter Sessions when Lord Ashdown's claim for compensation was heard before His Honour, Co. Court Judge Fitzgerald, whose sympathies were well known to be on the side of Lord Ashdown's party will know how District Inspector Preston had to give his evidence in an uncongenial atmosphere, and before a hostile Judge.

Dungarvan saw on that day for the first time two of the ablest forensic giants of the Irish Bar in their midst, when the late Mr. J. B. Campbell, K.C., (afterwards Lord Glenavy) appeared for Lord Ashdown, and the late brilliant, witty and caustic Mr. "Tim" Healy, K.C., resisted the claim on behalf of the ratepayers of the Co. Waterford. The heated legal arguments and spicy wordy duels between those eminent Counsel, in which "Tim" Healy always scored, evoked such applause amongst those in the Court-house, and so annoyed the Judge, that he eventually ordered the gallery to be cleared, and the people were bundled out by a number of policemen, still cheering for "Tim" Healy, who became their popular idol on that day. During his long residence in Cappoquin as a Police Officer, Inspector Preston at all times proved himself to be one of the best officers who ever wore an R.I.C. uniform.

NEW IRISH FREE STATE JUDGE

It was officially announced by the Free State Cabinet that Mr. Conor A. Maguire, K.C., the Free State Attorney-General, has been appointed a judge of the Free State High Court.

His post as Attorney-General will be taken by Mr. James Geoghegan, K.C.

The vacancy in the High Court was caused by the resignation of the Hon. Mr. Justice Wylie, one of the greatest authorities on bloodstock in the British Isles, who resigned from the Land Commission over which he presided. This position is of the same rank as a judge of the High Court.

Mr. Conor Maguire has been Attorney-General to Mr. de Valera's Government since it came into power at the beginning of 1932. He represented the National University of Ireland in the Government interests.

He was born in County Mayo and is the son of Dr. M. Maguire, of Claremorris, County Mayo. He was educated at Clongowes College, County Kildare, and the National University of Ireland.

Mr. James Geoghegan, the new Attorney-General, was Mr. de Valera's first Minister for Justice, but he resigned from his post in the Cabinet.

Brown were present.

A pay-sheet amounting to £1,000 was presented and passed. Arising out of the pay-sheet wages to the ratepayers were £1,000. Mr. Dabill said the question of the services of the ratepayers was a question of people still in the street. Mr. Walsh said as far as there is no bathing room in the town, Mr. Dabill—In that matter can't have any objection. Mr. Byrne—Understand after the caretaker's year, there were many places, stray horses were there and it cost so much to repair the damage as it would not cost very much.

Chairman—Be the thing about this damage. B.S. said at the moment recollect. There may be there certainly was damage boxes by the high Mr. Byrne said he was not as other things. Chairman—If it is a amount of damage was nearly be as cheap to be taken.

Mr. Dabill said the question to be dealt with. Chairman—Yes; to put the contract should be and if any member wishes raise the matter on a new. The contract was then Income Tax.

A letter was read from Taxes, Waterford, suggesting interview which would give of coming to a matter as to the correct treatment and expenses for Income and so avoid a protracted unsatisfactory correspondence. The Clerk was deputed matter.

On the proposition, seconded by Mr. Dabill, a motion was passed to the late James O'Connell, M.P.

Water Supply. On the proposition of seconded by Mr. Byrne, a passed approving of the 14 inch pipe to Mr. Lamm the Quay.

A letter thanking the contribution of sympathy to the bereavement was received from Delaney, Congress Villars herself and family.

Mr. M. O'Meara, wrote Council that Messrs. P. and M. Fowler, handed £150, 8d., the proceeds of a made locally in aid of Mr. There is a sum of £4000 years due to Saturday and in addition £2 costs in solicitor.

It is a matter for the whether the above sum was. The Chairman said Mr. what he said at the previous week for Mrs. O'Connell. It was decided to accept offered.

Water Supply. Mr. J. Organ, Abbey, permission under the use connect with the water

Repairs. Applications from ten houses requiring repairs referred to the B.S. for a Sewer for Technicians. Messrs. Kavanagh, forming the Council by making a connection to O'Connell street from School near the junction and O'Connell street.

Mr. Dabill—If they do against the wishes of the Mr. Foley—We are not them.

Mr. Dwyer—Our Motion peatedly reported and so parliament re the nuisance
