MULCAHY'S DUNGARVAN.

WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.

Mr. J. Donovan, Chairman presided at the monthly meeting of the above held in Dungarvan on Wednesday. Also present—Mr. Commissioner Moynihan, Messrs. P. Caulfield, T. Synott, J. Cosgrave, T. D. Connolly, J. O'Halloran.

Estimate
 The Secretary submitted his estimate for 1937-'38. The amount was £56,148 or a reduction of £2,874 on last year. The estimate was adopted.

Hospitalisation Scheme
 Regarding the above Mr. O'Halloran said that he did not agree with the spending of public money on palatial buildings. They had a fine hospital in Waterford.
 Mr. Cosgrave—There are palatial buildings in other counties.
 Mr. O'Halloran—Yes because they are fools.

Hiring of Boy
 The meeting discussed the application for the hiring out of a boy of 15 years at 3/6 per week. The members were in agreement that the wage was too small, and agreed that the applicant be asked for £12 per year.

Repairs
 Arising out of a letter from Dr. Casey, Ring, the Secretary was instructed to ask the Engineer to have the repairs mentioned in Dr. Casey's letter carried out.

Bonmahon Dispensary
 The application from the caretaker of Bonmahon Dispensary for 2 cwt. of coal per week was granted.

Dental Clinic
 The Board adhered to their previous decision that the Dungarvan Dispensary be used as a dental clinic.
 The arrangement is to be only temporary.

Dispensary Site
 Dr. Casey, M.O.H., Dungarvan, wrote stating that the site at Fair Lane, where it was proposed to build the new Dispensary would not enable him to give the services he is at present giving. He asked what had happened in the case of the site at Mitchell Street.
 Commissioner Moynihan said that the site at Mitchell street which the Board tried to get from the Urban Council would cost £100 for an eighth of an acre, whereas the site at Fair Lane cost £100 for an acre. He also expressed the view that the dispensary at Fair Lane would be convenient to the majority of the poor who at present resided at Loughmore.

Home Assistance
 Home Assistance for the month amounted to £1,558 16s. 6d., compared with £1,455 15s. 4d. for the preceding month and £1,598 6s. 7d., for the corresponding period last year.

Sanction Requested
 The meeting instructed the Secretary to again ask the Department to sanction the amount passed to Mr. Phelan, Supt. Assistance Officer, as travelling expenses during his period of duty as temporary Assistance Officer in Clonmel No. 2.
 The question arose out of a letter from the Department stating that they would only allow Mr. Phelan remuneration equal to the amount paid to the regular Officer.

Cost of Dental Treatment
 In request to a letter from the Minister the Secretary reported that the cost of dental treatment for the past year was £245 15s.
 The Department's letter suggested that the Board should make arrangements for a permanent position.
 Mr. Cosgrave—Would that be in parallel to the position of Dr. Duggan as eye specialist?
 Secretary—Yes; it means a fixed salary.
 Mr. O'Halloran—Should one man do all the hospitals?
 Secretary—Yes. I suppose it means attending the different centres on different days.
 Mr. Caulfield—I would favour the old system.
 Mr. Cosgrave—It is only a temporary thing, in fact, all the teeth in the county should have been pulled long ago. I am coming here for 12 years and they are pulling teeth out by the score during that time.
 Mr. O'Halloran—Yes and there is no improvement in the public health of the country. There are as many people dying as ever.
 The Chairman said that the present system was cheaper as the travelling expenses were a man had to go to Waterford from Dungarvan or from Waterford to Dungarvan would cost more than at present.
 The meeting agreed that the Department had pointed out to them that the present system was more economical, and more satisfactory.

Ballymacarbery Dispensary
 The Engineer was instructed to have repairs carried out to the Ballymacarbery Dispensary residence at a cost of £42.

Nurses Salaries
 A letter was received from the Nursing Association asking the Board to agree to the scale of salaries previously put before the Board by them. The letter added that although the Minister would not draw up a scheme for the whole country, he had promised that where the scale was adopted he would give sanction.
 The Board adhered to their previous decision that the matter was one for the Government.

DEISE DOINGS CHRONICLED AND CRITICISED

By
 CARRIG NA GAEDHEAL

The Kilkoban Greyhound Racing Track. Negotiations are still in progress regarding the application of the Directors of the Kilkoban Greyhound Racing Track (Waterford City) for a license from the I.C.C. authorities. The Waterford track has been most successful since the inauguration of greyhound racing here, and has received splendid support from dog-owners in the Counties Wexford, Kilkenny and Waterford respectively. Public opinion in the City as far as I can judge, is strongly in favour of the Directors of the Kilkoban Track. I would be surprised if it was otherwise, considering the facts of the case. £2,000 of Waterford people's money has been invested in the local track; hundreds of citizens have put their bit of spare capital into the enterprise, believing that Portlaine has good business brains to make it a success. A sum of £60 is paid weekly in wages and prize-money, which is certainly some consideration. And the fixtures have been very capably managed by the energetic Secretary Mr. J. Kelly. It is to be hoped that wise counsels will prevail and that the controlling body of the I.C.C. will adopt a broadminded and sporting attitude and accede to the request of the Directors of the Waterford Track.

Waterford—A Lovely County—
 Waterford looms largely in the current number of "Irish Travel" the official organ of the Irish Tourist Association. There are two pages of photographs of historic and picturesque places in Portlaine which is described as a lovely county. They include excellent pictures of Lismore Castle; Mount Mellery Abbey with cultivated fields and hedgerows in the foreground; and the Knockmeal-downs in the background; and Ardmore with the most perfect Round Tower in Ireland standing sentinel over all. There is an interesting photograph of two specimens of Waterford Cut Glass, which were featured in a talk by Miss Maura Fitzgerald, from Radio Athlone on Tuesday January 19th.

Increases
 John Ryan, Attendant at County Hospital, was granted an increase of salary from 17/6 to 25/.

Mr. O'Halloran dissented from the proposition stating that he did not think 25/- was enough for any married man.
 The Porter at the County Hospital, on the proposition of the Chairman had his salary increased from £125 to £143 per annum.
 Mr. Caulfield dissented.

Presentation To Municipal Library—
 A Waterford gentleman is about to present to the Municipal Free Library, four old maps (framed) of the City. One of them shows Waterford as it stood in the year 1673 as a walled town. It is a copy I presume, of Ryland's Map, like one which the writer happens to possess. At that period Waterford had quite a number of Churches; and amongst those marked in Ryland's Map are St. Stephen's Church (where Messrs. Kiely's brewery is now situated) and St. Peter's Church, on the site of Peter Street Dispensary Premises. The plot of ground in front of the Dispensary was formerly St. Peter's Churchyard. A body known as the Protestant Church Temporalities has jurisdiction over St. Peter's Churchyard. About ten years ago, Mr. Troy of Bakehouse Lane, was making some alterations and extensions to his premises contiguous to the Churchyard and found that an old tree had to be removed in the graveyard. Before the axe could be laid to the tree he had to get the necessary sanction from the Church Temporalities Body. The other maps to be presented include one showing the Danish Wall in fact and another depicting the old Norman wall that encircled the City.

One Of The Best Feeding Stuffs In The Saorstát—
 In the January issue of that attractive periodical "Irish Industry" there is an interesting reference to a thriving Waterford industry—The Flake Maize Factory. One of the best feeding stuffs produced in the Saorstát is Presto Cooked Flake Maize, manufactured in Waterford by Flake Maize Ltd. The most up-to-date plant procurable has been installed in the Mills which adjoin the railway line and within a few yards of the river bank. Before the Flake Maize Ltd., started operations in Waterford about ten years ago a famous Liverpool Firm (manufacturers of feeding stuffs) had practically a monopoly of the Irish market for the sale of flaked maize. The Waterford firm has ousted the foreign competitor and supplies a most nutritious and toothsome cooked food for cattle, pigs, poultry, etc.

The Peter Street Dispensary—A Big Centre of Social Services in a Small Building—
 At a meeting of the Waterford County Hospital Committee held on Wednesday, January 13th, a visiting Committee of 3 members was appointed to visit Peter Street Dispensary premises and report on any improvements that might be considered necessary in the building and the approaches thereto. It is interesting to note that: In the days of the Old Board of Guardians a special Committee controlled the Peter Street Dispensary and had complete authority, their decisions being only subject to revision by the Local Government Board. From a hygienic point of view the Peter Street Dispensary premises are about 100 per cent. improved as compared with the old regime. Nevertheless, I consider that an annual overhauling and cleaning is essential in a building where hundreds of sick people attend every week and where two Home Assistance Officers and two Dispensary Doctors carry out their duties. The Dispensary is also used for offices for the registration of Births and Deaths. There is no building of its size, I believe in the Saorstát, in which so much social service work of an exacting kind is transacted daily.

The Only Reform in the Poor Law Service—The Appointment of a Compounder—
 The position of the Compounder at the Peter Street Dispensary has been before the last two meetings of the Board of Assistance. Readers of the "Observer" will be surprised to learn that the appointment of a Compounder in Peter St. Dispensary is the only reform in the Poor Law Service in Waterford City since the Boards of Guardians were abolished in 1921. The appointment was made in November 1924. And the person responsible for the beneficial change is still an active member of the Waterford County Board of Public Assistance. The reform was long over-due. In former times the Dispensary Doctors had to compound the medicine as well as diagnose the case. Matters reached a climax in the winter of 1918-'19 when the terrible 'flu plague was raging. The doctors were overwhelmed with work and the services of a temporary compounder had to be requisitioned. The latter found, I understand that the medicine supply was not up to the standard either in quantity or quality and large purchases had to be made to provide the necessary material to successfully fight the 'flu microbe. The medicine bottles, powders, dressings, etc. were all spread "tre-na-ceile" in the doctors' rooms. All is changed since 1924. A full stock of medicine is always kept fresh and of a requisite standard. Poisons are kept under lock and key. And very important is the fact that the poor people are kindly and courteously treated by the gentleman who fills the position of Compounder in an efficient and painstaking manner. I would also like to pay tribute to the painstaking and devoted manner in which the two Dispensary Doctors carry out their onerous duties.

Building Hooses By Day and by Night—
 In Ballytruckle, Waterford—
 "Oh, Mary this London's a wonderful sight,
 With the people here working by day and by night."
 In the opening lines of the popular song, "The Mountains of Mourne" John O'London tells his sweetheart of the 24-hour day labour activities in the English Metropolis. In the Saorstát we are strictly confined to the eight-hour day; it is the plus ultra of the labourers and tradesmen's activities. However, there are certain places where trade union regulations do not prevail. One of them is in Bally-truckle, Waterford, where I noticed this week a few tradesmen engaged in building a house about 8.30 p.m. with the aid of electric light. I ascertained that their day does not finish until 10 p.m. and that the tradesmen are brothers engaged in erecting a house under the Small Dwellings Acquisition Act, for a member of their family. The very difficult housing problem would be quickly solved if contractors were in a position to engage gangs of tradesmen to do building work by day and by night.

HUNTING AT CLONEA
 Dungarvan Foot Beagles met at Clonea (Ocean View Hotel) on Sunday last. After drawing Kilkoban blank hounds moved into Mr. Eddie Casey's lands at Tallacoolo beyond the Golf Links and here a hare got up immediately and ran towards the strand and circled back through the Golf Links and towards Mr. Casey's residence at Tallacoolo, where he again turned and made for the Clonea Bog and then went through towards the main road. The hare now returned and again went through the Golf Links and crossed the road near the Hotel and into Kilkoban. It was raining very heavy throughout the hunt and hounds were tested to hold the scent so magnificently. Owing to the inclemency of the weather—rain and wind beating against them—it was decided to call the hounds off at Kilkoban shortly after 3.30 p.m.

The Kilmactomas Beagles have been purchased by the Dungarvan Club and the pack is now comprised of an even lot of hounds and compare favourably with any pack of Beagles in Munster and should give good sport for the remainder of the season. Many Kilmactomas followers were seen out on Sunday last, with the Dungarvan followers, who braved the elements and were rewarded with splendid hunting. Tommy Kiely, carried the horn with marked success.

Death of Mr. J. Rockett—
 Fortified by the rites of Holy Church, Mr. James Rockett, farmer, Ballygarra, Kilmactomas, died on Monday morning after a brief illness and in the fullness of his years. An exemplary Catholic; an excellent neighbour, and a sincere friend, the deceased was beloved of all who knew him. He was for many years a prominent member of the Kilmactomas Board of Guardians and Rural District Council. A sportsman to his finger-tips, he was one of the leading Gaelic footballers in the County in the old days. The worthy member of a good old stock of the Deise, his memory will for long be treasured in these parts. A great wave of public sympathy goes out to his grief-stricken wife and other immediate relatives in their bereavement. An immense cortege accompanied the remains to the Parish Church, Portlawn on Tuesday evening. Requiem High Mass was celebrated for his soul on Wednesday after which interment was made in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery. May he rest in peace

ARDMORE DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J.)

Occasional License

Mr. Keane, applied on behalf of Mrs. E. J. Donovan, Hotel Monastrea, for a dance licence for the night of February 7, hours 10 to 3 a.m., as granted on previous occasions.

Superintendent Walsh, Dungarvan, said he was opposing the application. His Worship had granted a similar application a month ago. Acting on his instructions the local Sergeant had visited the hotel and during the period for which the licence was in operation he found a number of men drinking in a lounge near the bar. That case the licence had been informed that there was no intention to prosecute. In the present case his attitude was to oppose the application with the object of avoiding further prosecutions, on the grounds that the hotel was not a suitable place to hold a dance, as it was always difficult to enforce the licensing laws.

Mr. Keane said the Superintendent's objections look him by surprise. They had been holding dances every winter, two each year, up to now. The question about the right to supply travellers had yet to be decided. He did not think that was the reason why they should be denied their right to hold a dance.

The Justice said the right to hold a dance was not at all clear. There was a great difficulty in granting a licence in view of Judge Hanna's decision. He had refused a similar application at Fermoy.

Mr. Keane said that the question of supplying drink to travellers was another matter. If they shut the bar for the night? The Justice—I doubt if even that would do.

The Supt. said he relied on the sub-section of the Act, regarding the suitability of the premises.

The Justice said he thought they must await the result of the appeal case. Of course he wasn't the final authority. It was open to Mr. Keane to appeal to the Circuit Court.

After some further arguments, the application was adjourned to Youghal Court to enable Mr. Keane look into the matter.

Sergt. Gallagher, Ardmore, charged John Cover, farmer, with using an unlicensed horse and cart, and with having no reflector.

He was fined 3s. 6d. and 1s.

The name complainant charged Wm. O'Leary with a like offence, and he was fined similarly.

Larceny

George Creagh, of no fixed abode, was charged in custody with the larceny of a silver watch chain, value £1, a sovereign and a gold wedding ring, value £5, the property of Jas. P. Cashman, Rockfield, Cappoquin.

Supt. Walsh, Dungarvan, prosecuted.

Miss Sheila Cashman, deposed that accused worked for her brother from the end of September to 1st November last, painting, etc. During that time he had free access to every part of the house. One day before he left the employment she saw accused in her brother's bedroom, with a small box in his hand which she recognised as her sister-in-law's, in which she used to keep her jewellery, including a gold brooch, an engagement and wedding ring and a sovereign. He said he found it in the child's hand. She examined it and the four articles mentioned were in it then. The box used to be kept in the inner drawer of a wardrobe in her brother's room. She put the box back into the drawer. In the presence of Supt. Walsh, they found that the child, aged 2 1/2 years, could not open the wardrobe door. Witness went to Dungarvan with her brother on 2nd November. When they returned they found that accused had left, there being some wages due to him. They got suspicious and on examining the box they found the sovereign and wedding ring missing. She identified the chain produced as the one brought to the house by Sergt. Breen 3 weeks ago. The chain she recollected belonged to her father and had been in her brother's possession.

Cross-examined by accused—she gave accused a pants, coat and waistcoat. In the room he slept in she found a wrist watch. She did not know where he found it but it belonged to her sister. The wrist watch and chain were not in the pocket of the waistcoat she gave him. Accused had no business in that room as he was supposed to be at work in one of the halls. The box had never been in the kitchen.

Michael Walsh, Manager of Dawson's Pawn Office, Dungarvan, deposed that on 4th November, a man called to the office and tendered a grey suit and a watch chain. He gave the name of George Creagh. Witness identified accused as the man, and also the chain he had pawned. Witness made out 3 dockets and gave them to him with 11/6. On 18th November a boy named Patrick Doyle brought back the tickets and released the articles on payment of 12s 6d. Witness handed the dockets to Guard Regan at the Garda Station at Dungarvan.

Accused made no statement and he was returned for trial in custody to the next Waterford Circuit Court.

ANGLO-SAORSTAT TRADE

HIGHER LEVEL SHOWN BY 1936 FIGURES

Anglo-Saorstata Trade in 1936 reached a higher level than in 1935, as is evidenced by the figures issued in London, covering the principal items of trade between the two countries. British imports from the Saorstata and exports to the Saorstata last year showed increases in nearly every case over the figures for 1935.

LISMORE DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.)

ALLEGED UNLICENSED BULL

The Minister for Agriculture summoned Michael Walsh, Garraha, Ballyduff, for having an unlicensed bull in his possession on August 27th 1936.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solr., appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, defended.

This case was before the previous court when Mr. John Hartney, Veterinary Inspector, under the Department, stated that at an inspection of bulls held by him at Ballyduff on August 27, 1936, the defendant presented a bull for inspection which was found to be over the age of inspection, as the animal should have been inspected and licensed since Feb., 1936. The defendant told him at the time that the bull had only been calved in July, 1935, and was, therefore, not liable for inspection in February, 1936, as it was only bulls calved between January and June, 1935, should be presented for inspection in February 1936, as all bulls calved later need not be inspected until August, 1936.

In support of this contention, Michael Walsh, Coolishal, Ballyduff, then swore that it was he had sold the bull to the defendant, and he had an entry in a book at home showing that the animal in question was calved on July 8th., 1935.

The Justice then adjourned the case for the production of this book, and when the case was now called, Mr. O'Gorman, solr., handed in the book which showed an entry bearing out Michael Walsh's statement at the previous hearing.

Mr. Ryan, State Solr., having closely examined the book, remarked—"I am afraid, your Worship, that I must hand in my gun in face of this, as the entries and records in this book seem to be so correct and so well-kept that you could establish a dynasty from them." (laughter).

The Justice dismissed the case, and Mr. O'Gorman applied for costs against the Department of Agriculture.

The Justice said he would allow 10/- expenses in the case of the witness, Ml. Walsh, Coolishal.

Mr. O'Gorman said the defendant had also been brought in here on two Court days, and was equally entitled to costs, and the Justice then allowed 10/- in each case.

Application For Dance Licence

An application for a dance licence was made in the name of Denis Hennessy, Ballyduff, for a Ceilidhe to be held in aid of the G.A.A. Ballyduff.

Mr. E. Moore, Lismore, appeared in support of the application which he said should have been made in the name of Patrick Feeney, Ballyduff.

The Justice—Where is Patrick Feeney, then?

Mr. Moore said he was ill with the flu.

Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., then intervened and said he would make the application on behalf of the G.A.A. Ballyduff, as they only wanted the licence for the purpose of holding a Ceilidhe in aid of the funds of the G.A.A., as they were all great hurlers in Ballyduff.

Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, said the Guards had no objection.

The Justice granted the licence without imposing any conditions.

Unlicensed Vehicles

Guard Byrne, Lismore and Guard Martin, do., were the complainants in a number of cases against defendants for using unlicensed vehicles at night, and the usual fines were imposed in all cases.

Civil Bills

Daniel, John and Wm. O'Brien, Motor Garage Proprietors, Tallow, brought a civil bill against Fred Brien, Conna, for the sum of £15 13s. 0d. due.

Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, appeared for plaintiffs, but there was no appearance on behalf of defendant.

Mr. John O'Brien, who proved the debt, said the amount was due for petrol oils and repairs, and a decree for the full amount was granted.

The Raleigh Cycle Co., Dublin, v. P. Nugent. This was a civil bill for the sum of £3 10s. due by defendant.

Mr. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, (for Major Jones, solr., Waterford), appeared for plaintiffs and a decree was granted.

In the adjourned case of P. J. Scanlan, Victualler, Cappoquin, against a defendant from the Cappoquin area. Mr. O'Gorman, solr., who appeared for plaintiff, applied for a further adjournment, as the defendant was now paying up the debt, and he hoped to be in a position to ask to have the case struck out at the next Court.

The case was accordingly adjourned.

Unstamped Insurance Cards

In the adjourned case of the Minister for Local Government and Public Health v. James Walsh, Ballymillilla, appeared Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solr., appeared for the prosecution.

Mr. Mortell, Inspector, gave evidence showing that the sum of £13 1s. 7d., was due by defendant in respect of unstamped Insurance Cards in the case of two of his employees, full particulars of which he gave.

Mr. Ryan said the defendant had since paid 1/4 off the account, which left £9 1s. 7d., still due, and a decree for this amount was given.

A number of other civil bills, in which Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., appeared for the plaintiffs, and in which decrees were granted, concluded the business of the Court.

Owing to the illness of Mr. P. O'Keefe, Clerk of the Court, the duties of Clerk were efficiently performed by Sergt. Ballyntyne, Lismore.

WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC HEALTH

MONTHLY REPORT OF CO. M.O.H.

The following is the monthly report of Dr. Michael O'Farrell, Co. Medical Officer of Health for the month of December, 1936—

Infectious Diseases—The following Infectious Diseases were notified to this Office during the month— Measles—10; Tuberculosis—1; Acute Primary Pneumonia—1; Erysipelas—1. Notification of Births—There were 82 births notified to this office, and 1 "Record of sending for Medical Assistance."

Tuberculosis—During the month there were 204 attendances of all patients at T.B. Clinics, which attendances were made up by 80 patients. Eleven Domiciliary cases were attended by the T.B. Officer. One patient is under treatment in the Sanatorium, 16 in County Institutions, and one non-Pulmonary patient in other Hospitals. One patient was discharged from treatment.

The Jubilee Nurses paid 361 visits to 80 patients.

Maternity and Child Welfare—With regard to above work, Jubilee Nurses in their districts, throughout the County, attended 12 Clinics, and the number of attendances were—Mothers—42; Infants—32; Children under 5—85.

General Sanitation—During the month Sanitary Sub-Officers, throughout the County, carried out 625 inspections of dwellings.

Dairies, Cowsheds & Milkshops Order—Reports from the Veterinary Surgeons of the Youghal No. 2, Clonmel and Dungarvan Rural Districts, have been received, and are submitted herewith.

The Dairies, and Cowsheds Inspectors carried out 157 inspections of premises in the County. Their reports are satisfactory, and state that the recommendations of the Veterinary Inspectors have, in all cases been carried out.

Diphtheria Immunisation—Diphtheria Immunisation was continued from November 23rd until December 12th in the following Schools—Knockmahon, Bonmahon, Dunhill, Ballynaneen and Kill. The number treated in those Schools totalled 376. There were 70 children under 5 years included in this total, or children not actually attending school. One school was closed in this area, owing to Measles Epidemic.

Influenza—Since we are threatened with an epidemic of Influenza, which has reached comparatively large proportions in other parts of the country, it would be well that the Board request the Press to extend their usual courtesy by giving publicity to the precautions to be taken against the spread of the disease—

1. Influenza is transmitted directly from person to person and is highly infectious even in its early stages, being conveyed from the sick to the healthy by the secretions from the nose, throat and respiratory tract, which are projected through the air as a fine spray in coughing, sneezing and even in loud talking. It is, therefore, of vital importance that overcrowding in places of public resort or in public conveyances should be avoided. The licence for holding a Ceilidhe in aid of the funds of the G.A.A., as they were all great hurlers in Ballyduff.

2. Children from infected houses should be warned not to attend school and in cases of epidemic outbreaks in rural areas where the children have few opportunities of coming in contact with other children, the closure of the schools during the continuance of the epidemic might be recommended. Members of households where the disease is present should be advised not to attend cinemas or other crowded places or assemblies, nor should they visit or receive visits from their friends unnecessarily whilst the disease is in their homes.

3. In dealing with Influenza, the necessity for the early isolation of the case, and for the protection of those in attendance on, or in contact with, the patient cannot be over emphasised. Where the patient is being nursed at home he should be accommodated in a separate room. Persons coming in contact with the case, or who enter the sick room should be careful to avoid becoming infected. The danger may be materially diminished by avoiding inhalation of the patient's breath, and in addition the use of a simple antiseptic gargle may help to ward off infection. The last mentioned preventive measure is useful but its value as a safeguard must not be over-estimated. A simple gargle can be made by adding enough permanganate of potash to a tumbler of water to give it a faint pink colour (1 part of permanganate in 5000). A small pinch of common salt should be added to this solution, which in addition to being used as a gargle should be drawn up through the nostrils and ejected by the mouth.

4. After a case of Influenza has occurred in a house, a thorough washing and cleansing of rooms and of washable articles therein, together with bedding and wearing apparel is necessary. As fresh air dilutes and dissipates infective material, the sick room should, at all times, be thoroughly ventilated—both during and after the attack.

5. When a death occurs from the disease or from any complication thereof, warning should be given to the relatives of the deceased that the holding of a wake is not to be permitted in view of the statutory prohibition.

6. Among general preventive measures it is well to mention thorough ventilation of each occupied living room and bedroom, the avoidance of overcrowding in dwellings and in places of public resort, the frequent spraying of Picture Theatres and Schools with disinfectant, the observance of strict cleanliness in the person, the home, and the workshop, the holding of a handkerchief as a shield before the mouth while coughing, abstention from indiscriminate spitting, and the active realisation by persons suffering from influenza or catarrh that they may convey the infection to others with possible fatal results.

Up to the present, there is no cause for anxiety, but, as a preparation in the eventuality of a sudden epidemic, I recommend that the Board consider the advisability of instructing the County Medical Officer of Health and the Secretary to arrange—

1. As much additional Hospital accommodation as possible for those afflicted.

2. The provision of additional Nursing help for severe cases in their homes.

3. Printing and distribution of Instructive leaflets and Posters, if such is considered necessary.

A TRIP TO TALLOW

To The Editor

Dear Sir,—I was somewhat interested in the "Tallow Notes" last week, the writer calling attention to a serious want in the matter of sewerage for a part of the town.

Judging by the successful manner in which local Committees run Gaining Meetings, etc., there can be no room for doubt that there is an abundance of organising ability in the place.

Tallow is situated in the centre of a most interesting district, with many historical and antiquarian attractions and scenic beauties that would take some beating, the rivers in the neighbourhood are noted for their fishing. In the immediate vicinity are Mount Mellary, Lismore Castle, Stranally Castle, Lisfenny Castle, the Blackwater, etc. Why not something be done to boom and boost the town?

The question at once arises—How is this to be done? As already pointed out there is a wealth of organising capabilities in the locality. This must be made use of and developed. Other places have their Town Commissioners, Urban Councils, etc. to do the necessary work in the way of advertising and otherwise.

Others again, in the absence of such bodies, have their Development or Improvement Associations. Why not the principal men of Tallow put their heads together and do likewise? There is little or no attention paid to one voice "crying in the wilderness." However, if a body of determined men came together—such as got up the Gaining Meeting and other successful functions—they would surely do some good.

Anyhow, the idea is worth considering, and I shall look forward with some confidence to something tangible being done in the very near future. I am sure a body of the kind suggested would get valuable help from the Press, especially now that there is an able Pressman at their service locally.

Friend of Tallow.

THE PALADIUM CINEMA LISMORE

With reference to the short paragraph which we published last week about the opening of The Paladium Cinema, in Parks Road, Lismore, at the eastern end of the town, it must be said that the popular and enterprising Proprietor deserves the best thanks of the townspeople for providing them with such a splendid and up-to-date form of entertainment.

The spacious hall in Parks Road, which has been the venue for many important Concerts, Plays and Dances in the past, has now been converted into the most modern and up-to-date Talkie Cinema which would be a credit to any town in Munster.

The Talkie Apparatus, which has only recently installed, is one of the best, which money could buy, and as the interior of the hall has been specially treated and lined in the most up-to-date style for "sound production" its acoustic properties are now perfect in every detail.

Fully-furnished with richly-upholstered tip-up seats, and specially heated throughout, the building is very cosy and comfortable and is a distinct credit to Lismore and its enterprising Proprietor.

The Cinema was opened to the public with a matinee on last Sunday week, while the second performance was given that night, both "houses" attracting crowded audiences, not only from Lismore, but also from Cappoquin, Tallow, Ballyduff and other places, and all were loud in their praise of the perfect sound produced by the new Apparatus, as well as by the high quality of the pictures shown.

At all the performances since given on Sundays and Wednesdays, the audiences have been extremely large and highly appreciative, so that it is quite clear already that this new Cinema can safely count on the warm and generous support of the public in the future.

The full programmes for next Sunday and Wednesday will be found in our advertisement columns this week.

RAILWAYMEN'S CLAIMS

WATERFORD GRIEVANCES

Waterford Branch U.I.R. called on their Executive to immediately submit claims for the full restoration of wages deductions, and to re-open negotiations for the revision of the National agreement. It was stated that the sections of the Conditions of Employment Act relating to Church holidays militated against Waterford railway shopmen.

Mr. Waters, organiser, assured the members that the question of the shopmen's wages grievances and other clauses would be raised in the Dail, and steps would be taken to have the objectionable clause suppressed.

At the close of the meeting Mr. Waters was presented by the Chairman, Mr. J. O'Neill, with a picture of the scene in the G.P.O. Dublin, in Easter Week, 1916 which will be hung in the Union headquarters, Parnell Square, Dublin.

Recent Waterford Strike

MANY CHARGES IN COURT

Fifty-five cases, including charges of intimidation, assault and conspiracy, arising out of the clashes between workers and strikers during the recent Clover Meat Factory strike, came before District Justice McCabe at Waterford.

The defendants pleading guilty, the Probation Act was applied in the majority of cases. In other defendants were bound to the peace.

Daniel Waters and Richard Frissey, were each fined 5/- on a charge of assaulting John Fitzpatrick at Clover Meat Factory.

District Justice McCabe said the cases were dealt with leniently because the trouble was over, but he did not want it to get around that that sort of amnesties would follow labour disputes. He paid tribute to the good work of the Gardaí in preventing serious trouble.

Doctor's Report

The doctor's report was as follows— Since my last report there have been 4 deaths. Seven patients are confined to bed owing to debility and other causes. There has been no case of seclusion, restraint, injury or violence. There has been no complaint of the water supply. The food supplies have been regularly examined and found up to standard requirements. There has been no case of zymotic disease and the general health of the Institution is excellent.

Kirk's Farm

In the course of his usual monthly report the Farm Steward stated that Dr. Honan had reminded him that Kirk's farm had been taken over by the Institution and that the present was the most suitable season to consider whether it should be cultivated.

It was stated that no official intimation of the taking over had yet been received, and the matter of dealing with the land was referred to the Cork Committee.

The medals were presented amid loud applause from the members of the meeting.

Rev. Fr. Walsh, in a short address to the meeting said: The hurlers of Waterford, especially the Juniors had brought great honour to our County. This year again, Waterford were in the Junior All-Ireland Final, having won it in 1934.

All that Waterford players needed, said Father Walsh, was a little more self-confidence, and they would prove to the rest of Ireland that Waterford hurlers were second to none in the country. The players should be proud to be Waterford men and proud to be members of the Association. The Waterford teams should be selected from the very best players, no matter what Club they belong to, and if this was done the proper spirit would make the teams try and put Waterford on top.

Returning thanks for his election as Hon. President, Father Walsh said he was very proud of the honour of being President of the oldest Club in the County. He wished the Club every success in the coming year, both on the field and in its social life, and appealed for its support both financially and as members to those present. They should all work together for the Club during the year.

Mr. Pax Whelan, in proposing a vote of thanks to Rev. Fr. Walsh, for attending, said he was glad to see Fr. Walsh taking such an interest in the Club. He felt that his example would lead to a great improvement. Mr. H. O'Mahony, seconded the vote of thanks.

The meeting decided to run six teams in the County Championships—one in each Grade.

Mr. P. Whelan, returned thanks to the members for attending, and asked for their continued support during the year, also wished to inform the members of the Club that a Billiard Handicap was being started in the near future. Special Prizes had been kindly given for same by Mr. John Walsh, N.I., St. John of God's, Limerick, who presented a valuable Cue and Case, and by Mr. Ed. Fielding, O'Connell Street, who presented a Silver Medal with gold centre.

A special word of thanks was due to Mr. Walsh, who although many miles away, now as always, was ever ready to help the Club. He was sure he was expressing the wishes of the members in wishing Mr. Walsh further success in his new and responsible position.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

Present—Messrs. P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., Chairman; M. Cashman, R. Savage, J. N. R. Macnamara, solr., T. K. Keane, solr., E. P. Lynch, T. Beausang, R. Power, J. Forrest, J. Whelan, E. D. Condon, J. Daly, B.E., M. D. Broderick.

C. Y. M. S.

The Chairman applied on behalf of the C.Y.M.S. for the use of the Green Room on the 26th to hold their Social.

New Houses

A letter was read from Mr. Macnamara, solr., on behalf of Mr. W. Barrett, for permission to erect two houses on a plot at McCurtainstown, and submitted plans, etc.

The plans were referred to the Town Surveyor.

British Legion

Mr. E. Bushe, applied on behalf of the local Branch British Legion, for the use of the Ball Room on 8th prox., to hold a Cinderella dance.

The application was granted.

C. Y. M. S.

An application from the Dramatic Class Y.M.S. for the use of the Town Hall on 3rd and 4th prox., was also granted.

New Building

Mr. M. Walsh, builder, Upped Strand, submitted plans of a Green house which he intended erecting.

After a short discussion as to whether the structure would interfere with the view of the adjoining houses, the matter was referred to the Town Surveyor.

Housing Conditions

A tenant of a small house in Chapel Lane, applied for one of the Council's new houses in Sarsfield Terrace. He and his wife with four children lived in one room, with a boy of 15 and a girl of 13 in one bed.

Mr. Macnamara—That is appalling and should not be allowed in a Christian country.

Mr. Power—It is disgraceful. We must stop that kind of thing by getting on with another scheme.

The Clerk read a letter from another poor man at Greenelyne, who had a wife and six children similarly situated.

Mr. Power said he knew the case, and they could not have a worse one. His landlord had obtained a decree for possession and he had nowhere to go.

The Chairman said there was no vacant house at present but judging by the list before them, they would soon have 4 or 5.

The Clerk then read a list of tenants in arrears, showing 14 owing from 4 up to 15 weeks rent.

The Chairman said that the Council, adopted a resolution to proceed against all owing over 8 weeks.

Mr. Power—We made the rule and we must keep it.

Salaries

The L.G. wrote sanctioning the proposed increase in the Gas Manager's salary.

It was unanimously decided to increase the salary of the Town Clerk's Assistant from 50/- to £3 weekly.

Tourist Traffic

The Chairman referred to the importance to the town of the summer tourist traffic, and suggested that a meeting be summoned of all interested, with the object of considering what steps might be taken to make the place more attractive for visitors.

Mr. Savage said that was a very good suggestion and now was the time to take action.

Mr. Whelan agreed. Unless they put a move on, Youghal would be left behind.

Other members having expressed agreement, the Chairman's suggestion was unanimously adopted.

Sympathy

Mr. Power proposed a vote of sympathy with the wife and family and relatives of the late Mr. W. J. Burke, M.P.S.I. He was well known in and far outside the town as a gentleman in every sense of the word, and a grand character.

Mr. Broderick, seconding, said the late Mr. Burke was one of nature's gentlemen, and at an early age was a tragedy.

Messrs. Whelan, Condon, Cashman and other members having associated themselves with the proposition.

Mr. Lynch said the late Mr. Burke was more than a gentleman. He was an all-round sportsman, was extremely charitable, unknown to any but the recipients.

Mr. Forrest, as a schoolmate of his at the Christian Brothers, said he was a credit to them and to the town.

Mr. Daly said he was a good neighbour and a good sport in every form.

Mr. Savage said he was one of the most lovable characters to be found.

The Town Clerk asked to be associated with the vote.

The Chairman referred to the high tribute paid to his memory by his fellow townspeople and others at the funeral. He was a friend to everybody and an out and out sportsman. His demise in his prime was a severe blow to his wife and family who had the sincere sympathy of the whole community.

New Act

The Clerk said he had now procured the necessary forms in connection with the New Milk and Dairies Act. The administration of the Act would entail endless trouble. It would require a bevy of lawyers to understand it (laughter).

CAPOQUIN NOTES.

DATE OF POINT-TO-POINT RACES—

Although it is over two months ago since the Cappoquin Race Committee submitted two dates, Thursday, Feb. 11 and Thursday Feb. 18, to the Stewards of the L.N.H.S. Committee, and requested them to fix one of those dates for the Annual Point-to-Point Races this year, it was only on last Saturday that this "August" Body woke up and fixed on February 18 for Cappoquin, thus giving the Race Committee little over a month in which to advertise the event, and carry out all the preliminary preparations necessary for such an important fixture.

At the same time they fixed the date for Tallow Races for Wednesday, Feb. 17, giving this Committee little over a fortnight in which to prepare for the event, while they fixed Tuesday, March 30th for Lismore, although a Wednesday in April has always proved the most popular date for this fixture in the past. We have often heard that "Great Bodies move Slowly," and certainly the Stewards in question are entitled to be described as a "Great Body" judging by the way with which they have dealt with those matters.

However, it is well to know that the air is now cleared, and that the ever-popular Cappoquin Point-to-Point Races will be definitely held on Thursday, Feb. 18, over the usual picturesque course at Ballynoe, between Cappoquin and Mount Melleryn.

While the total stakes this year will be of the same value as formerly, viz. £100 with five Valuable Challenge Cups, some important changes have been made in the allocation of this sum with a view to making the fixture more popular for owners of horses living a considerable distance from Cappoquin. Hitherto, five stakes of £20 had been offered for the five events, on the programme, including the Cob's Race and the Confined Hunt Race, but this year the Committee has decided to reduce the latter two stakes to £15 each, and increase the Open Farmers and also the Open Light-Weight Hunt Races to £25 each, leaving the Open Maiden Race at the usual £20, which, we think, should prove a most equitable arrangement for all the sportsmen concerned, as it was pointed out that Cappoquin was one of the few Committees in Munster giving £20 and a Valuable Cup for a Cob's Race. We think this has been a very prudent step for the Committee to take, as the increased stakes for the Open Farmers and Open Light-Weight Hunt Races should result in much larger entries for these events, while the other events should lose none of their popularity in the meantime.

Now that the members of the Committee know where they are, as regards the date of the event, no time will be lost in starting work immediately in preparing the fences, and generally improving the splendid course, so as to make it one of the finest Point-to-Point courses in Munster.

Following the procedure of previous years, since the financial slump became so acute in the country, the Committee will not make any general collection for funds in the ordinary way this year, but will rely on the support of the public in another way by running a series of Whist Drives and a Big Dance for the purpose, so that those who patronise these functions will, at least, receive direct value for their money, while giving practical support to the Race Fund at the same time. The first Whist Drive for this purpose was held last month, but as the cost of running the event will be much larger than this function has realised, another Monster Whist Drive on an unusually attractive scale will be held in the Boat-house on Sunday night Feb. 14, four days before the Races, when highly-avaluable prizes will be offered.

The dance which was postponed last Wednesday night was also in aid of the Race Fund.

SUCCESSFUL "45 DRIVE"—

The "45 Drive" started in aid of the funds of the Cappoquin Hurling and Football Club was brought to a successful close last Sunday when the Semi-Final and Final Rounds were played off in the Boat-house Hall. Owing to the heavy and incessant downpour of rain all day, many Gaelic supporters from the country districts, who had intended being present, were unable to travel, but there was still a very good attendance at the first stages, mostly all the competitors being either from the town or the immediate neighbourhood.

Mr. Joe Mason, Hon. Sec., and the members of the Committee had all the arrangements in perfect order, and the games were played in the best of good humour, and without the slightest hitch from start to finish.

The prizes were £5 for the winning pair, £2 for the second and 2 for the third, and after a series of closely-contested games, the first prize of £5 was won by Messrs. Edmond Loneragan, Cappoquin, and William Coffey, do., two sterling local Gaels, and two brilliant hurlers, who were loudly applauded on their success.

The four players left in for the second prize of £3 and the third prize of £2 were Messrs. Michael Ahern, Cappoquin, Patrick Crotty, do.; James Ryan, do.; and Pat. McGrath, Dromana, but, instead of playing on to the finish, they decided to "Pool" the two prizes into £5, thereby receiving 25s. each as their share of the prize-money, which proved a happy ending to a most enjoyable afternoon's sport.

Another interesting event in aid of the Hurling and Football Club will be held next month, full details of which will appear in this column in due course.

PAROCHIAL FUND CONCERT—

The Grand Concert and Variety Entertainment which is being organised by Mr. F. X. O'Leary, N.I., in aid of the Cappoquin Parochial Fund, and which will be held in the Boat-house hall on Sunday night, January 31st, will be of an unusually attractive nature, as Mr. O'Leary has departed from the "beaten track" and intends to present a programme on this occasion which will be simply bristling with novelties, and fresh and original features which will be new to Cappoquin.

As the object of the Concert is a most deserving one and the programme will be "par excellence," this should prove a most delightful treat to all, as can be seen when the full details of the programme appear next week.

NEARING THE END—

The bad weather which prevailed on last Sunday night militated seriously against the attendance at the practice dance held in the Boat-house hall, which was much smaller than usual, but a most enjoyable time was spent, by those present. The dancing season is rapidly nearing the end, because owing to the Boat-house being booked for the Concert on Sunday night week, next Sunday night's dance will be the last of its kind this season, but on Sunday night Feb 7 the last Sunday in Shrovetide, a grand finale will be held which will "Ring down the Curtain" on dancing in Cappoquin until Easter Sunday night, when the usual All-Night Dance will be held in the same popular hall.

A COSTLY UNDERTAKING—

We notice that at the meeting of the County Board of Public Health held in Dungarvan last week the substantial sum of £5,004 was estimated for, and passed for the purpose of carrying out a new Drainage Scheme in Cappoquin.

As this sum will provide for the new Sewerage Scheme at the South side of Barrack Street, amongst other works this will be good news to the residents on that side of the street, as it will be a welcome improvement on the insanitary and unhealthy conditions under which they had to live up to this.

As the ranks of the unemployed in Cappoquin are beginning to swell again, we hope the Scheme will be started at an early date.

A HEAVY COURT—

Next week's District Court promises to be one of the heaviest and most interesting held in Cappoquin for a long time. A sequel to the serious accident which happened about two miles outside the town before Xmas, in which a man named O'Gorman was knocked down by the Dungarvan Hospital Ambulance, will be provided by a prosecution against the driver, while another important case will be a prosecution by the Board of Health against a local firm for permitting an alleged nuisance on the premises. Other cases of more than ordinary local interest also figure on the Calendar.

RAVAGES OF THE FLU—

We think it was Callanan, the Cork Poet who wrote— "For Consumption has no pity "For blue eyes and golden hair."

Whoever the author, the same words could be applied with equal force to the "Flu" owing to its serious ravages amongst practically all sections of the people of Cappoquin during the past few weeks.

Fortunately, no death has occurred as a result of the epidemic, but how widespread are its ravages here may be judged from the fact that Dr. Wm. White, M.O., had no less than 150 "Flu" patients on his list on Monday, 18th inst. We sincerely hope the epidemic will soon pass away, so that all the stricken victims will be speedily restored to their usual good health and spirits again.

DANCE DANCE POSTPONED—

Owing to the "Flu" epidemic, the Cappoquin Point-to-Point Race Dance, which was to be held on Wednesday night last, had to be postponed.

MENTS IN PERFECT ORDER, AND THE GAMES WERE PLAYED IN THE BEST OF GOOD HUMOUR, AND WITHOUT THE SLIGHTEST HITCH FROM START TO FINISH.

THE PRIZES WERE £5 FOR THE WINNING PAIR, £2 FOR THE SECOND AND 2 FOR THE THIRD, AND AFTER A SERIES OF CLOSELY-CONTENDED GAMES, THE FIRST PRIZE OF £5 WAS WON BY MESSRS. EDMOND LONERAGAN, CAPOQUIN, AND WILLIAM COFFEY, DO., TWO STERLING LOCAL GAELS, AND TWO BRILLIANT HURLERS, WHO WERE LOUDLY APPLAUDED ON THEIR SUCCESS.

The four players left in for the second prize of £3 and the third prize of £2 were Messrs. Michael Ahern, Cappoquin, Patrick Crotty, do.; James Ryan, do.; and Pat. McGrath, Dromana, but, instead of playing on to the finish, they decided to "Pool" the two prizes into £5, thereby receiving 25s. each as their share of the prize-money, which proved a happy ending to a most enjoyable afternoon's sport.

Another interesting event in aid of the Hurling and Football Club will be held next month, full details of which will appear in this column in due course.

PAROCHIAL FUND CONCERT—

The Grand Concert and Variety Entertainment which is being organised by Mr. F. X. O'Leary, N.I., in aid of the Cappoquin Parochial Fund, and which will be held in the Boat-house hall on Sunday night, January 31st, will be of an unusually attractive nature, as Mr. O'Leary has departed from the "beaten track" and intends to present a programme on this occasion which will be simply bristling with novelties, and fresh and original features which will be new to Cappoquin.

As the object of the Concert is a most deserving one and the programme will be "par excellence," this should prove a most delightful treat to all, as can be seen when the full details of the programme appear next week.

KILMACTHOMAS NEWS.

Death of a Popular Kilrossanty Parishioner—
The death of Mrs. Mary Drohan, widow of the late Mr. John Drohan, Knockyellan, Kilrossanty, which sad event occurred at her residence on Monday, came as a great shock to her many friends and well-wishers throughout West Waterford. The deceased lady, who had reached her 71st year, had enjoyed the best of health up to three weeks ago, since then despite the best of medical attention and careful nursing, she daily grew weaker, and breathed her last on Monday morning, her death being a holy and happy one. From the outset, Dr. Dooley, Kilmacthomas, was in constant attendance, while her spiritual requirements were most assiduously attended to by the good priests of the parish, Father Kehoe, P.P., and Fr. Hart, C.C.

By her death, her native parish of Kilrossanty has lost one of its most lovable inhabitants, as she was a truly model Irish Catholic wife and mother and neighbour. Her piety, benevolence and hospitality were outstanding characteristics of her honour-crowned career. Her deservedly popular husband had pre-deceased her by more than two decades. During the Anglo-Irish War her home was always open to the "boys on the run" and many members of the Old I.R.A. in and out of the County today will, in affectionate remembrance of her unflinching kindness to them during the Trouble, unite with the rest in praying for the happy repose of her soul, and in tendering the deepest sympathy to her family in their sorrow and loss. At 3 p.m. on Tuesday evening the remains were removed to Kilrossanty Parish Church. The cortege, which was one of the largest and most representative seen in the district for a long time, was headed by the priests of the parish.

Masses of Requiem were celebrated in the Church on Wednesday morning, following which the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery amid many manifestations of profound public grief.

Fr. Kehoe, P.P., recited the last prayers at the graveside, assisted by Fr. Hart, C.C.

The chief mourners included—Mr. John Drohan, P.C., Knockyellan (son); Miss M. A. Drohan, Dublin (daughter); Mr. John Power, Curraheen, Kilrossanty and Mr. Patrick Power, Kiely's Cross, Youghal (brothers); The Misses Alice, Joe, and Nora Power, Curraheen and Mrs. Bridget Kiely, Ballynabanogue, Kilmacthomas (sisters), etc.

Several Mass Cards and letters and telegrams of sympathy were received and a number of beautiful floral tributes placed on the grave.

By the way, the late Mrs. Drohan was mother of Mr. Andrew Drohan, who occupies a responsible Government position in New York, to which City he emigrated at the close of the struggle for Irish Independence, in which he had actively participated with the Waterford Brigade, I.R.A.—Ar dheis De go raib a-nam.

Condolence—
At a specially convened meeting of the Kilrossanty Amateur Dramatic Club, a vote of condolence was, on the proposition of Mr. Thomas J. Power, P.C., seconded by Mr. James Dunphy, passed with Mr. John Drohan (a valued member of the Club) on the death of his mother.

For Parochial Purposes—
On tomorrow (Sunday) night and again on Sunday night week, the Kilrossanty Players will by special request, reproduce Mr. George Shiels' capital three-act comedy, "The Jailbird," at the Hall, Leamybrien. Both performances will, as on the previous staging of the play, be in aid of a laudable local parochial purpose, and a bumper house is confidently anticipated on tomorrow night and again on Sunday night week.

Schools Closed—
Kilrossanty Boys' and Girls' National Schools are closed this week as a number of the children in the Parish are laid up with the flu and the measles.

Anglo-Saorstát Relations

There was an unexpected development in the Anglo-Saorstát situation, when President de Valera and Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, British Dominions Secretary, discussed relations between the two countries at two conferences, occupying five hours, in the London hotel at which the President was staying on his return from Zurich last week-end.

During the second conference the following official statement was given by Mr. Denis Devlin, Department of External Affairs, who accompanied the President:—"Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, Secretary of State for the Dominions, called on Mr. de Valera, President of the Executive Council of the Irish Free State, at his hotel in London, when informal discussions took place on a number of matters affecting the relations between the two countries." The statement was signed by Mr. Dulanty, Free State High Commissioner in London.

Mr. de Valera, accompanied by Mr. Devlin and Captain Sean Brennan, his aide-de-camp was on his way home from Zurich, where he saw Dr. Vogt, the eye specialist. Shortly after he arrived in London, Mr. MacDonald called on Mr. de Valera at his hotel, and remained with the President for two-and-three quarter hours.

It was revealed by Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, British Dominions Secretary, in the House of Commons on Tuesday that he and President de Valera discussed a number of matters affecting relations between Britain and the Free State.

The talks he said, were informal, but arising out of them certain matters were now under examination.

The Coal-Cattle Pact would continue for another year, "subject to the possible modification of detail within the general framework of the arrangement."

There was an unexpected development in the Anglo-Saorstát situation, when President de Valera and Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, British Dominions Secretary, discussed relations between the two countries at two conferences, occupying five hours, in the London hotel at which the President was staying on his return from Zurich last week-end.

During the second conference the following official statement was given by Mr. Denis Devlin, Department of External Affairs, who accompanied the President:—"Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, Secretary of State for the Dominions, called on Mr. de Valera, President of the Executive Council of the Irish Free State, at his hotel in London, when informal discussions took place on a number of matters affecting the relations between the two countries." The statement was signed by Mr. Dulanty, Free State High Commissioner in London.

Mr. de Valera, accompanied by Mr. Devlin and Captain Sean Brennan, his aide-de-camp was on his way home from Zurich, where he saw Dr. Vogt, the eye specialist. Shortly after he arrived in London, Mr. MacDonald called on Mr. de Valera at his hotel, and remained with the President for two-and-three quarter hours.

It was revealed by Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, British Dominions Secretary, in the House of Commons on Tuesday that he and President de Valera discussed a number of matters affecting relations between Britain and the Free State.

The talks he said, were informal, but arising out of them certain matters were now under examination.

The Coal-Cattle Pact would continue for another year, "subject to the possible modification of detail within the general framework of the arrangement."

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

DEATH OF MRS. M. POWER, ROCK HOUSE, CLONMEL. The news of the death of Mrs. M. Power, wife of Mr. Wm. Power, M.R.C.V.S., Clonmel, which sad event took place at a Private Nursing Home in Waterford, on Thursday 14th inst., came as a great shock to the people of Dungarvan where she was very well known.

The deceased was daughter of the late Mr. John Mulcahy and Mrs. Mulcahy, Suirmount, Clonmel, and sister of our popular townsman Mr. B. Mulcahy, Main St., Dungarvan. She was sister-in-law of Rev. D. Power, Adm., St. John's, Waterford; Rev. M. Power, C.C., SS. Peter and Paul's, Clonmel and Rev. D. Power, C.C., St. Mary's, Clonmel.

Of a kind and charitable disposition, she was held in the highest esteem by all who had the pleasure of knowing her, and her death at such an early age is deeply regretted. The remains were removed from Waterford to SS Peter and Paul's Church, Clonmel, on Friday and the interment took place at St. Patrick's cemetery on Saturday morning after Office and Requiem High Mass for the repose of her soul had been celebrated.

DEATH OF MR. G. STOKES, DUNGARVAN.

A painful shock was caused in Dungarvan, on Saturday last, by the news of the untimely death of Mr. George Stokes, which occurred at his residence, Square, Dungarvan. The deceased who was in his usual good health on Friday last was taken suddenly ill on Saturday morning and passed peacefully away after receiving the last rites of Holy Church.

A member of one of the oldest families in the town (George Stokes and Sons, Contractor), the deceased took over the business on the death of his father some years ago, and carried out some very important contracts. Socially, he was a general favourite and his ready wit and genial good humour was the life and soul of any gathering. In his young days he was a noted footballer and played for one of the local teams.

The remains were removed to the Parish Church, Dungarvan on Sunday evening, and were followed by a large concourse of mourners and sympathisers. The burial took place in the adjoining cemetery on Monday after the celebration of Requiem Masses for the repose of his soul. There was another large attendance at the interment.

IRISH DIARY SHORTHORN BREEDERS' CONGRESS

INTERESTING PAPERS READ AND ADDRESSES DELIVERED

The following interesting papers were read and addresses delivered at the Annual Congress of the Irish Dairy Short-horn Breeders' Society, held in Cork recently.

"More Milk for the Growing Child," was the title of an interesting paper by Mr. L. S. O'Callaghan, B.A., Divisional Inspector of National Schools, Cork. "Nutrition," he said, "is of the greatest importance in the life and education of the child. Food is necessary to repair the waste produced by the activity of the body and to provide material for growth."

The three most characteristic signs of malnutrition in children are rickets, anaemia and bad teeth; these diseases and stunted growth are attributable to lack of first-class protein, mineral matter and vitamins. Milk provides these necessary dietary factors; fat and carbohydrates for the production of energy, proteins and mineral matter for body-building, vitamins which are necessary for growth and good health. It also supplies the power to resist diseases such as pulmonary and intestinal disorders, whooping cough, measles, diphtheria, and even cholera.

It is necessary at this stage to introduce into the discussion the relationship between breeding and the type of carcass. When two differently bred pigs are similarly fed the resulting carcasses may differ widely from one another. One may be short, blocky and very fat, whereas the other may be long and lean. Inheritance therefore, is an outstanding factor, indeed, the most important factor, in the production of a suitable type of bacon pig. We know the type which is required and the parents of our future pig stock must be selected with a view to the production of this type. Nevertheless, proper feeding is necessary to bring about the expression of the genetical make up of the animal. The economical production of a two hundred-weight pig at 6 months of age is largely a matter of feeding, and to a lesser degree the suitability of the carcass for bacon purposes is a matter of feeding also.

Concluding, Mr. Sheehy said it has been said that the excessive feeding of separated milk is conducive to the production of soft bacon. There is no foundation whatsoever for such a statement, and it probably arose because certain pigs fed on milk and maize meal have yielded poor quality carcasses. When combined with a suitable meal mixture separated milk may be fed in very considerable quantity, with exceedingly favourable results on bacon quality. Indeed separated milk is superior to most other foods in this connection. It has been also incorrectly said that the feeding of much water with the food, i.e., the giving of excessively sloppy food produces soft bacon. How this idea arose I do not know, but, in any case, it is correct. There is some evidence that the taking of excessive fluid over a continued period softens the abdomen as to produce a thin belly macon but this is very little more than a suggestion. Finally, it had been claimed that the feeding of a very large proportion of protein in the ration is one of the ways of increasing the proportion of lean meat in the carcass. This claim is invalid also while for normal development a definite quantity of protein food is necessary, an increased proportion of protein effects no further development either in growth or in the development of lean meat.

A vote of thanks was moved by Mr. E. J. Cussen, who said—"I am impelled by my experience of the pig and bacon industry to direct special attention to certain dangers which, in my opinion, are associated with milk as a food for pigs through all the stages of their development to baconers. I am an enthusiastic believer in the merits of skimmed milk as an economic and efficient food, but I do think that until tuberculosis is wholly eliminated from our herds, milk, which is a favourable medium for tubercular infection, should be treated at creameries in such a manner that would render it a far less incidental cause of tuberculosis amongst pigs, and may also say amongst cattle."

"The losses suffered in the pig industry consequent on condemnations in bacon factories in respect of tuberculosis aggregate to a considerable sum of money each year. From a study of the reports published from time to time by the Veterinary Department of Cork Corporation, I have been able to arrive at a fairly reliable estimate of the cash value of pigs condemned and relegated to the destructor for the five years ended December 31st, 1935. This value can be reckoned at a minimum of £25,000 for that period, and it is quite possible that it reached £40,000. Add to that, the loss suffered through the incidence of tuberculosis in cattle throughout the area from which pigs are supplied to Cork and the total is a considerable sum in this one centre, and is, of course, proportionately greater in the Milk campaign in view of the enormous advantages that would result to the youth of the country. Dr. Doyle seconded the resolution, which was passed unanimously. Mr. E. P. Stanley, Chairman, Cork Milk Vendors' Association, promised the support of the Association to the Society in this campaign.

Mr. E. J. Sheehy, D.Sc., Albert Agricultural College, Dublin, delivered an address on "The Pig Raising Industry in relation to Dairying."

Mr. Sheehy said that in this country as in other countries where milk is largely produced, it was often said that pig-feeding was a suitable adjunct to dairying. Not alone must the food of an animal be sufficient in quantity but for best results it must contain all the different, essential, nutritive ingredients in definite proportion, one to another. The foods which enter most largely into the dietary of pigs, namely cereals, i.e., maize, barley, oats, the cereals by-products, i.e., bran and pollard and potatoes, are all deficient in a number of respects and they realised the necessity for balancing a ration made from these materials with other foods which were rich in the ingredients of which the foregoing were so deficient. Pasture supplied all the factors which the cereals lack. It was rich in minerals, in proteins and in vitamins and, in addition, it promoted the necessary healthy activity of pigs intestinal tubes. Having dealt with the question of attention and feeding of sows before farrowing, Mr. Sheehy went on to speak of the feeding of young pigs and older pigs, and he said that in connection with the production of a desirable bacon carcass, it should be borne in mind that as a pig developed with age its body proportions altered. In the young bonham the head, neck and legs form a very large part of the entire carcass, and the shoulder was heavier than the under end of the body. As the animal increased in size and weight a wave of growth extended from the head to the tail, so that the loins and hind quarters, where the best meat was carried, developed more rapidly than the fore end of the body and the proportion of the choice cuts to the entire weight of the carcass became increasingly greater.

The following resolution from the Co. Kerry Committee was proposed by Mr. McElligott, Lismore, seconded by Mr. Lawlor, Ballyheigue, and passed unanimously—"That Congress request an all round increase in agricultural prices to secure a just comparison between prices, wages and standards of living in farm and factory, and that as the village industrial revival is practically confined to fertile lands the State forests be fixed and mainly confined to poor and mountain lands in Donegal and West Cork."

A resolution from the Kildorrery C.T.A.—"That in our opinion the Live Stock Breeding Act should be enforced or abolished forthwith," was proposed by Miss Montgomery, seconded by Mr. A. H. Good, M.A., and passed unanimously.

Mr. O'Callaghan proposed a vote of thanks both to Professor O'Dea and to Mr. Pearce, M.R.C.V.S.

Mr. Hallden, in seconding, pointed out that a large number of delegates had left to catch their trains and buses and in order that these people should miss nothing, both papers would be printed and circulated amongst the members of the Co. Waterford Association (applause).

Mr. D. Maher, B.A., Cashel, in seconding, also included the outgoing President, who had presided at the opening of the Congress.

The vote of thanks was carried with acclamation and the proceedings concluded with the playing of the National Anthem.

Mr. D. P. Forde, seconded the resolution, which was passed. Mr. Forde then proposed a resolution that the Congress direct the Executive Committee of the Society to take the necessary steps to organise a "Drink More whole country. Milk is one of the principal items of food supplied to pigs especially where the stocks are limited to small numbers, and there can be scarcely a doubt that the huge losses consequent on the disease are traceable to skimmed milk. "I do not wish to suggest for a moment that milk generally is a source of danger or infection, because it is definitely recognised that the vast proportion of our new milk is free from the elements of infection, but as is practically inevitable there are a few cows in each creamery district affected, with tuberculous whose milk when mixed with all the other milk in the course of skimming is sufficient to contaminate the lot, and nullifying of that danger of contamination is worthy of earnest consideration. A long time must necessarily elapse until the scheme of eliminating tubercular cattle is completed and, in the meantime, the losses resulting from the infection of our pigs and our young cattle would have accumulated to far more than we could afford."

"The pasteurization of skimmed milk is recognised as an effective method of neutralising the dangers of tuberculous infection. The installation cost and running costs of pasteurising plant are, I believe, well within the resources of most creamery societies nowadays, and I am satisfied that the outlay would be well repaid in the improved health of our livestock and in the saving that would be effected of the cash losses that are suffered in existing circumstances. The prestige of our livestock generally would be enhanced, and it is difficult to calculate how great the cumulative benefits of exterminating the disease from our midst. "It is stated that pasteurization adversely affects the qualities of milk for food purposes, but the defects created by pasteurization can be remedied at a cost that would bear small proportion to the cost which I suggest, as being paid through infection of non-pasteurized milk. I have no doubt that these suggestions of mine will give rise to protests for differing reasons, but no one can gainsay that the problem is there, and that its solution must be tackled at some time—it were better sooner than later."

Mr. M. H. O'Connor, Castlesland, seconded the vote of thanks, which was carried with acclamation.

The following resolution from the Co. Kerry Committee was proposed by Mr. McElligott, Lismore, seconded by Mr. Lawlor, Ballyheigue, and passed unanimously—"That Congress request an all round increase in agricultural prices to secure a just comparison between prices, wages and standards of living in farm and factory, and that as the village industrial revival is practically confined to fertile lands the State forests be fixed and mainly confined to poor and mountain lands in Donegal and West Cork."

COUNTY WATERFORD LAND SETTLEMENT ASSOCIATION

Meeting of Executive Committee

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Co. Waterford Land Settlement Association, was held in the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on Sunday Jan., 17th, delegates attending from various parish branches throughout the County.

The Secretary, in his report, stated that it was not possible for the deputation appointed to interview the Minister at the last meeting to proceed to Dublin, as no arrangements were made for them to meet the Minister. As requested he had sent a list of the various matters proposed to be discussed with the Minister, but it is apparent from the correspondence received that nothing was done by him to facilitate the wishes of this Association.

Correspondence was read re the acquisition of various estates in the County. Various delegates expressed the view that the Land Commission was not giving the necessary attention to this County and suggested that more active steps should be taken to have these ranches divided.

The Chairman in the course of his address fully agreed that very little land was divided in this County when compared with the division in other counties. Due to the inactivity of the Land Commission and the powers that be it was found necessary to start this Association a non-political and non-sectarian body in order to try and secure for this County an adequate share of the benefits to be gained from the Government policy.

Our first object here is to see that land division goes on and if not then active measures must be taken to apportion the cause of the delay to the guilty parties and to use every means at our disposal to bring pressure to bear on the T.D.'s, etc., to get them to do something for the people of this county. When our Secretary writes for information re the amount of land divided each year in the county or the amount offered by owners to the Land Commission for division, nobody will supply him with figures. In fact, of this Association from working in the manner that was unanimously approved at our first meeting.

This year a General Election is in the offing, and I feel sure that you will see in the near future a number of inspectors from the Land Commission being sent down to inspect and value the various estates which have been sent to them by this Association.

A word of warning is necessary here. We will not be satisfied with anything but division and we will tell the candidates for the Dail so when they ask us for our votes. Various estates have been inspected and valued for years in this county, but they are not yet divided. This Association has completed its share of the work on Land Division. It has sent the names of over 1,500 landless men and all the necessary particulars

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT.

Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J.

Michael Roche, Cork Hill, was charged incontinently with the larceny of two ladders value 6/- the property of Messrs. Murray, and Sons, builders.

John Murray, stated that he saw a ladder at the Garda Barracks and identified it as one taken from the new Cottage Hospital, for which his firm were contractors.

The accused worked for them there as labourer. He did not wish to press the case against the accused whom he found to be an honest and hard-working young man up to that lapse.

Detective Officer P. J. Power, stated that on the night of 12th January, he accompanied Sgt. O'Beirne, and Guard Stack to Youghal Lands. Witness remained concealed near a fence. Guard Stack was concealed further down the field and Sgt. O'Beirne was near the gate.

About 10.25 p.m. he saw a man crossing the fence with a ladder, halted him and saw by the light of a flash lamp it was the accused.

Sgt. O'Beirne read a statement made by accused after due caution to the effect that he found a ladder by the side of a ditch two months ago. When he went for the ladder after two months it was sold.

It was stuck in a brake at the back of the Dead House and was taken away altogether. About a month ago he went over the wall of the new Cottage Hospital took another and brought it to the back of the old hospital. About a week after he found it was sawed down the middle and one half was gone.

He left the remaining portion where it was. A fortnight ago he took another ladder from the new Cottage Hospital, and brought it towards Sanfield's Terrace, intending to put it up against the back of a house for some improper purpose.

On the night of 17th Jan., when he went for the ladder it was gone from where he left it. He found it on the following night and was going down the field with it when he was ordered to put his hands up by three Guards. He admitted he took the ladder from the New Cottage Hospital to put it up against the back wall of a house.

He had been keeping company with a girl and used to take her to the pictures, she paying for herself and he buying sweets for her. He frequently visited the locality to protect the girl and he did protect her, beating up a few sailors accompanying her. He did not put the ladder against the wall as he intended. When he thought what he was doing he backed out.

Guard Stack stated that he arrested the accused and charged him. He said he had nothing to say.

The Justice—What do you say for yourself? Accused—I was tempted to do it. I went for the ladder but had no intention of stealing it.

The Justice—When you found the first ladder gone, you took a second and subsequently went for a third?—That is right, sir.

What became of the first two?—I could not say. Replying to the Justice, the Superintendent said there was nothing against the accused before. His family were honest and hard working.

The Justice said in view of Mr. Murray's appeal and of the character given by the Guards, he would give accused a chance and let him out under the P.O.A. on his own and his father's surety of 50/- each. It was the first case of the kind that came before him. The property was taken not through dishonesty, but through unclean, filthy motives. If any other case of a similar nature came before him he would impose, as he had been inclined to do in that case, the maximum term of imprisonment. There would be no more leniency.

CARRICK-ONSUIR DISTRICT COURT

Held on Monday before Mr. McCabe, D.J.

Mr. P. Cullinane, Rate Collector for Co. Waterford area adjoining Carrick-on-Suir, obtained a decree for 111 rates due against Michael Wade, farmer, Kilkenny, Co. Waterford.

The case was adjourned last Court day on a point raised by Mr. Quinlan, solr., for defendant, that the Court had no jurisdiction in the case as the rate collector should have proceeded in the District Court by summons and not by civil bill.

It was pointed out by Mr. Quirke, solr., for the Rate Collector, that the New Act re rate collection which came into force on the 28th November, 1936 empowers rate collectors to proceed by summons or Civil Bill process in the District Court and that process in this case was served on December 1st, 1936.

In a case in which Mr. Cullinane, Rate Collector sued Mrs. E. Hickey, from Portlaw district, for 24 6s. 8d., Mr. Quirke, solr., for defendant, said Mrs. Hickey had always paid her rates promptly—so promptly that during the past couple of years she had paid rates on holdings that were not occupied or used by any person.

Mr. Hally, solr., for the Co. Council, said Mrs. Hickey had paid moieties of rates on premises as mentioned by Mr. Quirke, and thereby admitted her liability. He agreed with Mr. Quirke that Mrs. Hickey is an upright and honest woman.

Mr. Quirke—If a decree is given, I will ask for a stay to sue the Co. Council for a return of the rates paid by Mrs. Hickey on unoccupied holdings. That sum would be equal to what she is now sued for.

The Justice gave a decree for 24 6s. 8d. and 1/- costs. John Meaney, lorry driver, Carrick-on-Suir, was fined 5/- for driving a lorry on the middle of the road near a turn.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

(Held Over from last Week)

Present—Messrs. P. J. O'Gorman, P.C. Chairman, M. Abern, E. P. Lynch, J. R. Smyth, P.C., R. Savage, T. Beausang, J. N. R. Macnamara, solr., R. Power, J. Daly, B.E., J. Whelan.

Rotation of Employment A letter was read from the L.G.D. regarding the rotation of employment on the new scheme, and after a short discussion, the matter was adjourned.

The Coursing Meeting The Chairman said he would like to avail of this opportunity to cordially congratulate the Youghal Coursing Club on their very successful resuscitation of the local meeting. They certainly showed other bodies in the town what good work could be done by a small number of earnest energetic workers.

On behalf of the Council he tendered them sincere congratulations to their esteemed colleague, Mr. E. P. Lynch, on having secured a Stake. It was a very popular win, his father, the late Mr. James Lynch, also an old member of that Board, was a great sportsman likewise. He hoped the results of the day's sport would encourage others to go and do likewise.

Mr. Power as a member of the Old Coursing Club had much pleasure in endorsing the Chairman's remarks. He was practically acquainted with the labour and risk involved in running a Coursing meeting and he therefore, said that the local Club deserved everything good that could be said of them. He hoped that day's meeting would be the forerunner of many others like it in the future.

Messrs. Daly, the Clerk and others joined in the compliments to Mr. Lynch and the Coursing Club. Mr. Lynch returning thanks said he felt very proud to hear the remarks of his colleagues on his victory. On behalf of the Club he wished to thank the Chairman, the Council and the Clerk for the support they had given them. He promised they would do their utmost to make the meeting an annual fixture.

The Chairman having to leave, Mr. Whelan was moved to the Chair.

New Scheme of Work The Town Surveyor, wrote asking for a list of proposals of work to be done under the new scheme and some discussion ensued, the matter being finally adjourned.

New Housing Scheme A letter was read from the L.G. asking Mr. Murray's tender for the erection of the 28 houses under the new scheme covered the cost of site development, etc.

The Clerk said he had been informed that the tender included site development. The L.G.D. also asked for separated figures for the erection of 3 and 4-roomed houses in brick and concrete.

The Clerk said the figures were—4 roomed brick 275 3s; in concrete 284 3s; 3-roomed in brick 243 13s; and in concrete 232 13s od.

Adjournments There were a couple of items on the agenda, which the Chairman suggested should be adjourned for the attendance of the Chairman and other members.

Mr. Power said he did not think it fair to those who attended the meetings regularly to have matters on the agenda adjourned again and again.

New Buildings On Strand A long and lively discussion took place on the question of the proposed erection of two houses by Messrs. Horgan, and also a shop by Mr. M. Walsh, Contractor, in the same place.

Mr. Power said every profession but that of shopkeeper had some kind of protection for their business, but he was at the mercy of everyone who came along with a couple of hundred pounds to spare.

The following letter was read:— A Chara—I read today the report of the reply of the Executive Council of the Free State to your demand for the release of the Republican Prisoners. No general release but all those who have committed no acts of violence to be released on signing an undertaking. Were the terms of that undertaking supplied to you? If so, I would be grateful if you would send me a copy.

I am sure none of the men will sign any undertaking because that is against all Republican principles. To ask men who have done no wrong to sign an undertaking is insulting, adding insult to injury, but I would like to know what undertaking the prisoners are asked to sign.

Sean Glynn, refused to sign an undertaking two days before his death body was stated to have been found in his cell. To ask men to sign an undertaking against their honour is only a mean way of refusing their release.

I hope your Council and other public bodies in the country will not let the matter rest at this. Wishing you and your Council a Happy New Year and a more prosperous 1937 for Ireland than the last.—Sincerely Yours—MAUD GONNE MacBRIDE.

Mr. Daly suggested that they send a copy of the Minister's letter to the lady. Mr. Power agreed. He endorsed every word in that letter. Those people were in prison because they had fought for the freedom of their country and because they had stuck to their just principles. Were it not for the fight those men had put up they would not have the freedom they had, and they were entitled to hold to their principles.

Mr. Daly's suggestion was unanimously adopted.

ROMANCE OF IRELAND'S INDUSTRIES

FAST-GROWING FACTORIES

SHOPKEEPER EARL

—By— Sean Piondar

We have received the following interesting article with his compliments from the pen of Sean Piondar, which recently appeared in the "Sunday Graphic."

Sean Piondar, convinced that the New Year will see a climax to Ireland's recent industrial development, takes you into one of its fastest-growing factories.

An Irish peer wrote a play for the Dublin Gate Theatre about the life of Dean Swift and called it "Yahoo."

The title was apt. It was Swift himself—that brilliant, half-made, cantankerous Dean of St. Patrick's Cathedral—who had given the word to the language.

The authorship, too, was appropriate. The playwright was the sixth Earl of Longford, a man who has been considerably influenced by the patriotic essays produced by the original Gloomy Dean in his saner moments, and who is accordingly playing a prominent and praiseworthy part in the Irish industrial revival.

"Burn All!" It was Swift who advised the Irish people to burn everything imported from abroad except the coal.

It was Swift who was powerful enough even to organise a boycott of foreign-made money.

It was Swift and his disciples who encouraged the foundation of many important Irish industries.

It is in a district steeped with traditions of Swift word that Lord Longford has started one of his factories—as I was to learn.

I went to see him the other day just after he had returned from a provincial tour during which his company of actors had been giving "Yahoo" in cities of the south and west.

He had come back to his Dublin home to celebrate his 34th birthday that day. He told me of his weaving factory, then sent me to his managing director for a trip of inspection.

"We started to weave some years ago," Lord Longford told me. "Our first place was a small depot in St. Stephen's Green.

Business began to expand so fast we had to open a shop in Dawson street; then a wholesale department in Abbey-street.

"I Keep Shop" Finally, to cope with our increasing market, we had to move the weaving machinery to a derelict factory at Celbridge, in Co. Kildare.

"The position now is that I look after the shop in Dawson-street, while Mr. T. Copithorne, our managing director, looks after the wholesale end of the business as well as being in charge of the factory.

"Go along and see him for the full story." So to Celbridge, twelve miles from the capital, we went in search of Mr. Copithorne.

superior, to most of what can be found elsewhere in Europe. For down at Celbridge they still talk of the lands of the Pale.

It has its memories, priceless memories—"memories of poets and patriots, of great statesmen and soldiers, of courtiers and scholars, of wits and worthies, of women accomplished and witty and beautiful."

But chiefly it has its memories of Dean Swift. At Celbridge Abbey lived for many years the lovely, accomplished, wealthy daughter of a Dutch merchant, who had been christened Esther Vanhomrigh, but whom Swift (as was his manner) preferred to call "Vanessa"—or, sometimes "Missesey" and "General Puff."

She had been his pupil in her teens before becoming his lover in her womanhood. Her passion for the middle-aged, half-blind man knew no bounds.

It is doubtful if he had any other real interests in life outside his politics and his books and his thwarted ambitions. It is doubtful if he even bothered to marry the other woman, the favoured "Stella," whom he professed to prefer to Vanessa.

But for three years or more he was a frequent visitor to Vanessa's home. He was very fond of the spacious house at Celbridge, the library, the pleasant, shady walks by the river, of "Vanessa's Bower," a miniature island.

But he was fond enough of Vanessa that she had written to her rival, Stella, whether the lover common to both of them had married her.

"I have a lifetime of experience," he concluded, "experience of the capabilities of some of our Irish wovens, and I say very definitely that there is an amount of natural Irish artistic taste which, with proper development and training, would be fully equal, if not superior, to most of what can be found elsewhere in Europe. At the last British Industries Fair in London, I asked a number of the wholesale cloth merchants' stands where their most attractive goods came from.

"I received in every case the same reply: 'Made in Ireland.'" Surely, when the full story of the re-development of the Irish cloth industry comes to be written, the names and achievements of Lord Longford, Mr. Copithorne and the Leinster Weaving Company will no doubt play a prominent part.

Their is the tale of great successes after a modest start in a Dublin street—a tale of steady expansion, the obtaining of foreign customers, the opening of depots and branches, the enlargement of staffs.

From the Celbridge Mills come sports tweeds, overcoats, scarves, curtains and rugs, jumpers and cardigans, handwoven woollen goods as well as machine-made ones.

"Our aim is to please everybody, but especially the ladies," said Mr. Copithorne. "Take these hand-knitted scarves. There is hardly one of them alike in colour and design.

"We know how annoyed a woman would be if she walked up Grafton street some Sunday to display the new scarf she was so proud of and met a rival wearing an identical one.

"It's a full-time job, of course, to please women. But there is very little in the way of colour we cannot do here, so we manage to get along.

"Here is a pattern-roll going out to the buyers and travellers. "Count up the squares. You will find that it carries 420 different designs! "I do all the designing myself, and the dyeing is done under my supervision.

"Where do I get my ideas? In all sorts of places and ways. "I went to Killiney for a breath of sea air last August Bank Holiday, and found on the beach a deeply-coloured pebble.

"I brought it back. Now we are producing a popular tweed in blue which we market under the title of Killiney Blue." Mr. Copithorne—he's a Cork man, by the way—has the confidence, determination and ability of all men from the South.

He believes that there is a great future for the cloth industry. He is in favour of producing high-class Irish tweeds made from our fine Irish wool as raw material.

He never saw her again, never spoke or wrote to her again. She was soon dead of misery after making a will leaving her huge fortune to be divided among many friends.

But not a penny did she leave to the man who needed it most and who would have had all if he had not deserted her. Before long Swift, too, was dead—in spirit, if not in body; he was in a mad-house.

And today at Celbridge Abbey, scene of this strange and sad story, his ghost is seen, 'tis said—walking from the house across the lawn to the bower; but never bothering to turn towards the mill near by.

For what complaint would Dean Swift have against the newly-opened Celbridge Mill?—the founder of which did him justice in a biographical play as well as paying tribute to his patriotism and his wisdom by adopting his theories about the development of industrial Ireland.

CLUB ORGANISATION—

As the Club is the basic unit on which the framework of the Gaelic Athletic Association is constructed, it follows that upon the efficiency and solidarity of these units depend in large measure the soundness of the whole body. A Club's sphere of influence varies; generally speaking, the more compact and smaller its compass the better are its chances of functioning efficiently. In the early days the parish was the most suitable unit of area for the Club's activities—and under the old Parish rule a player was obliged to give his services to the Club in his own parish. Changing times, emigration and the drift to the towns and cities killed the operation of this much-debated restriction. Today, there is little if any interference with a player's choice of club. In some parishes we have two or even more clubs, while in far too many we have none at all.

According to G.A.A. Rules, a Hurling or Football Club must have at least fifteen paying members before it can be affiliated. Any townland, district or suburb which can muster this number of athletic young men should regard it as a solemn national obligation to have them enrolled in an active Gaelic Club. There is no reason whatsoever why there should not be at least one G.A.A. cumann in every parish in the Deise—there is still less reason why there should not be one in every village. There you have the ideal centre round which to group the prospective club seeing that it is the natural meeting place for the youth of the locality.

Granted sufficient prospective playing material, one single Gaelic enthusiast can galvanise the most lethargic district into constructive and competitive activity. In every such area in the county there is at least one or two Gaelic enthusiasts enough and courageous enough to undertake the work of organisation. Now is their time to launch the good work—there is still a month before the Championship Draw takes place.

Much depends on the personnel of the Club Committee. The Chairman should be chosen not as a figure-head or ornament, but for his strength of character, natural power of authority, honesty of purpose, but above all else, his steadfast uncompromising Gaelic outlook. Not necessarily popular, yet he should have sufficient "weight" to exercise a steady, as well as an attractive, influence. The manager or secretary is the man who can make or mar a club. A good Club secretary is born, not made. The type is easily distinguished. His enthusiasm must be of the infectious kind, and he must be, above all, a tireless worker. Order, efficiency and foresight should mark all his efforts and tact must be his outstanding characteristic. He must have the personal touch as well as the knack of maintaining cool confidence in the most trying situations. The treasurer, as like the secretary, should be a man of few words, hard-fisted and immune to flattery; he must be the materialist of the cumann. Without being too money-minded, he must carefully husband the Club resources, avoid all unnecessary expenditure and be ever on the alert to add to the treasury. With three senior officials selected on these lines and working earnestly and harmoniously, a solid foundation is laid for the successful development of the Club.

In preparing the ground for the formation of a hurling or football club in a locality, the organisers should first assure themselves that the playing material is available and then approach personally, as far as possible, the prospective players. Then some of the local old timers who were active in athletics in by-gone days could be requested to lend a hand. This done, the way is now clear for calling a general meeting of all those interested, both active and passive, to formally set up the Club, elect the Senior Officers and enrol members. An enrolment fee and annual subscription are impositions which without being irksome, help discipline, discourage irregularities and conduce to the better running of the Club. The controlling Committee might profitably be elected at this meeting; it should be small, energetic and representative. Large Committees are unwieldy, super-talitative, and more often than not, clog smooth club management. The selection of team captains should be deferred until a few practice games have been held; then, it will be a comparatively easy matter to pick the right man as natural leaders who set themselves out even to the undiscerning eye. (To be continued.)

The Annual County Convention open next Sunday in Dungarvan at 3 o'clock. The balance Sheet and Secretary's Report are already before the Clubs and disclose a vast improvement in the G.A.A. position of the County compared with the previous year. Receipts from County Championship matches have been doubled and our proud National League record is reflected in increased public support. From being a lowly no-account hurling county in 1935, our prestige has soared until now we are rated among the best in Ireland. The Nominations and Motions are of more than ordinary interest. It was not expected that the Chairman would be opposed after his strenuous work in putting the G.A.A. in the Deise on its feet. But, at the last moment, a vigorous campaign in furtherance of the candidature of last year's defeated chairman is being pushed forward. This has come as a great surprise to many clubs. Mindful of the big advance in Gaelic affairs evident in Waterford in 1936, an advance made, by the way, in the teeth of much opposition from within as well as without, the Gaelic of Waterford will hardly be disposed to favour this latest attempt to put back the hand of the clock. "Swapping horses when crossing the stream" is a fatal policy. Well, the clubs have had the opportunity of comparing the form and achievements of the horses and will no doubt exercise their judgment wisely. They have had long experience of the old firm. If the progress recorded in 1936 is to be continued, strong leadership is necessary and this can only be maintained by unflinching support of the present virile administration which has won the confidence and admiration of the many Gaels of the whole County Waterford and far beyond.

The Central Council has altered the dates of many of the remaining National Hurling League fixtures owing to the necessity of holding the Provincial Conventions on Sunday February 28th, 1937.

Note the new dates:—Waterford v. Tipperary at Clonmel on Sunday Feb 7th; Waterford v. Galway at Dungarvan on Sunday March 21st; Waterford v. Kilkenny at Kilkenny on Sunday April, 4th; Waterford v. Clare at Cappoquin on Sunday April 18th.

LATEST GAEIC NEWS

A sensation was caused by a report from the Vigilance Committee that the following well-known players had frequented Soccer matches in Waterford:—Patrick Browne, Erin's Own Club; John Walsh, Mount Sion Club; Percy Brett, Mount Sion Club; John Farrell, Mount Sion and Kilkenny Clubs; Patrick Ryan, Blackrock H.C., Cork.

All were suspended for three months according to Rule. A further sensation was caused by an appeal from Dungarvan challenging the validity of Charles Curran's election to the Chairmanship of the Western Board. On investigation, it was discovered that Curran's nomination was invalid as it had been lodged by a Club which did not participate in the 1936 Championships. No other Club nominated Mr. Curran. The Chairman ruled the election invalid and ordered the convocation of a new Western Convention.

The re-trial of the Tallow Mt. Sion objection as ordered by the Munster Council was adjourned to next County Board meeting as the witnesses from Wexford who were to attend were not present owing to a misunderstanding re date of meeting. A telegram from Wexford was read stating that their officials would attend next meeting.
