

TALLOW DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. Troy, D.J.)

CASE WITHDRAWN

The frequently adjourned case of the Minister for Industry and Commerce against Col. Rivers of Mount Rivers...

Adjournments

Several cases were adjourned to April, the Justice stating there would be no Court held there in March.

School Attendance Cases

A couple of School Attendance cases at the complaint of Guard Rice, Tallow, were withdrawn...

No Lights

Guards Rice, Sheehan and Kehoe, had a number of persons summoned for using unlighted bicycles with no reflectors...

Licensing Case

Superintendent Quinlan, charged Mr. Prendergast, West street, Tallow, with a breach of the Licensing Act...

Mr. T. Hutch, solr., Midleton, defending, pleaded guilty. The men found on the premises were friends of the defendant...

The Supt. said there was a previous conviction in 1929. Mr. Hutch asked his Worship to treat it as a trivial offence.

The Justice agreed and imposed a fine of 10/- not to be recorded.

The other defendants were each fined 2/6.

Ad Interim Transfer

Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., Youghal, applied on behalf of Miss C. O'Connell, for an ad interim transfer of the license...

The Supt. stating that there was no objection, the application was granted.

Alleged Reckless Driving

Supt. Quinlan (for Supt. Higgins, Fermoy), charged Mrs. Violet Alexander, Kilmora, Lismore, with reckless driving...

The Supt. said that his principal witness, Nellie O'Connor, of the itinerant class, did not appear...

The case was marked "withdrawn." Thomas McCarthy, Kilmora, summoned Thomas Hurley, Glenaphira, for trespass.

Mr. Hutch, solr., for plaintiff and Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, for defendant.

Mr. O'Gorman said the case had been adjourned to have a map of the place produced, but he was unable to get one.

Mr. Hutch said the trespass had been admitted on last day.

The Justice—Do you admit the trespass? Mr. O'Gorman said the cattle were there, but they were not given up...

The Justice—I don't mind that. Mr. O'Gorman having argued in support of the points he raised, the Justice ordered the case to be gone into.

TALLOW NEWS

Angling On the Bridge

Notwithstanding the reports that large numbers of salmon, availed of the recent floods to reach the upper reaches of the Bridge, anglers have had a disappointing season to date.

Mr. H. Walsh, driver of the steam-roller, said he was driving towards Midleton on the reverse at the time. He did not see the car till it got jammed on the wheel of the engine.

Cross-examined witness said the engine made considerable noise. It was travelling very quick. The Superintendent—How far had you reversed before the crash?—About 9 or 10 yards.

The Justice—That would take about a couple of seconds. Guards Kehoe and Byrne, gave evidence of measurements of the road at the scene. The latter said the damage to the car was not serious and was all at the rear.

Mr. Carroll said it seemed strange that while his client, a capable motorist, driving a Baby Ford, was charged, the driver of that ponderous vehicle, a steam roller, who admitted that he did not see or hear anything till he heard the crash, was not charged, although he kept no look out.

It certainly was a matter for public comment. Mrs. Alexander, stated she had been driving 20 years and had been only in one collision in which there had been no claim against her.

The Justice said in those circumstances he would like to have both sides before him and he quite understood Mr. Carroll's comment. He accepted Mrs. Alexander's evidence.

The damage caused bore out the evidence of both sides. He was satisfied she was not guilty of negligence or anything else and he accordingly dismissed the case.

The Justice—Did you admit the trespass? Mr. O'Gorman said the cattle were there, but they were not given up...

Death of Mrs. T. Shine, Ballylegan, Cahire

The death of the above esteemed Lady at an early age is deeply deplored by her sorrowing husband, children, mother, brothers, and sisters...

Joint Meet of Bride Hunt Club

Knockanore and Moonaloo Hounds at the Pike, Tallow—Quite a representative company numbering about fifty, turned out for the above meet in a lovely hunting morning...

Death of Mr. Richard O'Connor, Ballinaha, Tallow

Widespread sympathy was evoked when the announcement was made that the above esteemed young man had passed to his eternal reward...

Charge of Careless Cycling

At Carrick-on-Suir District Court on Monday, Supt. Dennehy, summoned Ed. Wall, Kilmown, Portlaoise, for careless and dangerous cycling...

Important Notice

We desire to announce that we have just installed UP-TO-DATE WOOD WORKING MACHINERY...

Indecent Assault

G.A.A. NOTES & NOTIONS

By "CROTOG."

The Hurling Inter-provincial at Ennis last Sunday was a rather dull affair. Robbed of much of its glamour by the absence of such stars as Cloghessy, Cooney, Seaton and John Mackey from the Munster side, it provided little to enthuse the comparatively meagre attendance. Ennis finds much favour as a venue for inter-provincial contests—why his should be so is not too clear. Certainly the choice seems to be but poorly appreciated as the support forthcoming is not what it should be.

The Munster team won easily up. After a very shaky opening they took control of the game and retained it throughout. Connaught flattered momentarily towards the end when they notched three quick goals but the Munster-men were not perturbed and were content to sit down on their winning head.

The Waterford representatives, Keane and Moylan, gave a convincing display. In the first half, Keane overshadowed the rugged Galway forward, Loughane, and not alone that, but held the whole half-line on his own at times. His long ground clearances were much admired. He showed sound judgement in supporting his mid-field men so well. On more than one occasion, the two Gills carried all before them to be beaten and dispossessed by the doughty Mount Sun man. His coolness and resource kept the Munster defences functioning smoothly.

Moylan had a great second-half hour slow in his stride, he was out on his own when he got going. He struck up a splendid understanding with Mick Mackey and Davy Cloghessy both of whom played liberally with the ball. He put in some grand work on the right wing, running strongly and centering with accuracy. His usefulness won much praise and his whole display stamps him as a winner of class. Not for many a year has Waterford been so honoured in the showing of its inter-provincial hurling representatives.

A special meeting of the County Board has tried the question of the validity of Charles Curran's election as Chairman of the Western Divisional Board. It was ruled that his election was invalid as he was not nominated by a bona-fide club in accordance with the rules. Moreover, the other election proceedings at the Western Convention were also held to be invalid and new elections ordered. Mr. Curran notified his intention to appeal to the Municipal Council. The County Chairman and Charles Curran were appointed to defend the Board's ruling. The meeting was held in a friendly atmosphere and the opinion was generally expressed that it was high time to come with irreconcilable and to enforce the rules especially those governing nomination and election, without fear of favour.

This decision of the Board is of the utmost importance. It amounts to this: a Club which loses its right to representation, through failing to compete in the Championship or through being suspended, has no claim to a vote or a vote in the G.A.A. administration of the Division or County; such a club has no right or power to nominate anybody for a position on Divisional or County Committee. There is no doubt that there was considerable looseness all along in the matter and other kindred affairs. Too often in the past have clubs been represented by bogus delegates, "chancers," who had no authority whatsoever but their own audacity. Even at the recent convention quite a few clubs were misrepresented in this shady manner. The question of appointing and authorising delegates to represent them is one which should give serious thought to every club. The ideal method is to select and publicly announce permanent representatives for the year. The system of picking them casually or worse still, not choosing them at all, lends itself to grave abuse. It provides a paradise for the "bluffer."

The worst feature of the Munster Council appeal is that it holds up indefinitely the Draws and Fixtures in the West and the whole administrative work of the County Board. The latter body must wait the inclusion of the Western representatives to complete its personnel. In the meantime, we must possess ourselves in patience and wait the final outcome.

The activity, or as some would have it the inactivity, of the Vigilance Committee in connection with foreign games in Waterford recently aroused lively discussion. It was alleged that some 'fly-boys' were dodging the column at the time. The Chairman stressed the difficulties confronting such Committees and pleaded for more support and co-operation with them. Gaels that are doing a hard, troublesome and thankless job should not be criticised so acridly; neither should their efforts be the subject of mockery. Many were curious to know if the Committee functions outside the City. Rumour has it that the Blackwater Valley regularly sends its quotas of devils, pseudo-Gaels, ex-Gaels and others to the spectacles in Killeoban Park. Well, now that 'Scellig' lists are all the rage in that romantic valley, it would not surprise me if another 'Scellig' list or two was issued by the mysterious Vigilance members at an early date.

There are some, I believe, who would have the doubtful distinction of figuring in both lists—the "Row-to-Marry" one and the "Gaelcum-Soccer" one. A big Senior Inter-County Hurling Tournament is being launched in aid of Mount Mellary Building Fund, Cork, Limerick, Tipperary, and Waterford are to participate and the opening games will be played in Cappoquin early in May. A cup and medals are the trophies. Such an ambitious venture and such a worthy project deserves the highest success. The Co. Board has already given its sanction and promised its fullest assistance and co-operation.

When the question of a Merry Aeriocht was first mooted it had enthusiastic support. The co-operation of the different national organisations, with the Garda who first gave rise to the idea, was secured. Sub-committees were formed in different parts of the county, and the original idea took tangible shape; it developed and embraced a vasty wide field of activity than was originally intended. Aeriocht Charanighe is the result. Why could not the Gaels of the county do likewise and have a Aeriocht Potlidge.

Now is the time to organise—Ni ha na gaofie le na scoll.

LISMORE NOTES

LISMORE POINT-TO-POINT RACES. The Lismore Point-to-Point Races have been fixed for this year, and are due to take place on March 30th. It may be remembered that last season this meeting was abandoned owing to the necessary permit not being granted.

The course is undergoing a special preparation at present. The fences have all been knocked and rebuilt. The general opinion is that the present course is a perfect one, and of a real Punchesdown nature, so that, all going well, this year's meeting should be a record one.

AN ANNUAL AERIOCHT.—It has been a great topic of conversation amongst the Gaels of this district to make St. Patrick's Day a real Irish one. Their method of doing so would be the running off of an Aeriocht or an open air Irish Concert on similar lines to the Merry Aeriocht which opens on May Day. It would bring back the old time enthusiasm, dormant at the moment, and propagate the Irish-Ireland idea. Seeing that there is a branch of the Gaelic League in Lismore, the matter would be made much easier, and I'm sure that the townspeople themselves will undertake the task so beneficial to their own material interest, if only a committee were formed to initiate the function in Lismore.

When the question of a Merry Aeriocht was first mooted it had enthusiastic support. The co-operation of the different national organisations, with the Garda who first gave rise to the idea, was secured. Sub-committees were formed in different parts of the county, and the original idea took tangible shape; it developed and embraced a vasty wide field of activity than was originally intended. Aeriocht Charanighe is the result.
