DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presided at the weekly meeting of the above on Friday. Other members present were—Messrs. T. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman; P. O'Dwyer, J. Dahill, P. Quinn, M. Clancy, J. J. Crotty, J. F. Foley, P. Byrne, and J. Christopher.

Payments
A paysheet amounting to £27 18s. 11d. was presented and passed.

Analysed Society of Woodworkers
Mr. T. O'Mahony, Shandon, Branch Secretary of the above, wrote as follows: I have been instructed by the members of the above Society to write and ask you to instruct your Engineer to employ one of them at any future jobs the Council may have. I enclose the names and addresses of the members.

The Chairman said he thought there was an order to that effect made.

A member asked what the matter was about.

B.S.—The Secretary of the Woodworkers' Society (Mr. O'Mahony) met me and told me the man employed at present is not a member of the Union.

Mr. McCarthy said he was surprised at that letter, as he saw the man in question at a carpenter's meeting a week or two ago.

The list of names supplied was referred to the B.S.

Acknowledgments
A letter acknowledging resolution of sympathy passed to her was read from Mrs. E. O'Brien, Loughmore.

Widening Springmount Road
Mr. Patk. O'Brien, Springmount, wrote stating that as the Council are aware Mr. Bowen has recently widened the bend in the road near the Spring Cross. To do so he had to take a strip of my land 200 yards long and in places 20 feet wide. I shall, of course, require to be compensated for this. In view of the growth of the town in the Spring direction this land is valuable as a building site. I would suggest £40 as a fair figure.

Chairman—Have we any responsibility? Mr. McCarthy—Is it not the same as Mr. Crotty's case?

Mr. Christopher—Did we create a precedent?

Mr. Crotty—There is certainly a long slice taken off him.

Mr. Quinn—In my opinion the matter is one for Mr. Bowen. It is a main road.

Mr. Christopher—Isn't it under our control. It is a main road.

Mr. Dahill—There is a long strip taken, but it is to the man who trespassed Mr. O'Brien's should apply.

Mr. Christopher—It is very unfair to Mr. O'Brien if he is not compensated.

The Chairman said the Council created a precedent. He believed that should not have been done.

Mr. Crotty—Why do you say that Mr. Christopher—It is a very unfair remark. He would have much preferred not to give the land, as he could then have built three instead of two houses. The Chairman should have objected at the time.

Chairman—I was not here at the time.

Mr. Crotty—You should not comment on it so.

Chairman—I stand by what I say and I don't believe it is a matter for this Council at all.

Mr. Crotty—The difference is this, the Council instructed Mr. Bowen in one case and in the other they did not.

Mr. Clancy—All we can do now is to mark the letter noted and Mr. O'Brien will then apply to the proper authority.

Mr. Christopher—It would be only fair to inform Mr. O'Brien of the position.

Tender for Weigh-House
Only one tender that of Jerome Hackett, Loughmore, was received for the use of the Weigh house for the sum of £8.

Mr. McCarthy—What was it last year? Clerk—£6 10s.

Mr. Crotty asked if there was any fixed scale of charges.

Clerk—Yes.

Mr. H. Foley, was granted permission under the usual conditions to connect with sewer and water mains, two houses at Abbesside in course of construction.

Lighting of Wigan Buoy
Two tenders were received for the lighting of the Wigan Buoy for 12 months viz., Mr. Kieley, Mitchell street 4/5 per week; J. Connors, Abbesside £12.

Mr. Kieley's tender was accepted.

A letter from the Department of Agriculture relative to the allotment Plots Scheme was read, approving of the supply of seeds and manures for the 46 applicants, and stating that tenders from at least three merchants should be invited. Also that as a grant has already been made in 1934 in respect of the supply of 58 sets of implements, no additional sets should now be purchased.

The Clerk said on receipt of the letter he invited tenders, but only received one from the Repts. Maurice Flynn, at £12s. per plot for the various seeds and manures.

The tender was accepted.

Reconstruction Grants
Resolution From Killarney Council
That we request the Minister for Local Government and Public Health to make the reconstruction grants under the Housing Acts available for all Urban houses which conform to certain conditions as to site, contain the required number of rooms, and floor area and have sanitary accommodation, and thus assist in solving the housing problem by facilitating the enlargement and improvement of large numbers of houses, which otherwise would be left fall into bad repair."

Mr. Crotty—That is for reconstruction? Clerk—Yes.

Mr. Crotty—It is a very good thing. They are doing this in rural areas.

The resolution was adopted unanimously.

Lighting Contract
A letter read from the E.S.B. asked the Council for a reply to their tender for the lighting of the town for the sum of £27 18s. 3d.

Chairman—I suppose we will accept it.

Mr. McCarthy—We must. When the gas house was for sale. I proposed here that the Council purchase it, but I could not get a secondor.

Fancy Dress Carnival
Miss K. Foley, was granted the use of the hall for a Children's Fancy Dress Carnival, in aid of the District Nursing Association, to be held on March 31st.

Sewer at Youghal Road
The B.S. reported that owing to heavy tides recently, the concrete around the sewer pipes on the foreshore at Youghal Road is becoming dislodged exposing the pipe. The rebound of the sea off the bulwark is causing a channel along by the sewer. This can be prevented by trunking for some distance out with stone, which can be got in the slum area.

Mr. Dahill—Will the Board of Assistant defray any of the cost?

B.S.—No. It is now a public sewer and it is the duty of the Sanitary Authority.

A member inquired what the cause of the damage was.

B.S.—The backwash from the bulwarks is wearing it away.

Mr. Quinn said he noticed that the crown was gone off out about the centre of the pipe.

Mr. O'Dwyer—The backwash would not take the crown off out there.

The matter was referred to the B.S. to deal with.

Purchase of Marsh
The Council next considered the question of the purchase of the Marsh as a dumping ground.

The Chairman said Mr. Williams is asking £250, and considers the Council's offer of £100 inadequate. Personally he (Chairman) believed it would be a great acquisition and a good investment, but he did not agree with the price asked.

Mr. Clancy—The Council are a long time looking for a suitable dump. The late Council made several attempts to open up dumps, but they were compelled to close them again. He thought £100 a very contemptible offer for this land, which could be developed into a playing field for the boys of the town, a roadway could be made into it from Davis street.

Mr. Dahill—Talking of dumps, there was a grand dump in Abbesside and the Council gave it away.

Mr. McCarthy—They did not give it away. That term will soon be up.

The Chairman said that after 10 or 15 years this would make a splendid park.

Mr. Crotty—The Greyhound Track at Harold's Cross is built on made land. It was a dump 15 years ago.

Mr. Foley—The acquisition of this is a futuristic policy.

Mr. Dahill said he was against the purchase of this and he would be against it still.

Chairman—Anyone else dissenting. I take it the Council agree to make another offer.

Mr. McCarthy suggested a deputation of 4 or 5 members to Mr. Williams.

Mr. Christopher said he would like to be certain that the land is re-claimable.

Mr. Clancy—Mr. Williams has taken off £150 since his original offer. A year ago he asked £400.

Mr. Byrne suggested a deputation consisting of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Mr. Christopher and Mr. Foley meet Mr. Williams.

This suggestion was approved, and the Clerk was asked to write to Mr. Williams to make an appointment.

Boundary Wall
Mrs. Mary C. Power, wrote drawing the Council's attention to the condition at the rear of her premises at the Corner House. Part of the wall which acts as a boundary to her premises was knocked during the clearance of the slums in this area and at present there is only a temporary structure in its place. She would be pleased if you would have the structure replaced by a concrete wall as soon as possible.

The letter was referred to the Council's solicitor.

Late Madgie Kieley
Mr. McCarthy proposed, and the Chairman seconded the following resolution:—"That we, the members of the Urban District Council, desire to express our deep regret on the death of Miss M. Kieley, St. Garvan's Terrace, and direct that an expression of our sincere sympathy be conveyed to her bereaved parents."

The resolution was then put and passed in silence.

The meeting was then adjourned until Tuesday night.

Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presided at the meeting of the above on Tuesday night. Others present were—Messrs. T. McCarthy, J. F. Foley, P. Byrne, and J. Dahill.

Courtesy Association
An application from Mr. Whelan for the use of the Green Room, Town Hall, on Saturday night, March 27th, for the purpose of holding a meeting of the above Association was granted.

Water Improvement Scheme
A letter from the Department of Local Government and Public Health informed the Council that the plans in connection with the above scheme had been returned to the Engineers (Messrs. Delap and Walter) for certain amendment.

Chairman—Does that mean that our scheme will be held up?

B.S.—No. That is only a minor thing; they want to have the plan more clear.

Chairman—There is nothing very definite to go on.

It was decided to forward a copy of letter to the Engineers.

Plot Holders
The Department wrote approving of the application of Thomas Moran and James Butler, for allotment plots.

Acknowledgments
Mr. J. J. Crotty, wrote acknowledging the Council's resolution of sympathy on the death of his uncle.

Change of Light
Mr. M. J. Keane, Brewery, wrote with reference to the changing of the lamp opposite the Friary from the pole, to the Town Hall wall, and complained that the temporary light on the Town Hall wall threw his premises into darkness and that there is considerable night traffic carried on by his cars, and cars coming to his petrol pump, the change will cause considerable inconvenience unless you agree to alter it in some way to meet our requirements.

Mr. Keane suggested that the light be put at the upper corner of the Hall near his premises and he believed it would suit all purposes in that position.

Mr. Dahill—If you place it in that position there will be no light into the side door of the Friary. He suggested that the light at the top of the street be shifted over near Mr. Kelly's shop which would light the dark portion of Friary Street.

Mr. McCarthy—Mr. Keane is right to look after his own interest.

Chairman—Yes. We are only trying to do the best we can for the public.

Mr. McCarthy suggested that a longer bracket from the Town Hall wall would give Mr. Keane light.

The matter was left in the hands of the B.S. to do what he thought best.

The Marsh
Mr. Williams, Shandon Lodge wrote signifying his willingness to meet a deputation of the Council, re the purchase of the Marsh on Tuesday or Wednesday evening from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Dressing Rooms for Hall
Mr. McCarthy referred to the recent discussion on the provision of decent dressing rooms in the Town Hall and asked if there was anything further about the matter.

After a short discussion, it was agreed that a deputation of the whole Council meet the B.S. to inspect and advise on the necessary improvements on Thursday week, April 1st.

Tenders for Free Milk Supply
Messrs. Martin Kelly, Kilgobnet, and T. F. Walsh, Coolnagor, tendered for the supply of milk under the Free Milk scheme at 1/2 per gallon each.

Mr. Foley—What was the price last year?

Clerk—10d.

Mr. Dahill—Didn't the Clerk read out a big memorandum of rules and regulations about milk supplies lately.

Mr. Byrne—There is no doubt but these people are overdoing it. Up around West Cork there is no tender over 1/-.

The Milk Inspector referring to the decrease in the amount of the grant said that last year at 10d. per gallon the average per week was £7 3s. 6d. This year at 10d. per gallon the average would only be £5 18s. 10d.

Clerk—If you go over the limit you are surcharged.

The Chairman said he thought the tenders too high. He suggested making a protest to the Department about the reduction of the grant, which will mean cutting off recipients. A tender must be accepted tonight as the scheme starts on April 1st.

On the proposition of Mr. Dahill, Mr. Kelly (who was the contractor last year) was again appointed.

The Clerk was instructed to write to the Department protesting against the reduction of the grant.

Payments
Sums of £691 15s. 4d., balance of the Poor Rate demand.
£71—balance of maintenance of main

A letter read from the Minister for Education, informed the Committee of the Minister's acceptance of the invitation to open the new Technical school, and suggesting April 5th, as a suitable date.

The Secretary suggested that they should adjourn consideration to the end of the meeting, when they could go into committee to discuss the matter, form a reception committee, etc.

This course was approved.

A letter from the Department notified the amount of the State Grant for the financial year 1937-'38 towards expenditure under the Annual Scheme is £3,733. The letter was marked noted.

Increments To Teachers
The Department further wrote approving of the increments award to teachers as from October 1st last.

In the case of Mr. Halpin who was appointed Headmaster at Cappoquin school, the Department approved of the payment of an extra £30 together with cost of living bonus. Copies of conditions for Mr. Halpin were enclosed.

In connection with the conditions, Mr. Halpin wrote, stating that as the conditions necessitated deep consideration, he would not have the forms ready for this meeting.

The matter was accordingly adjourned.

Choral Singing
A long circular of choral singing in Vocational Schools was before the meeting.

Secretary—Unfortunately we have no choral classes, as the teacher we had resigned.

DEATH OF MR. M. O'CONNELL
Deep and widespread regret was evoked by the death of Mr. Michael O'Connell, farmer, Rathmeaden, Kilmacothomas, which happened on Tuesday, after a brief illness and at a comparatively early age. He was extremely popular among a wide circle of friends, and deep sympathy is extended to his sons and daughters in their sorrow and loss. The funeral to Mithel cemetery was of extremely large dimensions.—R.I.P.

Spain
News has been received that Thomas McGrath, of Mill Road, one of the local volunteers in General O'Duffy's Brigade has been wounded in the recent fighting on the Madrid front, and is now in hospital. He is the first Youghal man to suffer in the good cause for which the Patriot troops are fighting.

urban road and £26 8s. 9d., for resurfacing of main roads were passed to the Co. Council.

Chairman—Does this clear the County Council?

Clerk—Yes.

Chairman—From what I can see from the papers we are about the only Council in Ireland who are clear with their County Councils.

WATERFORD SHOW AND SALE OF BULLS
MOST SUCCESSFUL FIXTURE
Judges Praise For All Classes

The Second Joint Show and Sale of Bulls, under the auspices of the County Waterford and County Wexford Branches of the Irish Dairy Shorthorn Breeders' Society, held at Killohan Park, Waterford, on Tuesday last, was a great success, both as regards quality and the numbers of exhibits.

The Judges—Messrs. T. O'Sullivan, Cloughduff, and Mr. Kinsella, Birr, in an interview said that the placed bulls in the Dairy Shorthorn Classes represented a collection of animals of a class much higher than any they had judged at Waterford over the past dozen years, while Mr. T. J. Murphy, Macroom, referring to the Aberdeen Angus and Hereford classes said that the blacks particularly, showed a vast improvement in quality and were good enough to be exhibited in any Show in Ireland.

The entries showed an increase of 50 over last year's figure, while the premiums awarded were eight over the twenty-three awarded last year.

Exhibitors were present from all the Munster Counties, the Leinster Counties were also strongly represented.

The total sales realised £4,176, which is an increase of close on £500 on last year's figure. The weather was ideal for the fixture, although somewhat cold, it was fine and dry.

An entry from Mr. James Maher, Ardara, which arrived late for the judging in the class in which it was entered, later won the Palmer Cup.

Mr. T. F. Lynch, the popular Hon. Sec. with Messrs. Dempsey (president), J. J. Drohan (vice-president), and D. Coghlan (treas.), saw to it that the arrangements in the Kings and Sales Yard were perfect in every detail. Mr. Lynch was particularly assiduous in the discharge of the onerous and responsible duties devolving on him, and he and his energetic committee are to be highly complimented on the signal success recorded.

A word of praise is also due to Messrs. Flahavan and Hartly, the auctioneers, who conducted the sales with their customary efficiency and expedition.

The Annual General Meeting of the Club was held at the Courthouse, on Friday 19th inst. Mr. S. J. Moynihan, president, and a large number of members were present. The Statement of Accounts showed that the year under review was very successful.

Mr. S. J. Moynihan, was elected President of the Club for 1937-'38.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, outgoing President was elected a Vice-President.

Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., was elected Captain, with Mr. J. Lynch, as Vice-Captain.

Mr. Liam F. Langan and Mr. M. P. Foley, were re-elected Hon. Secretary and Hon. Treasurer, respectively.

Mr. Ed. Fitzgerald, was re-elected Hon. Tournament Secretary.

The following were elected Committee members: Messrs. M. Walsh, J. A. Cartwright, Dr. Cusack, J. Moloney, J. C. Bowen, J. Langan, C. J. Murphy.

It was decided to engage a Professional for the month of June.

An Exhibition Match, similar to that held in 1936, is to be arranged by the Committee.

Wedding Bells
The following interesting item is taken from Monday's "Independent": "An engagement is announced between Flight-Lieut. Terence John Arbutnot, R.A.F., second son of Major John Bernard Arbutnot and Mrs. Arbutnot of Myrtle Grove, Youghal, and Karin, daughter of the late Mr. C. Sundgren of Hudiksvall, Sweden. The marriage will take place shortly in India." At this time of the day, it is hardly necessary to say that "Myrtle Grove" is the historic home of Sir Walter Raleigh. Here, we are told this famous buccaner brought home from one of his foreign trips, and planted, the first potato in Ireland. Here in the grounds outside the story is told that, while smoking his pipe, a domestic formed the conclusion that he was on fire, and threw a bucket of water over him. It has also been said—"I cannot tell how the truth may be, I find the tale as 'twas told to me" that this friend of "good Queen Bess" was the first to import that tasty fruit, the cherry.

Since their advent amongst us, the Arbutnot family have been practical and generous supporters of every good and charitable cause brought to their notice. Many members of the local British Legion can bear witness to the great kindness and extensive charity of Major Arbutnot, while his good lady has proved a real "fairy godmother" to the local Nursing Association and other admirable movements for the alleviation of the widespread distress that unfortunately exists in our midst, not withstanding doles and free beef and other palliatives. Some time ago an effort was made to start a local industry in the shape of a tannery, and the Major, seconded by a few local public men made a determined effort to put the matter into practical shape. Among other things paying a visit to Limerick to procure information. Unfortunately for some reason or other, the Major left his home at Myrtle Grove and proceeded to England. Since then nothing has been heard of the project.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY IN YOUGHAL
In striking contrast to "the good old days of the past" the National Festival was observed with due decorum. The fine Brass Band of the League of the Cross marched from their hall in Catherine street to the Parish Church for the 8 o'clock Mass. At the various Masses appropriate references were made to the life and labours of the Great National Apostle, and the "Hymn of St. Patrick" was sung. There being no local function of any consequence numbers went to Cork and elsewhere for the afternoon. The Band of the British Legion and the local Pipers Band paraded the Main streets, following by large crowds. Successful matinee and night entertainments were given in the Town Hall, in aid of the New Strand Church Fund and the Picture Halls in Friar Street were largely patronised.

Co. Waterford Farmer's Death
The death is regretted by a large circle of friends of Mr. Patrick Terry, Mooncoin, Rathgorman, Co. Waterford. Deceased was one of the best known and most respected farmers in Rathgorman parish.

There was a large attendance at the funeral to Rathgorman cemetery.

WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.

Mr. James O'Donovan (Chairman) presided at the monthly meeting of the Waterford Board of Assistance on Thursday.

Mr. Phelan, Supt. Assistance Officer, said that this had been advertised and only one tender was received.

Mr. Caulfield—How many tons are there altogether? Mr. Phelan—About 1 1/2 tons.

Mr. O'Halloran—There is only one tender; that is no use. We should advertise.

Mr. Caulfield—It is after being advertised. There is only 1 1/2 tons of scrap.

Mr. O'Halloran—If we take this price we will be setting a precedent. The Corporation scrap must be sold at the same price.

Chairman—The best thing is to re-advertise. Mr. O'Halloran—There is no hurry about it.

Mr. Caulfield—This must go to a vote. I propose we accept this price.

Chairman—We promised to co-operate with the Commission and he promised to co-operate with us.

Mr. O'Halloran—We are carrying everyone on our backs. We are carrying the farmers on our backs and the Government is doing nothing.

Mr. O'Halloran—How will you have it? Commissioner—On a capital basis.

Mr. O'Halloran—It is not. Commissioner—It is and I know it.

Mr. O'Halloran—I object to it. We must carry everyone on our backs and now there is going to be segregation.

Mr. Caulfield—Now, I ask you Mr. O'Halloran, would you like to be cooped up in a cramped place to do your work?

Mr. O'Halloran—Would you like to have room? Mr. O'Flaherty, says the offices are too small and too inadequate.

Mr. O'Halloran—It is all a question of accommodation. There is plenty of room in Waterford and Kilmacthomas.

Chairman—I propose we ask the Minister to give us portion of the Sweep Funds for the work.

Mr. O'Halloran—There is plenty of room in Waterford and we need not build elaborately.

Secretary—We could ask for the money out of the Sweep Funds. We got £3,000 from it already.

Mr. O'Halloran—I agree to that so long as it is not putting it on the rates. It was decided to ask the Minister if a grant from the Sweep Funds would be available for the extension.

Home Assistance The amount of Home Assistance for the month was £1,448 12s.

Increase in Salary Refused The Department wrote stating that the Minister was not prepared to sanction an increase of salary to Mr. Keating, Porter at the County Hospital.

Mr. O'Halloran—They are trying to stop up pensions for themselves. Chairman—Why not make another appeal.

Mr. O'Halloran—Of course we should. Why should we knuckle down under Dublin. They come around and tell us this is a democratic country.

Mr. O'Halloran—Sean T. O'Kelly is alright, but I believe that he does not see half the letters that come to his office.

Chairman—I propose we again appeal to the Minister. Mr. Caulfield—We are only making ourselves cheap.

Mr. O'Halloran—We must give a living wage to every man. Commissioner Moynihan—Mr. Connolly said to define his duties as compared with the porter in the County Home.

Mr. O'Halloran—We should write to Mr. Sean T. O'Kelly himself, and make it a personal letter.

It was decided to write again to the Minister for his sanction.

Waterford Fever Hospital A letter was read from the Department asking that the Minister be furnished with the plans of the proposed laundry at the Waterford Fever Hospital.

The matter was referred to the Engineer. Extension of Board's Offices

A letter was read from the Waterford Corporation with reference to the Board's application for the Corporation's approval of £1,650 for the extension of the Board's Offices.

(1) If the extension is necessary exclusively for the work of the Board of Public Assistance.

(2) If not, is the sum of £1,650 part of the total cost and if so how much?

(3) What increase there has been in the staff of the Board of Assistance and when?

(4) What precisely the extension will be used for.

The letter concluded that at the present time the rates were rising and as the Board's demand has increased so much since its establishment.

Commissioner Moynihan said that segregation of the whole county must be made so that the cost of assistance in the County and City should be put on a proper basis.

At the present time, the cost was based on valuation. That was entirely wrong. The city of Waterford was only paying 22% of the assistance.

Mr. O'Halloran—How will you have it? Commissioner—On a capital basis.

Mr. O'Halloran—It is not. Commissioner—It is and I know it.

Mr. O'Halloran—I object to it. We must carry everyone on our backs and now there is going to be segregation.

Mr. Caulfield—Now, I ask you Mr. O'Halloran, would you like to be cooped up in a cramped place to do your work?

Mr. O'Halloran—Would you like to have room? Mr. O'Flaherty, says the offices are too small and too inadequate.

Mr. O'Halloran—It is all a question of accommodation. There is plenty of room in Waterford and Kilmacthomas.

Chairman—I propose we ask the Minister to give us portion of the Sweep Funds for the work.

Mr. O'Halloran—There is plenty of room in Waterford and we need not build elaborately.

Secretary—We could ask for the money out of the Sweep Funds. We got £3,000 from it already.

Mr. O'Halloran—I agree to that so long as it is not putting it on the rates. It was decided to ask the Minister if a grant from the Sweep Funds would be available for the extension.

Home Assistance The amount of Home Assistance for the month was £1,448 12s.

Increase in Salary Refused The Department wrote stating that the Minister was not prepared to sanction an increase of salary to Mr. Keating, Porter at the County Hospital.

Mr. O'Halloran—They are trying to stop up pensions for themselves. Chairman—Why not make another appeal.

Mr. O'Halloran—Of course we should. Why should we knuckle down under Dublin. They come around and tell us this is a democratic country.

Mr. O'Halloran—Sean T. O'Kelly is alright, but I believe that he does not see half the letters that come to his office.

Chairman—I propose we again appeal to the Minister. Mr. Caulfield—We are only making ourselves cheap.

Mr. O'Halloran—We must give a living wage to every man. Commissioner Moynihan—Mr. Connolly said to define his duties as compared with the porter in the County Home.

Mr. O'Halloran—We should write to Mr. Sean T. O'Kelly himself, and make it a personal letter.

It was decided to write again to the Minister for his sanction.

PROTEST BY BISHOP

REPLY TO JUDGE SEALY

SUNDAY CINEMAS

MOST REV. DR. KINANE, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, in an address to a large congregation in the Cathedral, Waterford, on St. Patrick's Day, replied to Judge Sealy's recent remarks with regard to Sunday cinema performances.

His Lordship counselled the congregation to be faithful not only to the essentials of religion but also to those pious practices and traditions which were its first defence against the materialistic pleasure-loving spirit in the modern world.

"In a recent pastoral," his Lordship said, "I dealt with one of those traditional practices in the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore. That part of my pastoral has since been criticised by the judge to whose decision I made reference."

Having read the judge's statement I find nothing in it to make me modify, in any way, my attitude in this matter or my protest against his decision.

"Civil law does not permit the opening of cinemas absolutely and unrestrictedly. It requires them to be licensed and this fact evidently pre-supposes that the licensing authority can impose reasonable conditions in regard to time and other circumstances."

"In determining whether the condition in question is reasonable, the legal test, as the judge himself states, is the interests of the public well-being of the community. I have detailed sufficiently in my Pastoral grounds which indicate the reasonableness, from the standpoint of public interests, or refusing this 'cinema' permission to open on Sundays."

"This restrictive condition, then, is not opposed to law, nor does it violate any right granted to citizens by law."

"In regard to the censoring of films, as is well known, all that it can do, generally speaking, is to render them less harmful."

"It can remove from them scenes that are grossly immoral, but it cannot change the general outlook on life which they portray, and that outlook is, as a rule, a pagan one."

"There is one point in the Judge's statement which calls for special comment. He complains that the matter and substance of my criticism are hardly fair or reasonable, and that they make the administration of justice difficult for him."

I undertook this criticism only with very great reluctance and compelled by a sense of duty. The Judge must, of course, be aware that by this decision he has equivalently declared to be unreasonable and opposed to the interests of the public a policy for a long time advocated by the Bishops and clergy and adopted by the licensing authorities of the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore, and that he has made much more difficult the maintenance of this policy, which the Bishops and clergy have always considered, and still consider, to be of the best interests, temporal as well as spiritual, of the people.

Was that a fair and reasonable declaration? Could I be expected to allow it to pass without comment?

"Apart altogether from the difficulties which it has created for my own administration, 'my duty to my predecessors in the episcopal office, to the clergy, and to the licensing authorities required that I should protest, and protest strongly. My duty beloved, once more, I urge you to supplement your feelings of gratitude to our National Apostle by a firm resolution of fidelity to that religion which was his great gift to our race. As I have already intimated that resolution to be really effective, must embrace not only what is essential and of strict obligation, but also those traditions and pious practices which are our faith's first defence against the materialistic, pleasure-loving spirit of the modern world. If we allow the outworks to be sapped or taken the main citadel will soon be in grave danger."

GAELIC ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION. NATIONAL HURLING LEAGUE. WATERFORD V. GALWAY. Waterford 2-5 Galway 1-2

AT the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday, Waterford took full points from Galway when they met in their National League game.

Despite the hard weather of the past week and the threatening outlook on Sunday, a nice crowd witnessed the game, which was characterised by close tackling.

Mr. Bob Redmond had the teams in action at the appointed time. Waterford who defended the road goal in the first moiety, were first to get possession, but jumbled badly and Galway came away to miss a green flag by inches.

Waterford then tested the Galway defence, but the ball went over. They returned the puck-out, but the Galway defence held and play was returned to the Waterford end. A 70 to Galway was well cleared by the Waterford defence, and the ball taken to the other end, but the Waterford front line again failed to penetrate, and play was brought to midfield, where after some exciting passages Waterford advanced and found the net for the first score per Goode. Galway took the puck-out all the way only to send wide.

Both ends were now visited, but the defences prevailed until a lovely ground shot by Gill (Galway) from 50 yards out gave them their first score—a goal. Galway continued to press, but Waterford gradually took to the other end. A free to Waterford 50 yards out, taken by Goode was sent into the "square", but Galway cleared. Another free to Waterford 25 yards out was also cleared, as was a 70 yards puck immediately after. A free to Galway saw the Western men attacking in determined fashion, but Curley in the Waterford goal saved well, and Waterford fought back only to send over. They returned, however, and had the second goal per Goode, before the short whistle sounded.

The scores at half time read—Waterford 2-0, Galway 0-1. On resuming Galway attacked but were repulsed and Waterford came away to send wide. Keeping up the pressure Waterford fought hard to increase their lead, but the Galway defence held. Galway next attacked and were in rather hard luck when the ball struck the upright and dropped into the square, but Ware cleared well and Galway returned for an over. Waterford were cow kept on the defensive and the backs were having a rather busy time. Galway reduced their deficit when Flaherty doubled a high ball into the net which gave Curley no chance. Galway again attacked and McTighe sent over a nice point. Waterford transferred and in a flash had the ball at the Galway goal mouth but it was cleared. They kept up the pressure and Galway had to concede a 70, which was lodged in the net, but disallowed. Attacks by both sides were next hushed without result until Goode (Waterford) sent over a nice point. Galway had another try for a score, but were repulsed and being penalised for a foul Waterford increased their lead with a point. A further free to Waterford saw them score another point. Galway fought back, but Curley saved well and Waterford again returned and had the ball at the goal-mouth when Galway were penalised. Goode again sending in a nice point from the free. A free to Galway was sent wide. Midfield play was now the order for some time until Galway attacked but Ware cleared well and Waterford taking the ball down again raised the white flag.

The final scores read—Waterford 2-5 Galway 1-2

Well and nobly indeed, did she accept and carry her cross without a murmur, thus following in the wake of the Great Climber of Calvary so painfully climbing that we might be free—free to start over again with Him in the grand mansions of celestial bliss.

Christ-like, too, was she in forgetting her own pains and pangs, physical as well as mental, in order to convey sympathy and consideration to others far less grievously affected than she.

Even in her very trying condition, she was the soul of Irish hospitality, and saw to it, invariably, that there was nothing lacking in this as well as in all other respects. In spite of her illness, one felt her all-pervading genius as hostess.

Her culture astonished us, repeatedly and many a time and oft did she entertain us with reminiscences of her youthful but innocent escapades among the old folk of Slieve Donard from whom she imbibed the old Irish songs, dances and music of the Gael.

One would wish to dilate at length and with unadulterated pleasure on the many sided character of the dear deceased so reminiscent of the Ireland of the past, but we are obliged to have regard to the exigencies of space in the invaluable columns at the command of the "Observer" Editor, and so are reluctantly compelled to desist.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

General Chemists Death—Popular Chemists Death—General regret was caused in Cappoquin by the death of Mr. George Strong, L.P.S.I., which occurred unexpectedly on St. Patrick's morning at Hely's Medical Hall, Cappoquin, where he had been employed as Manager for a number of years.

The late Mr. Strong was a native of County Armagh, but for a long number of years he had worked in various Chemists' shops in the Co. Waterford, having spent a considerable time in Lismore, Dungarvan and Kilmacthomas, and also in Dublin and other places, and owing to his wide experience and high qualifications in the Pharmacy profession, he was appointed as Manager of Hely's well-known Medical Hall in Cappoquin several years ago.

During his long connection with Cappoquin he had always proved himself a most courteous and capable chemist, and a Dispenser of great knowledge and care, while his kindly, genial and refined manner won him hosts of friends among the general public, by whom he was held in the highest respect and regard.

The remains were removed to St. Anne's Protestant Church on St. Patrick's evening, and were followed by a large and representative number of the general public, which testified to the great esteem in which the deceased gentleman had been held by all.

On Friday morning the funeral took place by motor to Dublin and was followed for a considerable distance by Archdeacon Burditt, Cappoquin, and the Rev. Dean Stanley, Dean of Lismore, as well as by several of the leading people in Cappoquin, while Mr. G. P. Hely, Hely's Medical Hall, accompanied the funeral the entire journey to Dublin and carried out all the arrangements in the most painstaking and efficient manner.

Arrived at Dublin, the interment took place in Mount St. Jerome Cemetery in the presence of a large number of relatives and mourning friends from Dublin, Armagh and other parts.

Several beautiful wreaths were laid on the grave from Mrs. Hely and Mr. G. P. Hely, Cappoquin; Mr. Ion and Mrs. Villiers Stuart, Dromana; James Russell and family, Cappoquin, and other friends of the deceased in Cappoquin.

The Annual Easter Dance—The annual grand Easter dance, under the auspices of the Cappoquin Rowing Club, will be held in the Boathouse Hall, on next Sunday (Easter Sunday) night, when no effort will be spared on behalf of the energetic Committee to make the event as brilliant a success as all similar dances have proved to be for many years past.

The Boathouse Hall, as a dancing venue, is one of the finest and most popular in the Co. Waterford, owing to its spacious accommodation and perfect dancing floor, as well as for the splendid arrangements always made here to ensure the comfort and enjoyment of all, and as the same perfect arrangements will be in evidence on this occasion, everybody can be sure of spending a thoroughly enjoyable night.

One would wish to dilate at length and with unadulterated pleasure on the many sided character of the dear deceased so reminiscent of the Ireland of the past, but we are obliged to have regard to the exigencies of space in the invaluable columns at the command of the "Observer" Editor, and so are reluctantly compelled to desist.

Under the green sod and within sight of her home, was she laid to rest with her very own and with every manifestation of sorrow and regret and our prayer is that her sleep may be a peaceful one and, when the Great Dawn breaks, may her station be on His Right Hand.

For her daughter and others left to mourn, we pray resignation and courage.

The late Mr. Richard Cullen, Carrick-on-Suir—The late Mr. Richard Cullen, plasterer, Carrick-on-Suir, was well-known in Dungarvan and adjoining districts where he worked on building schemes from time to time. He was an excellent tradesman and a most upright man, much sympathy is felt for his widow.

Annual Bull Sale—On next Thursday, April 1st, Mr. M. F. Walsh, will hold his annual Bull Sale in his Saleyard, Pound Lane, with a splendid selection of well-bred yearling bulls will be offered for sale.

Those who have not yet sent in their entries for this sale are requested to do so without delay, before the catalogues are closed, while intending buyers should please note that the sale commences at 11 o'clock, a.m., sharp.

Sympathy—It was with feelings of the most sincere regret that the writer of these "Notes" read last week the sad announcement of the death of Miss Madge Kieley, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Kieley, St. Garvan's Terrace, Dungarvan.

SPECIAL BROADCAST FOR THIS COUNTY

We are informed that, provided sufficient material be forthcoming, this County will be allotted a special Broadcast of its own. To save the trouble, expense, and loss of time incidental to several contributors going to Dublin it is proposed to relay the Broadcast to Athlone from some convenient centre in the County. Those of our readers who would like to contribute Vocal or Instrumental items are requested to send in their applications in the first instance, to the Editor "Dungarvan Observer," and set out briefly their qualifications and particulars of the items they wish to contribute. We understand that no fees will be paid and artists and contributors will be limited to about three minutes at the microphone. The Broadcasting authorities are anxious that artists will, as far as possible, contribute songs and tunes native to the County, but this is not an essential stipulation. Talks are wanted of an Agricultural, Industrial and Social character, but the subject matter must relate to the County and its activities. Anything between one hour and 1 1/2 hours will be devoted to the Broadcast and immediate applications are desired. Other Counties are being offered this Broadcast and we hope the responses to this notice will be prompt and numerous. We shall gladly forward to the organizers any applications received, but no guarantee is given that all or any will be accepted. Address offers to: The Editor.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

That the above Order as amended by the Warble Fly (Treatment of Cattle) Order, 1936, requires that all Cattle infected with the Larvae of the Warble Fly shall be dressed with Cattle Wash made from a Preparation approved by the Minister for Agriculture between the 1st and 7th days (both days inclusive) of each of the months of March, April, May, June and July. The Cattle Wash must be applied by the owner or person in charge of the cattle in such manner that it will come into contact with the Larvae through the Warble swellings in the skin of the Cattle. No method of treatment for Warble Infestation other than the foregoing is permissible for the purposes of the Order, and it should, therefore, be borne in mind that the squeezing-out method of treatment is not to be recognised as complying with the Order. Supplies of the Preparations for making Cattle Wash are required to be sold in sealed packets bearing a printed indication of the Minister's approval. The approved preparations are not to be used with the object of preventing fly attacks. Stockowners should accordingly note, that only visibly infested parts of the animals are required to be dressed. Owners of Cattle should note that it is not necessary for the inspectors appointed under the Order to be present at the time of dressing and no account should be taken of dressing being postponed pending visit of Inspectors. Offences against the Order entail Penalties under the Diseases of Animals Acts, and owners of cattle found to be evading their obligations under the Order will render themselves liable to prosecution. The Order is enforced by the County Council, who have appointed Inspectors to supervise its working and to advise stock-owners thereon. Any information required in connection with the operation of the Order, and copy of a leaflet containing detailed instructions in regard to the mixing and application of the cattle wash can be obtained from the inspectors or from the undersigned. KILMACHTHOMAS NEWS.

LA FELLE PADRAIG—

The National Festival was spent with becoming dignity and decorum by the good people of these parts. Large congregations assisted at Holy Mass, and big numbers of the faithful approached the altar rails. Wireless enthusiasts listened to the attractively itemised Saorstát programme of the day, and to the running commentary on the Lincolnshire Handicap (given by R. C. Lyle, at the Grand Stand, and R. C. Long, at the Paddock) from Carlhome, Lincoln, per B.B.C. Regional. The wearing of our own immortal Green was sufficient to show our pride in our Faith and Fatherland, our appreciation of the struggles and victories in the past for either and both; for they have been one in all the struggles, in all the hardships, in all the penal enactments of the past, and so today the "wearing of the green" is the simple emblem indicative of our pride in the work of our forebears in their exertions, in their sufferings and in their successes. The National Festival is more than any other time that which should compel us to look into ourselves to see if we are following on the path of our predecessors, the path for the advance of our Faith and Fatherland, the path along which there was a firm bond of friendship and understanding. It is a question to ask ourselves, to ask the nation: Is the love of our Faith and Fatherland the only criterion by which we judge one another? Too often do many of us, set up our own standard and too much do the country suffer as a consequence. Should not the life of our Apostle be an example to us, or the life of any of our native saints who took up the torch handed by St. Patrick and bore it throughout many countries of the globe? Surely, the love for one another and the respect for one another's feelings, thoughts and opinions should find some place in our hearts, and then could we say truthfully that we may begin to do our utmost for Faith and Fatherland. On St. Patrick's Night the lovers of the "light fantastic art" in the area divided their patronage between the dances held at Baldwin's Hall, Kill; Garranbane (Pike) Hall, and the Mental Hospital, Waterford, excellent amusement being provided at each of these functions.

CLONEA AND RATHGORMACK GLEANINGS—

Interesting to note that the late Mr. John Mullins, of Ross, Rathgormack, was evicted from his farmstead in the Land League days. The stout resistance he offered to the evictors is still spoken of around the firesides in the Barony of Upper Third. All that was mortal of this 87-year-old "wounded soldier of the Land War" was laid to rest in the old cemetery at Mothel on Tuesday of last week amid many manifestations of regret. At diels De go raibh a nann.

ON APRIL 1st, 1937, the Rovers will be up against P. H. Power's (Ferrybank) in the first round of the Divisional Championship.

The abnormally heavy rainfall recently almost completely ridged the region of the great handicaps, in the way of deep snowdrifts, which the fickle clime clerk imposed on the travelling public over the past weeks.

BONMAHON-WATERFORD BUS SERVICE—

It is freely rumoured that the proprietors (through their legal adviser) of the Bonmahon and Waterford City Bus Service have received notification to the effect that, if they are agreeable to the terms offered, the service will be taken over by the I.O.C. (G.S.R.) on the 5th of next month, to become part of the I.O.C. system.

THE GAELIC CLUBS OF MID-DEISE—

Disposed of an appreciable number of Irish Language Flags on St. Patrick's Day. The Irish Language Classes at Kilmachthomas (conducted by Mr. Michael Murphy, Instructor, under the County Vocational Education Committee), are progressing right admirably and well at their oral and written tasks.

A SAD DEMISE—

As briefly reported in our last issue, the death took place at the County and City Hospital of Mr. James Bowdren, Western Terrace, Kilmachthomas, after an illness of some few months and at the early age of 38 years. A native of County Cork, the deceased had been a postman in our midst for close on twenty years. He was very popular and much respected in the town and district for his efficiency and integrity in the discharge of his duties, and for his unflinching good humour and kindness of heart. A sportsman to his finger-tips, he was particularly interested in fishing and greyhound coursing, and was one of the best-known anglers in these parts. A great wave of public sympathy goes out to his grief-stricken wife (nee Margaret Power, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Power, Main St.) who is left with six helpless young children to mourn his untimely demise. The remains were removed to the Parish Church, Newtown, on Tuesday 16th inst. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery after the late Mass on St. Patrick's Day. Very Rev. T. Galvin, P.P., Newtown, assisted by Rev. J. Hally, C.C., Kilmachthomas, officiated at the graveside. The attendance at both the funeral and burial reached immense proportions, testifying the esteem and regard for this popular young man as well as the members of his family. A number of beautiful floral tributes were placed on the grave. Numerous Mass cards, and letters and tokens of sympathy were received. The Light of Heaven to his soul.

CLUB'S CONDOLENCE—

SIXTEEN YEARS HAVE ELAPSED—

CO. WATERFORD L. S. A.—

Mr. T. Cashin, N.T., (Chairman) presided at a largely attended meeting of the Stradbally Branch of the Co. Waterford Land Settlement Association, held on Tuesday night 16th inst. Correspondence relating to land division was dealt with, and it was learned with satisfaction that a Land Commission Inspector had visited the area, and that the claim of at least one member had been settled, and others are being investigated. The question of the additional half-acre to cottiers and of the local sewerage scheme was also discussed, and a special committee appointed to deal with them in future. In the motion of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. N. F. Phelan, a vote of condolence was passed with member John O'Keefe, on the death of his son, Anthony. It was decided to hold a special general meeting at which all members are requested to attend, as important matters relating to land division will come up for discussion.

WATERFORD HOUNDS—

Waterford Hounds met at Kilmachthomas on St. Patrick's Day. Although the weather was showery a big field of followers were provided with excellent sport from the local coverts. Those out included Lord William Beresford and Mr. R. Russell, Joint Masters; Mr. A. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. Langley, Mr. R. Shanahan, Mr. L. O'Byrne, Mr. T. Cheasty, Mr. W. Power, Mr. C. O'Connor, and Mr. W. J. O'Donoghue.

HEADS ARE GETTING BIGGER!—

The wholesale Hat Merchants' Association of the Seven Parishes say so, and they ought to know. "During the past two years," said the respected secretary of the association to the Metal Man, "we have noticed a definite increase in the size of heads. Previously we used to sell hats size 6 1/2 upwards. Now they are mostly from 6 1/2 upwards, and many are 7 1/2 to 7 3/4—an almost unheard of size in the old days. What is the cause? Well, that is what is puzzling us. simply do not know."

MOTORISTS—

Are inclined to talk disparagingly of the "intelligence" of cows. Shame on them! We were talking it over with a local farmer the other forenoon, and he explained to us that town cows, kept in or near busy centres for milking purposes, are just as intelligent on the road as horses. "It's the country cows that never see nothin' that you've got to watch," he said. "Sure when they get out on the road what could you expect?"

SEASIDE SLOGANS—

The power of the slogan is recognised by everyone in the advertising line. Big business gives you hundreds of pounds for snappy little couplets or phrases that stick in the memory and convey an idea. "Not a headache in a hogshead;" "Three E's for ease;" "Hosiers to discerning men," and thousands of others do their bit in punching home a message that sticks. Here's a chance for the Tourist Development Association. Why not have catchy slogans for our holiday spots? The time is fast approaching when the railway stations of An Saorstát break out in a rash with posters proclaiming the delights of various holiday haunts. Why should our Portlairge places keep dumb amid the loud self-praises of inferior resorts? Let us study our intended customers. The ladies, of course, come first. Now what is the chief merit, in most girls' eyes, of the good holiday resort. Why, "slicking" chances, of course. Thousands of the great un-mated in the inland counties would flock to Tramore or Dungarvan in answer to an appeal like this—

The girls who go to trim Tramore Are half way up the aisle or more; While those who to Dungarvan cling Are even nearer to "the Ring!" That would fetch them! But we'd have to bring the boys along, too, and we believe the same old sex appeal would work in their case, also. How would this do— Bonmahon bells are never rude, They'll lift you from your languid mood; And even fairer ones you'll see Parked on the sands at Stradbally! They could hike or hike into the neighbouring Comeragh Valley and meet the charming colleens there. Then there's the young married people. For them we'd suggest simply Moonatrea to convey that quiet honeymoonish retreat to a nicety. Only that we're fond of Annewstown, and don't want its peace spoiled by an influx of visitors, we'd suggest "Annewstown beats them all" as an appropriate slogan for that little spot. Instead we'd rather appeal to the man of funds in this way—

Why build a villa on a foreign shore, A bungalow is nearer—at Ardmore? Well, it would be cheaper, anyway, and we'd guarantee he'd get as much real enjoyment out of it, if he was a man of sense. For the unoriginal mob who wearily go, year after year to the seaside resort, a poster that would be calculated to stir them out of their lethargy is advisable. We suggest—

To Helvic Helthy

This year, instead of in four foot letters would do the trick. We mustn't forget the sporting crowd; either. What about—

You "do" Dunmore just for a spell, You'll find Dunmore will "do" you well! Then there's the family man, the poor man, the rich man, tinker, tailor, soldier. We could bag them all by judicious appeal, for

It's not a vain or idle boast, That all around the Deise Coast Attractions wait on every hand Unparalleled in any land.

CLUB'S CONDOLENCE—

At a specially convened meeting of the Rathgormack Gaelic Football Club a vote of condolence was passed with the popular Ware brothers of Erin's Own Hurling Club on the death of their mother. The Club Secretary, the Mountain Rovers Club also wished to have his club associated with the vote of condolence. The meeting then adjourned.

ON TOMORROW (SUNDAY) WEEK—

Tramore junior hurling team will be at home to Dunhill in their first round tie in the Eastern Divisional Championship. The sides shaped splendidly last year; confidence is equally high in both camps, so that a stern struggle for supremacy is assured. The match is fixed to start at 2 o'clock p.m. On same day, the Pike junior football XV will field out against An Rinn, at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, in the opening round of the Western Divisional Championship. This set-to is scheduled to start at 3.45 p.m. under the siremanship of Mr. Seamus Hayes. It should be a sparkling mix, as also should the meeting of junior hurling match between the Dickens L. C. and Cathal Brughas, which precedes it, with Mr. D. Goode, in charge of the whistle.

MID-DEISE COMRAHE DAIL CEANNTAIR, FIANNA FAIL—

Mr. T. J. Power, P.C. (Pat and Thomas Keating Cumann, Kilrossanty) presided at a largely attended meeting of the above, held at the Hall, Kilmachthomas, on Sunday evening last.

The Secretary, Mr. P. Tobin (Rathgormack Cumann), read correspondence from the County Board of Public Assistance, stating that the matter of providing a shelter at Leamybrien Dispensary was receiving attention.

The Chairman recalled that at their previous meeting a resolution was passed calling upon the P.A.B. to provide a suitable shelter for persons visiting Leamybrien dispensary for examination for sickness benefit, and the fact that the matter was now being attended to by the Board was, he said, very satisfactory.

The Vice-Chairman, Mr. J. Kent (Kilmachthomas Cumann), said it was sad that the poor people who wanted to get sickness benefit should have no place to shelter in while awaiting their turn at the dispensary for examination for a medical certificate.

At this stage Messrs. P. J. Little, T.D., (Parliamentary Secretary to President de Valera); Sean Goulding, T.D.; ex-Senator, W. Quirke, and Mr. O'Ryan, arrived, and were given a great ovation.

A delegate mentioned that the Kilmachthomas bakers were still doing night work which was contrary to the regulations, and most unfair on the bakers engaged, he said.

Mr. Little, T.D., promised to attend to the matter.

Mr. P. Power (Kilmachthomas Cumann) asked would the 14 houses for Kilmachthomas be built this year.

Mr. Goulding, T.D., said that his colleague (Mr. Little) and himself were doing their best to have this scheme carried out.

Messrs. W. Faulkner and P. Power (Portlaur Cumann) referred to the wages paid to the forestry workers at Portlaur, and alleged that any man who arrived in the morning would lose a day's pay, and add that some of the men had to travel from 6 to 10 miles to their work.

Mr. Little said that under the new Agricultural Arbitration Act a Board is to be set up on which labour will have its own representation, and that the case of the Portlaur forestry workers will be dealt with by the Board. Regarding the latter part of the Portlaur delegates' complaint, he would look into the matter himself as soon as possible.

Replying to Mr. J. Crotty (Windgap Cumann), Mr. Goulding said that there are many legal difficulties in the way of acquiring lands for distribution. People don't seem to understand the big difficulties that are to be confronted in this matter. There is definitely a legal point preventing the distribution of Coolnamuck.

In the course of a short address, Mr. Little said they were aware that there is a General Election to be faced soon, which would be of the utmost importance to the nation, as it would mean the enactment of the new Constitution, and which would be the paving of the road to a completely free, thirty-two county Ireland—the ardent desire of the Irish people (applause). The Government had sponsored innumerable Acts, such as the Employment, Unemployed Assistance, and Widows and Orphans, which he said, were a direct benefit to the people. They had abolished the Senate and the Oath. Not only had they advanced politically, but economically their social services had been increased for the benefit of the people. When getting in industries they had to get the right type of industries to compete with outside competition. During their next term they will see to it that men and women, who are strong and young, will get a proper livelihood in the country. He believed that the Irish people will put as much heart and spirit into the coming election as they did in 1932. In conclusion he appealed to the delegates to do their best when the General Election comes on, towards achieving their ideals as laid down in Easter Week (applause).

Ex-Senator Quirke informed the meeting that he was appointed by the National Executive of their organisation to help in reorganising the movement in County Waterford, and he felt honoured at being asked to come amongst them. Proceeding, he said that a nation is strong or weak, rich or poor, not in proportion to the number of its livestock, not in proportion to the number of its millionaires, but in proportion to the number of its happy healthy homes. The more we hear about the drift to the cities, the fall in school averages, and the rise of the twin monsters Fascism and Communism, the greater becomes the importance of the policy of land settlement. In some countries today there is great difficulty in getting people to work the land. In some countries no land is available, but here no such problem presents itself. There are thousands of acres available in every county and ample applicants available to work the land. I may, perhaps, be accused of gross exaggeration when I suggest that in the land lies the remedy for all our woes, but unless we tackle the stream at its source there is precious little hope of dealing effectively with the waters where they enter the sea. Just as agriculture is the basis of all our industry so also the rural population is the source from which all else must spring. The economic holding must always be our greatest source of production in time of peace; our greatest security in time of war, and unless we can establish and maintain a good sound population firmly rooted in the soil we cannot hope to progress as a nation. The big cities and the big industrial centres must always fall back on the rural areas not alone for food supplies but for the very man power to run their plants. Their policy should be to get the people from the bad land to the good land, and no work the Government could do would be more important. Every anti-Irish element in the country is organised and trying to hold up the Land Commission and to harass and impede the Government. New legislation has been introduced and the ditches will be built before the next election (applause). Continuing he said the further we go on the road to national and economic freedom the greater becomes the need of increasing support behind the chosen leaders of the people, if we are to contrive that advance. And the greater the support for Fianna Fail the more bitter becomes the dwindling opposition, and its mouth-piece "The Irish Independent." Within the past week we find the "Independent" in its leader apologising to the world for the St. Patrick's Day speech of the President of the State. But it is not the first time the "Independent" adopted that particular note. It has apologised for his actions since 1916 and tried to convince the world that he and his loyal supporters were not representative of the Irish people. In every stage of the National Struggle its apologies were always forthcoming. But today nobody is going to be deceived by such piffle. They know that the "Irish Press" is the mouthpiece of the overwhelming majority of our people and the champion of the people's cause, and even in outside countries that fact is daily becoming more evident. He concluded amidst applause by appealing to the delegates to regain the same enthusiasm which had prevailed during the previous election, and to get their clubs and supporters to take part in the Card Drive which this Dail Ceannairle was now running to further itself its funds, and to always remember the old slogan of their forefathers—

"We want the land that bore us! It's hard to get, By the heavens! We'll land o' it!"

Mr. O'Ryan, in the course of a short address, said that they had suffered hardships on the mountains; they were used to suffering hardships, but they knew that the Fianna Fail Party is the only Party to help the country. The idea of putting money into Irish industries was regarded as a myth 20—aye, or even 10 years ago. The spirit that animated Griffith is coming back again. What do you think of the mentality of those who tell you that bulldozing give more employment than the breaking up of the land? Don't be fooled by that feeling. If there are any little differences between us let us now sink them and pull firmly together to get our representatives returned again. Our Government will come back with such force as never before, if every member of the Fianna Fail organisation actively assists at the election.

Moving a vote of thanks to the speakers, the Chairman said that Mr. Little had laid love thrills glare throughout the coming week—

That the Mental Hospital Dance on St. Patrick's Night was unrivalled in the Terpsichorean art in East Waterford—

That the inevitable absence of the general and courteous R.M.S. (Dr. A. Fitzgerald) was universally regretted—

G.A.A. NOTES & NOTIONS

By "CROTOG."

A very scant attendance was present at last Sunday's League match in Dungarvan. The morning was cold and threatening, but the evening held fine and hard with a sharp Easterly wind. The Waterford team, like the spectators, were slow to appear, and the few hundred onlookers, tired of watching the waiting Galway hurlers, cast impatient glances round for the missing homesters. Youth was conspicuous by its absence. Times are indeed changed! Not so very long ago such a game would have drawn thousands to the Dungarvan Gaelic Field; today one felt ashamed before the visiting hurlers from the West. What could they say but that there is little support for the G.A.A. in mid-Waterford? It was indeed a poor tribute to the Connachtmen and their visit. It looked very like as if they got the cold shoulder. And if the Galway hurlers felt so keenly the cold indifference and lack of appreciation, how much more so the Decies team who certainly expected and deserved more generous support! There is a marked absence of "boyhood's fire" in the blood of our young people today. On Sunday last, hundreds of them gathered in the sickly, visited atmosphere of the movies to the clash of the ash in a Munster-Connacht duel. Their Irish blood must be turning to water in their veins. Archbishop Crooke might as well never have lived or laboured or spoken as he did if the youth of Ireland is to forsake the green sward of their forefathers for the seamy semi-drinkiness of the cinema.

And what a game it was! No let-up from the first to the final whistle! Every thing which makes a hurling game the finest athletic spectacle in the world was there! Fast furious striking, ground and air-flying ball and hurling men—deadly tackling and reckless rushing but—never a man hurt. The best possible tribute indeed to the science and dexterity of the players. The Decies team did all that was asked of them—even more; and in most convincing fashion too. Beating Galway by seven scores to three is superb-hurling form. This very team from the West had only a few weeks ago given an all-Munster selection a hard run at Ennis.

For the first fifteen minutes on Sunday, the Connachtmen looked like romping home at their ease. Then the Deise men, slow as usual into their stride, warned up and treated the onlookers to as great a hurling display as has been witnessed in this National Hurling League. The Waterford defence was well-nigh impregnable and conceded but one goal during the hour. The county has little to fear in this sector—every one of the backs played faultlessly. In the last line, Ware, Fanning, Keane and Mountain, held their line against all onslaughts. If Waterford has a better back anywhere than this bunch, then I would be very glad to hear of him—and so would the selectors.

Chris Moylan, tireless and ubiquitous, actually improved on the display which won him fame in Croke Park on St. Patrick's Day. He has great admirers in the Galway men who had already tasted his worst at Ennis. Tom Greaney, slow and unceremonious at first, amazed us with his pace and stamina in the second half and was going great guns at the finish when most of the others were beginning to crack up. The front line of attack was not up to scratch—lacked fire and finish. The heavier Galway men used their weight with telling effect and our lighter forwards came off worst when they tried to mix it with them. Harney was clever and accurate, but too frail to take and give what's going in Senior hurling. Lynch took some time to find his bearings but his timing and striking is superlative, he seems to lack the aggressiveness which would make him a star forward. Daly, who is fast developing into a big man, was not as clever as usual. He evidently lacked match practise. Though his first goal bore the stamp of class, he showed him justice. He has come on a ton since the Clonmel match and his game on Sunday was a treat to watch; he'll hold his place on the wing alright. Paddy Green again came in for some heavy rough usage, but he's a game lad and tried to the last ounce. If all our forwards were imbued with a share of the magnificent aggressiveness of Dec. Goode, then indeed Garryowen could look to its honours.

This is not the only County where trouble was experienced in deciding the Senior Championships. The record run of the Tallow-Mount St. objection serial has been beaten in Tipperary. Last October Templemore beat Arravale Rovers in the Senior Football Final. An objection reversed the result and Templemore appealed to the Munster Council. That august body referred the matter back to the Tipperary Co. Board for the production of the persons and birth certificates of two men named Timothy Vanhan (illegal substitutes being alleged). Templemore duly complied at the Board meeting and—the matter goes back again to the Provincial Council. It's a wise man who could prophesy the eventual destination of the Tipperary Senior Football Championship for 1936. Templemore seem to have a good chance of surviving the legal battle which has raged round their constitution.

In Tipperary too, the perennial question of what constitutes "a member of the G.A.A." has been in the foreground of the recent Conventions. Here is a public letter seeking enlightenment from a joker who signs himself "Davey Jones":—"I would like to know—what is the real true meaning of the phrase, so frequently and widely used—"members of the G.A.A.?" Does it bear the same meaning all round? If I wish to become a member—what have I to do? How do I get there? Would I be placed on the same level as Paddy so-and-so with three All-Ireland Senior Hurling medals and eight Senior County medals—or can I slip in with the tide—do the "Eloquent Dempsey," stand up and spout at meetings—blow hot and cold at the same time—introduce motions packed with notions—try to capture and command the applause of listeners—swing the lead—play to the gallery—stand in the photograph—propose or second votes of thanks—and go all out to win the support of even those like myself—That Never Struck a Ball. I did play once for five minutes—with the wind—but I won only the toss"—miser, Davey Jones.

The newly constituted Selection Committee met last Sunday evening after the Galway match. The Senior Hurling Team to play Kilkenny on April 4th was selected as were also the Junior Inter-County Hurling and Football teams. The picking of the other inter-county teams was deferred. The lists of players selected will not be available for publication until next week.

Co. Waterford Land Settlement Association

At a meeting of the Executive Committee held at Dungarvan, Dr M. Casey, Presided. The following branches were represented:—Dungarvan, Villierstown, Cappoquin, Lismore, Modeligo, Colling, Touranena, Ballinacrela, Grange, Garrahanane, Clashmore, Mocollop, Ballyduff, Upper, Butlerstown, Kilrossanty, Tempemichael, Stradbally Kilgobinet, Kill, Old Parish, Mountstuart, Portlaw, Kilmeaden.

Important correspondence was read in connection with the division of various Estates in the County. Interesting discussions took place re derelict ranches in this County and it was pointed out that some of these farms were actually offered by their respective owners to the Land Commission for Division years ago, yet we regret to state that these lands have not yet been made available for urgent unoccupied holders and landless people in the vicinity.

Strongly-worded resolutions were passed demanding in particular the speeding up of division of derelict holdings. The Secretary was instructed to forward copies of resolutions to the Land Commission and local Deputies.

"This Association tenders to Deputy Goulding, its gratitude and thanks for his competent speech in the Dail recently re land division in the County. The Secretary was pleased to report that two Estates had been divided amongst worthy applicants since last meeting. We are confident that the Land Commission will do its utmost to speed up land division in County Waterford."

DEATH OF MR. P. NAVIN

Fortified by the rites of Holy Church, Mr. Patrick Navin, farmer, Ross, Kilmeaden, died on Tuesday, after an illness of some months, and while yet in his fifties. The worthy member of a highly respected family of Kilrossanty parish—the Navins of Ballinavouga—he had endeared himself to all who knew him by his many laudable qualities of heart and head. Sincere sympathy is tendered to his wife, brothers and other immediate relatives in their bereavement. The remains, followed by a large concourse of people, were conveyed to St. Bridget's Parish Church, Kilrossanty, on Wednesday evening, and burial took place in the adjoining cemetery on Thursday in the presence of innumerable mourners and sympathisers. Fr. Kehoe, P.P., officiated at the graveside, assisted by Fr. Hart, C.C.—Ar dheis De go raibh a nam.

TALLOW NEWS

Tallow Point-to-Point Races—The Committee of the above, have done everything possible to secure from the I. N. H. S., permission to hold their postponed meeting this season. But the stewards of the I. N. H. S. have proved adamant in their decision not to allot another date. In a recent letter received by the Secretary, the following sentences were set out, viz:—"Your letter was placed before the stewards of the I.N.H.S. Committee. They regret they cannot see their way to reconsider their decision."

Hence the committee are reluctantly compelled to accept the decision of the stewards, and tender their apologies to all owners and trainers for any disappointment caused in the first instance.

St. Patrick's Night Dance—The annual St. Patrick's Night dance held under the auspices of the Tallow Social Club, at its cinema Hall, proved a most enjoyable function. Eighty couples were present, all of whom thoroughly enjoyed the topping programme of music supplied.

Tallow Cow-Testing Association—The results of the Competitive Examination held recently at the Temperance Hall, Tallow, under the supervision of a representative of the Department of Agriculture, came to hand over the week-end. Mr. Ned Condon, West End, having obtained the highest number of marks, was awarded first place, and recommended to the Association, being fully qualified to fill the position of supervisor.

The Association have accordingly appointed Mr. Condon to the vacant position, appointment dating as from the 25th inst.

BALLYDUFF BROADCAST

Dance—Were you at the Ceilidhe in Mocollop, run by the Ballyduff G.A.A. Club on St. Patrick's Night? If you weren't, then you missed the most enjoyable dance held here for a long time; was music supplied by the local G.A.A. Ceilidhe Accordion Band, comprised of Mrs. Keefe, John Fleming, Dave Feeney and drummers Dick Feeney and Mick Feeney, and say isn't Mick as clever with the drum sticks as he is with the canan, and that's saying a mouthful to it. It was a delight to see the beaming happy faces of the boys and girls as they went through the Haymakers, jig, Siege of Ennis, etc. During intervals, we were treated to vocal items by Miss L. Feeney, who sang "The Bridge of Lismore," Miss E. Brackett, who gave us "Only a Bunch of Violets," and Mick Coleman "Pal O' Mine." We would like to give the names of all those who supported this Ceilidhe, but we are afraid there would not be room for anything else in the "Observer" if we did. Suffice it to say that they came from Lyrenee, Inchielammy, Gortnapeaka, Ballinlorane, Touranagecha, Coolisheal, in fact every townland in the area was well represented. (By the way, what fine old Irish sounding names these townlands have!)

We must not forget to mention the untiring M.C., who kept everything in swing, Mr. D. Hennessy, the efficient Club in getting, the efficient Secretary, of the Ballyduff Hurling and Football Club.

45 Drive—Another function was held by the Ballyduff G.A.A. Club on Sunday night, when the final of the 45 Drive was held. This was again attended by large numbers. The first prize winners were—Mr. John Fleming and Mr. Jack Foley. Judging by the whole-hearted support which this Club is getting, they should not now be short of funds.

Congratulations—We were all pleased to hear that as a result of having passed the recent Examination for Writing Assistants, Miss Margaret (Baby) Tobin, has been called to take up duty in Dublin. It is indeed pleasing to know that this young lady, a product of Ballyduff Girls' National School, has succeeded at an examination at which there was such keen competition from over 1,000 entrants and mainly from Secondary Schools, and we extend to her our heartiest congratulations and hope for her further success.

Au Revoir—On last Saturday night we bid farewell to two of our fine young men in the persons of Moss O'Keefe, and Michael Coleman, who have crossed the Irish Sea in search of fame and fortune. It is a pity that the pride of our manhood, such as these two, must leave the country in search of a livelihood, because there is nothing to do at home, unless they wait for the harvest, when they might get a few months work.

Fishing—Despite the inclement weather and resulting floods, rod fishing on the river Blackwater has been fairly successful so far this season. Although conditions were unsuitable for the greater part of the period Mr. Jon Villiers Stuart of Drogheda, landed nine fish just below Ballyduff, and during the past few days Mrs. N. Teacher, a visitor from Galway, got three nice salmon. Several good-sized fish were also caught on the Ballinaronn waters and we hear that Mr. T. Tallant, had some good catches, one weighing 35 lbs. With settled weather conditions this should prove a very good season on the river Blackwater, and if it had not been for the weir at Lismore, the Blackwater would be as Major Longfield said in his recent Broadcast, the most sought after river in the world.
