DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

Mr. T. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman, presided. Also present—S. Hayes, P. Byrne, P. O'Dwyer, J. Dahill, J. F. Foley, J. Crotty.

Paysheet
A paysheet for £24 15s. 3d. week's wages was presented and passed.

Weigh Bridge
Mr. Dahill raised the question of the incapacity of the weigh bridge to weigh lorry loads and said it was unfair to the main in charge that he should lose money on account of the scales being too small. The Chairman said he agreed. A proper council capable of dealing with lorry loads should be put up.

Mr. O'Dwyer—At present the council is useless.
Mr. Foley—Isn't it a fact that a member of the Council gave an undertaking that he would weigh anything that was too large for the council and would give the weigh master the cost of weighing.

Chairman—Yes, that is a fact.
Mr. Crotty—A new weigh bridge would cost an enormous sum and would be warranted by the volume of trade.

Mr. Dahill—You would want a scales to weigh 15 tons.
Clerk—I must say that so far the weigh master has not signed his bond which is a serious matter.

Chairman—That is serious all right. The matter of a new scales was adjourned for a week as it was agreed that the necessary steps be taken to compel the weigh master to sign his bond.

Window Beaking
The following memorial signed by Messrs. Joseph Bennett, T. B. Boyle, and J. O'Dwyer, Mrs. M. P. O'Neill, Mrs. A. Spears, Miss M. Hayes and Miss Max O'Keefe, Western Terrace, was read:—

We, the residents of Western Terrace, desire to draw the serious attention of the Urban Council to a custom which is becoming an intolerable nuisance to us and causing much inconvenience and expense. We refer to the practice of permitting your property known as "The Old Hall" being used as a hurling pitch by the youths of the locality without providing adequate protection for our property. We are not unmindful of the crying need for playgrounds for the young. The Old Hall would be an ideal site for such and we are quite willing to contribute our share in converting the area into a suitable playing ground. What we object to is the necessity of standing as guardian to our property and undergoing the almost weekly obligation of replacing broken windows and making good other serious damage as a consequence of the present unprotected state of the locality. We should, it must be admitted, have some redress, and we consider that your Council, as guardians of the ratepayers property, are directly responsible in the matter.

Mr. Dahill—It is very annoying to have them breaking glass, but it will be only a few days now until another man will be in charge.

Mr. McCarthy—I hope so. What order will we make?
Mr. Dahill—Inform the Guards. It was decided to put up a notice pending the starting of the housing scheme.

Price Of Plot
Mr. Patrick Foley, Coolagh Road, wrote:—With reference to your letter of July 20th, re sale of plot, at rear of Council houses, I beg to inform you that I am prepared to sell same for the sum of £5.

He was dealing as reasonably with the Council as he could afford, considering that it is the householders must pay.
An order was made that the matter be dealt with by notice of motion.

Clerk of Works
Messrs. Doyle and Ormonde, Architects, wrote in reply to the Council's enquiry as to whether there were any of the original local applicants available to take up the work, and stated that all the locals are engaged in other work now.

Mr. Magnier, recommended to the last meeting is now taking up another appointment and will not be available. In this case it would be advisable to re-advertise.

The Council decided to re-advertise. A letter from Mr. Patk. Dunne, 3 Mitchell street, complaining of insufficient water to his premises was referred to the B.S. to deal with.

Acknowledgment
Mr. T. B. Boyle, wrote thanking the Council on behalf of himself and family, for the kind resolution of sympathy passed to them on the death of Mr. T. Haunahan.

The Misses Humble, Abbesside, also wrote thanking the Council for vote of sympathy passed by them on the death of their father.

Mrs. Nano Beatty, Newline, Abbesside, also wrote thanking the Council for their expression of sympathy on the death of her husband.

The Three Schemes
Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., wrote regretting that he is not in a position to report much progress in any of the three schemes.

Mr. P. Flynn, Housing Contractor, has not since given me the names of his proposed sureties, although last week he promised to attend to the matter at once. With regard to the Sewerage Scheme the draft agreement was sent to Messrs. McCaffery and O'Carroll's, solicitors last Monday. A reply was received stating that Mr. McCaffery was not in Limerick at the moment, but that they expected him back at the end of this week, when they would then get him to give the matter his immediate attention.

Water Schemes—The draft agreement and bond was also sent to Mr. Jeremiah Fitzpatrick. He received an acknowledgment from him, but he had not dealt with the document since.
It was decided to wire or phone the three contractors on Saturday morning.

Loughmore
Mr. P. Lyons, appeared before the meeting and stated that the cement floor of his house was in a bad condition and that patch work on it was useless.

The B.S. said that he had examined the crack in the floor and had men cutting it away for a width of 6 inches when it would be patched.
Mr. Crotty—I think we will eventually have to do all the floors.

Mr. J. F. Foley—They are white elephants.
The B.S. said a new floor would cost about £2 15s.

On a show of hands it was decided by 4 to 3 to put down a new floor.
It was also agreed that a back door be given to Mr. M. Kenneally, Loughmore.

Water Rate
Mrs. Nugent, Abbesside, wrote asking for a reduction in her water rate.
The Board could not consider the matter as the special water rate meeting had been held and the application will have to stand over until next year.

Fisheries
A resolution from the Kinsale Harbour Commissioners asking an inquiry into the decline in fisheries, especially salmon fisheries be held and suitable action taken by the Fisheries Department, was adopted.

Free Milk
A letter from the Department stated that the Council should take care that too much milk was not issued during the summer months, and that regard would be taken of the winter months when it was mostly required.

Chairman—Well what do you say to that?
Mr. Dahill—It was cut down before and our Chairman Mr. Morrissey was blamed and the public should know now that that was not the case.

Chairman—That is only rumour, it can be seen now that the Council are not to blame.
Mr. Dahill—It was said that Mr. Morrissey was to blame.

Chairman—The Department is the cause of it.
Mr. Walsh, S.S.O., said that last winter they were issuing 22 gallons a day and now it is 15 gallons a day.

WEST WATERFORD DIVISIONAL BOARD MEETING

At a meeting of the Western Divisional Board G.A.A., held in the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on Wednesday evening, July 28th at 8 p.m. most of the Western Clubs were represented.

The officials present were—Messrs. M. V. O'Donoghue, B.A., Chairman County Board; P. O'Faolain, Secretary County Board; S. Hayes, Treasurer; T. Kyne, J. Mason, Co. Board; J. O'Neill, Vice-Chairman, Western Board.

In the absence of Mr. Frank Ryan, Chairman, Mr. J. O'Neill took the chair. The following clubs were represented: St. Anne's, Faha, Kilrossary, Stradbally, The Pike, Dungarvan, Cathal Brugha's, Villierstown, The D.L.Co., Clashmore-Kinsalebeg; Lismore, Cappoquin.

The room was packed to overflowing as a large crowd had gathered to hear the heavy list of objections thrashed out, but some were withdrawn and others were not heard until next meeting, so the sitting was a brief one.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and signed.
The referee's report on the Faha v. Kilrossary match was read and passed.

The next matter for decision arose out of the championship match between Stradbally and Dungarvan Senior Football teams played at Dungarvan on the 28th July. Strong arguments were put forward by both sides and at times the discussion became heated.

Mr. P. O'Faolain, Secretary County Board, stated that he was informed on the Saturday previous to the match that Mr. J. Malone, the referee appointed by the Board was unable to attend and he appointed Mr. J. Lyons, referee. Stradbally objected to the referee and he was of the opinion that no championship match was played.

Mr. Lyons, referee, in his report stated that Dungarvan lined up at the appointed time but Stradbally refused to play. After appealing to them to take the field and play the match which they refused to do he awarded the match to Dungarvan.

Mr. J. Ormonde, who then took the whistle to the satisfaction of both teams stated that as far as he was concerned he took the match to be a championship match, but he could not find the County Secretary at that time to be officially sanctioned.

Mr. Flynn and Mr. Power, Stradbally said that they both understood it was a championship match and if they thought otherwise they would not have played. Mr. Flynn put forward several strong arguments on this point, taking into consideration the nature of the game and the hard fought match by Stradbally, which the impression that the championship was at stake.

Paul Russell, paid compliments to Stradbally as footballers and said they were a fine lot of fellows.
After a prolonged discussion on the various aspects of the situation, the Chairman said in the circumstances he could not award the match to either team, and furthermore it would be a pity to suspend any of them as both were splendid teams.

On the suggestion of Mr. J. Mason, the Chairman ordered a replay.
Paul Russell proposed that a challenge match for the Sheehan benefit fund be played by the teams and this was agreed to by the Stradbally representatives.

The report of Dungarvan v. St. Anne's M.H. was read and passed.
An objection by Cathal Brugha's M.F. against Stradbally M.F., was not in order and was ruled out.

The match billed for Cappoquin on Sunday July 18th (Lismore v. Villierstown J.F.) could not be played owing to the Cappoquin club getting into difficulties with the owners of the field and with whom they failed to come to terms. The teams got only 3 days notice as to the change of venue to Tallow and Villierstown would not travel.

The matter was left in the hands of the Fixtures Committee to find a suitable date and venue.
Other matches which were billed to be played at Cappoquin were also left in the hands of the Committee to be dealt with.

On the suggestion of Mr. Mason, a Dungarvan player injured in the recent match with Stradbally was granted £3 by the Board.

Mr. N. Kelly, D.L.Co., raised the question of the selection of the group team "Shandon Rovers" to meet Dungarvan S.H. team on Sunday next at Dungarvan.

Mr. E. Fitzgerald, Cathal Brugha's, was appointed to take charge of the above team.
The Fixtures Committee then sat to make the necessary fixtures.

DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT.

HEAVY FINE IN MOTORING CASE

Held on Wednesday before Mr. Troy, D.J.

Undeclared Civil Bills
An unusually large number of undeclared civil bills were first dealt with and decrees granted in almost every case.

Messrs. E. A. Ryan, T. C. Williams, A. R. Farrell and L. F. Lanigan, were the professional gentlemen engaged.

Commitment Order Sought
The Great Southern Railways Co. sought a committal order against M. Power, Dungarvan, in respect of his failure to pay the instalment order of 10/- per month.

Mr. Power (Messrs. Dobbins and McCoy) solr., Waterford for applicants.
Mr. E. A. Ryan, solr., defended. The facts of the case were that his client acting for other ordered a bus. He collected what he could but the fact is he was let down by the crowd. He is now unemployed for the past 8 weeks and the last payment made by him, the last week he was working was returned. It would not be an inconvenience to this wealthy Corporation to give this man a chance until he gets some employment.

The Justice adjourned the case for two months.

A Kicker
Richard Clancy, Seekin, Stradbally, sued J. J. Morrissey, O'Connell street, for £10 breach of contract in the sale of a mare.

Mr. Ryan, solr., for plaintiff; Mr. Farrell, solr., defended.
Plaintiff in reply to Mr. Ryan said he had a deal with Mr. Morrissey at the March Fair whereby Mr. Morrissey bought back an old mare from plaintiff which plaintiff had previously purchased from Mr. Morrissey for £7 and plaintiff bought a young mare from Mr. Morrissey for £5.

Plaintiff, continuing, said that at the March fair Mr. Morrissey met witness and asked him to buy a good working horse. Witness replied he did not want her as he had two good working horses and after some conversation he said if defendant would buy back the old mare, he would buy the young one. While they were speaking the man came up and asked Mr. Morrissey would he sell the mare and offered him £8. Mr. Morrissey said he would not dream of selling the mare for £8. Mr. Morrissey later said that the man was a "Goulter" who wanted to get the mare for half nothing. Later witness heard some men discussing about the mare and saying she was a "kicker" and that she kicked the arse of Brown's Pike. Later Mr. Moloney, the smith, came along and said the mare never kicked in his forge. The defendant told witness that the mare kicked himself once when eating on the headland, he told witness she was quiet and kind but could not say if she would work a mowing machine. They then went into defendant's shop and defendant paid him £7 for the old mare and witness gave Mr. Morrissey £10 leaving £5 due. Witness returned the mare a few days later and returned the mare a few days later. Defendant's man brought the mare down to witness's the day after he bought her, and they put her under a cart and drove up and down the road. Next day while filling loads she was all the time throwing kicks. On the following morning when he went into her stall he could not go near her and he had to lasso her to catch her. On the following day the same thing happened and witness saved himself by jumping into the feeding bin. When bringing the mare back, he met Mr. Morrissey in Bridge street, and he told witness that he also bought the mare with that fault himself.

Cross-examined by Mr. Farrell—Witness said he sold horses from time to time. Witness did not ask Mr. Morrissey's boy at the fair if the mare was foundered, and did not say he thought she was fired at Mr. Morrissey. If witness thought the mare was a kicker he would give a 10/- note for her. Mr. Morrissey told witness that the mare kicked him in the hip while eating, and witness said he would not mind that, as any horse might kick while eating. Morrissey told him on one occasion to give her a good beating with a plant and she would be all right. She might be worth £30, but for being bleached in both hind legs. When

Referee—P. English.

PIKE MEDAL TOURNAMENT

At a previous meeting held by the Western B.M. G.A.A. permission was granted to the Pike Football Club to hold a medal tournament for Junior Football teams.

Teams wishing to take part in this Tournament should communicate with the Secretary Pike Club as soon as possible so that the draws and other arrangements can be made at an early date and help to facilitate matters generally. Entry fee 2/6.

It is stated that 12 teams will participate in the Tournament.

the boy brought down the mare witness and his wife came out, and his wife asked is this the kicker. How she knew the mare was a kicker because after witness had left for home after buying the mare, a neighbour of his who was taking home a calf for him heard the "Goulter's" discussing the mare and saying she was a kicker and that she was a devil in the stable. Witness had the mare in town on the following Saturday and was talking to Mr. Morrissey. It was then Mr. Morrissey told him to give her a good beating and told him all her faults. He gave the horse back.

Mr. A. Clancy and Mr. T. McGrath, bore out the evidence of plaintiff.

Mr. J. J. Morrissey, said he bought this mare in August 1936. When he bought her she would not pull a binder or draw a load of stones. He bought her for £10 and worked her on his farm. He himself brought her to the forge where she was quiet, and a few days before the March fair she was tied to the fence in the haggard and when witness approached and said, "hold up there," she fired at him and hit him in the hip. He was in case she would kick the men. He was selling the mare to a man who had offered him £10 when Clancy said he would buy her only that he had two working horses already.

Witness told Clancy about being kicked himself and told him all her faults. He had many deals with Clancy in cattle and pigs. He gave no warranty, and stated all her faults.

To Mr. Ryan—He bought the mare for £10 and sold her for £15, but he had worked and schooled her.

The Justice—If you told Clancy all the mare's faults, and that she was vicious, why did you want to clear her of kicking in the forge?

Defendant said he did not speak to the smith at all, it was Clancy went to the smith.

Thomas O'Connor, gave evidence of working the mare for 6 months. He found her quiet and kind and never saw her kick, but on the one occasion.

John Crotty, Loughmore, said he heard Mr. Morrissey's workman, tell Clancy, she is a good working mare, but you would want to speak to her before going into the stable.

The Justice after reviewing the evidence, said Clancy was entitled to succeed and gave a decree for £10.

Trespass

Johanna Fraher, Bleantiss, sued Patrick Coffey, for £10 damages for loss sustained by trespass of defendant's sheep and cattle on plaintiff's oat and hay crop.

Mr. Farrell, solr., for plaintiff.
Mr. Ryan, solr., defended.
After hearing the evidence as to value, etc.,

The Justice gave a decree for £6 and 5/- expenses.

Apology Accepted

In the assault case of J. Prendergast v. P. Hehir.
Mr. Ryan, solr., for plaintiff.
Mr. Ryan, solr., defended.

A settlement was arrived at by Mr. Ryan on behalf of his client apologising for the assault.

Milk Deficiency

Two cases of deficiency in milk fats, brought by Guard O'Leary, Food and Drugs Inspector, were dismissed, defendants agreeing to pay 15/8 costs in each case.

Disorderly Conduct

John Flynn (no fixed abode, was at the suit of Guard Farrell, sentenced to one month's imprisonment for disorderly conduct on the Square.

Drunk

Richard Fanning, was fined 2/6 for being drunk. Guard O'Leary was complainant.

Licensing Case

In the case of Superintendent Walsh v. Bridget Dee, Mary street charged with a breach of the Licensing laws.
Guard Regan, gave evidence of knocking at the premises at 12.24 a.m. on Sunday 6th June, 1937, and being refused admission he later entered the premises from the rear and found 3 men in an outhouse. When interviewed on the following morning, the license admitted the men were on the premises.

Mr. Farrell, solr., for the defence, pleaded guilty and stated that the three men on the premises were friends of Mrs. Dee. When the knock came to the door, Miss Dee went upstairs to see who was knocking, the men in the meantime left the kitchen. As the Guards were in plain clothes she thought they were strangers. He asked the Justice to deal leniently with the case considering the good record of the house.

The Justice imposed a fine of £1 not to be recorded. The men found on the premises were fined 5/- each.

Six Weeks For Larceny

A man named Patrick Barry, a native of Callan, Co. Kilkenny, working at Masterstown, Cahir, was charged by Supt. Lavin, Cahir, with the larceny of an overcoat and bicycle.

Accused pleaded guilty.
Superintendent Lavin, said that they had got the overcoat in a pawn, accused got 2/- on it, and later sold the ticket for sixpence. They heard nothing of the bicycle until in the Court today, when accused said he sold it in a shop in Irish-town, Clonmel, for 3/-.

A sentence of 6 weeks imprisonment was imposed.

Road Traffic

Felix O'Neill, driver of one of Messrs. Gearys, Limerick, vans, was charged by Supt. Winer under Section 51 and 52 of the Road Traffic Act.

Inspector Ryan, prosecuted.
Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., defended.
Mary Flynn, gatekeeper at the Ballymacmague Railway crossing, deposed that on June 16th at 10.45 p.m. she opened the gates for the train to Cappoquin. A car came along from the Cappoquin direction with lights on at ordinary speed and ran through the first gate which closed against the train, the lorry also hit the second gate and broke it. He then reversed the lorry back and the train came along and broke the gate at the Cappoquin side.

James Dahill, Ballinamuck, John Cotter, Engine driver of the train in question and Sergt John Condon, having given evidence,

The defence was a denial that the lorry ever touched the gates.

Mr. Farrell, referred to the evidence of Sergt. Condon and asked could it be possible for a lorry to crash into two heavy gates and reverse back without getting seriously damaged. Although the lorry is supposed to have done this there was no damage done to the windscreens, lamps, buffer or mudguards, except that some slight white substance was adhering to one mudguard, and which the defendant said was whitewash off the walls of the Factory yard.

The Justice imposed a penalty of £7 10s. od., and 30/- expenses, not to be recorded on the licence.

ARCHBISHOP SHEEHAN DEPARTS: AUSTRALIA'S DEEP REGRET

(We are indebted to the "Catholic Press," Australia, for the following article:—) Most Rev. M. Sheehan, D.D., Ph.D., M.A., who since 1922 has occupied the office of Coadjutor-Archbishop of Sydney, with the right of succession, left Sydney for America by the Monterey, on Friday 25th June.

His Grace's departure followed the announcement a few weeks ago that he had resigned from his Sydney appointment. Since then deep regret at Dr. Sheehan's decision has been manifested among Bishops, Priests and laity in all parts of the Commonwealth, and a great many letters expressing their sorrow, from friends in all the States, were received by the Archbishop before he bade a reluctant goodbye to an Australia truly beloved of him.

The great gifts of intellect possessed by his Grace, his zeal in applying them to aid young and old in the perfection of their faith, his courtesy to all and endearing qualities of heart will, indeed, be sadly missed. How keenly his Australian friends felt the sorrow of Archbishop Sheehan's impending departure was strikingly reflected at the wharf, where hundreds came to bid him farewell individually. Rejoice steadily down on this bleak June morning as the concourse of people passed up to one of the higher decks of the Monterey and successively came before the Archbishop for a few hurried words of leave-taking.

His Grace the Archbishop of Sydney was represented by Right Rev. Monsignor T. Phelan, P.P., V.G., and Right Rev. Monsignor T. Hayden, D.D., P.P. His Grace the Archbishop of Melbourne (Most Rev. Dr. Mannix, D.D.), who came to Sydney specially for the occasion, was one of the earliest to meet the departing prelate aboard the vessel. Dr. Mannix then waited on the wharf with all the other callers until the Monterey sailed. His Grace the Archbishop of Brisbane (Most Rev. James Duhig, D.D.) was another distinguished visitor. The Hierarchy of N.S.W. was represented by their Lordships the Bishops of Lismore (Right Rev. Dr. John Carroll), Goulburn (Right Rev. Dr. John Barry), Bathurst (Right Rev. Dr. John Norton), Armidale (Right Rev. Dr. John A. Coleman), and Maitland (Right Rev. Dr. Edmund Gleeson, C.S.S.R.). His Lordship Bishop J. Bach, M.S.C., was also present.

Among other noticed were Right Rev. Monsignor I. Meany, P.P., (Chancellor of the Archdiocese); and J. Lonagan, (Melbourne), Very Rev. Monsignor J. F. Givens, D.D., Ph.D., (secretary to the Apostolic Delegation), Ven. Archdeacon R. Collender, P.P., Very Rev. Deans J. J. Corry, P.P., and P. Crowley, P.P., Very Rev. Fathers E. O'Brien, P.P., V.F., P. O'Neill, K.C.S.G., A. W. M. D'Apice, K.C.S.G., P. S. Cleary, K.S.S. (editor of the "Catholic Press"), J. J. Carroll, K.S.S., W. Ross, L.C., T. J. Purcell, Dr. W. Purfit, Messrs. J. J. O'Brien (manager of the "Catholic Press"), and C. Williamson.

In a farewell interview Archbishop Sheehan said: "There is sorrow in my heart as I leave this beautiful country, because I am parting with so many dear friends. It is a country to delight the soul of man and has a most lovable, understanding people. They will always be in my prayers. May God bless them."

For the 20 minutes or so while his visitors were ashore awaiting the boat's sailing, his Grace stood at the railing of the promenade deck, where he acknowledged to the last the salutations of the gathering below. The vessel sailed about 11 a.m.

"AN IRREPARABLE LOSS." THE HIERARCHY'S LETTER The following letter was received by his Grace Archbishop Sheehan from the Hierarchy of Australia. His acknowledgment is given at its close:— Sydney, June 24, 1937. Most Rev. Dr. Sheehan, Coadjutor-Archbishop of Sydney, Sydney.

Your Grace—Your colleagues in the Australian Hierarchy cannot allow you to leave Sydney without bidding you sorrowful and affectionate farewell. The news of your resignation, which came to us without warning through the daily Press, filled us all with sorrow and consternation, for we realise that your going is an irreparable loss to the Church in Australia—a real tragedy, as it has been justly described by priests and people.

disposal of the whole Church in Australia, Sydney's tragic loss brings grief and impoverishment to us all. Your place, especially in the educational life of this progressive young country, from the primary schools to the university, cannot be adequately filled. No wonder, therefore, that we deplore your resignation. We can only express our regret that before your resignation took effect, we, your colleagues, who know you best, had no opportunity of trying to alter your decision by expressing, not only our affection for you personally and our unabated confidence in you, but also our appreciation of your unique fitness for the position which you have now voluntarily relinquished.

We fervently hope that God has good things in store for you; that He will use your great gifts perhaps in even a wider and more exalted sphere, and that the Church in Australia will always have a place in your affection and in your prayers.

With much esteem, We remain, Your Grace's most devoted and grateful servants in Christ,

- MICHAEL KELLY, Archbishop of Sydney. DANIEL MANNIX, Archbishop of Melbourne. JAMES DUHIG, Archbishop of Brisbane. ANDREW KILLAN, Archbishop of Adelaide. RAYMOND PRENDIVILLE, Archbishop of Perth. JUSTIN SIMONDS, Archbishop of Hobart. JOHN CARROLL, Bishop of Lismore. JOHN HEAVEY, Bishop of Coovvra. DANIEL FOLEY, Bishop of Ballarat. JOHN MCCARTHY, Bishop of Sandhurst. JOSEPH DWYER, Bishop of Wagga. RICHARD RYAN, Bishop of Sale. JOHN BARRY, Bishop of Goulburn. JOHN NORTON, Bishop of Bathurst. JOHN COLEMAN, Bishop of Armidale. EDMUND GLEESON, Bishop of Maitland. JAMES BYRNE, Bishop of Toowoomba. TERENCE MCGUIRE, Bishop of Townsville. JOHN O'COLLINS, Bishop of Geraldton. THOMAS FOX, Bishop of Wilcannia. ROMUALD HAYES, Bishop of Rockhampton. NORMAN GILROY, Bishop of Port Augusta. PATRICK FARRELLY, Coadjutor-Bishop of Lismore.

Reply of Archbishop Sheehan. Sydney, June 25, 1937. To the Archbishops and Bishops of Australia.

My Lords,—I will not engage in the hopeless task of seeking to express my gratitude to you for the words which you have addressed to me. From the very day of my arrival in Australia down to this present hour I have been a debtor to your kindness. You have always shown me the greatest affection, ignoring my many defects and exaggerating the very meagre measure of good things that may possibly stand to my credit. But if your estimate of my ability far exceeds my merits, I can confidently assert that, at least in the quality of gratitude, I am not deficient.

I am grateful, not only to your Lordships, but also to the priests and people of Australia for innumerable marks of affection and esteem. Be assured, my lords, that, during the years to come, be they few or many for me, the memory of your friendship will be with me day by day to sustain and console me.

I remain, My Lords, Your devoted servant in Christ. (Signed) M. SHEEHAN, THE CLERGY'S FAREWELL

Agricultural Conditions 1st JULY, 1937. Weather and Work.—The weather during June, after the first week, was generally dry, fairly warm, and on the whole favourable for all classes of seasonal farm work, especially hay-making, but it was not quite so good for the growing crops, especially the root crops which suffered from attacks of the fly. Farmers were engaged during the month in cutting and saving first and second crop hay, cutting and saving turf, spraying potato crops, and in the after cultivation of the root crops.

Livestock and Live Stock.—Pastures were in good condition at the beginning of the month, but the drought later affected growth adversely, especially on light limestone lands, nevertheless at the close of the month they were still carrying a fair covering of grass. Livestock, although healthy, were in backward condition for the season, but made rapid improvement during the month. The numbers carried on most farms, if calves be left out of account, were hardly as high as at the corresponding period last year, largely owing to the relatively high prices for cattle during the present season. No outbreaks of disease of a serious character were notified from any quarter. Hay-making.—Hay-making began in the middle of the month in favourable weather and much of the first and second crop had been cut and saved in good condition at the close of the month. The general tenor of the reports would indicate that this year's crop will be of good quality and that the yield will be above that of last year. Old meadows also looked promising at the close of the month. Cereals.—Wheat crops made good progress during June, especially those sown early (November to December); those sown in February and March were showing thin patches. Spring wheat was reported on the whole to look promising. Oats and barley made satisfactory progress, except in some instances where they suffered from attacks of wire-worm or grub. Owing to the oat crop having been sown later than usual on account of the unfavourable weather, it suffered less from weeds. Practically no surplus of oats or barley remained on hands at the close of the month. Sugar Beet, Mangels and Turnips.—Sugar Beet germinated well, but later suffered severely from an attack of "mangel fly." During the month, however, it recovered fairly well and after thinning appeared to be outgrowing the attack, although some fields had to be ploughed up. Mangels and turnips also suffered a setback from insect attacks, and some turnip crops had to be re-sown. Given favourable weather for the balance of the season, however, there is no reason why all three crops should not be up to average. Flax.—The area of flax sown this year is estimated to be about 10 per cent. below that of last year. At the end of the month it was reported that the crop in County Donegal was exceptionally good, and that it favoured with sunshine during the summer yields approaching those of 1935 might be anticipated. The crop in County Monaghan was reported to be variable and generally under average in condition; while that in County Cavan was reported to be promising where it escaped the ravages of wire-worm and leather-jacket pests. There were, however, considerable areas where these pests had caused a good deal of damage. Potatoes.—The potato crop made rapid progress during the month. First earlies were dug from about the middle of the month and yielded about an average crop. Prices ranged from about 3d. per lb., or 28s. per cwt., at the beginning of the digging down to 12s. to 14s. per cwt. at the close. Second earlies made good progress, some very fine yields of British Queens were to be seen in many districts. Main crop potatoes are not as well forward as usual owing to the delay in planting this year. The crop generally looks healthy. Blight made an early appearance, but spraying had been already carried out in many districts and was more general than usual. Adequate supplies of spraying materials were available in all districts. Surplus stocks from last season's crop were cleared by the end of the month. Cattle.—Cattle stocks were maintained in good health and in generally improved condition. The fairs held during the month were well supplied with cattle of all descriptions. Demand was good. Prices eased somewhat as the month advanced. The following quotations may be regarded as representing the average range of prices realised at provincial fairs during the month for the various kinds of stock mentioned:— Calves under one month from £1 15s. to £4 5s. Calves 1 to 9 months £3 to £6. First Class Stores, 9 to 12 months £4 7s. 6d., to £8 5s. First Class Stores, 12 to 15 months £6 to £11. First Class Stores, 15 months to 2 years £8 to £11. First Class Stores, 2 to 3 years £10 5s. to £14 10s. First Class Stores, 3 years and over £10 5s. to £15 10s. First Class Fat Bullocks and Heifers £12 10s. to £19. Best Fat Cows and Bulls £9 to £14. Choice Springing Cows and Heifers £13 to £18. Choice Down-calving Cows £11 to £17. Sheep.—Flocks were maintained in good health and at the close of the month had shown marked improvement in condition. Shearing was completed during the month. The average weight of the clip from them, and in that regard he felt he was their debtor. He had the greatest respect for the clergy, both diocesan and regular. He looked forward with interest to the future of all the young priests of the Archdiocese, many of whom he had ordained himself. His Grace, Dr. Sheehan, was informed of July.

Universal Regret Expressed. The Chairman opened the proceedings by stating that in deference to the wishes of Dr. Sheehan, there would be no speeches. He added, however, that they all hoped that his Grace would not apply this embargo to himself.

The Vicar-General, continuing, said they were all dumbfounded when they read in the Catholic papers a few weeks ago the announcement of his Grace's impending departure. Needless to say, the news occasioned universal regret. The clergy, well aware of the lavish manner in which his Grace had constantly contributed to religious and educational works and to charity, both public and private, felt sure that by now he had but little left to meet even the expenses of an extended trip. Hence, although there was no meeting summoned to inaugurate any monetary testimonial, when it became known that the Vicar-General had opened a fund there was a ready and generous response, and he assured his Grace that the cheque he would now ask him to accept represented the spontaneous offerings of the clergy, both secular and regular. It was a good sign of their goodwill and best wishes for his future.

Text of Address. Monsignor Phelan then read the following address:— To the Most Reverend Michael Sheehan, D.D., Ph.D., M.A., Titular Archbishop of Germa. My Lord Archbishop, As Vicar-General of the Archdiocese of Sydney, interpreting the sentiments which all the clergy entertain for you, and wholeheartedly uniting myself with them, I have the honour to express to Your Grace our good wishes for your safe and happy voyage to Ireland.

Whilst conveying to Your Grace this expression of our goodwill, I am also the medium of offering to you a tangible assurance of our gratitude, as a memento of Your Grace's long association with us during the years of your Episcopal work in this Archdiocese. Our reverent regard and deep appreciation accompany your departure, and our prayers will be with Your Grace throughout the years to come. May Divine Providence grant Your Grace a long life of happiness. We all know the gifts of intellect and heart with which you are endowed, and we trust that in the near future we shall have the pleasure of seeing further results of your distinguished literary labours. As his Excellency the Apostolic Delegate wrote in his valedictory letter to Your Grace, the false doctrines of our day demand that the Church be defended against the attacks upon her teachings, and our parting wish is that your work will continue to be fruitful in this honourable service of the Church and her Divine Founder. "Beatae matris" (a blessing with you—goodbye).

Signed on behalf of the Secular and Regular Clergy of the Archdiocese of Sydney. THOMAS PRELAN, Vicar-General. Sydney, 22nd June, 1937.

Archbishop Sheehan's Reply. His Grace—who in the course of his remarks, said he had not prepared any formal address—commenced his reply by referring to the recent conference of the clergy over which he presided. On that occasion he readily complied with their request that, by way of paying a compliment to Dr. Simonds, the new Archbishop of Hobart, no business would be done. He did not think then that the clergy would be assembled, so soon again, as they were that morning, in order to say farewell to himself.

He had been, he said, in Sydney nearly 15 years, and during that time he had learned to love Australia. It had really become his country. He preferred the real country part of it, and hence, as they knew, he as a rule spent his short annual holiday in the Australian bush. Everything about Australia had taken a great hold of him, and it had really become dearer to him than any other country he had lived in. He had a great admiration for the Australian people. They possessed a great many excellent qualities. Even if, like the people of every other country, they had some dark spots, such as—in the case of many—the lack of the true faith and a deep love of religion, speaking generally Australians had a great sense of fair-play and a fine sense of decency, and he was confident they would not tolerate any great outbreak of bigotry. Addressing the priests in particular, he said he had received nothing but kindness Close on thirty thousand persons participated in the annual pilgrimage to the summit of Croagh Patrick during the week-end, and over a fourth of the number received Holy Communion. Addressing pilgrims at the Parish Church, Westport, Most Rev. Dr. Gilman, Archbishop of Tuam, said the one undimmed glory of Ireland was its unswerving allegiance to the Faith. Adding that they must not close their eyes to the dangers to faith and morals, he said they needed zealous priests who will keep sowing the seed, and they needed Catholic writers who will make error and vice more repulsive than non-Catholic writers.

Everyone however must understand clearly that these instruments should only be used for "stunning" animals which are to be used as food, and which have always to be bled at once after being stunned. These instruments are used with Blank cartridge, and do not kill outright. Therefore, if any animals have to be killed outright, a proper instrument such as a Greener Humane Killer and a Bulleted cartridge, must be used for that purpose. CAPPOQUIN DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.)

CHARGE OF DANGEROUS DRIVING

Superintendent Sean Quinlan, Lismore, summoned Robert J. Blackburn, Dublin, for driving a motor lorry in a manner dangerous to the public at Cook street, Cappoquin, on January 22nd, and there was a similar charge against John Milward, Tallow, for dangerously driving a motor car on the same occasion.

Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, appeared for Blackburn. Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., Youghal, who had been engaged on behalf of Milward, wrote applying for an adjournment in this case, as he was unable to attend this Court.

Inspector O'Shaughnessy, who prosecuted in the absence of Supt. Quinlan, said he had no objection to an adjournment in order to convenience Mr. Hodnett, and the Justice then adjourned the case to the November Court, but it was decided to proceed with the case against Blackburn at the present Court.

Michael Irwin, employed as a motor van driver by Messrs. Pasley, Youghal, stated, in reply to the Inspector, that about 1.30 on the date in question Messrs. Pasley's motor van was pulled up on its correct side of the road outside Mrs. Lincoln's shop in Cook street. He saw two motor lorries pass up Cook street from behind his van, and shortly afterwards a third motor lorry, driven by the defendant, Robert J. Blackburn, came along in the same direction on its proper side, but in order to pass out the stationary van the lorry had to go out to the middle of the road, and had pulled up when a motor car, driven by John Milward, came down Cook street at a fast pace and collided with the lorry.

In reply to Mr. Farrell, solr., witness said that the motor car was coming down a hill at the time and was travelling at a fast pace, but he could not say how many miles an hour it was going.

The driver of the car had a clear view of the road before him for about 80 yards but he thought the driver of the lorry had not a good view owing to witness's van being in the way.

Patrick Healy, Ballyhane, stated that he saw Pasley's van standing on the roadside outside Mrs. Lincoln's shop when a lorry came along from behind, and as it was passing out near the van a motor car came down Cook street and a collision occurred between the car and the lorry.

Replying to Mr. Farrell, solr., he said the car was travelling at a fast rate at the time, but he could not estimate the actual speed.

Thomas Walsh, Cappoquin, stated that three lorries belonging to the G.S. Railway Co., which had previously been drawing beet to the Cappoquin railway station, were returning empty from Dungarvan to Cork on the day in question. He was driving the first lorry, D. Doyle, Tallow, was driving the second, and Robert Blackburn was driving the third lorry, some distance behind the other two.

Witness and Doyle passed out the stationary van all right, but when he got up near Barron's Hotel, he saw a motor car driven by Milward coming down Cook street at a great rate and witness had to pull his lorry in against the electric light pole in order to save himself from being run into, but even then the car barely skimmed his lorry. In reply to Mr. Farrell, solr., he said that he went back after the accident and examined the brakes of the motor car and found the handbrake defective, as the ratchet was gone.

Guard Thorne, Cappoquin, stated that he visited the scene soon after the accident and took measurements and found the width of the road to be 15 feet at the point of impact. The width of the stationary van was 7 feet, and it was pulled in as near to the kerb as possible. The motor driven by Milward was a Ford Sedan, and there were two lady passengers in it at the time.

Answering Mr. Farrell, solr., he said the road was very narrow at this point.

Robert J. Blackburn, the defendant, was then examined by Mr. Farrell, solr., and said he had been driving a lorry for the G.S. Railway Co., for 34 years, and had been driving for 17 years altogether and had never been involved in an accident previously.

The three lorries were proceeding from Dungarvan to Cork on the day in question, and he was following the other two at a safe distance behind. He was driving slowly in order to pass out the stationary van, as the road was very narrow at that point, and had just pulled out from behind the van when the motor car came down at a fast pace and collided with the lorry.

Having heard further evidence, the Justice said that there was no evidence that the defendant had been driving dangerously at the time, and he accordingly dismissed the case against him.

Another Collision Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, summoned Patrick O'Neill, Scart, for dangerously driving a motor car at Killahala, Cappoquin, on May 3rd as a result of which he collided with a car driven by Mr. Gladstone, Cork.

Inspector O'Shaughnessy, prosecuted, and Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, appeared for the defendant.

Charles James Gladstone, Cork, in reply to the Inspector, stated that on the date in question he was motoring from Stranally to Lismore, and when rounding a bend in the road near Killahala he saw a motor car, driven by the defendant, coming against him on its wrong side which ran into his car and damaged it slightly.

Mr. O'Gorman asked witness if the damage had since been made good by the defendant, and he replied that it had. Mr. O'Gorman said in view of the fact that the damage was so slight, and that the cost had since been paid by the defendant, he would ask the Justice to deal leniently with the case. The Justice said that the defendant was undoubtedly driving in a dangerous manner at the time, and he imposed a fine of 10/-.

Relief of Rates

Commissioner Moyrhan, administering the affairs of Waterford Co. Council, summoned some local farmers for having made false returns as regards labourers employed by them for the purpose of claiming a relief of rates from the Co. Council.

Mr. M. M. Hally, solr., Waterford, appeared for the complainant, and Mr. E. A. Ryan, State solr., Dungarvan, and Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, represented the defendants.

Mr. Hally, having explained the system under which farmers were entitled to a rebate of their rates in respect of the number of labourers employed, said the defendants had filled in forms claiming for men who had not been regularly employed by them for a full year, as required by the Act, and while the Commissioner did not wish to press for a penalty in the present cases, as they were the first brought by him, he wished to give farmers a warning that it was necessary to have such forms correctly filled up so that no fraud could be committed in future.

Messrs. Ryan and O'Gorman having explained that the forms in those cases were filled up by mistake, as the defendants did not thoroughly understand them, Mr. Hally said he would be satisfied if they paid the costs of the prosecution in each case, and the Justice then dismissed the cases, subject to the defendants paying the costs in each case, which they agreed to do.

Cases Adjudged

Some important cases were adjudged to the September Court, on the applications of Mr. E. A. Ryan, State solr., and Inspector O'Shaughnessy, as the necessary witnesses for the prosecution had failed to attend.

The Justice strongly commented on the number of adjournments taking place in this Court from time to time, and said the Cappoquin Court was becoming notorious for adjournments of this kind. Only that day he had to try a case in connection with an offence which occurred as far back as last January, owing to repeated adjournments, and he should refuse to grant any further adjournments unless there was very good cause for them in future.

KILMATHOMAS NEWS

The Court—At the monthly District Court held here on Wednesday week, before Mr. F. J. McCabe, D.J., his Worship at the outset intimated that as most of the professional gentlemen and the Guards would be taking their annual vacation during the month of August, he did not intend sitting at Kilmathomas until the third Wednesday of September; but if any cases of a criminal nature occurred in the area in the meantime he would be available to dispose of same. A big number of civil bill cases were disposed of in the usual way—none of the respondents appeared and decrees for full amounts claimed were granted, together with costs claimed in each case. Messrs. M. Hally, solr., Waterford and T. Kiersey, solr., Kilmathomas, appeared for a number of the applicants.

Cottage Rent and Rate Collector, Mr. Pat Quinn, Furruleigh, Kilmathomas, obtained decrees for full amounts claimed together with costs, against a number of cottiers prosecuted by him, who were in arrears in both their rent and rates, and in the case of Declan Hayes, cottager, Currahaha, he got a decree for possession, the defendant (who did not appear and who was not professionally represented) owing thirteen months rent.

Supt. Demery, Tramore, sued Capt. Mivault, of the Swiss Army, for driving without due care and attention in the vicinity of Kilmathomas on a recent date, was fined £1, and the Court further ordered that the fine be endorsed on the defendant's licence.

Mr. Hally, solr., for the defence, said his client, who admitted the charge, was unavoidably absent from the Court that day, he having to attend at Navan Show. Fines ranging from 2/- to 2/6, and costs were imposed in a heavy list of Gardaí cases disposed of (Breaches of the Lights and School Attendance Acts), the complainants being:—Sergt. Herriery and Guard Rice, Kilmathomas; Sergt. Lynagh, Stradbally, and Guard Thorpe, Stradbally.

The Minister for Lands and Agriculture prosecuted a local farmer, for failing to licence his bull within the period stipulated by the Act. He was fined the nominal sum of 5/-.

Sympathy—His legion of friends on all sides locally sincerely sympathise with Mr. N. F. Phelan, ex-T.D., Stradbally, on the death of his brother, Maurice, which sad event occurred at Devon, Colorado, U.S.A. WEST WATERFORD JUNIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

TALLOW DEFEATS BALLYDUFF

The semi-final of the West Waterford Divisional Junior Hurling Championship was played in Lismore on Sunday between the adjoining parishes of Tallow and Ballyduff and resulted in a victory for Tallow by a substantial margin. The Ballyduff team had hitherto held a very high place in the Junior Hurling records of West Waterford, and their supporters confidently expected them to be able to defeat Tallow on this occasion, or at least run them to a close finish, but the wonderful form shown by the Tallow players, whether in attack, defence or mid-held play, revealed a remarkable improvement on last year's form, and the issue was never in doubt at any stage of the game.

The weather was dry, but cold, with a strong breeze blowing down the field towards the goal, but owing to the great counter-attractions in Cork the attendance was rather on the small side.

Both teams complained of the long grass in the field, which made ground play extremely difficult, but, despite this defect, the play was of a very fast and scientific nature, with Tallow always holding a big advantage from start to finish.

Playing towards the goal end, with a strong breeze in their favour, Tallow got away from the start and had their first point registered by Henley within the first few minutes, and a similar score was added for them by T. Colbert a short time afterwards.

A free to Ballyduff, which was taken by P. Flynn, brought Ballyduff relief, and play was taken into their opponents' territory, but owing to the splendid defence met with, nothing resulted, and the ball went wide. Another free to Ballyduff was well-directed, but the ball was deflected from its course by the strong breeze and again went wide. Following the puck-out, Tallow brought play down the field and soon had their third point scored per Luke McCarthy, and this was supplemented soon afterwards by a further point per W. Ryan.

Tallow next forced a "70" which was taken by W. Henley, but sent wide. Ballyduff then got going in more vigorous style, and after some fast play in Tallow territory, Mick Feeney "broke the ice," for Ballyduff with a point.

This was the only score Ballyduff were able to register in the first half, and with Tallow continuing to play a winning game right through, the half-time score stood as follows:—

Tallow 2-5

Ballyduff 0-1

With the breeze in their favour in the second half, Ballyduff raised the hopes of their supporters by shooting a point early in the play, but this was quickly nullified by a grand goal scored by T. Colbert for Tallow. Ballyduff next attacked, but sent wide, the shooting of their forwards being most erratic. A strong attack by Tallow in front of the Ballyduff goal was brilliantly repulsed, in the course of which J. Cashman, goalkeeper, got hurt, but was able to resume after a short time.

Ballyduff next showed some of their old dash by taking the ball right through all opposition for P. O'Neill to shoot a stinging goal. Ballyduff later renewed the attack, but sent wide, after which Tallow got a free from a favourable position, but nothing resulted. L. McCarthy, Tallow, now got hurt, but resumed play, when Ballyduff made a spirited attack on the Tallow posts, only to send wide.

A free to Ballyduff later went the same way, while Tallow had the same bad luck when a free taken by W. Ryan, sailed clear outside the posts. After several wides on both sides, Ballyduff scored a point off a free towards the close of the game, but no further flag being raised by either side, the long whistle found Tallow rather easy winners on the following score:—

Tallow 3-6

Ballyduff 1-4

Mr. W. Hogan, Lismore, proved a most efficient and impartial referee.

The teams were as follows:—Tallow—W. Henley (Capt.); J. McCarthy (goal); Michael Hickey, P. McNamara, Wm. Hickey, T. McCarthy, Luke McCarthy, J. Donovan, M. Ronayne, Park, Henley, Wm. Ryan, E. Condon, H. Ronayne, M. Cronin and T. Colbert.

Ballyduff—Con Higgins (Capt.); J. Cashman (goal); M. Pearse, J. Pearse, M. Feeney, P. Feeney, P. Flynn, D. Burke, P. O'Neill, D. O'Donnell, D. Hennessy, M. Higgins, W. Daly, T. Cuffe, and P. Callaghan.

For the winning team the brothers Henley, Luke McCarthy, T. Colbert, W. Ryan, J. McCarthy and M. Cronin were the most outstanding players, while Con and Michael Higgins, M. and P. Feeney, P. Flynn, P. O'Neill, M. Pearse and J. Cashman, were the most prominent players on the Ballyduff team.

ADVICE FROM WELL-KNOWN BUSINESS MEN

"Cheap goods are always the dearest in the end," has always been the motto of Harpur Bros., Waterford. "We believe in giving value for money because we are very largely dependent upon what people say about our goods to increase our business, and people must appreciate our 'square deal' methods because our hardware and seed business has grown to be one of the largest in the South of Ireland. We buy a sound article that will give good service, sell it to the public at a reasonable—estimate profit, and everybody is satisfied."

TALLOW NEWS

Tallow Caring Club

The annual general meeting of the above was held on Friday night at the Club Rooms, Mr. J. J. Walsh, president. Other members present were—F. Ryan, B. Sheehan, Hon. Secs., J. M. Beecher, Treasurer, P. O'Callaghan, P. F. Walsh, James Lynch, J. Beecher, P. O'Mahony, T. J. O'Dwyer, Wm. Beecher.

The Hon. Secs., in submitting their report for the year 1936-37, said that on the whole, the year had been a satisfactory one. Notwithstanding that their courting meetings were not favoured with good weather conditions which militated very much against revenue resources.

Early in the season they had secured new courting grounds on which a large expenditure was made to bring them up to the correct standard for courting, and it was the intention of the Committee to make a further expenditure this season to remedy the few defects found during the courting period, and so make the grounds one of the best in Munster.

They were pleased to be in the position to inform the meeting that the revenue for the season exceeded expenses by a comfortable margin. The Hon. Treasurer submitted a Statement of Accounts, and balance sheet which were considered very satisfactory.

On the motion of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. P. F. Walsh, it was unanimously decided to make application for dates for present season's fixtures, and the Hon. Secs., were instructed to lodge same immediately.

Discussion ensued on the new regulations governing Registration of greyhounds, etc., and on the necessity of owners being members of affiliated clubs, and as a result the Hon. Secs., were instructed to invite and accept membership for the season 1937-'38. The appointment of a caretaker for the preserves was discussed and deferred to next meeting.

G.A.A.

Congratulations to our Junior Hurlers on their win over Ballyduff in the Western Semi-Final played at Lismore on Sunday last, the final score being Tallow 3-6; Ballyduff 1-4.

Tallow took the lead from the start and never looked back. Well done Tallow, keep it up. Constant training coupled with unity and determination is what is wanted to uphold the honour of the Blue and Gold.

Carnival and Bazaar in Aid—The Carnival and Bazaar organised in aid of the above proved a wonderful attraction on Sunday 25th inst, and the attendance notwithstanding many counter-attractions must have numbered thousands, all of whom thoroughly enjoyed the large and varied programme presented by the promoters, who spared no effort in providing a wealth of entertainment for their supporters. The beautiful Castle grounds with its sentinel of by-gone days in the background furnished a most wonderful setting and its scenic beauty was enhanced considerably by the addition of an amount of bunting which gave a most colourful effect against the beautiful greens of the shrubs and trees that added much charm to an ideal situation for an outdoor entertainment of such magnitude.

A grand celebrity concert was staged on a specially prepared platform in the centre of the grounds, all the items of which were highly appraised by the appreciative audience present, who also enjoyed to the full the various instrumental items, and the Irish step-dancing was particularly enjoyed.

During the intervals, the Fermoy Confraternity Brass and Reed Band, discoursed a delightful and charming selection of music, including well-known Irish airs.

The dancing stages were busily engaged all the afternoon and evening, while the various side shows created wonderful amusement for the participants, and their admirers, as well as the youthful element amongst the large attendance.

The tea and refreshment stalls were fully availed of, while the Fancy Stalls were cleared of their contents early in the evening.

A special feature on the programme was a gymnastic display by Professor Fraser, and some of his College pupils, and to his organising ability must be attributed a goodly share of the success which was achieved.

The festivities were closed by all those present singing the hymn "Faith of Our Fathers," followed by a splendid display of fireworks from the top of the Castle.

The organising Committee under the able guidance of Rev. Fr. Twomey, C.C., together with their ardent staff of workers for the good cause deserve to be highly praised for staging such a commendable programme of outdoor amusements, and for the interest shown by them in all who were fortunate enough to be present.

BOTTLING FRUIT

How To Obtain Satisfactory Results

Fruit for bottling should be freshly picked, and bottle not longer than two hours after it has been pulled. Make a syrup by dissolving 1 lb. of lump sugar to each quart of cold water, bring it to the boil, skim it, and let it get perfectly cold before using. Pack the fruit in the bottles to within half-an-inch of the top, shake them down well, then fill up the bottle to the brim with cold syrup. Put the rubbers into hot water (new ones should be used each time), and put them on perfectly flat round the rims of the bottles, put on the glass lids, then the screw tops, and screw them down part of the way, but do not make them tight or the air will not be able to escape, and the bottles will burst.

Put the bottles in a steriliser, or, if one is not available, a fish kettle with a folded cloth put under the strainer or a zinc bath can be made to do duty if a few slabs of wood are put at the bottom of it to keep the bottles from touching the bottom of the bath, and packed well with straw to keep them from touching each other. If any quality of fruit is to be bottled a steriliser is well worth the price, as it contains a perforated tray, and this greatly facilitates the lifting in and out of the bottles.

Next fill the steriliser or bath with cold water upto 3/4 the height of the bottles; in the screw top ones this is usually up to the neck. Bring the water slowly to 176 degs. F. It should take 1 1/2 hours to reach this temperature.

If you have not a thermometer, heat the water slowly until small bubbles form on the surface—that is simmering point, which is 180 degs. F. but is near enough to give satisfactory results. Next take up the bottles and place them on a wooden table and quickly as possible screw them down tightly, then leave for 24 hours. To test if they are then air-tight unscrew the metal tops and lift the bottles by the glass lids; if that can be accomplished, dry the screw tops, brush each with olive oil, replace on bottles, and store in a dark, cool, dry cupboard; they should be re-examined in a week's time, and, if any lids are not then tight, the fruit should be used or re-sterilised; there has, probably, been a crack in the bottle or the rubber was not put on flat.

Ordinary jam-pots or fruit bottles without special lids are used the process is exactly the same as for the screw-top jars, except that perfectly clean, hot, clarified melted mutton fat is poured into the bottle immediately it is removed from the steriliser. The bottles must be then covered with bladder or parchment paper. Soak the bladder in warm water, dry in a cloth to remove the surplus moisture, stretch it tightly over the top of the bottle, and tie down with damp string; the string tightens as it dries and makes a secure fastening.

Loganberries, raspberries, cherries, currants, young green gooseberries, take 15 minutes; greengages, plums, peaches, nectarines, 20 minutes and damsons half-an-hour, at 176 degs. F., counting from the time they reach this temperature after having been started in cold water. Plums should be first washed. Peaches, nectarines, and apricots should be first plunged in a bath of boiling water, for two or three minutes to loosen the skin, so that it can be easily removed with a silver knife, then plunged in cold water to harden again.—L.B. in "Farmers' Gazette."

GALIC NOTES & NOTIONS. By "CROTOG"

How are the Mighty fallen! After lording it over all and sundry in the hurling world, Limerick's four years reign of glory ended in Cork last Sunday. And what a decisive knock-out it was! Hammered to a standstill by Tipperary's recklessness, they were counted out to the tune of 6 goals 3 points to 4 goals 3 points. Clonmel had been the beginning of the end to the charmed career of Garryowen. It was left to the gallant sons of Kichman's County to complete the rout so well begun by Waterford. It was a rude shock to those who had persisted in weaving spells round Shamrocks hurling and telling the world that it was well-nigh invincible.

More rainfalls has appeared in the daily Press about the Munster Final than about any game in recent years. The 'Ballyhoo' in spots would throw the worthy Barnum into the shade. Truth and sober judgment are sacrificed to screaming sensationalism. Despite the stunning superlatives of the stunt writers, Sunday's final was not a great game. The hurling was not up to the best standard and there was little scientific play and spectacular striking. The marking was pretty close and the pulling pretty vigorous—the play all through was robust and at times rough. Except for the last ten minutes, the ex-champions shaped like a team of second-raters. They appeared to be stalling their half-time lack of confidence, they got going only in spasms and, in general, they were below their Clonmel form. Only in the closing minutes did they hurl like the Limericks of old, but Tipperary were already well past the post.

The "Hindenburg" Line of defence, manned by Cross, Clohesy and Co., cracked up early in the second half. Coffey and Doyle, the Tipperary players, have heretofore and he'll 'Treser' and 'Sweeper' Ryan to enough loose balls to win three all-Irelands. All of the victorious goals came from crisp ground-pot shots from thirty yards range which left Scanlan standing. For the first quarter of the second half, the much-vaunted Garryowen defence was as wide-open as the Caves of Clash and the fast moving Tipp attackers scored, and missed too, with amazing ease. Carroll, alone of the Limerick backs, held his corner and his man. Kennedy was unaccountably listless and Tom McCarthy blundered more than once. For once in a way, Scanlan's goal-keeping failed to win admiration though in this respect, his vis-avis Buter was just as uncrisp.

At mid-field, the Ryan pair could not cope with the mobility of Cooney and Gleeson, who roved to telling effect. The Mackey brothers never tried so hard but their desperate efforts evoked no response from the rest of the Limerick attack and McMahon was the only other forward to threaten danger. Tipp's left back, Lanigan, was the best defender of the thirty with Jack Ryan, the Moycarkey youngster, to that of Limerick, was very steady and conceded very few openings.

The most spectacular of the winning forwards was Bill O'Donnell, who, strange to say, seems to have missed the eye of the Press critics. Racing in full forward during the second half offensive, with reckless audacity he grabbed a ball from off Tom McCarthy's hurley, crashed through Kennedy who barred the way and lashed to the net for a score which would bring water to the teeth of 'Gah' Ahearn or Martin Kennedy. A few minutes later he got the best goal of the match by a magnificent overhead back-stroke to the corner of the net. A glorious shot from a most difficult angle. These two scores sealed the fate of Limerick.

The winners are a young determined team whose strong suit is fast moving and hard-hitting. They are too unevenly balanced to make a great team and though I expect them to win the All-Ireland I am quite sure that their reign of glory will be short-lived. Apart from Lanigan, Ryan and Wall of the backs, Cooney, O'Donnell, Coffey and Doyle of the forwards, the others do not strike one as being promising material for building a really first-class team. Nevertheless, they have achieved the much-coveted honour of detroning the long-reigning hurling idols. They deserve the heartiest congratulations for, by their victory, they have done incalculably good to the game. Munster hurling has got a transfusion of new blood which has imbued it with a new, more vigorous and a more pulsating life.

Next Sunday the Senior County Hurling Championship opens in full swing in West Waterford. At Dungarvan, the local XV, strongly fancied for this year's honours, face the challenge of Shandon Rovers. The latter are a group team drawn from Cathal Brugha's, St. Anne's, Kinsalebeg and the Dickens Leather Factory Club. That they will extend their Dungarvan rivals I have no doubt. At Lismore, a big crowd will anxiously watch the fluctuating fortunes of Lismore and Avonmore as they battle for the honour of a tilt at Tallow, the county champions, in the next round. The group team, re-inforced with Nire players will be a serious challenge to the best of the Senior teams this year. After the Senior bout, an attractive Minor Championship tie will be played. St. Carthage's who have made a name for themselves in minor competitions these last years, are faced with stern opposition in Tallow, whose juniors last Sunday so surprisingly defeated Ballyduff. This victory has fired the Brideside with a devouring enthusiasm which has affected the juveniles to such an extent that they will not hear of defeat. The following are the players selected to represent the Avonmore Senior Hurling team in their championship tie against Lismore at Lismore next Sunday—M. Pease, J. Pease, M. Feeney, P. Feeney, C. Higgins, P. Flynn, P. O'Neill, D. O'Donnell, (Ballyduff); W. Rea, P. English, W. Coffey, (Cappoquin); J. Allen, W. Linnin, C. Murray, P. Kelly (Ballyin); J. Halbin, J. Moloney, J. Connelly, M. Morrissey, N. McCarthy and J. Power (Glennan na hIddre). All the above players are requested to be present at the Lismore Gaelic Field at 2.30 p.m. Summer time equipped with hurleys, tags and boots—Runairhe Avonmore S.H. team.

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J.)

Occasional License

Mr. T. K. Keane, solr., applied on behalf of M. Cashman, North Main street, for an occasional license in connection with the local Aviation Day on 28th inst. Supt. Kelly said there was no objection. The application was accordingly granted.

Sacrilege, Housebreaking, Etc.

Sidney Boyd, of no fixed residence, was brought up in custody on remand, charged with housebreaking and larceny at Lisarrow, Ardmore, Co. Waterford, breaking into the Catholic Churches at Castlemartyr and Ballintolis, and the larceny of a piano-acordeon, the property of the Ballinora Hurling Club at Inniskenny, Cork. There was a further charge of breaking into the Catholic Church at Monkstown, Co. Cork.

Sergt. Whelan, Midleton, deposed that on Sunday 30th May last, he visited Ballintolis Church, and was present when Guard O'Donoghue traced tracks to the lake. He saw the impression of a man laying down. On Monday 31st May he interviewed accused at Castlemartyr station. Witness asked him if he knew the name of the town, and he replied if he had a look around he would tell if he was ever in the place. Witness took him around, and pointing to the Church he said that was the Church he broke into on last Sunday night. "Come over here and I'll show you how I got it." He brought them down a lineyway alongside the Churchyard wall where there was a small galvanised house. He said he got up on the roof of the house and over the wall into the Churchyard. They then went round the Church and they went to a window where the glass was broken. Accused said he got in there and described how he got in, taking off his coat and pushing his body head first through the broken glass. Witness searched the vicinity of the window. Witness asked him what he was looking for. He said he had taken a small tongs out of the Church, and when going away he threw it there. Back at the station witness saw Guard O'Donoghue show him the tongs (handed in). After leaving the back of the Church they went around to the front. He pointed out one of the front doors and said that was the door he opened to get out. On the way back to the station he said if they took him to the other Church he broke into he would show them how he did it. They then took him to Ballintolis. When passing the lake he asked to have the car stopped. He pointed out the place where he lay down and slept before he broke into the Church. That was the impression already mentioned. On 30th May he said he left a book there that he took from the Church. They then walked up to the road near the Church. He pointed out the place where he said he crossed the wall and a green plot over to the window. Accused then described how he broke the window and went through the Church, broke open an offertory box and came out again. They then took him to Midleton Garda Station gave him the usual caution. He made a statement describing his journey from Cork to Waterford and breaking into the two Churches, on the way, breaking open a number of boxes, with an old piece of a handcut, but didn't succeed. He then found a small tongs, forced open one box and got a couple of tongs which he took. He was hiding anything, and he made that statement to try and make up for what he had done.

Sergt. Moloney, Castlemartyr, deposed that on 2nd July, he was at Youghal Garda Station. Accused said he wished to make a statement about the larceny of a piano-acordeon in Cork. Witness gave him the usual legal caution. He then made a statement, describing how he broke into the Club Room and took the piano-acordeon, which he pawned at Mr. Twomey's, Cork, for 5/-.

Supt. Kelly, said he would now take up the charge of breaking into Castlemartyr Church.

Sergt. Moloney, deposed that on Sunday 30th May last, as the result of a complaint he visited the Catholic Church at Castlemartyr, accompanied by Guard O'Donoghue. He examined the sacristy window at the rear of the Church and found a stained glass window broken. A hole 4 1/2 inches in circumference was made in the window. He found a handkerchief on the outside sill of the window. Inside there were small bloodstains on the sash. There were also blood stains on a monstace case on the window sill. He examined the Catholic Truth Society box which was near the front entrance of the Church. It had been apparently forced open by some instrument. He then went to Ballintolis Church, 2 miles from Castlemartyr. A pane of glass had been broken in the sacristy window, opposite the altar. The hole was large enough to enable a hand open the catch. The Catholic Truth Society box had also been opened. On Monday 31st May he took the accused into custody at Waterford. He examined his hands and found a small cut 1/2 of an inch long and one-tenth of an inch deep on the inside of his hand. The cut was fresh. In his possession he had a pair of old worn kid gloves and a pair of old goshes. He had 16 pennies and 2 half-pennies; a used bus ticket R0762 at 3/3; a pawn office ticket. He had also an attache case and portion of a handcut, all produced and marked. The pawn ticket was issued 28th March by T. Twomey, pawnbroker, etc., 24 North Main street, Cork to Mr. Sidney Boyd, Corn-pawnee for 5/-. Witness charged him with the two sacrileges on June at Midleton, and also in respect of Monkstown Church.

The Supt.—We are not taking any deposition in the Monkstown case. The Justice—Then leave it out. Witness, continuing, said he gave accused the usual legal caution. He made no statement.

O'Donoghue, Castlemartyr, gave corroborative evidence and deposed on the 30th May as a result of a complaint he visited Ballintolis Church with Sergents Whelan and Moloney. He found a track leading from a broken window at the back right across the Chapel grounds to the corner of the wall on the main road, and then across the road to an adjoining field. He traced the track for about 200 yards till it came on to the road again and into a field at the opposite side of Ballintolis Lake. Beside the fence he found the impression on the grass as of somebody laying down. Sergt. Whelan was present. About 10 yards away he found a C.T.S. book produced. On Monday 31st May when the accused was at Castlemartyr Station he produced the tongs handed in and showed them to accused. He said "that's the tongs I used to force open the C.T.S. box in Castlemartyr Church."

Sergt. Keane, Cloncyne, deposed that on Sunday 30th May, he visited Castlemartyr Church about 2 p.m. and saw a window broken. Near the window he found the tongs produced. On 17th June he conducted an identification parade in the Ball Court at Midleton Garda Station. There were seven men, with the prisoner who asked what was the parade for. Witness told him it was to see if some witnesses would be able to identify him as the man seen in the vicinity of Castlemartyr, Ballintolis and Ardmore on the night of 29th-30th May, when outrages were committed. He asked if the witnesses knew the men on parade and witness said no. He then said "all right."

Accused asked no questions and made no statement.

He was returned for trial in custody on the Co. Cork charges to the Cork Circuit Court and to the Waterford Circuit Court on the Co. Waterford charge. Andrew Griffin, Greenocloyne, Youghal, an old offender, was charged in custody with attempting house-breaking at North Main street, Youghal.

Supt. Kelly, prosecuted. Detective-Officer J. Downes, Youghal, deposed that at 3.30 a.m. on 22nd inst he took the accused into custody at Youghal and charged him with the offence. He made a statement which witness did not propose to put in evidence at that stage. He was still making inquiries and he asked for a remand in custody to next Court.

Accused remained in custody to next Court.

Alleged Reckless Driving

Thomas Walsh, St. Mary's Cottages, Passage St., Cork, bus driver, was charged with reckless driving on the morning of the 3rd May, as a result of which Messrs. Rita Delacour and Nora Smiddy, both of Youghal, received serious injuries, necessitating their detention in hospital since.

Supt. Kelly, prosecuted. Mr. M. O'Driscoll, B.L. (instructed by Messrs. Bass and Co., Cork) appeared for defendant, and Mr. T. K. Keane, solr., Youghal, held a watching brief for the injured parties.

John Fitzgerald, land steward, stated that he was returning home from a dance at Killeagh about 1.30 a.m. on 3rd May with Misses Tobin and Flynn, when Misses Delacour and Smiddy came to go with the man they had no lights. Miss Tobin had his lamp and Miss Flynn had a flash lamp. After leaving Killeagh they met a motor car. They were cycling abreast at first, but at his request they went into single file, witness in front.

The Justice—On what side of the road? —On our own side.

Soon after he saw the lights of the bus approaching at a moderate speed. It gradually started to come in towards him. It skimmed but didn't hit him. He next heard a scream, turned back and saw the two strange girls, Delacour and Smiddy on the grass margin their bicycles being fairly near them. The girls were in a battered condition. The passengers in the bus came out to their assistance and the girls were put on. The night was dark; the road in good condition, dry and the bus was lighted all right.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Driscoll—Miss Tobin had a flash lamp and Miss Flynn a fixture. The bus could be on its own side of the road but he did not take notice. He didn't know the road well, but he thought it was straight, and the surface dry. He did the girls behind to cycle in single file. The two girls immediately behind collided with the bus and the two others escaped. After the accident the bus was about 30 feet on the Killeagh side where the girls were lying. He could not give any definite measurements. He took no particular notice of the position of the bus—to the best of his knowledge it was on the centre of the road. There was room for cyclists to pass. He could not say how the impact occurred.

To the Court—He could not say how far they travelled after the motor car passing when the bus came on. They changed their position when they saw the lights approaching. He was on his own side when the bus passed. It passed very close. He was on his right side.

Cathleen Tobin, Kilmaloo, stated she was one of the party coming from the dance. They passed the motor car in single file. When they saw the lights of the bus they got into single file again. W. Fitzgerald in front. She was second last; close to the grass margin. The bus was about the centre of the road coming along. As they were approaching it, it seemed to come to their side. The two strange girls in front of her were knocked down by the bus. The bus hit her on the side, but she was not knocked off the bicycle. She was taken in the bus to Killeagh. She cycled home afterwards.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Driscoll—Witness said when riding abreast she was about the centre of the road. The other two girls were a little in front. Miss Flynn had a flash lamp and witness had a fixed one. She could not say what part of the bus hit the girls. The girls did not swerve. She heard the crash. She supposed she must have been dazzled by the lights. She could not tell remember what happened after the collision.

To the Supt.—The last thing she saw before the collision was the bus coming on top of them.

Josephine Flynn gave somewhat similar evidence. When she saw the bus coming she was on the grass margin and she was in the bus. The bus seemed to be in the centre of the road coming towards them. She jumped on to the vehicle to escape the flying glass. She could not say how far Miss Tobin was in front of her before the collision.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Driscoll—She could not say if the injured girls swerved in towards the bus. The bus was almost in the centre of the road.

Cornelius O'Callaghan, Cork, stated he was in the bus and he saw the cyclists about 50 yards away. It was travelling 20-25 miles per hour on its proper side. He saw four: a boy and three girls. The cyclists were on the proper side, 6 or 7 feet from the grass margin. As the girls approached the first seemed to swerve and crash and the girl following screamed and also crashed. He saw only one light on the bicycles.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Driscoll—It appeared to be a flash lamp on the bicycle ridden by the man. The bus never left its correct side.

T. Hartey, Cork, stated he was in the bus. He heard the crash. The bus stopped in about its own length. He was first out of the bus. He saw one girl on the side of the road and another on the grass margin.

The Justice—Where was the bus? The Supt.—He said the bus was its own length away.

Witness, continuing, said the back of the bus was about 3 feet from the grass margin on its correct side. He called the passengers and went to the girls assistance. Fitzgerald gave him a flash lamp.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Driscoll—He didn't think the bus left its correct side of the road during the time.

Rita Delacour, one of the injured girls, stated she went to Killeagh that day. She had no intention of going to the dance. When it was over Nora Smiddy and she agreed to accompany the others. She thought they had 3 lights at first, but found after they had only two.

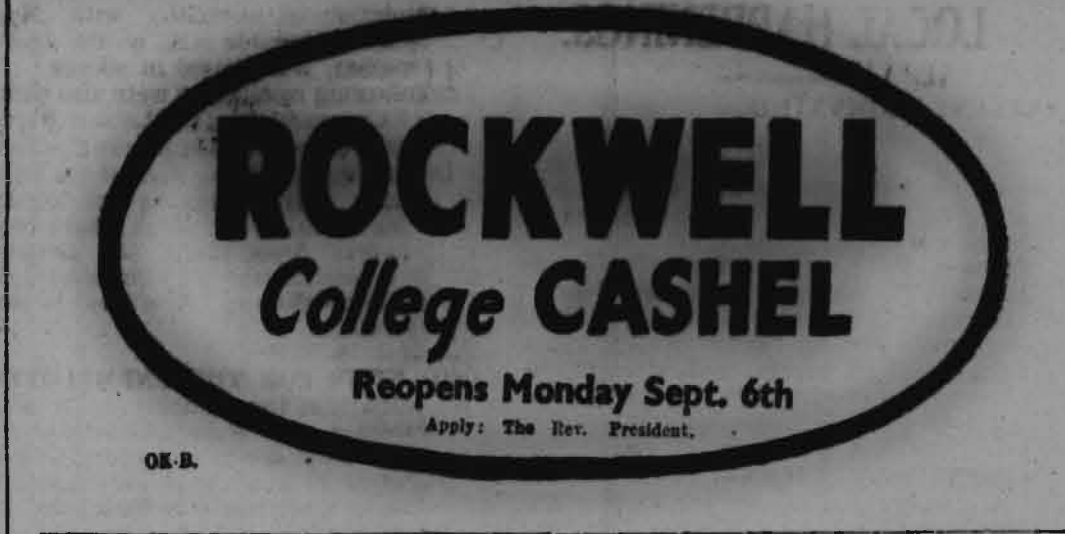

To the Court—Starting from Killeagh the other girls and Fitzgerald were in front. She remembered going in single file but nothing more.

Mr. O'Driscoll—You are bringing a civil action in this case—Yes.

Norah Smiddy, the other injured girl, stated she didn't remember anything after leaving Killeagh. She was still in hospital.

Sergt. Eddie, Killeagh, stated that on visiting the scene on the morning of 3rd May he saw two lady cyclists thrown on the grass margin. In the vicinity were a number of pools of blood. The grass margin was littered with broken glass. There were also signs of blood across the roadway diagonally. There was nothing on the roadway to indicate that the brakes had been applied or that an impact had occurred. The road was 23 1/2 feet wide, and the road from fence to fence 42 feet. The road was smooth and dry. Both bicycles were badly smashed. There was a clear view approaching the scene of three-quarters of a mile.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Driscoll—He visited the scene at 8.15 a.m. The accident took place between 2.30 and 3 a.m. To his knowledge no considerable traffic passed over the road meantime. He saw 4 pools of blood.

To the Court—Some of the broken glass was near the bicycles. The grass margin was littered with it.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Driscoll—He pointed out the scene to Mr. Pollard of the I.O.C. There was a quantity of broken glass in the vicinity. The pools of blood were also visible. He saw people kicking the glass in. Some cars passed.

Witness handed up a map of the scene which the Justice said was a very good one.

To the Court—He fixed the point of impact from the pools of blood on the grass, the bicycles were there when he went there.

Guard Hanrahan, Killeagh stated he visited the scene about 3.30 a.m. Josephine Flynn was hardly able to speak. Twenty yards off he found two bicycles thrown against the fence. He saw pools of blood as described. Near the bicycles he found a girl's shoe, cap and cloak. The place was covered with broken glass. It was dark and he had only a flash lamp.

Cross-examined—That particular bus went on the Killeagh, down to Youghal and over that area again.

Guard Nevin, Killeagh, stated that Harvey and Walsh, made statements that morning, the latter said he was doing 25 miles, driving on his own side, when he saw four cyclists 50 yards off coming towards Youghal. The first cyclist passed him on his right. The next two swerved. One struck the left front mud-guard and was thrown off. The next also fell off her bicycle. He pulled up and saw them lying on the grass margin—one on the left and the other on the right. He brought them in the bus to Dr. O'Brien, Killeagh, who told him to bring them to Youghal Hospital, which he did. They had no lights. There was broken glass around. The lamp on the driver's side was smashed and the mud-guard badly dented.

To the Court—There was no mark on the left mud-guard.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Driscoll—The glass was broken on the right hand side of the driver's cab.

Apart from that statement did the driver say anything else to you?—He said he got excited at the time.

Supt. Kelly said that completed the case.

Mr. O'Driscoll submitted that on the evidence before them, there was no proof of either criminal or civil negligence and he was entitled to a dismissal. It was clear that the recollection of Misses Flynn and Tobin was not accurate for one reason or other. The only evidence he would produce was that of the defendant and of another man named Reid. It would correspond with that of O'Callaghan and Harvey. Defendant was a driver of experience who never had an accident. He left plenty of room for the cyclists to pass and there was no reason why he should swerve as suggested. The girls had no lights and were dazzled by the lights of the bus and swerved into him. There was no suggestion by anybody that he had drunk; in fact he had no drink.

Thomas Walsh, the defendant, stated he had all lights on and was driving about 25 m.p.h. He was on his own side when he saw the cyclists some distance away. He saw one light with the defendant had it. The girl with the light was in front, two girls were behind him and behind them again were two other girls—one in front of the other. As he approached one of the girls behind swerved into him and immediately after the other. He pulled up the bus in her own length. Two of the girls were injured. He did not see any blood. It was dark. He got the girls into the bus, brought them to Dr. O'Brien, Killeagh, and then to Youghal Hospital, after which he went back to Killeagh and made a statement. The bus was in good mechanical condition in addition to the lights.

Cross-examined by Supt. Kelly—He started at 9 o'clock that morning and worked 2 1/2 hours. He did not go to bed. After arriving at Waterford he went to his home there. He should have been back at Cork at 12, but didn't like to leave the passengers behind. He had no drink that day. He did not swerve. He never fell asleep. He heard the evidence that the two girls last were not injured. If he was at the wrong side of the road he would have caught them on front of the bus.

To the Court—There was one small pane of glass, 16 inches square broken.

The Supt.—Would not the position of the broken glass indicate that you were on the wrong side? When the girls swerved the glass went over the road.

The Supt.—Why didn't you stop the bus.

Mr. O'Driscoll—What!

The Supt.—Yes, if necessary. Witness, continuing, said that the cyclists were on the crown of the road. The chap in front was on his own side. The two girls behind were not exactly in single file—one was at the crown of the road.

To the Court—About the last two? One was in front of the other, near the middle of the road, coming against me on their own side, but out a bit from the grass margin and as she came towards me she swerved and caught the front mud-guard, and then the other swerved.

You said one was struck by the right-hand side and the other by the left?—If I said that it was a mistake.

The Justice said that as it developed,

he had never seen a case change so much.

Witness said he made a mistake in his statement—he was after a bad accident. He was a bit excited. He kept well into his own side and slowed up a bit. Just abreast one of the girls swerved into him and then the other.

Cecil Reid, Cork, said he was a passenger in the bus on that morning. The bus never left its own side to his knowledge. He saw four cyclists approaching. Two of them were more in the centre of the road. He saw one light with them. They passed a girl and the fellow and the next thing another girl crashed into the bus. He didn't see the other cyclist crashing. The driver pulled up in a little over the length of the bus.

Cross-examined by the Superintendent—He had two pints in Waterford. He fell asleep leaving Waterford, but was not asleep when they approached the scene of the accident. The cyclists were about fifty yards off when he saw them first. He kept his eyes on them the whole time.

The Justice having reviewed the evidence and dealt with the legal aspect of the case at length dismissed the charge.

BALLYDUFF NOTES

Rev. Michael Power, P.P., (1894-1896) On the death of Fr. Slattery in 1895, Rev. Michael Power, was promoted to the Pastorship of Ballyduff, and although he remained with us only two years he practically completed the renovation of the Church begun by his predecessor. Fr. Power was born in the Parish of Mothel-Rathgormac and was of a priestly family many members of which for generations became priests and nuns at home and in foreign lands, especially in U.S.A. and in Australia. His mother was noted for her wonderful knowledge of the Irish language, and Fr. Power inherited from her his great fluency in the use of the language. Those acquainted with him never can forget his apt and witty quotations in Irish which he had "at his finger tips."

Seating and Furnishing Church.—Fr. Power was only a few months P.P., when he saw the great want in our beautiful Church, was the seating and interior-furnishing, which up to his time was very poor. More than half the floor space had no seating at all, and a barrier divided the nave across. No time was lost in removing that barrier and in providing the forty pitch-pine pews which are now in use in our Church. The Communion Rails, two pew Confessionals, from the model of those in the Cathedral in Waterford, and a beautiful Sanctuary Lamp were also added by Fr. Power. He showed very good taste in his choice of a model for the pews, which are in every way most suitable as well as ornamental in our Church.

Some of the older people who remember Fr. Power say he was an energetic zealous pastor, good-hearted, but with a strong Irish temper at times when things did not go as he wished. But they were sorry when after a short Pastorship of two years Fr. Power was translated to the Parish of Ballyneale, Co. Tipperary, where he did good work and died at a ripe old age some fifteen years ago. A niece of his is a Presentation Sister in the Lismore Convent, and our present P.P. can claim distant relationship with his esteemed family.

According to a Canadian paper to hand the hens in the Kipling district of Northern Ontario refuse to lay eggs on a Sunday. Astonished by such a prejudice we rang up Government Buildings and were informed that the poultry of An Soarstat lay seven days a week. This is State service in excelsis, or as the comedian says: "in 'egg-shell-sis'."

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

Present—Messrs. P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., Chairman, R. Power, J. Forrest, J. Daly, B.E., R. Savage, J. Whelan, M. Ahern, E. P. Lynch.

Rubbish in Dock

At the Harbour Board Mr. Power complained strongly of the dumping of objectionable refuse at Dolphin's Dock and he proposed that the persons responsible be written to by the Secretary.

Kinsale Resolution

A resolution was received from the Kinsale Harbour Commissioners desiring to direct the attention of the Department of Fisheries and all others concerned to the serious and steady decline of our Fisheries particularly the salmon fishing for some years past and call on them to take steps to investigate the cause of the decline and then to take the action necessary to prevent the destruction of our Fisheries.

Mr. Whelan proposed the adoption of the resolution. It was a matter of vital importance that the fisheries should be preserved. It was well known to everybody that foreign trawlers were doing great damage around the Irish coast and were to some extent responsible for the failure of the season.

Mr. Power seconded. Undoubtedly the Government ought to do something practical to put a stop to the depredations of foreign trawlers. They were all aware of the very bad season they had locally.

Fishery Rent

The following letter was read:— Estate Office, Lismore Castle, 19/7/37.

Dear Sir,—Re Licensed Fishermen.—With reference to your letter of 27th May the Company's Directors have considered the subject matter of your letter. They have not investigated the statement that his year has been one of the worst fishing seasons on record, but as you state you have ascertained this on reliable information the Company has considered the matter on the truth of this statement.

There is still a balance of £5 due in respect of each license granted to the Licensee below Youghal Bridge and purely as an ex-gratia allowance the Company is prepared to allow a sum of £2 of this balance, leaving £3 payable, provided this £3 be paid not later than the 1st September and provided also that the fishermen working the boats get the benefit of this allowance.

I understand that the Licensee has a working arrangement with the fishermen, and if the Licensee pays the abated License Duty of £3 he will in the ordinary way get the benefit of it. The Company is not prepared to grant this allowance to the Licensee, but will grant it provided the benefit of the allowance is passed on to the fishermen.

I feel sure that the Council can satisfy me that if the fact is made public amongst the fishermen that they are to get the benefit of the allowance, that they will readily claim it from the Licensee—Yours faithfully—H. R. EILEY.

Mr. Power suggested the adjournment of consideration of the letter to next meeting, and after some discussion this was agreed to.

Seaweed Nuisance

Mr. Lynch called attention to the nuisance caused by seaweed on the Green Park Strand.

It was decided to instruct the Town Supt. to have it cleared away. In his weekly report the Water Curator stated that the supply to the Mental Hospital was 63,000 gallons.

Mental Hospital Water Supply

A report was read from the Town Surveyor, stating that he was in communication with Mr. Hill, Cork, on some points in connection with the new water main to the Mental Hospital. When they were agreed on he would submit an estimate for the laying.

Some discussion took place on complaints of shortage to the Hospital. It was pointed out that their connections were laid down over 30 years ago and must therefore be in a very corroded condition.

Swimming Raft

One tender, from Mr. P. Kennelly, was received for the construction of a swimming Raft for the Strand for £27 9s. 0d., the estimate for which was £24.

On the proposition of Mr. Ahern, seconded by Mr. Whelan it was unanimously accepted and a committee was appointed to visit the Strand and report on the most suitable place to put it.

Rents Reduced

A short discussion took place on the application from the tenants of the Council's houses at Parkpila for a reduction in their weekly rents of 9/4, including rates.

On the proposition of Mr. Savage, seconded by Mr. Whelan, it was unanimously decided to reduce it to 9/3, the Clerk stating that the loan raised for the erection of the houses was nearly cleared off.

TALLOW DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J.)

AD INTERIM TRANSFER

Mr. J. N. R. Macnamara, solr., (for Mr. W. R. Hodnett, solr.), applied on behalf of Mary Flynn, Tallow, for an ad interim transfer.

Mr. Macnamara said the original license was mislaid and they would have to apply for a certificate.

Fishery Case

The Duke of Devonshire and the Lismore Estates Co., Ltd., charged Wm. Sullivan, Knockanore, with trespass on their several fishery.

Mr. E. Carroll, solr., Fermoyle, for plaintiffs and Mr. J. N. R. Macnamara, solr., Youghal, for defendant.

Mr. Carroll, said the complainant's representatives were proceeding up the river Blackwater on the night of 20th February, when they sighted a boat 600 yards ahead. It was rushed into the bank and a man jumped out of the boat.

The bailiffs chased the man across the sloblands and caught him. It was the defendant. In his rush away he dropped an oilskin coat (produced). They questioned him about the net that was used in the boat and he replied "go look for it."

They seized him, but he struggled violently and they had to release him. The man having been kept under observation all the time, he submitted the case was watertight.

Mr. Humphrey Eley, Secretary of the Company, stated that they were the rated occupiers of that part of the several fishery in the Blackwater. On the night in question bailiffs Dooley, Hartney and he were in a motor boat when they sighted the boat 600 yards off. They chased it, landed near it and chased the man who jumped out. He didn't know the man at the time, but he now identified him as the defendant. The boat had signs of having been used for fishing.

Cross-examined by Mr. Macnamara, witness said the night was fairly dark. He flashed a lamp on the man and had a perfectly good view of him. He never saw the man before, but he was positive that the defendant was the man.

Patrick Dooley, corroborated. They kept the man under observation the whole time. He had known Sullivan a number of years. The gunwale of the boat was wet and there was seaweed inside. He had no doubt about the man.

Cross-examined by Mr. Macnamara—Sullivan had a brother but there was no difference between them as between chalk and cheese. He was not mistaken about the man. It was a bright night.

Patrick Hartney, bailiff, gave some what similar evidence.

Mr. Carroll said the object of the Company was to preserve the river for the honest fisherman who took out licenses.

Mr. Macnamara said the defence was an alibi. His client was somewhere else at the time of the occurrence.

The defendant said he was at Carriganvaun, a mile away, on the river bank at the time the man was captured. There were two men with him. He was taking a short cut home. He did no fishing of any description since May last year. He had a brother who was somewhat like him.

Witness was cross-examined at length by Mr. Carroll.

John Connolly and Mce. O'Keefe, stated they were speaking to Sullivan at the time in question, and they were cross-examined by Mr. Carroll.

Mr. Macnamara was about addressing the Court when.

The Justice said he had arrived at a conclusion. He didn't believe Sullivan was there that night. He believed it was a case of misidentification. The evidence of the complainants was quite honest, but he did not believe the defendant could either manage a boat or run away from his pursuers as described.

The case was then dismissed.

Ejectments

The Waterford Board of Health, had two cottier tenants summoned for possession.

Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, for plaintiffs.

Evidence was given that in one case the arrears of rent and rates was £5 4s. 9d., and in another £9 13s. 10d.

Decrees were granted with a recommendation that some time be given in the latter case, in which defendant's wife appeared.

Larceny of Fowl

Supt. Quinlan, charged Jas Ahern, Newport East and Kate Nicholson, the former with the larceny of a number of fowl and the latter with larceny by receiving.

Inspector O'Shaughnessy, prosecuted, and Mr. Macnamara, solr., appeared for Ahern.

The Justice—Is it a joint charge? Mr. Macnamara—We have a separate summons.

The Inspector said the owner of the fowl, Mrs. E. Fitzgerald, was not present, and gave no explanation of her absence.

The Justice—She is evidently not concerned with having the matter followed up. What do you ask me to do? The Inspector asks for an adjournment and a warrant for her attendance.

Mr. Macnamara said he would object to an adjournment. The Inspector said the woman's husband was there and he would put him up anyhow. Edmond Fitzgerald, stated they missed some fowl last March. Cross-examined by Mr. Macnamara—Witness said he knew Ahern very well. He didn't think he stole the fowl. R. Griffin, Youghal, stated he bought 6 old hens from the girl Nicholson.

John Troy, Youghal, stated he brought a bag of fowls for Ahern to Collins. Ahern gave him a packet of cigarettes. Sergt. O'Berne, Youghal, gave evidence in a statement by the girl to the effect that on the 23rd May last she went with Ahern to Fitzgerald's place, west into the yard and after 10 minutes came out with a bag. She didn't know what was in it. A few days after she went to Youghal and sold 6 old hens to Griffin.

The Justice—According to Fitzgerald there were only 8 missing. Now there are 12. That must have been a magic bag (laughter).

Ahern stated that the fowls he sold were his own property. It was the first time he sold fowl in Youghal. The girl's statement was false. He did not meet her that night. His mother was there to prove that the fowls were hers.

The Justice said there was no connection proved between the fowl Ahern sold and those stolen from Fitzgerald.

The case against him was, therefore, dismissed.

In the case against the girl, The Justice said the only evidence was what she told the Guards.

Defendant said she was frightened when she made that statement.

The Justice said he had long experience of Sergt. O'Berne and he would be the very last to frighten any person.

John Nicholson, the girl's father, stated that they had about 20 fowl and they sold them all.

The Justice said it was perfectly clear that the girl had been made a tool of by the other defendant whom he had to leave out. He was perfectly satisfied the Guards used neither threats nor pressure.

She was naturally frightened because there was something wrong. She had been previously convicted of stealing a coat.

The Inspector said he didn't wish to press the case.

She was let out under the P.O.A., at the costs of the prosecution 13/- to be paid by her father.

Forfeiture of Net

Sergt. Corby, applied for the forfeiture of a salmon net seized during the weekly close season on 20th February last.

Replying to Mr. Carroll, solr., the Sergt. said they observed a boat with three men aboard coming up the river on the night in question. They came ashore. The Guards called on them to halt, but they ran and got away. They left the net behind them.

An order was made for its forfeiture and sale.

Alleged Forcible Possession

Maurice O'Brien, Curraheen, Conna, was charged with taking forcible possession of a house and farm, the property of Miss Aileen Ahern.

Inspector Dunning, prosecuted. Mr. T. Hutch, solr., Middleton, defended, and Mr. E. Carroll, solr., held a watching brief for Miss Ahern.

The Inspector said that some years ago Wm. O'Brien, brother of defendant married Mary Dineen, sister of the injured party, she being in a few years after the marriage O'Brien died, having made a will bequeathing the farm to the brother of the defendant in the case, with a proviso that £60 should be paid to his widow. She had since died. She did not get the £60 and before her death she made a will bequeathing her interest in her sister Aileen Ahern.

The lands in the Circuit Court and an Ejectment decree issued and executed. The lands and premises were handed over to the representatives of Aileen Ahern. Subsequently the defendant took forcible possession and held it since.

James V. O'Connell, Longley Cottage, Ballyhooley, court messenger, deposed receiving decree produced from the Under Sheriff, Co. Cork. He was one of the persons authorized to execute that decree.

On 28th August he proceeded with J. Healy, another Court messenger, Curraheen, Conna, to execute the produced decree. On arriving at the house he told Maurice O'Brien what brought them—that they came to take possession of the house and lands under the produced warrant. They then removed his furniture and effects from the dwelling house on to the road. They also removed the pigs, dogs and live animals from the yard of the house, putting them on the public road. O'Brien had no other stock on the lands. He delivered over possession of the house and lands to Mce. Ahern, a representative of Aileen Ahern. The dwelling house was then empty and locked and there was an arrangement made between defendant and Mce. Ahern, that defendant would remove them within one month.

John Healy, 8 Sutton's Buildings, Cork, court messenger, gave corroborative evidence to the previous witness.

Aileen Ahern, Castlequarter, Dungourney, deposed she was the plaintiff in Equity proceedings at Fermoyle Circuit Court, against Mce. O'Brien. Those were proceedings to raise £600 with interest in possession of the defendant Mce. O'Brien. The Circuit Court Judge confirmed by Order date 8/2/35, produced, the sale to her of those lands for £600. On 10th August 1936 she was registered as full owner of those lands. Two land certificates produced showing that. On 28th August, she authorised Mce. Ahern, Castlequarter, Dungourney, to take over possession of those lands on her behalf from the Sheriff's Office. She never gave permission to Mce. O'Brien, to re-occupy those lands. She refused him.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hutch—She did not go into possession of that house herself. She never went to the place herself. On 30th October, she heard that Mce. O'Brien had occupied the place. Her son William told her about it. Prior to the 30th October, her son William went several times to the place to see if Mce. O'Brien had occupied it. Between the time Mce. O'Brien was evicted and the 30th October her son Wm. went there very often. She could not say who broke the locks in order to enter the place. There were locks broken and the door was forced in. Her son Wm. and her brother-in-law, Mce. Ahern, told her that the locks were broken. Apart from that she didn't know that anybody else was in possession except that at threshing time some others were there. Mce. O'Brien entered without any knowledge on her part, but he threatened her brother-in-law Mce. Ahern, in November 1936. She did not know anything about the agreement that defendant should take away the crops until Mce. Ahern told her. She did not ever personally request Mce. O'Brien to leave the place.

Mce. Ahern, Castlequarter, Dungourney, deposed he was brother-in-law of Aileen Ahern. On 28th August, acting on her instructions he proceeded to Curraheen, Conna, to the Sheriff's Office where there were. He saw them remove the furniture and chattels of Mce. O'Brien. After the removal of the effects the Sheriff's Officers handed him over vacant possession on behalf of Aileen Ahern. He nailed the windows and locked up the door and locked the gate of the yard with a padlock and chain. He remained in the house that night, accompanied by Wm. Ahern. On 12th November, he and Wm. Ahern, cycled to Curraheen, arriving there about 10.30 a.m. He saw Mce. O'Brien and his wife unharassing a pony in the shed in the yard. His daughter was skimming milk in a pan in the dairy. The door of the house was open, and marked as if forced and he found some furniture inside. There was a fire in the kitchen. He put the articles he found outside the door and quenched the fire. Before leaving he nailed the door from the inside and came out by a window which he also nailed up outside. He drove a staple in the door and another in the jamb and attached them with a chain and padlock, which he locked. Mce. O'Brien then came over to him in a threatening attitude with a large stone in his hand and said "Ahern I'll kill you." He was 3 yards distant at the time. Witness told him after to take the pigs out of the house and he said "I'll keep possession in spite of Aileen Ahern," and that she and him could do their best. Later on that day he threatened to shoot witness. O'Brien's wife and daughter intervened and finally took him away. After 10 or 15 minutes. On 27th January 1937, he visited the lands of Curraheen. The door was open; the chain, staples and lock had been removed. Before leaving he nailed the door from the inside and came out by a window which he also nailed up outside. He drove a staple in the door and another in the jamb and attached them with a chain and padlock, which he locked. Mce.
