Great interest is being entred in this year's junior football championship of the country between Kiltosanty and Passage, in Portlaw on tomorrow (Sunday). The splendid victories to the credit of the contenders on their respective runs into the ultimate is keeping the Deise Gaesi keyed up with great expectations. East credit football Club will be held aprelly brisk business throughout confidence in the Passage representation. Kiltosanty has an improving team and the two essentials to achieve success in the football field—fielderal and stamia.
The coming clash bids fair to prove a real red-letter one in the sporting annals of the Leather City.

easily cleared. Waterford after this made valiant efforts to get through, but had to come back to half way where their position was again advanced by a free. They spoiled their chances by infringing at close quarters. Gough was doing exceptionally well. He sent right into the goal-mouth where the forwards were beaten off by the Cork defenders, but the former got another spirited movement going and Barron found the net for Waterford. The ball was driven back from the kick-out and crossed the sticks to result in a "fifty." Russell delivered this well to Barron who failed to make good use of the opening afforded him. coptionally well. The Corkmen then took matters in hands and exerted tremendous pressure, but the home defence withstood the onslaught may intend the model of the one net after a Cork attack had been temporarily beaten off. The Suirsiders maintained the pressure and the full worth of taxation as between town traders and tained the pressure and the full worth of the Cork defence was brought out in the ensuing passages. Russell came up the pitch to help and had the gratification of sending over the bar. This advantage was put at nought by Harney, who had a similar root for the Leesiders with little or roopoos ton. Ryan figured by considerably improving the homesters' position. Carrying the ball quite a distance solo, he finished a spectacular run with a lovely drive which beat the Cork goalie and again gave Waterford a point lead. The Co-kmen went all out to retrieve The Co-kmen went all out to retrieve their lead. A series of praiseworthy saves helped Waterford to keep their narrow lead, but in one of the closing movements Cork, per Byrne, found the net as the finish of a weil-managed run. Thus the visitore, by 13 points to 11, took the League points.
