DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

Mr. Thos. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman, presided at the weekly meeting of the Council on Friday last. Also present Messrs. J. Mansfield, J. Dahill, M. Clancy, J. J. Croft, P. Dwyer, J. F. Foley, S. Hayes and J. Christopher.

Paymaster: A pay-sheet for £13 8s. 2d., week's wages was presented and passed.

Flooding: Mr. J. Croft, wrote complaining of flooding outside his house, 40 Loughmore, and said if the Council gave him two bags of cement he would do the rest himself. Referred to B.S. for inspection.

Scarcity of Water: A complaint from Wm. Kennelly, Sarsfield Street, Abbeyside, re scarcity of water, which he said a plumber he had in told him it was due to corrosion at the main, was referred to the Water Inspector.

Town Hall Lights: Mr. James Veale, Hall Porter, reported that some of the lights suspended from the roof of the Hall had fallen down, and he suggested that for safety the lights be overhauled by the E.S.B. staff.

Chairman—If anything is being done to the lights he would suggest that the lights for the big hall be separated from the stage lights, as the way they are at present it is very hard particularly for a strange company to know the hall lights from the stage ones.

The Clerk said that considering that the Council were about to renovate the Hall, a temporary inspection might suffice. It was decided to have the lights inspected.

Dairies and Cowsheds Order: Dr. O'Farrell, Co. M.O.H. wrote recommending that the following applicants for registration under the Milk and Dairies Act be registered: Thomas Kelly, Emmet Street; M. Ronayne, Coolmore; Mrs. Mary Curran, Mitchell Street; Mr. Martin Kelly, Kilgobbin; Mrs. Mary Burke, O'Connell Street; Mrs. C. Kirby, Mitchell Street and Mr. Patk. Curran, Glenmore.

Work on Footpaths: Mr. Bowen County Surveyor, wrote acknowledging letter from the Council re work on footpaths and stating that he regretted that the funds provided for the current financial year would not enable him to have this work done at present.

Mr. Clancy—There is no doubt that Mr. Bowen is doing a lot of useful work. The job in the Eskmeade is really a very great improvement, and he will do others from time to time.

Mr. Christopher—It would be no harm if he could do something to the Quay. Chairman—Yes, it is in a deplorable state.

Mr. Clancy suggested a joint move be made by the Commissioner and the Council with a view to getting a grant. The matter was adjourned for a week for further consideration.

The Schemes: The question of the number of unskilled men employed on the Housing Scheme was raised by Mr. O'Dwyer, (on the report of the Clerk of Works, who held that 28 unskilled workers was far too small in such a big scheme. In reply Mr. O'Dwyer stated there were over 40 employed.

A member stated that the small number employed is due to the very hard weather prevailing. Mr. Hayes raised the question of the supervision of the Water Improvement Scheme, and after a discussion the matter was referred to the Consulting Engineers.

Waterworks Scheme: Messrs. Delap and Waller, with reference to the report of Dr. Casey, M.O.H., on the above, wrote agreeing with the report of Dr. Casey as regards the advisability of getting the filters completed before a dry period sets in. To this end, they stated, the necessary special materials for the construction part of the works have already been on the ground for some time, and all details with regard to the mechanical parts of the filtration plant have been agreed with the makers, this plant is expected to be delivered at any moment.

Now that agreement has been reached with regard to the continuation of the contract, there is no reason why Mr. Fitzpatrick should not have the building of the tanks and control house completed by the end of February, apart from frost which would interfere with concreting, and to have the complete installation working before the end of March, provided there is no unforeseen delay in the delivery of the plant. Please inform us as soon as the contractor has signed the agreement for the continuance of the contract.

Mr. Dahill—Were it not for Dr. Casey's report, we would not get even that.

Fencing at Waterworks: Mr. Williams, Council's solicitor, wrote stating: Mr. Thomas Dalton has been with me several times in the last few weeks complaining of the delay in the erection of the fence along his right-of-way. He thought it only fair to Mr. Dalton that this fence should be put up as soon as possible. Mr. Fitzpatrick informs me he has all the material ready and is ready to start the work as soon as directed by the Council.

Mr. Croft—Did we get an estimate for this work some time ago. Mr. Christopher—Yes. Something like £80.

The Clerk stated that he had, on the instructions of the Council written to Messrs. Delap and Waller for an estimate of all the extra work and the fencing to be included in that. Consideration was deferred pending the receipt of the estimate.

Clearance Area Sites: Mr. Williams, solr., wrote regarding the legal position of all sites in the Clearance Area, and stated that legal possession of all the sites, with the exception of one has been obtained by the Council. The one exception is that of Mr. Patrick Ryan. The delay in this case is that Mr. Ryan has only a leasehold title to the lands being acquired, and we have informed his solicitor that we are not prepared to accept any title except a fee-simple one. His solicitors are getting into touch with Mr. Ryan, landlord, with the object of acquiring the fee-simple interest, and we expect to hear from them in a week or so. If the landlord is agreeable to join in the conveyance to the Council, the matter can be completed without further delay.

Clerk—It is only a very small ground rent, and will be easily got over if the landlord is disposed to sell. Chairman—We must only defer it for a week.

Sewerage Scheme: Messrs. Delap and Waller, wrote stating the work in the above scheme is proceeding normally. The sewers in Fair Lane, O'Connell Street and Brewery Lane are practically completed, and ready for final testing. The laying of the 12" Shandon sewer is approaching completion as also the lower half of Rice's street sewer. The work on the sewage collection tank and outfall works can now be got on with. The contractor has held back these pending the arrival of certain pipes, valves, etc., which have to be incorporated in them.

Thanks: Letters thanking the Council for resolutions of sympathy passed to them were read from Very Rev. T. Cooney, Provincial O.S.A.; M. Kennelly, Convent Road and Patk. Keane, Shandon.

Sympathy: Votes of sympathy were proposed and passed in silence to Mr. J. Hill, Church Street on the death of his father, to Jas. Flynn, on the death of his son and to Mr. Lucas, on the death of his daughter.

Case Under New Traffic Regulations: At Carrick-on-Suir District Court, on Monday before Mr. McCabe, D.J., Sergt. Duffley, summoned John Walsh, Inspector, Co. Kilkenny, for having pulled up his car at a point within 30 feet of the junction at Carrick-on-Suir.

The Sergt. said the case was the first in that Court under the New Traffic Regulations. A minor accident occurred owing to the action of the defendant.

Mr. Jurke, solr., Waterford, defended, said his client pulled up at the garage to get petrol. Men like the defendant could not be expected to be acquainted so soon with the new Traffic Regulations that contains 200 or 300 sections.

Justice—That may be, but on examination they contain a good deal of common sense. I agree with Mr. Quinlan, that as it is the first case under these new regulations, it is a case to treat leniently and I dismiss with a caution.

THE LATE FR. BENIGNUS GANNON, O.F.M. Very Rev. Canon Prendergast, P.P., V.F., Carrick-on-Suir, presided on Saturday at Office and High Mass, at the Franciscan Church, Carrickbeg, for the repose of the soul of the late Very Rev. Benignus Gannon, O.F.M.

Father Benignus, who died in Waterford, had been Guardian at Carrickbeg Monastery for six years. The celebrant of the High Mass was Rev. Fr. Alfred Clarke, O.F.M., Waterford, diocesan Very Rev. Fr. Dominick, Enright, O.F.M., Cork, sub-diocesan; Rev. Fr. Desmond Fitzgerald, O.F.M., Twenty Franciscan Fathers and a number of priests from Waterford diocese were in the choir.

SAW GREAT DAYS IN PORTLAW The late Mrs. Margaret Power, Brown Street, Portlawn, who was in her 86th year had very interesting recollections of the prosperous days of Portlawn 70 years ago, when nearly 200 persons were employed there at Malcomson's Cotton Mills. She rejoiced that she lived to see the old mill buildings used as the Portlawn cemetery. There was a large attendance at the funeral to Portlawn cemetery.

DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT.

Before Mr. S. J. Troy, D.J. on Wednesday 12th January.

Occasional Licence: Mr. Williams, solr., on behalf of Mrs. Greene, Square, was granted an occasional licence for Wednesday January 20th, the occasion of the annual dance of the Dungarvan Literary Club. Hours to p.m. to 5 a.m.

School Attendance: Guard Regan, School Attendance Officer, had a number of parents prosecuted under the School Attendance Act, 1926. Some cases were adjourned, others withdrawn, while fines ranging from 1/- to 2/6 were imposed in other cases.

Motor Tax: Guard Straine, prosecuted Joseph Power, The Mall, Waterford, using a car without having the tax displayed. Complainant stated the tax was taken out on the following day. Defendant said that he had only just purchased the car and went to the tax office for the tax, but as he had not got the book, he could not get the tax. The case was withdrawn.

One Headlight: A fine of 2/6 was imposed on John Wade, Mitchell Street, for driving a car without proper lights. Guard Begley was complainant. Defendant said that the headlights got loose and he had to take it off.

Lights on Vehicles: Fines ranging from 2/6 to 3/6 were imposed on a number of persons charged under the above Act. Guards Regan and O'Leary, Dungarvan, and Begley Ring were the complainants.

Obstructing Traffic: Guard O'Leary had summonses against Thomas Quill and — Landers, who were obstructing the traffic on the street. Complainant gave evidence that the rear of Quill's car which was stationary was out on the roadway causing obstruction of the traffic. In the case of Landers the animal which was unattended had backed out on to the street. A fine of 2/- in each case was imposed.

Road Traffic Act: Superintendent Walsh, charged Wm. Gough, Island, Stradbally, under the above Act. The charge was brought under the Section dealing with "Driving without taking reasonable precautions." Mr. Williams, solr., appeared for the defendant.

Patk. Keane, Ballyvaughan, Dungarvan, stated that on December 17th, he was driving a lorry up Main Street, from the Dickes Leather Factory to the Station. When passing Carbery's Lane, a pony and cart came from the left. Witness saw the pony's head struck the windscreen. He blew the horn before he came to the lane.

To Mr. Williams—This is a blind corner. He was travelling from 10 to 12 m.p.h. He did not consider it speedy to pass. There is much traffic up the quay, and a driver would require to be careful. Witness was on his proper side. Defendant was driving a pony and dray and trotted from the lane. The pony jumped on the running board of the lorry. The left hand shaft of the dray broke.

Patk. Hurley said he was standing at the top of the lane and saw the lorry coming up the street. The pony came from the lane and crashed into the lorry. To Mr. Williams, solr., witness said he was looking no way round, but saw a horn sounded, but could not say if it was from the lorry. The lorry was stopped on the spot. He could not say if the pony was trotting from the lane. The pony came down on its knees.

To the Court—The lorry was on the proper side of the road, and the pony had to go out on the road to meet the lorry. Patrick Fitzgerald, Mitchell Terrace, said he saw the lorry opposite Moloney's. The pony came trotting from the lane. He had no doubt but the pony was trotting and came fast and struck the lorry. He heard no reference about Gough being injured.

To Mr. Williams—He was facing Friary Street, when the pony flashed past him. John Downey said the lorry was on its proper side. Witness had his back to the lane and could not say how the pony came from it. Guard O'Leary said he arrived immediately after the accident. He found the lorry stationary and the driver said it was not moved. The front wheel was 4 feet from Keohan's corner. There was a distance of 9 feet between the front wheel of the lorry and the kerb. The width of the road at the point is 27' 4". When he arrived the pony and cart was gone. He saw where the lorry brakes were applied. The width of the footpath at Keohan's side is 6' 3" and at Walsh's side is 6 feet.

Justice—So that Gough had 6 feet of footpath and 9 feet 6 inches of roadway or 15 feet 6 inches in all, when he came from the laneway. To Mr. Williams—It is a dangerous corner. The lorry was pulled up in 6 feet. There were dinges in the right front mudguard. Gough came along while witness was there and adopted a rather hostile attitude putting the blame on the lorry driver. Wm. Gough, said that on that Saturday he came to town on business and was going up to Moloney's coal stores. He trotted his pony going up this lane. When he came from the lane he looked first to the right towards the Square and saw the road clear. The next thing he knew was he got a shot in the side and was thrown on top of the pony. The shaft of the dray was broken and the pony's knees hooked. The pony walked from the lane, and if witness had the pony by the head he would be ground into pulp.

To the Justice—He did not get time to look down the street. He put the pony into Moloney's yard and he carried on his way. She was very safe, but it is not now. If she met a lorry she would jump anywhere from it now. The Justice said he was satisfied from the evidence that the defendant came from this laneway in a manner dangerous to the public and did not use ordinary care. He imposed a fine of 40/- with 12/8 witnesses expenses.

Collision at Burgery: Supt. Walsh, charged Clement Watson, Youghal, and Martin Cullen, Waterford, under Section 21 of the Road Traffic Act for driving in a manner dangerous to the public. Mr. Hodnett, solr., Youghal, appeared for Mr. Watson. Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., appeared for Mr. Cullen.

Superintendent Walsh said the case was the result of a collision between two cars driven by the defendants at the Burgery on the night of November 27th. Thos. Sheridan, Youghal, said he was a passenger in Mr. Watson's car on the occasion. He was sitting beside the driver. Just before the collision witness saw three cyclists travelling to Dungarvan. He then saw the lights of an oncoming car going towards Waterford, and Mr. Watson slowed down behind the cyclists. Their car was stopped dead at the time of the impact. Mr. Watson had his lights dimmed.

To Mr. Williams—He saw the oncoming car about 50 yards away. When the accident occurred the car was on its side, but at the crown of the road. Their speed when they came behind the cyclists was about 10 to 15 m.p.h. and then they stopped. Mr. Cullen first said to leave the car where they were until the G.P.S. came, but came across later, and said that he settled this between themselves. Witness could not say what damage was done to Cullen's car, but their right mudguard was damaged. To Mr. Hodnett—Mr. Watson slowed down when he saw the cyclists. They were riding one in front and two abreast behind. At the time of the collision their car was still behind the cyclists and stopped dead. Their car was not moved until the Inspector came up the bus. Before that Mr. Cullen came across and said that he settled this ourselves. Mrs. O'Brien said she lived near the scene of the collision and was walking towards Dungarvan that night. She met some cyclists going in the Waterford direction. She saw no cyclists going towards Dungarvan. A car came in from the Dungarvan direction, it appeared to go in on the footpath first and came out again and struck the car coming from the Waterford direction, which was almost stopped. The car coming from Waterford did not pass at witness, but it was fairly close to her side. To Mr. Williams—Cullen's car seemed to go into the path and come out again and hit the other car. To Mr. Hodnett—If the car coming from Dungarvan had kept a straight course there would be no collision. Inspector Ryan, G.S., said he was a passenger in the bus and found the road obstructed by both cars. The front wheel of Mr. Watson's car was 8 feet from the kerb on its own side and the rear wheel 12 feet 6 inches. The width of the road is 23 feet 6 inches. Mr. Cullen's car was 8 to 9 feet beyond the other and close to the footpath on its own side. Both parties agreed that Mr. Watson's car had not been moved. To Mr. Williams—The accident appeared to have taken place where Mr. Watson's car was. Daniel Wyse, Waterford, said he was a passenger in Mr. Cullen's car. He saw the oncoming car on the crown of the road. Mr. Cullen pulled into his proper side and dimmed his lights, but got no response from the other driver. There was a collision and their car was damaged, it took them nearly 3 minutes to get out of the car. Witness stopped another car going to Dungarvan and asked them to stand out the kerbs. The driver of the oncoming car seems to be attempting to dim his lights. To Mr. Hodnett—Their car was practically stopped at the time of the impact. It did not go on to the kerb. Guard Deasy also gave evidence of

WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.

Commissioner Moylan, sat in the Secretary's Office, Co. Home, Dungarvan, on Wednesday to deal with matters under the Board of Public Assistance.

Secretary's Estimate of Expenditure: The Secretary submitted the following estimate of Expenditure to be provided for in respect of year ending 31st March, 1938. The total amount being £97,508 as against £95,748 last year, or an increase of £1,760.

The increase is principally due to increased prices for supplies to the various institutions under the control of the Board and to the fact that you will have a debit balance of £500 at the end of the current year as against a credit balance of £480 at the corresponding period last year. There is also an increase in expenditure under the heads of Maintenance in Extern Institutions and Medical Charities. Home Assistance shows a slight reduction on previous estimates. There is very little change in the other items of expenditure, while receipts have increased, especially in respect of Repayment of Assistance.

Commissioner Moylan said that in the absence of Commissioner Meagher he would adjourn consideration to a special meeting on 26th January.

Financial Statement: The monthly financial statement showed a balance to credit at end of December of £7,857 10s. 6d.

Doctors Censured: Dr. Purcell, Waterford, writing to the Secretary, in reply to the following letter:—

Measurements made by him which were the same as those taken by Inspector Ryan. He described the damage to both cars. He saw no sign of Mr. Cullen's car having gone on to the footpath. Martin Cullen said he was returning from a hurling match at Lismore, when he left at 7 p.m. and had one stop in Dungarvan. When at the Burgery he saw his car coming on, he slowed down and dipped his headlights, but the other car did not respond. He dipped again as he thought they may have missed the first dip. As a result of the accident witness was 24 days under Dr. Purcell's care with a fractured rib. Captain C. Watson, Youghal, said he was 12 years driving. He was coming from Dublin on this night, and when approaching Dungarvan, he saw 3 cyclists in front of him. Two were riding abreast in front and one behind, as there was a car coming against him he slowed down and pulled up dead. The oncoming car came along and bounded off his mudguard. He distinctly remember dimming his lights. He did not notice the other car dimming as it had weak headlights.

Mr. O. Crosbie, Youghal, another passenger in Mr. Watson's car was also examined. The Justice said he was satisfied Capt. Watson's car was stopped at the time of the accident. From the evidence he could understand Capt. Watson in keeping so far out on the road so as not to endanger the cyclists. He said he could not understand why Mr. Cullen was had plenty of room to pass, did not do so.

He dismissed the case against Capt. Watson and fined Mr. Cullen 20/- with £2 6s. 6d. costs.

Drunk: Superintendent Walsh, charged Patrick Needham, Abbeyside, with being drunk and disorderly at Xmas Eve. Mr. Williams, solr., appeared for the defendant.

Guard O'Leary said that on Xmas Eve he was on duty at the Square, and was called to Phelan's public-house and asked to remove the defendant. He found the defendant behind the bar and had just drawn the cork from a bottle of stout. Witness removed him from the premises, and as he refused to go home, took him to the barracks.

Replying to Mr. Williams—Witness said he was not aware that defendant had since paid for the damage done. Justice—Where did he get the drink? Witness—He had been in other public-houses before this. He got one drink at Phelan's.

Mr. Williams pleading for the defendant, said he understood that defendant had made arrangements to pay for the damage done, but he had not already paid for it. He asked the Justice to deal leniently with this young man, and to take into consideration the time of the year it was.

A fine of 10/- was imposed.

Ring Case: The adjourned case of Garret Quinn, Ballyreilly, against John Finigan and Margaret Whelan, Ring. Mr. Farrell, solr., for plaintiffs, said there was no trouble since.

The case was further adjourned for another month pending the payment of £2 2s. 6d., costs by the defendants.

Renewal of License: On the application of Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., Miss C. Crowley, was granted a renewal of the license in respect of Mac's Hotel, Abbeyside.

KILMATHOMAS NEWS

Hymeneal Chimes— At the Catholic Church of St. Mary's, Kilmathomas, England, on the 21st ult., Miss Harriet Flynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denis Flynn (farmer), Carrington, Kilmathomas, was joined in the sacred bonds of matrimony with Mr. William F. Campbell, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, 222, Harle Street, Broyley Hill, Durham. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass, was performed by the Very Rev. Pastor of St. Mary's. The bride who looked charming, was attended by Miss Campbell (sister of the bridegroom) and Miss E. Carballly as bridesmaids. Mr. William Flynn, Camberrwell, London (brother of the bride), acted as best man. A gown of white satin, cut en train, and a tall veil arranged cap effect, were worn by the bride, and she carried white roses in a shower bouquet. Her attendants wore white lace, which they wore with white lace caps, and pink roses and sweet peas made up a bouquet on the arms of each. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Carballly, Fulmer House, Broad Bridge, Kilmathomas. The honeymoon was spent at the bridegroom's parental roof-tree in Durham. Her host of friends and well-wishers locally unite in extending cordial congratulations to the most estimable bride and to her chosen life-partner, and pray that both will for long enjoy the graces and blessings of the matrimonial sphere.

Rev. Geoffrey Power, C.C.— Of the Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle, England, who has just concluded a visit to his native Portlaoige, received his ordination in Waterford Cathedral last June. He is a nephew of exceedingly well-known Fr. Michael Power, C.C., Kill.

Lead Your Stars— To the "Clar os na Deisibh" which is to be relayed from the Gaelic League Hall, Lady Lane, Waterford, on tomorrow (Sunday) evening, starting punctually at 5.30 p.m.

We Are Asked to Mention That— Men who served in the South African War, when they reach 65 and if they are devoid of income, might find something to their advantage if they got into touch with the Special Campaign Pensions Committee, Chelsea, London.

Big fields were out with the Waterfords at the meets at Ballyduff (18th inst), Ballygarra (18th) and Pigott's Cross (19th). The meet today (Friday) is at Campille, Co. Wexford (by invitation).

A very large party of ladies and gentlemen gained a good day's sport in the wake of the Waterford Bagles from the meet at Carroll's Cross at the noon hour last Sunday. Sport was satisfactory and some stout hares served up a series of exhilarating runs over the splendid stretch of hunting country covered by the company.

Stupendous Success— The members of the committee who were in charge of the arrangements for the latest "Cinderella" club under the aegis of the Pike Amusement Club, which took place in the now popularly established commodious and comfortable Pike Hall (Garvan's), on Sunday last, may feel justly proud of the success which attended their efforts. The dance, which was from 8 p.m. to 2 a.m., proved most enjoyable, and was so largely patronised that it is estimated that some 150 couples "took the floor." A feature of the unforgettably delightful function was the excellence of the music supplied by Kearney Brothers' Band, Portlaoige. This gifted group of instrumentalists did much to enhance the reputation which they already enjoy in the Leather City by a programme of music which was as diversified as it was thoroughly appreciated by those whose pleasure it was to trip the light fantastic to its sweetly stirring strains. The catering by a bevy of local ladies was another highly appreciated feature—and deservedly so, since it left nothing to be desired. The dances were conducted with capital choice and were through with a correctness that considerably heightened the pleasure which was generally derived

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

A Popular Priest— The Rev. James McCarthy, has been appointed C.C. of Ballyduff Upper, in succession to Rev. James Walsh, C.C., who has been transferred to Carrickbeg. Father McCarthy is the eldest son of Mr. John McCarthy, General Merchant, Cappoquin, and having laboured for several years on the English Mission in Liverpool, he was later C.C. in the combined parishes of Knockmore-Glendine, and afterwards C.C. in the combined parishes of Aglish and Ballinacorney. A young, active and zealous Priest, he was extremely popular and beloved by all classes of the parishioners in every parish in which he laboured, and the faithful Catholics of the important parish of Ballyduff are now lucky to have him appointed as their C.C., for between him and Very Rev. M. Dowley, the present reverend and saintly P.P., they can rest assured that both the spiritual and temporal welfare of the parish will be in safe keeping in future.

Action of Licensed Premises— On Wednesday week, Mr. M. P. Walsh, P.C., Auctioneer, Cappoquin, put up for sale the valuable licensed premises held by Mr. James O'Donovan at Lower Main street, Cappoquin, held in lease from Sir John Keane, Bart., for an unexpired term of 54 years, at the yearly rent of £100. P.L.V. £13. Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, (in trust for a client), opened the bidding at £400, which was followed by Mr. C. Murray, solr., Lismore at £450. Mr. D. Keoghane, Cork, next bid £500, and after this the bidding was as follows—Mr. Farrell, solr., £550. Mr. Murray, solr., £625. Mr. Keoghane, £600. Mr. Farrell, £625. Bidding continued between Mr. Farrell and Mr. Keoghane until Mr. Farrell bid £800 and Mr. Keoghane £810. Mr. Keoghane's bid being the highest, Mr. Walsh, Auctioneer, announced that as the reserve had not been reached, the sale by public auction would be withdrawn, but private offers for the purchase of the premises would be received by him up to the end of January, or by Mr. J. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, who has charge of sale.

LISMORE NOTES

End of Beet Season— The end of the Beet season is now approaching and judging from what growers have to say it was a very bad one indeed. Large consignments left Lismore station during the week. The weather remained fine during the lifting of the crop and although many availed of this opportunity others were too optimistic and waited until the change came, and were obliged to pay carriage on a lot of mud. Taking the average tonnage per acre it is estimated that this year's showed a big decrease on previous ones.

Lismore Country Club Dance— Patrons will welcome the return of another Dance on Sunday night January 31st. The dance needs no comment as the previous ones run under the same auspices speak for themselves and a repetition at anytime is eagerly looked forward to. The same dance band, the same committee, but with a revised New Year's programme and decorations applicable to the occasion are all the changes made.

A DIFFERENCE OF MINUTES— At Carrick-on-Suir District Court, on Monday, before Mr. McCabe, D.J., Robert Sheehan, Carrickbeg, was summoned for a breach of the Sunday closing Act. Mr. Quirk, solr., for defendant, said it was a question of a few minutes before the legal time. The Guards watch showed ten minutes and the defendant's clock nine minutes. Guard Hickey, gave evidence of having found a man named O'Meara, who was not a bona fide traveller on the premises. The man admitted that he was there to get a drink, but had not been supplied with drink. The Justice said it was a case in which he would feel justified in not endorsing the license. He fined defendant 10/-, the conviction not to be endorsed on the license.

THE LATE MR. PATRICK PHELAN, KNOCKANE, PORTLAW— There was a large attendance on Sunday week at the funeral to Portlaoige cemetery of the late Mr. Patrick Phelan. Deceased was a very popular and much respected resident of the parish. His death is much regretted by his many friends.

CARRICK MAN'S SUDDEN DEATH

Martin Loneragan, bootmaker, Town Wall, Carrick-on-Suir, collapsed and died on Sunday week at his home when preparing to go to 11.30 Mass at St. Nicholas's Church, Carrick-on-Suir. Deceased was much respected in town.

WHAT ABOUT YOUR GARDEN FOR 1938?

There is no more pleasant or health-giving recreation than that of gardening, whether it be an acre or merely a few rods or perches. The outlay need not necessarily be on anything like an expensive scale. Whatever the amount may be it is repaid a hundredfold by the interest it affords the horticulturist at any season of the year and the pardonable pride which he or she indulges in when men and women bring their handiwork to fruition. The house of Carter, with over 1,000 Gold Medals, Cups and Diplomas to their credit all over the world, bring a century's experience to your aid. The firm is represented all over the Free State and its Agents are always ready and willing to advise you and supply your needs. Carters Tested Seeds of the choicest vegetables and flowers (beautifully illustrated in natural colours) are now sold at 4d. per sealed packet and stocked at your local store. If you have any difficulty in obtaining Carters Packets write to Carters Dept., 48, Quay, Waterford, where they are now packed.

HOME HINTS

FOR ENAMEL. Enamel surfaces can be cleaned with the water in which onions have been boiled. Soap is not at all necessary.

DON'T WASH GRATERS. Put your nutmeg grater into a cool oven after use, instead of washing it. Then brush it lightly. This is a particularly good hint to remember after grating lemons.

CHAMOIS GLOVES. To wash chamois leather gloves at home, add a few drops of olive oil to the rinsing water, and they will dry beautifully soft. To keep the colour of the gloves, soak some orange rind overnight and wash the gloves in the water.

EXTERMINATING MOTHS. To rid a carpet of moths, mix three tablespoonfuls of turpentine with three quarts of water, and add one tablespoonful of ammonia. Go over the carpet carefully with a sponge dipped in the mixture.

WHEN CAKES ARE BURN'T. If a cake is burnt, scrape it carefully and brush it with the well-beaten white of an egg. Then dust with castor sugar and bake for five minutes. All signs of burning will then have disappeared.

TO PLUMP RAISINS. To plump raisins, place them in a shallow pan in a moderate oven for ten or fifteen minutes. Then add to the batter while warm. Another way to plump raisins is to cover them with hot water for five minutes and then strain. This latter method also removes the paper from the seeded raisins.

TO WATERPROOF COATS. Any coat can be made waterproof and withstand the heaviest showers if this method is followed—Place 1 lb. sugar of lead (poisonous) and 1 lb. powdered alum in a large bucket of soft water, stirring at intervals until it becomes clear. Pour into another bucket, and place the coat in liquid, allowing it to remain soaking for 24 hours. Without wringing, hang in the shade to dry. When quite dry, brush well, and the article is ready for use.

DUNGARVAN FAIR—

On Wednesday last was sparsely supplied in all departments, with the exception of pigs of which there was a good supply. Prices remained about the same level as those ruling at previous fairs. Weanings made from 15 ss. to 47 according to quality. 14-year-old 15 to 16; 2-year-olds 49 to 41; 10-cwt cows and heifers met a quiet trade; sheep, the very small supply of sheep on offer met with a ready trade. Pigs made from 25/- to 65/-, according to age and quality.

DUNGARVAN FOOT BEAGLES—

Dungarvan Foot Beagles met on Sunday at Two-Mile-Brige at one o'clock, and will hunt towards Knockmann.

SEANAD ELECTORAL (PANEL MEMBERS) ACT—

Nominations for seven members of the dissolved Waterford Co. Council to the electorate for the first Seanad election were received by Mr. J. H. O'Sullivan, Secretary, Waterford Co. Council, on Thursday, as follows (in alphabetical order) Messrs. John Butler, Nicholas Fitzgerald, Godfrey T. Greene, John O'Halloran, Maurice Keane, John Kiersey, Michael O'Ryan, Michael F. Walsh, William Walsh.

As the nominations exceeded seven, an election will be necessary, and this will be held at a meeting of the former members of the Council in the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Wednesday next, January 26th at 12.30 p.m.

CATTLE LICENCES—

We wish to draw attention to the advertisement in our columns concerning licences for the Export of Fat cattle, bulls and Dry Cows. It should be distinctly understood that all applications must reach the Secretary Co. Committee of Agriculture, on or before the first day of the month preceding the two monthly periods in question.

THE STORM—

The storm of last week-end which caused such havoc on land and loss of life on sea, did much damage in Dungarvan and surrounding districts. Numerous trees were uprooted and the roofs of many houses were stripped. The ss. Lady Belle, had a most exciting and difficult time off the harbour, and in making port without mishap, and in the teeth of such a storm, Capt. Donoghue and his crew displayed seamanship of a very high order. The Helvick Lifeboat was launched and went to the aid of the "Belle," but, fortunately its services were not required. The Capt. and crew were warmly congratulated when they docked safely in the early hours of Saturday morning none the worse for their trying experience.

EGG LAYING TESTS—

In the third report issued by the Department of Agriculture in connection with the current egg laying tests at the Munster Institute, Cork, which covers the period 1st October to 23rd December, Miss M. O'Donovan, Dromore, Villiers-town, again secured 2nd place with her pen of Rhode Island Reds, while Miss K. Earl, Grattan House, Waterford, secured 3rd place in the same section.

LONDON CONFERENCE ENDS—

The Conference in London between Ministers of the Government of Eire and British Ministers for the settlement of outstanding questions between the two Governments ended on Wednesday and Mr de Valera and his Ministers arrived back in Dublin on Thursday. The Conference is to be continued by Departmental experts of both sides to examine the questions raised on trade, finance, defence, etc. When the experts report back, negotiations will be resumed by the Ministers.

DEATH OF RICHARD FITZGERALD, CLADDAGH, CLASHMORE—

Dr. D. T. McCarthy, M.D., Coroner for West Waterford, sitting without a jury, held an inquest on Monday into the circumstances of the death of Richard Fitzgerald, Junr., farmer, Claddagh, Clashmore, Co. Waterford, whose dead body was found the previous evening at Kilmaloo, Clashmore.

Mr. James Fenton, Timiniscart, deposed to finding the dead body of deceased on the roadside.

Evidence was given by Mr. Wm. Coyne, Ballyhenry, Mr. M. Hoare, an employee, and Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald, brother of deceased.

Dr. Ronayne, Clashmore, stated that he had conducted a superficial examination of the body and in his opinion death was due to natural causes—syncope, due to a weak heart.

The Coroner found that the cause of death was syncope, due to cardiac failure, and expressed sympathy with the relatives of the deceased.

Supt. Walsh and Dr. Ronayne asked to be associated with the vote.

Vote of Sympathy—

At a largely attended meeting of the Cappoquin Point-to-Point Race Committee, held on Friday night, Miss Freda Keane, proposed a sincere vote of sympathy with the family of the late Mr. J. M. Lincoln, who had been the trusted and esteemed Treasurer of the Committee for many years, and she coupled with it a similar vote with Mrs. P. Walsh, wife of Mr. P. Walsh, one of the Hon. Secs. who had met with two recent sad bereavements. Both votes were passed in silence, all the members standing.

The Races—

At the same meeting all arrangements were completed for the Cappoquin Point-to-Point Races to be held over the splendid and picturesque Ballynoe Course, on Thursday, February, 17th, and judging by the earnestness and enthusiasm displayed by all, it is safe to say that this year's meeting will eclipse even the best of the many fixtures held in Cappoquin so far. Fuller details will appear in later issues.

Visitors to the National Club, St. Mary's Street, Dungarvan, will mark the conclusion of the Billiards Handicap. It was of an exhibition game by O'Brien, all Ireland Billiard Champion, and Mickey Connors in one of the best games we have seen in a preliminary to the exciting challenge game between Masters Gusty Power and Garry, in which the former was successful.

The exhibition by Mr. T. O'Brien was a most interesting game, and which the Champion enjoyed. Though his victory, which was not a run away, was not the start that the game is usually played to a crowded house of 500 or more.

Messrs. J. Keohan and J. Lynch, who were the champions of the year, were not present. The exhibition was a most interesting one, and which the Champion enjoyed. Though his victory, which was not a run away, was not the start that the game is usually played to a crowded house of 500 or more.

BALLYMACARBERY NOTES

"25 Drive"—The Monster "25 Drive" to be held at Ballymacarbery, on Sunday night, 20th, February, is expected to be a tremendous success. A big amount of tickets are being played all over. Big prizes, I suppose, will draw big crowds.

Horse and Pony Races—Rumour has it that there is going to be another big Horse and Pony Races at Ballymacarbery in the very near future in aid of the Ball Alley Fund. If it is as successful as the last one, the first game will be shortly played in the New Ball Alley here.

Death of Mr. L. Whelan—The death has occurred rather suddenly of Laurence Whelan, Castleroa, Ballymacarbery. The deceased who was an extensive farmer, was a great favourite locally. The remains were interred at Bennett's Church graveyard, where a very large cortege of people testified to the esteem in which he was held. May he rest in peace.

G. A. A.—The local G.A.A. enthusiasts are getting busy again. They will keep the flag flying. It is their intention to go a step further in this year's championships.

Invitation—The writer of these notes cordially invite all to Ballymacarbery on the 28th, February, 1938 absolutely given away. Come, that's all, and take it away.

MILK ANALYSTS DISAGREE

At Carrick-on-Suir District Court, on Monday, in a case in which Guard Burke, Portl, summoned Ed. Boyle, Coolfin, for offering for sale milk deficient in fats, the certificate handed in by Guard Burke showed that the milk contained 2.47 per cent. fats. Anything under three per cent. of fats is an offence. Mr. Binchy, solicitor for defendant, handed in a certificate from an independent analyst showing that the sample analysed contained 5.47 per cent of fats. Mr. Binchy said that showed an amazing difference—actually 2 per cent over required fats. Justice—I have already given my views here and elsewhere on the discrepancy of analysts' certificates in these cases. A suggestion was made to have the sample analysed by the State Analyst, but it was eventually agreed that the case would be marked withdrawn.

Mr. Daly—Our Irish soldier the same category. Mr. Lynch—The Old I.R. treated in the same way. The Chairman—By whom people put into power. After some discussion a resolution unanimously adopted calling on the Council to remedy the grievance pointed out.

Terrifics and Duties—Mr. Power called attention to that Miss French Blake had a big order for brush handles, and meet the demand she had to lift machine from England, but our heavy tariff imposed, she was out of luck. He could understand a tariff article was made in Ireland this case it was not. There were men employed, and the inclined to extend the business, unequitable tariffs blocked the proposed that they ask the industry and commerce to heavy duty involved, in the instances. This was seconded by Mr. S. passed unanimously.

No More Politics—In accordance with notice, namara, proposed:—"That the Council shall not consider any political nature." He said that that resolution was necessary to extent to which public life in Ireland become tainted with party. Among the unfortunate incidents by the British regime was the ten, which had divided the bitterly hostile camps, had unity impossible and had international progress. That Council elected to manage the affairs of while the Dail was there to an mischief—the affairs of the managing their own business the go it better. He would appeal Council to be unanimous in motion, and to show that it sometimes possible, among the Mr. Caplan seconded. Mr. Lynch—Is it not the case? The Chairman said the resolution the books was quite different. YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

Present—P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., Chairman; R. Power, E. P. Lynch, T. Beausang, R. Savage, J. N. R. Macnamara, solr., E. P. Condon, T. K. Keane, solr., M. D. Broderick, J. Forrest, R. C. Farrell, Vics-Chairman; J. Daly, B.E., M. Ahern, M. Cashman.

A letter was read from Mr. John Murray, thanking the Council for their kind resolution of congratulation on the success of his daughter, Miss Ella Murray, solr.

A similar letter was read from her brother, Mr. J. P. Murray, B.E., Town Surveyor.

Mr. Power proposed a vote of deep sympathy with Mr. Maurice Foley, on the tragic death of his wife. A truly amiable lady, she was loved by all who knew her, both here and in her native place, Modesto.

Mr. Beausang, seconded. Mr. Macnamara and other members and the Town Clerk having associated themselves with the proposition.

The Chairman said both the Council and the town felt intensely for the bereaved family in their great loss. Her memory deserved any tribute they could pay.

On the proposition of Mr. Keane, seconded by Mr. Macnamara, a resolution was passed declaring certain areas Clearance areas, including Buckley's Lane, 9 Coppersley, 6, Mary street, 7, old Castle Lane 1, Sailor's Home, 4; Quarry Road, 1; Carroll's Court, 3.

The Water Curator reported that they had cut a length of the old 6 inch main and found the bore reduced by corrosion to 4 1/2 inches.

The Chairman—That is a matter we ought tackle as soon as possible. Mr. Daly said they should have a few water meters installed at various points. They would furnish valuable tests.

The Clerk stated that Mrs. Arbuthnot, wrote offering a number of ornamental shrubs for the Green Park. Having consulted the Chairman, the kind offer was gratefully accepted. She laid down her own garden, who did the planting.

Mr. Power—Very decent of her. Mr. Macnamara—It shows an admirable civic spirit. The Chairman—It is only what we would expect of her. Youghal has good reason to be grateful to Major and Mrs. Arbuthnot in many respects, (hear, hear).

A letter was read from the British ex-Servicemen pointing out that they were debarred from participating in Relief Schemes because they were in receipt of Pensions, all of them very small, especially where there were families with up to 3 or 4 children to support. They appealed to the Council to do something for them.

The Chairman said the facts were correct. He knew one poor man with 8 children, who was receiving only 14/-.

Mr. Power—It is not treating them fairly. Mr. Daly—Our Irish soldiers are in the same category. Mr. Lynch—The Old I.R.A. were treated in the same way.

The Chairman—By whom?—By the people they put into power. After some discussion a resolution was unanimously adopted calling on the Government to remedy the grievance complained of.

Mr. Power called attention to the fact that Miss French Blake had received a big order for brush handles, etc., and to meet the demand she had to import a new machine from England, but owing to the heavy tariff imposed, she found it difficult. He could understand a tariff where the article was made in Ireland, but in this case it was not. There were a number of men employed, and the lady was inclined to extend the business, but these unequal tariffs blocked the way.

He proposed that they ask the Minister of Industry and Commerce to remit the heavy duty involved, in the circumstances. This was seconded by Mr. Savage and passed unanimously.

In accordance with notice, Mr. Macnamara, proposed:—"That the Council shall not consider any resolution of a political nature." He said the fact that that resolution was necessary showed the extent to which public life in Ireland had become tainted with party politics. Among the unfortunate legacies left them by the British regime was the Party system, which had divided the country into bitterly hostile camps, had made national unity impossible and had impeded national progress.

That Council had been elected to manage the affairs of the town, while the Dail was there to manage—or mismanage—the affairs of the nation. By minding their own business they would do it better. He would appeal to the Council to be unanimous in passing the motion, and to show that unity was sometimes possible among Irishmen.

Mr. Condon seconded. Mr. Lynch—Is it not on the books before? The Chairman said the resolution on the books was quite different. He thought the proposition was a magnanimous gesture on the part of the majority. Those political resolutions created a disagreeable atmosphere and tended to separate men who otherwise got on harmoniously. They were sent there to look after the interests of the town, and he thought they ought leave the bigger questions to the Parliament of the country. Mr. Broderick supported the proposition, which he regarded was so settled. The mistake began in having the elections run on Party lines. The business of the town should be outside politics and men should be elected on their ability to do the business.

Mr. Ahern said they should take a headline from the recent Galway election. Mr. Power said he and other Fianna Fail members were elected on the Party ticket and would adhere to it. What were they afraid of? If he had to propose a vote of sympathy to the family of a deceased I.R.A. man—was that political?

The Chairman—Not for a moment. Mr. Forrest agreed with Mr. Macnamara to a certain extent, but he did not see how the idea could be carried into effect in present circumstances.

Mr. Power said he didn't intend to propose an amendment, out any time he found the Republic in trouble, he would be there. Mr. Daly—What is the definition of politics? Mr. Forrest—Who is to decide? Mr. Savage said they all agreed it would be well if, in the interest of peace they could get rid of political questions, but as Mr. Daly said, who was to determine them?

The Chairman—We all know them. Mr. Savage said they were on the eve of momentous events—they wished God speed to the Irish delegation to London, (hear, hear), and he asked Mr. Macnamara to drop the matter. Who was to define a political question? Not the Chairman who got in on a political ticket?

The Chairman—But who has always tried to steer an even keel between all parties. Mr. Daly said politics was civil administration and what were they but local administrators. If that proposition were passed they could not discuss many important matters.

Mr. Power—I am often in hot water (laughter). If I have offended anybody I apologise. The Chairman—Thank you, Mr. Power. Mr. Daly said that proposition would tie them up most unfairly. He appealed to Mr. Macnamara to withdraw it.

Mr. Macnamara said he would like to oblige his friends of the opposition, but he could not see any force in their arguments. The affairs of the nation were political. The affairs of Youghal were not the affairs of the nation. Therefore, they were not politics, and his motion meant that they confine themselves to the affairs of Youghal. If it would meet their wishes he would insert the word "Party" before "Resolution."

The Chairman said he read in the Press where the Chairman of the Council of the Capital of the Banner County—Mr. de Valera's own constituency, would not allow discussion on political matters. Mr. Power—Never mind them. I appeal to Mr. Macnamara to withdraw.

After further considerable discussion, Mr. Daly proposed, and Mr. Lynch, seconded, a direct negative. On a poll there voted:— For the amendment—Messrs. Forrest, Lynch, Beausang, Power, Daly, Savage (6).

Against—Messrs. Macnamara, Keane, Broderick, Farrell, Cashman, Ahern, Condon and the Chairman (3). The proposition was, therefore, carried.

The Constitution A letter was read from the Private Secretary to the Taoiseach, acknowledging a letter enclosing copy of resolution passed by the Council on the coming into operation of the Constitution, and conveying to the members the Government's thanks for their kind message of congratulation.

Mr. Savage thought they should send their good wishes to the Irish delegation in London. The Chairman—There is no necessity. They have the good wishes of all Irishmen for their success. Mr. Power—And for the settlement of the economic war.

Town Traders v. Co-Op Creameries After a short discussion on the question of Town Traders v. Co-Operative Creameries, it was unanimously decided, on the proposition of Mr. Savage, seconded by Mr. Keane, to send copies of the following Circular and Resolution to the Minister of Industry and Commerce and to all the Councils in the country:—

A Chair—I am directed by the Youghal Urban District Council to inform you that at a public meeting called under the Council's auspices for the purpose of considering the increasing financial difficulties, and the unfair competition that Youghal as well as all other towns in this State have to meet, it was decided to move a resolution, of which a copy is appended, calling for the co-operation of all towns in impressing on the Government the necessity, if the towns are to survive at all, to see that all sections of the community bear their fair share of taxation and relieve them from subsidising their competitors in business.

There is no necessity at the moment in going into too much detail, a few outstanding points are sufficient. My Council do not wish it to appear that they are, by their proposed action, causing irritation between Rural and Urban interests, nothing is further from their minds. It is not necessary to point out that in the long light for the Irish Farmers rights, that the towns were their strongest supporters, and bore most of the burthen in bringing this country to what it ought to be. It will be appreciated that in the general interests the closest and most helpful co-operation between the two interests (Urban and Rural) is essential, but that co-operation can only be on the basis of justice and equality of treatment by the Government. Since the establishment of our own Government, the direct taxation of the towns and cultural areas at the expense of the general taxpayer, which means direct taxation on the people of our cities and towns. Anything that would tend to increase the productivity of the country, we entirely agree with, and will willingly bear our share, but when the help given takes the form of assisting Co-Operative Creameries to operate in the Town Traders' by grants and/or loans of large sums of money at small rates of interest, relieving them in effect of Income Tax by the method of assessment, permitting them to trade in areas where the valuations are not one-tenth of what they would be in a city or town doing a corresponding amount of business, and so relieving them of their just share of local taxation, allowing them to mortgage the farmers produce as security for accommodation given which will eventually have a disastrous result on the entire population, especially on the farmer himself, as he merely becomes a worker in the grip of vested interests. He is entitled to, and should receive payment for his produce on delivery. The great majority of our towns are liable under the Guarantee Fund for the payment of unpaid annuities, which means that if the town is unable to pay for them in the rates. The effect of this on Town Traders is (a) they are compelled to finance their business opponents—Co-Operative Creameries by their contributions to the Exchequer, payment of Income Tax and the granting of a protected market.

(b) they must pay to the Local Authority the amounts their low valuations relieve them of, as stated, and under the Guarantee Fund towns are liable for the unpaid annuities of the clients of Co-Operative Creameries. If there is a desire in any quarter for the total elimination of towns and town trading in this State, My Council cannot conceive a more effective way of doing so, than for the Government to allow the present state of affairs to continue, which automatically ends the much advertised home market. Mise le meas. M. H. WALSH, Town Clerk.

Copy of Resolution Referred to "That we call on the Government to pass such legislation as will provide: (1) That all Creameries carrying on, directly or indirectly, business as Co-Operative Societies shall bear the same State obligations as any private Trader or Company.

(2) That no Creamery carrying on, directly or indirectly the business of a Co-Operative Society shall receive State assistance by way of Grant or Loan.

(3) That the Rating Valuation of any premises used by Co-Operative Societies be revised and in future be arrived at on the basis of the turnover of the trade done in such premises so as to ensure a just contribution towards local taxation.

(4) That the liability of Co-Operative Societies for Income Tax should be assessed on profits in like manner as in the case of any other trader or Company.

(5) That ratepayers be relieved of all liability for unpaid Annuities."

A Regretted Death—The death of Mrs. Bridget Hanly, happened on the 14th inst. at St. Patrick's Hospital, Fermoy, after a short illness in her 84th year, and is keenly felt. She was a daughter of Mr. J. Gambon and the late Mrs. Gambon, of Comeragh, and she was married some six years since to Mr. James Hanly, baker, who was then employed at his trade in Kilmachomas, and is now an employee at Mr. W. Finn's bakery establishment in Mitchelstown.

By the way, Mr. Hanly and his brothers are well-known and popular figures in the Gaelic circles, being adept exponent of the handball code. As a Catholic, the late Mrs. Hanly's devotion to her Faith was always most edifying, and during her last illness, her spiritual requirements were most assiduously attended to by Rev. W. Corbett, C.C., Fermoy.

The funeral procession to Fews Catholic Churchyard on Saturday of last week was of immense proportions. The prayers at the graveside were read by Rev. W. Meenan, C.C., Kilmacnulty. A large number of Masses, offerings and floral wreaths were placed on the grave by the friends and relatives as a final fond tribute to the memory of the deceased lady.

The chief mourners were:—Mr. James Hanly, Mitchelstown (husband); Mr. J. Gambon, Comeragh (father); Mrs. T. McCarty, Graishnessen, Kilmachomas (sister); Mrs. E. Hanly, Fermoy (mother-in-law); Messrs. McCarthy, Graishnessen (brothers-in-law); Mrs. O'Callaghan, Fermoy (sister-in-law), etc.

Friends and sympathisers in attendance included:—Dr. Magner (Specialist), Fermoy; Dr. Hughes, Mitchelstown; Rev. W. Corbett, C.C., Fermoy; Mr. M. Darnody (Creamery Manager), Castletown; Mr. W. The proposition was, therefore, carried. Blessed with many excellent characteristics, springing from a kind and generous nature, her friends were legion and her all-too-early demise was a shock to all who knew her, and is keenly felt. McCarthy, Grauboneen (brothers-in-law); Mrs. O'Callaghan, Fermoy (sister-in-law), etc.

Friends and sympathisers in attendance included—Dr. Magner (Specialist), Fermoy; Dr. Hughes, Mitchelstown; Rev. W. Corbett, C.C., Fermoy; Mr. M. Darmody (Creamey Manager), Castleisland; Mr. W. Finn and Miss Finn, Mitchelstown; Mr. and Mrs. J. Downey and family, Millbrook Terrace, KilmacThomas, etc. Numerous messages of sympathy were received. At 9 o'clock a requiem Mass was celebrated at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Broderick supported the proposition, which he regarded was so related. The mistake began in having the elections run on Party lines. The business of the town should be outside politics and men should be elected on their ability to do the business.

Mr. Power said he and other Fianna Fail members were elected on the Party ticket and would adhere to it. What were they afraid of? If he had to propose a vote of sympathy to the family of a deceased I.R.A. man—was that political?

The Chairman—Not for a moment. Mr. Forrest agreed with Mr. Macnamara to a certain extent, but he did not see how the idea could be carried into effect in present circumstances.

Mr. Power said he didn't intend to propose an amendment, out any time he found the kepuatic in trouble, he would be there.

Mr. Daly—What is the definition of politics? Mr. Forrest—Who is to decide? Mr. Savage said they all agreed it would be well if, in the interest of peace they could get rid of political questions, but as Mr. Daly said, who was to decide them?

The Chairman—We all know them. Mr. Savage said they were on the eve of momentous events—they wished God speed to the Irish delegation to London, (near, hear), and he asked Mr. Macnamara to drop the matter. Who was to define a political question? Not the Chairman who got in on a political ticket?

The Chairman—But who has always tried to steer an even keel between all parties. Mr. Daly said politics was civil administration and what were they but local administrators. If that proposition were passed they could not discuss many important matters.

Mr. Power—I am often in hot water (laughter). If I have offended anybody I apologise. The Chairman—Thank you, Mr. Power.

Mr. Power—Never mind them. I appeal to Mr. Macnamara to withdraw it. Mr. Macnamara said he would like to oblige his friends of the opposition, but he could not see any force in their arguments. The affairs of the nation were political. The affairs of Youghal were not the affairs of the nation. Therefore, they were not politics, and his motion meant that they confine themselves to the affairs of Youghal. If it would meet their wishes he would insert the word "Party" before "Resolution."

The Chairman said he read in the Press where the Chairman of the Council of the Capital of the Banner County—Mr. de Valera's own constituency, would not allow discussion on political matters.

Mr. Power—Never mind them. I appeal to Mr. Macnamara to withdraw. After further consideration, discussion, Mr. Daly proposed, and Mr. Lynch, seconded, a direct negative.

On a poll there voted— For the amendment—Messrs. Forrest, Lynch, Beausang, Power, Daly, Savage (6). Against—Messrs. Macnamara, Keane, Broderick, Farrell, Cashman, Ahern, Cordon and the Chairman—(3).

The proposition was, therefore, carried. Blessed with many excellent characteristics, springing from a kind and generous nature, her friends were legion and her all-too-early demise was a shock to all who knew her, and is keenly felt. She was the daughter of Mr. J. Gambon and the late Mrs. Gambon, of Comeragh, and she was married some six years since to Mr. James Hanly, baker, who was then employed at his trade in KilmacThomas, and is now an employee at Mr. W. Finn's bakery establishment in Mitchelstown.

The funeral procession to Fews Catholic Churchyard on Saturday of last week was of immense proportions. The prayers at the graveside were read by Rev. W. Meenan, C.C., KilmacThomas. A large number of Mass Cards offerings and floral wreaths were placed on the grave by the friends and relatives as a final fond tribute to the memory of the deceased lady.

The chief mourners were—Mr. James Hanly, Mitchelstown (husband); Mr. J. Gambon, Comeragh (father); Mrs. T. McCarthy, Grauboneen, KilmacThomas (sister); Mrs. E. Hanly, Fermoy (mother-in-law); Messrs. Michael, Eugene and Christopher Hanly, do.; Mr. P. Harty, do.; Mr. T. Higgins, do.; Mr. W. Sinnott, Moorepark, do.; Mr. Jas. Corbett, Middleton, and Mr. T. McCarthy, Grauboneen (brothers-in-law); Mrs. O'Callaghan, Fermoy (sister-in-law), etc.

Friends and sympathisers in attendance included—Dr. Magner (Specialist), Fermoy; Dr. Hughes, Mitchelstown; Rev. W. Corbett, C.C., Fermoy; Mr. M. Darmody (Creamey Manager), Castleisland; Mr. W. Finn and Miss Finn, Mitchelstown; Mr. and Mrs. J. Downey and family, Millbrook Terrace, KilmacThomas, etc. Numerous messages of sympathy were received. YOUGHAL MENTAL HOSPITAL.

At the usual monthly meeting of the Committee of above there attended—Mr. W. J. Broderick, Chairman, Very Rev. D. Canon Dinneen, D.D., P.P., and Rev. D. Duane, C.C.

Manager's Report—Since last meeting three female patients have been admitted from the Cork Mental Hospital, two females have been transferred and one male has died, leaving in residence at present a total of 242 patients (248 men and 176 women). Contracts have been satisfactorily carried out during the month. As directed by the Committee the essential repairs to the Engine are being carried out by Messrs. Merrick. On the death of Dr. Twomey, I requested Dr. Riordan, South Abbey, Youghal, to act as Visiting Doctor. He is still acting. I submit Estimate and Demand for the coming year, the total for General Charges amounting to £7,816. I beg to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of papers and magazines from Mrs. Morrissey, Youghal, the patients enjoyed the usual Christmas Festivities, and I wish to express my thanks to the Committee of Management on their behalf for their kind sanction of extra fare, etc. On the evening of the 20th inst. a Christmas Tree Entertainment was held at which members of the staff contributed a selection of songs and dances, which were much appreciated and enjoyed by all.

Doctor's Report—Dr. Riordan reported that since last meeting eight male and ten female patients were confined to bed with febrile colds, debility, etc. One male patient died. All the others were fairly healthy. There was no complaint of the food. The water supply was as usual. The Manager was instructed to continue the services of Dr. Riordan.

Farm Report—The Farm Steward reported that the usual seasonal work was being carried on. The horses were engaged ploughing, etc., as the weather permitted. Six pigs were killed since last report, leaving 23 on stock. It would be advisable to procure 8 or 10 stores next fair as there were plenty of potatoes, straw, etc.

Tender For Coal—Only one tender was received for the supply of 150 tons of coal, from Messrs. Fleming at 38/-, the previous price being 37/-.

Application For Increase—The Farm Steward applied for an increase of wages on the grounds of extra work imposed by the additional land recently purchased, also the increased cost of living. The matter was referred to the Cork Committee.

Civil Bills—A large number of undefended Civil Bills were disposed of, Messrs. Keane, Macnamara and Hutch, solrs., appearing for plaintiffs.

Annuity Case—A decree was granted in a civil bill against a defaulting annuitant, Mr. Keane (vs. Mr. D. Casey, State Solr.) for plaintiffs.

Unlighted Vehicles—Guard's Nevin and Rooney, Killeagh, had a number of persons charged with using unlighted bicycles, etc., and the usual fines were imposed.

YOUGHAL NOTES.

Popular Youghal Man—The following extract is taken from the 'Cork Examiner' of the 8th inst. :— An interesting visitor to Cork (this week) is Mr. Maurice N. Hennessy, who is spending a holiday in his native county. Mr. Hennessy is a Youghal man and one of the best known Irish writers in England. A fine Gaelic scholar and historian, he held a lectureship at Natal University when in his early twenties. He is now a resident of Harrow, outside London, and is a leading Catholic Social worker. Amongst the offices which he has held are the chairmanship of the Cork Association and of the South Harrow Unemployed Association. He is also a President of the South Harrow St. Vincent de Paul Society, and is a popular broadcaster and public speaker in England. He has contributed many articles to these columns on Irish historical subjects. On Wednesday he was a keen enthusiast at the courting meeting in Youghal. In London he is a prominent figure in literary circles, and he is a frequent writer in English journals. Mr. Hennessy is a brother-in-law of Mr. P. Geraghty of the Presentation College teaching staff.

There seems to have been a lot of doubt as to the identity of the gentleman referred to. It may be of interest to local persons to know that he is the son of Mr. John Hennessy of this town.

Youghal Exile's Musings—The following lines have been received by a local lady from a friend living for many years across the Channel :—

"Memories of My Home Town" The days of my youth have long since passed and my life is ebbing away. Like an iceberg in mid-ocean, beneath the sun's bright ray, Yet I still have pleasant memories of many a happy day. When we danced and sang on the lovely Mall, to while the hours away. Oh! these were the days of our girlhood, when our hearts were free from care; When we flattered round like butterflies or the song birds in the air. I think of that lovely harbour with its cliffs and headlands green; The lighthouse bright in her robes of white, just like a reigning Queen. And again, that flowing river with its stretches of golden sand. The cobbly beach of Paxis, and the lovely Coastguard Strand. The beauties of that river, no artist e'er should miss. The glorious scenes round Ballinacree where the moon and water kiss. And then Kilmacree with its towering trees waving aloft in the mist. The night birds calling to their mates, seeking a place of tryst; Its beauty ne'er can be excelled for its scenes by night or day. The treasure house of the fisher folk, where the salmon leap and play. My sight and strength are well nigh gone, my checkered life near's er,

But I will keep thinking of that home that, alas! I shall see no more. (The poem is signed by "Lizzie Fletcher.")

Second Thoughts—A strange story comes from the adjoining countryside. It would appear that on one of the Christmas holidays, while a well-known farmer and his family were away from home attending their religious duties, some person entered the house and departed with a sum of money, said to be between £30 and £40, in notes. The matter was reported to the Civic Guards, who immediately became active in making inquiries. The thief must have got quails of conscience, or whatever his equivalent of that function was, for within a week or thereabouts of the disappearance of the cash, it was put back, intact it is said. The incident furnishes a striking instance of the truth of the proverb that "is fear na tara smavindi."

SUCCESSFUL WHIST DRIVE IN ARDMORE

A very successful Whist Drive in aid of local charity, was held recently in "Melrose," Ardmore, and thanks are due to Capt. Collins, proprietor of the well-known Guest House, for organising the event. A large crowd of Whist enthusiasts attended from Ardmore, Aghlish, Clashmore, Youghal, etc., and all had a very enjoyable time, tea being served at the interval. Messrs. Chappel, Youghal, conducted the proceedings in their usual faultless fashion.

Results—Ladies—1st, Miss Terry, Aghlish; 2nd Miss Vesle, Ardmore; 3rd Mrs. Fitzgibbon, Youghal. Gents—1st Mr. C. Mansfield, Old Parish; 2nd Mr. E. Cunningham, Foxhall; 3rd—Mr. E. Fitzgerald, Whiting Bay. Mr. R. Chappel, returned thanks to all who supported the event.

LATE MRS. K. WATSON

The late Mrs. Kathleen Watson, Birt, was the daughter of Mrs. Foley, New Street, Carrick-on-Suir. She was trained as a nurse in Waterford and nursed at Balinglass and Birt. She married in Birt some years ago. Much sympathy is felt for her bereaved husband and family.
