DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL

Mr. Ml. Morrissey, T.D., Chairman, presided at the weekly meeting of the above held on Friday. Also present—Messrs. T. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman, J. Hayes, D. Foley, M. Clancy, J. Crofty, J. Dahill, J. Foley, J. Christopher, P. Quinn, P. O'Dwyer.

Delish Boreen
Mr. Beresford, Deelish, appeared before the Board and stated that the Boreen given him as a result of the acquiring of the land in connection with the Waterworks improvement was too narrow. He asked that the boreen be widened by 20 feet.

The Chairman advised Mr. Beresford to see Mr. Williams, solicitor, who would show him the agreement, if the agreement stated that Mr. Beresford was entitled to another 20 feet it would be given to him, otherwise the Council could do nothing.

Town Hall Lettering
A deputation from Dungarvan G.A.A. Club asked that they be given the hall for their Ceilidhe on St. Patrick's night at a reduced rate.

After a discussion, it was agreed to give the hall for £1.

Mr. Clancy dissented from reducing the charge.

Pay Sheet
The weekly pay sheet amounting to £11 13s. 8d., was passed.

Thanks
Mr. and Mrs. Patk. Morrissey, wrote thanking the Council for their resolution of sympathy on the death of Mr. J. Morrissey, O'Connell street.

Co-Operative Creameries
Several Councils wrote stating that they had adopted the resolution regarding the trading of Co-Ops. and travelling shops. Tralee U.D.C., did not adopt the resolution.

It was agreed to fall into line with the Youghal Urban District Council, who suggested that a meeting of representatives of all Councils who had adopted the resolution should be held in Dublin to arrive at some definite policy to give effect to the resolution.

Messrs. Christopher, Crotty and the Chairman were appointed to represent Dungarvan.

Letting of Hall
The hall was let for a dance to the local Beagle Club on Easter Sunday night and to Rev. Fr. O'Farrell, C.C., for an entertainment on Easter Monday night.

Severage
The Borough Surveyor reported that the estimate for the construction of a pipe sewer at Mitchell street, New Line and Hermitage, would be £448, not including resurfacing.

The B.S. was instructed to see Mr. McCoshy, to see if the works could be included in the present scheme.

Steam Drill
The following letter was read from Mr. Ml. Power, Main street:—

Dear Mr. Chairman and gentlemen,—I wish to refer to a statement made by a member at last meeting regarding the working of the steam drill at night by men who work on the sewerage by day. This drill was only worked by me and I wish to state that I got whatever men I required to help me and they were paid double time for this. I also wish to point out to this member that only for the steam drill those men could not open the road. I have worked the pick on these roads and know what they are. I consider the statement very unfair to me and my fellow-workers, and hope that this member will withdraw it, and follow the works of James Connolly.

Mr. O'Dwyer—That letter refers to me but I did not mention or refer to any personality. Mr. Power has only lately joined the ranks of the workmen, and any job he had before was more of a ladies job.

Chairman—The letter doesn't mention any name.

Mr. O'Dwyer—I know it refers to me but I only said that the working of the steam drill and the loaning of it from one contractor to another did men of the profession.

The matter was dropped.

DEATH OF MR. P. REDDINGTON, FAIR LANE

The death occurred of Mr. Patrick Reddington, at the District Hospital, Dungarvan on Saturday last. Deceased who for many years lived alone, was found on Saturday morning, to be ill, and was removed to Hospital where he died later that day. He was aged about 70 years, and was believed to be in poor circumstances. After his removal to hospital, neighbours found a tin box containing some papers which were taken to Mr. Williams, solicitor, where on examination they proved to be securities to the value of about £600. These were in the name of Patrick Conroy, which apparently was deceased's proper name. So far as can be ascertained, deceased had no relatives. He is believed to be a

GAELIC NOTES & NOTIONS

By "CROTOG"

The raucous Dublin daily Press gave scant notice to the proceedings at the Munster G.A.A. Convention in Limerick last Sunday. They were far too busy boosting the "Games of the Garrison," of which poor Ireland has had a nauseating surfeit lately. It is a remarkable fact that in the old days under the British regime, these alien games were confined almost entirely to the garrison towns and promoted for the most part by our protectors in khaki and their civilian admirers. The ordinary plain Irish man and woman had little or no interest in the games, and the spirit enough them to treat them for what they were—displays of a vicious foreign culture antagonistic to all Gaelic sentiment. They were despised and ignored by the great mass of the Irish people. But the pseudo-freedom which the Treaty brought in its train affected Ireland strangely. A hysterical wave of slavishness swept over the country drowning every decent expression of National spirit. In our feverish desire to be international, everything native and Irish was derided, everything foreign lauded and raised up on a pinnacle of bogus superiority. That was may have lost some of its force, but it has not yet subsided. Of late years it has been diverted into new channels, and taken on strange forms to deceive the thoughtless. The persistent attempt to nationalise some alien games by surrounding them with a tricolour halo, and attaching other symbols is the most subtle move yet in the campaign of alien penetration.

In the Munster Senior Hurling Championship the lack of the draw favoured Waterford who got a bye in the first round as Kerry are not competing this year.

Our minors travel to Killarney on Whit Sunday to play Kerry and on the same day our Seniors tackle Clare in the Annual Whit Tournament organised in aid of the Fitzgerald Park. The fixing of the Tipperary v. Waterford Senior Football Championship clash for Dungarvan gives immense satisfaction locally. Our Seniors are due to open the Munster Championship in Clonmel early in May. All Waterford will be interested in the outcome of the Cork v. Limerick game as the Deise team face the winners in the Munster semi-final. A number of provisional fixtures have been made so as to whack our hurlers into winning shape for Munster honours. In April Portlaoise take on Cork in the League and Tipperary in a challenge match. In all probability too, our lads will be participating in the Thomond Shield for the first time in its history. A pretty extensive programme this, which should bet the boys for the mighty struggles later on.

For the next few months, our footballers will be fighting in the limelight as three matches await them in the League against Tipperary at Clonmel next Sunday and later against Carlow and Wicklow. So keen are they have already held a few trial matches to sort out their best material. Our players are quietly confident of upsetting the Tipp. apple-cart and they will certainly give a right good account of themselves. The selection includes a half-dozen from Dungarvan, four each from Kilmacross, Stradbally and Fenora and two new-comers from Fermoy.

The Waterford line out will be selected from the following:—S. Hayes, P. Russell, C. Moylan, W. Barron, D. Goode, J. Ryan, and T. Casey (Dungarvan); P. Gough, B. Casey, E. Casey, Moore, O'Meara and Coffey (Fenora); John Power, N. Connors, J. Walsh (Stradbally); Salter and Walsh (Portlaoise); D. Walsh, P. Dalton and Longgan (Kilmacross).

It will be more or less a full dress rehearsal for the big Championship fight between the same contestants in Dungarvan in two months time.

Jimmy O'Dea, may be the idol of Dublin while Barney Armstrong and Jimmy O'Brien all had plenty admirers in their day, but for sheer spontaneous joviality and entertainment command me to "Puncher's Duggie." He sings the songs of his native land in a manner all his own and whether in operatic, romantic, comic or comic vein, can always get the smile and the heart of his audience. In his trial and is it not grand to see him striding up the Young's grand to see him pick up the Young's fellow in the same old block. Coming back in the bus from Cork he sang to such purpose that paternal pride was stirred to its depths and "Puncher's Senior" exclaimed exultingly: "You can't beat the bit of breeding in you! You can't beat the bit of breeding in you! Which reminds me of another little story concerning our present gallant hurling Captain, Mick Hickey of Portlaoise. The Balder says I'll have to wait until next week to tell it. So, have patience with me.

Coast To Comeragh Chips

The Fike Amusement Club held another highly successful and enjoyable Ciderella dance at their splendid Hall on Sunday night last. To the sweet and haunting strains of the fine variety programme of music provided, dancing was kept up with fullest zest by a bumper attendance. The catering was excellently carried out by a number of local ladies.

At this time of the year all those who have given thought to their about time, and did so in reality. The spades and forks that were relegated to the dark corners of the out-houses are brought forth and polished up. Those shoes and trousers that the missus wanted to give to the last jumble sale, and that yowly pull-over she knit which you vowed you wouldn't be seen dead in and she could send to the jumble sale (but didn't) these were too many dumped (stitches), will come in handy for the onslaught on the garden.

Digging is one of the finest exercises (at least it gives you a good thirst), and we are told the best outlet for our tempers. Certainly when we feel our tempers getting the best of us the garden provides us with an excellent substitute. Our tempers soon leave us in the gallons of sweat—sorry, perspiration—which oozes from our pores. If you are not used to it (and very few of us are) digging is a back-aching business—after a few hours you feel like the famous advertisement—it took the Metal Lad west to the front followed by Thing of Nothing and Ardagh West. The last named crossed the final fence in front, but on the flat Grateful Lad chattered and won a good race. The winner is the property of a very popular Fermoy man, Mr. D. Noonan, and is a full brother to Kiltar that has won some honours in England. Mr. N. D. Mahony followed this up with another success this time on the local soil. True Minister has been out of form this season, and his return to the winning vein was hailed with some cheering—actually though he did not win for 12 months, this was his 27th victory, and his popular owner and trainer were overwhelmed with congratulations. It was bad luck on the owner of Minister that he should have lost this good cob.

Though only five went out for the Harrogate Cup, it provided an interesting contest in which Perfect Orb, Avondhu Queen and Clare's Toy were always prominent. At half-way Perfect Orb went to the front and readily resisted the challenge of Avondhu Queen. This was Perfect Orb's third success for the season and it is of interest to recall the fact that her dam was 27 years old when she foaled her first foal—Perfect Orb.

Castleview Star was backed like a good thing for the Open Farmers' Race, and he did not fail to oblige. He was nearly always in front of the field and Change of Hand, the two singling themselves out from the others to win very easily. When he came back to the unsaddling enclosure he collapsed, but was soon on his feet again.

Last Rose was made the medium of another big plunge in the Confined Hunt Leura Gay, which was nearly always in front. Finishing Touch came with a great run from the final fence to overhaul and beat her in a strenuous finish.

STEAM DRILL

Mr. Patk. O'Dwyer, U.D.C., writing in reply to recent correspondence on the above states:—"Objection was taken to a statement made by me at a meeting of the Dungarvan U.D.C. The statement referred to was made in the interests of my fellow-workers and in effect is that I raised an objection to the sewerage contractor giving the use of his petrol-driven drill to Mr. Fitzpatrick, the contractor for the water scheme, the use of which deprives at least six men of employment. It is a well known fact that the use of machinery is one of the chief causes of unemployment. I also stated that some of the men working on the sewerage scheme worked for Mr. Fitzpatrick after 5 p.m. It is not my wish to dictate to the men as to what they should or should not do. I would like to point out to Mr. Power, the leader of the men to open the roads with pick and shovel, as he states they were unable to do, without the use of the drill, when only six weeks previous the road at Shannon was opened by pick and shovel, and by the four months ago all roads in this town were opened by pick and shovel. I do not consider that 3 months experience as a manual worker gives Mr. Power the knowledge of what the working men of Dungarvan are capable of doing. Any job he held previously in this town while he is a resident at work, at least, I would not consider manual labour. He asks me to follow the example of James Connolly. I can safely say that I followed them far more than he did and any advice to him is to produce what he preaches.

Lismore Point-to-Point Races

SUCCESSFUL MEETING

Glorious weather favoured the Lismore Point-to-Point Races on Wednesday.

The sun shone all day with a warmth that made it a pleasure to be out of doors, and it was, consequently little wonder that the attendance should be of enormous proportions. Fields were of good size; and even if the finishes were sometimes a bit on the tame side, interest was always well sustained, and in the most of the winners were soundly supported.

The various officials discharged their duties with the utmost credit to themselves, and the card was got through in excellent time. Lord Charles Cavendish, one of the judges at the meeting, had the best of the judges with Lullaby, bred on the course, but unfortunately the horse dropped dead at exercise during the week. The riding honours were shared by Messrs. N. D. Mahony, E. Flynn, and W. Tracey, the two first named each scoring a double.

There was a huge field for the Maiden Race, and most was thought of the chances of Grateful Lad with Ardagh West next in demand. Happy Moments was in front in the early stages followed by Grateful Lad, Laune Gay and Thing of Nothing. After half the course had passed Grateful Lad went to the front followed by Thing of Nothing and Ardagh West. The last named crossed the final fence in front, but on the flat Grateful Lad chattered and won a good race. The winner is the property of a very popular Fermoy man, Mr. D. ANGLO-IRISH TALKS REACH FINAL STAGE

MINISTERS RETURN TO LONDON

Mr. de Valera, Dr. Ryan, Mr. Lemass and Mr. Sean MacEntee, travelled to London on Wednesday for the final stage of the Anglo-Irish negotiations.

Elaborate precautions were made to keep the platform at Euston clear, but only a small crowd was present when the Irish mail arrived.

Mr. de Valera, An Taoiseach, accompanied by other members of the Irish delegation, Dr. Ryan, Minister for Agriculture; Mr. Lemass, Minister for Industry and Commerce, and Mr. MacEntee, Minister for Finance, left by the mail boat from Dunloughmore for London to resume negotiations with the representatives of the British Government.

The following Departmental officials, who returned with the delegation on Saturday, travelled to London again:—Mr. J. J. McElligott, Secretary of Department of Finance; Mr. Maurice Moynihan, Secretary to the Government; Mr. A. W. Bayne, Department of Finance; Mr. D. DeVin, Department of External Affairs, and Capt. Sean Brennan, Aide-de-Camp to the Taoiseach.

This is the third visit of the delegation to England. There were very few people at Dunloughmore Pier when Mr. de Valera arrived shortly before nine o'clock to board the mail boat for Holyhead.

He was accompanied by his son, Mr. Vivian de Valera, who is a Barrister, and seemed to be in good spirits. Civic Guards drawn up beside the gangway acted as a guard of honour.

The delegation was seen off by Mr. Sean T. O'Kelly, Mr. Frank Aiken, Minister for Defence, and Mr. Gerald Boland, Minister for Lands.

It is understood that Partition will no longer occupy the time of the Conference, and that efforts will now be concentrated upon obtaining a trade agreement involving the abolition of tariffs on Irish agricultural produce. It is believed that a draft trade agreement is now ready, and that agreement, if any, will not go further than this.

It is understood that the delegation will complete its work in time for return on Saturday.

The most elaborate precautions against a crowd taking possession of Platform 1, at which the Irish mail arrives, were taken at Euston station for the arrival of Mr. de Valera and the Irish delegation for the resumed Anglo-Irish talks. But the precautions proved quite unnecessary for fewer than forty Irish people were present to welcome the Irish delegates, and they were kept to the rear of Platform 2 as much as possible as Platform 1, ropes and bars being placed on Platform 3 to deny access to the other two platforms, and behind these ropes were about thirty-five Irish people who included two men waving tricolour flags. One of the men with the tricolour was Tommy Ash, the Irish Hyde Park orator, who is a strong supporter of Mr. de Valera.

The L.M.E. printed a special ticket pass for the occasion to admit "To witness the arrival of the Irish mail on Wednesday, 2nd March, 1938," signed by Mr. Ashton Davies, the commercial manager, and this was given to eight newspaper men and three Press photographers, who awaited the Irish mail, which came in on time at 5.50 p.m.

Sir Harry Fagg Batterdey (representing Sir Edward Harding, Permanent Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies Office); Rear Admiral Arthur Bromley, Ceremonial and Receptions Secretary of the Dominions Office (representing Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, Secretary of State for the Dominions) and Sir Edmund Brocklebank of the Dominions Office, together with Mr. John W. DeLany, the Irish High Commissioner; Mr. J. F. Walsh, Secretary of the Department of External Affairs, and Mr. Sean Leydon, Secretary of the Department of Industry and Commerce, and Dr. Eamon de Valera, An Taoiseach's second son, who were waiting on the platform, greeted the Irish delegation. The three Dominions Office representatives and Mr. Dulanty went into the special saloon coach and conversed with Mr. de Valera for a few moments. Then Mr. Dulanty ushered the President to the waiting limousine, which was cheered as it passed out through the great gates. The rest of the delegation followed in other cars: Mr. J. J. McElligott, Secretary of the Department of Finance; Mr. Maurice Moynihan, Secretary to the Government; Mr. A. W. Bayne, of the Department of Finance; Mr. Denis Devlin, of the Department of External Affairs, and Capt. Sean Brennan, An Taoiseach's A.D.C. The detective this time—Inspector Mansfield was over last time—Sergeant Frank Casey.

A member of the Irish delegation told me they had an excellent crossing and an uneventful journey. A taxi was given over to the Irish delegation's luggage, which included a huge iron dispatch case which took two men to lift. It was again noticed that An Taoiseach's own personal luggage had plain buff labels, with the words "Eamon de Valera," written in Irish in An Taoiseach's own hand.

It is stated that on Thursday morning trade talks will take place among experts and that Mr. de Valera will meet Mr. MacDonald, and possibly other members of the British Government later in the day.

Sir Harry Twyford, the Lord Mayor of London, visiting the Irish section of the British Industries Fair, arranged by Mr. J. W. Dulanty, the Irish High Commissioner, expressed the hope that there would be a successful outcome of the present negotiations that the duties would be removed on goods of such excellence as were displayed at the Irish stands so that a much greater quantity could be sold on the British market. Sir Harry, who was received by Mr. P. Mulloy of the High Commissioner's Office, admired the ultra-modern frontage of the official stand, which displays Irish bacon, Irish butter, and Irish eggs in separate windows.

"Lord Craigavon by securing such a great majority at the polls, has created a Frankenstein monster," declared Mr. Thomas Henderson (Independent, Shankill) in the Belfast House of Commons, today. He described the King's Speech as "the most useless and hopeless document ever presented to any assembly."

Mr. Henderson asked if partition was going to be removed, but the Speaker told him "Partition is not a matter within the competence of this House."

"The Government," said Mr. Henderson, "has made political issue out of its efforts to curb it is that there is a record number of 115,000 unemployed."

The fact that no Nationalist members attended the House seemed to indicate that they are adopting a boycott policy although they have taken the Oath of Allegiance.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S TALK WITH MR. DE VALERA

Settlement of the dispute between Britain and Eire over land annuities—the withholding of which precipitated the "trade wars" between the two countries—is expected to be one of the most important heads of the agreement in the recent talks. Mr. de Valera received at his hotel Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, the Dominions Secretary, and Sir Ronald Somerville, the Attorney-General. Mr. J. Dulanty, the Irish High Commissioner in London, was also present, and the discussions lasted an hour and a half.

Legal experts will not be called in until the drafting of an agreement becomes imminent, and no special significance, therefore, attaches to the visit of the Attorney-General, but it is hoped that by Friday certain heads of an agreement regarding finance and trade will be reached.

Trade talks will be held at the Dominions Office, between Mr. MacDonald and Mr. W. S. Morrison, Minister of Agriculture; Mr. Dulanty, Dr. J. Ryan, Minister of Agriculture, and Mr. Sean Lemass, Minister for Industry and Commerce, and the respective expert advisers.

Progress is expected to be made at this session and at four o'clock Mr. de Valera is to have a private talk with Mr. Neville Chamberlain at the House of Commons prior to a meeting between the two delegations at five. It is thought the Mr. de Valera and his colleagues will be able to leave London on Friday night.

LENTE PASTORAL

To The Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore

Very Rev. and Rev. Fathers and Dear Brethren,

The Holy Season of Lent is approaching once more. By the solemn ceremony of the blessing and imposition of ashes, with which it appropriately opened on Wednesday last, the Church recalls to us very vividly the thought of our mortality and our nothingness.

The thought that death is hastening to us, that in a few short weeks, a few short months, or, at most, a few short years, we will have taken us in its icy clasp, is one that most of us would fain banish to the background of our consciousness. It is a disturbing thought; it is repugnant to our natural instincts; and, when we feel a special appeal to us, it is one that we find it difficult to put out of our minds.

I desire to call your attention also to another and even more important event which will take place this year, namely, the International Eucharistic Congress to be celebrated at Budapest next May. The Irish Hierarchy, through its Standing Committee, has already exhorted the faithful to say the Congress prayer frequently during the year, and has invited all Catholics to participate in the religious movement, which is one of the objects of the Congress, and by their prayers and good works, and especially by receiving Holy Communion during the Congress week, to make atonement for the horrible sacrifices committed against the Blessed Eucharist in the religious persecution rampant in some countries.

To help you in conforming to the wishes of the Hierarchy and in achieving a fuller spiritual participation in the Congress celebrations, and to stimulate you to increased devotion to our Eucharistic Lord, I shall put before you for your consideration the following exhortation, which is one of the objects of the Congress, and by their prayers and good works, and especially by receiving Holy Communion during the Congress week, to make atonement for the horrible sacrifices committed against the Blessed Eucharist in the religious persecution rampant in some countries.

Our Divine Lord chose a most appropriate occasion for His first intimation to His followers of this most precious gift that He was to leave us. He had just performed the great miracle of the Eucharist, and He had invited five barley loaves and two fishes, he had shown that He could multiply food in a way hitherto undreamt of by mortals. By walking out on the water to the Apostles' boat and then bringing it in an instant to the other side of the lake, he demonstrated to His disciples that His body nor in the handling of other material substances was He subject to the ordinary limitations imposed by the physical laws of nature. Having thus prepared the minds of His hearers, He went on to tell them of another bread that He intended to give them, a mysterious bread that was meant, not to sustain the perishable life of the body, but to confer a life that would last for ever. When He had roused their expectations to the highest pitch, he exclaimed with what a resolution of sinning no more. But her denials include also external penance, in other words, external acts involving some difficulty and a certain amount of self-denial, such, for example, as abstinence in food or drink, restrictions in the matter of amusements, and so on. There is one form of external penance which is strictly obligatory during Lent, namely, fasting and abstinence; and, naturally, it is the most efficacious of all, because, in observing the fasting and abstinence laws, not only does something which is difficult and which requires self-denial, but one also conforms one's will to the commanding will of the legislator, and thereby makes the work performed an act of obedience as well as of penance.

Guided then by the spirit of the Church and speaking in her name, I exhort you to devote yourselves earnestly during this Holy Season to penance and mortification. There are certain times when the graces of repentance are given in abundance. Lent is one of them. Who, if he neglect this present opportunity of making atonement for his sins, can say that another will be given him. Respond generously then to the Church's call; do penance for your sins; mortify your passions and evil inclinations. If you do, the dread moments of death and judgment, to which the Church calls attention so realistically on Ash Wednesday, will lose a great deal of their terrors for you. My dear brethren, this year we celebrate the centenary of an event which exercised a profound influence on the lives of our people from the social as well as from the religious and moral standpoint. I refer to the inauguration of the temperance movement by Father Theobald Mathew. When Father Mathew began his work in 1838, drunkenness was widespread in every class of society; it was undoubtedly the greatest evil with which our country was then afflicted. So extraordinary was the change which he effected in a very short period, that eleven years later, on the occasion of his admission to a seat within the bar, one of the American Senators, Henry Clay, one of the most distinguished members of the legislature of the United States, was able to say of him: "It is but a merited tribute of respect to a man who has worked a great social revolution—a revolution in which no blood has been shed, a revolution which has involved no desolation, which has caused no bitter tears of widows and orphans to flow, a revolution which has been achieved without violence, and a greater one, perhaps, than has been accomplished by any other benefactor of mankind."

On the occasion of the centenary celebrations I ask you to offer your sincere prayers to God for having raised up a special apostle to us by his herculean labours in the cause of temperance did so much to uplift our people socially, morally, and religiously, and I invite you to join in paying due honour to the memory of the great temperance apostle himself.

I must remind you that the work in which Fr. Mathew was such a successful and distinguished pioneer needs still to be carried on. Great progress, indeed, has been made during the past hundred years; the drunkard on our streets is now a rare phenomenon; and public opinion regards drunkenness as a disgraceful and degrading vice. It is well known, however, that there is still a good deal of undue indulgence in alcoholic drink. There are disquieting rumours especially regarding the conduct at social functions of some of our young men, and, alas! of some of our young women also. I make a special appeal to parents to lend their powerful aid in this matter. Children, on the occasion of their Confirmation, take a pledge to abstain from all intoxicants until they attain their twenty-first year. Fidelity to it will ensure that in the overwhelming majority of cases they will continue temperate for the rest of their lives; and in securing their fidelity to the good example, care, and encouragement of their parents are the most important factor.

I desire to call your attention also to another and even more important event which will take place this year, namely, the International Eucharistic Congress to be celebrated at Budapest next May. In order that the reception of the Blessed Eucharist may produce these wonderful effects in the soul, it must be a worthy reception. An unworthy reception is a sacrifice of the gravest kind. St. Paul tells us that: "Whoever shall eat this bread or drink the chalice of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord;" that "He that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh judgment to himself, not discerning the body of the Lord."

For a worthy reception of the Blessed Eucharist three conditions are necessary: one must be fasting from midnight; one must have the proper intention, which consists in this that one should approach the holy table, not through routine, vain glory, or human respect, but to please God, to be more closely united with Him, and to avail oneself of His divine remedy for one's weaknesses and defects; and, finally, one must be in the state of grace. This last is most fundamental and important of all the conditions. A soul in the state of mortal sin is in the possession of the devil; and the material presence of the Blessed Eucharist in the stomach is personally into the soul, to unite Him intimately with it. To receive Him then in the state of mortal sin is to offer Him a most abominable habitation, to force Him as it were, to dwell with sin, to live with the devil, His implacable enemy.

One who is in mortal sin, must obtain forgiveness for it in the sacrament of penance before the reception of Holy Communion; an act of perfect contrition would not be sufficient. Apart from this, a confession is necessary, not as a rule, useful as a preparation for a fervent one. Provided one fulfils these three conditions, one undoubtedly receives the Blessed Eucharist worthily and participates in its wonderful effects. But, whilst this is true, it is also true that the better one's dispositions are, the more one receives from the Blessed Eucharist. Our preparation should extend even to our external appearance; but, of course, interior dispositions are by far the more important. Before approaching the holy table we should make frequent and fervent acts of devotion to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, especially in the reception of the Eucharist, of humility and sorrow because of our own unworthiness, acts of confidence that His merits will compensate for our defects, acts of love because of His infinite goodness manifested particularly by His giving Himself to us in the Blessed Eucharist. And after Holy Communion, what our Divine Lord still desires of us, we should spend some time in adoring Him, in thanking Him, and in asking Him for an abundance of those graces and blessings which He gives so freely in this sacrament of His love.

In addition to receiving the Blessed Eucharist worthily, it is necessary that it frequently in order to participate fully in its wonderful effects. The Blessed Eucharist is the spiritual food of our souls, without it the soul's spiritual life cannot be preserved. Now, just as material food will not sustain the life of the body, so the frequent reception of the Blessed Eucharist is necessary for the preservation of the spiritual life of the soul. Formerly, there was a good deal of controversy regarding the conditions required for the frequent and daily reception of Holy Communion. Some of the conditions demanded very perfect dispositions in the recipient. We, however, in happier times, the conditions are now definitely fixed, and they are very simple; they are the three conditions required for its worthy reception, which I have discussed already. For greater prudence, however, in the reception of the Blessed Eucharist, one should seek the advice of a confessor.

My dear brethren, I know that there is a deep and widespread devotion to the Blessed Eucharist among you; and this knowledge is a source of great consolation to me. But I would not be contented with this devotion, which is so easily extended and intensified? Alas! notwithstanding the loving invitation of Our Divine Lord and the repeated exhortations of His Church, there are many still careless; there are many who, if they were more zealous could easily increase the frequency of their visits to the Holy Communion. I ask you to make this International Eucharistic Congress the occasion for an intensification of your devotion to the Blessed Eucharist. Begin now during Lent; and let your effort reach its climax during Congress week, when all who can, should receive Holy Communion for the special objects of the Congress. God and His Church ardently desire that you should communicate not only fervently, but also frequently, and even daily. As layal children, you will, I am sure, in as far as is possible for you, fall in with their wishes. The Blessed Eucharist is the greatest gift that Jesus Christ has left us. Surely, it would be the basest ingratitude to refuse to become frequent sharers in it! Surely, it would be the divine folly to do so!

Our Divine Lord invites us to visit Him as well as to receive Him in the sacrament of His love. From the tabernacle He is constantly crying to us: "Come to Me all you that labour and are burdened, and I will refresh you." He loves to have us come to Him, speak to Him, be friendly with Him, tell Him of our trials and our sufferings. If we heed His cry, if we become intimate with Him, then we shall always have a friend to whom we can turn in our difficulties, our temptations, and our sorrows, a friend who knows our weaknesses and our needs better than we do ourselves, and who is both able and willing to provide a remedy for them. If we only ask Him to do so, I remain Yours very faithfully in Jesus Christ.

FAST AND ABSTINENCE REGULATIONS FOR LENT, 1938

To Be Observed In The Diocese of Waterford and Lismore

The Law of Fasting and Abstinence, as binding in the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore during the coming Lent, will be as follows:—

1. Fasting. I. The Law of Fasting prescribes that only one full meal may be taken each day; but it does not forbid some food, the quantity and quality of which are determined by custom, to be taken in the morning and evening.

2. Those who have completed their twenty-first year and have not yet begun their sixtieth are bound by the Law of Fasting. On account of the grave inconvenience which fasting usually causes the following classes are, as a rule, excused from the Law:—

- (a) Those who are engaged in labourious or exhausting occupations; (b) The very poor whose meals are scant and uncertain; (c) Those who suffer from sickness or delicate health.

3. The Law of Fasting binds on all days during this coming Lent except Sundays and St. Patrick's Day.

II. Abstinence. The Law of Abstinence forbids the use of meat and of extracts from it, hard and dripping, however, as allowed as condiments.

2. Those who have completed their seventh year are bound by the Law of Abstinence.

3. The Law of Abstinence binds during Lent only on Wednesdays and Fridays, and on the Saturday of Quarter Term, zodiacal March. Hence, on the other days of Lent, those who are bound to fast may take meat and its extracts, but only at their principal meal, whilst those who are not bound to fast may take them at other meals as well.

III. Dispensation. Parish Priests and Administrators may, for a just cause, even outside of Confession, dispense, in particular cases, individuals and families subject to them, and strangers who happen to be in their parish, from the Law of Fasting, or from the Law of Abstinence, or from both. Confessors are hereby empowered to grant in the tribunal of Penance similar dispensations for a just cause to their penitents.

IV. Cessation. The Lenten Fast and Abstinence come to an end at midday on Holy Saturday.

JEREMIAH KINANE, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore.

MAHON-SIDE SNIPS

St. Brigid's Parish Church, Killossanty, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday morning, when Miss Helen Whelan, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Whelan, Gawn, KilmacThomas, became the wife of Mr. Thomas Flynn, only son of Mr. Patrick Flynn, and the late Mrs. Flynn, Crough, do. The Ceremony, with Nuptial Mass, was performed by Very Rev. J. Crothy, P.P., Killossanty. The bride, who looked charming, was attended by Miss Agnes Phelan, Furragehill, as bridesmaid, while Mr. Michael Keating, P.C., Comeragh (first-cousin of the bridegroom), acted as best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, where upwards of fifty guests were entertained. During the evening the happy couple left for Dublin where the honeymoon is being spent.

The deservedly popular young pair were the recipients of numerous costly and serviceable wedding presents. Congratulatory messages received included cablegrams from relatives and friends of the bride in the U.S.A. We join with the rest in warmly wishing health, happiness and prosperity to both.

February recalls the deeds of the immortal dog Master McGrath, which was owned by Lord Lurgan. Though it is just seventy years ago since the famous West Waterford greyhound won the Waterloo Cup for the first time, the tale is still fresh and the memory green in the minds of keen sportsmen. Fortnight is proud of its association with such a canine wonder, and even to this day by homely fireside and in friendly bar parlour may be heard the ballad "Master McGrath," recounting the historic made by the coursing when he won the Blue Riband in 1890. The spirit of the race is truly engendered by the words of the last verse:—

"Then the hare she led off with a beautiful view, And swift as the wind o'er the green fields she flew. But he jumped on her back, then he held up his paw. "Three cheers for our Ireland" cried Master McGrath." On the Concert platform, too, this famous song may still be heard, and one has only to hear it by a Kill village vocalist of our acquaintance to appreciate fully the keen sporting enthusiasm it creates. The ballad and the genial gentleman just referred to are synonymous, and wherever he goes "Master McGrath" goes with him.

SHELTERED I.R.A. IN TROUBLED TIMES IN CO. WATERFORD

The late Mrs. B. Kiersey, Ballyslough, Carrick-on-Suir, was a member of one of the oldest and best known families in the East Waterford. During the years of the Anglo-Irish trouble from 1916 to 1923, her home was the centre of I.R.A. and Cumann na mBan activities and a place of shelter and hospitality to all who worked or fought in the National Cause. Her daughter Miss M. Kiersey, died four weeks ago. She too, was an active and enthusiastic member of Cumann na mBan. There was a very large attendance at the removal of the remains of the late Mrs. Kiersey to Carrickbeg Parish Church on Saturday evening and at the interment at the Friary, Carrickbeg, on Monday.

Office and High Mass for the repose of the soul of deceased took place on Monday at Carrickbeg Church. Very Rev. Canon Prendergast, P.P., presided. The priests of Carrickbeg, Clonca, Carrick-on-Suir and the Franciscan Fathers, Carrickbeg, were present at the Office and High Mass.

BURIED TOGETHER AT KILROSSANTY

Last week Eileen Dwyer, aged 8 years, daughter of Mr. Michael Dwyer, New Street, Carrick-on-Suir, and her first cousin, the 21-year-old child of Mr. Maurice Quinn, Coolmashanna, Co. Waterford, were buried on the same day in the same grave at Killossanty. The mother of Eileen Dwyer is the sister of Mr. Maurice Quinn. Much sympathy is felt for the parents of the children. The little boy Quinn was the only child of its parents.

Death of Mrs. C. O'Gorman, LISMORE

Very deep and sincere regret has been expressed by the death of Mrs. Catherine O'Gorman, which occurred after a rather brief illness at her residence, Main street, Lismore, on Tuesday 22nd February.

Deceased belonged to one of the best-known and most respected families in West Waterford—the Beresfords of Moomand, Dungarvan—and was wife of Mr. Patrick O'Gorman, one of the earliest Chairmen of the Waterford Co. Council, which was formed after the Local Government Act of 1898, and who was also Chairman for many years of the Lismore Board of Guardians, the Waterford Co. Board of Public Health, the Lismore Town Commissioners, and a prominent member of the old Lismore District Council and the Old Age Pension and Public Libraries' Committees, and who, in fact, filled every position of public trust in his native county for many years, and who is now one of the most popular and leading Licensed and General Traders in Lismore.

Deceased was mother of Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solicitor, and Mr. Cronan O'Gorman, a prominent member of the Lismore Town Commissioners, and was a lady of a most gentle and refined manner who was held in the highest esteem in Lismore.

Her death, after a brief illness, is now sincerely regretted by all, and the deep sympathy of the general public will be extended to the members of her respected family in their sad bereavement. A devout and most exemplary Catholic all her life, she died a most peaceful and happy death after she had received the last Sacraments of the Church from the Rev. Father Murphy, C.C., Lismore, who had been most attentive to her in his spiritual ministrations during the last stages of her illness.

On Wednesday evening week the remains were removed from her late residence to St. Carthage's Cathedral, Lismore, and were followed by an immense concourse of all the leading people in Lismore, Cappoquin, Dungarvan, Tallow, Ballyduff and other places in West Waterford, the general display of public sympathy being a striking and fitting tribute of respect to the memory of deceased.

The coffin was received by the Rev. Father Murphy, C.C., and on Thursday morning Solemn Requiem Mass was offered for the eternal repose of her soul before a very large congregation. The celebrant of the Mass was Rev. T. J. Murphy, C.C., Lismore, while the Very Rev. T. Fitzgerald, P.P., Cappoquin, presided over the ceremonies.

The other clergymen assisting were: Very Rev. John O'Shea, P.P., Ballyporeen; Very Rev. M. Morrissey, Adm., Knockanon; Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C., Cappoquin; Rev. Thos. O'Shea, C.C., Cloughan; Rev. Father Tobin, C.C., Lismore, and Rev. Jas. McCarthy, C.C., Ballyduff.

After the Solemn obsequies the interment took place in the family burial plot adjoining the Cathedral in the presence of a large gathering of mourning relatives and friends.

The last prayers were recited at the graveside by Rev. Father Murphy, C.C., Lismore, assisted by all the clergy who had officiated at the High Mass. The chief mourners included: J. W. O'Gorman, son, and Cronan O'Gorman, (sons), the Misses Joe, Peg and Kitty O'Gorman (daughters), Mrs. J. W. O'Gorman, Lismore, (daughter-in-law), Mrs. Mary Madden, South Mall, Miss K. O'Regan, do. John Madden, Churchtown, Buttavane, Co. Cork; Mrs. O'Gorman, Ballyn; Michael O'Gorman, do. Jehu O'Gorman, N.T., do. and Miss K. O'Gorman, T., do. Mrs. P. H. O'Gorman and Miss Maisie O'Gorman, Chapel street, Lismore, Mrs. T. Walsh, Tourin, Patrick and Miss Mary Frances Walsh, do. Eddie Beresford, Dungarvan, (Nephew); Miss Hannah Beresford, do. (niece); Michael McCarthy and Miss McCarthy, White Faults, Lismore; Mrs. J. Greene, Dungarvan, Michael Fives, Burgery, John Fives, Cappoquin; Mrs. J. J. Quailly, Dungarvan, Mrs. Margaret Rice, Aradon, Mrs. J. Power, Glountane, Lismore, Mrs. J. Burns, Moonamon, do.; Jack and Miss Madge Quirk, Mocollog; Patk. Prendergast, Carrignagour, Lismore, etc. (cousins and relatives).

Amongst the general public present, both at the removal of the remains and the interment, were: Mr. Commissioner Moylan, (Waterford Co. Council); Mr. J. H. O'Sullivan, Secretary, do. Dr. M. O'Farrell, County M.O.H.; Dr. J. J. Donnelly, Tuberculosis M.O., for County Waterford; Dr. D. Healy, M.O., Lismore; Dr. Wm. White, M.O., Cappoquin; J. C. Carey, Manager M. and L. Bank, Lismore; and staff: B. Arbhure, Manager National Bank, and staff, do.; C. P. Hynes, M.R.C.V.S., Lismore; and Mrs. L.L.B. O'Leary, do. C. Murray, Superior, Christian Brothers Collegiate College, Lismore; M. V. O'Donoghue, B.E., do.; M. O'Flynn, Secretary, Board of Health, Dungarvan; Mrs. Crooke, do.; John Murphy, do. Thos. EAST CORK JOTTINGS

Killeigh Races—The races this year were even more popular than ever before. The venue, so conveniently situated, is an ideal one, being well served by rail and omnibus services—of which the fullest advantage was taken at all centres. The attendance was the largest yet, and the day, though cold, was dry. From a racing point of view the course was very good, the galloping being over sound firm land. The fences, though stiff were safe. The committees worked very hard and got through the card in good time. There were five races, and except for the first, in which only three horses took part, there were plenty of runners. In all nearly forty entrants came under the starter's orders. The North Cork owners were very successful—four of the five events falling to them, three of the four winners being started by Mr. W. Tracey. The other, Mr. Moss Moore. Change of Luck being ridden by Mr. T. Barry. In the Open Farmers Race, Mr. Eddie O'Flynn, who rode nearly all the winners in Tallow a few weeks ago, rode a great race on Mr. Ray O'Brien's Last Rose. The Mackey Piper, nearly came to grief at the second last fence, but recovered and just beat Last Rose in the race home. All things considered the promoters of the meeting have every reason to be satisfied with their success, and there is no reason why from this onward the races would not be an annual event. There is plenty of young blood in the committee, and as there are not nearly enough sporting events of any kind locally, the work and labour entailed in the getting up of a successful Point-to-Point race meeting is the best outfit they could have for their enthusiasm.

No G.A.A. Matches For Cappoquin—

At the meeting of the West Waterford Divisional Board of the G.A.A., held in Dungarvan on Sunday week, the draws took place and fixtures were made for the various Hurling and Football matches in the first round of this year's Championships, but not a solitary fixture was made for Cappoquin. The Cappoquin Sportsfield would have been a splendid neutral venue for some of the matches fixed for other venues, and some of these matches would have been fixed for here, but owing to the sportsfield being no longer available to the local G.A.A., the Cappoquin delegates were powerless in the matter, and had to refuse all fixtures for Cappoquin, so the business people of the town can see what a big loss this will be for them this year. Can nothing be done by the Divisional Board to end this situation of affairs?

A Popular Visitor—

At the Cappoquin Race meeting we had the pleasure of meeting a popular and interesting visitor from New York in the person of Mr. Thos. O'Brien, who is home for a short holiday in the land of his birth. Mr. O'Brien is the youngest son of the late Mr. Michael O'Brien and Mrs. O'Brien, Graigue, Modeligo, and is brother of the late Mrs. Kathleen Foley, Youghal, whose recent death was so deeply regretted by all. He is the brother of the late Mr. Lar O'Brien, Clonca, who was such a leading and popular sportsman in the Dungarvan district for many years, and is closely connected with many of the oldest and most respected families in West Waterford. He went to the States in his youth, and has had an intellectual attainments and rare business ability enabled him to obtain a most lucrative position in the great city of New York, where thousands of our Irish exiles have won fame and fortune over a long number of years. As proof of his great success as an enterprising young business man, it may be stated that Mr. O'Brien is the proprietor of one of the leading Saloons in New York, where he is as popular with his fellow-Irish exiles as he is in this country.

He has paid periodical visits to the old country on several occasions within the past 10 or 12 years, and his old friends were delighted to see him looking the picture of health and prosperity, and they now join in the hope that he may have a most pleasant and enjoyable holiday in the County Waterford during his sojourn amongst us.

Transfer of Sergeant J. C. Dalton—

Following his recent marriage to Miss Annie Dempsey, N.T., Mount Mellery, Sergeant J. C. Dalton, G.S., has been transferred to Glenmore, Co. Kilkenny, and took his departure for his new station on Friday, 18th. He had been stationed in Cappoquin for over three years, and during this period he had always proved himself a most zealous and efficient Peace Officer, who, by his courteous and grand sociable disposition, was a great favourite with all who wished to keep "within the law" and he has now carried the best wishes of all for his future success in Glenmore. He has been replaced here by Sergeant Browne, Aradon, who comes with a fine record from that station, and who gives every promise of proving a worthy successor to Sgt. Dalton in every sense of the word.

A Great Whist Drive—

As briefly announced a fortnight ago, a Monster Whist Drive will be held in the Town Hall, Lismore, on next Sunday night, March 6th, under the auspices of the Joint Point-to-Point Committee recently formed between Tallow, Lismore and Cappoquin, and the West Waterford Hunt. The event being responsible for the organisation of the event being Miss Ann Hickman, M.F.H., Fortwilliam, Chairman of the Joint Committee; Messrs. George Heskin and Joseph O'Keefe, Tallow; C. P. Hynes, S.S., and John O'Donnell, Lismore; P. Walsh and M. J. Sargent, Cappoquin, and Miss Freda Keane, Belleville Park, and Mr. R. L. Keane, do. the latter two representing the West Waterford Hunt.

In the capable hands of such a representative and energetic Committee, it is safe to say that this grand social entertainment will be conducted in a manner which will guarantee a rare night's enjoyment for all.

A splendid collection of prizes of the most costly and useful nature has been generously presented to the Committee by the sporting ladies and gentlemen of the above three towns and the members of the West Waterford Hunt, and all of these will be given at Sunday night's Drive, so that this event should prove unusually attractive for all those taking part. As the main object of the Whist Drive is to raise funds for the Joint Committee in aid of next year's Point-to-Point fixtures in West Waterford, no sporting lady or gentleman in the Hunting Area should fail to support it, especially as the arrangements will be under the direct control of Miss A. Hickman, Chairman, Mrs. John O'Donnell, Lismore, Treasurer, and Mr. M. J. Sargent, Cappoquin, Hon. Sec., who may be depended on to provide the maximum amount of comfort and enjoyment for their patrons from all parts of West Waterford. Tickets are only 2/6 each, and the Whist Drive starts punctually at 8.30, so that intending players are requested to be in their proper places at their respective tables by that hour.

Mount Mellery's New Public Church

A Grand Drawing of Prizes in aid of Mount Mellery's New Public Church, which will incorporate St. Philomena's Shrine, will be held at Mount Mellery on Sunday, September 25th, for which a number of magnificent prizes are being offered. As it may be suggested that this event is too far off to write about now, it should be explained that the object in now mentioning the matter is to call attention to the fact that books of tickets are already on sale, and those wishing to help the good work in the meantime, can now obtain any number of such books from Mr. M. J. Sargent, Hon. Sec., Building Fund, Main Street, Cappoquin. The tickets are only 6d. each, and will entitle the purchaser to participate in the Grand Drawing for the following valuable prizes: (1) £30; (2) Silver Tea set; (3) Splendid Coloured Engraving of the Crucifixion; (4) Case of Cutlery; (5) Chromium Coal Stove; (6) Silver Fruit Stand; (7) Books, value £3 3s. od.; (8) Tiled Hearth and Kerb; (9) Ladies or Girls Bicycle; (10) Splendid Clock; (11) Beautiful Down Quilt; (12) Side of Cappoquin Bannock.

There will be a special Free Drawing for Ticket-Sellers on the same date (25th Sept.), which will entitle the winner to a Cash Prize of £5 and a week's stay at Mount Mellery, so we hope there will be a big demand for tickets for this sacred and worthy object, apart altogether from the intrinsic value of the many attractive prizes offered.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

After The Races—The Cappoquin presented such a congested and animated appearance as it did on Thursday night, 17th inst., after the Races. Undoubtedly, the huge attendance on the racetrack during the day beat all previous records, but in previous years the crowd usually dispersed within a few hours after the last event, and matters were almost back to normal about 9 or 10 o'clock each night. But the intense cold experienced on Thursday had, probably, much to do in keeping the people in town longer than usual this year, and the various Hotels and public houses enjoyed one of the busiest nights known for years. In view of the brisk business done on all sides, it will be useless for any town trader to say in future that the annual Point-to-Point Races are no good for the town, for Thursday night's experience easily belies this, so we hope nobody will put forward this flimsy excuse as a reason for not subscribing to the Race Fund in future years. In spite of the large crowds present, it is very gratifying to be able to state that no outstanding scenes of disorder were witnessed. Many of those who had been present at the races remained over for the Rowing Club Dance held in the Boathouse Hall, on that night. The event proved most orderly and enjoyable, and the catering arrangements were splendidly carried out by Mrs. J. Collins, Cappoquin, who is now proving an adept in this important and responsible capacity.

The Value of Advertising—

Most promoters of public functions nowadays firmly believe in the value of properly advertising such events, and those who adopt the "Penny-Wise Pound-Foolish" policy frequently set themselves on their own petard. We have had a striking case of this here recently when the promoters of a certain event, probably in the interests of "economy," thought of eight or ten announcements to a few posters here and there throughout the town which many persons from the country districts never saw nor read.

Sang His Last "Lullaby"—

While out at exercise on last Sunday at Lismore, Lord Charles Cavendish's valuable hunter, "Lullaby," suddenly collapsed and died, but before he died he had caused any injury to the man in charge.

In the Confined Maiden Hunt Race in Tallow over a month ago, "Lullaby" showed great promise as a fast hunter by finishing third in a field of eight runners, and he showed still better form by finishing second in the same class of race in Cappoquin a fortnight later when he was only beaten for first place by "Last Rose" by the narrow margin of three lengths.

He was expected to do still better at the Lismore Point-to-Point Races on Wednesday and his death has proved a great loss to Lord Charles, who is one of the most popular sportsmen in Munster.

CORK'S £300,000 HOSPITAL

SITE AT £185 AN ACRE

The Department has informed the South Cork Board of Assistance that they have sanctioned the proposal to purchase a 31-acre site for the £300,000 central hospital for Cork at £185 an acre, but they suggested that an adjoining supplementary site of 34 acres, for which the owner wanted £800, might be secured cheaper. Mr. O'Flynn, B.E., architect, said that the small site was valuable as a building one, and the price was reasonable. It was decided to so inform the Department.

WOOL BALL

Cured for 3d. per lamb. Mr. D. J. Kelly, Thos. J. Dyarr, Ballynabrack, has a fine lot of wool balls. DUREX was the ONLY ONE that cured wool balls. My lambs were cured rapidly until I started using DUREX. I have proved it to be the best possible remedy for wool balls. We did not ask our sheep for this last year.

Galves sick with Scour or Curd are quickly cured by DUREX.

Officially approved by Dept. of Agriculture. DUREX

KILMACTHOMAS NEWS

Hymeneal Chimes—The worthy members of two well and popularly known families of the historic parish of Kiltrossanty, were joined in the Sacred bonds of matrimony at St. Brigid's Church there on Wednesday February 23, the contracting parties being Mr. James Curran (son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Curran, Robertstown), and Miss Hannah Riordan (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Riordan, Curraheen). The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass was performed by Fr. Crotty, P.P. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Bridget Riordan, as bridesmaid, and the best man was Mr. Martin Curran, brother of the bridegroom. In extending cordial congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Curran, we unite with their troops and legions of friends on all sides in wishing them length of years in the fullest enjoyment of the graces and blessings of conjugal bliss.

An Omission—

From our report of the Faha Gaelic Football Club's delightful concert at Ocean View Hotel Hall, Clonca, we inadvertently omitted mentioning the following-named quartette of gay, graceful and gifted young Dungarvan ladies, who danced reels, doubles and hornpipes to the proverbial veins of nicety, which gained them the unstinted plaudits of the capacity house on the occasion—the Misses M. Walsh, P. O'Donnell, Ita Power and Terry Hearne.

Widespread Sympathy—

Is felt with most estimable Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Dwyer, Carrick-on-Suir, on the death (following a short illness) of their bright and beautiful 8-years-old daughter, Eileen, whose funeral to the family plot in Kiltrossanty Churchyard on Thursday of this week, was exceedingly large and representative.

Presentation To Popular Bank Official—

As stated here last week, Mr. Richard Goode, cashier, Provincial Bank, has retired after forty years service, the last fourteen of which he was attached to the Kilmacthomas branch of that bank. On Monday night last Mr. Goode was presented with a solid silver cigarette case, suitably inscribed—the gift of a number of intimate local friends, and in which were present at the function at Mr. J. Kent's residence.

Addressing Mr. Goode, he said:—

Actuated by a deep sense of appreciation of your amiability and suavity of disposition, we have come here tonight to bid you farewell, Mr. Goode. You never made an enemy or lost a friend in Kilmacthomas. No words can adequately convey the disappointment which we feel on the loss of such a true friend and genial and self-sacrificing companion. We know you to be a sportsman of the first water, and we much appreciate the deep interest you displayed in the social functions of the local Dramatic Club. The many friends who have made here and in other parts of Ireland, are but an indication of your winning manner. As a small token of our esteem, as well as a keen sense of regret at your departure, we desire your acceptance of this small presentation coupled with our heart-felt wishes for an evening of life replete with happiness and contentment, and the fullest enjoyment of your merited reward for the forty years service rendered to the Provincial Bank.

Messrs. John Kent and Thomas King very cordially associated themselves with the remarks of Mr. Kirwan.

In his reply, Mr. Goode spoke of his gratified surprise at the honour which had been paid him, and thanked them all for the kindly thought which had prompted the giving of their valuable presentation. He never, he said, expected any recognition for whatever part he had taken in past fourteen years. He had experienced nothing but kindness from the very first day he came to Kilmacthomas; the names of all of his friends there are engraved in his heart, and he earnestly wished the best of the best to one and all. He again very sincerely thanked them, both individually and collectively, for their very valuable gift.

An enjoyable social followed, to which many of those present contributed songs and recitations.

Obituary—

Fortified by the rites of Holy Church, Mrs. Ellen Nugent, Benvoy, Anestown, passed away to her eternal reward this week, after a protracted illness and in her 74th year. A fine type of Irishwoman of her generation, she was of a markedly gentle and lovable disposition, kindly and generous, and true to the core. Peers to her soul.

WARBLE FLY (TREATMENT OF CATTLE) ORDER, 1938

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

That the above Order as amended by the Warble Fly (Treatment of Cattle) (Amendment) Order, 1936, requires that all Cattle infested with the Larvae of the Warble Fly shall be dressed with Cattle Wash made from a Preparation approved by the Minister for Agriculture between the 1st and 7th days (both days inclusive) of each of the months of March, April, May, June and July.

The Cattle Wash must be applied by the owner or person in charge of the cattle in such manner that it will come into contact with the Larvae through the Warble swellings in the skin of the Cattle.

No method of treatment for Warble Infestation other than the foregoing is permissible for the purposes of the Order.

Supplies of the Preparations for making Cattle Wash are required to be sold in sealed packages bearing a printed indication of the Minister's approval.

Owners of Cattle should note that it is not necessary for the Inspectors appointed under the Order to be present at the time of dressing.

Offences against the Order and Penalties under the Diseases of Animals Acts.

Apart from the Penalties involved by non-compliance with the Order, it is essential that Stock-Owners should, in their own interests, and in the interests of the Cattle Trade generally, comply fully with the requirements of the Order.

It is only by the concerted action and co-operation of all Cattle-owners that success in eradicating the Warble pest within a reasonable time can be attained and the loss prevented which at present has to be borne mainly by the owners themselves.

The Order is enforced by the County Council, who have appointed Inspectors to supervise its working and to advise stock-owners thereon. Any information required in connection with the operation of the Order can be obtained from these Inspectors or from the undersigned:

By Order,
M. A. FOLEY,
Clerk to the Local Authority under the Diseases of Animals Acts for the County of Waterford.

SUCCESSFUL SALE.—Messrs. Quailly Ballot and Co., Auctioneers, held a most successful sale at Lickoran, Ballinamult, on Thursday, February 24th, when they put up for auction for the personal Representatives of Alice O'Keefe, a farm of 76 acres, which they disposed of at a good figure. DUNGARVAN BOXERS ON TOP.—We offer hearty congratulations to the three boxers who represented Dungarvan at the Tramore Tournament on Thursday night, February 24th, viz., Matty Barry (Middle) E. Power (Light-Heavy); J. M. Street (Light Weight). The tournament organised by the Tramore B.C., embraced thirteen contests, and a packed house witnessed some excellent sport. The displays given by the three Dungarvan men were excellent. They worthily upheld the prestige of the Old Boro' for which they deserve to be warmly congratulated, considering that they have got no proper training quarters, and lack many of the facilities enjoyed by other boxing clubs in the County and City.

SUCCESSFUL CEILIDH.—Two most successful Ceilidhe were held in the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on Tuesday last. The first session—4 p.m. to 8 p.m. was for school children. A crowded house thoroughly enjoyed the superb dancing of the children, and the sweet and harmonised Gaelic Singing of the Mercy Convent School Choir, who opened the proceedings. The second session—8 p.m. to 12 midnight, was also afforded a big measure of support. The pupils of the Dungarvan Technical School received well-merited praise for their successful production of the Irish Play "An Sgoilaircaicht."

The whole proceedings redounded to the credit of the popular Dance Instructors, Mrs. Hallahan, who organised the gala event. LATE MR. LAURENCE REGAN.—The death is deeply regretted by a wide circle of friends of Mr. Laurence Regan, who answered the Great Call on Wednesday morning last, after a short illness. Deceased who had reached a fine age, was a member of the R.I.C., and was for the greater part of his term in that force stationed in Dungarvan, where he proved himself an efficient and impartial Peace Officer. He was a general favourite with all sections of the community. He reared a large and most respected family, who now have the sincere sympathy of the public in their bereavement. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Thursday evening, and were followed by an imposing cortege. The burial takes place today (Friday) after Requiem Mass.—R.I.P.

SCOUTS ENTERTAINMENT.—The Entertainment given in the Scouts Den, by the Abbotside Troop of Catholic Boy Scouts on Sunday afternoon and night on Tuesday night last, attracted aged houses on both occasions, and the large audiences present at both were loud in their praise of the splendid treat of Songs, Choruses and Sketches. For a full two hours and a half a more enjoyable programme could not have been prepared and the boys one and all brought forth rounds of applause for their individual and collective items. We had Sea Shanties, Hilly Billies and Camp-Fire songs, and a sketch entitled: "A Quiet Morning," in which the characters displayed great talent. It was altogether a great night's entertainment and the Scoutmaster, Mr. Liam F. Lanigan, with his Assistant Scoutmaster, Mr. P. J. Nagle, and the patrol leaders are all to be congratulated on the splendid success of their efforts. Rev. M. Power, C.C., Troop Chaplain, thanked the audience for their attendance in such large numbers and said he was delighted to see such a happy gathering all enjoying the concert performed by the boys themselves. He thanked the Scoutmaster, Mr. Liam F. Lanigan, the Assistant Scoutmaster, the Patrol Leaders and all who had in any way helped to make the concert such a great success.

NEW SCHOOL BLESSED.—The newly-erected school at Newtown, Kilmacthomas, was solemnly blessed by Very Rev. Fr. Galvin, P.P., on Thursday morning at 9.30 a.m. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was offered in the school which was attended by practically the entire population of the Parish.

JUDGE'S COMMENT ON ALL-IN WRESTLING "An Animal Contest" Mr. Philip Meador, of Angell Road, Brixton, an all-in wrestler referee, was awarded £50 damages in the King's Bench Division, London, against Reginsky, of Whitehall street, London, a heavyweight wrestler, for assault. Mr. Meador's case was that after he had disqualified Reginsky for kicking his opponent, Joe Devalto, in a contest at Paddington last October, Reginsky assaulted him in the dressingroom. He received a violent blow in the face. His lip was cut, necessitating two or three stitches, and all his teeth loosened. Mr. Alban Gordon, for the referee, said that the assault was admitted, but Reginsky pleaded great provocation, saying that Mr. Meador had disqualified him without just cause. It appeared continued counsel, that Reginsky was saying that if a contestant was disqualified with the referee's ruling he was entitled to assault him. Mr. Justice Charles—He can go and give him a good hiding. His Lordship laughed heartily when he perused book of all-in wrestling rules handed him during Mr. Meador's evidence. "I see," he observed, "that you may not break a limb deliberately. Gouging, scratching, biting, ear pulling, and hair plucking are not allowed. I am surprised."

Then I see, continued the Judge, "that you must not throw your opponent out of the ring without touching the ropes. I suppose you may leave him right over if he touches the ropes." His Lordship also quoted from the rules that "seconds are not allowed to use cocaine or strychnine."

Mr. Meador, in his evidence, said that the match between Reginsky and Devalto, on Thursday morning at 9.30 a.m., at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was offered in the school which was attended by practically the entire population of the Parish. Death of Rev. Fr. John Lynch, C.C., Ballybricken

With the deepest regret we chronicle the death of Rev. John Lynch, C.C., Ballybricken, which took place at Maypark Nursing Home, Waterford, on Sunday evening last in the thirty-seventh year of his life and the thirteenth year of his sacred calling.

Up to about five weeks ago (the late Fr. Lynch, a perfect specimen of Irish manhood looked in the best of health and was able to attend to his priestly duties as usual, but was then stricken with a serious illness which necessitated his removal to Maypark Nursing Home, where despite the best medical skill and nursing he passed peacefully away on Sunday last fortified by the rites of Holy Church in whose service he had laboured with such zeal and untiring devotion.

Deceased was son of the late Mr. Lynch and Mrs. Lynch, Rathmore, Powers-town, Clonmel. He received his early education at the Christian Brothers High School, Clonmel, later going to St. John's College, Waterford, and the Irish College, Paris, where in 1924 he was ordained. He was then appointed temporary curate to the Scottish mission and ministered for a time in Glasgow, being later appointed curate at Kilgobinet. Here he laboured fruitfully for seven years, when he was transferred to Ballybricken. During his association with Kilgobinet, the late Fr. Lynch endeared himself to all with whom he came in contact, whether in the ministrations of his priestly duties, or in the development and promotion of Gaelic games and pastimes of which he was such a staunch supporter. After his translation to the city in recognition of his services to the G.A.A., Gaelic League, etc., he was appointed President of the Erin's Own Hurling and Football Club, a position which he filled up to the time of his regretted death.

The late Fr. Lynch was a nephew of Very Rev. John Gleeson, P.P., Aghlish, to whom, as well as to the other members of his family we join in tendering deepest sympathy.

Funeral Tribute

An impressive tribute to his memory as a popular young priest and Gael was paid when the funeral took place to Rathmore Cemetery, Powers-town, Clonmel. From the four corners of the diocese and from practically the entire Munster province, clergy and laity attended in large numbers.

Preceding the remains as they were removed from Maypark to Ballybricken Church was Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, Bishop of Waterford, and over 50 members of the diocesan clergy. A guard of honour was formed by members of Erin's Own Hurling and Football Clubs, of which the late Father Lynch was president of St. Joseph's Boys' Club, which was Spiritual Director, and of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Only a very small proportion of sympathisers could be accommodated in the church.

Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, presided at the Office and Solemn Requiem Mass. The celebrant of the Mass was Rev. P. Dowry, chaplain, Little Sisters of the Poor, Waterford; deacon, Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C., St. John's Waterford; sub-deacon, Rev. M. Condon, C.C., Dunmore East; master of ceremonies, Rev. J. Ahearne, C.C., Ballybricken.

The chanters were Rev. T. Smyth, C.C., St. Mary's, Clonmel, and Rev. P. Power, St. John's College, Waterford. His Lordship was assisted at the throne by Ven. Archdeacon Kelleher, P.P., V.F., Ballybricken, and Very Rev. E. Canon Prendergast, P.P., V.F., Carrick-on-Suir.

In the choir were:—

DEATH OF EAST CORK REPUBLICAN

East Cork has suffered a great loss by the death of Mr. Maurice Lynch, of Shanakiel, Ballymacoda. Since his early youth, he was an outstanding figure in the Republican movement, having been associated with the Land League and evicted from his homestead, and undergoing a term of imprisonment during the coercion regime on the Ponsonby Estate. At the inception of the Sinn Fein Movement, he was untiring in his efforts, being closely associated with the late Mr. David Kent, with whom he stood on many a platform throughout East Cork in the dark days from 1915 until 1926. During the Anglo-Irish War, when it was not safe for prominent members of the I.R.A. to remain in their own homes during the Black and Tan terror, they always found refuge in Mr. Lynch's home. As a result of his activities he was ordered by the British Authorities to close down his home and leave East Cork, but through the strategy of the I.R.A. who issued similar orders immediately to prominent loyalists in East Cork, the British Government was compelled to abandon its tactics. Several raids were made on his home, the Authorities being aware that the I.R.A. were sheltered there, and on several occasions they threatened to shoot him, as they wanted men who were managed to escape. After the signing of the Treaty, he consistently maintained that the Republican Party was right in opposing it, and he again prominently identified himself with the Republican Army, with which he was associated to the end. In his early days he was prominent in the Gaelic field, being an all round sportsman and supporter of all Irish Ireland organisations. He was a capable and successful farmer, kind and gentle in his disposition, ever ready to assist his neighbours in their difficulties and troubles. After a long and painful illness borne with Christian fortitude and patience, he passed peacefully away on Thursday morning February 24th.

The funeral from Ballymacoda Church to Killeagh on Saturday was one of the largest and representative witnessed in East Cork for many years. The coffin which was draped in the tri-colour was borne on the shoulders of representatives of all National Organisations, for nearly a mile from Ballymacoda Church accompanied by a Guard of Honour of Republican comrades.

The officiating clergy were—Very Rev. Fr. Browne, P.P., Ladsbridge; Rev. Fr. Sheehan, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Aherne, C.C., Ballymacoda.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. E. Lynch (widow); Miss E. Lynch, Mrs. Hodnett, Mrs. O'Connell (daughters); Mr. Michael Lynch (brother); Mrs. Blake (sister); Rev. Brother Joseph Murray, C. B. Clonmel, (cousin).

Business Suspended

Rev. M. J. Phelan, C.C., Ballybricken, assisted by members of the Men's Sacred Heart Confraternity, supervised the stewarding arrangements. Throughout Ballybricken Parish, window blinds were drawn and business premises remained closed during the funeral.

Immediately behind the chief mourners were members of the Erin's Own Hurling and Football Clubs, and Mr. J. Aylward (Mayor), Chief Supt. Duffy and Supt. J. McKenna with a large force of Garda. There came pupils of the parish schools, parish confraternities, Catholic Girl Guides, President and members of the Council of St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Chief mourners were—Mrs. Lynch (mother); Mr. Michael Lynch (brother); Mrs. Hunt, Lisronagh, and Mrs. Foley, Shanavine (sisters); Very Rev. J. Gleeson, P.P., Aghlish (uncle); Mr. Foley and Mr. J. Hunt (brothers-in-law).

Amongst the wreaths was one, "In memory of our beloved President," from Erin's Own Hurling and Football Clubs, and another from the women workers in Messrs. H. Denny and Sons' bacon factory.

LISMORE NOTES.

Death of Miss Sheila Courtney, Deepark, Lismore.

It is with deep regret we chronicle the death of Miss Sheila Courtney, daughter of the late John Courtney, Killarney, and Mrs. J. Courtney, Deepark, Lismore, who passed away on Monday February 22nd after a prolonged illness and fortified by the rites of the Holy Church.

Though retiring by nature, the late Miss Courtney though in her early twenties had made a host of friends for herself through her kind and gentle ways, which won her the esteem of all.

The remains were removed from her late residence to St. Carthage's Cathedral, Lismore, on Tuesday evening and were followed by a large and representative cortege.

The funeral to the Council cemetery bore ample evidence to the popularity of the deceased, as it was one of the largest ever seen in Lismore.

Rev. T. Murphy, C.C., Lismore, officiated at the graveside.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. Julia J. Courtney (mother); Donald Courtney, John Courtney (brothers); Miss Mary Courtney (sister); Matthew Courtney, Patrick Courtney (uncles); Mrs. James White, and Mrs. John Murphy, Killarney, Nora Courtney, Mrs. Cremin, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Fitzgerald, U.S.A. Lismore Sports Committee Club Dance

The dance held at the Town Hall, on Sunday night under the above auspices eclipsed all previous dances held in Lismore for some time. Early in the evening rain began to fall heavily, and it was thought that the dance would not reach expectations, but the night cleared up fine and before 10 o'clock the hall was filled to its utmost capacity.

It being the last dance of the season before Lent, contingents arrived from Fermoy, Kilworth, Mitchelstown, Youghal, Ballyduff, Tallow, Cappoquin, Knockanore and Lismore, and dancing to the strains of the Lismore Nightingale Orchestra, made a real pleasure for all present.

The catering and general arrangements reflected great credit on the committee in charge and everything was carried out without a hitch in spite of the unusual large attendance.

Dancing continued with full zest until 3 a.m., when all left the hall to bid it farewell until the autumn resumption.

Lismore Town Committee.

At a special meeting of the above a vote of sympathy was passed to Mr. Patrick O'Gorman, Mr. J. O'Gorman, solr., and Mr. C. O'Gorman, L.T.C., on their recent sad bereavement.

Proposed by T. Crofty, and seconded by Seamus Grady.

Mr. D. Lawton, Town Clerk associated himself with the resolution.

DEATH OF EAST CORK REPUBLICAN

MARYANNE

Recently a love sick swain in the district penned and posted to his lady love the following verses. He has been lying siege to her heart for some time back, and has conducted a most vigorous campaign to advance his cause. Her father has, however, opposed the suit, and his obstinacy has, so far, proved an unsurmountable obstacle. As I have said the unfortunately they fell into her father's hands and he at once handed them over to the "Observer" correspondent with the remark: "Do what you like with them." I saw to it that they reached the young lady safely, and she was so pleased and gratified that she had them published. You see she believes they are entirely his own composition, but of this I have my doubts. We give them with some slight alterations so that the parties concerned would be located.

Wish Maryanne, my honey, sure 'tis not your land or money,
But your beauty bright that won me an' that set my heart aflame.
'Tis your eyes that work the charm an' that cause me such alarm,
I'm afraid they'll do me harm but I love you just the same.

But your father is so crusty with his money getting mussy,
I'm afraid he wouldn't trust me with his daughter's lovely hand.
He'd despise an honest neighbour, who was living by his labour,
An' I'll never gain his favour when I haven't any land.

An' 'tis only by his treasure that he takes a suitor's measure,
'Tis his folly an' his pleasure his few acres to behold.
But, Alanna, he's mistaken, for the love that you awaken,
Will forever be unshaken an' 'tis better than his gold.

With a load of trouble lately in my mind I suffer greatly,
An' I'm down and out completely an' a heartbroken young man.
The other day Agra Mo Astoreen, when he caught me in the boreen,
"Och," says he, "you Anglishreen, don't be watching Maryanne."

Tis a bad complaint that caught me

When young Cupid's arrow got me,
Through the simple heart he shot when I looked into your eyes.
Ah he pierced it, and he cracked it, an'
'twill never be extracted,
Till our marriage is contracted an' I'll carry off the prize.

So we'll put our heads together an' I'll never give a feather,

If you'll face it with me whether he'll adopt me like a man,
So then love no longer tarry, an' in spite of him we'll marry,
An' in triumph of I'll carry my own
