dedicated to SS. John and Patrick. It still has a debt of £2,900; it will not be God's house till that debt has been paid. A Catholic School is a crying need. I have no house. I need your help and your prayers. Will you help and your prayers. Will you help me? Surely we, your exiled priests and people, must have some claim on you at home, where you rejoice in the full enjoyment of your Catholic inheritance.

Do not be indifferent. Write to me now. Do not leave it to others to do so. Help in any form will be most welcome. In return, you will share in the Sunday Mass which we offer for benefactors, as well as in the other ninety Masses which are offered in Novenas yearly. Saint Patrick will not fail to bless with a great blessing those who help me in the task which I have inherited from him, and undertaken in his name.

What About Our Band?

What About Our Band?

It is so many years now since the people of Cappoquin heard a tune, either in public or private, from our once-farmeous Brass and Reed Band that some of the younger generation now growing upcannot remember that we ever had a Band here.

In the old days it was a rare treat to heart this fine Band giving high-class profor its musical tastes, and thus restore to us some of the pristine glories of "The Old Cornerstone."
