PRESIDENT INSTALLED

Historic Ceremony At The Castle STATE POMP OF INSTALLATION GAR-LANDED CITY

WITH fitting ceremonial, and in the presence of a distinguished gathering, Dr. Douglas Hyde, was installed as first President of Ireland in St. Patrick's Hall, Dublin Castle, on Saturday.

The people of Dublin gave him a tumultuous welcome as, at the conclusion of the Castle ceremony, he drove through beflagged streets to his official residence in the Phoenix Park.

A worthy conclusion to an historic day was the receipt on given by An Taoiseach (Mr. de Valera) in St. Patrick's Hall on Saturday night, at which over 1,000 guests, representative of every section of Irish life, attended.

The famous Hall was wonderfully decorated with flowers and flags. The purple robes of the Papal Nuncio and members of the Hierarchy, the brilliant uniforms of some of the male guests, and the gowns of the ladies all combined to make the scene brilliant and colourful.

For the installation ceremony Dr. Hyde, in full morning dress, left Arus an Uachtaran—formerly the Viceregal Lodge—at 12.30, and preceded by a Garda motor-cycle patrol, drove to the Castle in company with the bewigged and gowned Chief Justice Sullivan and his aides-de-camp, Capt. Butler and Lieut. Peterson.

Crowds cheered them as the car went quickly down the quays and via Parliament Street to the Castle.

From numerous buildings flew the Tricolour, and in many cases house flags. Dublin Corporation had erected flagpoles along the route. Ships in port flew flags and busting, and all along the County Dublin coast similar dressing was in evidence.

Amid the lofty cream-and-gold pillars of St. Patrick's Hall, Dr. Hyde was awaited by An Taoiseach and his Ministers; the members of the Presidential Commission which has been acting since and will now give way to the Council of the new Constitution came into operation; Mr. W. T. Cosgrave, leader of the Opposition, and other deputies; the Senators; the Diplomatic Corps; representatives of all the churches; of the Law, learned societies, public bodies, the National Army, the Garda Síochána, and the Civil Service.

In a prominent seat, too, was Donal O'Busaí, last Governor-General of the Saorstát.

PLEASANT FEATURE

A pleasant and significant feature was the friendliness with which the members of all the different churches, political parties, and institutions fraternised, while they awaited Dr. Hyde's arrival—realisation already of the hope, that the non-party President will bring a new unity between elements which have long been discordant.

About 12.45 p.m. a fanfare of trumpets from the Musicians' Gallery, where was the No. 1 Army Band, under Lieut. J. M. Doyle, announced the arrival of the President-elect.

Escorted by the Chief Justice, by An Taoiseach, and by his aides-de-camp, Dr. Hyde went to the dais. There he was greeted by the Taoiseach, who spoke a few words in Irish, and then the President-elect made his declaration. Speaking in Irish he said firmly and strongly:—

"In the presence of Almighty God, I, Douglas Hyde, do solemnly and sincerely promise and declare that I will maintain the Constitution of Ireland and uphold its laws, that I will fulfill my duties faithfully and conscientiously in accordance with the Constitution and the law, and that I will dedicate my abilities to the service and welfare of the people of Ireland. May God direct and sustain me."

He then received the Great Seal from the Chief Justice and was saluted by Mr. de Valera in an address.

THE GENERAL SALUTE

Again the silver-tongued trumpets rang out, and the playing of the National Anthem brought all to their feet. The fifteen-minute ceremony had concluded and the Uachtaran left the Chamber amidst loud applause.

In the courtyard outside a guard of honour of the First Irish-speaking Battalion was drawn up, facing a cavalry escort dressed in ceremonial uniforms, and as the Uachtaran emerged he was accorded the General Salute by the guard of honour.

A salute of twenty-one guns, fired at half-minute intervals, at the Esplanade, Collins Barracks, began also to boom over the city.

Having inspected the guard of honour, His Excellency entered his car, the Chief Justice taking a seat beside him, and proceeded on the return journey to Arus an Uachtaran. The following car contained An Taoiseach and Capt. Sean Brennan, A.D.C., and then came members of the Presidential Commission, the Council of State, and other participants in the ceremonies.

The crowds on the pavements, walks, windows, and rooftops all along the procession route had followed in silence the account of the ceremonies broadcast to them by Radio Eiréann through loud speakers at many vantage points.

As the procession passed, the streets echoed with the cheers and applause on every side.

Dr. Hyde smiled at the crowds, and acknowledged the ovation.

From about 1 p.m. all traffic had been suspended, and troops lined both sides of the route through principal thoroughfares.

On the Pillar, in windows, balconies, and every available vantage-point, people stood waving hands and handkerchiefs and cheering enthusiastically.

The roofs of cabs, taxis and private cars were used by many people to improve their view as the procession passed. At the G.P.O. the procession halted, and with bared heads the President and other dignitaries remembered the men of 1916 by a short tribute of silence.

Cheers broke out again as the procession moved on. In Phoenix Park hundreds of people awaited the return of the President. Cheer after cheer was raised.

OVER 1,000 GUESTS AT THE RECEPTION

A BRILLIANT SPECTACLE

Members of the Diplomatic Corps, headed by the Apostolic Nuncio (Most Rev. Dr. Pascal Robinson), the Judiciary, the Senate, the Dail, and representatives of the agricultural and business life of the country attended the reception in St. Patrick's Hall on Saturday night.

The guests were received by An Taoiseach and Mrs. de Valera.

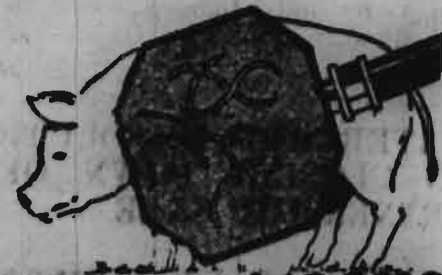

At 10 p.m. the President, Dr. Douglas Hyde, arrived, accompanied by his aides-de-camp, Capt. Butler and Lieut. Peterson.

He was welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. de Valera, while No. 1 Army Band played the National Anthem.

The guests, as they arrived moved up the grand staircase, which was lined on either side by soldiers in full dress uniform with drawn swords.

Large crowds congregated along Dame street, and outside the Castle to watch the arrival of the guests.

Members of all political parties were present. The Lord Mayor of Dublin, wearing his Papal decoration, arrived shortly before 11 p.m.

Fattening Worms instead of PIGS?

Mr. J. J. Croft, Longhans, Castleberry, writes: "I had 11 pigs, and although I gave them the best feeding their condition became worse; one died and five another. On opening the second I found a handful of worms. As the remaining pigs I gave a couple of doses of Porkatine Pig Powders and they all passed worms. Immediately there was an improvement in their appearance, and after a few more doses of Porkatine all the pigs were in splendid condition. I am particularly pleased to state that the worms were not seen again."

IRISH CONCERT AT KILBRIEN

On Sunday evening last a very enjoyable Irish Concert was held at Kilbrien. Although the weather was not all that could be desired, the day kept up well under threatening skies and did not mar the proceedings.

An elaborate programme was presented to a crowded audience, which included no less than 50 items and the rounds of applause that greeted each item was sufficient testimony of the appreciation of the audience.

All the artistes were veritable stars in their several departments, and both vocally and instrumentally, as well as in the pursuit of the light fantastic, the performances were the best. The arrangements were perfect, and the day's proceedings passed off in full harmony.

Mr. Kiely acted in the capacity of a stage manager, and kept things moving with a swing that not a dull moment was felt.

All the step dancers were pupils of the well-known Irish dance teacher—Mrs. Mallinan and on Sunday's performance showed the great pains their expert instructor had taken with them in imparting her knowledge of this art.

The feature of the evening was a humorous sketch by the Dungarvan Technical School girls, which proved to be a side-splitting performance from start to finish, and their efforts met with the appreciation they deserved.

The concert began at 2 p.m. (old time) and the enclosure while it lasted was packed with an enthusiastic audience.

CAPPOQUIN DISTRICT COURT

CASE WITHDRAWN

When the adjourned case at Superintendent Quinlan, against a young man named O'Connor, for having in danger of a push bicycle was called on. The Supt. said as the defendant now gone to England he should have the case withdrawn, and it accordingly struck out.

Excessive Charge For Bread—Guard Thorne, Cappoquin, Cappoquin traders summoned for charged an excessive price for bread on their premises.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solr., van, appeared for the prosecutor Messrs. T. G. Williams, solr., van, and A. R. Farrell, solr., appeared for two of the defendants maintaining eight conducting their fence.

Mr. Ryan said in those cases defendants had been buying buns sent out in vans by bakers in Dun and elsewhere, and the present case brought under The Control of Prices Order under which the price of 4-lb. loaf of batch bread had been fixed by the Minister for Industry and Commerce at 1/-, and the offences were committed by the defendants 1/10th for the 4-lb. loaf, which in excess of the price fixed by the Minister in accordance with the fixed flour per sack at the time.

He said that some prosecutions recently brought against a number of wholesale bakers in Dungarvan under same headings, when fines were imposed but owing to the small amount charged by the present defendants was not pressing for a heavy penalty the present cases were brought on less as a warning that the prices the Minister could not be exceeded by 10%, and as bread was the staple of most of the poorer classes, it was a great hardship on them to be called upon to pay more than the legal or standard price for it.

Messrs. Williams and Farrell, on behalf of their clients, said that the keepers had to pay 1/- old per 4 lbs. to the vans, and they retailed it at the same price, and without making profit on it, as they received a 1/- on the amount sold at the end of the month, so there could be no question of profiteering in their cases.

The other eight defendants made similar explanations, and the Just as these were the first cases of the kind to be brought before him he would lightly fee in the defendants this time let them off with a fine of 1/- each he should impose heavier fines similar cases again came before him.

An Unlicensed Stallion—The Minister for Lands and Agriculture prosecuted Thomas Keniry, Carrowgarrive, Cappagh, for an unlicensed stallion in his possession.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solr., appeared for the defendant. The animal licensed in 1936, but had not taken out any for 1937, and it was in respect of that year that the prosecution was brought.

Defendant now asked to have adjourned, as he was in correspondence with the Department on the matter. Mr. Ryan said that further adjournment would not help defendant in any way.

He thought it right, however, that Mr. Keniry had sent on a certificate fee in the usual way, but was a further fee of £3 demanded was over this the dispute had arisen between them.

As defendant had since paid amount, he would not now propose heavy penalty, and the Justice imposed a fine of 10/- without costs.

Burning of Mountain—The Attorney-General, at the Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, sued John Griffin, for having set fire to a quantity of gorse on Griffiths' moor beyond Mellary, without having the Guards.

The Supt. said that an area of 50 acres was destroyed on the 6th of May this was a serious loss of the moor. Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dun who defended, said his client had intended to burn only a small portion of gorse in order to cut some turf, flames were fanned by the wind, fire proved more extensive than intended it to be, so under the circumstances he asked that only a light imposition be made.

The defendant was let off with a fine of 5/-.

Unlicensed Dogs—Guard Boyle, summoned at John geard, for having an unlicensed dog as the licence had since been taken the Justice marked the case drawn.

Guard Boyle, v. Michael Hall offence. Fined 5/-.

Same v. John O'Donoghue offence. Fined 5/-.

Do. v. Anthony Crowley and O'Donnell for having no lights on bicycles. Fined 1/- each.

Guard J. O'Mahony, Cappoquin, v. Fennell. Same offence. Fined 10/-.

Carrying Excess Passengers—Guard J. O'Mahony, Cappoquin, summoned two local motor car

CASE WITHDRAWN

When the adjourned case at the suit of Superintendent Quinlan, Lismore, against a young man named William O'Connor, for alleged dangerous riding of a push bicycle was called, The Supt. said as the defendant had now gone to England he should ask to have the case withdrawn, and it was, accordingly struck out.

Excessive Charge For Bread

Guard Thorne, Cappoquin, had ten Cappoquin traders summoned for having charged an excessive price for batch bread on their premises. Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solr., Dungarvan, appeared for the prosecution, and Messrs. T. C. Williams, solr., Dungarvan, and A. R. Farrell, solr., do., appeared for two of the defendants, the remaining eight conducting their own defence.

Mr. Ryan said in those cases all the defendants had been buying batch bread, sent out in vans by bakers in Dungarvan and elsewhere, and the present cases were brought under The Control of Bread Prices Order under which the price of the 4-lb. loaf of batch bread had been fixed by the Minister for Industry and Commerce at 1/-, and the offences were committed by having the defendants charge 2/0d. for the 4-lb. loaf, which was 1d. in excess of the price fixed by the Minister in accordance with the fixed price of flour per sack at the time.

He said that some prosecutions had recently been brought against a number of wholesale bakers in Dungarvan under the same headings, when fines were imposed, but owing to the small amount in excess charged by the present defendants, he was not pressing for a heavy penalty and the present cases were brought more as a warning that the prices fixed by the Minister could not be exceeded even by 1d. and as bread was the staple diet of most of the poorer classes, it was a great hardship on them to be called on to pay more than the legal or standard price for it.

Messrs. Williams and Farrell, on behalf of their clients, said that these shopkeepers had to pay 1/0d. per 4 lb. loaf to the vans, and they retailed it at exactly the same price, and without making any profit on it, as they received a discount on the amount sold at the end of each month, so there could be no question of profiteering in their cases.

The other eight defendants offered similar explanations, and the Justice said as these were the first cases of the kind to be brought before him he would deal lightly with the defendants this time and let them off with a fine of 1/- each, but he should impose heavier fines if any similar cases again came before him.

An Unlicensed Stallion

The Minister for Lands and Agriculture prosecuted Thomas Keniry, farmer, Carrowgortive, Cappagh, for having an unlicensed stallion in his possession. Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solr., said the defendant had the animal licensed in 1936, but had not taken out any licence for 1937, and it was in respect of this year that the prosecution was brought.

Defendant now asked to have the case adjourned, as he was in correspondence with the Department on the matter, but Mr. Ryan said a further adjournment would not help defendant in any way.

He thought it right, however, to say that Mr. Keniry had sent on £1 as registration fee in the usual way, but there was a further fee of £3 demanded, and it was over this the dispute had arisen between them.

As defendant had since paid the full amount, he would not press for a heavy penalty, and the Justice then imposed a fine of 10/- without costs.

Burning of Mountain

The Attorney-General, at the suit of Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, summoned John Griffin, for having set fire to a quantity of gorse on Griffing's mountain, beyond Melleray, without having notified the Guards.

The Supt. said that an area of about 50 acres was destroyed on the occasion, and this was a serious form of offence. Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, who defended, said his client had intended to burn only a small portion of the gorse in order to cut some turf, but the flames were fanned by the wind, and he proved more extensive than he had intended it to be, so under the circumstances he asked that only a light fine be imposed.

The defendant was let off with a fine of 5/-.

Unlicensed Dogs

Guard Byffe, summoned John Fitzgerald, for having an unlicensed dog, but as the licence had since been taken out, the Justice marked the case "withdrawn."

Guard Boyle, v. Michael Hally, same offence. Fined 5/-.

Same v. John O'Donoghue, same offence. Fined 5/-.

Same v. Joseph O'Shea, for having two unlicensed dogs. The Justice imposed a fine of 5/- in respect of one dog, and marked the second case withdrawn.

Same v. Patk. Tobin, for having one unlicensed dog. Fined 5/-.

No Lights On Motor Car

Sergt. J. Browne, Cappoquin, summoned Liam O'Daly, for driving a motor car without a rear lamp, and also for having no light to show the number plate, and he was fined 1/6 in each case.

Do. v. Anthony Crowley and Thomas O'Donnell for having no lights on their bicycles. Fined 1/- each.

Guard J. O'Mahony, Cappoquin, v. Wm. Fennell. Same offence. Fined 2/6.

Carrying Excess Passengers

Guard J. O'Mahony, Cappoquin, summoned two local motor car owners for carrying two passengers in their cars in excess of the number allowed by their licences, and also for having failed to display their drivers badges, and fines of 2/6 and 1/- were imposed in each case.

In a case by Guard Devinney, against another local driver for carrying one passenger in excess of four, defendant explained that he had only 3 adults and 2 children, and he thought that the 2 children would count as only one adult, so he did not think he was committing any offence.

The Justice let him off with a caution. Guard Wm. Moloney, Cappoquin, had a similar charge against a Ballyduff driver, and he was also summoned for not having a driver's badge.

The owner of the car was fined 4/-, and the driver 1/- for having no badge.

Driving on the Wrong Side

Guard Moloney, summoned Michael Lynch for driving a horse and cart on the wrong side of the road, and he was fined 2/.

Guard Devinney, Cappoquin, had similar charges against John Veale and John Buckley, and they were fined 1/- each, the Justice saying he would impose heavier fines in all future cases of this nature.

Leaving a Carcase Unburied

Guard Devinney, summoned Owen Long, 1wig Bog, Cappoquin, for leaving the carcase of a cow, unburied near the Quay.

The Guard said it appeared that the defendant had thrown the carcase into the Blackwater in the hope that it would be washed away with the tide, but it remained exposed on the river bank and became a nuisance.

Defendant—I'm a "knacker," sir, and this is my first offence. I buried the carcase after the Guard spoke to me about it, so if you leave me off lightly now, I will never do it again (laughter).

Defendant was let off with a fine of 1/-, and severely cautioned.

Charge under the Road Traffic Act

Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, summoned the Blackwater Valley Co-operative Society, Cappoquin, for an alleged breach of the Traffic Act by allowing their motor lorry to be used for hire for the removal of furniture for a local family from Cappoquin to Lismore.

The Supt. said that on April 18th Guard Moloney found the lorry conveying a load of furniture from Cappoquin to Lismore, and on questioning the owner of the furniture he said they were not charged anything for the use of the lorry, and added: "Needless to say, I'm not going to let Mr. Gunning down."

The Justice asked where was the offence, as no evidence had been given that the lorry had been let out for hire?

The Supt. said the onus of proving that rested on the defendant company.

Mr. Thomas Gunning, Manager of the Co-operative Society, was then sworn, and stated that the family whose furniture was being removed were good customers and also great personal friends of his, and he had given them the lorry on hire for a week, and there never had been any question of making any charge for it.

Supt.—How do you account for the statement of the owner of the furniture when he said to Guard Moloney that "he was not going to let Mr. Gunning down?"

Witness—I don't know what he meant by that, as he couldn't let me down, because there was no question of payment ever between us, and I had given the lorry simply to oblige them.

The Justice said in face of this evidence the prosecution must fail, and accordingly, dismissed the case.

Leaving Horses Unattended

Guard Devinney, Cappoquin, summoned Thomas Lacey, Wm. Ahearne, and Michael Greehy, Tourin, for having left three horses, attached to three loads of timber, unattended for over an hour at Lower Main Street, Cappoquin, in such a manner as to be an obstruction to passing traffic.

Carney and Ahearne appeared in Court, but it was stated that Greehy was ill and could not appear.

The defendant Carney, explained to the Justice that the three of them had gone out to the wood before 7 o'clock that morning, and on returning through Cappoquin they had to pull up for a time and wait to get paid, and besides, he thought, that after being out in the wood they were entitled to go for some refreshments at that hour of the evening, so they pulled the horses and carts into the left-hand side of the road where they couldn't be an obstruction to anybody.

The Justice accepted this explanation as reasonable and let the three defendants off with a caution.

Qualified in Irish

At the June meeting of the Board of Assistance the Department wrote notifying the Board that Miss Margaret Loneragan, Nurse, District Hospital, Lismore, has a knowledge of Irish sufficient to enable her to adequately perform through the medium of that language the duties of her office.

CHAMPIONSHIP CLASHES

Erin's Own No Match For Stradbally

Fenore Too Good For Mountain Rovers

At Portlawn, before a large attendance of football enthusiasts, on Sunday evening last, the speedy, stylish and sturdy Stradbally Senior set scored an easy victory over Erin's Own, in their initial tie in the County Championship competition of the current year, and Fenore, in the semi-final of the East Waterford Divisional Junior Championship, 1938, defeated Mountain Rovers.

Following some showers of rain in the early afternoon, a high wind swept across the arena, making good football almost impossible at the start, but Stradbally shot off from the throw-in and launched an attack on the Erin's Own goal, and were rewarded with a point. Stradbally returned from the kick-out and a second goal was scored in the first minute of the hour. Manning was prominent in goal for the city side and effected clearances time and again, and from an attack by Stradbally, Andy Fleming had a point. Percy Kirwan, Nick and Jim Connors, Johnny taken by Thomas Halpin was received by Sean Lucy, who sent to Phil Whelan, who scored a point. A great movement by Erin's Own along the left wing, in which Jim Ware got possession, sent to "Lukie" Ryan, who in turn transferred to Buckley, who went through for a great goal. Both sides had overs in the ensuing play, before Stradbally from a "50" furthered their lead by a point. John Power, Mick Halpin, Dick Hickey and Johnny Wall (goalie) were conspicuous in staying off a fierce Erin's Own attack. Percy Kirwan led a nicely engineered Stradbally assault, which wound up with a point. Play was continued at half-time, when the scores read:—

Stradbally..... 0-6
Erin's Own..... 1-0
A tree was awarded to Stradbally soon after the opening of the second session, but a wide refusal. From a further free taken by Stradbally, Manning was responsible for a clever show of combination, which was crowned by a capital goal. Undismayed, the Waterfordians attacked but sent wide, and a further attack was well cleared by the Stradbally backs—Jimmy Whelan and Johnny Power being particularly brisk in keeping the city shooters at bay. The play was now fast and vigorous and neither side were tiring. Stradbally forced three "50's" in rapid succession, and from the latter kick of the trio sent the ball over the bar. Play was now being kept in Erin's Own territory, and Stradbally had a series of wides. Fenore, who were out for nearly two centuries, Hyde ruled—marrying and giving in marriage with some of the noblest Anglo-Norman English and great of the land. Ponsonby, Earl of Bessborough; Boyle, Earl of Shannon; O'Callaghan of Cahirruogan, Lisgoold; Lord Lismore; The Marquis of Cambridge; and others held in high esteem for hospitality, sporting and social qualities, they loved the land and sat in the Irish Parliament.

Mr. Robert Hyde was offered the representation of the County of Cork, but in those days contested elections were of enormous expense. Mr. Hyde declined the offer.

His relations may be judged from the alliances recorded in Sir Bernard Burke's "Landed Gentry," lane, daughter of John Hyde, of Castle Hyde in 1749, married the Hon. Richard Barry, son of the Earl of Bessborough. John Hyde, of Castle Hyde, married Sarah, daughter of Benjamin Burton, and Lady Anne Ponsonby, daughter of the Earl of Bessborough. His daughter Sarah married in June 1798, Henry Earl of Shannon, Castlemartyr, and died in 1820.

In 1809, Mr. Hyde married the Hon. Elizabeth O'Callaghan, second daughter of Lord Lismore.

Next to Castle Hyde is Crag, a well built mansion situated in a pleasant well built lawn, also on the north bank of the Blackwater. It was formerly occupied by Colonel William Stewart, son of Sir James Stewart, Bart., of Fort Stewart, County Donegal, who married Anne Hyde. They lived in much retirement and after the death of the Colonel, Mrs. Stewart was fond of exercising kindness to animals. She purchased several old horses unfit for use which she allowed to graze on the rich pasture of the lawn of Crag. It is related that while Crag Castle was garrisoned by soldiers in 1798, William Hyde was one evening walking in the ground when he heard two men expressing their determination of killing him. He noticed the pair. One was a tall slight man, whose back was over the wall, while his companion, low and burly, was below. Being a strong man, Mr. Hyde resolved to secure at least one of his intended assassins, and before either had been aware of his presence, he quickly drew the taller man over the wall and clasping him so tight that he could make no resistance, hurried him to the castle where he was speedily relieved him of his prisoner. A drumhead Court Martial was soon summoned, the evidence of Mr. Hyde taken, but the prisoner refused to inform who his companion was. The verdict now consigned him to exile, and he was quickly conveyed to Cork gaol, preparatory to his transportation.

While Castle Hyde had been in the Hyde family from the reign of Queen Elizabeth to that of Queen Victoria, a change was now about being made. On the passing of the Encumbered Estates Court Act, enabling creditors to petition for the sale of lands to pay off incumbrances, many a lordly castle and mansion was destined to pass into new hands. One of the first petitions to the Court was for the sale by auction of the spacious and well planted demesne of Castle Hyde, near Fermoy, on the banks of the Blackwater, in the County of Cork. Baron Richard, Chief Commissioner, presided at the auction. When the bidding reached £8,000, and as there seemed no prospect of any increase, Mr. Hyde in person, applied for a postponement of the sale on account of the gross inadequacy of the sum offered. He said: "My Lord, on the house alone my father expended £40,000." The Baron regretted that owing to the large quantity of business pressing on the Court, it was impossible to comply with Mr. Hyde's request. The Castle Hyde passed into the Hyde family. It was estimated that the purchaser was John D. Esler, but it was subsequently purchased by the late Sir Henry Wrixon Becher, Bart.

Both games were admirably refereed by the worthy Hon. Treasurer of the Waterford County Board, Mr. Seamus Hayes, (Dungarvan F.C.).

CASTLE HYDE

(On the Banks of the Blackwater)

The Hyde Family, Ancestors of the First President of Eire

By P. J. O'Brien

On the north bank of the "Irish Rhine"—as the historic and picturesque Blackwater in Munster is called—stands the spacious and well-built mansion of Castle Hyde. A massive square centre is relieved by light and graceful wings, which do not detract from the substantial appearance of the mansion. There are four storeys in height, marked by stone dressing, and a broad flight of steps leads to the hall door. The ground slopes gently from the house to the swift-flowing river, and the front windows look from the grassy lawn on the opposite hills. There are trees of various kind, size and age, from the potential oak to the young shrub. The rear of the mansion is sheltered from the north by giant cliffs. On the summit stands the ruined walls of the castle, the first part of the modern building still of changed times.

In the early days men selected as the site for their dwelling, places inaccessible to foot, where the owner could mark the approach of his foe, and prepare for defence, while the enemy having to scale the steep rock, was sometimes severely impeded. In later times when peace prevailed and the difficulty of reaching the lofty dwelling was felt irksome, especially to the female occupants, the situation was changed, and the shelter of the valley preferred to the height.

When in 1599 the distribution of the forfeited estates of the Earl of Desmond in Cork, Limerick, Kerry, Tipperary and Waterford, was made by Sir John Popham, the English Attorney-General, and Sir Edward Phytour, six thousand acres were granted to Arthur Hyde, at one penny an acre, and twelve thousand acres at the same rate to Phane Beecher. These lands were granted on the undertaking to plant them with English subjects—twenty-four on the Hyde lands and twelve on the Beecher. These terms were often unfulfilled, and the old owner returned to cultivate the lands for the new proprietors. Here, for nearly three centuries, Hyde ruled—marrying and giving in marriage with some of the noblest Anglo-Norman English and great of the land. Ponsonby, Earl of Bessborough; Boyle, Earl of Shannon; O'Callaghan of Cahirruogan, Lisgoold; Lord Lismore; The Marquis of Cambridge; and others held in high esteem for hospitality, sporting and social qualities, they loved the land and sat in the Irish Parliament.

Mr. Robert Hyde was offered the representation of the County of Cork, but in those days contested elections were of enormous expense. Mr. Hyde declined the offer.

His relations may be judged from the alliances recorded in Sir Bernard Burke's "Landed Gentry," lane, daughter of John Hyde, of Castle Hyde in 1749, married the Hon. Richard Barry, son of the Earl of Bessborough. John Hyde, of Castle Hyde, married Sarah, daughter of Benjamin Burton, and Lady Anne Ponsonby, daughter of the Earl of Bessborough. His daughter Sarah married in June 1798, Henry Earl of Shannon, Castlemartyr, and died in 1820.

In 1809, Mr. Hyde married the Hon. Elizabeth O'Callaghan, second daughter of Lord Lismore.

Next to Castle Hyde is Crag, a well built mansion situated in a pleasant well built lawn, also on the north bank of the Blackwater. It was formerly occupied by Colonel William Stewart, son of Sir James Stewart, Bart., of Fort Stewart, County Donegal, who married Anne Hyde. They lived in much retirement and after the death of the Colonel, Mrs. Stewart was fond of exercising kindness to animals. She purchased several old horses unfit for use which she allowed to graze on the rich pasture of the lawn of Crag. It is related that while Crag Castle was garrisoned by soldiers in 1798, William Hyde was one evening walking in the ground when he heard two men expressing their determination of killing him. He noticed the pair. One was a tall slight man, whose back was over the wall, while his companion, low and burly, was below. Being a strong man, Mr. Hyde resolved to secure at least one of his intended assassins, and before either had been aware of his presence, he quickly drew the taller man over the wall and clasping him so tight that he could make no resistance, hurried him to the castle where he was speedily relieved him of his prisoner. A drumhead Court Martial was soon summoned, the evidence of Mr. Hyde taken, but the prisoner refused to inform who his companion was. The verdict now consigned him to exile, and he was quickly conveyed to Cork gaol, preparatory to his transportation.

While Castle Hyde had been in the Hyde family from the reign of Queen Elizabeth to that of Queen Victoria, a change was now about being made. On the passing of the Encumbered Estates Court Act, enabling creditors to petition for the sale of lands to pay off incumbrances, many a lordly castle and mansion was destined to pass into new hands. One of the first petitions to the Court was for the sale by auction of the spacious and well planted demesne of Castle Hyde, near Fermoy, on the banks of the Blackwater, in the County of Cork. Baron Richard, Chief Commissioner, presided at the auction. When the bidding reached £8,000, and as there seemed no prospect of any increase, Mr. Hyde in person, applied for a postponement of the sale on account of the gross inadequacy of the sum offered. He said: "My Lord, on the house alone my father expended £40,000." The Baron regretted that owing to the large quantity of business pressing on the Court, it was impossible to comply with Mr. Hyde's request. The Castle Hyde passed into the Hyde family. It was estimated that the purchaser was John D. Esler, but it was subsequently purchased by the late Sir Henry Wrixon Becher, Bart.

Both games were admirably refereed by the worthy Hon. Treasurer of the Waterford County Board, Mr. Seamus Hayes, (Dungarvan F.C.).

Though Castle Hyde had thus passed from the grand old family of Hyde, it was then possessed by men who proved to oppose every movement which had been launched with a view to secure the sovereign independence of Ireland.

The Beechers—The Beechers had a name in Irish history. They fought at the Boyne with William III, and received personal favours from that King. When the French Fleet anchored at Bantry Bay, they were among the first to assemble loyal troops to resist the invaders, many of them leading members of famous southern clans, including the O'Sullivan's of Berehaven; The O'Leary's of Iveleary, who were in readiness to assist their French Allies.

At the June meeting of the Board of Public Assistance, Dr. D. Healy, Medical Officer Lismore District and Fever Hospitals, reported as follows:—

"I beg to report that a diphtheria contact Mary Ronayne, age 25 years of Chapel Street, Tallow, who was being isolated at Lismore Fever Hospital, was on the 11th inst., removed from the Institution by her father Maurice Ronayne, of same address.

The last report from the Bacteriologist under date 10th inst., showed that the girl still harboured Diphtheria Bacilli in her throat.

Under the circumstances I am unable to certify that she is incapable of conveying the infection to others.

DUNGARVAN WILL BE READY—Can Dungarvan cater for the 20,000 to 30,000 Gaelic fans, estimated by several judges to invade the town on Sunday July 10th, for the Munster Championship Hurling Semi-Final between Cork and Waterford. We say the town can, and will rise to the occasion, and that the monster crowd will return fully satisfied with the treatment received at the hands of the Dungarvan caterers. Through the initiative of the local G.A.A. and the Urban Council an energetic committee was formed at a meeting of the Town Traders on Tuesday evening. The principal duty of this committee being to call on the non-catering traders and induce them to open their premises on that day for the purpose of catering, and judging from reports received from the committee there will be a ready response.

PARKING ARRANGEMENTS—The Civic Guards have all arrangements perfect for the parking of cars and buses, while a number of depots for bicycles will be available in various parts of the town, particulars of which can be had from the Garda. A formidable list of special trains have been arranged to run to Dungarvan on that day. One thing only is needed to have the day rank as the biggest in living memory, and that is the weather. Of late the atmospheric conditions have gone wrong, and the Clerk of the weather has been sadly neglecting his duty. Let us hope that he also will rise to the occasion on that day. The field has been specially prepared and enlarged so that with much increased sideline accommodation it can comfortably accommodate up to 30,000 spectators. Of the playing pitch we need not say a word, that is, as always, second to none in Munster.

BALLYVOILE TABLET UNVEILED—On Sunday last at 3.30 p.m. a beautiful limestone Tablet in memory of Volunteer John Cummins, killed in an engagement with British Forces at Ballyvoile, on Sunday morning June 5th, 1921, was unveiled. A very large crowd attended the ceremony on Sunday last including over 100 Old I.R.A. men from the various Battalions of the West Waterford Brigade. Messrs. J. Tobin and J. Kirwan, performed the unveiling ceremony.

Mr. Joe McDevitt, delivered a stirring address, and after paying tribute to a dead comrade, appealed to the youth of the country to support only a Government which has for its aim an absolute Republic for all Ireland.

Mr. Pat Walsh was in charge of all the arrangements.

G. A. A.—At the Central Council meeting on Saturday last the following players declared for Waterford—E. T. Daly, M. Feeney, J. Butler, S. Feeney (Dublin); T. Greaney (Cork).

SEANAD NOMINATIONS BY FINE GAEL—At a meeting of the Waterford Constituency Executive of Fine Gael, on Monday, the following Seanad Panel nominations were recommended to the National Executive of Fine Gael:—Cultural Panel—Dr. V. J. White, Waterford; Labour Panel—Senator John Butler, Dungarvan; Agricultural Panel—Mr. Nicholas Wall, ex-T.D., Kilnragrane, Kilmacomas.

DUNGARVAN MARKETS—Meal special 24/- sack; middiecut 23/6 sack; four 23/- and 24/- per 10 sack; bran 9/- cwt.; pollard 8/6 and 9/- do.; coal 45/- ton.

KILL NOVICE CYCLING AND ATHLETIC SPORTS—Please peruse interesting advert about the above fixture published in another column.

KILL GAELIC FOOTBALL TOURNEY—At Kill (in a field kindly lent by Col-Peer O'Shea) on Wednesday (Festival of SS. Peter and Paul) the senior football strings of Stradbally and Fenor played off their tie in the first round of a tourney for a valuable set of medals, promoted in aid of the Newtown and Kill parochial debt. Though the evening was showery a good crowd saw a truly topping bout, which, ably refereed by Mr. Thomas Thorpe, resulted as under:—Fenor, 2-2; Stradbally, 1-3. Both sides were without the services of a number of their usual players.

E. A. A.—MATCH AT VILLIERSTOWN POSTPONED—The Junior Football Championship match, Tallow v. Knockanore, fixed for Villierstown, on Sunday next, July 3rd, is postponed due to Tallow team being unable to fulfill engagement.—T. A. Farhan, Rumaiche.

URBAN RATE FOR YEAR 1938/39—Mr. Michael Morrissey, T.D., presided at a special meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council on Tuesday last, to consider the estimate of rate prepared by the Clerk. Others present were—Messrs. T. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman; J. Dahill, D. Foley, J. J. Crotty, J. F. Foley, and J. Christopher. The Clerk submitted the estimate prepared by him which amounted to a rate of 10/4 in the £, as against 18/6 last year. After going very fully into each item, the Council reduced the estimate to 18/6 in the £ the same rate as last year, made up as follows:—Town's Improvement (1/11); Public Health, 3/-; Roads 2/3; Water

1/3; Housing 6d.; Provisions of meals 3d.; Poor Rate 8/1-; Domestic Water 1/-.

HARBOUR RECEIPTS—Mr. Curran, Harbour Master reported to the Council that receipts from the Harbour during the year 1937/38 showed an increase of £50 over the previous year.

DEATH OF MRS. B. KIELY, MITCHEL STREET—It is with deep regret we announce the death of Mrs. Bridget Kiely, which occurred at the residence of her father, on June 17th after a brief illness and tormented by the rights of the Holy Church.

Deceased was well-known and held in the highest esteem by all who had the pleasure of being acquainted with her. Of a kindly disposition, generous and warm-hearted, her early death is deeply deplored by her relatives and friends. Deceased was widow of the late Thomas Kiely, Shandon, who died in his early manhood in U.S.A.

The funeral to St. Mary's Parish Church on the following evening was of very large dimensions and was representative of all classes of the general public. Rev. Father Flynn, C.C., attended the burial services. The chief mourners were:—Nicholas Kiely (father); Mrs. Kiely (mother); Mary (daughter); Pauline (sister); Gerald and Michael (brothers).

DIOCESAN SCOUT RALLY AT ABBEYSIDE—On Sunday next the annual Diocesan Competition for the Farrell Cup (presented by Mr. R. J. Farrell, Solicitor, Waterford) will take place at Abbeyside. A large gathering of Scouts from all parts of the Diocese is expected, and the Chief Scout, Professor J. B. Whelehan, M.A., Dublin, will attend. The competition will begin at 3 p.m. and before that time there will be a Parade of all Scouts attending from the Square, Dungarvan, to the sportsfield at Abbeyside. The Cup will be presented to the winning team at the Abbeyside Scouts' Den. Included in the competition are tests in Tent-pitching, Fire-lighting, and Signalling. An invitation is extended to the public to be present at this interesting event.

DUNGARVAN SHOW—A meeting of the Ladies Committee of above was held at the Commercial Hotel, on Wednesday 4th inst. Mrs. Usher, presiding. Also present—Mrs. P. J. Moloney, Mrs. C. Langley, Mrs. Dr. Cusack, Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mrs. G. Holmes, Miss M. Cunningham, Miss N. Dempsey, Miss K. McGrath, Miss M. Lynch, Miss B. O'Neill, Miss M. Foley, Miss B. Foley, Miss E. Moloney, Miss Odell.

The following resolution of sympathy was passed:—That we, the members of the Ladies Committee of the Dungarvan Show, beg to tender to our esteemed Chairman and Colleague Mrs. Usher, our deepest sympathy on the death of her father.

Proposed by Mrs. P. J. Moloney, seconded by Mrs. C. Langley, and passed in silence.

Mrs. Usher suitably thanked the members for their kind expressions of sympathy. By arrangement the Committee was divided into two sections—one for Tea Tent and one for the Industrial Section. Arrangements were made for procuring the different supplies necessary for the tea tent.

The Committee then visited the Show Grounds and selected sites for the various sections. Before adjourning the meeting it was agreed that all members should be at the Show grounds at 11.30 a.m. on Wednesday to complete arrangements for staging of the different exhibits. As the number of entries are so large (500), it is specially requested that all exhibits will be on Show grounds not later than 10 a.m. (S.T.) on the 7th inst.

SHOW COMMITTEE—A meeting of the Dungarvan Show Committee was held in the Commercial Hotel, on Thursday evening. Mr. A. Hunt, President in the chair. Also present—Lord Wm. Beresford, N. Morrissey, S. J. Power, J. O'Dwyer, P. A. Walsh, J. F. Fenton, Jas. Hayes, N. Connors, C. Langley, P. J. Moloney and J. Lynch, Secretary.

The Secretary stated that all classes on the Prize List have received good support. Final arrangements were completed and everything is now in readiness for the holding of the Show on the 7th inst.

WEIGHT-GUESSING COMPETITION—The Weight-Guessing Competition for the live weight of a pig for which a prize of £2 is offered is an added attraction of this year's Show. If two or more prize-winners guess the correct weight, prizes will be divided between them.

BOXING TOURNAMENT—The Boxing tournament organised by the Dungarvan Boxing Club and brought off in the Town Hall on Wednesday night last proved a tremendous success and the fare served up in each of the contests was highly appreciated by the very large audience present. While each contest evoked rounds and rounds of applause, the Light Heavy Weight contest between Mitty Berry, Dungarvan, and Corporal Evenden, Collin's Barricks R.C. was voted by one and all to be the best anywhere in Munster for a long time, and although our local man lost on points he was beaten only by lack of training. Mr. Jackie Draper of the Dungarvan and St. Andrew's, Dublin, Boxing Club, put up a most meritorious performance against a heavier opponent in Driver, Dowdall, Draper, one of the most stylish of boxers seemed to be put out of his stride by the weaving, ducking tactics of his smaller, though heavier opponent. At one reference cautioned Dowdall and asked him to keep his head up. On the conclusion of the proceedings Mr. James Hayes thanked the audience for their wonderful support for the tournament and said they saw to night Dungarvan Boxers pitted against all comers against boxers from Waterlool, Fowlair, The Carricks and Collin's Barricks Boxing Clubs. Barry V. Evenden fight Mr. Hayes continuing said Dungarvan should feel proud of Barry who put up such a magnificent fight against a man who has only just returned from an American tour where he took part in 12 fights, winning 12 of them. Five by knock-outs.

DUNGARVAN-G.A.A. HURLING AND FOOTBALL ANNUAL COLLECTION. A Church Gate collect in aid of above will be held on Sunday next, July 2nd, 1938. All the Gaels of the district are earnestly requested to contribute generously to the fund. The only way the Club is in need of funds. The number of years. The important Munster Championship Semi-final Cork v. Waterford which will mean twenty to twenty-five thousand visitors to the town on the 10th of July and the resultant spending of over £5,000 here on that day can be pointed to as a direct result of the Club being in existence. As many people are of the opinion that a big match means a lot of money for the Club funds it is well to inform the public that the Club does not receive one penny of any money made at the gate on that day. Clubs have to finance themselves and when an important fixture is staged in their area it is the members who have to do most of the duties voluntary to make it a success.

Though the weather was somewhat unfavourable, the monster open air Whist Drive (supported by other amusements for non-players) held on the Parochial Lawn, Kilmossanty on last Sunday evening, passed out an unqualified success from every standpoint. The drive was faultlessly supervised by Fr. Meehan, C.C., Kilmossanty, and Mr. John O'Donovan, N.T. The winning ladies were:—Miss J. Fitzgerald, Ballyvalacan, Furlaw (133 points), 1st; Mrs. M. Fitzgerald, Bellahene, Kilmossanty (127), 2nd; and Miss K. Quelly (126), 3rd. Winning gentlemen:—Mr. M. J. Brennan, Mahon Bridge (127), 1st; Mr. T. O'Sullivan, Grangemockler (125), 2nd; and the Rev. James Phelan, Furlaw (123), 3rd. A local ladies' committee served a most enjoyable tea. At the early Mass in Kilmossanty on Wednesday morning, Very Rev. Fr. Crotty, warmly thanked the parishioners for their generosity and support. The proceeds of the Drive will be devoted to a laudable parochial object.

A great wave of public sympathy goes out to Mrs. K. Prendergast, Kilmacomas, in her recent sad bereavement occasioned by the death of her husband, Mr. J. Prendergast. The deceased, who was a native of the Nix, was a most exemplary Catholic; a loving and devoted husband and father, and a general favourite of all who knew him. His funeral to Knockboy cemetery was a fine tribute of public respect to the memory of departed worth. Peace to his soul.

ARDMORE'S MAGNIFICENT VICTORY CELEBRATIONS

Stirring Address by Professor Michael O'Connor, Ardmore

They are not conquered yet Dear Land
They are not conquered yet

(Contributed)

If ever these poetic words of former days were true, they were literally so on last Wednesday night, June 22nd, when with every other part of Ireland hundreds of people from the village and surrounding localities assembled at the Chapel Square, Ardmore, to take part in the Victory Celebrations for the return of Fianna Fail to power—the greatest victory ever known.

It was, of course, a well-known fact that on this night every city, town and village in Eire would celebrate in some way this great victory.

No wonder then that this little Irish sea-side, ancient and historic village of Ardmore, away off the beaten track, should do its share by celebrating the victory and doing its share in showing their devotion to that grand and noble cause for which many young, brave and gallant Irishmen and women fought and nobly died.

The scenes witnessed on Wednesday night will live for ever in the memory of the people of Ardmore, and it may be said with a certainty it was:

"A sight when Irish eyes were smiling and Irish hearts were happy."

But the tear dimmed eyes of the older men glistened as their memory took them back to other days, when similar scenes were witnessed though under different circumstances—yes back to the Land League days. To the days of British tyranny and oppression; to the Land League days; to the days when our Isle was ruled by the "Proud Invader."

But on this night, what a contrast. Tonight almost all classes assembled—the rich and poor; the old and young; the brave and noble followers, who have been ever true to the cause. Those who have been lately converted, and among them, perhaps, some of the bitterest opponents, whose hearts were being softened at the result of this great victory.

Yes, one and all assembled to honour the cause—to thank God for the glorious victory; to do honour to that brave and noble chieftain, who in Ireland's days of trials and troubles, led the brave young men of 1916 in arms against the British Forces, and has to this day taken his part in "Banna-Baghail."

Was it any wonder then, when the large numbers of tar barrels along the stormwall, sent up their flames to the stary sky; when the torchlight bearers took their places; when the spirited national music of the Ardmore and Ardo bands rent the calm and midnight air; when over 500 people marched and cheered loudly in a grand and glorious procession led by the bands and torchlights, through the little Irish Village of illuminated windows, and where the photograph of our Chief was enshrined amidst a garland of flowers. Was it any wonder then that the great majority of Ardmore and surrounding districts were ever true to the cause; the cause of Faith and Fatherland. Truly may it be said that this celebration was the eve of:

"The Dawn on the Hills of Ireland."

But the greatest treat of all was yet to come when Professor Michael O'Connor, delivered a stirring address in keeping with the ceremony, from the roof of an outside classroom of the schoolhouse.

Opening his speech in Irish, and continuing in English, Mr. O'Connor said amidst rousing cheers: People of this Village and surrounding districts, we are assembled here tonight, on an auspicious occasion—the greatest occasion in this or any other generation—we are here to take part in a great victory celebration; a monster, gigantic victory for Fianna Fail, the Party who received the overwhelming majorities at the recent general election; the Party led by the man who defied British guns and British imperialism; the party led by our Chief, the man who had ever the complete freedom of Ireland at heart.

Therefore, it gives me the greatest pleasure to address you tonight on his behalf, but as this is not an election address, I will confine myself to a brief statement of the facts concerned and explain the situation simply and clearly for you. It would take a lot of time to go fully into the facts and figures of the case; to explain the whole circumstances that led up to this final rally; to this slaying victory; to this overwhelming majority for Fianna Fail.

It was readily admitted that Fianna Fail would be returned to power, but such a sweeping majority as was received was never dreamt of. For our opponents there is still a cure, and that is to fall in line with the vast majority of Irishmen and women. It is not too late yet to work in unison and harmony for the common good of a complete and United Ireland.

of the past. One by one the barriers have fallen; all the degrading symbols of British subjection and servitude have gone; one by one the few remaining relics of Saxon domination have disappeared. The imposed Treaty—sealed under the threat of immediate and terrible war—has sunk into the depths of oblivion, and Britain has been forced to abandon her claim to the Land Annuities.

I wonder it is possible that our opponents are so stupid; so foolishly, as to wish to have a Government in power who would undo again the good and beneficial things that have been done by Fianna Fail on their onward march to freedom. If such is the case, I think it would be time that they awoke from their nightmare.

But Friends, I ask you here tonight as supporters of Fianna Fail; I ask you in the name of all that Ireland holds sacred; in the name of the Irish men who were executed and whose blood flowed freely for that noble cause; ask you sincerely if it is your wish that our destinies should be entrusted to a Party called Fine Gael. I know your answer. You have given it, and given it strongly. It did not take the majority of you 6 years to make up your mind; you were not so sleepy as to travel home to freedom by the long and crooked road. At the election you put the final cog on the wheel which revolves on the complete road to Freedom. Yes, you have given your answer solidly at the polling booth; you proved that you were part of that noble band who have followed and will follow to the final goal, and rally round the banner of Eamon de Valera.

Let us visit a few of the Constituencies and look up the result of the elections—see the men who headed the polls and what has been their record. Take number one on the list—what country comes first, you know the answer—the Banner County Clare, (cheers). Yes, Clare, where the illustrious Chief, Eamon de Valera headed the poll. It is not the first time that Clare has given us that lead. In 1918, Clare started that proud tradition, and its glorious memories are being renewed time after time. It has kept up that tradition and will keep it to the end. It is a lead we should all follow.

Let us look at our own County of Waterford, when you people helped to put at the head of the Poll, Mr. Michael Morrissey, and also to elect Mr. Little. But had all the people of the county gone the right road, and done the right thing, instead of thanking you tonight for electing two Deputies we would have the honour of celebrating a triple victory. But a time will come again, when this mistake will be rectified and you will have a chance of proving your devotion and loyalty to the noble cause. It is well to know that your own efforts resulted in the magnificent achievement of the two Fianna Fail candidates being successful in this Constituency of Waterford—a County famous for the name of brave Cathal Brugha.

All over Ireland the Fianna Fail Party secured the largest number of first preferences, and added 8 new members to the list of the genuine Irish Government. On the other hand the Opposition Party—Fine Gael—decreased their votes and lost a number of seats. You have seen the results of the elections in the daily Press. We know our opponents read the papers only to digest a meaning to suit their own convenience. In other words they read them backwards, just the same as their leaders and Party have gone—backwards. They have eyes and see not; they have ears and hear not. What they need is glasses—not literal glasses, but the glasses of conscience; of honour and patriotism, and with them on they will in time return to the true fold. Our opponents will in time come find a haven of refuge beneath the mantle of a united Fianna Fail Government, the Party that will give them and their families real happiness, genuine peace and complete freedom.

There was another election held in this country about 1933 when the Fianna Fail Party secured 77 seats again, but then there were more seats than there are today. Had the people voted as solidly as they did on this occasion there would have been at least 25 more seats secured by Fianna Fail. But the people are much wiser now, they have learned the true meaning of the old saying: "Fool me once I'm the fool; fool me twice, you're the fool."

Continuing, Professor O'Connor said that in a few hours after the death which has often come before our eyes during the years that have come and gone—77; what a historic number. Ah! yes, that number has a sad, yet glorious history. Today you are represented in the Dail by 77 strong, able and energetic Irishmen, but at a not far distant date—years yet green and fresh in our memory 77 young, brave and noble Irishmen faced the firing squad, and gave their lives for a noble cause, condemned by a Government which our opponents tried to return to power.

On behalf of your two T.D.'s who are unavoidably absent tonight, I wish to thank you; I wish to thank you also on behalf of Eamon de Valera, and also to thank you on behalf of the cause of Irish Freedom.

I would earnestly appeal to our opponents from now onwards, for the country sake to fall in with the majority; to stand solidly shoulder to shoulder behind Eamon de Valera—a man who is an illustrious leader, a noble chieftain and an unequalled Statesman. I also wish to thank the young men who organised this monster meeting at such short notice. The people who supplied tar barrels and other material. I wish to thank the two local bands, who played such stirring national airs, and like these two bands who marched in unison tonight, I would again appeal to all the people to unite and stand together for Ireland's welfare.

In conclusion Mr. O'Connor called for cheers for Eamon de Valera and for the two T.D.'s Mr. Morrissey and Mr. Little. The meeting concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.

INCH NOTES

Newly Ordained Priest—

Rev. Father Joseph Murphy, who was recently ordained in Dublin, celebrated his first Mass here on Sunday morning. He is the youngest son of the late Mr. Martin Murphy, and Mrs. Murphy of Park House, Youghal, and is a brother of Rev. Fr. Martin Murphy, C.C., Clonmel. The young priest had a very brilliant course at Mount Mellery Seminary in Dublin for the completion of his studies. Here he passed his various examinations with distinction and is today a zealous and devoted priest. His mother, who was one of the first to receive Holy Communion at his hands has reason to be proud of her son, and at the conclusion of the Mass on Sunday she was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory expressions and good wishes from the parishioners in general. The young priest was occupied for a considerable time in giving his blessing to the large number of people who thronged around the sanctuary and in the outside. Fr. "Joe" who is ordained for the diocese of Waterford will soon take up his priestly duties at Newcastle-on-Tyne prior to serving in the Waterford diocese.

G. A. A. News—
The Inch hurling team on Sunday suffered defeat at the hands of the useful Youghal lot. The match was poorly patronised and the hurling all round was not up to a good standard. The Inch men had a depleted team, their goalkeepers being filled by schoolboys. Youghal fielded a fast young team who are good strikers and have plenty of pace. On Sunday, of course, they were on their native heath, and that meant a good deal to them.

"B" Grade Hurling—
On next Sunday, July 3rd, in Youghal, Kilmacraun and Castlemartyr will try conclusions in their "B" grade Championship tie. The match is not without interest in view of the fact that the seniors of those teams have met so often in a certain famous tournament, and the question as to which is the better team is still an open one. There will probably be a second match in Coppelalley on Sunday and there should be a good attendance, for the teams already named have good followings.

Mr. Jack Whelan, Youghal, is referee, and the whistle could not be in better hands.

Minor Championship—
On next Sunday also at Killeigh, the minor teams of Carrigrohilly and Youghal will do battle for championship honours. This should result in a good game. The young lads of the East Cork towns and villages are expert wielders of the ash and can give a good display at any time. The Carrigrohilly and Youghal boys with their traditions and training are particularly well fitted to give a more than ordinarily good exhibition, especially in a tie for County Championship honours.

Munster Semi-Final At Dungarvan—
The chief topic in Gaelic circles here is the Munster Semi-Final at Dungarvan on next Sunday week, July 10th. At a meeting of the Inch Club recently, it was announced that every member on the list was travelling and were looking forward with eager anticipation to a great and exciting game. There will be more people in Dungarvan on the tenth than there has been on any previous occasion, and accommodation of all kinds will be taxed. However, there is plenty of time in which to prepare for this invasion of the Gaels, and the people of Dungarvan are certainly going all out to see that all visitors will be catered for on that day of days.

Death of Mrs. John Hannon.
Greencloyne, Youghal.

The unexpected demise of Mrs. John Hannon, Greencloyne, Youghal, has occasioned feelings of very deep regret all over the district. Deceased was of a very bright and kindly disposition, and was respected and esteemed by all. She had been up and about her household duties up to the night previous to her death, and one of her last kind acts was to pay a visit to a sick neighbour, to whom she tendered any assistance that was required. Little did any one think that in a few hours after the Angel of death would have claimed her. It is happenings of this nature that brings home to us the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, to the pleasures of which we so fondly cling. Mrs. Hannon was well prepared for the last great journey being a devout and exemplary Catholic and on the day previous to her death she had been to Mass and Holy Communion, and her many good deeds will long be remembered. There was a huge concourse of people at the funeral, which was to St. Mary's cemetery, Youghal. Rev. Fr. Carey, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. Thornhill, C.C., officiated.

The chief mourners were—Mr. John Hannon (husband); Messrs. Michael, Maurice, Edmond, Thomas, David, John and Gerard Hannon (sons); Miss Lizzie and Miss Mamie Hannon (daughters); Mrs. Maureen Hannon (daughter-in-law); etc.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

Present—Messrs. P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., Chairman; M. D. Broderick, R. Power, T. Bouzang, E. P. Lynch, J. Daly, B.E.

Lifeboat Dance
A letter was read from the Hon. Sec. Royal National Lifeboat Institution inviting the members of the Council to a dance in aid of the Institution.

The Chairman said it was a very worthy object and he was sure they would all help the good work.
Mr. Broderick—I propose that all the laborer members attend (laughter).
The Chairman—Some of them will be there D.V.

Kennelly's Terrace
A letter was read from the tenants of Kennelly's Terrace, complaining of the neglected condition of the shore in front.
Mr. Lynch said that Windmill Lane also required attention.
Mr. Power said that the Fair Field was still in the same condition.
Instructions were given to the officials concerned to remedy the grievances complained of.

Tar Sprayer
On the proposition of Mr. Power seconded by Mr. Lynch, it was decided to purchase a small tar sprayer.

Latest Unemployment Scheme
A letter was read from the Local Government Department approving of the Scheme of Works proposed to be carried out at the New Road at a cost of £94, 17s 9d of which was a Government grant and £135 was the local contribution from the rates. The work should be put in hands immediately and completed as soon as possible.

Salary of Veterinary Inspector
A letter was read from the Local Government Department sanctioning an increase in the salary of the Veterinary Inspector from £82 to £95 per annum. The Minister would not sanction the Council's proposal to increase the salary to £105.
Mr. Power said the Department's action was most unfair. The Veterinary Inspector's duties had increased 75 per cent. and he should have got the increment passed unanimously by the Council. He proposed that they again appeal for the Minister's sanction.
Mr. Broderick seconded, said the salary paid to the Veterinary Inspector was entirely inadequate.

Municipal Authorities Association
A letter was read from the Association of Municipal Authorities, inviting the Council to appoint two delegates, including the Town Clerk, for the forthcoming meeting in Galway, and asking the Council to submit matters for discussion.
Mr. Broderick said the Conference should be asked to call on the Government to undertake the responsibility for the rents of persons in receipt of the dole.
Mr. Power said he proposed recently that the rents be reduced from 3/6 to 2/6, but it was rejected, which he thought was a mistake.
Mr. Daly said the term for the repayment of loans for the erection of houses should be extended. That would allow a reduction in the rents. The Conference should also deal with the question of Co-Operative Creameries.
The matter was adjourned to next meeting.

Traffic Bye-Laws
A letter was read from the Chief Superintendent Garda Síochána, Cork regarding the proposed Traffic Bye-Laws, and making suggestions for the provision of further parking facilities in the Froat Strand.
It was decided to make inquiries with a view to acquiring a field for the purpose in the vicinity.

Acknowledgments
Letters acknowledging resolutions of sympathy were read from Mr. de Valera and family, Messrs. Maurice Sheehan, Patrick Kirk, M. J. White, Gas Manager and John Fitzgibbon.

Meat Inspection
The County M.O.H. submitted copy of the Veterinary Inspector's report on his meat inspection for the month which was declared very satisfactory.

Foreign v. Native
Mr. Daly said some two years ago he proposed a resolution protesting against the peaceful penetration of alien technicians versus Irish Graduates. He greatly regretted that he deemed it necessary to renew that protest. In 1933, Mr. Lemass said in the Dail that foreign experts were being brought in only on a temporary basis to train Irishmen and women, and when those were trained the experts were to return to their own country. But the Minister had evidently altered his views. The N.U.J. Appointments Committee protested to An Taoiseach, but he stated he had no power or function to intervene in matters like the Irish Sugar Co., which was a limited company, operating under the Directors of that Company but Mr. Lemass and who controlled the shares but the Trustee of the Department of Finance, Mr. MacEntee, and the Irish taxpayer put up the money. It was they and they only had the right to know the whole procedure. Most of the dismissed Graduates were sons of small farmers, and the brains God gave them and their grit and determination won them scholarships in the University Colleges. Now those men were refused the right to get a position in their own land and assigners got the fruition of the sacrifices of Ireland's bravest and best. Five of those dismissed Graduates did their duty in defending the nation in its hour of need, and he appealed to the Graduates who did their bit not to let down their comrades. There would be an election in six weeks for 3 seats in the N. U.J.

G.A.A. NOTES & NOTIONS

By "KROGG"

Rain marred the meeting of Mount Sion and Tallon in Dungarvan Gaelic Field last Sunday in the first round of the Senior Hurling Championship. Nevertheless the attendance fell much below expectations, considering the high status of these famous sides. It was indeed a great disappointment, not alone to the County Board but to the Clubs themselves, to see such an attractive fixture so poorly patronised. Mt. Sion secured the running of an excursion train from Waterford but the support forthcoming would hardly encourage the Railway management to continue the experiment.

The match itself furnished thrills and variety in plenty. Even though the standard of play was by no means high, yet the rapidly changing fortunes of the rival teams and the breathless finish made for much excitement and enthusiasm. Mt. Sion put in a tremendously powerful finish which enabled them to snatch victory almost on the post by the margin of 2 goals 3 points to 4 goals 3 points. It was an amazing effort from a combination which seemed all overboard and left the crowd spell-bound with astonishment.

The City lads made a sensational start, getting off their mark like flyers they danced through the Tallon defence and within ten minutes had piled up a three-goal lead. Locky Byrne and Greene claimed the honours in this scoring rush, though two of the shots should never have been Mick Curley whose lapse from form appeared inexplicable. Then Tallon having stiffened up their backs counter-attacked and for the rest of the half there was only one team in it. Moore opened the Bridelider's account with a lovely point and "David" followed with a grand ground shot to the net. Heartened by these successes, "Pa" Sheehan and Condon with their forwards continue a furious offensive but scores are lost through over-anxiety and blundering and Daly and Doyle throw away gift-edged opportunities before the Mt. Sion net again fails to leave Tallon just a goal in arrears. A few minutes later Doyle, close in smashes a hot shot past the City goalie but crossed flags announce a disallowed score. It's a bit of real hard luck for Tallon who continue to hurt with great dash and confidence through Mt. Sion leads at half time by one goal.

Breaking through immediately on the resumption, the Westerners raise the white flag and a lovely goal from "David" shortly afterwards puts them in front for the first time. Mt. Sion seem unable to come with the fast wire movements of "Pa" Sheehan, Moore and McNamee while Con Curley and Jimmy Burke moving up in support of their forwards, help in the disorganisation of the City defence line. Another quiet goal and Tallon looks to have complete command. Locky Byrne comes out mid-field to try to work on the Mt. Sion forces for last desperate rally to save the fortunes of the day and the city team seem a spent force. Only five minutes are left when John Keane rouses the fading Sion home with a grand point from long range. Suddenly he breaks away and tries to work on the Mt.
