G.A.A. NOTES & NOTIONS

By "CROTOG."

This year's Munster Senior Hurling Final bids fair to eclipse all others by reason of the mystery which surrounds it and the storm of controversy which rages round the disqualification of Tipperary.

For the first time in G.A.A. history Waterford and Clare are set to fight out the issue in the final. The question of the hour and one which is intriguing Gaelic all over Ireland is Will They Meet at All? Even at this moment, within three days of the time at which the match is to start in Cork, no one knows for certain what may pan out. The public are beginning to show exasperation at being kept in suspense and ignorance so long and certainly the tangle should have been straightened out before now. Provision should have been made by the Councils concerned for a contingency like this and so give the public and the players too, a reasonable breathing space before the Munster Final.

No one seems to realize that Fortliffe has a distinct grievance in the whole matter. Having beaten Cork, they got down to serious training for the Final. All preparations were made and everything was in readiness to field out in Cork on July 24th. Then a postponement of the date is compelled to cancel their plans and to alter their training programme to fit in with the new date next Sunday. Now the crux arises. The Central Council meeting fixed for Thursday night may transform the whole position and Waterford may have to modify all its training plans once more. As matters stand, they are fixed to play Clare in Cork next Sunday and, should they win, must meet Galway on the following Sunday in Ennis. Truly, a most unfair and unsatisfactory arrangement.

The Waterford selectors and players have done their utmost to carry on their work oblivious to the clamour or objections and counter-objections. They have excluded from their reckoning all thought of what the Council decisions might be and have adhered as far as possible to their original training and to making sure that the fittest fifteen ever will strip for action in Cork next Sunday to realise the dream of a full century—a Munster Senior Crown for Deise hurlers. Here is how the team will field out:—

Mick Curley (goal)
Con Curley, Charlie Ware, John Fanning, Doyle, Walsh, John Kane, Jim Murnaghan, Sean Feeney, Christy Moylan, Willie Barron, Tom Greaney, Pa Sheehan, Jack Halpin, Locky Byrne, Dec. Good, Reserves—J. Bastin, J. Burke, J. O'Neill, T. Fitzgerald, D. Wyse, E. Daly, J. Butler, P. Greene, D. Power.

There is just one change from the combination victorious over Cork. "Sonny" Curley of Tallow comes on as right full-back to fill the place, vacated under referee's order, by Hickey. The new-comer is strong, fast and rugged, he clears well with both hands and is a demon in close play. He should prove a powerful understudy to the hard-hitting Portlough captain.

I do not wish to comment at length on the Clare-Tipperary objection and counter-objection, but here are a few illuminating side-lights. Cooney, the storm-centre who caused Tipp's dismissal, is the captain of the University College Team in Dublin, and, by his own admission, attended an International Rugby match last February. Griffin, the Clare player whom Cooney swears was also present at Landsdowne Road, is the vice-captain of the same University College Hurling team. And still they call it the "National University of Ireland"! Shades of Penrose and Mac Suibhne! How low is the national spirit and how low is the University which you died to ennoble and Gaelicise! Higher Education, Morvah! Yes! in Duplicity and Effeminacy, Snobbery and Socialism! A running sore on the body of Banba.

Council will have to pay for this work. Clerk—It is a thing we have no information about.

Mr. McCarthy—If we have a contribution to make, we should have a percentage of local labour at the work.

The B.S. suggested that the whole sewerage system should be run down the quay to the barrack corner, which would do away with all the outfalls along the quay.

It was finally decided that the Chairman and B.S. should see the County Surveyor.

The whole County is going to the 9 to 1 Dance in Kilmac on Sunday Night

DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT

Held on Wednesday before Mr. Troy, D.J.

Civil Bills
The Justice disposed of a number of civil bills in which decrees were granted in all cases.

Pendergast v. O'Donnell
Mr. Farrell, solicitor, for applicant, John Pendergast, Mitchell street, Dungarvan, said this was an application for a committal order against Patrick O'Donnell, Glendalligan, in respect of failure to comply with an instalment order.

Mr. Farrell said that the defendant called to him and promised to have the full amount paid in August. Under the circumstances he would ask the Justice to grant an adjournment, as his client did not wish to send defendant to jail.

The adjournment was granted.

Occasional Licences
Mr. Williams, solicitor, applied for an occasional licence on behalf of Thomas Hallinan, Kilgobnet, for August 16th, the occasion of the Annual Dance of the Kilmacnehan Handball Club.

The application was granted. Hours 10 p.m. to 3 a.m.

Transfer of Licence
Mr. Farrell, solicitor, was granted a transfer of the licence held at Grattan Square, Dungarvan, by the late Daniel Dempsey to his widow, Mrs. Julia Dempsey.

School Attendance
Cases under the School Attendance Act against John O'Connell, against Philip Durne, and another, were withdrawn.

Lights
Two cases under the Lights on Vehicles Act by Guard Daly, Leamybrien, were dealt with by fines of 3/6.

Sheep Scab
The Waterford County Council prosecuted Jeremiah Sheehan, Ballinakill, Ballinamully, with failure to notify the existence of sheep scab on his farm.

Mr. M. M. Hally, solicitor, appeared for the County Council. Defendant was not professionally represented.

Mr. Hally said the defendant admitted the facts of the case are, defendant has 122 sheep which his family admitted have been effected with scab since last April. The sheep were taken in and treated as they became effected, but the matter was never reported to the Inspector.

To the Justice, defendant said he did not know it was necessary to report the case.

The Justice—That is hardly possible. Defendant said he had 73 acres of land.

The Justice said defendant was liable to a fine of £5 in respect of each sheep, and asked defendant what he would do if he were mulcted for £10. However, we must put that matter on this time. He imposed a fine of £3 and costs, and added that if there were any more cases from that area before him he would impose much heavier penalties.

Assault on Guard
The adjourned case of Superintendent Walsh, v. Henry Kiely, Barrack Lane, charged with assaulting Guard Giblin, and damaging a cell in the barracks to the extent of £1 6s. 6d.

Mr. Williams, solicitor, appeared for the client and asked the Justice not to send his client to jail. He had asked him (Mr. Williams) to express his regret to the Guards for what had happened. He was prepared to pay for the damage done to the cell and would be leaving this country by the Rosslare Express on Friday night to go to a job in England. He was a member of a very large family and had worked for the firm of A. Moloney and Sons for 24 years.

The Inspector said he agreed substantially with what Mr. Williams had stated, but added that the Guard was off duty for six days as a result.

The Justice said it is all very fine to say that this man is going away to a job, but he should remember that the Guard was 6 days off duty. Is there any rule against the Guard looking for compensation?

The Inspector said he never heard of a case of the kind. He thought the money would go to the State.

The Justice—I don't see why the Guard couldn't look for compensation. Why should the State take it. I think the least the Guard should get is £2.

Guard Giblin said he did not want anything from the defendant.

The Justice then dealt with the case under the P.O.A., Mr. Williams giving an undertaking to pay £1 6s. 6d., compensation and £2 to the Garda Benevolent Fund.

The Justice said defendant can thank Guard Giblin because he (The Justice) had his mind made up that anyone who went to amuse himself by interfering with the Guards in the discharge of their duty will have to pay for such interference.

JOE RODGERS and HIS BAND

AN APPRECIATION OF DUNGARVAN SHOW

Dungarvan Show was held on Thursday, July 7th. The judges were Mr. E. Glen Browne, Mr. P. Quinn, Captain Roche, and Major Sir Cecil Walker. I have never been at a show when the weather was so bad. It blew a gale, was very cold, and there was a continuous heavy downpour. So bad was it that by 1 p.m. the show had to be abandoned, and by that time tents (including the Secretary's) were on the ground, a real misfortune for the hard-working Secretary and committee, who had put in a deal of hard work to make the event a success. The gale was so fierce that it was difficult to sit on a horse, and under the circumstances, I thought the manners of the young riding boys were very good in the ring. The class for five year old and upwards was won by Mr. J. Barry's bay gelding. This horse shows a lot of quality, and ridden by Miss Barry, gave a good show. The runner-up was a six-year-old grey by Perfection, the property of Mrs. Bright. It was a close thing in the heavy-weight class between the two leaders. First place went to Mr. P. Waters' grey gelding by Glolla Rhu. I heard this horse won at Cork. Mr. Arnold's bay gelding, which was among the three year olds last year at Clonmel, was second, and is by Volta's Pride. Both horses are good movers, and gave a very smart show in the ring. Best of the light-weight four year olds was Mr. Barry's brown gelding by Bay d'Or, and from the way he moved and looked I expect is in the Stud Book, and more will be heard of him. Mr. Cunniff's colt by Gallop Castle, dam by Cottage, was runner-up. A Ypres Rose gelding, owned by Mrs. M. M. Power, Graigarrish, was third. In the half-bred yearling gelding class first place went to Mr. Mulcahy's colt by Hot Haste, and in half-bred fillies Mr. Kearney, of Cahir, won with one by Mr. W. Burke's horse Gone Cold. A Suir Knight colt had first place in the thoroughbred yearlings, and was the property of Mr. Morrissey, of Cappagh.

DUNGARVAN CIRCUIT COURT

At the Dungarvan Circuit Court last week before Mr. Justice Sealy, K.C.

Claim and Counter Claim

This was a claim brought by Thomas Roche, Kilgubbin, Clashmore, against Edward Cunningham for £37 14s. balance of monies due for grazing.

Defendant counter-claimed for £25 in respect of work done by him for plaintiff.

Mr. Ryan, solr., for Roche. Mr. Hadden, solr., (instructed by Mr. Roddy, solr., for Edward Cunningham.

Thomas Roche said he was the occupier of this land, which is owned by his brother in America. Witness paid the rent and taxes on it. Cunningham lives in the same place, and had the grazing of six acres from Roche prior to 1931 at £8 a year, that arrangement continued until 1933. Witness received £4 10s. for grazing in 1934. Defendant had a mare and foal on the lands for 8 months in 1931, he took 100 fowling fields for three periods of 11 months at £5. He had the run of the house in 1932/33 and paid £3 in 1934 and £4 last March 12 months. Defendant also had other things for which witness did not charge; he had a horse of witness's working with the Co. Council and witness also gave him some hay. Defendant in return tilled about 3 acres of land for witness.

Cross-examined by Mr. Budd, B.L.—They are near neighbours, and were very good friends up to lately. He did not know they had a row outside a public house. They had no row, but had some words. The farm contains about 30 acres. Witness has a pension from the Army. Cunningham's land is about a mile away. He did not know which of the Cunninghams owned the cattle. Wm. Cunningham paid him in 1934. Edward did not plough and till four acres in 1935. He only harrowed and put the seeds in it. He would not agree that 15/- a day would be a fair wage for a man and pair of horses, as defendant only started at 12 o'clock in the day. He harrowed and set 3 acres not in 1936, and not in 1935. Witness demanded payment of Edward Cunningham before 1938.

Advancing Mr. Ryan—Plaintiff said that for the past 2 years defendant left two heifers on the land in part payment of the amount due, but when the heifers were near calving they took them away and sold them.

Edward Cunningham said the first year he had the 6 acres he paid £8 and the second year £7, he paid cash for it. He had a pony there in 1931 at 5/- a month for which he also paid cash. Witness and plaintiff were great friends up to 19th April when there was some trouble. Witness detailed at length the various works done by him for the plaintiff.

Mr. Ryan—Witness lived with his brothers on the farm. The farm is his. He only grazed horses, his brother grazed cattle. Witness ploughed, harrowed and set seven acres for the defendant. He never worked for the County Council. It was his brother. He never left two heifers in part payment. Plaintiff gave witness two acres for hay, but witness put 4 tons of stuff in it.

Mr. Cunningham, brother of the last witness said his brother had not any cattle on the lands. Witness made a bargain for three cattle at 4/- a month. Witness had a mare and foal there in 1930 and a few cattle on and off since. The witness was cross-examined at length by Mr. Ryan, solr.

Wm. Cunningham, another brother of defendant's also gave evidence. His Lordship in the course of summing up the case, said the plaintiff had kept very good accounts of the transactions, and that there is money due to him. He thought a reasonable and proper amount would be £27, and he would give a decree for that amount.

The counter claim was dismissed.

Slander Action

Gleeson v. Condon Gleeson v. Condon Mr. E. A. Ryan, solr., for plaintiff. Mr. J. I. McGuire, B.L., (instructed by Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr.,) represented both defendants.

These were two distinct cases, but by agreement between the legal gentlemen the cases were taken together.

Mr. Ryan said the language of which they complained was of such an improper nature that he would not repeat the words in Court, but would hand his Lordship a copy.

The defence continued Mr. Ryan, is a denial that the words complained of were ever spoken.

The facts of the case against Condon were that on the 23rd March 1937 (which was the day the Grand National was run) Condon and a man named O'Shea, were cycling to Dungarvan, and were overtaken by Mrs. Gleeson, whom O'Shea asked for a match. Condon cycled along and went into Mrs. Quill's public house where he was then joined by O'Shea where the slander complained of was spoken.

Mrs. Gleeson replying to Mr. Ryan said her husband died in 1934, she had two men working. She knew Thomas Keniry, and they had an arrangement made about helping her at fairs, etc. She knew Thomas McGrath the defendant. He proposed to her after her husband's death. He asked her if she would accept himself and £250. Witness refused. As a result of the talk she heard she wrote letters to defendants asking for an explanation. Condon and O'Shea visited her house. At first Condon denied saying anything, but later said he might have said it.

Mr. McGuire, B.L.—She had no intention of marrying Keniry. She had nothing against Keniry. She brought this action on what others told her. She knew Keniry gave McGrath a beating last August. Condon she knew received a sum of £500 some years ago for an accident. To Mr. Ryan—She did not bring these actions for any money she might get out of the defendants, but to clear her character.

Thomas Keniry, Carrowgorriv, Modeligo, gave evidence as to his meeting McGrath, and the slander used. McGrath also retorted to Mrs. Gleeson as witness's wife.

The witness was cross-examined at length by Mr. McGuire. He denied he got into armed robbery, he got it by collecting a £10 levy.

John Condon said on the 23rd March 1937, Condon and himself were cycling to Dungarvan. They met Mrs. Gleeson, whom witness asked for a match, which she gave him. Condon cycled on and they were overtaking him when witness and Condon went into Quill's public house and Condon stood the first drink. Condon asked the woman who the woman was and he told him Mrs. Gleeson. Condon then used the words complained of. Witness replied that Mrs. Gleeson was only an "old sport."

To Mr. McGuire—Condon asked who was the woman. Witness told him. He did not say that Mrs. Gleeson was Tommy Keniry's woman.

Mrs. Condon, replying to Mr. McGuire, B.L., said the bandage on her head was as a result of an injury due to a collision 15 years ago. He was very badly injured and there is still a hole in his head (laughter).

His Lordship—You are not putting in a plea of insanity, Mr. McGuire (laughter).

Mr. McGuire—No, my Lord, but I wanted to explain how the bandage came there (laughter).

Continuing, Condon said he remembered going to Dungarvan with O'Shea and meeting Mrs. Gleeson. He had a bottle of stout taken when O'Shea came in, he stood O'Shea a bottle. There was no conversation about Mrs. Gleeson except that witness asked who the woman was, and O'Shea replied "That's Mrs. Gleeson, Tommy Keniry's woman. He did not know the woman at all until that day. About six months after he met Keniry and Mrs. Gleeson and she asked him what he had said about her at Quill's. Witness replied, Quill is not so far from us, come and I'll prove it. Mrs. Quill and her son were in the bar the day O'Shea and himself were there. When witness got the letter from Mr. Ryan, solr., he went to Joe O'Shea and they went straight to Mrs. Gleeson. Witness told Mrs. Gleeson that he wanted to see who was right, and asked O'Shea if he (witness) said it. Witness told Mrs. Gleeson that he did not say it, but that O'Shea might have said it (Condon) said it.

To his Lordship—When I met Mrs. Gleeson she turned to me with Keniry the first thing she said was "I wish I could come with you. She then asked what he said at Quill's and witness said Quill was not so far away.

Thomas McGrath said he lived near Condon, and about half a mile from Keniry, and that Mrs. Gleeson's man was Keniry. He met Mrs. Gleeson twice only the first time coming from Corbett's, Knockalara. The second time he met her was returning from the fair in February or March 1936 driving cattle. She got on her bicycle and walked with him to Kiccannon Cross where she met her later in Cappoquin with Keniry and she told witness she was up that way lately meaning Modeligo. In September last witness was going through Keniry's land by an old Mass Path, when Keniry attacked him and struck him a blow on the head with a stick. Keniry used the most foul language. Witness never said anything to Mrs. Gleeson.

To Mr. Ryan—He knew Mrs. Gleeson a long time. He is not married. He worked as foreman baker for a long number of years. He met Mrs. Gleeson coming from the fair in 1936 and she walked 3/4 miles with him, she had a bicycle. It is wrong that witness called her and said he wanted to talk business with her. He did not say it must be hard for you to get on without a man, will you take me and £250. He denied referring to Mrs. Gleeson in filthy language to Keniry at the Cappoquin Post Office. It was commonly reported at the time that a wedding took place in Ballinacoola between Mrs. Gleeson and Keniry. Witness wished Keniry joy when he met him at Cappoquin not in an insulting way. He agreed that the day Mrs. Gleeson met him in Cappoquin she immediately charged him with what was said. He had a letter from Mrs. Gleeson also, asking for an explanation as to why he coupled her name with some man in Modeligo.

His Lordship at this stage questioned the witness as to why he was not now working at the Bakery business to which witness gave a very long explanation until stopped by his Lordship.

Summing up the case, his Lordship said a good many of the witnesses in this case, remained one of a water tap turned on under great pressure. Once they get talking it is difficult to stop them. Even though Keniry has been in jail twice for serious offences, I accept what he says. I think McGrath is guilty of these spiteful stories. Mrs. Gleeson was justified in coming into court and trying to put a stop to them. It is a mean and cowardly statement and I give a decree against her for £25.

The other man Condon, I regard as a mischievous person, even when he was in the box, he seemed to regard the whole thing as a joke. If he had not come into the box he would give a decree against him for £5, but having seen him in the box, he would not give a decree for £15 against him with costs and expenses in each case.

His Lordship then said that if any more people from that district came before him he would allow much heavier damages.

Kenry v. Mulcahy Mr. McDonald, B.L., (instructed by Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., for plaintiff. Mr. McGuire, B.L., (instructed by Mr. E. A. Ryan, solr.,) defended.

This was an action for £50 brought by Mr. J. Keane, Priory Street, Dungarvan, against Wm. Mulcahy, late of the Marine Hotel, in respect of furniture removed from the premises, also loss of profits from sales by reason of not being able to close the said units compensation had been fixed for the furniture, loss sustained by being unable to let the ploughed portion of the land attached, etc.

Mr. McDonald, opening the case said that in April 1938, the defendant held a public auction in an attempt to sell the premises known as the Marine Hotel, but did not succeed. His client later bought the premises for £600 and £300 auctioneers fees. Some days later his client found that a considerable amount of furniture was being removed from the house, being unable to close the sale he suffered loss of being unable to let the ploughed portion of the land 5 acres, and a sum of £2 a week for loss of profits.

Plaintiff said the premises were put up for public auction on April 7th and were not sold. Witness subsequently bought the place with all fittings for £600. Just before signing the agreement Defendant asked permission to take some articles of furniture. The date fixed for closing the sale was 23rd April. He got the furniture that the furniture was being removed he went out and found the information was correct. The total value of the furniture was £43 10s. od. He was not able to get possession until May. He suffered as a result a loss of £2 a week profit on sales. Also he was unable to let the 5 acres of ploughed land, his loss on that was £2 a week to be reasonable would be £4 or £5.

To Mr. McGuire—The premises consist of a thatched country house. It is known as the Marine Hotel. He never heard how it got the name and did not hear it was because of a crowd of drunken Marines being there, but he was unable to get drink (laughter).

The evening of the auction witness offered £500 for the premises. He told Mr. Hayes, Auctioneer, who called on him the following morning that if he could get the place, lock stock and barrel he would advance to £600. Mr. Hayes went out to Mulcahy's and came back later in the day and told witness he had got it. Witness phoned Mr. Ryan's office and with Mr. O'Donovan went out to Mr. Mulcahy. They were in the parlour and Mr. Mulcahy pointed out some furniture which he asked leave to take away. Witness agreed to let him have some stuff. He admitted being asked to buy the scales and saying they were part of the bar fittings. He saw some labels on pictures marked "not for sale," but not on anything else. He saw the one and a half bottle of ink would last him years. This young man seems very capable and kept these accounts very well. Then there are the little extras entered here and there of grazing letters on behalf of the Curran's to support the genuineness of the book. An Anker book is entitled to the splendid specimen of a lady of 80 years of age cannot be expected to have a clear recollection of all that took place. David Condon's account in my view is a proper one, and he earned his money faithfully and well, and in respect of Mrs. Curran, the one pen and the one bottle of ink would last him years. This young man seems very capable and kept these accounts very well. Then there are the little extras entered here and there of grazing letters on behalf of the Curran's to support the genuineness of the book.

This was an application on behalf of Mr. John Connors (Pilot), Abbeyside, under the Criminal Injuries Act for £10 in respect of damage to a boat his property.

After hearing the evidence. His Lordship held that applicant could not recover for injuries done by children and dismissed the case without costs.

LISMORE CIRCUIT COURT His Lordship opened the business of the Lismore Circuit Court in Dungarvan on Thursday last.

Wards of Court Mr. C. Murray, solr., made application to his Lordship to have Martin Donovan, Ballysaggart, appointed Guardian of Nora and Mary Donovan (minors), who were entitled under the will of an aunt to £1,101 dollars.

His Lordship made the order sought and made the two children wards of Court.

Landlord and Tenant Dr. E. Waters, prosecuted for the recovery of £115 7s. 8d., in respect of rent of a house at Tallow.

Defendant was not professionally represented.

Mr. E. Carroll, gave evidence of the amount due £115 7s. 8d., there was a payment of £47 10s. received, of that amount £4 15s. 9d., is due since the issue of the civil bill and is outside this action, that would leave the amount paid £44 12s. 3d.

Dr. Waters having given evidence of the repairs internal and external done to the premises.

The defendant said he was satisfied to pay the standard rent of £12 fixed by his Lordship in February 1936.

Mr. Bowen, Architect, Fermoy, gave the value of the structural alterations and improvements to the inside of the premises at £58 11s. 10d., and external repairs £45 7s. 2d.

David Condon, plaintiff, bore out the above statement. Mrs. Curran, defendant, who asked him to come to work with her had no one on the farm. He went over the following day. Mr. Curran was in bed and he offered him £2 a month. The farm contained 95 acres. The stock consisted of 20 milch cows, 40 dry cattle and about 16 sheep. Up to the time the place was sold they had no other man working. He worked from January 1932 to 11th March 1937, the day of the auction. On 16th January 1932, Miss Curran gave witness 4/-, witness said this is only 4/-, she replied that only for cigarettes, your pay will be alright when the place is sold. Each payment he received he entered first on a slip of paper and later he got a pass book. The entries in the account book (produced) were made by witness and were true and accurate. Witness never got his meals there. Mr. Curran died in 1935. The stock at the auction sold for £152 and the farm £680. Before the auction Miss Curran said whatever way the land will go you will be paid. Every payment made she said was only for cigarettes. He sent in his claim through Mr. Farrell, on Miss Curran's invitation.

To Mr. McDonald—He was appointed manager in January 1932. He was then a month off being 16 years.

Mary Condon, sister, corroborated the previous witness as regards meals. When her brother was at the farm witness used to bring the cows and bring milk to the creamery for which she got 1/- or 1/6. She was present on the eve of Curran's auction. She was cleaning up for the auction. Miss Curran said to plaintiff, I suppose it is your last night here, but whatever way the land will go you will be paid.

Miss Mary Curran, the defendant, who stated she was 80 years last St. Patrick's Day, and John Leahy, were examined for the defence.

His Lordship said he believed the evening before the auction Miss Curran did make this remark to Condon, but when she was asked the farm went, he would be paid. He believed she then thought there was some money due to Condon, but was ignorant of the amount, and if the amount had been smaller he believed she would have paid. When the account was sent in it seemed very large, but when a bill is left run on the account it mounts up with alarming rapidity. He believed the amount Condon was working for was not in keeping with the work done. Here is a farm of 95 acres, the owner was unable to work it. There was a large amount of stock, cows had to be fed and attended to. They got this boy in there and paid him about half the amount of a man's wages. Condon appears to me to be a most competent young farmer's son. He kept this account book which I think is a genuine book. All these accounts are open to suggestions by Counsel, but when he admits the remarks made in the first portion of the book were all made at the same time and taken from entries on a slip of paper. The other entries he stated were put in later, as he got paid certain sums. When a man like this is so sure of himself, he would not be fed and attended to by a boy who would last him years. This young man seems very capable and kept these accounts very well. Then there are the little extras entered here and there of grazing letters on behalf of the Curran's to support the genuineness of the book.

An Anker book is entitled to the splendid specimen of a lady of 80 years of age cannot be expected to have a clear recollection of all that took place. David Condon's account in my view is a proper one, and he earned his money faithfully and well, and in respect of Mrs. Curran, the one pen and the one bottle of ink would last him years. This young man seems very capable and kept these accounts very well. Then there are the little extras entered here and there of grazing letters on behalf of the Curran's to support the genuineness of the book.

Claim for Damages to Boat Mr. McDonald, B.L., (instructed by Mr. Ryan, solr.,) for plaintiff. Mr. McGuire, B.L., (instructed by Mr. Williams, solr.,) appeared for the Urban Council.

This was an application on behalf of Mr. John Connors (Pilot), Abbeyside, under the Criminal Injuries Act for £10 in respect of damage to a boat his property.

His Lordship made the order sought and made the two children wards of Court.

Series Motor Accident— Mr. T. Gillespie, Manager of the Cappoquin Bacon Factory, and his wife had an alarming experience on last Sunday week, while motoring from Cappoquin towards Clogheen along the road which runs through the Knockmaldon Mountains, past the famous "Bay Lough," on the Cappoquin side of Clogheen.

They were the only occupants of the car, which was being driven by Mrs. Gillespie, who is not long residing in Cappoquin, and something seems to have gone wrong with the mechanism of the car before they had proceeded very far, as it is stated that certain adjustments had to be made by a passing motorist. All went well, however, after this until the dangerous bend known as the "V" near Bay Lough, when the car was badly damaged and Mrs. Gillespie sustained some facial injuries from broken glass, but Mrs. Gillespie escaped with a severe shaking and a slight injury to one of her legs.

The unlucky passengers were later driven home to Cappoquin in a hired Clogheen car, while their disabled car was afterwards towed in to Mr. M. J. Sargent's Garage here when its battered appearance afforded ample proof of the force of its impact with the wall.

It may be mentioned that the wall in question has only been erected at this dangerous spot within recent years, as a bill is left run on the account it mounts up with alarming rapidity. He believed the amount Condon was working for was not in keeping with the work done. Here is a farm of 95 acres, the owner was unable to work it. There was a large amount of stock, cows had to be fed and attended to. They got this boy in there and paid him about half the amount of a man's wages. Landlord and Tenant Dr. E. Waters, prosecuted for the recovery of £115 7s. 8d., in respect of rent of a house at Tallow.

Defendant was not professionally represented.

Mr. E. Carroll, gave evidence of the amount due £115 7s. 8d., there was a payment of £47 10s. received, of that amount £4 15s. 9d., is due since the issue of the civil bill and is outside this action, that would leave the amount paid £44 12s. 3d.

Dr. Waters having given evidence of the repairs internal and external done to the premises.

The defendant said he was satisfied to pay the standard rent of £12 fixed by his Lordship in February 1936.

Mr. Bowen, Architect, Fermoy, gave the value of the structural alterations and improvements to the inside of the premises at £58 11s. 10d., and external repairs £45 7s. 2d.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

Where is Cappoquin? While all those little country villages and districts around us are alive and active in the matter of preserving our popular sports and pastimes, Cappoquin, once the pioneer of such matters, seems to have completely dropped out of the picture at present.

There is no town in Ireland can a finer or more centrally-situated sports field be found than in this town; yet, with such wonderful facilities, we have neither football, hurling nor sports here now, the only substitutes for these at present being cricket and tennis, which however popular these games may be with certain classes, can never replace the fine, many pastimes referred to above.

Will Egg Producers Ever Get Sense? For several weeks past cases have been reported from various parts of Munster in which Egg Merchants and Exporters have been prosecuted and heavily fined for having soiled or dirty eggs on their premises. Farmers, cottiers and other egg producers have been warned from time to time about the danger which exporters are open to if they purchase soiled eggs at any price, and yet the producers persist in marketing eggs in such a filthy and disgraceful condition as should make them feel ashamed of themselves. What a pity some of those careless producers cannot be detected and heavily fined, for then they may be induced to do something to uphold the once high record of Irish eggs in the English markets.

Invasion of Tramps— Although the weather had been so cold and wintry up to the beginning of this week, during which flies were as scarce as sovereigns, we have had to endure another form of pest worse than the flies, this being the unusually large number of tramps and vagrants, of all sorts and sexes, who have been regularly invading this town for months past and causing untold annoyance to busy householders by their persistent knockings and importunities under the guise of travelling "musicians" many a case of this kind young men have been making life almost intolerable day after day, while the beggar-woman with the "squealing baby" has also added very effectively to the general din. They seem to think that Cappoquin is veritable "El Dorado" for all comers, but as "charity begins at home," the people here realise that if they have anything to spare, the poor people in their own town should have first claim on their charity and generosity, and if this principle were more widely practised it would prove the most immediate and effective way to put an end to the regular invasions of tramps to which we have referred.

The local Civic Guards, to their credit be it said, are doing their best to end this nuisance, and we had a striking instance of this on Tuesday evening when several of them were particularly bold and "gang" in Cook street and quickly put them "on the run."

Hay-Making in Full Swing— St. Swithin's Day (Friday 13th inst.) having proved fine, those who are given to superstitious welcomes to the fact and said it was a good omen that we were likely to get a spell of summer weather at last.

The optimistic meteorological prognostications of these trustful people have been more than justified by the splendid warm weather experienced during the week, and the sudden change from wintry conditions to blazing sunshine has had its usual repercussion here.

Old Panama and Straw hats, which had been hidden away for a long period in the dim and misty corridors of Time, have now been resurrected and proudly displayed in the many windows of our shops, and the people are again reminded of the principle of putting something away for the "Sunny Day," while the young ladies, who had hitherto been wearing heavy clothing and raincoats, are again resplendent in the most flimsy and diaphanous creations and fit about like so many gaily-coloured butterflies in God's glorious sunshine.

Bathing is also in full swing, hay-making is progressing fast on every farm in the district, and the many hum of life and laughter can be heard on all sides, and long may it continue before we again enter into the coldness and gloom of the long winter.

A JOURNALIST'S PRAYER A journalist's prayer to the patron of the profession, St. Francis de Sales, has appeared in the "Universe." It reads: "St. Francis, dear patron of a harassed tribe, grant us, thy servants, a little more of thy critical spirit, and a little less of our readers. Confer on our subscribers the grace of condensation in overlooking our faults, the grace of light in acknowledging our merits and the grace of promptitude in meeting our bills. Make them less partial to compliments, more callous to rebuke, less critical of misprints. Give us beautiful thoughts, but life and laughter can be heard on all sides, and long may it continue before we again enter into the coldness and gloom of the long winter.

Something should be done at once to remedy this serious state of affairs. It is not fair to ask the people to water-rate for water which it is impossible to get. As the Main Scheme is now almost complete, wonder where the water is to be flushed the new pipes, as the present is scarcely sufficient to make bubbles" for children!

An Awkward Dilemma— A motorist party returning from his home in Banaha, Co. Kerry, on last Sunday night were in an awkward dilemma when they found that their petrol supply was exhausted.

Owing to the lateness of the night, Mr. J. Sargent's Garage, which is only re-fuelling station in the town, had almost abandoned all hope of getting back to "Gallant Tipper" the night when the welcome approaching footsteps gave it hope. The writer was the "culprit" making the nocturnal southerly appeal to the Priest, who had almost abandoned all hope of getting back to "Gall

Still in Winning Form—At the Kill Cycling and Athletic Sports on last Sunday week, Norman Walsh, Cappoquin, although suffering from a slightly injured foot, reproduced the great athletic form which he had displayed at previous meetings this year by winning the Open 100 Yards event of the 6 yards mark, E. Moore, Dunhill (7 yds.) being second. In the 200 yards race, being reversed, when Moore was first and Walsh second, the latter conceding the winner 6 yards start, the handicaps being Moore (10 yards) and Walsh (10 yards), so that the latter's performance was highly meritorious under the circumstances. In the cycling events at the same meeting Jim Foley, Lismore, won the Two Miles Cycling Championship of County Waterford, and also won the One Mile Cycle (Open), so that West Waterford was well and worthily represented by these two brilliant young sportsmen, who will be again seen in action at the Villierston and Bouda Sports to be held within the next few weeks, when we feel confident that both of them may be relied upon to again render a good account of themselves in their respective spheres.

Preparing for Melleray's Great Day—Mr. M. J. Sargent, Hon. Sec., Mount Melleray Church, Building Fund, is now busily engaged in completing all arrangements for the Grand Drawing of Prizes which is to be held in aid of this deserving fund on Sunday September 25th, for which books of tickets have been distributed all over the globe. We hope the numerous friends of Mount Melleray throughout the County Waterford will not be lacking in their support of this deserving object, and the best and most practical manner in which they can assist it is by applying to Mr. Sargent for books of tickets without delay, so that they can have them all sold in good time. In addition to the twelve valuable prizes which are guaranteed on the tickets, other valuable prizes are being received daily by Mr. Sargent from all quarters, so that an important sale of these goods will be held on several days before the Grand Drawing of Prizes, and the public will be able to secure some rare bargains, while at the same time generously supporting the fund for the erection of St. Philomena's New Church and Shrine, the work on which is now making wonderful progress at Mount Melleray.

A great amount of local employment is being provided on this work, so that the people of Cappoquin should generously support the fund. Much regret has been caused in this district by the death of Mr. John McGrath, Boherberry, Cappoquin, which occurred at his residence on Tuesday week after a month's illness. Deceased was a well-known farmer and a most industrious and hard-working man, whose great honesty and upright character won for him the respect and esteem of all. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Catholic Church, Cappoquin, on Wednesday evening week, and after Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul next day, the funeral took place to St. Declan's cemetery, Dromroe, there being a very large attendance of mourning relatives and friends from over a wide area. Very Rev. T. Fitzgerald, P.P., headed the cortege, and read the final prayers at the graveside.—R.I.P.

Pilgrimage to Knock—Amongst those who took part in the great Pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Blessed Lady at Knock, Co. Mayo, on last Sunday were Mr. M. J. O'Connor, Egg and Poultry Exporter, and Mrs. O'Connor, Cappoquin, who, with their three children, motored to Clonmorris on Saturday night so as to be able to participate in the religious ceremonies and devotional exercises before the hallowed Shrine on Sunday. Both speak highly of the wonderfully impressive scenes of religious fervour and devotion on Sunday, and they add that the grand feeling of spiritual upliftment which one experiences after such a visit would more than compensate anybody for undertaking such a long and arduous journey.

Water Shortage—Numerous complaints have reached us within the past week about the great shortage of water experienced by the townspeople for some considerable time past. It is stated that it takes nearly half an hour to fill a bucket at any of the pumps in the town, in spite of all the heavy rainfalls up to a fortnight ago. Something should be done at once to remedy this serious state of affairs, as it is not fair to ask the people to pay a water-rate for water which it is almost impossible to get. As the Main Sewerage Scheme is now almost completed, we wonder where the water is to be got to flush the new pipes, as the present supply is scarcely sufficient to make "soap bubbles" for children!

An Awkward Dilemma—A motoring party returning from Youghal to their home in Bansha, Co. Tipperary, on last Sunday night were placed in an awkward dilemma when they arrived in Cappoquin close on midnight, and found that their petrol supply was exhausted. Owing to the lateness of the hour, Mr. M. J. Sargent's Garage, which is the only re-fuelling station in the town, had been locked up for hours, and with the streets almost deserted, there appeared little hope of succour for the "stranded" excursionists. The party included a Priest, two laymen and two ladies, and they had almost abandoned all hope of getting back to "Gallant Tipperary" for the night when the welcome sound of approaching footsteps gave them new hope. The writer was the "culprit" who was making the nocturnal sound, as he had been called by the Priest to help them out of their awkward position. There was no alternative but to knock up

LISMORE NOTES

Death of Miss Nora Nan Walsh, Main Street, Lismore.—We regret to record the death of Miss Nora Nan Walsh, who died at her residence Main Street, Lismore, on the 19th inst., after a brief illness and fortified by the rites of the Holy Church. Sprung from a highly-respected family in Killybeg, she carried on an extensive Grocery trade with her sister at Main Street, Lismore. A lady with fine traits of character, she was extremely popular in the town for her honest dealings, and her premature demise is deeply deplored by all classes. The remains were removed from her late residence to St. Carthage's Cathedral, Lismore, on Wednesday evening, and were followed by a large and representative cortege. Requiem Office and High Mass were celebrated for the repose of deceased's soul on Thursday morning. The celebrant being T. Tobin, C.C., Lismore; Rev. T. O'Gorman, C.C., Dungarvan; Rev. T. Corbett sub-deacon. The interment took place immediately afterwards to the Old Church Cemetery, at which the attendance of the general public plentifully bespoke the respect entertained for deceased. Rev. T. O'Gorman, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Tobin, C.C., read the final prayers at the graveside. The chief mourners were:—John Walsh, Dromroe (brother); Miss May Walsh, Lismore (sister); Mary Walsh (sister-in-law); Thomas and William Walsh (nephews); Mrs. Walsh, Dick, and Tom Walsh, Belica, Cappoquin; Hugh and Tom Walsh, Crinington, Cappoquin; Dick, Hugh and May Conners, Carrigeen; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Colender; George and May Healy, Cappoquin; Miss Coffey and Paddy Coffey, Carrigeen; Miss and Michael Keane, Dick; Paddy and Maude Coffey, Carrigeen; Miss Nora and Nellie Keane, Youghal; Percy Casey, Dungarvan; Miss Katie and Mary Walsh, Killybeg; John and Mrs. Doocoy, Ballyhea (cousins and relatives).

Dramatic Society Dance—The opening dance of the season will be held under the above auspices on August 15th, and judging the successes which have followed, these dances in the past, this should prove no exception. Little Things—Some little duty done today unnoticed though it be. May lead you to your destined way and prove the master-key. To open many an iron door which seemed impregnable before. Some little kindness shown today shall often prove to you. That hopes, for which we seek and pray may prove divinely true. That love, above all else is meet to guide poor mortals erring feet. Some little seed sown in the heart and watered by your tears, May long lie dormant and inert, but after anxious years, Spring up to save a life from shame and crown it with an honoured name.

Mr. Sargent, who had long since retired to his virtuous bed, but once the position had been explained to him, he kindly and quickly roused one of his sons from his slumbers, and in a short time the motor car was completely re-fuelled, and the now-happy party started off in great glee for Bansha, the Priest suitably thanking Mr. Sargent and the writer. On Holidays—The Rev. T. Dunphy, our zealous and universally esteemed C.C., is at present away for a well-earned annual holiday, but Rev. Father Malachy, O.Cist., Mount Melleray, very kindly comes to Cappoquin every Sunday to celebrate Mass on his behalf during his absence. Cricket—Hearne's XI, the Cricket team representing the well-known firm of John Hearne and Son, Building Contractors, Waterford, visited Cappoquin on last Saturday for a match with the home team, but the latter seemed to be hopelessly out of form and were dismissed for less than 20, while the visitors scored over 100 runs, and consequently won by a big margin. Cappoquin started the season well, and gave promise of even better performances when the season advanced, but they can never hope to retain the "Ashes" unless they show a marked improvement on their present form.

EAST CORK JOTTINGS

Hurling Match in Ballymacoda—On Sunday last in Ballymacoda teams representing the Cloyne and Youghal clubs fought out their championship tie in "B Grade" hurling. Conditions were against scientific hurling, the grass had been newly cut and there was a thick dew both that was rain fell incessantly, this soon got greasy and slippery, and made footwork very difficult. Cloyne led during the first half-hour, but after the change over, Youghal soon got on level terms, and the game became very exciting. Cloyne strove hard to regain the lead, but the Youghal backs held them at bay and a ding-dong struggle ensued. Ultimately Youghal got through for a point and encouraged by this success they redoubled their efforts and finally won a well-contested match by a five-point margin. The honours really lay with Cloyne for it was their second string, or Junior team that was engaged, while Youghal fielded their best players, some of whom had been playing senior only a little while ago. Championship Match at Castlemary—On Sunday night in the grounds of the Castlemary hurling club the home team is billed to play their rivals from Inch. There is a doubt at the moment as to whether the match will take place as fixed because of the Munster Final in Cork. The players on both sides are anxious not to miss the big match, and the gate too, would suffer because all the East Cork Gaels will be in the City on Sunday. If however, the fixture is allowed stand the match will be an interesting one. Castlemary are going great guns and their recent defeat of Kilkronan in Youghal stamps them as the best team in the division in their grade. One great advantage they will have is that the match is taking place in their own club grounds. The Inch lads are not a bit daunted, however, and are confident of being able to assert their superiority over their rivals. They have undergone a special course of training and are very fit. The winners of this match will meet Youghal in the divisional final, and this fact alone will encourage both teams to put forth their best endeavours to secure victory.

Fianna Fall Parade and Dance—The Victory Parade and Dance under the auspices of the local Fianna Fall Clubs took place in Killybeg on Sunday night and was an outstanding success. The Waterford T.D.'s were present and spoke as also did Mr. Martin Corry, T.D. South-East Cork. Mr. Patrick O'Mahoney, presided, and the speakers were given a very enthusiastic reception. The dance on Sunday night was also very successful, the spacious Bohemian Hall, being filled to capacity. The proceedings all through were most enjoyable. Killybeg Cattle, Sheep and Pig Fair—The Killybeg July fair, which was held on Monday last, was, as usual, very well stocked. Buyers were present in large numbers, and in spite of the fact that there was an important Limerick fair on the same day, still most of the Limerick and Tipperary buyers as well as those from Cork and Waterford were in Killybeg. Prices all round were well up to late rulings. Springers were scarce and dear and good-conditioned cattle sold well. Pigs were dear, and though there was a good supply it was soon exhausted for the demand was very keen. There was a good deal of congestion at the railway station, but everything passed off smoothly.

G. A. A. WEST WATERFORD FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP. At the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last, Stradbally, Junior football string met and defeated the Brickey Rangers Juniors, after a very mediocre display by both sides. This was principally due to the fact that throughout the progress of the game a thick mist fell, making ball control and footwork very difficult. In the first quarter Stradbally were the more aggressive side and bombarded the Brickey defence, which however withstood assault after assault until a high ball from Curran completely deceived the Brickey goalie and grazed the upright to Brickey goal and grazed the upright to Brickey goal. The same player a few minutes later again beat the goalie for a second goal. In the closing stages the Brickeys asserted themselves, but were out of luck, as in two vigorous assaults the ball struck the uprights. The first half ended with Stradbally 2 goals, Brickeys nil. In the second period it was thought that with a slight breeze it was thought that the Brickeys would reduce Stradbally's lead, but although they attacked time after time, they were unable to penetrate the Stradbally defence, who further added two points to their score sheet. Full-time score read: Stradbally..... 2-2 Brickey Rangers..... Nil Mr. Willie Barron, Dungarvan Hurling and Football Club, refereed to the general satisfaction of all. Prior to the football match, a Dungarvan selection gave the Abbeyside Hurling team a practice game, some very good hurling was witnessed, Dungarvan finally winning by 5 points. This match will be of great benefit to Abbeyside in their preparation for their replay with St. Anne's.

FIND IN QUARRY. Skeleton In Ancient Stone Coffin. A working man who was taking sand out of a quarry at Killybeg, Ballina, discovered an ancient stone coffin, 6 feet in length, containing a skeleton which faced eastwards. The find has been reported to the Archaeological Society.

PROPOSED PUBLIC HEALTH CLINIC AT DUNGARVAN

At the last meeting of the Board of Health the following report on the above was read from Mr. Doyle, Assistant Engineer: I send you, herewith, sketch design and lay-out plan for the proposed Central Clinic. The Scheme proposed is for a single story building with frontage on Fair Lane. In the Fair Lane wing will be incorporated the Poor Law Dispensary unit. The main Clinic rooms are disposed in the other wing and facing south. I have included for a small office for the Home Assistance Officer adjoining the Poor Law Dispensary Waiting Room which is the most convenient arrangement for delay with Home Assistance Payments. The general Plan is simple and direct. Access to the various offices will be from corridors 7 feet wide. The building will be constructed in mass concrete with reinforced concrete flat roof overlaid with asphalt with corkboard or other insulating medium being used. The height of the office and corridors will be 12 feet. The heights of the subsidiary rooms and stores would be 8 feet which would allow ample scope for clear-story lighting to the corridors. Heating would be by hot water low pressure accelerated system with Boiler House in basement access to which would be from the caretaker's store as shown. I estimate the total cost to be £12,000 which includes equipment. An order was made that the sketch design be approved, submit same to Department for their approval and to state amount of contribution from Sweepstake Funds.

JOURNALIST'S PRAYER

Journalist's prayer to the patron of journalism, St. Francis de Sales, has been in the "Universal." It reads: O sacred, dear patron of a harassed and us, thy servants, a little more of thy spirit, and a little less of our own. Confer on our subscribers of condescension in overlooking our faults, the grace of light in asking our merits and the grace of aid in meeting our bills. Make us partial to compliments, more to rebuke, less critical of ourselves, more of beautiful thoughts, brave so that we, thy children, may courage to write as we think, readers the docility to think as we are told. Then shall we, thy faithful resting on thy protection, fight us with joyful hearts, drive the door, the devil out of the fold, and see thee in everlasting peace.

Many people do actually price Second-hand Cars without seeing or testing them—in all cases giving wrong prices for them.

Sometimes a "buyer" will express considerable surprise at the thorough examination and test I give his car before quoting on it; but some day he will think better of me, and incidentally make a mental note that a USED CAR bought from me will be a good specimen.

DEATH OF MR. WM. PYNE—

We regret to record the death which took place on Monday evening last of Mr. William Pyne, Bridge Street, Dungarvan.—R.I.P.

The late Mr. Pyne, was the possessor of a most entertaining personality. Joining the British Army in his young days, he saw service in many parts and his reminiscences of those far off days in distant climes were of a most varied and interesting kind. His sterling qualities as a soldier were quickly appreciated by his superior officers, and after a most meritorious term of service, he retired from the Army with the rank of Sergeant-Major.

After the Great War, deceased took a special interest in the ex-Servicemen's organisation and did more than one man's part in looking after the interest of the members.

The funeral to the Parish Church on Tuesday evening was very largely attended, the burial took place on Wednesday in the adjoining cemetery.

EXCURSION TO DUBLIN—

Next Thursday, August 4th, an excursion from Dungarvan takes place with Dublin as the venue. The fare is 8/6 which is very cheap. The public are availing of the trip in big numbers and with the facilities given that is not surprising. The train leaves Dungarvan at 7.15 a.m., calling at Durrow and Kilmac-thomas stations for the convenience of travellers. Dublin will be reached after 11 a.m., and the return will be at 9.45 p.m. Thus a very long day will be left for the enjoyment of the tourists. Being Horse Show Week, the excursionists will have the opportunity of visiting Ballsbridge in the afternoon, and seeing the wonders there and the International Military Jumping Competitions as well as hearing the No. 1 Army Band. From every point of view it will be a great day and as we understand all Dungarvan business premises will be closed on Thursday to enable all who wish to travel, there is unlimited scope for it. Senator John Butler, has all arrangements perfect, and with a fine day assured this year's excursion will be something to be remembered.

Defence Counsel Successfully Seeks Discharge

A case of very considerable interest was opened before Judge Sealy and a special jury at the Waterford Circuit Court on Thursday. It was a claim for £300—the limit of the Circuit Court jurisdiction—and it was brought by Dr. Nicholas Purcell, Tramore, in respect of an alleged libel contained in a letter, dated Dec., 16th, 1937, by Mr. M. O'Flynn, Secretary of the Waterford County Board of Public Assistance, who had neglected of duty, which letter was subsequently published in a meeting of the defendant.

The plaintiff claimed to have been damaged in his professional reputation by reason of the publication of the letter.

As the jury was being sworn four jurors in all—two on behalf of the plaintiff and two on behalf of the defendant—were challenged.

Mr. R. Bereton Barry, S.C., and F. G. O. Budd (instructed by Messrs. Kenny and Stephenson) were for the plaintiff; Mr. Cecil Lavery, S.C., and Mr. James McGuire (instructed by Mr. E. A. Ryan) were for the defendant.

At the conclusion of plaintiff's case Mr. Lavery applied for a direction on several grounds. His Lordship, having heard legal argument on the points raised, granted the defence counsel's application.

Giving judgment in favour of the defendant Judge Sealy said: It was important always to have regard to the meaning of malice in a case like this. There must be some spite or indirect malice on the part of the defendant. He must have some improper motive in saying what he has said. Notwithstanding what Mr. Barry had stated he (Judge) could not find any evidence at all spoken to submit to a jury of any spite, ill-will or indirect or improper motive on the part of the defendant in regard to what had happened.

What Mr. Flynn had written and published in this case seemed to be typical of what one expected from a great many Government and Civil Servants. They were hitherto and malicious, and after all perhaps Mr. O'Flynn was properly meticulous. There were certain mistakes in this case, and Mr. O'Flynn had written in consequence of those mistakes. He was bound to write to have the thing cleared up.

I cannot see any evidence to submit to the jury, of ill-will or improper motive on the part of Mr. O'Flynn, therefore, I think I must direct on behalf of the defendant and this case cannot go to the jury.

On the application of Mr. Barry, his Lordship granted a stay of 14 days.

Agricultural Conditions

Weather and Work—Weather conditions throughout June were unsettled, rain being frequent and temperatures, particularly at night, below normal for the season.

Pastures and Live Stock—The normal development of pastures continued to be checked by the lack of sunshine and by the low temperatures but, a remarkable recovery was evident in the latter half of June and by the end of the month there was almost a full covering of grass.

Though still showing some of the effects of the prolonged drought and shortage of grass cattle were healthy and thriving and rapidly approaching seasonal condition.

Haymaking—Little progress was made with the cutting of early meadows. First and second crop hay, except on well manured or top-dressed ground, was lighter than the average.

Cereals—All grain crops made excellent progress, many that had appeared rather weak at the beginning of the month making a noticeable recovery.

Root Crops—Crops of sugar beet were backward due to slow and uneven germination, but after the middle of June good progress was made.

Flax—In counties Cavan and Donegal the flax crop made good progress towards the end of the month but plants were still rather short.

Potatoes—Conditions during the spring months were not too favourable for the potato crop.

Outbreaks of blight were notified from many parts of the country but were mainly confined to gardens.

Cattle—The provincial fairs held in June were of small to average dimensions.

Class fat bullocks and heifers £14 10s. to £22; best fat cows and bulls £9 to £15; Choice Springing Cows and Heifers £14 10s. to £20 10s.; Choice Down-calving Cows £13 to £20.

Sheep—Flocks were in good health, and their condition improved during the month. Demand for mutton was not sufficiently strong to maintain previous rates and a weakening in the value of sheep and lambs was evident.

Wool prices were disappointing, with a weaker tendency as the month advanced. For washed wools the values were approximately:—Downs 9d. to 10d.; per lb.; long wools 7d. to 9d.; cheviot 8d. to 9d.; Cheviot crosses 6d. to 7d.; mountain 3d. to 4d.

Pigs—A steady output of pigs was represented at the various fairs and markets in June, and returned, approximately previous rates. The average price for pigs suitable for the bacon curing industry ranged from 66s. 9d. to 72s. 6d. per cwt. dead weight, or from 50s. to 54s. 6d. per cwt. at figures varying from £35 to £50.

Horses—Values of horses were well up to previous levels, but a quieter trade prevailed. The hunter type was in good demand at figures varying from £35 to £750.

Supplies of milk to creameries in June were on the same level as in the previous month. Milk delivered to creameries in May realised 4.92d. per gallon with separated milk returned to producers.

VACCINE TREATMENT FOR FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE

VIRUS MORE COMPLEX THAN HITHERTO REALISED

An admission that the foot-and-mouth disease virus is considerably more complex than was ever realised before is made in the Agricultural Research Council's report for the two years ended September, 1937, and the possibility of producing an immunising vaccine to protect cattle and other susceptible farm stock from the disease is discussed.

No fewer than 88 strains of virus received from outbreaks of foot-and-mouth in Great Britain have been classified, and the view is held that the two main obstacles to success in vaccine production are the multiplicity and apparent instability of the virus strains and the difficulty of obtaining virus in sufficient quantity.

The cost of continuing research, the report adds, "is bound to be heavy, but assuming that a vaccine could be made in quantity which would give an immunity to the great losses which this disease causes to stock owners in many countries is worth making."

The report also forecasts large scale experiments into contagious abortion in cattle. These will be carried out at Compton Manor Estate on the Berkshire Downs, which the Council have purchased as a field station.

"Grass Sickness" in Horses—The report recalls that in the summer of 1936 there was a devastating outbreak of "grass disease" in horses, causing the death of some 1,500 head in Scotland alone. It recites the grants given in aid of investigation by the Moredun Institute at Edinburgh.

The Superintendent applied for an Area Exemption Order for "Patron Day" at Ardmore. The application was granted.

SWEET GLENDINE—The songs of birds ring through the scented air. The streamlet ripples as it flows to sea. The calls of children who are free from care, Come echoing through the woods and o'er the lea.

Those are the sounds I hear in that sweet vale. Where I have spent so many happy days, Glendine! my love for you shall never fail. You'll be the subject of my tenderest lays.

I know that when I'm far from that dear home, In fancy I shall wander down the glen, Through scented woods and green-clad fields I'll roam, And see the little Church and school again.

In dreams I'll hear again the little bell, Whose chimes ring out a sweet, decisive call, Which echoes through each wood and flowery dell, To call to Mass the faithful—one and all.

Sweet Glen! no matter where in life I roam, You'll be the loveliest spot on earth to me, You'll be the place I'll always call my home, Though I be many miles across the sea. EILEEN LYONS, Glendine, Youghal, Co. Cork.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL—At Youghal Council, Mr. R. Power, proposed a cordial vote of congratulation to the esteemed fellow townsman, Mr. M. Colbert, ex-Postmaster, on the ordination of his son, Rev. Joseph Colbert M.S.S. As a life-long friend and family connection of their old friend, it afforded him extreme pleasure to ask to have that important event mentioned in their records.

Children's Socks—Children's Socks become very stained in the foot during summer, and it is often impossible to wash out those stains. Try soaking the socks in cold water with a sliced lemon in it and leave them overnight.

Kid Gloves—Dirty spots on white or coloured kid gloves are very unsightly and you often have not time to wash them if you are in a hurry to go out. Just rub the marks with cotton wool and Eau-de-Cologne and they will look much cleaner.

Shiny Skirts—If your skirt is becoming shiny, rub over the affected part with halved potato. Then rub it over lightly with butter muslin soaked in tepid water.

Hang the skirt up and allow it to dry. You should find the results satisfactory.—R.I.H. in "Farmers' Gazette."

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT.

VOUCHAL COURT—Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J. Civil Bills, etc.

An unusually large number of civil bills annuity and insurance cases were listed for hearing—Messrs. Wm. R. Hodnett, T. K. Keane, and J. N. R. Macnamara, solrs., appearing for the plaintiffs. Decrees were granted in some cases, but the greater number were adjourned to the September court.

This was a defended civil bill for £16 10s. arrears of rent, Mr. T. K. Keane for plaintiff and Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, for defendant. The point at issue between the parties was whether the rent was £9 or £5.

From the evidence it appeared the dispute arose over the alleged trespass of a bull. Brown charged Hunt with calling him a "robber," and Hunt charged Brown with calling him a "grabber."

Both parties having been examined and cross-examined at great length, The Justice adjourned the cases for 3 months.

Sergt. Lupton and Guard Dempsey, had a number of persons summoned for minor motor and cycling offences. In one case a city visitor was charged with parking 4 feet from the pathway at Claycastle, the limit being 1 1/2 feet.

The defendant appeared and in reply to the Justice's question: "What have you got to say?" said "I want the car dismissed and not to have it appear in the Press. It would injure me." (laughter).

Mr. T. K. Keane, applied on behalf of Mrs. Helena Fleming, for an occasional license for the Youghal Tennis Court, in connection with the Annual Tournament to be held the first week in August.

The Superintendent applied for an Area Exemption Order for "Patron Day" at Ardmore. The application was granted.

FIFTEEN MONTHS FOR BANK CLERK

It was sad to think that a man of his age should have thought that by backing horses he was going to make money which would enable him to pay what he owed the bank, said Judge Sealy, at Waterford, when he sentenced John J. Cusack (39), a native of Newry and former teller and accountant, Provincial Bank, Tranmore, to 15 months' imprisonment for embezzling sums amounting to over £3,000. Accused was stated to be a nephew of the late Judge Cusack.

Cusack, who was arrested by English police at Coventry six years after the offence, pleaded guilty. It was stated by Mr. F. G. O. Budd (instructed by Mr. H. J. Kenny, solr., Waterford), who defended, that Cusack went to relatives in Northern Ireland, where his arrest could not be effected owing to extradition difficulties.

Both parties having been examined and cross-examined at great length, The Justice adjourned the cases for 3 months.

Sergt. Lupton and Guard Dempsey, had a number of persons summoned for minor motor and cycling offences. In one case a city visitor was charged with parking 4 feet from the pathway at Claycastle, the limit being 1 1/2 feet.

KILMAGTHOMAS NEWS.

Sympathy

A great wave of public sympathy goes out to well and popularly known Mr. Nicholas Dunphy, farmer, Grawn, Kilmagthomas, in his recent sad bereavement occasioned by the death of his equally well-known brother—the late Mr. Michael Dunphy, of Ballycashin, Waterford (R.I.P.)

Corral Felicitations—Are extended to most estimable Miss Kathleen Phelan (daughter of universally esteemed Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phelan, Furrallagh, Kilmagthomas) on her marriage to Mr. Alfred Wiggins, R.A.M.C. (youngest son of Mr. William Wiggins, Oxtot, Warwickshire, England). The happy ceremony (with Nuptial Mass and Pagan Blessing) was performed at the Cathedral, Liverpool, on Wednesday of last week, by Rev. James Phelan, C.C., of the Archdiocese of Edinburgh (brother of the bride), assisted by the Rev. Father Casey, Liverpool. The bride, who looked charming, was attended by her friend, Miss O'Grady, of Liverpool, as bridesmaid. Mr. Mc'Be's Phelan, London (brother of the bride) was the best man. The bride's mother was a amongst the many relatives and friends of the contracting parties in attendance. The happy couple were the recipients of numerous costly and serviceable wedding presents. Worthy members of two highly respectable families are Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins, who are spending their honeymoon in Ireland, and we warmly wish them length of years in the fullest enjoyment of conjugal bliss. By the way, Mrs. Wiggins is a niece of the late Very Rev. J. J. Stafford, C.S.S.P., St. Mary's College, Rathmines, Dublin.

Haymaking—From early morning until late at night people in Mid-Deire are busy in the fields sowing the hay, and taking advantage of every moment of sunshine. Meadows in most places are a pretty heavy crop. The corn crop in general promises an appreciable yield; the best crop is progressing favourably, and potatoes are doing well.

The Millberry Season—Is now in full swing, and besides boys and girls are daily to be seen on the slopes of the Comeragh mountains and the Croughan and Garruntown hills picking the berries.

The Local Fair—Held on Tuesday, was somewhat below average in point of supply. Trade was fairly good, but prices tended lower, especially for heavier cattle, which dropped 2/- to 3/- compared with the June fair. Spinners met a lively trade. Sheep sold slowly at figures tending downwards. Pigs commanded a brisk business at advanced rates. Cattle, 3 years, 1st class, £18 to £18 10/-; extra, £20, 2nd, £14 to £14 10/-; inferior, £12 to £14; 1½ years, 1st, £10 to £10 10/-; 2nd, £9 to £10; yearlings, £6 to £6 10/-; weanlings, £4 to £4 10/-; fresh dropped calves, 40/- to 50/-; springers, 1st, £18 to £20; 2nd, £16 to £18; old and inferior, £14 to £16. Sheep—3 years, 1st, 45/- to 50/-; 2nd, 40/- to 45/-; 2 years, 1st, 35/- to 40/-; 2nd, 30/- to 35/-; lambs—1st, 30/- to 35/-; 2nd, 27/6 to 30/-; small, 25/- to 27/6. Store pigs, 35/- to 45/-; bonhams, 25/- to 35/-.

At The Local District Court—Before Mr. F. J. McCabe, D.J., decrees for the possession of the cottages were granted to Rent Collector Patrick Quinn, (on behalf of the Waterford County Board of Public Health) against a number of tenants—decrees not to be executed if the full amount due, together with the cost of the proceedings in each instance, be paid within one month. The cottages concerned were—Catherine Glavin, Briskey, Kilgossa; John Hallahan, Durrrow; Patrick McGee, Kilmagthomas; and Mary Whelan, Kilmagthomas. A heavy sheaf of undated civil bills was disposed of in the usual way. Absence (at the Circuit Court) of the solicitors engaged caused the adjournment of a number of cases to the next sitting.

Nice To Note—That excellent entries have been received for the Dungarvan Agricultural Show Committee's Horse Jumping Competition, coming off at the Old Borough Show Grounds on next Thursday week (eve of Dungarvan horse fair).

That, like the good organisers they are, the Show Committee will have everything ship-shape for their eagerly looked forward to event.

That a grand dance will be held in connection with the fixture at Dungarvan Town Hall, also on the 11th prox., and the function will be "musiced" by the famous Dance Band of Major Watt, M.P.H., Middleton.

That the Novelty Fete at Curraghmore Gardens (by kind permission of the Marchioness of Waterford), on Thursday of this week (promoted in aid of the Kilmagthomas District Nursing Association) proved an unequalled success in every shape and form.

That a huge hosting of patrons immensely enjoyed the various attractions—including the tea dances, fortune telling, pig-weight guessing competition, sports, stalls and side shows.

That Lady Waterford, Lady Susan Davinay and Lord William Beresford were well pleased with the generous response of the local public to the right worthy cause.

bally Cove just now. That, commencing on Monday next, the Tramore Lawn Tennis Club's annual Open Tournament will continue throughout the week.

That this event, the high-light of the Tramore Tennis season, bids fair to be the most successful held in recent years.

That many Kilmagthomasians enjoyed a "feed" of mushrooms at their breakfast boards over the past eight or ten days.

Holidaying—A distinguished visitor to Portlaurie at present is Most Rev. John Cantwell, D.D., Archbishop of the province of Los Angeles, California. He is spending a holiday with his sister, Mrs. Power, of Ballyduff House, Kilmagthomas. The Archbishop is cousin of the late Very Rev. Canon Cantwell, P.P., Ballymore Eustace. It is interesting that a young cousin of his, Rev. Denis Slattery, who was ordained only a few months ago, left Tramore recently to return to his mission in London.

Another Emigrant Churchman—Also in our midst now, is the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Peter Quailly, P.P., Rockville Centre, Roxboro', New York City. He is staying at his natal home at Carrigrohane, Stradbally. The Monsignor is brother of the Very Rev. Patrick Quailly, P.P., Fetone, New Zealand.

Obit—We regret to record the demise of Mrs. Maria H. Jephson, which happened at Portlaurie, where she had resided with her family for many years. Relict of the late Mr. William Jephson, she was a charming, well-known lady, beloved of all who knew her. The funeral took place to Gullagh Protestant Churchyard and was attended by a large number of friends and sympathisers from Portlaurie and Dungarvan.

Armore Pattern—The unseasonable weather has not swamped the spirits of us all. Many Mid-Waterfordians experienced the rain's tramping battalions under the shadow of St. Declan's familiar Round Tower, at Ardmore, on Sunday evening last.

In Australia—A man often lives 20 miles from his nearest neighbour. Thus, comments Armstrong Angus when he buys a lawn mower; it practically becomes his own property.

Tuesday—Feast Day of St. Anne, Patroness of the parish of Ballynaneen, was observed as a holiday by the good Catholic people there. St. Anne's Church on that morning by the lovely local Curate, Father Peter Walsh, assisted by a big congregation, the vast majority of whom received Holy Communion. Throughout the day, St. Anne's Church was the scene of the usual "rounds" and recited the Rosary.

Quite A Large Crowd—Of enthusiastic local Gaiels saw a two-part programme of friendly challenges decided at Loxmoyne on last Sunday evening in a disreputable drizzle. Honor faced Kilmagthomas in senior football, and a dashing good game closed in favour of the hardy young home team by 1-0 to 1-2.

Neither To ERE Nor Bannagher—Belonged the overseer in a well-known business concern who had just returned after his July holiday to find himself greeted by the xateman with the salutation "Back to Portlaurie." "No," was the prompt reply. "Back to stin-about." (From "The Metal Man's Diary.")
