IRISH-CANADIAN WEDDING

At St. Anne's Church, Calgary, Alberta, on Saturday August 6th., at 10 o'clock, Patricia (Pat) Cruikshank, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cruikshank, became the bride of Mr. Patrick Vincent O'Gorman. The ground is the second son of Mr. Richard M. O'Gorman, of Shaughnessy Park, Ogden, Alberta and the late Mrs. O'Gorman (late of Youghal, Co. Cork). The Very Rev. Dean Dargan, Pastor of St. Anne's officiated at the ceremony. The celebrant of the Nuptial Mass being the Rev. G.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McLaren.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride choose a lovely gown of peach net and lace, fashioned on princess lines. Her veil of the same shade was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Talisman and Madam Butterfly roses.

NURSING ASSOCIATION Annual Fancy Dress Ball At Youghal

It is not too much to claim that the above function has now established itself amongst the leading social events of the season in Youghal and District, and the very energetic Ladies' Committee must be congratulated on the successful and eniovable night afforded to its patrons. The old bell room in the Mall House was decorated with brilliant flags and Violini. The soloists in the choir were favours. The stage blazed with blooms and the supper in the Green Room pro-

Abbeyside 5-3; St. Anne's, 0-5 The much-discussed and eagerly-awaitad replay between the above teams took place in the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last. When the teams met previously, Abbeyside (who undoubtedly struck an off-day) were exertmely lucky

Wr. J. F. Foley said he was in accord with Mr. McCarthy's remarks and they with Mr. McCarthy's remarks and they in holding their rivals to a draw. On last Sunday, however, the tables were last Sunday, however, the tables were all delighted to have a Senator and last Sunday, however, the tables were last turned, and although St. Anne's battled gamely all the way, they were fighting a forlorn hope from the end of the first quarter. Abbeyside after enjoying an interval lead of 2 goals (2—2 to 0—2) finished the second majety, against the breeze, easy winners by 5—3 (18 points) after a hard gruelling game. That the St. Anne's score sheet was so low was due to the superb defence put up by the Abbeyside back division. M. Cashman in goal had, on the whole, an easy hour, but responded gamely when called upon a few times to save his net. His pucks from goal were an outstanding teature—not one falling short of the 80 yards mark. T. O'Gorman, M. Coleman and Jim Burke, were a stout turned, and although St. Anne's battled and an expectant eagerness throughout Ireland. All the Rig Gams have been spiked and the issue now lies between two teams of quick-firing giant-killers.

The Portlairge boys have been undergoing a steady preparation during the past ten days or so. The original arrangement of conducting the course at two centres the City and Dungarvan—was modified after a few days owing to one reason and another, chiefly because it was not giving the most satisfactory results. The whole team have since been concentrated in Dungarvan and here a rational system of natural training to bring out the best in a such a cause and indeed they should feel proud of the privilege of being associated pro The B.S. and S.S.O., were instructed trio of defenders in the last line of defence, and repeatedly outmanouvered the age.

G.A.A. NOTES & NOTIONS "CROTOG." The momentous day is fast approaching when Waterford for the first time in G.A.A. history takes the field in the final struggle for the greatest honour in the world of hurling. Just a little week and our stalwart players will be facing the ordeal of their lives, listening to the deafening roar of the excited and enthusinstic thousands who will throng Croke Park to give them such a welcome as will to inquire into complaints of water shortage.

Application for Increase

INCH NOTES

The Tournament Final-

In the presence of a large crowd and in good weather the long drawn out tournament was brought to a conclusion on Sunday. It is just over twelve months since the opening matches were played and since then the finalists have clashed on several occasions, but in no instance until Sunday was a decision reached. All previous matches resulted in drawn games-the northern men having if anything the better of the argument. On the present occasion, however, Castlemartyr were unodubtedly the better team and won comfortably. The score would indicate a one-sided game, but this was not so. Kilcronat fielded a good team and dicate a one-sided game, but this was not so. Kilcronat fielded a good team and some of their players, notably S. O'Mahony, John Lynch, Buckley, John Hurley and Higgins, played brilliantly, but luck was against them. Castlemartyr were in great form and heartened by their display against Cloyne last Sunday week, they were in a winning mood and could not be held up. Liam Aherne is a decided acquisition. Hennessey, Wade, Deely, Dinneen, Murray and O'Brien, played well, and no chances were wasted. It was a strenuous game and occasionally tempers became frayed, but the reference Mr. Phil O'Neill, promptly sent the offenders to the sideline, and this commendably strong line of action had the desired effect in subduing others who were showing a tendency to becoming unruly. The Inch Club are to be congratulated on their handling of the crowd. Not by any means an easy job, but they were equal to it, and held the line well. Now that the tournament is out of the way the road is clear for more matches under the auspices of the Club. The pitch is one of the best there is, and as the venue is centrally situated more fixtures should be played here.

Inch Tournament Final—Castlemartyr

Win the Medals—

Castlemartyr won the toss and played with the wind and sun at their backs. Kilcronat were penalised two minutes from the start and J. Hart had no difficulty in getting a point off the free. Kilcronat attacked in characteristic fashion. S. Mahony centred well, but Wade and Dinneen passed to Liam Aherne, which Christie O'Brien putting the finishing touches to by netting for Castlemartyr. Keeping up the pressure they again looked like scoring but Rocke sent a long one down the field. Lynch and Buckley dashed in, but Hennessey lashed back and Murray put Castlemartyr again attacking. Mick Mahoney saved his net and O'Connor drove down the wing, but Deeley sent a hot one for the Kilcronat end, but the ball went wide. S. O'Mahoney

Exemption Order

Mr. Keane, applied on behalf of Margaret C'Brien, Main street, Tallow, for an Exemption Order for the Tallow Horse and Cattle Fairs. G.A.A.-Matches at Villierstown-On sunday last Villierstown Gaelic field was the scene of two interesting and closely contested matches in connection with the current year's Divisional Championships. In the semi-final of the West Waterford Junior Football Champion-ship, Tallow met Knockanore and in the Minor football game Ballyduff lined out | charged for.

The pitch, situated in picturesque wood surroundings on the banks of the Blackwater, was in perfect order and steward-ing arrangements in the hands of the local club were excellent. A large crowd attended and the weather was beautifully Playing with the wind Knockanore had the better of exchanges in the opening period of the junior match and following repeated assaults notched a point per Barry. Play was transferred to the other ond, but the Knockanore defence was sound. Knockanore got another point per Baldwin and there was no other score before the interval.

In private life he was one of the most outstanding and lovable personalities.

A genuine sportsman to his finger-tips, he was at all times a ready and generous supporter of every branch of legitimate sport; whether it was Coursing, Horse martyr; John Rodgers, N.T., Castle-he was a keen and enthusiastic follower, and sporting circles in Lismore will now be the poorer over his regretted death.

In private life he was one of the most charming characters, and truly may it be said of him that he was one of Nature's gentlemen.
