GAEILIC NOTES & NOTIONS
 By "CROTOG"

The first of the Divisional Finals was decided last Sunday in Lismore when Tallow scored a comfortable victory over Ballyduff in the minor hurling championship. The standard of play was poor and it is only too evident that the present crop of minors in the county are very mediocre indeed. The game was almost an hour late in starting and the attire of several of the Ballyduff youngsters was more in keeping with a "University Rag Turn-out" than a Gaelic game. No wonder the spectators present voiced caustic comments. One would have thought that by this time unpunctuality and go-to-you please taggery were entirely banished from G.A.A. competition. The authorities concerned should take serious notice—if they don't the public will.

The failure of Tallow to field out against Dungarvan in the Senior Hurling League meant a hastily-recruited Lismore fifteen stepped into the breach but the encounter was a lifeless affair, and lacking as it did the competitive urge lost all attraction for the weary spectators. Glorious sunshine helped to dispel some of the gloom arising from the several disappointments.

In Cork next Sunday the Deise hurlers go into action again and their display is awaited with the liveliest interest. The Leisiders have their hearts set on victory and are fielding out their best and fittest side. They are out to avenge the Dungarvan disaster which has caused so much heart-burning in the Rebel City. A set of solid gold medals and a magnificent silver cup await the victors—trophies certainly worth striving for. The game is being promoted to aid the Building Fund of the Augustinian Fathers and, apart from the intrinsic merit of the contest this worthy object should have an irresistible appeal in the City by the Lee.

The Waterford team has already been announced. Some of the changes have been hailed as revolutionary. Still, there is nothing very drastic about the altered line-out. The declared players, for reasons which should be obvious, are not included. A few of the home players are being rested and some eager young bloods who were knocking at the door all through the year are being given the chance of showing their mettle. Now is the time for the selectors to put the reserve talent through their paces; the National Hurling League begins in a month's time and it is of vital importance that the Deise team be numbered off and at the ready. Sunday's clash should provide some valuable notes for the book of form and help the Selection Committee in their laborious task of stringing together a League-winning team.

Tallow, on Sunday next, will house a record crowd when Abbeyside line out against Lismore in the Western Division Final of the Junior Hurling Championship. The former have surprised even their most ardent admirers by the way they confounded the prophets and crashed through all obstacles in their path. First they swamped Dungarvan and then the much-fancied St. Anne's were dismissed quite decisively. In both games, though, Abbeyside had venue advantage playing at home on the Dungarvan sod. The Tallow pitch and environment will be strange to them. Still, Nagle, Hayes, Whelan, Noonan, O'Gorman and the Burkes, are seasoned hurlers who revel in the hottest going and don't worry how the crowd roars. Lismore are certainly up against a tough proposition but then they have the knack of pulling out that little extra bit when needed. They overcame strong opposition in Knockanore and Tallow and, in each case, doggedness and grit pulled them through. The youth and speed of O'Donoghue, Healy, Lawton and Mc-Grath with the craft of Ryan and Coleman capped by fast whipping Jacky Ormond make for a fast full-blooded struggle with little in it until the final minute. Stamina will probably be the decisive factor, but the two teams are so evenly matched that a little thing may swing the issue. I am no prophet, but a draw would in no way surprise me.

The match billed for the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan on Sunday next between Stradally and the Pike Junior Football teams has been postponed to a later date.

The Waterford hurling team selected to play Cork next Sunday has already been announced. Here it is again:—
 M. Curley (goal)
 J. Mountain C. Ware D. Fanning
 M. Hickey J. Keane C. Curley
 C. Moylan A. Fleming
 D. Poyser P. Healy E. Sheehan
 E. Daly M. Byrne F. Greene

Road Traffic Cases
 Superintendent Walsh, charged Maurice Gearty, Ballybricken, Waterford, under the Road Traffic Act. The case was a sequel to a collision between a lorry driven by the defendant and a stationary car, the property of Mr. Ml. Rosayne, Coolmoreck, on August 16th at Mitchell Street.
 Ml. Rosayne, replying to the Superintendent, said that on August 16th, he had his car in Dungarvan, and was delivering milk at Mrs. Curran's Mitchell Street. While in at Curran's, he heard a crash, and going out found the lorry had backed against his car. He told the lorry driver to leave the lorry there until the Guards came.
 Guard Giblin, said he found Mr. Rosayne's car with trailer attached close into the kerb on its proper side, the lorry was buried into the back of Rosayne's car behind the rear door. Witness took a statement from the lorry driver.
 Defendant explained that he was delivering fruit at Mrs. Kirby's when he had finished he reversed the lorry to do down St. Mary Street. The man on the lorry with him told him to go slow as there was a car behind. Witness went to put his foot on the brake and it slipped off the kerb on to the accelerator with the result that he hit the back of the stationary car.
 The Justice, in fining defendant 20/-, said he had acted in a very careless manner and the accident was the result of pure carelessness.

Failure to Display Motor Tax
 Guard O'Wood, prosecuted P. J. McCarthy, Woodstock, Carrigrohilly, Co. Cork, with failure to display a motor license.
 A fine of 20/- was imposed.

Drunk and Disorderly
 A fine of 20/- was imposed.

Occasional License
 Mr. Williams, solr., on behalf of Mary C. Power, O'Connell Street, was granted an occasional license for September 22nd, the occasion of the Dungarvan Horse and Pony Races.

Dangerous Driving
 Mr. O'Connell, Clonmel, appeared for the defendant.
 Ml. Flaherty, Ballynahemery, Cappagh, gave evidence that he was standing at the level crossing on July 26th talking to Pat Early. He saw the lorry coming along the Dungarvan road fairly hard, but he could not estimate the speed. He also saw the car coming slow from the Cappaghin direction. When the lorry came to the middle of the crossing the driver applied the brakes and the lorry turned diagonally across the crossing, pressing the oncoming car against the gate pillar.

MICHAEL J. SARGENT Hon. Sec.
 Main Street, Cappoquin

 To Mr. Quirke—Witness was standing talking to Pat Early in the level crossing. The lorry driver would have a view of the oncoming car just about the width of the crossing.
 Mr. Quirke—And although he was coming pretty hard as you said he pulled up in five yards.
 To Mr. Quirke—The lorry was pulled up in five yards. Witness remained there about ten minutes after the accident. The following day he went and made a statement to the Guard. He made the statement without being asked for it.
 Patrick Early, gatekeeper, said he was standing at the crossing talking with the last witness. He did not see the lorry coming. He had made a statement to the Guard. The lorry might be travelling at 25 to 30 m.p.h. (laughter). He saw the other car coming from Cappoquin, but it was on its proper side. The lorry seemed to pull out to take the turn.
 To the Justice—Witness said a driver coming from the Dungarvan side could not see a car coming from the other side until very near the crossing. He saw cars passing each other at the crossing every day.
 To Mr. Quirke—He did not see the actual collision. The driver of the lorry pulled up in four to five yards.
 To the Justice—If cars came to the crossing slowly an accident would not happen.
 Guard Crowley, Cappagh, said he was called to the scene. When he arrived the cars were removed some distance as they were obstructing the traffic. He took measurements. The width of the road both at the Dungarvan and Cappoquin side of the gates is 24 feet, between the pillars the width is 16 feet 6 inches; the space between the gates is 36 feet. From the marks the impact occurred 8 feet 6 inches from the pillar at the Cappoquin end. He found a skid mark 32 feet 6 inches long, made by the lorry near enough to its proper side. He found a mark on the pillar caused by the car being jammed against it by the lorry.
 To Mr. Quirke—He arrived about three-quarters of an hour after the accident and spoke to the lady and the lorry driver. Flaherty agreed the skid mark was made by the lorry.
 Miss A. Gaynor, said that on 26th July, she was motoring from Cappoquin to Dungarvan. She had a view of the crossing for a good distance and was prepared for it, as you get a bad bump in a baby Austin when going over a level crossing.
 The Justice—That is why they are called level crossings (laughter).
 Continuing, witness said she had no view of traffic from the Dungarvan side, and saw nothing until about three yards from the crossing when she saw this enormous lorry coming at great speed. Had she been in a big car, both herself and her mother would have been killed. She had no chance of passing out, as the lorry gave her no possible chance. She was over 12 years driving.
 To Mr. Quirke—She had one accident before. She did not know this level crossing. She does not remember if she applied her brakes. The whole thing happened too quickly. It was impossible for her car to go through the space between the lorry and the gate.
 Mr. Quirke asked for a dissection, and said on the evidence submitted there was nothing to convict his client.
 The Justice held he had a case to meet. Defendant examined said the statement he gave the Guard was correct. The lorry was a new two-ton 24 h.p. Bedford. He was eight years driving and was going from Dungarvan to Mitchelstown, empty. He was actually at the gate pillar on the Dungarvan side when he saw the car about ten yards from the pillar at the Cappoquin side. He stopped the lorry in two yards. Miss Gaynor's car came into the lorry.
 The witness was cross-examined at length by Superintendent Walsh.
 Mr. Quirke submitted that if Miss Gaynor had not lost her head she would have applied her brakes, there would have been no accident.
 The Justice said he was satisfied defendant was driving carelessly and dangerously, and came up too fast to that corner. He would take into account the previous clean sheet enjoyed by the defendant and would only impose a fine of £5 with 6s expenses. He would allow a month in which to pay.
 The Justice paid a tribute to Guard Crowley for his handling of the case.

CO. WATERFORD LIBRARIES COMMITTEE
SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT
 The Seventh Annual Report of the County Waterford Libraries Committee, published by the most interesting reading.
 A perusal of the report shows that the Library Scheme is, from year to year being availed of by an ever-increasing number of readers. This can be seen from the book issues which were 123,079 in March 1937, 123,079 in March 1938, and 123,079 in March 1939, or an increase of 123,079 over the year 1937/38.
 Despite the handicap of lack of sufficient funds for inadequate housing and staffing at the various centres, which is dealt with in the report, Mr. M. J. Murchada, B.A., Dip Lib., Librarian, and his two assistants, Mr. J. J. O'Connell and Gough, are unparagoned in their progress of the County Library Scheme, and their efforts in this direction are deserving of the highest commendation from all readers throughout the county.

FIRST MATCH IN SENIOR FOOTBALL LEAGUE

THRILLING GAME

Kilrossanty Hold Their Prestige
Strong Finish Gives Comeragh Men Comfortable Win

Kilrossanty, 3-6; Stradbally, 1-5

On Sunday last at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, under a broiling sun and before a fair gathering of spectators, Kilrossanty and Stradbally lined out to settle the vexed question of supremacy in this year's Football League. The Stradbally side were high under to Kilrossanty a few weeks previous in the semi-final of this year's Championship, but as it was the general opinion that Stradbally were caught napping, it was firmly believed all over that the tables would be turned when the same teams met in the League, thus a thrilling tussle was anticipated by all.

The game was a thriller for the whole hour and interest was maintained until the last five minutes, when Kilrossanty in a great finish banged in a goal and a point. Stradbally led by a point within 13 minutes of full time, after making a goal and a point and the standard of play was far above the ordinary.

The teams were very evenly matched and every man was able to pull his weight. There was one change noticeable on the Kilrossanty side, Peter Moloney coming in to replace M. Whelan who was indisposed at left-half forward, otherwise the team was unchanged.

While Stradbally had three new recruits J. Orpen, J. Veale and J. O'Meara, who gave a grand display. The teams lined up in charge of Seamus Hayes.

Kilrossanty broke away on the throw-in and Stradbally defended in fine style. Stradbally were penalised on the 40 yards mark and Loneragan had no trouble in raising the white flag for the first score to give Kilrossanty a point lead within one minute of the start. Play veered up and down and the ball rarely was let touch the ground. Stradbally sent wide on the return of play had to concede a "so" which was cleared by Power and Whelan.

A Fleming and P. Kiely, were playing a great game at centre field and Stradbally play continued fast and furious at midfield and wided were very few and far between. Stradbally attacked from Fleming and N. Connors, were prominent in the net exchanges before the evening play. Stradbally on the return of play sent wide and a free in a similar position.

Kilrossanty attacked from a long drive by Loneragan and Dalton, and the Veale brothers were prominent. M. Veale evading his opponent, found the corner of the net from 15 yards out with a great drive that deceived Wall in goal, giving Kilrossanty a further lead of 1 goal, P. Kirwan transferred play to the other end and Stradbally to reduce the lead by a point.

"Mabey" Moroney was sent to put in a great amount of useful work for Kilrossanty. Kilrossanty returned to attack and "Plus" Dalton was wide by inches. From the next exchange, Kilrossanty again attacked and forced the pace, and the full-back line fumbling the ball, J. Croty need in and lashed the ball into the net from the "square." Stradbally yet up a great spurt and transferred play to the other end, and had two further points registered before the half-time whistle sounded leaving Kilrossanty with an interval lead of 3 points.

Half-time score: Kilrossanty 2-1 Stradbally 0-4 On resuming Stradbally were off and had a point to their credit immediately. Stradbally returned the kick out and several golden opportunities of scoring were sent begging. Play veered to the other end, but Power cleared well under pressure and Fleming transferred to the other end where they succeeded in raising the green flag. Play continued at a fierce pace now as Stradbally held the lead by a point and kept up the pressure. The Kilrossanty back line held out well in which Veale, Power, and D. Walsh were outstanding and beat down all opposition. Power and Veale on one occasion made a great save as a Stradbally forward had the ball in his arms almost on the goal-line. Drohan again saved his net twice in succession before Kilrossanty returned to equalise.

At this period delays were very numerous as players were injured owing to the rough nature of the play. J. Bower, Stradbally retired and Kilrossanty added another point giving them the lead 10 minutes from the full time. Kilrossanty keeping up the pressure in a determined finish landed 3 points, leaving the final score: Kilrossanty 3-6 Stradbally 1-5

The winners were best served by D. Walsh, the McGuire and Veale and Fitzgerald Bros., "Mabey" Moroney, "Plus" Dalton, J. Loneragan and J. Power.

But the vanquished, J. Power, J. Whelan, A. Fleming, J. Corbett, J. Orpen, Meara, Veale, P. Kirwan and M. Connors, were most conspicuous.

Kilrossanty met Dungarvan in the second round of the League, while Stradbally have also to meet Dungarvan in their League tie.

On Sunday's performance Kilrossanty are installed favourites for the League Championship.

The teams were: Kilrossanty—P. Veale, T. Veale, R. McGuire, M. McGuire, J. Loneragan, J. Croty, D. Walsh, M. Fitzgerald, P. Dalton, F. Fitzgerald, J. Power, J. Drohan, J. Moroney, M. Veale, P. Moloney.

LIFE'S DREAM

While musing over days long gone fond thoughts pass through the mind. Of scenes once bright, where were my friends and so good and true and kind; So swiftly to the years so by that it would almost seem.

This earth with all its cares and woes is naught but just life's dream. Along this dreary path we tread, now hoping, now all fears, Sometimes in gladness so serene, sometimes with bitter tears, Yes! merry hours will fade away as fades the sun's bright beam— 'Tis nature's way—a mystery—the passing of life's dream.

Quite sunny will some days appear, all sparkling, bright and gay, All joy and bliss and merriment—yet lasting but a day; Our thoughts indeed will bring us back those moments so supreme, Those passing hours that brought some joy to brighten our life's dream.

Fond friends are ours, and these we hold in memory ever dear, And some are with us to this day, some gone for many a year, We think oft times of some we knew, and try to catch the gleam, Of mystic light that comes to us from far beyond life's dream.

We smile, remembering happy hours we spent in youthful years, And weep, alas, remembering the many woes and fears, Which have been ours; thus memory recalls each thought and scheme That formed the plan by which we worked—the fabric of life's dream.

"O woeful world!" a sad soul cries, "your pleasures come to naught, Though your troubles and your sorrows are scarcely e'er forgot, They sink so deep in many a heart, and come again, I deem, In fancy in our lonely hours as part of our life's dream."

On earth each strive to do their best and honour their great God, Whilst other fall, though hard they toil, and never can make a name; Yet disappointments, joys and fears, despair, hope's cheering beam, We must but take them as they come—all go to make life's dream!

T. Murphy, Dungarvan.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

Present—Messrs. M. D. Broderick, Chairman, D. McCarthy, J. Whelan, W. J. Broderick, T.D.; J. Forrest, E. Lynch, R. C. Farrell, Vice-Chairman; P. Power, M. Ahern, J. Daly, B.E.; E. D. Gordon.

New Relief Scheme In connection with the new Relief Scheme, the Clerk asked for 20 men to start work on Monday. The meeting selected 20 out of the list submitted by the Labour Exchange. It was decided to ask the Town Surveyor to submit a weekly report on the progress of the work.

Houses in Bad Repair Some discussion took place on the condition of a number of houses, the landlords of which had been called on to effect the necessary repairs. In one case it was stated that the owner refused to have the work done as the house was not worth it.

Remission of Rates The owner of an unoccupied house wrote applying for a remission of half the rate due. The Clerk said he had already been granted a remission on one year's rate, and they could do no more.

The Promenade Mr. Ahern pointed out that the County Council's workmen were repairing the promenade with tar, which was most unsuitable, while a couple of bags of cement would do the work properly.

Development Association Mr. J. V. Hallissy, Organising Secretary of the Development Association, applied for the Town Hall to be used as a dance hall on the 23rd and modern dances on the 25th. The application was granted, free of the usual charge.

Rents of New Houses The Local Government Department wrote approving of the Council's proposal to fix the rents, exclusive of rates, at 2/6 for 3-roomed houses (inclusive of rates 3/6) and 2/10 per week for 4-roomed houses (inclusive of rates 4/).

The Clerk suggested that should the Minister confirm the Clearance Order then the Council could send an objector to those persons living in Clearance areas who qualified. This was unanimously agreed to.

Sympathy Mr. Power proposed a vote of sympathy with the brother and sister of the late Mr. Thomas Bridge. He was an honourable citizen, a kind character and one who had done a lot of useful work privately in the cause of Ireland.

Mr. Broderick, as an old friend of the family, seconded. It would be hard to find a decenter citizen than the late Tom Bridge. Mr. McCarthy said the family had the sincere sympathy of the whole community.

The other members present, the Clerk and the Chairman, associated themselves with the proposition, which was passed in respectful silence.

DARTBOARDS FOR WINTER AMUSEMENT Darts is one game that gives the novice as much amusement as the expert. No skill at all is needed to get endless fun out of Darts, yet skill of a high order which means sustained interest in the game is necessary to become a first-class player. Thrown at a dartboard gives months of the greatest enjoyment to every member of the family. The entire game costs only from 7/6 upwards at Harpur Bros., Quays, Waterford.

EARLY WINTER BULBS Vague terms of origin such as "Foreign" lead to many disappointments in Flower Bulbs. Harpur Bros. believe in offering Bulbs backed by the reputation of a particular English firm world-famous for the wonderful results given by their seeds and bulbs. Besides when you plant bulbs and seeds from England they have the advantage of growing in the same climatic conditions as they were produced in unlike those produced in foreign countries. Harpur's confine themselves, and take a pride in offering the outstanding products of the famous firm of G. G. & Co., Snowdrop, Tulip, Daffodil, Narcissus, Crocus, Snowdrop, Iris and Jonquil bulbs are in stock now. Plant Carter's Bulbs this year—they cost no more. Get in touch now, write or call to: HARPUR BROS., Quays, Waterford.

Cattle Meat from Seaweed A factory is to be built in Iceland for the production of cattle meat from seaweed. Highly successful results, it is said have been obtained with the meat after three years' experiments.

LISMORE DISTRICT COURT.

Inspector O'Shaughnessy, Waterford, (who appeared for Supt. Quinlan), stating that there was no objection in either case. The usual Exemption Orders entitling Publicans to open their premises from 7 o'clock a.m., on the mornings of the monthly fairs and weekly markets were also renewed in all cases where application was made for same.

Dance Hall Licences Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solicitor, Lismore, applied on behalf of Mr. James Bennett, Ballysaggart, Lismore, for a renewal of the licence for his dance hall for the purpose of holding dances on every Sunday and Holiday nights from 7 o'clock to 10 p.m., and also for the same number of all-night dances for which he held a licence last year.

Inspector O'Shaughnessy, said he was informed that no all-night dances were held there during the past year. Mr. Bennett said that was correct, as he had some trouble in his family and could not hold any all-night dances last year; but he intended holding them as usual this year.

Inspector O'Shaughnessy then said that there were no sanitary arrangements whatever in connection with this hall, as Mr. J. Ormond, B.E., had recently inspected the premises on the order of the County Surveyor, and had made a report to the effect, which he considered a very serious matter where a large number of young boys and girls would be dancing all night.

Mr. O'Gorman said the hall in question was not like one situated in a town or congested area, as this hall was situated in the country, where they had the open country and the trackless wastes of the Ballysaggart mountains all around them, and this was a far more healthy condition of things than having some primitive form of sanitary arrangement around the building.

The Justice said as the hall was in the open country he would be no so particular as he would be in respect of halls situated in a town, and he accordingly granted the licence for Sunday and Holiday night short dances to 10 o'clock, and also for four all-night dances to 3 a.m., subject to the usual conditions.

Mr. M. Hally, solicitor, Waterford, applied on behalf of Mr. Commissioner Moynihan (Waterford Co. Council) for a renewal of the Dance License for Lismore Courthouse on the same conditions as last year, and there being no objection on the part of the Authorities, the application was granted.

Charge of Assault John Foley, Johnstown, Ballytealyor, Cappoquin, summoned James Walsh, Ballymillala, for alleged assault. Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solicitor, Dungarvan, appeared for the complainant, and Mr. A. R. Farrell, solicitor, do., was for the defendant.

Complainant appeared in court, but defendant was not present, and Mr. Farrell, solicitor, explained why he was not present, and in applying for an adjournment he said he would personally undertake to pay whatever costs or expenses the complainant had incurred by coming to Court that day.

The case was adjourned to the next Court, 15/- expenses being allowed to complainant.

Paying Order Against Farmer The Agricultural Credit Corporation, Dublin, applied for an instalment order against Maurice Devine, Knocknagrouagh, Villierstown, on foot of a decree for £14 14s. od., obtained against him.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solicitor, Dungarvan, appeared for the plaintiffs, but there was no appearance on behalf of defendant. Mr. Ryan said in this case the defendant was a pretty substantial farmer who could well afford to pay decent instalments of this debt, and he asked for an order for payment at the rate of 5s per month.

The Justice made an order to this effect the first payment to be made a month hence, and he also allowed 20/- costs against defendant.

Cases Adjudged A number of cases at the suit of the Land Commission, the Minister for Agriculture, and the Minister for Local Government Department, respectively, were adjudged on the application of Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solicitor, who appeared for all the plaintiffs.

Undefended Civil Bills A number of undefended civil bills were disposed of in the usual way, the solicitors appearing for the plaintiffs being: Messrs. E. A. Ryan, State Solicitor, Dungarvan; A. R. Farrell, solicitor, do.; E. Carroll, solicitor, Fermoy; J. W. O'Gorman, Lismore and C. Murray, L.L.B., do.

Garda Prosecutions Guard McLoughlan, Ballyduff, summoned Patrick Moore, Clonsilla, Ballysaggart, for riding a bicycle without a lamp or reflector, and he was fined 2/6 and 1/6. Same v. Daniel Flavin, Fermoy, for driving an unlicensed motor car. A fine of 5/- was imposed.

Same v. David Flavin, Lisnagree. Same offence. Fined 2/6. Guard Murphy, Lismore, v. Patrick Honney, Strough, Lismore, for driving a horse and cart on the wrong side of the road. Complainant said the defendant told him the other side of the road was too

RELEASE THE PRISONERS

And though they sleep in dungeons deep, or lie outlived on banes, We love them yet, we can't forget the faces of our land—Anon

Republican prisoners are still held in the six Northern Counties, the men who bore the brunt of the Nation's struggle for freedom; whilst their dependents are coerced and victimised. Shame on us, if we betray them.

Release our gallant prisoners, when freedom's call rang clear; With Pearce and Clarke and Plunkett, they marched each volunteer, And when the shells were bursting and bullets poured like hail, They faced the might of Britain, those brave sons of the Gael;

The loyal, the true, the fearless, the valiant and few They showed the wondering nations what Irish hearts could do.

Release our gallant prisoners, when Kevin Barry died, Those heroes by hill, vale and town, the British foe defied, And you who wept for Kevin, the beautiful and brave, Who died to win us freedom, who would not live a slave,

His comrades pine in prison who fought by stream and glen, Who held the fort for Erin, and made her live again.

Release our gallant prisoners, ah sorrowful tale, When brave boys yet must suffer sore, for loving Granuaile, Because they never lowered the Flag, or hauled the colours down, Or bent the knee to Britain's King, his sceptre, or his Crown,

They follow in the footsteps of Mellows, Pearce and Tone, And will thank God be loyal and true, till Ireland wins her own.

Release our gallant prisoners, MacSwiney from his grave, Calls on the sons of Erin, those noble hearts to save, Who stood up straight for Erin's cause, the valiant and true, Brave hearts who never flinched, the faithful and the few,

'Tis not the Irish people will that they enslaved should be, So open wide the prison gates, and let our prisoners free.

M. WALSH, Ballingown, Kilrossanty.

slippery and dangerous to drive the horse on, and that was why he was on the wrong side.

The Justice said it was strange that no provision had been made in the Traffic Act for horses in cases like this, as they were treated the same as motor cars, and he imposed a fine of 1/- at first, but subsequently altered his ruling, and let the defendant off with a caution.

John O'Neil, Ralte, Lismore, summoned John O'Neil, Ralte, Lismore, for allowing a horse to wander on the public road, and he was fined 2/-.

The same complainant summoned Cornelius Sheehan, Waterpark, for a similar offence, and he was also fined 2/-.

A few other Garda cases of no public interest concluded the business of an unusually light Court.

EAST CORK JOGGINGS

G. A. A. News— On Sunday last in fine weather, and before a fair crowd, the final of the Mansfield Cup was played in the Castle-martyr Club grounds, the competing team being the old rivals, Ballymacoola and Castle-martyr. A good deal of interest was centered in the match because of the fact that the teams had met twice recently, and each side had a victory to their credit. Sunday's match was looked on then as the deciding factor as to which was the better side. Ballymacoola, however, found it impossible for various reasons to field a full team, and because of this the game was not up to the standard usually set by the wearers of the blue and gold, and Castle-martyr had an easy win. A feature of the game was the display given by young White of Castle-martyr in the forward division of that team. Everything that came his way he got away with it, and yet he is a mere lad, still in his teens. Murray and Dineen also played well, as did all those in the back division, but these were never hard pressed. For the losers, Shanahan and Cashell were outstanding.

Next Sunday at Middleton— On Sunday next in Middleton the final of the East Cork Junior Championship is set down for division. Coyne and Castle-martyr are the clubs concerned, and nothing else is talked of in Gaelic circles here. The match is a replay for the teams met five or six weeks ago—the result being a drawn game. On that occasion the match was a strenuous one, and as both teams have trained hard and consistently ever since, Sunday's match should easily be the match of the year in East Cork. It is fixed for 3.30 p.m. Mr. C. Duggan, of Middleton, will referee, and a better man for the position it would be hard to find. Coyne appear to be favourites, but to my mind the question is a very open one. Castle-martyr are in great form at the moment and are improving every match they play. In their previous encounters with Middleton from the Inch tournament they were usually lucky to hold their opponents to a draw. Yet in the final match played recently, they not alone beat the northern men, but beat them very decisively. They may spring a surprise on Coyne next Sunday, but in any case the match will be an exciting one, and the issue in doubt right up to the end.

Inch v. Youghal— This is the area final in "B" grade hurling and is fixed for Killeagh on next Sunday week, September 25th. By defaulting rather easily, strong teams from Killeagh and Castle-martyr, the Inch lads have shown their mettle and justified their position. They are an eager hard-working lot, fast on their feet and full of courage and daring. It is only their second year out. Last year they went into the Divisional semi-final, and the team that beat them won the Championship. Their present opponents, the Youghal team—should not really be in this grade. They have over 70 hurlers on their register. Some of them being senior men up to quite recently, and being able to hold their own with some of the best in the county. It is hard to expect a young inexperienced country lot of boys to be able to cope with those stalwarts. Yet the county lads have ever been the backbone of the Association, they have been the heroes of scores of public patron. Their enthusiasm, their determination, their very daring, has many a time been their very daring and recklessness has been the means of saving a game which was all but lost, and turning almost certain defeat into a glorious victory over the foe. Inch may be beaten—they will not be disgraced.

Minor Hurling— Carrigrohilly v. Youghal— After several postponements, this match is definitely fixed to be played at Middleton next Sunday, and should result in a clean fast game. Mr. Duggan will referee.

Mount Uniacke Sports— Considering the many counter-attractions, including the hurling match at Castle-martyr, the Mount Uniacke Sports received a good measure of public patronage on Sunday last. They were held in a good field near the village and were carried through very expeditiously. The evening was fine and the crowd a very good humoured one, who thoroughly enjoyed the various competitions. Athletes from Cork, Youghal, Killeagh, Tallow, Kiltwatermorey and Inch took part in the meeting.

Senior Hurling— Two east Cork teams were engaged in the semi-final of the Cork Senior hurling championship last Sunday at Fermoy. The teams are neighbouring ones, being Middleton and Garsfield. There was a big attendance and much enthusiasm. Middleton eventually won by a narrow margin and thus they qualify to meet the winners of the Blackrock-Glen Rivers match in the final of the Cork County Championship.

BETTER SEED WHEAT HARPUR BROS., of Waterford, are making a determined effort to help the Farmer by improving the quality of wheat grown in Eire. Obviously, better seed must be sown to grow better wheat, and with this in mind Harpur are offering selected English Seed Wheat at a moderate price. The quality of this wheat is a decided improvement on that grown in this country, and Farmers using it will benefit undoubtedly when the harvest is reaped next year. Farmers interested in this higher quality seed should get in touch with Harpur Bros., Quays, Waterford, right away as the supply, naturally, is limited.

To A Former Lord Abbot— We are glad to see that an Monument is erected in his native parish of Killybeg to perpetuate the memory of the late Rev. Don Murray O'Phelan, and been the salient and scholarly list of Mount Mellary for a long series of years. The Stradbally side were high under to Kilrossanty a few weeks previous in the semi-final of this year's Championship, but as it was the general opinion that Stradbally were caught napping, it was firmly believed all over that the tables would be turned when the same teams met in the League, thus a thrilling tussle was anticipated by all.

The game was a thriller for the whole hour and interest was maintained until the last five minutes, when Kilrossanty in a great finish banged in a goal and a point. Stradbally led by a point within 13 minutes of full time, after making a goal and a point and the standard of play was far above the ordinary.

The teams were very evenly matched and every man was able to pull his weight. There was one change noticeable on the Kilrossanty side, Peter Moloney coming in to replace M. Whelan who was indisposed at left-half forward, otherwise the team was unchanged.

While Stradbally had three new recruits J. Orpen, J. Veale and J. O'Meara, who gave a grand display. The teams lined up in charge of Seamus Hayes.

Kilrossanty broke away on the throw-in and Stradbally defended in fine style. Stradbally were penalised on the 40 yards mark and Loneragan had no trouble in raising the white flag for the first score to give Kilrossanty a point lead within one minute of the start. Play veered up and down and the ball rarely was let touch the ground. Stradbally sent wide on the return of play had to concede a "so" which was cleared by Power and Whelan.

A Fleming and P. Kiely, were playing a great game at centre field and Stradbally play continued fast and furious at midfield and wided were very few and far between. Stradbally attacked from Fleming and N. Connors, were prominent in the net exchanges before the evening play. Stradbally on the return of play sent wide and a free in a similar position.

Kilrossanty attacked from a long drive by Loneragan and Dalton, and the Veale brothers were prominent. M. Veale evading his opponent, found the corner of the net from 15 yards out with a great drive that deceived Wall in goal, giving Kilrossanty a further lead of 1 goal, P. Kirwan transferred play to the other end and Stradbally to reduce the lead by a point.

"Mabey" Moroney was sent to put in a great amount of useful work for Kilrossanty. Kilrossanty returned to attack and "Plus" Dalton was wide by inches. From the next exchange, Kilrossanty again attacked and forced the pace, and the full-back line fumbling the ball, J. Croty need in and lashed the ball into the net from the "square." Stradbally yet up a great spurt and transferred play to the other end, and had two further points registered before the half-time whistle sounded leaving Kilrossanty with an interval lead of 3 points.

Half-time score: Kilrossanty 2-1 Stradbally 0-4 On resuming Stradbally were off and had a point to their credit immediately. Stradbally returned the kick out and several golden opportunities of scoring were sent begging. Play veered to the other end, but Power cleared well under pressure and Fleming transferred to the other end where they succeeded in raising the green flag. Play continued at a fierce pace now as Stradbally held the lead by a point and kept up the pressure. The Kilrossanty back line held out well in which Veale, Power, and D. Walsh were outstanding and beat down all opposition. Power and Veale on one occasion made a great save as a Stradbally forward had the ball in his arms almost on the goal-line. Drohan again saved his net twice in succession before Kilrossanty returned to equalise.

At this period delays were very numerous as players were injured owing to the rough nature of the play. J. Bower, Stradbally retired and Kilrossanty added another point giving them the lead 10 minutes from the full time. Kilrossanty keeping up the pressure in a determined finish landed 3 points, leaving the final score: Kilrossanty 3-6 Stradbally 1-5

The winners were best served by D. Walsh, the McGuire and Veale and Fitzgerald Bros., "Mabey" Moroney, "Plus" Dalton, J. Loneragan and J. Power.

But the vanquished, J. Power, J. Whelan, A. Fleming, J. Corbett, J. Orpen, Meara, Veale, P. Kirwan and M. Connors, were most conspicuous.

Kilrossanty met Dungarvan in the second round of the League, while Stradbally have also to meet Dungarvan in their League tie.

On Sunday's performance Kilrossanty are installed favourites for the League Championship.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

MERCY CONVENT, DUNGARVAN It is cheerful to read the success of our Mercy Convent, each year surpasses the last, and for 1938, which we publish as proof of the consistent teaching on sound lines which receive at this great educational institution the Intermediate Examination of the Society of Arts and Commerce students have done remarkably well in a wide field of practical subjects more than held their own in competition. That is the merit and shows what careful teaching imparted by the Mercy Convent children entrusted to their care.

LATE MR. JOHN F. FOLEY—Imposing Funeral Tribute—The remains of the late Mr. Foley, whose sad and untimely death while holidaying in England, was announced in our last issue, arrived in Dungarvan via the Rosslare Express Saturday morning. John F. Foley was one of our respected citizens, and a leading figure in the business and social life of the town. He was a valued member of the District Council over a long period and was also associated with all the and sporting committees in the County. The deep and sincere sorrow for the early demise was demonstrated in a certain manner when on Saturday evening last, hundreds of people from all over the county gathered to await the arrival of the train at the Dungarvan Brass and Band (whose upkeep and well-being, the late Mr. Foley, as a member committee, a labour of love), at the arrival of the remains, and a coffin was placed on the bier, the sad cortege they started for the church, where the band again while the remains were being carried into the Church. Rev. Fr. Flynn met the remains at the Church gate. The burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery on Saturday evening, again hundreds of people from all over the county attended. Rev. W. Flynn, C.C., assisted by Fr. Harty, Rathgormack, read the service.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

Grand Drawing of Prizes and Monster Bazaar

The building of St. Philomena's New Church and Shrine at Mount Malley, Cappoquin, is making wonderful progress since the foundation stone was so solemnly laid by the Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, last April. Few who were present at that interesting and impressive ceremony could have realized at the time that such great progress could have been made with the work in such a short time, and when we visited the building recently, we were amazed at the amount of work which has been carried out in less than five months.

The building of the New Community Church, which is only externally completed, and as yet unfurnished, entailed a huge expenditure. But the task of completing this beautiful Church and Shrine will still require a heavy outlay, far too heavy for the Community to bear out of their own resources, and in order to help them to do fitting honour to St. Philomena, a Grand Drawing of Prizes and Monster Bazaar will be opened in the Boathouse, Cappoquin, on Sunday night week, Sept. 25th, and will be continued each night up to and including Wednesday night, Sept. 28th.

Mr. M. J. Sargent, Cappoquin, the energetic and hard-working Hon. Sec. of the Mount Malley Church Building Fund, has once again displayed his wonderful dynamic force by organizing this important event and judging by the great success which has attended all previous enterprises started by him, we feel safe in stating that the present undertaking is bound to be equally successful.

All particulars of the Monster Bazaar and Drawing of Prizes will be found in another column in this issue. A "GRAND NATIONAL" WIN FOR CAPPOQUIN It is a long time since Cappoquin received such favourable publicity in the Dublin and Provincial Press as it received on last Monday when the brilliant performance of "Pal's Rover", the splendid dog owned by Mr. G. P. Hely, Cappoquin, which won the Irish Grand National for Greyhounds at Shelbourne Park, Dublin, on Saturday night.

Mr. Hely purchased this dog for the modest sum of £3 after he had been badly beaten at Tallow Coursing Meeting last St. Stephen's Day, and it is a great tribute to his foresight and sound judgment that he should have thus acquired an animal which was so much despised by his owner and others, but which was eventually destined to win the "Blue Riband" of Greyhound Racing in Ireland.

By his victory on Saturday night "Pal's Rover" won the substantial stake of £200 and a solid silver cup, value £30, for his owner, and Mr. Hely has since been the recipient of the warmest congratulations from his hosts of friends here for having brought such honour and lustre to his native town. One of the pluckiest and most generous sportsmen in the country, Mr. Hely's proud reputation is known far and wide, and the congratulations and good wishes which he has received, come from quarters far beyond the confines of Cappoquin.

The people in his native town, feel prouder than ever of him now, and when he arrived home on Monday evening with the magnificent cup he was greeted and kissed as enthusiastically and profusely as he was on another occasion when he was supposed to have won the winner of the Aintree Grand National in the Liverpool Sweep some years ago. The cup is at present on view in the window of Mr. Hely's Chemist shop in the Main Street, where it is attracting widespread admiration, while his countless friends join in the hope that further valuable trophies will be won by this popular sportsman in the near future.

DUBLIN'S WELCOME FOR DEISE HURLING TEAM

A Reception organised by Waterford men resident in Dublin, was held on Sunday night, September 14th, at 8.30 p.m., in Barry's Hotel, in honour of the Hurling Team.

The following were the members of the Reception Committee:—Inspector M. J. Mansfield, Chairman; M. Moloney, Hon. Treas.; Seamus Dalton, Hon. Sec.; Messrs. P. J. Little, T.D., Parliamentary Secretary to the Taoiseach; M. Morrissey, T.D.; W. J. Broderick, T.D.; Mrs. E. M. Redmond, T.D.; Senator S. Goulding; Senator J. Butler; Comdt. P. J. Paul, Capt. J. Lyons, Guard R. Power, David Hanley, N.T.; Sean Hogan, Jerome Guiry, M. Reid, D. Sullivan, C. Mansfield, W. Foley, J. Draper, P. Terry, J. Walsh, J. Coffey, T. Flynn, P. Meenan.

The Chairman, Inspector M. Mansfield, proposed the toast "Eire." The toast of "the G.A.A." was proposed by Mr. David Hanley, who broadcast the match earlier in the afternoon. In his speech, he paid tribute to the work which that great amateur organisation had done for the country in the National, economic, cultural, and social life of the people of Ireland. The toast was responded to by Art MacCann. Mr. J. O'Guiry, in proposing the toast of "Our Guests," said the occasion was unique in many respects. It was the first time that a Waterford Hurling Team had appeared in an All-Ireland Senior Hurling Final and the first time that Waterford people in Dublin had been brought together in the Capital City. It was not however, the first time a Deise team had appeared in an All-Ireland Senior Final. Some thirty years ago to be precise April 1900, a Deise Football team lined up to contest an All-Ireland Football Final. He was happy to see amongst those present, some of the survivors of that team. He reviewed the glorious achievements of Waterford men in every sphere of life. Those of them who lived out of their native Decies were proud of their incomparable team and of their superb, spectacular and sparkling display. A vast multitude enjoyed a glorious hour. A vast multitude were dazzled and delighted by the irresistible dare-devil and reckless dashes of the Decies men which smashed home points after goals and which disconcerted a team the personnel of which was composed of the cream of the athletes of at least a half-dozen Counties. The teams that lined up were not Waterford and Dublin, but Waterford and the rest of Ireland.

Mr. M. V. O'Donoghue, Chairman, Waterford Co. Board, G.A.A. replying in Irish, thanked the Decies Gachs in Dublin for the excellent entertainment they had provided and said that though they had not tasted the sweets of victory they had a great deal to be proud of in having gone so far. They had no reason to be downhearted and the day was not far distant when they would add the crowning glory of All-Ireland Champions to the many laurels which they had already earned. He congratulated the Dublin team on their success and the Reception Committee on the manner in which they had entertained them that night.

Major J. McGrath, replied on behalf of the Dublin team. Musical items, instrumental and vocal were rendered by the following artists:—Cadet Plunket Bremack of the Army School of Music; Mr. James Keoghane, School of Music; Mr. McManus, Waterford; Mr. Black and Mr. Miller.

Amongst those present were:—P. O'Caolain, Secretary Central Council, G.A.A., and Mrs. O'Caolain; Mr. M. Sean Goulding and J. Butler, Mr. M. Morrissey, T.D.; The Mayor of Waterford; Mr. M. V. O'Donoghue, Chairman Waterford Co. Board and Mrs. O'Donoghue; Sergt. Paul Russell, trainer Waterford team; C. McMahon and M. Gill, Dublin team; Matty Power, famous All-Ireland Kilkenny hurler; M. Falvey, who formerly hurled with Waterford and Clare; M. Gill (Senr.), member of this year's Galway team; Padraig O'Connell, well known Gaelic author; Sean MacMaolain, a prominent Ulster writer of Irish; Mr. and Mrs. C. Keane, Mr. and Mrs. L. Power, Mullingar; Mr. and Mrs. Hanley, Capt. Hart, Capt. Kyne, Miss Kyne and Miss Guiry; Messrs. J. J. Hearne, T. B. Boyle, Sean McGushin, T. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman, Dungarvan U.D.C.; N. Barron, C. Sullivan, P. T. Power, Rev. Fr. Lynch, C.C., Rev. Fr. Power, C.C., M. Shalloo, Mr. M. Foley, N.T., and Mrs. Foley; Very Rev. T. Ryan, P.P., St. Andrews, High St., Dublin; Rev. Fr. Flavin, University Church, Dublin; Dr. M. Flavin, Reader, Rev. Fr. Cummins, Cork; Rev. Fr.

Tours of Co. Cork And Waterford

ENJOYABLE OUTINGS

Mr. O'Mahony, Director, I.T.A., conducted a most successful tour of West Cork and the Mizen on 1st Sept. The first halt was at Bandon, where the walls of the town, at the back of the Garda Síochána Station, were visited. The party then proceeded to the Druid Circle at Burgatia, and had a long stay at Castlefreke. The Castle was visited through the kindness of Messrs. Fitzmaurice, Travels Wolfe and Wood. From the roof magnificent views were obtained of The Head, the Stag Rocks and the Galley Head. Glandore was next seen and lunch was served at the West Cork Hotel, Skibbereen. The party next drove to Schull. The coach stopped within two miles of the Mizen, at Lisgrain Cross, and the visitors walked out to the Signal Station, which they visited. The view from the Station, in the evening light, of the Dunsey, Sheep's Head and Dunmanus Bay, was unforgettable. The coach returned by the Swan Lake of Lisgrain, Bawley Cove, and Crookhaven, and tea was taken at the Commercial Hotel, Schull.

West Waterford
On Tuesday, 6th inst., Mr. O'Mahony, conducted another enjoyable tour of East Cork, West Waterford and Tipperary, the Lighthouse at Youghal was inspected, and the party next proceeded to inspect at length St. Mary's Collegiate Church and the Boyle Almshouses. The coach next proceeded to Ardmore, where the desert of St. Declan and his holy well were visited. A lunch was served at the Cliff House Hotel, after which the party visited the studio of Mrs. and Miss Odell. After a visit to the Round Tower, St. Declan's Beannactan, and the beautiful early Irish carvings on the western exterior of the Cathedral, the party drove through Clashmore and Villierstown, to Desmond, where they were warmly received by Mr. and Mrs. Villiers Stuart, who very kindly took them over the house, ramparts and gardens, and showed the priceless family pictures of the Stuart period by Sir Godfrey Kneller and Sir Peter Lely, and later pictures by Zoffany; the view from the drawingroom windows on to the Blackwater, and the fine Clonmel-made bookcases in the library were very much admired. A contribution was made towards the District Nursing Association, Cappoquin.

The next halt was made at Cappoquin House, where the party were met by Sir John and Lady Eleanor Keane, who kindly took them all over their restored home. Built round 1760, destroyed in 1923, the house took ten years to reconstruct, and the work was effected throughout by local labour without the aid of a contractor. The mahogany bookshelves in the library and the banister is like that leading to the Seand Chamber at Leinster House, and the reconstruction of the Georgian mouldings and ceiling decorations, all fitted up by local labour, excited admiration.

Sir John Keane brought the party out on to his new flat roof, and showed the splendid views of the Blackwater and surrounding country from the house. The party then drove to the "V" Gap by way of Mount Mellenny Abbey. At the "V" a halt was made to pick white heather and await the lifting of the mist. Finally five counties were taken in, at a glance: Waterford, Tipperary, Cork, Limerick and Clare. Tea was served at the Cahir House Hotel, and the visitors sauntered through the grounds of Cahir Park adjoining the hotel.

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL

Mr. M. Clancy, presided at the weekly meeting of the above on Friday week. Other members present were—Senator J. Butler, Messrs. D. Foley, and P. O'Dwyer.

Payments

Paysheets for £15 13s. 10d., on the general account and £5 10s. 10d., on the Harbour Account were presented and passed.

Mr. Curran, Harbour Master, appeared before the meeting in connection with the preparation of a new private berth at the end of the quay by Messrs. A. Moloney and Sons. He said he wanted to put the question of the Council's liability and responsibility before them for their advice.

It was decided to refer the matter to the Council's solicitor.

Repairs

Complaints re repairs required to their houses were read from Miss Barrett and Mrs. Croke, Mitchell Street, both were referred to the B.S.

Connecting to Sewer

A letter was read from Mr. William Whelan, Coolagh Road, Abbeyside, asking the Council to compel Mrs. Wm. Kiely (landlord) to connect his house with the sewer pipe on Coolagh Road.

The B.S. said this matter was up before, and he took leave. The yard can be drained into the sewer.

Mr. O'Dwyer—This is the fifth or sixth time this man wrote to the Council, and there is nothing done. The Council have power to compel landlords to do this.

Mr. Walsh, S.S.O., said he was speaking to Mrs. Kiely during the week, and it is her intention to get the work done. Mr. O'Dwyer said she may intend to do the work, but it may be on the Kathleen Mavroune system. They should have something definite.

The matter was referred to the S.S.O. to interview Mrs. Kiely.

Duties

A letter from the Local Government and Public Health Department asked for a detailed statement of the duties performed by Mr. Walsh, as Town and Water Inspector.

Mr. O'Dwyer was directed to supply the required information.

Refused

A letter from the Ministry of Local Government and Public Health, with reference to the increase of salary granted by the Council to Mr. Brady, Clerk of Works for the Housing Scheme, stated that the Minister is not prepared to approve of any increase.

Chairman—Some time ago we passed an increase to this man, and this is the reply. I think it is very unfair, because this man deserves an increase, and the increase was recommended by the Architects. He is a most diligent Clerk of Works, and the scheme is a very big one, and we should ask the Department to reconsider their decision.

It was decided to ask the Department to reconsider their decision.

Mr. O'Dwyer dissented.

Lifelong Institution

A sum of £2 2s. the Council's annual subscription to the National Lifeboat Institution, was passed to Mr. J. Keane, the local Secretary.

Old Tack

DUNGARVAN AND DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION

Annual Report for the Year Ended 31st July, 1937

It gives me great pleasure to submit the Seventh Annual Report of the above Association, for the year ended 31st July, 1937.

It is my pleasant duty to record that the Association continues in a thriving condition. The services of the Nurse have been availed of extensively again this year. The following statistics convey an idea of the magnitude of work accomplished during the year:—

General Nursing Visits 3,838
Dispensary Visits 1,362
Infant Welfare Visits 2,401

Total 7,601

Miss Kavanagh, Inspector of the Lunatic Asylum, Dublin, visited the District in February, 1937, and, in her report expressed her satisfaction at the progress being made by the Association. Nurse McMann, who had been working here since March 1936, tendered her resignation on September 14th, 1936. The Committee accepted the resignation with great tributes being paid to the efficient way she had done her work, while here.

As a small token of appreciation, she was presented with a cheque by the Committee and some friends on her departure. Nurse Conlon, who was appointed in place of Nurse McMann, took up duty in September 1936. It is to be regretted that she also tendered her resignation on her marriage in July 1937. The Committee while placing on record their appreciation of her worth, accepted the resignation.

Nurse Ougley was appointed in her place on July 13th, 1937. On his being appointed Parish Priest of Ballyduff, Co. Waterford, our esteemed friend, Very Rev. M. F. Heane, resigned from the Association, to his sincere regret of the Committee. His ability and industry will be greatly missed by his friends of the Committee, and will be a heavy loss to the Nursing Association.

Very Rev. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan, kindly accepted the Presidency of the Association. We feel that, under his guidance, progress will continue undiminished in the future.

The sincere gratitude, and thanks of the Committee are due to the gentlemen of the town, who helped the Association in the organisation of the Children's Fancy Dress Competition, and Dance, etc. Their untiring efforts and unsparring unselfishness, at that time, materially helped the work of the Association.

Our most grateful thanks are extended to all who co-operated so generously with the Association during the year, and, especially to the people of the town and adjoining country for their liberal response to our annual appeal.

Kathleen Foley,
Hon. Secretary,
30th November, 1937.

YOUGHAL CYCLING FATALITY

THE INQUEST

Deputy Coroner W. St. Clair Rice, solr., opened an inquest in the Court-house, Youghal, on Friday, into the death of Robert Noel Kieley, who sustained fatal injuries when his bicycle crashed into a motor car driven by Miss A. Meade, Youghal.

Superintendent Kelly, represented the authorities and Mr. T. K. Keane, solr., appeared for Miss Meade.

A Jury, with Mr. J. Webster, as foreman, having been sworn, John Kieley, Cork Hill, gas worker, father of deceased, deposed that his son Robert Noel, was 14½ years of age. He was employed as messenger by Mr. Owens, Chemist, for the past 4 months. He saw him last alive at 2 o'clock on the 8th inst. He was then in perfect health. Witness went to the Hospital after 5 o'clock and saw his boy. He was alive then. He died about 7 o'clock that evening. Witness was there and identified the body as that of his son.

Dr. T. Kennedy, Youghal, Dispensary M.O., deposed that he examined the boy in the Cottage Hospital at about 4 p.m. He was then alive, but totally unconscious. He had a bruise over the right eye, lacerated left ear and slight scratches on both knees. He had haemorrhage from both ears and the nostrils. The cause of death was fracture of the base of the skull and compression of the brain.

The Superintendent—That is all the evidence I call. I require an adjournment.

The Coroner said the inquest was adjourned sine die. It only remained for him to express his sincere sympathy with the father and other relatives of the poor boy.

Mr. Keane said, representing Miss Meade, he would like to say how deeply she felt about that unfortunate occurrence. He wished to express her deepest sympathy with the father and other relatives. He could not adequately express how greatly she felt that she should be at all concerned in the death of that young lad. Not alone did she regret it now, but would for the rest of her days. He wished to add his personal sympathy.

Superintendent Kelly, on behalf of the Gardaí also expressed his sympathy. The foreman of the jury on behalf of his colleagues associated himself with the expressions of sympathy.
