DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT.

Motoring offences.
Before Mr. S. J. Troy D.J. on Wednesday.
Guard Synott Leamybrien prosecuted. Matt Lynch, Cahir, was fined 10s. for driving on a main road without lights on a motor cycle. Halpin Darrow, M. Flynn, herogue M. McCarthy, Ballymarket, P. Power, Kilserra, Jas. Hogan, Siskin, under the lights on vehicles act. Fines of 3/6 in each case were imposed.
For a similar case at the suit of Guard Giblin against D. Bluet, Youghal Road a like fine was imposed.

Forgery.
A man named Mr. Howell Countragan was charged on three counts by Guard Quinlan Lismore, viz:— (1) Forgery, (2) uttering a forged order and (3) false pretences. All the cases were adjourned.

Drunk.
Guard McGee charged Patrick Horton Loughmore with being drunk. A fine of 2/6 was imposed.

Disorderly Behaviour.
A man named James Grace Lismore was charged by Sgt. O'Neill with disorderly behaviour. A fine of twenty shillings was imposed.

Road Traffic Act.
Superintendent Walsh charged William Duggan, Kilserra, and William Swanton, Kilserra, under the Road Traffic Act. Mr. Williams solicitor appeared for William Duggan, while William Swanton conducted his own defence. The case arose from an accident at the Pike, Kilserra, when a van of the property of Messrs. K. Williams and Co. and a car of the property of the Kilserra Motor Works were involved in a collision on September 13. Mr. Williams for Duggan objected to the notice served as it did not give particulars as to how sufficient care was not exercised.

Superintendent Walsh said the only facts he would prove would be that Duggan did not exercise due care. The Justice said he agreed with Mr. Williams. The notice served he held to be too general and he dismissed the case.

William Duggan said he was delivering bread at Gully's on September 13. When he finished at Gully's he got into the van sounded the horn and looked down the road. He then drove directly across the road. He felt a slight push. There was no damage done. Witness told defendant it should be reported to the Guards. Guard McGee said to him when the matter was reported to him he went to the Pike. The road at the point of the collision is thirty feet wide. The driver of the car had a view of 75 feet. There was a skid mark seventy feet which continued to the point of impact.

He then tested the brakes at different speeds of which he gave evidence. The Justice dismissed the case.

Occasional Licence.
Mrs. Julia Dempsey was granted an occasional licence for the night of October 26 the occasion of the teachers' annual dance.

Collision on the Clonon Road.
Superintendent Walsh charged Walter Murphy, Marlyke, Cork, and Miss Kathleen McGrath, O'Connell street, Dungarvan under the Road Traffic Act. The case arose out of a collision at Garrynageragh on the Dungarvan Clonon road on August 14. Mr. Powell solicitor, Cork, appeared for Mr. Murphy. Mr. Murphy said on August 14 he was travelling towards Tramore when the other car came from the Clonon road and hit him across. Witness was within thirty yards when the other car came out fast. He heard no horn sounded. After the collision his car turned over on its side facing towards Clonon.

To Mr. Farrell—He was roughly about thirty yards from the collision. He is not aware that his brake tracks commenced at about twenty yards from the cross. He was doing about 40 m.p.h. at the time, not 60 to 65 m.p.h. When he struck Miss McGrath's car it was about the centre of the road but for swerving to the right it would have been a head-on collision. He knew Clonon Cross but would not say that 40 miles was excessive on the wide main road. His car he thought, did not el any distance after the impact but turned over on its side. He should disagree with Miss McGrath if she says her car was actually about to enter the Ballinroad by-road. He had four passengers, three at the back. They were talking and may be reading but were not distracting him.

To the Justice—He was driving a Ford V.8 at 40 m.p.h. he could pull up in twenty five to thirty yards. To Mr. Farrell—When he saw Miss McGrath's car emerge from the by-road he was about twenty yards away. To Mr. Powell—On this side of the road his passengers were his brother Dr. Murphy in front and his father, mother and sister in the back seat. He had often been over this road and knew of this by-road. The left front mud-guard of witness car struck Miss McGrath's rear mud-guard. Witness went for the Guards to Superintendent Walsh—He would not agree that his car was about twenty yards from the point of collision, or that he was more on the wrong than on the right side of the with fittings would cost £850 and if the pipe was extended to next cross roads to the West to join up with the existing pipe the increase cost would be £100. The Mr. Bowen stated would be an advantage to the system on the Western end.

Mr. Bowen also suggested that a survey be paid them if attention definite rent agreed on by the contractor.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

SUCCESSFUL RETREAT.

A week's Retreat was opened in St. Mary's Catholic Church on Sunday week by the Rev. Father Dawson, of the Marist Order, Dublin, this being the first time that a Marist Retreat had ever been conducted either a Retreat or Mission for the Parish of Cappoquin.
There was an unusually large congregation at the opening ceremony after last Mass, and again at the Devotions during the Retreat, this being the first time that a Marist Retreat had ever been conducted either a Retreat or Mission for the Parish of Cappoquin.
The remains were removed to St. Mary's Catholic Church on Tuesday night, and were followed by a large number of the general public and after Requiem Mass for the repose of her soul on Thursday she was interred at St. Declan's Cemetery, Dromore, in the presence of another large attendance of mourning relatives, friends and general public.
It is a rather grim coincidence that the previous tenant of the same house in Cook Street, Mr. John Hennessy, Shoemaker, was also found dead under exactly similar circumstances several years ago, entrance to the house having to be effected through the window, when Mr. Hennessy was found lying dead in bed, having also apparently, died in his sleep during the night.

Serious Accident to Miss Freda Keane.
Her numerous friends in Cappoquin and the surrounding districts were very sorry to learn that Miss Freda Keane, Belleville Park, Cappoquin, met with a rather serious accident towards the end of last week when she was involved in a bad motor smash while travelling from Tipperary towards Clonmel.

Mr. H. Delmege, Woodroffe, Clonmel was driving his car at the time, being accompanied by Miss Keane, when their vehicle was run into by another car, and forced against a Furniture Van belonging to Mr. Nat Ross, Cork. The force of the impact was so great that Mr. Delmege's car was literally cut in two, the front of the body being completely torn from the chassis, so that Miss Keane and another passenger, Mr. John Kennelly, Woodroffe, who sustained some injuries to his leg had a miraculous escape from being killed outright.

Mr. Delmege, who was driving, fortunately escaped unhurt, and the injured passengers were later conveyed by Major Hutchinson, Hydenstown, Cahill, to Fethard when they were attended to by a doctor. Miss Freda Keane is the elder daughter of Mrs. Keane, Belleville Park, and the late Lieut.-Col. R. H. Keane, and is niece of Senator Sir John Keane, Bart., Cappoquin. She is sister of Mr. R. L. Keane and Miss Diana Keane, and is a prominent member of the West Waterford Hunt, and is well and popular, known as one of the most esteemed sporting young ladies in the County Waterford.

Her sporting and general friend deeply sympathise with her over this unfortunate accident, and join in the hope that she may be recovered to again take her place with the West Waterford Hounds, of which she is a most devoted and enthusiastic follower.

CAPPOQUIN MAN BADLY INJURED IN LONDON.
Mr. William J. Cahill, son of Mr. Patrick Cahill, ex-Head Constable, R.I.C., Mill Street, Cappoquin, was seriously injured in London last week.

It appears that on Tuesday morning week, while he was motor cycling to his work in the height of a storm, a large tree was suddenly blown down and crashed on him with great force, and also causing concussion for a week.

Mr. Cahill was a famous oarsman for several years, and was in addition, an all-round sportsman who was a warm favourite with all classes in Cappoquin, and the news of his serious accident has caused the deepest regret here, and the greatest sympathy is felt for him and his respected father and other relatives over the sad occurrence.

OPENING OF THE TURKEY SEASON.
From an advt. in this issue it will be seen that Messrs J. O'Connor and Sons, Egg and Poultry Exporters, Cappoquin, are now prepared to purchase early turkeys, that are already fit for the market, at the substantial price of 10d. per lb. Although the usual yearly market for turkeys does not start until about two months before Xmas, Messrs O'Connor have displayed great enterprise in opening their market earlier than usual this year, so we hope that owners of early turkeys will now avail of this grand opportunity of converting their birds into ready cash while the present good price remains in force.

OPENING OF THE DANCING SEASON.
Owing to the Meant Mellerey Bazaar and the Retreat having been in progress during the week nights the opening of the annual "Practice Dances" in the Boathouse Hall has had to be deferred until a later date than usual this year.
Lovers of the "Light Fantastic" will, however, be now glad to learn that the opening "Practice Dance" for the season will be held on next Sunday night in the Boathouse Hall, at the usual hour and for the usual low charge, so we trust there will be a big attendance for the opening night and at all the future Sunday night dances during the season.

ON HOLIDAYS.
Sergeant J. Browne, the courteous and efficient "Practice Dance" of Cappoquin Civic Guard Station, is at present on his annual holidays, and as he is a decent and enthusiastic sportsman who is extremely popular in the town, all his friends wish him a happy and enjoyable time during his period of relaxation from his important duties.

The Station, in the meantime, is in charge of Guard John O'Mahony, who is the senior Guard in Cappoquin, and who has frequently testified in this capacity in the past, and who is also a most efficient and courteous officer who enjoys the respect and confidence of everybody in Cappoquin.

CLOSE OF THE FISHING SEASON.
The angling season, which ended on Sept. 30th, marked the close of one of the worst trout fishing seasons experienced on the river Blackwater for many years.
Fishing was so bad all through the season that several English visitors who came here for their annual angling holiday gave up in disgust and curtailed their holidays while out local anglers felt so depondent and disgusted that they hadn't either the nerve or enthusiasm to try any of the tail "yarns" about the big trout which they used regale us in former years.

SALE OF BREAD

Important Summons Against City Bakery

Judge Hanna's Decision Quoted

Sergeant's Visit to Tramore Shop

Important summonses against Laurence O'Brien, the local city bakery proprietor, and which many interesting points were raised, came before Mr. F. J. McCabe in the District Court.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solicitor, appeared for the defence.

Mr. O'Brien was summoned selling batch bread at a price in excess of the maximum price fixed by Order; and for selling bread of a weight less than that specified in the Order; and for selling bread of a weight less than that specified in the Order; and for selling bread of a weight less than that specified in the Order.

SERGEANT'S EVIDENCE

Sergeant Kelleher, in evidence, said that he visited Mr. O'Brien's shop at Tramore on June 24th and chased 5lbs of bread. He asked for turn-over loaves, which were submitted to be batch bread. He charged 1/2d when, according to Order, which fixed 10d. for a loaf of bread, he should have charged 1/4d. On the same occasion he purchased 2lbs of bread in pan loaf form. He was charged 6d, and should have been charged 5d.

Mr. Farrell at this stage said that the point at issue was whether the pan bread was batch bread or fancy bread; he submitted it was the latter category.

Mr. Farrell now produced a court a container holding two loaves. The witness agreed that the pan loaves purchased by him would have been baked in a similar container, having a bottom and sides.

To Mr. Ryan, Sergeant Kelleher said that the pan he purchased had not been crusted on one side, raised portion of the loaf at the bottom would be accounted for by its being baked in an open container.

Mr. Ryan had experience of the bread since 1923 and he knew that the bread was not batch bread.

The Justice said he understood that Judge Hanna in a similar case which went before the High Court and decided that a container containing something which contained the bread would be surrounded by crust on all sides.

This concluded the Sergeant's evidence, and Mr. Farrell submitted that the prosecution must show the bread was batch bread, therefore came under the terms of the Order. The definition of batch bread in the Order was that it is not baked in a container, is sold or offered for sale in loaves which the outside is not crusted.

The Justice said he understood that Judge Hanna in a similar case which went before the High Court and decided that a container containing something which contained the bread would be surrounded by crust on all sides.

MR. O'BRIEN IN THE WITNESS CHAIR

Mr. Laurence O'Brien, who was now called to the witness stand, before giving evidence said that he was speaking in a tentative capacity, but the Justice reminded him that this was not a preliminary inquiry.

Mr. Farrell again produced a container previously exhibited in reply to questions Mr. O'Brien stated that pan bread was not batch bread in these circumstances, and that he had crusted the pan bread together in the said long container.

Mr. Ryan asked if the bread of weight 2lbs, which was submitted, which contained the bread were used. The witness said that such containers were used for baking pan bread.

In reply to Mr. Ryan's question that the batch bread and pan bread were exactly similar except in manner of baking, the witness said that different ingredients were used. The Justice inquired if the pan bread was for in excess of the type. Mr. O'Brien added that bread was submitted to the District Court as being batch bread of which gave the result of employment and loss of the whole process.

Mr. Ryan—We are not concerned with that.

SALE OF BREAD

Important Summonses Against City Bakery

Judge Hanna's Decision Quoted

Sergeant's Visit to Tramore Shop

Important summonses against Mr. Laurence O'Brien, the leading city bakery proprietor, and in which many interesting legal points were raised, came before Mr. F. J. McCabe in the District Court.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solicitor, prosecuted, and Mr. R. Farrell, solicitor, appeared for the defence.

Mr. O'Brien was summoned for selling batch bread at a price in excess of the maximum price fixed by Order, and for selling bread otherwise than by weight.

Mr. Farrell stated that the first summons referred to two lots of bread, one of what was known as batch bread, and 2 lbs. of fancy bread which he held was fancy bread. He would admit the offence in regard to the 2 lbs. In regard to the second summons he would not admit an offence.

SERGEANT'S EVIDENCE

Sergt. Kelleher, in evidence, stated that he visited Mr. O'Brien's shop at Tramore on June 24th and purchased 4 lbs. of bread. He asked for 5 turn-over loaves, which were admitted to be batch bread. He was charged 1/2d when, according to the Order, which fixed 10d. for a 4 lb. loaf, he should have been charged 1/4d. On the same occasion he purchased 2 lbs. of fancy bread in a paper bag. He was charged 6d. and should have been charged 5d.

Mr. Farrell at this stage stated that the point at issue was whether the pan bread was batch bread or fancy bread; he submitted it was in the latter category.

Mr. Farrell now produced in court a container holding two pan loaves. The witness agreed that the pan loaves purchased by him would have been baked in a similar container, having a bottom and four sides.

To Mr. Ryan, Sergeant Kelleher said that the pan he purchased did not have crust on one side. The raised portion of the loaf in the pan would be accounted for by its being baked in an open container. Witness had experience of the trade since 1925 and he knew that there were containers which enclosed the loaf on all sides; if these were used the bread would be surrounded by crust on all sides.

This concluded the Sergeant's evidence, and Mr. Farrell submitted that the prosecution must show that the bread was batch bread and therefore came under the terms of the Order. The definition of batch bread in the Order, was "bread that is not baked in containers," and is sold or offered for sale in loaves of which the outside is not all crust.

The Justice said he understood that Judge Hanna in a similar case which went before the High Court had decided that a container was something which enclosed the loaf completely.

Mr. Ryan produced a certified copy of Judge Hanna's decision, bearing out the Justice's statement. Mr. Farrell urged again that the prosecution was bound to show that the pan loaf was not batch bread, before he had a case to answer. The Justice, however, said that the Sergt. had given evidence to the effect that the pan loaf was not batch bread within the meaning of the Order.

MR. O'BRIEN IN THE WITNESS CHAIR.

Mr. Laurence O'Brien, defendant, was now called to the witness chair. Before giving evidence he stated that he was speaking in a representative capacity, but the Justice reminded him that this was not an inquiry. Mr. Farrell again produced the container previously exhibited, and in reply to questions Mr. O'Brien stated that pans were always baked in these, otherwise they would not have crust. Two pans were baked together in the same long container.

Mr. Ryan asked if for baking bread of certain kinds containers which completely enclosed the loaf were used. The witness replied that such containers were used for baking sandwich pans.

In reply to Mr. Ryan's suggestion that the batch bread and pan bread were exactly similar except in the manner of baking, the witness stated that different ingredients were used. The labour imposed in the baking of pans was far in excess of the other type. Mr. O'Brien added that batch bread was selected by the Minister in his Order as being bread the baking of which gave the minimum of employment and less expense in the whole process.

Mr. Ryan—We are not concerned with that.

At the Justice's request, Mr. Ryan now read Judge Hanna's decision in full, remarking that it did give a definition as to what the word "container" meant. "I think," said the Justice, "that it is clear that Judge Hanna's decision binds me. He takes a container to mean a container which surrounds the loaf." Mr. McCabe added that the container which figured in the High Court case was not even as much a container as that in the present instance.

Mr. Farrell now submitted that in using the container produced, two pans, 4 lbs. of bread, were baked as a single unit, and were taken out of the container, completely surrounded by crust. In the High Court case the loaf had one side which was not crust.

The Justice said that he would hold definite that the unit that must be completely surrounded by crust must be the unit offered for sale; and he would give Mr. Farrell a case stated on that point if the defence wanted it. Thinking Mr. Ryan for giving him Judge Hanna's decision the Justice remarked that the learned Judge had settled the law on a case stated, that a Court of inferior nature might follow. "That decision binds me," said the Justice, "and it would be a very improper thing for me not to follow it."

Remarking that it was a very important case for both sides, the Justice said he would adjourn it for the purpose of a formal decision, and this would give Mr. Farrell time to make up his mind about a case stated. As regards the penalty, it would be a nominal one, but it would be a genuine, bona fide dispute.

The admitted portion of the first summons—the sale of batch bread in excess of the fixed minimum price—was then taken up.

Mr. Ryan said that he looked upon this as a very serious matter. Mr. O'Brien was a very big man in the trade, the other bakers looked up to him, and here he was deliberately breaking the law.

Formal evidence was given by Sergeant Kelleher that he was charged 1/2d for 4 lbs. of what was undoubtedly batch bread.

Mr. O'Brien again entered the witness chair, and said that about 70 per cent. of his trade was with retailers, who sold at 11d. per 4 lb. loaf. If witness sold at 10d. he would be in competition. That was why he charged the higher rate. He also had the expense of bringing the bread from Waterford to Tramore. The matter had been taken up with the Ministry.

The Justice said that it was his duty to see that the law was observed. Was witness going to repeat the offence to-day and to-morrow?

The witness replied that it was a very important case. The evidence he had given had all been put before the Department on Monday last, and the bakers had been sent away to prepare a memorandum.

The Justice repeated his question, and the witness now replied in the negative.

The Justice said he could quite understand that a wholesale who enclosed his commission with his retail customers would be committing suicide in his trade. That was a very good reason for Mr. O'Brien's having charged the higher price, but not for doing it again to-morrow.

Mr. Farrell said that they wanted to show the bakers that Mr. O'Brien was forced to do what he was doing.

The Justice said that Mr. O'Brien was not forced to be a retailer. Would Mr. Farrell give an assurance that there was no intention of breaking the regulations again.

Mr. Farrell gave the undertaking.

THE SECOND CASE.

The court now took the second summons—that of selling bread otherwise than by weight.

Mr. Ryan said that this was brought under the Bread Act, which provided that all bread sold by a baker must be sold by weight.

Mr. Farrell said that the defence was that the bread in question was fancy bread, and that the purchaser was told the weight.

Sergt. Kelleher again gave evidence.

He said that he went into Mr. O'Brien's shop in Tramore and asked for 2 lb. pan loaves and 2 lb. pan. Miss Power the assistant gave him the bread and he paid for it and asked for a receipt. Miss Power was making out the receipt, putting in "2 small pans, 1 lb each" when Miss Reddin, the manageress, who apparently knew who witness was, came in, and told him that they did not sell that bread by weight but by loaf.

Mr. Ryan asked the witness if his case was that because he made up the bread in this form he was not restricted as to price.

The witness replied in the affirmative.

Replying to the Justice, witness said that before the Order came into force, containers were always known as tins. There was a container known as a covered tin, used for baking the sandwich pan. The containers produced in Court would be called a tin.

At the Justice's request, Mr. Ryan now read Judge Hanna's decision in full, remarking that it did give a definition as to what the word "container" meant. "I think," said the Justice, "that it is clear that Judge Hanna's decision binds me. He takes a container to mean a container which surrounds the loaf." Mr. McCabe added that the container which figured in the High Court case was not even as much a container as that in the present instance.

Mr. Farrell now submitted that in using the container produced, two pans, 4 lbs. of bread, were baked as a single unit, and were taken out of the container, completely surrounded by crust. In the High Court case the loaf had one side which was not crust.

The Justice said that he would hold definite that the unit that must be completely surrounded by crust must be the unit offered for sale; and he would give Mr. Farrell a case stated on that point if the defence wanted it. Thinking Mr. Ryan for giving him Judge Hanna's decision the Justice remarked that the learned Judge had settled the law on a case stated, that a Court of inferior nature might follow. "That decision binds me," said the Justice, "and it would be a very improper thing for me not to follow it."

The witness replied that it was a very important case. The evidence he had given had all been put before the Department on Monday last, and the bakers had been sent away to prepare a memorandum.

The Justice repeated his question, and the witness now replied in the negative.

Sergt. Kelleher again gave evidence.

He said that he went into Mr. O'Brien's shop in Tramore and asked for 2 lb. pan loaves and 2 lb. pan. Miss Power the assistant gave him the bread and he paid for it and asked for a receipt. Miss Power was making out the receipt, putting in "2 small pans, 1 lb each" when Miss Reddin, the manageress, who apparently knew who witness was, came in, and told him that they did not sell that bread by weight but by loaf.

Mr. Ryan asked the witness if his case was that because he made up the bread in this form he was not restricted as to price.

The witness replied in the affirmative.

Replying to the Justice, witness said that before the Order came into force, containers were always known as tins. There was a container known as a covered tin, used for baking the sandwich pan. The containers produced in Court would be called a tin.

At the Justice's request, Mr. Ryan now read Judge Hanna's decision in full, remarking that it did give a definition as to what the word "container" meant. "I think," said the Justice, "that it is clear that Judge Hanna's decision binds me. He takes a container to mean a container which surrounds the loaf." Mr. McCabe added that the container which figured in the High Court case was not even as much a container as that in the present instance.

Mr. Farrell now submitted that in using the container produced, two pans, 4 lbs. of bread, were baked as a single unit, and were taken out of the container, completely surrounded by crust. In the High Court case the loaf had one side which was not crust.

The Justice said that he would hold definite that the unit that must be completely surrounded by crust must be the unit offered for sale; and he would give Mr. Farrell a case stated on that point if the defence wanted it. Thinking Mr. Ryan for giving him Judge Hanna's decision the Justice remarked that the learned Judge had settled the law on a case stated, that a Court of inferior nature might follow. "That decision binds me," said the Justice, "and it would be a very improper thing for me not to follow it."

Remarking that it was a very important case for both sides, the Justice said he would adjourn it for the purpose of a formal decision, and this would give Mr. Farrell time to make up his mind about a case stated. As regards the penalty, it would be a nominal one, but it would be a genuine, bona fide dispute.

The admitted portion of the first summons—the sale of batch bread in excess of the fixed minimum price—was then taken up.

Mr. Ryan said that he looked upon this as a very serious matter. Mr. O'Brien was a very big man in the trade, the other bakers looked up to him, and here he was deliberately breaking the law.

Formal evidence was given by Sergeant Kelleher that he was charged 1/2d for 4 lbs. of what was undoubtedly batch bread.

Mr. O'Brien again entered the witness chair, and said that about 70 per cent. of his trade was with retailers, who sold at 11d. per 4 lb. loaf. If witness sold at 10d. he would be in competition. That was why he charged the higher rate. He also had the expense of bringing the bread from Waterford to Tramore. The matter had been taken up with the Ministry.

The Justice said that it was his duty to see that the law was observed. Was witness going to repeat the offence to-day and to-morrow?

The witness replied that it was a very important case. The evidence he had given had all been put before the Department on Monday last, and the bakers had been sent away to prepare a memorandum.

The Justice repeated his question, and the witness now replied in the negative.

The Justice said he could quite understand that a wholesale who enclosed his commission with his retail customers would be committing suicide in his trade. That was a very good reason for Mr. O'Brien's having charged the higher price, but not for doing it again to-morrow.

Mr. Farrell said that they wanted to show the bakers that Mr. O'Brien was forced to do what he was doing.

The Justice said that Mr. O'Brien was not forced to be a retailer. Would Mr. Farrell give an assurance that there was no intention of breaking the regulations again.

Mr. Farrell gave the undertaking.

THE SECOND CASE.

The court now took the second summons—that of selling bread otherwise than by weight.

Mr. Ryan said that this was brought under the Bread Act, which provided that all bread sold by a baker must be sold by weight.

Mr. Farrell said that the defence was that the bread in question was fancy bread, and that the purchaser was told the weight.

Sergt. Kelleher again gave evidence.

He said that he went into Mr. O'Brien's shop in Tramore and asked for 2 lb. pan loaves and 2 lb. pan. Miss Power the assistant gave him the bread and he paid for it and asked for a receipt. TAKEN FROM RIVER

The body of John Linehan, farmer of Carrigroon, Mallow, for whom Garda and civilians had been searching since October 1 was recovered from the river Blackwater about four miles from Carrigroon. The body was found by Messrs. Edmond Neilan and John Burns where Mr. Linehan was in the habit of crossing the river in a boat. They had come seven miles from Carrigroon to assist in the search. The jury at the inquest returned a verdict of accidental death from drowning. Replying to a vote of sympathy, Rev. W. Linehan, Dublin brother of the deceased, expressed his joy and satisfaction that the body was found in easy way to find.

FOOTPRINTS ON THE BANK

Mr. Linehan is stated, residing at Carrigroon, on the evening of September 30 he left the house about eight o'clock when, next morning, it was found that his bed was not slept in, a search was made. Mr. Linehan's footprints were found leading to the river on the opposite side, and also tracks going away from the river. Later in the day the boat, with only one oar, or pole in it, was found about half a mile down the river from the place where the footprints were. It was out on the left bank clear of the water. The river it is stated, was flooded that day.

Objects of Vaccination

Described as a conscientious objector, Mr. C. S. Jacob, Tramore had at Tramore District Court, an order south against him for the vaccination of child. Mr. O'Gorman, solicitor, Lismore for the board, insisted that order should issue forthwith, remarking that the period was limited to three months. District Justice McCabe said that he would allow Mr. Jacob that time "I would give him three years if I could," added the Justice, who said he was satisfied Mr. Jacob was a sincere objector to vaccination.

Waterford Bird Preservation Order

Waterford for the following kinds of wild birds—Owl (all species), kestrel, goldfinch, linnet, siskin, chaffinch, redpoll, skylark, wagtail (all species), chough, kingfisher, hoopoe.

YOUGHAL NOTES

The Urban Council or, at least, some of the twenty-one members who constitute our "Parish Parliament" have evidently lost or minimise their enthusiastic interest in the affairs of the municipality, be they the "Parish Pump" or the "Political propagandist order. On the previous week the Council meeting fell through for want of a quorum and for the benefit of the uninitiated that means the attendance of six out of the twenty-one members. It only emphasises the absurdity of requiring a two-thirds majority of the grand total of twenty-one. It is a "village"—of a population of around about 5,000 to elect 21 members, seven of each of three wards North Central and South—to transact their municipal business. On last Thursday night a repetition of the same was just prevented by the arrival on the scene, ten minutes after the time of adjourning of the Council, of those who saved the situation. The trouble is that to reduce the number of Councillors, an elaborate and costly procedure would be gone through. These are hardly the times for such a waste of money, even though it be what is termed "Public Money," it may be "Public Money" but it ultimately comes out of the pockets of the ratepayers, many of whom have more than enough to do to meet all the demands public or private made on them. There has been a lot of condemnatory criticism of the "red tape" of the Council, and it is a "toss up" if the "green tape" of the regime of the Council is not as bad, if not a jolly sight worse.

When we are to have (1) a local public library, (2) the sanction of the local Government Department to let the unfortunate tenants out of the slums into the last completed scheme of 25 houses and (3) a start made on the work of the new Mental Hospital. It is now some three or four years since Mr. J. Daly B.E., U.D.C. recognizing the great need of a public library for the town, initiated and pressed on the Urban Council the scheme of a Carnegie Free Library—a library in name only in reality, as the books were few and far between and of a very limited suitability—to the County Library Committee. The Minute Book of the Council alone tells how many discussions and propositions and advertisements have before them in connection with the matter and still as far off as ever we go as far as off as ever from the library. Goodness alone knows how the matter stands at present. Number two has been dealt with at the last meeting, but it is still awaiting word from the County Library Committee. Obviously, better seed must be sown to grow better wheat, and with this in mind Harpur Bros. offering selected English Seed Wheat at a moderate price. The quality of the wheat is a decided improvement on that grown in this country, and farmers who will benefit undoubtedly when the harvest is reaped next year. Farmers interested in this higher quality seed should get in touch with Harpur Bros., Quay, Waterford, right away as the supply, naturally, is limited.

Waterford's Great Win Over League Title Holders

Last Minute Goal Gains points For Waterford

Waterford 4-3; Limerick 2-5.

On Sunday last Waterford gained their first brace of points, when they defeated Limerick at Waterford in the first round of the National League.

The game was a dour struggle with plenty of scientific hurling, in which quarter was neither given nor asked.

For the last quarter the spectators stood on tip-toe, as Waterford pressed to reduce Limerick's slender lead of two points. It was in the last few minutes of the game, when Waterford in whirlwind fashion turned defeat into victory. It was in the last few minutes of the game when hope had all but vanished that Waterford in a great final rally defeated the Shannon-siders.

The weather conditions were very favourable and the crowd was very small. Waterford although winning in the last minutes, were deserving winners of the game.

Waterford faced a strong breeze in the first half and the half-time scores were—

Waterford, 0-1; Limerick, 1-3.

Waterford lost many golden opportunities of scoring in the early portion of the second moiety.

The teams were played on to the pitch by Thomas Francis Meagher's Brass and Reed Band.

Limerick took possession from the throw-in and with-in half a minute Ryan opened the scoring with a point for Limerick. The puck out was returned for Mountain to clear but the ball was again returned and Moylan and Keane cleared and sent the ball far up field. Mick Mackey got possession and sent the ball into the goal-mouth where Ware and Mountain cleared, only to be returned again for Curley to make a spectacular save. The puck out from goal was sent well up the field and Lockey Byrne getting possession was too closely tackled to make any use of the leather. But Fleminging coming in from the wing forced a "70." Keane centred only for Limerick to save. John Mackey sent the ball down with a short punt which Barron returned and Mick Mackey intercepting the flying ball sent a long drive into the Waterford goalmouth which was cleared by C. Ware. In the next raid Limerick forced a "70." A long low puck by Mick Mackey was sent in for Hickey to clear. A free to Waterford was returned by T. Ryan for John Mackey to send wide. Moylan doubled on the puck out cleared well, but T. Ryan seizing the flying ball sent T. Mackey who centred for M. Hickey to save. A free to Limerick by J. Mackey was saved by Keane who was aided by Barron and cleared to the other end. A free to Waterford was taken by Moylan who sent in a low ball which was returned only to be snapped by the latter player and sent wide.

From the fall of the puck out which landed well inside the Waterford half, Limerick got a free. Keane saved but the ball was returned by M. Mackey and Barron sent the ball over the side-line about two yards from the Limerick end-line. Another long puck out was returned by Keane. A free on the Limerick '21' was taken by Byrne; but the attack being repulsed Sheehan returned the leather for Limerick to be awarded a free on the 10 yards mark from the over-line. A long puck was snapped by Keane who passed to Moylan but the Limerick forwards marking their opponents closely forced a side-line puck. Burke saved and sent to Byrne but the Limerick back-line had their men covered up well and cleared. Burke cleared for Waterford as the other end. Limerick cleared for Keane and Fleminging to return. McMahon got possession and sent in a grand shot into the goal-mouth which was lashed into the Waterford net. The puck out was doubled on by Keane but Limerick returned and Ryan sent in a grand centre for Curley to lash clear and the ball was returned wide. From the ensuing exchanges Hickey cleared to centre field and Moylan "starred" at centre-field and Andy Flemming was wide by inches. M. Mackey sent to the Waterford end for Ware to clear. A free to Waterford eased the situation. Keane sent well up the field where J. Mackey passed to T. Ryan who sent wide. From the drop of the puck out Limerick were awarded a free. A long low puck by M. Mackey into the Waterford goal-mouth was sent over the end-line for a "70." M. Mackey sent the ensuing "70" sailing between the post for a point. Keane doubling on the puck out sent down the field and Ryan snapping the ball sent wide. Keane saved again for Waterford. At this period rain fell heavily. A cut-in by Moylan was cleared before Keane was called to save his side.

In a mid-field tussle Moylan received an injury but returned. On the ball being hopped by the referee the latter player getting possession centred to the Limerick goal-mouth which was cleared. Limerick returned wide before Daly centred to "Lockey" Byrne the latter sent the ball sailing between the Limerick posts for Waterford's first score. A free to Limerick 25 yards out was sent over the bar by M. Mackey. The puck out was returned from Daly to Moylan but the Limerick backs cleared and returned the ball to the Waterford goal-mouth where Curley kicked the ball clear. Again Limerick attacked and Curley brought off a grand save at the expense of a "70."

The "70" by M. Mackey was landed between the posts which was cleared by Curley and Moylan made a great run transferring play to the other end where Andy Fleminging in a great bid for a score was wide by inches. Mountain was under the drop of the ball but the ball rolled over the side-line. Following a Limerick attack Keane and Hickey were seen to great advantage in the Waterford back line. At this stage both sides fought like Trojans and the tackling was very keen.

A side-puck was sent well up the field by Mountain and Moylan sent well down with a great cut-in. A whirlwind Limerick raid had the Waterford set in danger but Fleminging came to the rescue. With the puck out Moylan and Keane sent Waterford to attack and a hard shot by Fleminging was saved by the Limerick goalkeeper. Waterford sent wide. Fleminging beat off a great Limerick raid, before a free to Waterford within scoring range was sent wide. Barron getting possession on the 21 yards line passed to Moylan who sent wide. The half-time scores were—

Limerick, 1-3; Waterford, 0-1.

On resuming Larry Duggan was called on to replace D. Power who retired injured.

Waterford forced the play and Roche cleared. Mountain and Keane cleared at the other end and a free to Waterford by the latter player was sent wide. Moylan snapping the ball sent in again but the goal-man lashed clear once more. An exciting duel around the Limerick goal ended in a wide. T. Ryan sent the puck out to MacMahon who sent a well directed puck over the bar. Mick Mackey doubling on the puck out sent to Ryan the latter sending along the wing. Fleminging beat off a cut-in by Limerick before a Waterford free was landed in the goal-mouth by Keane. Greene fought hard for a score but had to be content with a wide. Moylan sent to Sheehan, the latter crossing to Fleminging who found the back of the Limerick net with a great shot for Waterford's first goal. Keane beat M. Mackey and sent well up the field but Limerick repulsed a Waterford attack and Limerick were awarded a free. The free by M. Mackey was a long low shot into the goalmouth and Givens with a quick drive goaled. Keane doubling on the puck out delivered to Daly who shot a grand point from a very difficult angle. On the drop of the puck out Waterford were penalised but the ensuing free was beaten off and Waterford sent wide at the other end. Moylan returned the puck out wide. At this period Moylan and Duggan put in some great work for Waterford and a free by Keane on the 21 yards line was beaten off and Barron cleared from the Limerick end before a cut-in was given against Waterford at the other corner. The Mackey brothers trying to break through the Waterford defence were held up. A free by M. Mackey was well directed and sent over the bar by Ryan. Mountain next cleared from Ryan and Fleminging sent wide. Carroll cleared from the Limerick goalmouth and Sheehan passed to Moylan the latter being wide by inches. Moylan was injured in the next duel and resumed.

The spectators now stood on tip-toe as both sides battled hard for supremacy. J. Mackey sent to the Waterford goalmouth and Moylan and Barron retaliated and in a duel between "Lockey" Byrne and M. Mackey the latter received an injury. A free to Waterford was cleared by Mackey and Keane Ware and Fleminging were prominent in the Waterford defence. A free by Keane from centrefield was returned and Moylan sent Waterford to attack. J. Mackey beat off a Waterford movement before Moylan crossed to Barron the latter just missing the objective.

At this period there was a reshuffle in the Waterford team and C. Ware took up the position of full-forward. Barron snapping a flying ball sent to the goalmouth with a powerful drive and Waterford's efforts were crowned by a goal from Ware. Barron returned wide before Limerick returned to attack. Waterford were awarded a free which was well centred and Byrne was lashed by Moylan to Keane who lashed in Waterford's winning goal. On the return of play "Lockey" Byrne had a point leaving Waterford worthy winners on the score—

Waterford, 4-3; Limerick, 2-5.

The teams lined out as follows—

M. Curley J. Mountain C. Ware J. Fleminging J. Burke J. Keane M. Hickey C. Moylan W. Barron

Major General Peeff, chief of the General Staff of the Bulgarian Army was shot dead outside the War Ministry in Sofia on Monday while walking to his office. His Adjutant Major Stoyanoff, was also hit by a bullet and seriously injured.

Immediately after firing the shots the assassin, a civilian, blew out his brains. Shortly after the news of the crime became known it was learned that King Boris, who had recently served a term of imprisonment and had been released on a pardon from the king. Vassoff is described as having been a former officer from the of Kyustendil but the military authorities decline to give any information about him.

The streets leading to the scene of the crime were cordoned off and the local Press was not permitted to report the affair. Houses near the War Ministry have been heavily damaged as a sign of mourning.

Major General Peeff was one of the most brilliant officers of the army

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

YOUGHAL'S EMPTY HOUSES

DEPARTMENT HAS FORGOTTEN THEM

At a meeting of Youghal Council those present were— Messrs. M. D. Broderick, Chairman, E. D. Condon, D. McCarthy, S. Power, E. Lynch, M. Ahearn.

The Clerk stated that he had called on the Secretary of the Home members of the Pig Buyers Association and they promised to co-operate with the Council in making the proposed revival of the monthly pig fair a success. The Council should not be allowed every week.

Twice would be enough, one day to coincide with the fair. As regards the question of "ringing," they promised to deal with it. They suggested that the Council should communicate with Messrs. Denny re visits of their agents with the scales.

The meeting expressed their thanks to the Pig Buyers Association, and instructed the Clerk to write to Messrs. Denny as suggested.

It was stated that the Great Southern Railway Co. contemplated removing the galvanised iron shelter at the terminus. Several members expressed the opinion that this would be a great mistake as it was largely availed of by the summer visitors who arrived by train.

The resolution calling for amendment of the regulations and syllabus of examination for clerical positions so as to offer reasonable opportunities to students in the commerce classes under the control of vocational committees to compete for positions, was adopted on the proposition of Mr. Lynch, seconded by Mr. Condon.

The resolution of the N. A. I. R. A. calling for the release of the political prisoners, was adopted on the proposition of Mr. Lynch, seconded by the Clerk.

The Clerk read a letter from the office of the Taoiseach acknowledging a similar resolution adopted by the Council.

Mr. Power Those men are not merely political prisoners. They are the G. D. D. who are sanctioning the appointment of Mr. James Troy, Town Superintendent, as Inspector of the G. D. D. Shops Act at a salary of £10 per annum.

Mr. J. V. Hallissy, Organising Secretary of the Industrial Development Association, applied for the use of the ballroom for dances on Friday and Sunday nights from 8 to 11.

Mr. Power queried that matter. There were two such Associations in the town. The older was comprised of absolutely responsible men. The present applicant got the hall free.

The Chairman—give them the hall at the usual charge.

Mr. Power—You have two such Associations in the town. The Chairman's suggestion was adopted on the proposition of Mr. Ahearn, seconded by Mr. Ahearn.

The town Surveyor wrote approving of the plans of Mr. M. Walsh for a new house and house at McCurtainstown. The plans were sanctioned on the proposition of Mr. Ahearn, seconded by Mr. Condon.

UNOCCUPIED HOUSES The Clerk said that the public had to be let know that those houses had been finished and ready for occupation on June 2nd. He had written and wired the Department several times reminding them of the fact and asking for confirmation of the clearance order, but he had received no answer.

The Chairman—That is an absolute public scandal, but the loss to the rates is nothing compared to the loss of keeping the unfortunate people in the slums (hear hear).

Mr. Power said the Chairman objected on the ground of houses. The Chairman said he objected to the type of house being built—the poor people were unable to pay the water.

The Clerk read a list of arrears of rent, showing from seven to twenty-four weeks due in some cases. There has been an improvement of late. Mr. Power called attention to the fact that the demand notes issued by the Collector for valuations under £6, did not give the information that a discount would be allowed if the rate was paid before a certain date. It was mentioned in the poor rate demand notes.

The Clerk stated that the stamp duty on dance licences had been raised from 2s 6d to £2, would the Council put on an extra charge? Mr. Lynch objected. "Better have them at the dances than loafing around the roads," he said.

The Chairman did not see why the ratepayers should be called on to pay.

Mr. Lynch said they should give the money down and airplay. They were small ratepayers.

Mr. McCarthy said there was too much playing to the gallery. It did not appear to be "down and out" in their way home from the dances.

It was decided to put a small extra on the charge for larger dances.

Letters of acknowledgment of resolutions of sympathy were received from Mrs. Arbuthnot, Myrtle Grove Rev. J. Murray, C.S.S.R. and Messrs. P. Kennedy and John Killy.

PAFENS SEIZED All British newspapers of last Monday's date were confiscated in Berlin by the Police.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

Death of Mrs. Ellen Bateman, Cappoquin.

Much regret has been caused in Cappoquin district by the death of Mrs. Ellen Bateman (nee O'Keefe) which occurred after a short illness at her residence, Mill St., Cappoquin, on Friday 7th inst., at a ripe age.

Relict of the late Mr. Patrick Bateman, deceased was a member of one of the oldest and most respected families in Cappoquin, as she was daughter of the late Mr. Thomas O'Keefe and Mrs. O'Keefe (nee Mary Killigrew), who were amongst the most prominent and prosperous business people in the town for many years.

In addition to being owners of very valuable house property in Mill Street, they had also conducted an extensive and flourishing Posting establishment in Cook Street, during which they kept a large number of valuable horses, Wagonettes, "Long Cars" and ordinary Jarvey Cars in the good old days before the Waterford and Lismore Railway system had been opened, and, of course, long before motor cars or other modern modes of conveyance for passengers had been thought of.

The name of "O'Keefe's Posting Establishment" was a household word in the County Waterford in those far off days, but the memory of this famous establishment is still fresh and green in the hearts of many of the older inhabitants of Cappoquin to the present day.

The late Mrs. Bateman had inherited many of the fine qualities of her progressive and enterprising parents and during her long life she was noted for her exemplary character and her kind and unassuming manner, which had made her a warm favourite with all classes in her native town. One of her sons, Eugene, has been in New York for a considerable number of years, and the deepest sympathy of all is now extended to him and the other members of her respected family in their sad bereavement.

The remains were removed from her late residence to St. Mary's Catholic Church on Monday evening and after Requiem Mass for the repose of her soul on Sunday, the funeral took place at St. Declan's Cemetery at Dromore, when there was a large and representative attendance of all the leading people in the town and district to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of a worthy and esteemed member of the real "Old Stock" of Cappoquin.

The Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C., Cappoquin, headed the funeral cortege, and recited the last prayers at the grave.

The Chief mourners included—Mrs. Alice Hill (Daughter), and the Misses Josephine, Esther and Master Charlie Hill (Grand-children) Michael and Mrs. O'Reilly, Dungarvan; William and Mrs. Killigrew; Modeligo; Patrick and Mrs. O'Brien, Lismore; Mrs. Long, Rockfield, Cappoquin, etc. (cousins and relatives). R.I.P.

The Council has acquired sites for a number of houses on which work will start early in 1939.

The Council has already built 200 houses under the 1932 National Housing Scheme.

The provisions of the Act relating to Victuallers premises are also to be strictly enforced.

HITLER TILTS AT BRITISH.

SARCASM ON EVENTS IN PALASTINE

MORE FORTIFICATIONS ON WESTERN FRONTIER

"It would be good if the British would drop some of their manners of the Versailles epoch," Herr Hitler declared at Saarbruecken, on Sunday. "We will not stand any territorial interference with the fate of German citizens within the Reich."

Germany, the Fuehrer said, wanted only peace, especially with Great Britain; but in some countries statesmen who loved peace could be replaced at any moment by others who did not. "If an Eden or a Duff Cooper came to power in Great Britain instead of Mr. Chamberlain, we know it would be their aim to make war."

Referring to Palastine, he said—"We leave this to those who feel themselves called upon by Providence to solve these problems, and watch with astonishment how they are handling them."

We must give them the advice to occupy themselves still more closely with their own problems, and not meddle with ours."

Herr Hitler announced that the work of fortifying Germany's Western frontier was to be continued, with increased energy, and extended to include the Aix-la-Chapelle and Saarbruecken districts, and added that he hoped in a few days to suspend the emergency measures taken during the international crisis, and "send home hundreds of thousands of workmen and reservists."

Cardinal's Palace Sacked By Nazis

Cardinal Innitzer, Primate of Austria, was injured by flying glass, and a number of priests were brutally assaulted in a Nazi demonstration in Vienna on Saturday night.

While one group of demonstrators stormed the Cardinal's palace, smashing windows, another group forced its way into the vicarage where several priests were assaulted. Father Krawarik, who is 60, was thrown out of a window from the first floor to the yard, suffering concussion and fracture of both legs.

According to the "Times" correspondent in Vienna, a battering ram was used on the side door of the Palace and a number of youths wearing a uniform similar to that of the Hitler Youth Organisation brought a ladder and climbed through the upper window of the Palace.

Cut glass chandeliers were smashed and pictures, a large carved wooden crucifix, an oil painting of Our Lady, and a portrait of the Cardinal were hurled through the windows into the square below and placed on a bonfire.

The precious oil library of the Vienna bishops was completely destroyed, books being thrown out of the window.

Cardinal Innitzer, who is 63, was last night reported to be "under house arrest" in his Palace, which is occupied by officials of the Secret Police.

News of the riots, despite the Press silence, spread quickly all over Vienna, and throughout the night and also yesterday, thousands of people visited St. Stefan's Cathedral.

During the sermon at yesterday morning's services no reference was made to the riots but, as the congregation was leaving the Cathedral at noon, a fresh disturbance arose involving Catholics and Nazi youths.

Several people were badly hurt before police came up and quelled the disturbance.

About 20 of those arrested in Saturday night's rioting were released yesterday and reports that several had been sent to Dathau concentration camp near Munich, were officially denied.

An official spokesman stated that the Nazi Party disclaimed any connection with Saturday's rioting.

The secret police are holding an inquiry into the rioting. The Cardinal was twice questioned and also was his secretary, the Rev. Dr. Joachim.

Cardinal Innitzer, whose injuries are not serious—he was cut on the forehead by a splinter of glass—was permitted yesterday morning to say Mass in the chapel of the palace.

The political consequences of the riots are regarded by close observers as likely to be serious.

Makes "More Wheat" Plea.

DR. RYAN SPEAKS ON GRAIN DISPOSAL

"We must not forget that those farmers who produced surplus oats and barley during the past season did so in the belief that the maize mixing scheme would provide an outlet for the surplus, and accordingly, I do not see my way to ask the Government for the power to discontinue the scheme until such time as I am satisfied that the surplus has been absorbed."

said Dr. Ryan Minister for Agriculture, in a talk from Radio Eir eann on the disposal of grain.

Having considered all the arguments very fully, I think it is necessary to continue the maize mixing scheme until the surplus oats and barley of 1938 crop is absorbed. When the Dail meets, I hope to introduce legislation to empower the suspension of the maize mixing regulations at the end of the present cereal year, that is, in September, 1939.

Both the farmers who grow oats as a cash crop and those who grow barley for cash in excess of the quantity usually sold for malling purposes should note this. It is an endeavour justly in the common season. "Indeed it is mainly in order to give these farmers an opportunity to do so that I have decided to make this announcement now."

Referring to the international situation the Minister said: "Apart from the difficulty of finding a cash market for barley and oats, and the fact that there is a comparatively unimpaired market for the home-grown wheat, there are other vital reasons why the wheat area should be increased. Recent happenings in international affairs caused all countries serious misgivings in many directions, but perhaps principally as regards the supply of food for human consumption, and the probable shortage of certain foods, in the event of war."

"We in Ireland would not be so seriously affected as reported many articles of diet, but because of our great dependence on imports what we would certainly be affected as regards our supply of breadstuffs."

"The country's position in this connection has been frequently reviewed in recent years, but the matter is of such vital importance that, at the risk of repetition, I feel I should again emphasise it."

Referring to the failure of many crops, resulting from certain seed in the last and other seasons, he said: "The position has become so unsatisfactory that it became necessary to take steps to obviate a recurrence during the coming year and so far as possible to insure that this imported seed will be true to type. Accordingly I have decided that before permits are used for the importation of this variety applicants must furnish certain guarantees of quality from the exporter."

The seed trade had already been notified of the nature of those guarantees. While the standard demanded was not unreasonably high, he was inclined to the belief that only a small proportion of this variety imported in the past would reach this standard. The result might be a shortage of this variety of seed next Spring, and, therefore, a shortage of Spring wheat generally. Those who felt they had to grow this variety should therefore endeavour to reserve seed from the present season's crop, where such their supplies from other growers whose crops of it were true to type.

Dr. Ryan concluded: "Again and finally let me emphasise. Barley or oats will not be required for the maize mixture after August, 1939."

There is a virtually unlimited amount of wheat at a remunerative price. "It will be difficult if not impossible to get this particular variety of seed wheat. The obvious thing to do is to sow more wheat and sow it now."

SPECIAL ENVOY SENT TO VIENNA.

HERR HITLER, it was learned from Berlin on Monday, states the United Press, has sent a special emissary to Vienna to investigate the incidents at Cardinal Innitzer's Palace on Saturday night.

It is said to have been greatly annoyed and immediately ordered a strict investigation and the severe punishment of the organisers of the riots.

Meanwhile the inquiry into the demonstrations is being continued, and Governor Buerckel, who is still away from Vienna, will, it is learned, make a statement on the events during the next few days.

"CONSTERNATION" IN ROME

"It is with consternation that we reproduce the news of the attack on the Cardinal's Palace."

The Papal Nuncio is reported to have arrived in Vienna from Berlin on Monday to investigate the recent events.

A conference of officials began on the Cardinal's Palace on Monday evening. The Primate, who is under "house" arrest, was allowed to take part in this but he is still prevented from leaving his home or to receive telephone calls.

HITLER TO TAKE A REST

The Fuehrer, it is understood, is now on his way to Berchtesgaden, where, it is believed, he will take a few days' rest after the rioting days he has just passed through.

Herr Hitler inspected sections of the frontier fortifications in the Saarbruecken area and their garrisons.
