

DRUNK IN CAR

Not A Legal Offence If A Passenger.

Although it is an offence to be drunk in the street, an intoxicated person cannot be legally proceeded against if he is a passenger in a motor-car.

ROAD ACCIDENTS.

There were 654 accidents in Eire, excluding Dublin Metropolitan Division, during July. Twelve accidents were fatal, compared with 22 in July last year.

IMPORT OF MIRRORS.

The Minister of Industry and Commerce has made regulations prescribing that in the case of mirrors liable to Customs duty, the proportion of value required in order to establish a claim to the preferential rate of duty provided in the Emergency Imposition of Duties (No. 178) Order, 1939 (Statutory Rules and Orders No. 66 of 1939) shall be 50 per cent instead of 25 per cent as formerly.

STERILIZATION

The patented shape of VAP does the trick. No instruments—just push in and it creeps right into the space which is the germ and sticks in the cuff of your sleeve and works its way up to your armpits.

USE BELLS GREAT ANIMAL CURES

USE BELLS GREAT ANIMAL CURES. The use of bells in the treatment of various ailments is a well-known fact.

ALL-IRELAND J.H. SEMI-FINAL Waterford Welders Worsted by Kilkenny.

OSSORIAN WERE TOP DOGS FOR THE MAJOR PORTION OF THE MATCH. Kilkenny, 3-6; Waterford, 2-5.

Their gruelling game against Limerick on the 13th inst. and the sensational objection which followed formed a heavy handicap on the White and Blues in their bout with the Black and Ambers, and the latter, in the harmony and excellence of their approach work and accurate finishing deservedly qualified to meet Mayo in the Ultimate.

Last Sunday was exceptionally pleasant, and old Carrick-on-Suir and the surrounding countryside certainly looked beautiful that day. The air was like wine, the breeze from the north swept sportively across Davin Park, and tempered the warmth of the sun.

Waterford—T. O'Donoghue (capt.), G. O'Grady (goal), S. Power, J. Waters, P. Bluet, W. Morrissey, V. Bastin, D. Power, J. Jacques, D. Dwyer, J. Minogue, P. Moore, F. Pinket, P. Greene.

Kilkenny—R. Woodgate (capt.), R. Cahill (goal), M. Conna, H. J. Nolan, R. Cleary, P. Aylward, P. Fitzgerald, P. Hickey, J. Purcell, M. Heffernan, P. Gilles, H. Giles, P. Falvey, H. Brophy, T. Walsh.

National Anthem over. Budsnoen off the pitch. Goalies and backs back. Ball thrown in. Waterford, with wind advantage, well away. Woodgate, Cleary and Aylward shine in roasting volute Deise said, Dwyer cleared. Dwyer returned. Cate tries-struck play on part of Deise farwards, crowned with a net shaker off D. Power's blade. Norman continued delivery. Purcell passed to P. Gilles, who, closely tackled, cooped out to Fahy, for the last name to take a beauty by O'Grady.

One goal each. Ball between Bastin, Morrissey and Purcell, Holden. Waterford, Flavin takes and points. Lead short lived. Weather "Kilkennied" to grassland end of pitch. O'Grady brings off snarling snarl. Fahy collars Cleary. Healy transfers to T. Walsh. Walsh waddles for goal. Cut it. Kilkenny, 2-1; Waterford, 1-1. Good ruck out advanced by D. Power to "Skipper" O'Donoghue, who goals grandly. Lenestrian one white flag in arrears. Kilkenny defending delightfully. Seven to aggressors. Nothing off it. Soon another seventy to the loose-backed boys. "Sunny" Power lifts and mashes the leather well. Bastin pounces, pulls, and points prettily. Waterford two points ahead. Following ruck out came a lie to the Ossorians. (Killed). Sphere is set to over the microphone mark. Free to Waterford. Fruitless. Powerful Black and Amber assailed. P. Bluet outstanding in Deise defence. Kilkenny keeping it up. Furious goal-mouth scrimmage. Heffernan gets half a chance. He hits and sends a green.

Waterford a more minor behind. Kilkenny return delivery. Hot hurling in Deise lanes. P. Gilles polishes a stylish solo run with a party point. Waterford a brace of "over the bars" behind, in ensuing phase. P. Daly sustained head injury. Retired. Heavily by J. Manning. Kilkenny away on resumption. H. Giles reserves and scores in "odd" time. Holden out. Purcell putting in good work for Kilkenny at mid-field. Short blast. Registrar reads:— Kilkenny, 3-2; Waterford, 2-2.

SECOND HALF.

Antagonists at it anew. With wind advantage now Kilkenny gain great advantage. Free against Waterford, pointed by Purcell. O'Grady's drive returned. Purcell pulls 2-0 on ground 2-28. Heffernan and O'Grady another white flag. Heffernan and O'Grady the fall of the puck-out. Bastin beats his man and drives a long one above the later, and the same player a little later (on obtaining from Moore out of a melee) notched a similar score. Kilkenny a goal. Good! Waterford victory and initiative now showing. Deise's citadel heavily bombarded. Defence stone-wall at. Eventually P. Pinket put it. A Kilkenny

LIMERICK OBJECT TO WATERFORD In Friday Hurling Final

On Friday evening last, at 8 p.m., there was a meeting of the Munster Council in Limerick to consider the position created by the objection by Limerick to Waterford being awarded the Munster Junior Hurling semi-final, played last Sunday, and it was eventually decided to nominate Waterford to meet Kilkenny in the All-Ireland Junior Hurling semi-final at Carrick-on-Suir on Sunday, August 20th. Limerick had not yet lodged the objection.

The Chairman said that Limerick were claiming the right to the final seven days to prepare their case before lodging the objection. It was at the same time a serious position for the province if there was any substance in the complaint lodged by Limerick against six or seven of the Waterford men. He felt that the Council would have to nominate Waterford and they could be trusted to play a team which would be quite legal.

Mr. Wm. Waterford said that if Waterford were nominated to play a team which was the worst team in the province, he would not be able to play. He thought the matter should be considered seriously.

Mr. O'Donoghue said Waterford Council were perfectly satisfied that, according to the rules, the men objected to were eligible to play, according to a decision of the Congress. Prior to that decision, it was thought that some of the men would not be eligible.

Chairman—Gur dubh to-night is to point out how serious the delegates consider the matter, but until something is done about Waterford, I do not think we should nominate any team.

The Chairman added that he heard rumour in Dublin last week that if Waterford headed certain players Limerick would object.

O'Donoghue said Waterford was entirely in the dark as to the charges being brought against them. He said he was not in Waterford and he was not in Carrick-on-Suir on Sunday, August 20th. Mr. O'Donoghue expressed the view that it would be a reflection on Waterford not to be nominated for the match against Kilkenny.

The Chairman said the responsibility was his, and since there was nothing tangible against Waterford, he would like that Waterford play Kilkenny in the semi-final, on Sunday August 20th.

Mr. C. Holland, Limerick said the entire question was one of senior players. Limerick was alleging that Waterford held senior players.

The Chairman said they could rely on Waterford to uphold the honour of the province, and he felt they would consider the matter in the light of new knowledge.

Before the meeting ended the objection lodged by Limerick was handed to the Secretary, and a copy was given to Waterford.

VOUGHAL NOTES

VOUGHAL.—Youghal, because of its natural attractions, its ideal situation and its facilities for healthful enjoyment and recreation is recognised as one of the leading holiday centres in the country.

Youghal is an ancient and historic town—its antiquities numerous and interesting—giving it a glamour which is absent in other resorts of repute. The main attraction is the 4 1/2 strand—five miles of smooth sands washed by the Atlantic.

The climate is remarkably temperate and equable and conducive to health and at the same time the air is pure and invigorating and possesses wonderful tonic qualities. Youghal enjoys the maximum amount of sunshine in those parts due to being sheltered from the West and North. The roads, water supply, etc., are excellent and all the public services are remarkably efficient. There are hotels to suit all tastes and purposes and there is no lack of accommodation.

There is the usual round of seaside amusements which the visitor with exploration in the South Coast and its surroundings, numerous antiquities and a wealth of scenic beauty which provide endless opportunities of pleasure.

Youghal is a great business centre and in the local shops and shops only best quality goods are stocked and sold at the minimum of profit.

During the week these columns will contain items of importance relating to Youghal and the detailed reports of all happenings in the town and district.

ANTIQUITIES.—The principal antiquities of Youghal are the Old Town Walls, St. Mary's Church, the South Abbey, St. John's Abbey, Yvete's Castle and Myrtle Grove. The Old Gate is the outstanding landmark.

THE VOUGHAL G.A.A.—The Youghal G.A.A. club is a very efficient and well-organised body and has done much for the advancement and betterment of Gaelic games and Gaelic culture generally.

The success of the Youghal G.A.A. is due to the painstaking and unselfish efforts of Messrs. J. O'Sullivan, J. J. O'Mahoney, M. Brennan and other members of the very capable and energetic committee.

The current hurling and football championship games of the Youghal G.A.A. are put up very creditable performances considering the many difficulties with which the club has to contend.

THE STRAND.—The bad weather experienced during the summer months seriously affected Youghal and the number of visitors was below normal. During the recent fine spell however, there was a record "in" holiday due to the painstaking and unselfish efforts of Messrs. J. O'Sullivan, J. J. O'Mahoney, M. Brennan and other members of the very capable and energetic committee.

THE MILITARY ENCAMPMENT.—The military encampment at Sutherland, Youghal, is an interesting place to visit at any time. Usually, there are about 500 troops being garrisoned for their annual training. To older residents the presence of such a large body of military in Youghal is reminiscent of the "old days" when the town was an important military station. The fact that the military authorities chose Youghal as an important training centre is much appreciated by the people of the town.

Three Continents Buy British Cattle and Pigs

In the first six months of this year 643 heavily bred cattle were exported compared with 403 head in the corresponding period of 1938. Specialist buyers and Government representatives have come to Britain in greater numbers than formerly, and their visits to the Royal Show at Windsor, July, led to the bulk of their purchases of cattle and pigs.

A Belgian purchasing mission, including prominent officials of the Ministry of Agriculture, bought chiefly pigs of the "Large White" breed; the President and Secretary of the French Large White Pig Breeders' Association headed a big French party, their purchases including several boars from Lord Daresbury's herd.

A mission representing the Polish Government and the principal Polish bacon factories bought several Large White pigs at the Royal Show, and made purchases at various farms.

A representative of one of the leading Herd Book societies in Germany, accompanied by a breeder, bought three Wexford Saddleback prize-winning pigs at the Royal Show, and the first prize boar in the yearling class was sold for export to Yugoslavia.

Argentine buyers selected the first prize boar in the first month class, and another first prizewinner. Many of the pedigree cattle at the Royal Show are going to Asia and Africa. So it Africa is an exceptionally big buyer, due largely to the Union Government's scheme whereby stock bought in Britain is shipped free of charge to the importer. Now on their way to South Africa in one shipment are 22 head of pedigree cattle, mostly Red Fries, but also Shorthorn and one Sussex bull.

Russian buyers have selected no fewer than 280 cattle, consisting of beef and dairy Shorthorns and Herefords, and 120 head of pedigree pigs already been shipped. This big purchase results from the Russians being very pleased with previous shipments.

France is buying British cattle freely; a small order is being shipped to British Guiana, mainly young bulls; and British breeders have had enquiries from the Federated Malay States and Sierra Leone. The Argentine remains a big customer.

THE NEW STRAND CHURCH.—The new Strand Church is a beautiful structure. The design is Romanesque and the building of brick with limestone dressings. There are seven bays in the nave and aisle, and the roof is of plaster graining. The High Altar and two side altars are in marble and cast iron. Internally the church is 113 feet long by 56 feet wide and is 40 feet high to the top of the tower. It contains accommodation for 800 and over the chancel is the belfry where the bell is tolled on Wednesdays to summon worshippers to Holy Mass.

The Church is ideally situated on an eminence at the western side of the town. The Chaplain is Rev. Fr. D. Ryan, C.C.

THE REGAL CINEMA.—The Regal is a perfect sound and is one of the most luxurious and well appointed in the country. Each night it is crowded by enthusiasts from parts of East Cork, West Waterford, etc., and the programmes are always up to an unusually high standard. Pictures shown during the past week included "Rockabye" and "Affairs of Cappy Ricks," "Merry-Go-Round of 1934," "The Last Stand" and "Back in Circles."

Pictures coming include—"Follow Your Star" and "Confession." The prices of admission are only (evening) 6d., 8d., and 1/3. Matinee 6d. and 4d.

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE IN ENGLAND

The Department of Agriculture were officially informed by the British Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries that an outbreak of foot and mouth disease had been confirmed at Fingurby, Lincolnshire.

The usual precautions have been taken by the British Ministry to prevent the spread of the disease and the Ministry has made an order, with immediate effect, prohibiting the movement of animals over large areas surrounding the infected place.

USEFUL RECEPTS. A small sliced apple added to a stew greatly improves the flavour. The apple will disappear into a mash during the cooking.

Pastry brushes that have been dipped in egg for glazing, pastry should be washed with cold water. If hot water is used the egg sets into the bristles of the brush, and is difficult to remove.

Needlework, Dress Cutting, Home Crafts, Choral Singing. Students may be under 14 years of age and must attend five days per week. Further particulars can be had from the Headmaster, Mr. E. N. N. at the school, Church Street.

Vocational Education is a decided boon to the fully employed country and they are the most modern in the country and very popular. All dances held are successful successes and patrons have a very enjoyable time. Attached is a shop which sells cigarettes, confectionary, sweets, minerals, etc.

Each year Youghal extends still further. During the past few years several beautiful residences have been built on the strand. All are of attractive modern design and many of the appearance of the locality.

Youghal Vocational School.—The Youghal Vocational School will re-open on Monday, September 4th, when the day continuation classes will resume. Ten free places will be awarded to pupils whose parents are unable to pay fees.

The programme is as follows:—Boys—Irish, English, Mathematics, Mechanical Drawing, Free-Hand Drawing, Woodwork, Metalwork, Choral Singing.

Girls—Irish, English, Arithmetic, Mechanical Drawing and design, Cookery.

AN INTERESTING VISITOR.—During the past few weeks an interesting visitor to Youghal was Very Rev. Fr. Patrick O'Gorman, C.M., Professor of Dogmatic Theology, All Hallows College, Dublin. Fr. O'Gorman, who is a member of a well known Youghal family, is

CONGRATULATIONS— Once more we congratulate Cian junior football fifteen on their magnificent victory over Stranishole on Sunday last. The thriller from start to finish, in the closing stages when they outplayed their opponents in counter to grasp their one goal in five minutes. Will to win stamina decidedly gave Sluagh victory, which now qualifies them to appear in the Dungarvan group though now being favourites for Sluagh as they are leaving as ever to ensure for themselves some glory of another county ship.

HALF-WAY DANCE— Last Sunday night's dance at Lar Half-Way hall was one of the most successful yet held here. All hail was thronged the best of maintained by the committee.

O'Reilly and J. Busted, University College, Cork; Dr. Lucey, Maynooth, An Fear Mor, Ring Irish College; etc. Ample time is provided in programme for pasting, swimming and fishing in the forenoon and the nights will be filled in by concerts, céilidhe dances and fireside chats. About 100 visitors can be accommodated in St. Declan's College, and a very moderate charge of 2s. will be made for board and residence for the five days of the session. Equally moderate charges will be made for shorter stays and for separate meals. There is extensive hotel accommodation in Ardmore, and those who cannot find accommodation in the College will have no difficulty in finding it in the hotels.

LIFE SAVING SERVICE— On Monday last at Goat-Island, near Ardmore, the local Coast Life Saving Service gave an interesting demonstration in charge of Supt. Morgan. Before proceeding to the place selected a rocket (maroon) was fired. The weather was gloriously fine and there was a big attendance of interested spectators including Senator Sir John Keane, Bart. A splendid shot from the mainland to the Island found its object and ropes were immediately attached to the mast to enable the Breeches Buoy to be sent out. A number of people took advantage of this to travel from the Island to the mainland. An interesting demonstration of first aid for the apparently drowned was given by Supt. Morgan.

VISITORS— Visitors to Melrose Hotel, Ardmore, at present, include, Rev. Fr. Enwright, Rev. Mr. Ruby, Mr. Paddy Fortune (the celebrated greyhound trainer) and Mrs. Fortune and family; Major and Mrs. Gore, Winchester, England; Col. Hoskins, London; Mrs. and Miss Lombard, Dublin; Miss Cynthia Brady, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. de Vere, White Greyton; Misses O'Sullivan, Cardiff; Mrs. and Miss Claude Taylor, Birmingham, England; Mrs. O'Brien Clonmel; Mrs. Duffly, etc.

On next Sunday evening a grand concert (vocal, instrumental and Dramatic) will be held in St. Declan's College hall.

BALLINAMULT NEWS
CONGRATULATIONS.
 Once more we congratulate the Sliah gCua junior football fifteen on their well-merited victory over Stradbally at Dungarvan on Sunday last. The game was a thriller from start to finish, particularly in the closing stages when Sliah gCua outplayed their opponents in every encounter to grasp their one goal two points in five minutes. Will to win and superior stamina decidedly gave Sliah gCua their victory, which now qualifies them to appear in the Dungarvan group final. Although now being favourites for this game Sliah gCua are leaving nothing to chance and are practising as assiduously as ever to ensure for themselves the supreme glory of another county championship.
HALF-WAY DANCE.
 Last Sunday night's dance at the popular Half-Way hall was one of the most successful yet held here. Although the hall was thronged to the rafters, it was maintained by the committee in charge, and they deserve a high compliment for the smooth working of the function. The Rhythm Boys' Dance Band, Clonmel, played a splendid selection of old and new dance tunes, all of which were loudly applauded by the dancers. All look forward in the near future to another such delightful function at the Half-Way.
OBITUARY.
 The death occurred on Tuesday last of Mr. Thomas Walsh, Reenadampun, after a protracted illness. Deceased, who was of a comparatively young age, was very popular and his untimely demise is sincerely regretted by a large circle of friends and relatives. The remains were removed to Touraneena Church on Wednesday and the funeral took place to Knockboy on Thursday. The large numbers present at both these ceremonies proved a fitting tribute to deceased's popularity.
GROUSE SHOOTING.
 The opening of the grouse-shooting season in the Knockmeal-down mountains has shown an abundance of game and some very heavy bags have been recorded.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS
IN MEMORIAM.
FOLEY.—First Anniversary—In sad and ever loving memory of our dear son, Rev. Maurice B. Foley, O.S.A., who died at the Priory, Limerick, on August 29th, 1938. On whose soul sweet Jesus have mercy. St. Monica and St. Augustine pray for him. Inserted by his sorrowing parents, brothers and sisters.
MUNSTER SHEEP SHOW.
 At the Annual Munster Show and Sale under the auspices of the Munster Sheep Breeders Association held in Cork on Tuesday last, Mr. M. J. McGrath, Lisamore, took 2nd and 3rd prizes in the Shearling Border Leicester Ram class, and 2nd prize in the Shearling Border Leicester ewe class. At the sale conducted by W. Marsh and Sons, Auctioneers, later, Mr. McGrath got 91 guineas, the top price realised at the point of his exhibit, while his second exhibit realised 61 guineas.
GOLF.
 The first open foursome against bogey will be held on the new links on Sunday next. Valuable prizes for winners. Cinderella Dance in the Town Hall, Dungarvan, 8 to 2 a.m., same night.
BRILLIANT CAPPOQUIN PUPIL.
 Miss Angela Colender, a pupil of St. Anne's Secondary School attached to the Mercy Convent, Cappoquin, passed with honours the Leaving Certificate Examination held under the Secondary Board of Education.
GARDA TRANSFERS.
 Garda L. Keane, Tipperary replaces Garda Parkes, Kilmadon, who is transferred to Tipperary. Sgt. McElligott also of Kilmadon station has been transferred to Glanworth, Co. Cork.
 Before his transfer to Kilmadon Garda Parkes spent a number of years in the Cambray station, where he was most popular with all sections of the community.
BOXING.
 An last Friday night at Portobello Boxing Stadium, the local well-known boxer Jackie Draper (of St. Andrews B.C., Dublin) boxed the European and Golden Gloves Champion, P. Dowdall, and although the decision went to the latter it would appear judging by Press reports that Jackie got a raw deal. One writer going as far as to say "I do not see how any judge can say how Draper lost." It will be remembered also that last March, there was another outcry against the judge's decision in an Irish Title bout, which was lost due to an error in the calculation of the points. These are two tough breaks for a young boxer, but Jackie Draper is of the calibre that will surmount any obstacle. We wish him the best of luck in the future in the roped arena.
OPENING OF WATCHMAKER AND JEWELLERY CONCERN.
 Mr. R. Kidd (late of Cooke's) wishes to inform his many friends and the public in general that he is opening a watchmaking and jewellery establishment at Lower Main St., Dungarvan (opposite the Augustinian College). On Monday week, September 4th, Mr. Kidd has over 30 years experience of his work and all patrons can be assured that nothing but high class work will be turned out. Reasonable prices will also be the order. We wish Mr. Kidd good luck in his new venture. For further particulars see advertising columns next week.
RELIGIOUS RECEPTION.
 The reception took place recently at the Bridgine Convent, Tullow, Co. Carlow, of Miss Nodlag Kieley (Sr. M. Brendan), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Kieley, Cappagh. The ceremony which was private was performed by Most Rev. Dr. Keogh. The newly received was educated at the Bridgine Convent, Mountrath, and has received numerous congratulations from her friends on her reception.

FEAST OF ST. AUGUSTINE.
 Monday next August 28th, is the feast of St. Augustine. A Triduum in honour of the saint will begin at the Augustinian Church on Friday, there will be Rosary and Benediction each evening at 7.30. Monday at 10 p.m. A paschic of the saint will be preached by Rev. L. Cotter, O.S.A.
 At Abbesside Parish Church (of which Parish St. Augustine is Patron) St. Augustine will be Solemn High Mass at 10.30 on Sunday, followed by 40 hours adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which will be concluded on Thursday. The large numbers present at both these ceremonies proved a fitting tribute to deceased's popularity.
BACK FROM WORLD'S FAIR.
 Recently returned from visits to the World's Fair at New York are Mrs. J. J. Quail, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan; Miss N. Dalton, Deelish, Miss B. Cowman, Deelish and Mrs. E. Dee, Moanard.

LEAVING CERTIFICATE EXAM.
 Once again the results of the Leaving Certificate Examinations under the Department of Education are at hand, and last week we had the pleasure of publishing the results of the Dungarvan Christian Brothers' Schools, which showed that pupils from that great educational establishment, secured 100 per cent. successes, at which the teaching staff deserve the heartiest congratulations. This week we publish the result of the Lismore, C. B. Schools, which again show successes in the Leaving, Matriculation, Post Office, Army Cadetship, and Waterford Co. Council Scholarship examinations. Here again the results are in keeping with the very high standard of education imparted year after year at the Lismore Collegiate School.
CO. COUNCIL SCHOLARSHIPS.
 As a result of the Leaving Certificate Examination results just published the following names have been recommended for scholarships offered by the Waterford Co. Council, viz.:—
 Elizabeth Nihiloleon, Baile Nua, Waterford; Hannah Feeney, Ursuline Convent, Cork; Frank O'Brien, C.B.S., Lismore.
CARRICK AND DISTRICT NEWS
IS IT TRUE? I'M ASKING YOU!
 (By Tommy Kearney)
 That the Yankee Clipper passed over the town on its way to Forncross from Southampton during the week.
 That it made everyone in the town "look up."
 That a young lady in Lough Street got a cramp in her neck from looking up at the Clerk of the weather getting a haircut from the Clipper as it passed over.
 That the weather is holding good for the farmers and the townspeople.
 That a record crowd attended Sunday's match between Waterford and Kilkenny. That the Waterford team were in hard luck to be beaten.
 That the business people of the town did a great days business.
 That all the pubs in town were packed.
 That shouts of up Waterford and up Kilkenny were heard re-echoing over the Carrickbeg hills, whilst the cry of the public was "up Cork" as he pulled the cork drawer.
 That Mr. John Lane, London, is at present home on a holiday at Faughan, Carrick with his people.
 That Mrs. O'Brien, New Street, has arrived home after a holiday in America.
 That Mr. John Banks, brother of Mr. J. Banks, Savoy Restaurant, Main Street, has gone back to Wales after a pleasant holiday in the old town by the Sun.
 That I forgot to mention that the Carrick Christian Brothers' Boys' Harmonica Band will be on the town on its way to the Daven Park to attend the match on Sunday.
 That they looked very well in their sailor suits, and cheered the hearts of the populace, with marches, etc.
 That this is the first time in history for such a band to be heard in Carrick.
 That they got great applause from the spectators at the match as they paraded in their time playing selections of Irish marches, Tipperary Hills, Ar Son Eireann, O'Donnell Abu, The Minstrel Boy, etc.
 That the members of the band are Messrs. T. Troy, M. Sullivan, J. Butler, M. Quinn, M. Lacey, J. Flynn, C. Loneragan, F. Torry, N. Tracey, F. Driscoll, M. Alward and T. Kelly.
 That we hope to hear the band again very soon in Carrick.
 That Mr. P. Kearney, New Street, purchased a new Dodge motor car for hire work during the week.
 That a couple of weddings are coming off very soon in town.
 That a report of same will be got in these columns.
 That the gallant swan team's (county) match was postponed from Sunday last to next Sunday.
 That it will be held in Clonmel where they will test the ash against Kilkennyle.
 That a special train is running from Carrick on Sunday.
 That the Birds are in great fettle for the match.
 That here is what Mr. Jerry Lynch, Secretary to the Swan Club says in an interview about the team:—"The swan team has been well trained, and is fit to last the hardest hour. I know we are up against a hard game, but I believe in the team, and feel confident that the Birds will beat them, and also bring back the championship we have held on three or four occasions."
 That a young lady near the mountain when asked why she used powder on her face replied "You can't make a match without powder" and dear readers after that it all depends on whether it will be a "friendly match" or a "puck match."

 back of past years, needs no introduction. Has won three medals with his career, and started in 1918 and 28 championships. Won several medals with Dungarvan senior football team. Was on the famous Waterford team of 1931 which met Mayo in the League semi-final. For many years on the county selection, was easily the county's best footballer over a long period. Last played in 1937 junior football championship with the Nire, and reports fit again. Very strong he is a wonderful fielder and kicker.
WILLIAM POWER (Graigarsh).—A famous footballer of a few years ago, always starred on the Kilrossanty forward line. Represented his county in both grades on several occasions, always with distinction. Fast and accurate. Reids and drives equally well.
JAMES WALSH.—Last starred on the Comeragh junior football selection v. Dungarvan last year. Very fast, he generally outpaces his opponent, and is a strong, earnest player, with a good drive.
JAMES POWER.—Played well for his parish in the 1938 and '39 junior championships. Very young, he is developing into a fine footballer, and clever, and fast, has a well-developed football sense.
MICHAEL VEALE.—Brother to Tom and Paddy, has often been on the county selections. An all-round footballer, is one of the best forwards in the county, and was outstanding in 1938 championship.
DAVID WALSH.—Has been a Waterford junior and senior for six years, is still improving and playing surprisingly good games. Is probably the best on the side, and has starred all through the 1938 championship. Though lightly built he is clever and fast.
JOHN POWER.—Played for his county on several occasions and has been playing for Kilrossanty since 1918. Was one of the best on the side in last year's championship, and starred against Dungarvan this year in first round.
NOTE.
 The latter three may not turn out, owing to injuries, but there is every indication that they will be fit on Sunday, and take their places on the Kilrossanty fifteen.

LOCAL TRADITION

CAPEL ISLAND

It is the tradition of the locality that the brothers, the sons of a Welsh gentleman named Capel set out in a boat from their father's castle on the sea for a few days amusement in fishing, etc., and took with them some fire arms (which were only newly invented) and the necessary ammunition for the purpose of shooting some birds which frequented an island off the coast, and near the fishing ground...

Previous to the Union this borough sent two members to the Irish Parliament...

Members for the City of Waterford:—Henry Alocck, Esq., Wilton, Waterford; Robert Shapland Carew, Esq., of Ennis-corbly.

Members for the County:—Sir James May, bart., of Mayfield, Waterford; Right Hon. John Beresford, Abbeville, Dublin.

Members for the County:—Right Hon. Sir Henry Cavendish, baronet, Sir Richard Musgrave, bart., Tourin, Lismore.

Members for the County:—Colonel Kane, of Dowdston, Mayo; John Hobson, Esq., Bushy-park, Dublin.

In the church-yard of Dungarvan is an ancient gable wall, said to have been built in the year A.D. 600.

It appears to be the end wall of a castle of some kind of fortification, as the windows were jagged up to believe they were intended for firing bows and arrows from; and are so arranged that the occupiers were standing on ladders when firing from the windows; but Smith, in his history of this county, states, at page 257, it is a high gable end wall which was formerly part of the old church and which stands a little west of the present site of the church.

It is interesting to note that the Rev. Mr. Ryland, notwithstanding his industrious research and learning, has omitted to notice this gable end wall, in his able and laborious work on the County of Waterford, and we could find no mention of it in any of the works relating to the county, but we have seen an old map of Dungarvan (dated 1784) which shows the gable end wall, and it appears to be now in as good a state of preservation as when Dr. Smith wrote his history nearly one hundred and fifty years ago!

At the south of the church may be seen the tomb of the Ryland family. It is in a good state of preservation. The following inscription is on the slab:—

Here lyeth the body of Richard Ryland, Esq., who departed this life the 31st March 1751, aged 72 years; also the body of Richard Ryland, Esq., his nephew, who departed this life the 1st August 1760, aged 44, together with three of his children; also the body of Mrs. Esther Ryland, who departed this life the 14th June 1798, aged 34 years, together with two of his children.

On the west-end wall of Dungarvan Church, the following are very roughly inscribed in the wall, in a Gothic hand, which we suppose to be—John Hudson and Beresford Boate, Church Wardens.

The west-end wall of the church was enlarged, at the expense of the Union Workhouse in 1824, by the Rev. Mr. Ryland, who was then Rector of the church.

Kilrossanty v. Stradbally

For First Time In Senior Final.

STRADBALLY WILL FIELD BEST TEAM TO DATE.

WILL KILROSSANTY UPHOLD FOOTBALL TRADITION?

The eagerly-awaited day has arrived for the decision of the County Senior Football Final, and never before has such interest been taken in a County Waterford Championship match. All West Waterford has been talking of this match for months, for ever since Kilrossanty defeated Dungarvan in the first round it had been predicted that the neighbouring parishes of Kilrossanty and Stradbally would oppose each other in the final. Intense rivalry will spur each team to play its hardest, and both teams, reported to be the best ever from the two parishes, are trained to the last ounce and ready for the most gruelling hour's play.

All indications go to show that the field will be packed as if for a Munster Championship, and every footballer in the county will be there. Kilrossanty will wear their green and gold jerseys, and Stradbally will arrive on the field in their old colours, red and black, which they last wore twenty five years ago.

Both teams had a triumphal march to the final. Stradbally outplayed a strong De La Salle selection by a heavy margin in the championship, and in a tournament game at Clonmel they ran away with that powerful Tipperary team, the Shamrocks. Since then they have been training constantly, and as they have a very large number of players to choose from, it will be a difficult task to select the best XV. Since the defeat of their junior team last Sunday they will have fifteen further players from whom to make their selection, and judging by their displays on Sunday, it would be hard to find seniors better than Bob Whelan, D. Fitzgerald and P. Masar.

Stradbally is a footballer's paradise, for the parish fields three strong football teams, a feat which deserves congratulation. We understand that during recent months close on 100 players have been in training each evening at the village, a fact which speaks for itself.

It would be hard to form conclusions about the strength of the county fifteen, for the two matches in which they have played this year give no indication of the kind of team which might be expected. They were obviously incomparably better than their rivals on both occasions. We have not seen Stradbally defeat since twelve months ago, when Kilrossanty overcame them twice (in the championship and the senior football League), and a few weeks last year, however, Stradbally's training preparations had been insignificant, as they were inclined to take things too much for granted. Ever since Kilrossanty had to fight hard for victory, so that at present the Stradbally supporters are highly confident of success. They are Stradbally's traditional and only formidable obstacle in the way of the county senior football championship this year, and it will be very difficult to wrest the title from them. The younger players, junior and minor, have attained Stradbally, who won the junior championship in 1932, have 381 in a senior championship.

KILROSSANTY'S CHANCES

Outside Kilrossanty's general opinion seems to be that the County Senior Football Championship will be won by Stradbally, but every man from the parish is sure their representatives will win. In several former occasions they have beaten Stradbally when their chances of success were less bright, and though they are close chasers from Dungarvan in 1938, 1934, 1932, and 1933, they came through successfully.

By defeating Stradbally twice in succession last year, Kilrossanty provided the surprise of the year. Their followers expect them to do this year, and their fifteen are determined not to disappoint them.

To add to their chances, they have a powerful team, a four fighting spirit, and a great tradition behind them, and for 30 years they have been playing at a standard level. This year, like Stradbally they crashed their way to the final, inflicting a heavy defeat on Dungarvan in the selection in the first round, and on Erin's Own stalwarts in the second round. Like Stradbally, too, they have not had a hard game this year. Their forwards are deadly accurate and their back thoroughly sound, some of their players have starred through last season's League and the 1938 Munster Senior Championship, and all are well trained, so that they will take some beating. Should they get through on Sunday next they will have won their third senior championship, and they are already holders of two junior titles. They have not the advantage of a numerous selection from which to choose, like Stradbally, and in any case, their players receive injuries on Sunday, they will have difficulty in finding suitable substitutes. In any event they always play well against Stradbally and may be certain of a good display by them on Sunday.

Individually, Kilrossanty have more outstanding players, but Stradbally will have the better balanced team, and it will be interesting to compare the displays of the rival teams. Mr. J. O'Sullivan, Mr. J. Cloness, Mr. O'Sullivan, and several umpires have been chosen by the County Board to act at this match. The weather alone remains a problem.

Some critics are under the impression that if Stradbally get the first score nothing will hold them, but the County lads swear that they will "draw first blood." This, indeed, will be the match of the year.

THE TEAMS

STRADBALLY.

PERCY KIRWAN—Capt.—Very active player, with a strong kick, is always a change near the enemy goal. Takes a great free. Often represented his county for which he last appeared in last season's National League. Has been on the Stradbally team since 1929, and in 1932 was on the victorious junior Championship team.

JOHN POWER—Usually plays full-back, in which position he represented his

BLUE JAY BINDER TWINE

FOR years it has been almost impossible to import Blue Jay Binder Twine which is specially manufactured by the International Harvester-Company of McCormack Binders. This year we are in the happy position that we are again able to offer this Twine which is the best in the world. The price is extremely moderate and very much under last season's price.

HARPUR BROS. SEEDSMEN WATERFORD.

selection picked to play Leinster in the Railway Cup competition on St. Patrick's Day in Dublin. One of the most versatile footballers in Munster, there is no department or aspect of the game at which he is not an adept. Was a Waterford minor some years back and has since played in National Football League in 1927-28, and 1928-29, and in junior and senior Munster championships 1928. Brilliant in the Munster senior championship against Cork in 1928, he will be seen at his best on Sunday, when he will be a menace to the Stradbally defence.

MAURICE MCGUIRE—Brother of Dick. Was a Waterford minor in 1938, and has been outstanding in all Kilrossanty senior engagements to date. Field's partner, a real trier and tireless worker. Played for his parish since 1936.

THOMAS VEALE—Plays well in several positions, in a bona footballer, fast and very accurate. Represented his county in junior grade in '28, and '29 in junior and senior grades. Played all through last season's National Football League competition. Has been outstanding in all his matches.

JOHN "Mackie" MORONEY—Partners J. Lonergan at centre-half, has played in National League 1928-29, and proved his worth. A great worker, is one of the mainstays of his team. Fields well above head. Played for Kilrossanty for past six years.

PATRICK VEALE—A born footballer. This Leamington player is a great opportunist, under all circumstances. An adept in passing, he concentrates on ground play. He has improved wonderfully recently. Paddy captain of the team.

JOHN CROTTY—A six-footer, is one of the best kickers in the county, and a prolific scorer in every game. Member of a footballing family, has proved himself a Waterford senior team on several occasions. Played for his parish for past six years.

MICHAEL WHELAN—Very dependable, has the best kick in the county and utilizes it well. Outstanding all through 1938 and '39 county championships. He played junior for his county against Limerick in 1932.

PATRICK FITZGERALD—An alert vigorous forward, is a great worker, and a prolific scorer in every game. Member of a footballing family, has proved himself a Waterford senior team on several occasions. Played for his parish for past six years.

MARTIN FITZGERALD—A sound kick, always clears in danger. Strong and fast, he is a clear hard worker. Played for his parish since 1928.

PATRICK DALRYMPLE—Has often played in the left half-forward position for Waterford county selections in all grades. Is one of our best inter-county forwards. Has a great drive in either foot and usually plays centre-forward.

PATRICK BARRY—A recently promoted player, was the best man on the parish in 1938 championship. Practice has worked wonders for this already useful player.

RICHARD GLAVIN—An alert accurate player, his lightness is in him as asset. For his neatness is a surprise. Centre half, and works fast and unexpectably. Starred against Erin's Own a few weeks ago.

MALTY RYAN—Famous Kilrossanty full-back, was outstanding in the 1938 championship.

Not least by any means for contributions are the Ladies' Committee and those ladies who supplied the wherewithal for the excellent supper we have enjoyed to-night at their own expense.

The ladies who are to dispense soft music to you shortly, deserve our best thanks and best wishes. By 2 1/2 means least, Mr. Paul Fox's deserves the best of our wishes for his kindness in making the necessary arrangements regarding the Bar for to-night.

I would say that by the gathering here to-night the success of the Club as a social centre as well as a Golf Club is assured and the Committee's wisdom in converting the Coast Guard Station is fully justified.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, Vice-President (and first President of the Dungarvan Club), was called on by the President and in a short and pithy speech traced the history of the Club since its formation. The first links were opened on the Cunniger some 20 years ago, and how from this small beginning the game flourished, how it grew and spread to lovers of the game had now resulted in this splendid well equipped and club house.

He complimented the executive committee and staff who had in such a short space of time brought in 150,000 sq ft of golf course which will in due course be one of the best in the land.

He expressed on behalf of the Club deep gratitude to Mrs. Monahan, Ocean View, for the unfailing hospitality extended to the Club while on the Cloness links, and said he felt quite sure that the new club situated as it is within a short distance of the Hotel would still be a great attraction to his predecessors.

Mr. Ryan then paid special tribute to the Captain (Mr. J. A. Cartwright) for the energy displayed in the amount of good hard work put in by him in the best interests of the Club.

Mr. Cartwright in rising to reply was greeted by very ringing cheers for the Captain, the whole gathering then breaking into loud and lusty singing "We're a jolly good fellow."

Mr. Cartwright replying said it was ample compensation for the amount of work put in on the new course, to see such a large number of members and their friends gathered there to celebrate the opening of the Club House. The popularity enjoyed by the club augured well for its financial and social success. He thanked all who helped to make the night such a great success.

The prizes were then distributed by the Captain amidst loud applause.

When there was music, mirth and dancing, such as never before heard or seen inside the walls of the old Coast Guard's Station, until 1.30 a.m. when a most successful and enjoyable social evening was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

WIVES OF SYMPATHY

At the meeting of Dungarvan Urban Council on Friday night last.

Wives of sympathy, proposed by the G. Dahill and seconded by Mrs. Dwyer, were passed to Miss Buckley and Mrs. Dwyer, on the death of their brothers, and a vote of sympathy to Mr. Joseph Power, on the death of his wife, proposed by Mr. Morrissey, T.D., and seconded by Mr. Crotty, was also passed.

IT IS ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE.

It is almost impossible to give a perpetual guarantee with any goods, but we do give you the guarantee that all our goods are purchased from manufacturers who make only the finest goods it is possible to manufacture. It is printed on every receipt that we guarantee that any faulty article of anything not in every way suitable will be exchanged. OFFICIAL OPENING OF NEW CLUB HOUSE ON GOLF LINKS AT BALLINACOURTY Successful and Enjoyable Function.

Thursday, August 10th last, was a big day for the Dungarvan Golf Club. It was Captain's day and a valuable prize (a gentleman's dressing case) presented by the energetic and popular Capt. Mr. J. Cartwright was played for. The competition was 18 holes stroke, and over thirty competitors took out cards. It was won by Mr. W. Glavin with a score of 73. The runner-up was Mr. M. Fitzgerald. In connection with Captain's day the usual cup and social commencing at 8.30 p.m. in the new Clubhouse, when members and their friends numbering up to 250 enjoyed a sumptuous dinner which reflected credit on the lady members of the club, who both supplied and arranged it.

Commissioner S. J. Moylan, President, who performed the official opening said: Ladies and Gentlemen—I am very pleased in fact very proud to have the honour of declaring open what I might say is Dungarvan's first real Golf Club. Hitherto we have been like the wandering Jew with no real home of our own, but now, as you can all see, we have expanded into a very nice Golf Course as picturesquely as you have in Ireland with a Club House second to none and an appearance to most. All this has been carried out in a very short space of time and certainly the congratulations of the members are due to the committee whose zeal and initiative have made this possible. It is particularly fitting that this opening should synchronise with the Captain's Day (Mr. J. Cartwright) for he above all, by his tireless attention has made it possible for golf to be played on this course so early this year.

These splendid premises all what to my mind is a great need in Dungarvan as now we have a club as well as a golf course. This club will be open to membership of non-paying members at a reasonable subscription.

In conclusion I would pay a tribute to Paddy Carlton who worked like a Trojan on the new course as he did on the old. I would also like to say a word to the Contractor for the speedy and good job he has done on this premises and to the engineers, Mr. Foley and Mr. Keane, who so kindly gave their services and advice gratis.

Not least by any means for contributions are the Ladies' Committee and those ladies who supplied the wherewithal for the excellent supper we have enjoyed to-night at their own expense.

Cappoquin Leaseholders Meet

Mr. Michael Ryan presided over a meeting of the Cappoquin Branch, United Irish Leaseholders' Association, held in the C.V.M.S. Hall recently.

Mr. Owen Mulholland, General Secretary, reviewing the growth of leaseholders' and town tenants' movement throughout the country, said that the Association had demonstrated its strength in placing a Bill before the Dáil in spite of Governmental opposition.

The Government were committed to supporting legislation for town tenants according to their Election Manifesto of the 5th February, 1932 in which the Government Party were then in opposition. Mr. Mulholland stated that the Government had undertaken to elect a Government by the Irish people, to introduce a Town Tenants' Bill on the lines of their own amendments to the 1931 Bill.

It was up to the many strong Fianna Fáil supporters in the Organisation to remind the Government that they have a duty to the public to fulfil that Election Promise. The only practical way to fulfil that promise was to support the present Town Tenants' Bill when it comes up again in the Dáil for debate.

It is obvious to me that the country people are at a loss to understand why an Irish Government, either Fianna Fáil or Fine Gael, should for one moment consider it their duty to protect absentee landlordism, and there is no doubt that unless this Town Tenants' Bill is given a favourable reception in the Dáil, the townspeople will speak their minds when the time comes round again for a General Election. What the townspeople want is an Irish Government that will make no secret of its intention to abolish absentee landlordism in this country, and do it without any complicity to the Irish people" concluded Mr. Mulholland amidst applause.

The Bill proposes to amend the Landlord and Tenant Act, 1931, very extensively.

Full credit for improvements—Section 17 of the 1931 Act placing restrictions on the tenant's right to full credit for improvements is repealed by this Bill.

Leases for ever—All leases are in future to be made for ever, instead of for a limited number of years.

Fair rents for all short-term tenancies—The Bill proposes that all short-term tenancies and occupation leases of business premises that come within the 1931 Act should be renewed at fair rents.

Definition of Fair Rent—The Bill describes a fair rent as the full letting value, less a series of allowances in favour of the tenant or leaseholder covering long possession, improvements made, fine paid, tenants' liability for rates or additional repairs to secure new lease and any other circumstances affecting the value of the tenancy interest.

Immediate right of revision in all cases.—Section 21 gives tenants and leaseholders the immediate right to seek a revision of their rents where same are considered excessive. This Section excludes holdings already covered by the Rent Restrictions Act.

Abolition of ejectment for non-payment of ground rent.—The present system under which leaseholders can be ejected for non-payment of a year's ground rent is abolished by Section 24, and in future it is proposed that ground rent arrears should be treated as an ordinary mortgage debt.

Evicted Tenants to be restored—All evicted tenants are to be restored to their holdings where the rights of a third party are not affected.

Tenants' legal right to first option to purchase.—The Bill establishes as a legal right that a tenant or a leaseholder is to have the first option to purchase on a sale of the landlord's interest.

Settlements outside court's jurisdiction.—It is made compulsory on the Commissioner of Valuation to furnish Valuations in all cases to facilitate settlements and agreements outside court.

Fair Ground Rent Renewals—All expiring ground rent renewals are to be revised to be the lowest of the following:—(a) The present rate of rent; (b) One-eighth of the annual site-value of the land from the buildings erected on it by the leaseholder or his predecessors.

Leaseholders' immediate option to purchase.—At any time after the passing of the Bill a leaseholder who has a lease for a term of 31 years or longer (no matter how recently created) can compel his ground landlord to sell the freehold. If the parties cannot agree the Court is to fix the price. The maximum price the Court can fix is twelve years purchase except when site-development charges are higher.

Town Tenants' immediate right to buy out landlord.—Every town tenant 31 years in possession with no lease also has a right to purchase the freehold, to see such Town Tenants' business premises premises who are evicted tenants for three years have a right to a lease for ever at a fair rent.

The following resolutions were passed unanimously: "That we call upon the Government to state their reasons for opposing the Town Tenants' Bill which will open absentee landlordism in this country, and we remind the Government of their National Election Manifesto of the 5th February, 1932, in which the Government undertook to introduce a Town Tenants' Bill into the Dáil."

"That the meeting congratulates the United Irish Leaseholders' Association on the splendid action it has taken in introducing the Town Tenants' Bill in the Dáil to blot out absentee landlordism, and we pledge the nation's Executive our full support."

"That Mr. P. J. Little, T.D., Parliamentary Secretary to An Taoiseach be requested to receive a joint deputation from the Lismore and Cappoquin Branches of the Association to discuss the Town Tenants' Bill, and the reasons why the Government intend to oppose the Bill in view of their Election Promise of the 5th February, 1932 to introduce a Town Tenants' Bill."

Tenants' legal right to first option to purchase.—The Bill establishes as a legal right that a tenant or a leaseholder is to have the first option to purchase on a sale of the landlord's interest.

Settlements outside court's jurisdiction.—It is made compulsory on the Commissioner of Valuation to furnish Valuations in all cases to facilitate settlements and agreements outside court.

Fair Ground Rent Renewals—All expiring ground rent renewals are to be revised to be the lowest of the following:—(a) The present rate of rent; (b) One-eighth of the annual site-value of the land from the buildings erected on it by the leaseholder or his predecessors.

Leaseholders' immediate option to purchase.—At any time after the passing of the Bill a leaseholder who has a lease for a term of 31 years or longer (no matter how recently created) can compel his ground landlord to sell the freehold. If the parties cannot agree the Court is to fix the price. The maximum price the Court can fix is twelve years purchase except when site-development charges are higher.

Town Tenants' immediate right to buy out landlord.—Every town tenant 31 years in possession with no lease also has a right to purchase the freehold, to see such Town Tenants' business premises premises who are evicted tenants for three years have a right to a lease for ever at a fair rent.

The following resolutions were passed unanimously: "That we call upon the Government to state their reasons for opposing the Town Tenants' Bill which will open absentee landlordism in this country, and we remind the Government of their National Election Manifesto of the 5th February, 1932, in which the Government undertook to introduce a Town Tenants' Bill into the Dáil."

"That the meeting congratulates the United Irish Leaseholders' Association on the splendid action it has taken in introducing the Town Tenants' Bill in the Dáil to blot out absentee landlordism, and we pledge the nation's Executive our full support."

"That Mr. P. J. Little, T.D., Parliamentary Secretary to An Taoiseach be requested to receive a joint deputation from the Lismore and Cappoquin Branches of the Association to discuss the Town Tenants' Bill, and the reasons why the Government intend to oppose the Bill in view of their Election Promise of the 5th February, 1932 to introduce a Town Tenants' Bill."

At the meeting of the Cappoquin Branch, United Irish Leaseholders' Association, held in the C.V.M.S. Hall recently.

Mr. Owen Mulholland, General Secretary, reviewing the growth of leaseholders' and town tenants' movement throughout the country, said that the Association had demonstrated its strength in placing a Bill before the Dáil in spite of Governmental opposition.

The Government were committed to supporting legislation for town tenants according to their Election Manifesto of the 5th February, 1932 in which the Government Party were then in opposition. Mr. Mulholland stated that the Government had undertaken to elect a Government by the Irish people, to introduce a Town Tenants' Bill on the lines of their own amendments to the 1931 Bill.

It was up to the many strong Fianna Fáil supporters in the Organisation to remind the Government that they have a duty to the public to fulfil that Election Promise. The only practical way to fulfil that promise was to support the present Town Tenants' Bill when it comes up again in the Dáil for debate.

It is obvious to me
