where there spring lesser, more circum-spected unions of Catholics, people within the Church. Of these the unit that is the parish is the smallest, and because of this it is the closest, so close that the Church's eye is next in importance to the family.

The Parish Church is at once the symbol of the centre of that union. Standing in simple dignity upon this hillside, the old building in the Parish, it stands for-wardly showing the presence of a group of Catholic people, of Catholic families, a group that takes its place formally and officially as such, and must be so recognized by the nation, the State, and the Church.

But it is in this more than in anything else the Parish Church the focal point of Catholic life and unity in this district, namely, because upon its altar
is consecrated the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is offered, and the Communion of the faithful in the Holy Eucharist, the symbol and source of Divine Love's union, is celebrated.

This century old building, dear
to all, stands there for you, for each of all of you, proclaiming your unity
with the Church Catholic, and in her with Christ Our Lord Himself.

It has stood thus for a century, a witness to the Faith of the generations that have gone before you. They were the inheritors of a tradition, glorious in the Faith, its sacrifice, its suffering and overcoming loyalty to Christ even though with Israel were the price they paid.

This ancient Church, this house of God, amongst you links you with them too. It is a visible memorial to their Faith, it is a reminder to you, their children, that your Faith must be no less than theirs, your devotion to Our Lord no less warm, your fidelity to His Church no less unwavering.

There is little doubt that this is so, and that let us thank Almighty God to-day
with all our hearts.

But for the future who shall say? Will the Faith that lights your souls and hearts today burn as brightly in the souls and hearts of them that shall come after you?
That is known only to God. No one can prophesy. We can only hope.

But if we can hope we can also pray,
and while to-day we thank God for His providence and care of this Parish and of His Church, not for a century only, but for many centuries past, we also fervently pray that He may strengthen and increase that Faith, that He may protect and cherish it among the people of this Parish, and give them the power to hold fast, and hand it on unimpaired, un-tarnished to their children, and their children's children, so that the light that burns before the Tabernacle
every to-day, the sign of the real presence of God among you, may never fail, and that a century from to-day if time shall remain, others may be found as faithful, and as full of love for God as you,
to celebrate another centenary and dedicate to Him, under the patronage of His Blessed Mother, their Church, their Parish, and themselves. Amen.

The Church has been recently decorated
by a considerable sum by Messrs.
Hodkinson and Sons, Limerick.

The Skidding Season

Constant attention to motor tyres is more necessary during the autumn and winter months than at any other time of the year. An investigation of the accidents reported by Patrons of the Automobile Association during May, June, July and August last, when the weather was ideal, reveals that no less than 122 per cent of the total number of accidents
occurred on dangerous road surfaces
due to a very large extent responsible for the high proportion of this type of accident, but which were not correctly
inflated tyres were in many cases a contributory cause.

It is not generally realized that lack of control and steadiness in cases of emergency are often the result of one or more of the tyres being inadequately inflated,
and the A.A. emphasizes the importance of ensuring that the tyre pressure is correct in relation to the axle weight.

KILMATHOMAS NOTES

R.I.P.
On Thursday evening of last week, Mr.
Thomas Thompson, cottager, Currahaha, Kilmathomas, was assisting a neighbouring farmer (Mr. Pat Dooney) about the harvest when he had a heart attack. Priest and doctor were speedily summoned and everything possible was done to revive him, but death was not to be denied and in a very short time he was no more.

Next morning an inquest was held by Dr. J. C. Walsh, Marfield, Clonmel,
Coroner for East Waterford. Sergeant P. Herly, Kilmathomas, represented the authorities. Medical evidence was given by Dr. P. G. Dooley, do. "Death from cardiac failure," was the verdict returned.

The late Mr. Thompson, who had reached the allotted span, was a notably industrious, self-reliant and upright man; a loving and devoted husband and father, and a sincere friend. The heartfelt sympathy of all locally went out to his most estimable wife and family in their bereavement and loss. The funeral to the old Catholic Churchyard at Ballylueen bore eloquent testimony of the respect entertained for himself and his wife and family.

Rev. P. F. Walsh, C.C., Strabally, officiated at the graveside.

IN MEMORIAM.
An Anniversary High Mass was offered up at St. Anne's Church, Ballylueen, in the presence of a very large congregation,
on Tuesday morning of this week, for the happy repose of the souls of the late Mr.
Morgan Whelan, Ballynabogue North,
Kilmathomas, and his deceased relatives
and friends.

Fr. Walsh, C.C., Strabally, was celebrant, and the other priests assisting in the choir were—
Very Rev. E. English, P.P., do.; Very
Rev. J. Croft, P.P., Kilmathomas; Rev. W.
Neenan, C.C., do., and Rev. J. Lavin, C.C., Strabally.

Relatives of the late Mr. Morgan Whelan, in attendance included—Mrs. Mary Anne Whelan, Ballynabogue North (widow), and Mr. David Butler, do. (brother-in-law).

HUNTING.
Conditions brought about by the outbreak of war have affected hunting in common with many other activities in Ire.

Sporting folk in this district will be delighted to know that the Waterford
Hounds will carry on this season.

The matter was fully discussed at a recent meeting of the Waterford Hunt Club and it was unanimously agreed upon that so far as possible hunting will be continued.

Drastic reductions, however, will have to be made, owing to the monetary difficulties which will inevitably accrue. The number of hounds will be lessened, and meets are set two days of each week, instead of three, as formerly. So that, for the nonce, at all events, subscribers to the speck of the Waterfords will not be without their favourite sport.

Hounds will continue under the joint Mastership of Mr. R. Russell, Seafield, Kilmathomas, and Miss M. Vuker, Portlaw.
From an unquestionable source we have it that Mr. Russell will be called up for Army service at any time.

In the absence of Lord William Beresford,
who is serving with the Royal Artillery, the duties of Hon. Sec. will be discharged by Mr. Robert Hunt, Rockmount, Kilmathomas, whose unreservedly esteemed father, Mr. Arthur Hunt, once kept and hunted his own pack—the famous "Blackcock Blazers," who provided excellent sport to big following towards the close of the gay and gallant Nineties. By the way, Mr. Hunt, senior, is down of the Waterfords anon.

The Waterford Hounds were out-hunting at Seafield at 6.30 am, on Tuesday. The Joint Master, Mr. Russell, was out, and also A. G. Thatcher (First Whip and Kennel Huntsman).

We are informed that there are now
very numerous throughout the entire area
by the Waterford Hunt Club.

DEATH OF MISS M. LANNON.
Favoured by the rites of Holy Church,
of which she was a most exemplary member, Miss Mary Lannon, Seafield, Kilmathomas, passed peacefully and resignedly away into her eternal reward on last Sunday night at the County Hospital, Waterford, following a brief illness and a moderately advanced age, and news of the sad event evoked deep sorrow among all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, for she was held in the very highest regard. She came of a fine old stock, the members of which had always played a prominent part in the national and political life of the country. A personality of unusual charm combined with a remarkably shrewd disposition had warmly endeared her to all. Widespread sympathy is extended to her immediate relatives in their bereavement.

One of the largest corteges seen in the district for a long time accompanied the removal of the remains on Monday evening to St. Anne's Church, Ballylueen, where at they were received by Fr. Walsh, C.C., who recited the prayers for the dead. In the presence of a crowded congregation
on the following morning, Requiem Masses were celebrated for the eternal welfare of her soul and the burial took place afterwards in the cemetery adjoining, amid many manifestations of profound regret.

SYMPATHY.
The late Mr. John Navin, lorry driver, Aibysid, Dungarvan, was well and popularly known in the Kilmathomas district, where he had been employed for some years, and the sincere sympathy of all there goes out to his wife and other inexorable relatives in their extremely sad bereavement. Innumerable mourners and sympathisers attended at the burial of the deceased at Strabally Catholic Church-

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

DRAMATIC COMPANY IN TOWN.
We are glad to learn that Mr. Ernie Clegg with his company "Players Who Please" has visited the Boathouse. The advent of this versatile troupe is a great boon to the townfolk as the evenings are now very dark and there was hitherto no
indoor amusements in the town.

On the night of its arrival (Monday) the Company presented the Scotch play "Annie Laurie." The impersonation by the various actors were excellent whilst the Scotch dialect was spoken by all in perfection.

The plays are supported each night by young and old whilst the introduction of the latest novelty "Question Time" is an interesting and educational asset to their splendid programme.

A valuable Cup will be presented to the winner of Question Time on Sunday night,
i.e. the person with the highest aggregate
of marks for the week.

The incidents at the recent Lismore v.
Knockmore J.F. championship match at the Gaelic Field had a sequel at the recent meeting of the West Waterford Board when the decision of the referee in awarding the match to Lismore was confirmed and the Knockmore team was suspended for a period of six months, under Rule 26
(Leaving the field) Official Guide, page
thirty-one, i.e.—

"A team or an individual leaving the field, or refusing to continue the game,
without the Referee's permission, becomes automatically suspended for six months,
and no Council or Committee of the Association shall have power to modify
this penalty."

SUCCESSFUL ATHLETES.
Cappoquin athletes have completed a very successful season during which they competed at athletic meetings all over Munster. Messrs. J. Barry, D. McGrath and J. J. Foley, J. Barry, D. McGrath and the other local athletes can hold their own with the best and each Sunday during the summer returned home with several trophies. Practically all the local athletes were selected as members of the Waterford Co. team to compete at the recent inter-county sports at Dungarvan.

We join in wishing all a very successful future in the athletic arena.

THE PAST SEASON.
The past summer was a very enjoyable
one on the whole. Each Sunday crowds of people from Cappoquin visited the seaside and other places were excellent. The Annual Regatta was the outstanding event in sporting circles and matches in the Sportsfield were also very interesting.

The local Club had a very active and successful year. Neighbouring Clubs, Mellary, Faugh-a-Ballagh, Villierstown,
etc., had also a very busy time.

ON THE LAND.
With weather conditions ideal threshing operations are nearing completion in Cappoquin district. The year's corn crop has been very satisfactory, despite unfavourable weather conditions, and both the yield and quality were excellent. Beet and other crops are also doing well.

STEFANING.
Mr. Stephen O'Sullivan's stefaning classes in Cappoquin continue to be very successful. There is a large attendance and the pupils are making satisfactory progress. Mr. O'Sullivan is also conducting classes in other parts.

CAPPOQUIN PAROCHIAL FUND.
It is hoped that the forthcoming "drive"
in aid of Parochial Funds will be very successful. All arrangements are in the capable hands of Very Rev. Fr. Fitzgerald,
P.P. Rev. Fr. Dunphy, C.C., and Mr. M. J.
Sargent. On the occasion of the last episcopal visit to Cappoquin, His Lordship, the Bishop expressed his gratification at the splendid condition of Parochial property
in the parish.

AN INTERESTING ARTICLE.
We wish to draw our readers' attention to an interesting article appearing in this issue from the able pen of Mr. Willie O'Donnell, Main Street, Cappoquin. Of particular interest to the people of Cappoquin and district it should be read by all.

THE BACON FACTORY.
There continues to be a plentiful supply of pigs to Cappoquin Bacon Factory. This Factory is one of our leading national industries and gives good and remunerative employment in addition to being a big boon to pig feeders and farmers.

A PROGRESSIVE FIRM.
Lucas Bros. the well known firm of Villierstown contractors, have now a number of important contracts on hand.
These include the erection of a number of houses at Aghish and Villierstown and bungalows at Clashmore and Grange.

VISITORS.
During the past summer months many thousands of people visited the beautiful scenery of the district and the majestic grandeur of the "Irish Rhine" valley. At Mount Mellary, where the beautiful new church is nearing completion
there was a continuing stream of visitors
from all over the world.

THE INDOOR SEASON.
Now that the summer season is over,
indoor amusements will be the principal form of entertainment. During the coming months dances, card drives, etc. will be held in the Boathouse, and will, as usual,
be a great success.

A GOOD GAIL.
Mr. L. Kiely, O.G., Cappoquin Vocational

School, is one of the pioneers of the Gaelic movement in the county. Possessed of a most charming manner, Mr. Kiely is a great favourite, and has done wonderful and unselfish work for the Gaelic advancement.

ROAD IMPROVEMENTS.
Several road improvements have been carried out recently in these parts. These include the widening and resurfacing of the Killehalla road which runs along the western bank of the Blackwater.

FRUIT PLentiful.
This year's fruit crop is a record one.
Apples are a particularly good crop and wild fruit is also very abundant. Blackberries are being gathered in large quantities for the manufacture of jams,
etc.

CAPPOQUIN VOCATIONAL SCHOOL.
The classes at the local Vocational School continue to be well attended and the students are making satisfactory progress.

A POPULAR CIVIC GUARD.
Garda Peter Crowley, Cappoquin Station,
has been transferred to Dublin. Garda Crowley, who is a native of West Cork,
was a most efficient and popular member of the Civic Guard Force and was most popular in the area. His departure is much regretted and on leaving his friends
wished him the best of luck and a happy future.

THE BLACK-OUT.
The modified black-out order continues to be scrupulously observed in Cappoquin.
The people here now adapted themselves
to the new state of affairs, and the faithful observance of the regulations shows a good spirit of citizenship. The black-out is,
however, causing some inconvenience.

HOME FROM ENGLAND.
Since the outbreak of war large numbers of people have returned from across channel to Cappoquin and district. All left good jobs but no doubt believed that "self preservation was the first law of nature." They hope to return when hostilities terminate and when justice and right shall prevail.

BEAVER MEN.
Many locals are attached to the service and will play their part manfully. While naturally it is an anxious time for their families, they recognise—
"that do thy duty, that is best,
Leave unto thy Lord the rest."
This district was never found wanting in Beaver men.

AN ENERGETIC GAIL.
The resignation of Mr. P. McGrath from the position of Vice-Chairman of the West Waterford Divisional Board has occasioned much regret locally. As Vice-Chairman of the Board and Hon. Treasurer of Cappoquin G.A.A. Club Mr. McGrath did good work for the G.A.A. Mr. McGrath was also associated with the Gaelic League and kindred movements and in all capacities worked enthusiastically and energetically for the Gaelic advance.

HUNTING.
The decision of the West Waterford Hunt Committee to hunt as usual for the present is a source of satisfaction to all.
In good times and bad the hunt has been a source of great pleasure to West Waterford sportsmen and it is hoped that the pack will go on successful success.

VILLIERSTOWN GAILIC FIELD.
At the last meeting of the West Waterford
Board G.A.A. an important motion, the West
Waterford minor football final, was fixed provisionally for Villierstown Gaelic Field. If the match is played there, a record attendance is assured.

SENIOR FOOTBALL FINAL.
It has been finally decided by the Waterford County Board G.A.A., that Cappo-quin will be the venue of Sunday's Senior Football Final. The match will be played between Strabally and Kilmacrossing. All those who were present at the final game agreed that it was one of the finest and most strenuously-contested games seen for years. It is expected that this replay will be even better, and as the venue has been changed to Cappoquin, the sportsmen of West Waterford will have a better opportunity than ever of seeing the cream of Waterford's footballers in action. The Cappoquin Club may be depended on to have all arrangements in perfect order as usual.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL DIVISIONAL FINAL.
At the recent meeting of the West Waterford Divisional Board G.A.A., the Junior Football Championship match, Lismore v.
the Pike or Sliabh nua (Divisional Final) was fixed for Cappoquin Gaelic Field, on Sunday October 15th. This fix-ture has now been changed to October 8th, due to the difficulty for both teams in the Dungarvan Group Junior Hurling Final, St. Anne's v. Dungarvan of finding a suitable venue. The Junior Hurling Final fixture, therefore, which had been fixed for October 8th, was deferred to October 15th, and the Junior Football fixture changed from October 15th to October 8th.

THE J.F. DIVISIONAL FINAL.
Now that Cappoquin have entered the Divisional final, a great wave of Gaelic enthusiasm has swept over the Cappoquin district. The supporters and admirers of the team are confident that the current year's junior hurling team
are capable of attaining County honours.
This achievement would be hailed with delight by all. The Club and team are determined to leave nothing undone to achieve the desired objective.

STRONG MEN IN CAPPOQUIN DISTRICT IN DAYS GONE BY.

By WILLIE O'DONNELL.

1—THOMAS TOBIN, SCRATHAIN, MONOLOUR, CAPPOQUIN.

In the days gone by before the Gaelic Athletic Association was founded, it was the prevalent custom amongst the country peasants in remote districts to demonstrate their strength and ability as "gallies" organised for that purpose.

hence we hear of Cnoc an Comortas (The Hill of Competition) in the Knockmeal-down mountains, named after the various competitions which took place in that area. Many a time in the old days the brawny mountaineers reveled in the cheers and exclamations of bystanders as some notable feat of strength was performed in this cradle of Gaelicism.

To-day the hill is tranquil and serene, undisturbed save by the long-legged curlew that strays from the mountain to the other side of the mountain, winter-time with its long and mournful wail.

The real origin of the name Cnoc an Comortas lies in the fact that this part of the mountain was noted for its deep dets of turf and it was the custom to hold competitions frequently to discover who it was the best wielder of the alein. Fighting and quarreling was the main feature of the contests, hence the name Comortas, the original meaning of which was quarreling, but to-day means competition.

Weight-throwing, standing long jumps, three running long jumps, high-jumping and other athletic events were also practiced in this humble home of Gaelic activity.

It is sad to think that those good old days are gone. These days are gone away and their hours are old and grey. And their minutes buried all under the down-trodden pall.

Of the leaves that sweep by, in the rustic competitors are all dead, and yet the Hill of Competition remains ever on with the story.

Living near this hill was a man by name Tom Tobin (or as he was known Tomas Tobin) whose feats of strength are spoken about over many a fireside in Mellery road, Tobin, who stood 6' 3" in height, was a powerfully built man with broad shoulders and light of step. He was a ripe old age.

Let none presume to scoff at the deeds of this great man or to doubt the truth of what I write. I have often listened to stories of Tobin from old men who knew him well and to disbelieve or question what they narrated is a gross insult to the story teller. If these old people had such an unwavering conviction that these things happened, then it behoves the critic to remain silent or to respect and admire the deeds of strong men like Tobin who are gone from this world to the land in a mignon an Samhradh ann i gombuidhe.

His various feats of strength are too numerous to be narrated in full. I will mention a few of his early life and tell of a few of his exhibitions.

It happened that a famous English weight thrower visited the Castle of Lismore as a guest of the Duke. This man was one day giving an exhibition of his dexterity with the weights when the Duke remarked that he had a tenant living in his estate who would beat him. Tobin was sent for and entered the scene of the contest shy and bashful but quietly determined. All the people assembled to see the contest and it is reported as fact that Tobin beat the English athlete in every event and that when the contest was over he threw the 50lbs. weight over a high wall.

At all the gatherings where strength and stamina held sway Tobin was always champion. His daily occupation consisted of tending sheep on the mountain, cutting turf or cultivating his own paternal acre so as to eke out a livelihood for his parents and himself. Then his day's work having been complete he would cross the hill to the arena and try his strength in wrestling, etc., with the strong youths of the locality.

At day-break he was often seen running across the heathery heights of the mountains rounding up his flock of wild sheep. In town or at market day he would again perform some astounding feats of strength, such as putting a full half-barrel from the ground up straight over his head or throwing a big sack of sugar, flour or oats into a "crib"—all perhaps for a bet of two half-gallons of stout.

From time to time many people came and interviewed him in view of moulding him into a wrestler or athlete but he would never leave the humble abode of his predecessors. He was requested to take up athletics but stubbornly refused to do so.

On one occasion he visited Cloughan and purchased a 20 stone sack of flour, which he carried on his back and walked home a distance of seven miles.

Again as he was returning from New-castle and car the wheel broke and fell out. He threw the damaged wheel into the car, and holding the axle with his right hand, he walking, drove the horse home.

His greatest exhibition of strength and muscle was when he threw a pair of horse wheels and axle over his head, outside a forge in Cappoquin, and walked to the store, the flour was still there, and so Tobin placed the twenty stone sack on the same level with the other wheel with his right hand, he walking, drove the horse home.

His subsequent history is as full of feats of strength as the renowned and mythical Hercules. At that time he was a champion of his people; no one ever had reason to dispute his virility. Tall, strong and active, he was destined to live and die in his native Mellery, unheard and unremembered except by those who lived nearby.

Far from the "manning crowds" he spent his life in tranquility. He was equally famous as a fast walker and good runner and even in his old age he was able to lift an iron harrow by his nameake, E. Tobin. But quietly in his own townland he passed his life in the sleep to-day in obscurity and peace.

Let none presume to scoff at the deeds of this great man or to doubt the truth of what I write. I have often listened to stories of Tobin from old men who knew him well and to disbelieve or question what they narrated is a gross insult to the story teller. If these old people had such an unwavering conviction that these things happened, then it behoves the critic to remain silent or to respect and admire the deeds of strong men like Tobin who are gone from this world to the land in a mignon an Samhradh ann i gombuidhe.

He was as gentle as a lamb, but when roused, his anger knew no bounds. On one occasion he followed a cat of "young ones" who threw stones at his door and on catching up with them caught one and raised him over his head but let him go unharmed.

He died about 1895, but his name lives on in the district where he lived, outside of which his name is probably unheard of, even though his feats of strength are unique. Had he lived in the present time his name would probably be as famous as his namesake, E. Tobin. But quietly in his own townland he passed his life in the sleep to-day in obscurity and peace.

Let none presume to scoff at the deeds of this great man or to doubt the truth of what I write. I have often listened to stories of Tobin from old men who knew him well and to disbelieve or question what they narrated is a gross insult to the story teller. DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL

At a meeting of the above on Friday, September 15, there were present Messrs. M. Morrissey, T.D., Chairman; T. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman; D. Foley, J. J. Crotty, J. Mansfield, P. Quinn, P. Dwyer, and J. Dailly.

PAYSHHEET. A payshheet for £24 14s. 10d. was read and passed.

WATER SUPPLY. A number of Skeeharine residents wrote complaining that they were not receiving any water. They had received promises but no water.

Borough Surveyor—Yes. Mr. McCarthy—And no improvement? Mr. McCarthy should be asked to come down here no matter what detains him in Dublin. He is overdoing it. He is trying to make Mr. McCarthy's job out of it.

Mr. McCarthy—We'll soon be sick in Dungarvan. There'll be an epidemic up your can smell it. There's a stench up my way.

Mr. Mansfield said he himself had received complaints of the same thing, and Mr. Dwyer agreed.

Mr. McCarthy said it was not a case of water being discoloured. The water was as pure as silver. His opinion was that the sewers were not being flushed.

The Chairman said the reports of the tests should be sent to Mr. McCarthy as soon as possible. They were getting no where as they were getting recommendations every day and in other things.

Mr. Crotty said that their officials should be asked to carry out the instructions of the consulting engineers.

Mr. McCarthy said that the people in Loughmore were to be pitied. What then was to become of the tenants of the new houses?

Mr. Crotty said it would be hard to know what meters would be suitable for the town.

The Chairman suggested that the Borough Surveyor ring the Dublin Corporation to find out if the necessary meters were available. It was stated that these meters were made in Dublin.

Mr. Crotty—Mr. McCarthy told us to get meters. Mr. McCarthy—He told us a lot of things. I don't know should we believe him. He told us that the water supply would be a great success, and was it?

Mr. Dailly said there was a leak at Abbeyside.

Mr. McCarthy said that anybody who saw a leak should report it. The officials couldn't be everywhere. They weren't. Mr. Dailly—They're paid more than the members.

Mr. McCarthy—No one asked us to come here. We went for the job ourselves.

HORSE INSPECTION. He inspected 8 horses with a view of recommending to the Council. He enclosed a list of horses, in order of merit, in the prices asked.

The Council considered the first and third on the list.

Mr. McCarthy said that in the opinion of the V.S. the prices asked were too high and he thought that they should be sold at a lower price. He would recommend a price of £20.

Mr. Quinn suggested writing to the owners suggesting the price and was too much asking for another price. They could then give a week's trial to the horses offered at the lowest price. The Council agreed to adopt this suggestion.

HOUSES AT QUAY STREET. The owner of three houses at Quay St. which were on the demolition list wrote stating that he wished to use them for extra storage.

Mr. Dwyer asked that the houses be demolished, or if they were not demolished that the present tenants get their houses again. There would be new tenants coming in there, as he knew.

S.S.O. LETTER. Mr. T. Walsh, S.S.O. wrote as follows:—"In connection with the Park Caretaker's suggestion to have the Espalanade and bathing boxes lime-washed, it is not customary to have this done at this time of the year and I would not recommend it. It would be a good time to have the hedge pruned, and the trees re-staked. The stakes protecting the trees at present are decayed.

For some time I have had considerable trouble in preventing the dumping of offal on the strand at the Youghal Road. In Mr. Dunne's field adjoining the County Council yard and in the Urban Council refuse depot at Shandon. This week I found that the offal is thrown in on the strand at the northern side of the Causeway, and I had to send a man to have it buried. I would ask the Council to make an Order for me to prosecute the person or persons committing this nuisance.

The water supply to the Parish Church is almost completely choked. Also the supply to the fountain in New Chapel St. In my opinion the branch off the Emmet Street water main serving both of the above supplies is choked by incrustation and requires to be taken up and cleaned.

The distance between the Emmet Street main and the fountain is about 35 yards. An Order to have the hedge pruned and the trees staked was passed.

The S.S.O. was ordered to take proceedings against the offenders who were responsible for the dumping of offal.

Repairs to the water supply were ordered to be carried out. The S.S.O. was granted the holidays requested.

COMPLAINT. Edward Fitzgerald, Loughmore, wrote as follows:—"On August 24 your Borough Surveyor, in an interview here, mentioned that you wished for advice from us with regard to Williams' Marsh and we intended calling in to see you about it when in Dungarvan on the 11th inst. re Water-works."

We have had this matter in mind, and consider the marsh should be trunked in the same level as the manholes on the new 12" sewer but that the trunking should cease on the north side of the canal and be pegged out and set back well from the existing bank, so that eventually a large enough trough will be left to contain all flood waters between the trunked in ground on both north and south sides in the future.

We are pleased to report that we have managed, after considerable thought, to devise a simple mechanical form of out-let, entirely automatic, which can be built into the manhole at the head of the sewerage tank, and will permit approximately 50 per cent. more water being drained off the marsh than at present through the sewerage outlet but without interfering with the capacity of the canal on the north side of the marsh. We have found it hard to get securities.

Mr. McCarthy said that the conditions were too severe: The surety would always be liable while the tenant was in the house.

It was stated that this was always the case.

The Chairman said the best thing to do was to hand in the forms and if the prospective tenant could not find sureties, they could state so.

LIGHT ON BUOY. The Harbour Master stated that he had received a communication to the effect that the price of a new lamp on the Wigan buoy would be £129. There were two other lamps on the buoy and the price of the old lamp was £20. It was decided to get the old lamp repaired.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS. SETTING JELLIES. Jellies are among the very attractive warm weather dishes but it is not always easy to get them to look just as one wishes.

When a jelly will not set add the strained juice of a lemon, and then watch results!

Often it is difficult to get the sweet right into the centre of the glass dish so that the piled-up fruit, whipped cream or other decoration can be set evenly around it. Try running a little cold water over the surface of the dish just before the jelly is turned on to it. With a gentle push, the shape can then be moved to the required position.

CHROMIUM-PLATED GOODS. Rub your chromium-plated silver and door knocker with a piece of tupper paper taken from chocolate box or cigarette packet, and they will shine like new.

EGG WHITES. Add a teaspoonful of white sugar and a desertspoonful of cold water before beating up an egg white. You will get results in half the time and obtain double the quantity.

DOORMAT. Before using a new doormat, damp it well and allow to dry out of the sun. Every week during dry weather sprinkle the mat with a little clean cold water. The bristles will not then break and fall out.

NEW USE FOR SUGAR TONGS. Keep an old pair of sugar tongs handy to the kitchen stove. It is much easier to pick up sausages with them than with a fork, chops can be turned deftly in the frying pan with them, and they are useful for lifting hot saucapans lids.

INSURANCE QUOTATIONS. A large number of quotations for Insurance of Boilers, etc. were received. The majority gave the same figure £18 4s. 6d.

In the absence of a quorum the tenders for the usual half-yearly supplies were referred to the Cork meeting. In several cases it was stated that it was impossible to quote a fixed price in the prevailing circumstances, some offering to provide the supplies at the market prices obtaining.

STOCKTAKER. There was only one application for the position of stocktaker, from Mr. J. Quirke, Windmill Hill.

The application at the usual remuneration was recommended to the City Council.

That a tank attack (Petrol) took place in town on Friday last.

That in spite of tins, drums, etc. the motorists found it hard to keep their "tanks full" for what petrol they received from the garages.

That Mr. Eddie Burke, Ahenna, has arrived home on a holiday from London.

That the laurel bushes in front of the town hall were trimmed during the week.

That fresh gravel was spread around the small garden walk in front.

That 3 lorry loads of pigs passed through the town in less than half an hour on Friday last on their way to Waterford.

That large numbers of cattle were also sent off from the railway station on Saturday.

That this week's riddle is, "Why did the cat in the West Gate years ago. The answer is to "Lock Street" (Lough Street).

G. A. A. NEWS.

ST. ANNE'S SPRING SURPRISE.

ABBEYSIDE REDUCE BIG DEFICIT.

CLOSE FOOTBALL GAME.

THE PIKE SCRAMBLE THROUGH.

The finalis in the Dungarvan group junior championships, entered on Sunday last at the Gaelic Grounds, Dungarvan, when St. Anne's created a surprise by defeating a highly-fancied Abbeyside team by 3 points to nil in junior football.

PIKE 0-5; BARRA-NA-HUIDHRE, 0-4.

This was a replayed match, both teams having met at the Slabh gCua grounds on July 16th, when the result was a draw at three points each.

When the teams met again on Sunday, both showed several changes, and both were prepared for a great struggle.

At the commencement of the game the standard of football was low, but as the first half progressed it improved, and in the second half high-class football was served up.

The Nire men were the better footballers, and their passing in the half-forward line was very effective. By the way, their left half-forward would be well worth his place on the County Senior team, and it is to be hoped that the County Senior and Junior Selectors made a special note of both him and the other two half-forwarders' names.

In the second half the wizardry displayed by the Ballymacarbery men surprised all onlookers, especially the manner in which a loose forward was located in a twinkling and a lightning pass shot out to him.

It was only the tremendous speed of Paddy Daly, John and Jim Fennell and Tom Coughlan, that held this flashy half forward line at bay, while the Nire were very unlucky in being disallowed a goal in the last few minutes.

The Pike back line was very sound and the goalkeeper, J. Carlton, saved very well, but the forwards were erratic and had several wides from good positions, but the second half showed an improvement in their tactics, when L. Fennell, and William Drohan showed better combination, and Maurice Connors had two spectacular points.

The Pike now led by a point and lost time was being played. M. Casey (Pike) retired injured and was replaced by M. Foley, who was now fresh and playing a great game in the Pike back line.

Excitement ran high as the Nire made a determined attack, which was well centred, a free by J. Moloney was well centred, as the ball descended in the square, all players jumped for it.

A P. A. R. A. NA-HUIDHRE-E. McGrath, W. Drohan, J. Coffey, D. O'Grady, W. Ryan, J. Moloney, M. Fogarty, J. Fogarty, J. Walsh, E. Hallahan, D. Croft, M. O'Grady, T. Grady, J. Kelly and W. Moloney.

ST. ANNES, 6-1; ABBEYSIDE, 4-4. At 4.30 p.m. St. Anne's lined out against Abbeyside in the junior hurling group semi-final.

The game was a great struggle from beginning to end but an unfortunate incident occurred towards the close of the game. Abbeyside had taken control of the game and were rapidly reducing the deficit on the score sheet.

Nonan, the Abbeyside left wing forward, in an endeavour to hold the play, was ordered off while Nonan was carried off to the sideline where he was medically attended.

Once again the name of the G.A.A. and a game has been turned into a dog fight. The pity of it all was that the game was being stoutly contested until the unfortunate incident occurred, and was full of interest to those who pay for admission to a hurling match, and not for Donnybrook Fair seasons. Let us hope that this is the last of the 'scraps' in this year's championships, and that the rest of the matches on the fixture list will be contested in a sportsmanlike manner.

In passing credit must be given to the Abbeyside men who fought gamely against a 4-goal lead, and pulled it down to three points. Towards the end Abbeyside were predominant in all departments, and only a stout defence held them back. Year after year, St. Anne's have held their own.

TALLOW NOTES

COURSING.

Mr. J. J. Walsh presided at a meeting of the Tallow Coursing Club which was held at the Club Rooms. Other members present were—Mr. J. M. Beecher, Hon. Treasurer; Messrs. F. Ryan and W. Sheehan, Hon. Secretaries; P. F. Walsh, J. Beecher, P. O'Mahoney, P. O'Callaghan, W. Beecher, D. Lyons and T. J. O'Dwyer.

The Hon. Secretaries presented their report and the Hon. Treasurer presented the Balance Sheet, both of which were considered very satisfactory.

Correspondence was then dealt with, and the Hon. Secretary said he was sure that all the members were pleased to learn that the sanction of the I.C.C. had been given to the date, viz. November 8th, which had been selected for this season's meeting which would be held on the Club's enclosure at Janville, and that sanction had also been given to their inclusion in their programme of Trial Stake and Irish Cup Qualifying Stake, for which he hoped they would obtain a full list of entries.

Applications for the positions of judge and slipper, were duly considered, and appointments were made.

Consideration as to the best means of securing the usual number of hares entered and the Hon. Secretaries were instructed to place orders immediately with former suppliers, on the usual conditions.

They were also instructed to employ the usual caretaker, and that the erection of the enclosure should be proceeded with immediately, as delivery of their first batch of hares would be made in the course of a week or two.

Addressing the meeting the Chairman said that they had every reason to congratulate themselves on the success that had attended the club's efforts last season. From the Secretaries' and Treasurer's reports which had been submitted there was no doubt that the position of the club was most satisfactory, and with the same operation from all members as heretofore he looked forward to their present season as being even more successful. He proposed that a hearty vote of thanks be extended to their Hon. Secretaries and Treasurer for the magnificent services they had rendered, and this was passed unanimously.

Price Of Barley.

A joint statement issued by Messrs. Arthur Guinness, Son & Co. Ltd., and the Irish Sugar Beet Growers' Association, Limited, after a meeting on the 14th inst., is as follows:—A delegation of the Grain Committee of the Irish Sugar Beet Growers' Association, Limited, met the representatives of Messrs. Arthur Guinness, Son & Co. Ltd., at an adjourned meeting today, and had a full and frank discussion, about the 1939 barley crop. It was mutually decided that an opening range of prices for the season's crop would be from 23/6 to 24/6 per barrel, according to quality, being an average increase of 6/6 on last year's prices.

Discussion also took place as to the 1940 crop, and Messrs. Guinness stated that as they are anxious that the acreage under barley should be at least maintained, they are prepared to guarantee the same price next year plus an increase that may be justified by a rise in the guaranteed price of wheat.

The Grain Committee of the Irish Sugar Beet Growers' Association was represented by—Senator W. O'Callaghan, Mr. Martin Corry, T. D., Mr. James Harvey, Mr. John Donohoe, Mr. John Seymour, Mr. A. M. Fahy, Secretary.

Messrs. Arthur Guinness, Son & Co. Ltd., were represented by—Mr. T. B. Case, Sir W. Haldane Porter, Mr. A. Jackson, Mr. A. H. Boyle.

SUNDAY'S MATCHES

SLABH gCua v. THE PIKE. The Dungarvan area group finals have come at last, and on Sunday next on the Shandon ward Slabh gCua and the Pike teams will decide the right to face Lismore in the Division Junior Football final.

Both teams have had tough matches on the way to this deciding game, Slabh gCua having defeated Dungarvan, Kilgobnet and Stradbally on a replay, while the Pike beat Kilrossanty, and the Nire on a replay. This year the junior football teams have been very well drawn and evenly matched, to judge by the great number of draws and narrow wins. It is generally felt, that Slabh gCua have defeated the strong teams, and that the Pike have met the weaker teams.

On Sunday, however, the Pike fifteen are determined to prove to the Touraneens men that their victories so far were not indications of any softness on their part. There is no denying the fact that the Touraneens men have a superb back line, but their forwards are not up to this high standard. The Pike men, who will not hear of defeat, can be depended on to give a good display, and in the back-line will do their utmost to be well served by the others.

After their hard game with the Nire on last Sunday, the Pike should be well rested, and the others should be well rested, although the Slabh gCua men are Sunday opponents of victory. Whatever the general opinion may be, predict either a draw or a point win for either side.

There is no other match on Sunday in the West, and the others are fixed for this date having been postponed.

PERAMBULATOR QUOTA.

The Government on Tuesday fixed an important quota for 100 perambulators between November 1st, next, and October 31st, 1940.

The following changes in the fixtures have been made:—Lismore v. Slabh gCua or the Pike (group final) at Cappoquin on October 8th, Referee, D. Goode.

S.F. v. Kilrossanty v. Stradbally at Dungarvan, on October 15th, Referee, J. O'Sullivan, N.T. Clones.

The junior hurling match (group final) St. Anne's v. Dungarvan will be played on Sunday next in post-poned to October 8th, owing to the difficulty of finding a venue suitable for both teams. The venue will probably be fixed at the next meeting of the Board.

The match is billed for 4.30 p.m., S.T.

WEST WATERFORD BOARD—G.A.A.

FIXTURES AND DIVISIONAL FINALS.

OBJECTIONS BY KILBRIEN AND CATHAL BRUGHAS UPHELD.

At a meeting of the above at Egan's Hotel, on Thursday, September 15, there were present—Messrs. P. Whelan, Chairman; T. K. Keane, Secretary; and J. Goode, Co. Board. Delegates also attended from Ardmore, Cathal Brughas, Faugh-a-Ballagh, Happonquin, Kinsalebeg, Aghish, Lismore, St. Carthage, Kilbrien, Lismore, Knockmore, and the Brickey Rangers.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Kilbrien Hurling Club wrote asking if the Committee had arranged to have the final of the Tallow Pipers Band Tournament on Sunday, September 24. The above team challenged to meet Lismore in the final and are anxious to have the tournament completed, as it was twelve months since it commenced.

The club were directed to write to the Pipers Band Committee.

The Nire Club Secretary wrote giving a list of the clubs included in the club's tournament draw, and stating that the medals had been procured.

It was decided to point out that permission for the tournament was granted, subject to the sanction of the Munster County Board, and that the medals were sent in.

J. Dalton, Slabh gCua Club, wrote asking for £4 expenses for the replays of the junior football match between that Club and Stradbally.

The Secretary said that to his knowledge the owner of the field at Dungarvan had got his rent and the balance had been paid by the two teams. He would not be responsible therefore for the money, he was only aware of where it was awarded.

There was some discussion on this point. The Chairman said the difficulty was that the two clubs had divided the money. The best thing to do would be to ask the clubs to refund the money and then apply for expenses in the ordinary way. It was a most extraordinary thing to do.

The Secretary said no secretary was entitled to give out money. He could not do so himself without the permission of the Board.

The delegate said that expenses should be granted before a replay, the Chairman said that every club had to deal with the same difficulty. In this case the two clubs had shared the gate between them with no authority. It was a most serious matter.

The Secretary said the only way was to give a grant and ask for a refund.

J. Mason, Cappoquin, proposed and J. Goode seconded that the Board give a grant of £3 and ask for a refund of the same amount, and this resolution was passed.

KILBRIEN OBJECTION.

Kilbrien minor hurling club objected to the awarding of a recent match in which they played to Dungarvan. The ground of their objection was that Calvin, a Dungarvan player in that match was not a registered member of the Dungarvan Club.

It was stated that Dungarvan admitted that the player was not registered as John Calvin. J. Goode said that the player was American, and lived with relatives named Morrissey, which he had taken to be the player's name, as it was his grandfather's name. The player had been properly registered until he, thinking it was a mistake, changed the name. Dungarvan were quite satisfied to have the match awarded to Kilbrien.

CATHAL BRUGHAS OBJECTION.

Cathal Brughas objected to the awarding of the minor football match played on August 27th, at Dungarvan, to the Brickey Rangers on the grounds that (1)—Nicholas Hennessy who played with the Brickey Rangers had previously played with Cathal Brughas against Abbeyside, on April 16th, in minor hurling.

(2)—David Whelan who played with the Brickey Rangers was over age. A Brickey Rangers delegate argued that Cathal Brughas' was also illegal as they had included Abbeyside players in another match.

The Chairman said that this argument should have been made in the form of a counter-objection, and upheld the objection, after establishing the truth of the first point.

REFEREE'S REPORTS.

On the reading of the referee's report, the Lismore-Knockmore junior football match was awarded to Lismore.

SUSPENSION.

On the reading of the referee's report a member of the St. Carthage's minor football team which played against Lismore was suspended.

KEEPING CALM.

The uncertainty of the present times, and the numerous rumours which are spreading all over the country have given rise to a state of nervous apprehension and unnecessary fear which thrive on the harassed nerves of the whole population. This disruption of the normal state of things is probably to be expected in times like these, but no useful purpose is served by fearing the worst which will probably never happen.

It is essential, therefore, that everybody should strive to carry on their normal business as if nothing had happened, as far as in them lies. We should remember that here in Ireland we are in a favoured position in the present conflict, and endeavour to call ourselves no matter what gin-rack suggestions may be whispered in our ears.

If we suffer some inconveniences perhaps it will be for our good. Many people have come to look on luxuries as necessities, and an alteration of this outlook may make us realize the real end of our existence. Far too many have suffered more than inconveniences in peace time, and the vast majority of us have looked on for some to realize that there are times when even money cannot obtain everything they desire. In any case, there are sufficient supplies of the necessities of life in this country to satisfy everybody adequately.

Finally, it is heartening to note that the activities of profiteers are everywhere from the people on whom they seek to batten. There is hope for a nation which can realise the utter worthlessness of these people.

LISMORE NOTES

SEED SCARCITY.

A scarcity of seeds suitable for autumn sowing is reported to be causing inconvenience to farmers here. Grain and seed shops had their stocks of rye, etc., sold in a few days, and orders are constantly pouring in which cannot be met. The scarcity of hay has turned the farmers' attention to catch crops, and it is disappointing to the people on whom they seek to batten. There is hope for a nation which can realise the utter worthlessness of these people.

EXILES RETURN.

For the past fortnight several Lismore people who have been living in Great Britain have returned as a result of the uncertainty of the repercussions of the Continental upheaval. Some of the exiles took the precaution of carrying their gas masks, which weird-looking adornments are said to be a recognised feature of everyday life on the other side of the Irish Sea. The horrors of the terrible conflict will not visit our shores, is the prayer of every citizen of Eire.

THE COURSING CLUB.

The opening dance of the season, under the above auspices, will be held in the Town Hall, Lismore, on Sunday night next, and a very large attendance is expected. As usual, dancing will commence at 9.30, and the Lismore Nightingale Accordion Band will supply the music.

A general meeting of the club will be held at Feeney's Garage, Lismore, on Tuesday night, Sept. 26th, at 9 p.m. All interested in coursing are asked to attend. CIRCUS COMING.

Messrs. John Duffy & Sons' touring circus will visit Lismore on September 27th, while retaining those features which give the "sawdust ring" an irresistible appeal to young and old, the proprietors, in keeping with their usual policy, have added features which are unique in this country. A free attraction on this occasion will be the aerial wire-walking act to be given outside before the circus proper begins.
