EARLY SPRING.

Successful gardeners plan ahead—that is one reason why they are successful. An early Spring does not catch them unprepared.

KILMACHTHOMAS NOTES.

HOLIDAYING.

The Rev. Brother Fitzgerald, Kilcock, Co. Kildare, who is holidaying in his native Decies, was the guest of his nephew, Mr. Thomas Whelan, Ballyvaden, Kill, over the week-end.

CONDOLENCE.

Much sympathy is extended to Messrs. Richard Cashin, Ballygarty, Kilmachthomas, and Frank Cashin, Currahaha, do, in their recent bereavement occasioned by the death of their cousin, the late Mrs. Ellen Byrne, O'Brien's Terrace, Waterford.

SYMPATHY.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the relatives of the late Mrs. Fitzgerald, Hackettsdown, Portlaoigh, in their bereavement and loss. The deceased lady, who had attained to a venerable ripe age, was a fine type of Catholic Irishwoman of her generation.—R.I.P.

OLD COINS FOUND.

A number of gold coins, which are in a fairly good state of preservation though stated to be 500 years old were discovered in a liss at Ballykilmarry, Kilkenny, by workmen who are carrying out a Minor Relief Scheme there. The workmen were quarrying stones when they located the ancient "rhino."

DEATH OF MR. W. CONNOLLY.

All that was mortal of the late Mr. Wm. Connolly, Kilkenny, Kilmachthomas, do, in their recent bereavement occasioned by the death of their cousin, the late Mrs. Ellen Byrne, O'Brien's Terrace, Waterford.

IN MEMORIAM.

The 11 o'clock Mass at St. Anne's Church, Ballylaoigh, on Sunday last was offered up for the happy repose of the soul of the late Miss Mary Power, Ballylaoigh, do, in the 45th year of her age.

KILROSSARY CALLING!

Tickets are now available for the monster "95" card drive in aid of a laudable Kilkenny parish purpose. The handsome prize of £10 will be distributed in prizes as follows:—£3 each to winners; £1.10s. to runners-up; and £1 to householder when winning card is played.

ABOUT A BOAT.

While at the cove near his home on Thursday of last week, Mr. John Cummins, farmer, Ballydun, Bermonah, noticed a capsized rowing boat in the water close to the beach. He got a couple of neighbours to assist him, and between them they hauled the craft clear of high water mark.

THE FEBRUARY FAIR.

There was a large supply of stock, chiefly of the short-horn type, and a good attendance of buyers at the usual monthly fair held at Kilmachthomas on Tuesday.

2nd, £9 to £11; yearlings, £8 to £10 10s.; suck calves, £3 to £4. Quite trade for milch cows—1st class, £20 to £25; 2nd, £16 to £19; springing heifers, 1st, £19 to £22; 2nd, £14 to £18. Sheep were scarce and dear—two-year-old wethers, £3 15s. to £4 7s. 6d.; fat lambs, 55/- to 65/-; fat ewes, £3 10s. to £4; store lambs, 30/- to 42/6. Bonhams, 35/- to 45/- each.

GAELIC GARNERINGS.

Croughan Rangers (Kilmachthomas) and Newtown travelled to Ballyduff Lower last Sunday, where they opposed and defeated two local teams in convincing style. Both bouts were friendly challenges and were witnessed by a nice-size crowd of enthusiastic spectators.

FIANNA FAIL.

Mr. M. Morrissey, T.D., received a rousing reception from a very large gathering at Ballylaoigh on Sunday night last, when he came to reorganise the local cumann. In the course of a short address he said the national organisation had every reason to feel proud of its achievements.

SAUL SLATTERY STATES.

According to my private political correspondent, the question is to be raised either in the Dail or in the Senate on the subject of "Summer Time" days as to whether the cuckoo was heard "speaking" through the sunshine of last Sabbath morning in Newtown or not.

STRADBALLY LADY'S DEMISE.

The death took place on a recent date at the County Hospital, Waterford, of Mrs. Ellen Flynn (nee Houlahan), Stradbally, Co. Wick. She was a well-known and widely-remembered Ballyvaden family, who made her well-known by whom she came in contact.

The Dungarvan Observer,
SATURDAY, MARCH 2, 1940.

The Flight from the Land.

While the earth is being ravaged and its peoples' nerves harried by a sense of impending disaster, the leaders of the Irish nation, paid and unpaid, continue to tell the world that Ireland is doomed, for its people are in flight from the land. To judge from the utterances which we have meekly suffered for the past few years, a foreigner might be forgiven for forming a mental picture of millions of Irish youths casting disdainful looks at ploughs and Irish colleens scraping their shoes at city cocktail bars in an endeavour to shake the dust of the farm-yard off their feet. Perhaps we are wrong but we believe that most of those who really understand the position will agree that an entirely mistaken view of the migration problem is taken by those who have set themselves the task of guiding our destinies.

Large numbers of young men and girls leave the countryside every year. That is certainly true. But it is not true that they leave through distaste for country life. They leave because there is absolutely nothing for them to do on the land. All the time our well-paid, well-clothed, well-fed pessimists continue to moan because the best of our young men and women "fly from the land." They do not fly from the land. They are forced to leave the countryside because of economic difficulties which never present themselves to their disparaging critics.
