DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT

Held on Wednesday last before Mr. J. S. Troy, D.J.

EJECTMENT FOR OVERHOLDING

Mr. Mossisy (Messrs Farrell and Morrissey, solrs.) for applicants. Mr. Langan, solr. for defendant.
 This was an application for an ejectment for overholding in respect of premises at Cross Strand Street brought by Mrs. Kathleen Burden and Mark Anthony against Daniel Wade.

Thomas Power, agent for the landlord gave evidence of serving a notice to quit on the defendant on July 26th, 1930, and demanding possession which was refused on the 31st August.

Mr. Langan, solr., said he had appeared for the defendant in the case when it was first before the court. There is no defence to this application, but the defendant wanted some time and he asked that the Justice put a stay on the order.

Mr. Morrissey said the defendant was living in a new house.

The Justice made an order for possession.

LARCENY OF CASH AND CIGARETTES

A young man giving the name of John O'Leary, otherwise John McDonagh appeared in custody in charge of Garda from Tipperary town charged with the larceny on 17th January of 1/6 in cash and cigarettes value 4/- from the shop of Hannah Hill.

Mr. Morrissey, solr., who appeared for the defendant admitted the offence.

A Garda Detective from Tipperary said that on receipt of a report of the larceny he visited a vagrant ramp where he met and interviewed the defendant, who made a statement admitting the larceny.

Supt. Walsh said that Mrs. Hill had left the shop for some time that evening and when she returned she found the cash and cigarettes missing.

Mr. Morrissey said the defendant was the worst for drink that evening and got into Mrs. Hill for a drink he found no one on the premises.

Justice—What is his character.
 Supt. Walsh—There are 23 previous convictions against him.

Defendant—I appeal to you for a chance sir—I was drunk.

Justice—You are only out since December.

Defendant—I will pay all the expenses of the court. I gave the Garda every assistance.

Justice—Yes, in view of that I will only give you a short sentence, 14 days.

Defendant—Thank you very much, sir. Will it date from the day of arrest.

Justice—Oh no, you are getting off light. The Justice commented on the action of the Garda in so promptly apprehending the defendant and asked Supt. Walsh to convey his remarks to the Superintendent in Tipperary.

Supt. Walsh thanked the Justice for his remarks and promised to do as requested.

OCCASIONAL LICENSE

Mr. Williams made application for Mrs. M. C. Power who was granted occasional licences in respect of the nights of Jan 27th and February 10th, for dances in aid of the I.D.F. and Red Cross, hours 12 to 2 a.m.

SALMON AND TROUT LICENCES.

Mr. Williams, solr., on behalf of Mrs. Clancy, Main Street, was granted permission to carry on the sale of salmon, trout, etc.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE CASES.

Cases against Kate Morrissey, Kathal Brugha Street, and Mary Morrissey, Michel Street, at the suit of Guard Farrell, School Attendance Officer, were on the application of the Complainant dealt with under the P.O.A. as the schools are at present closed.

LIGHTS ON VEHICLES.

Guard McGowan prosecuted James Morrissey, Shandon, with cycling without a light. A fine of 3/6 was imposed.

Same v. M. Lee, Loughmore, with a like offence plus no reflector, fined 3/6 and 2/6.

Guard Giblin v. M. Thornton, Davis St. (horse and cart without light).

Mr. Williams, solr., appeared for the defendant and the case was after an explanation dealt with under the P.O.A.

BRIVING LICENCE.
 A case of driving without a license by Guard O'Dea against John Daly, formerly of 3 Cathal Brugha Place, now residing by Cork was dealt with under the P.O.A.

BREACH OF LIVE STOCK BREEDING ACT.

The Minister for Agriculture prosecuted John Dunphy, Killrossa, Dungarvan with keeping a red shorthorn bull without complying with the provisions of the Live Stock Breeding Act.

Dr. Cunnihan, State Solr., appeared for the Department.

Mr. Farrell (Farrell and Morrissey) defended.

Dr. Cunnihan said the defendant had not presented the animal for inspection or had not forwarded the £2 required for a special inspection to the Department.

Mr. Farrell said he had acted in the case when it was before the court recently, however, he had not since seen his client or the bull (laughter), but had received a letter from him this morning.

Dr. Cunnihan—He is a great correspondent (laughter).

Guard O'Dea said he visited the defendant's farm and saw a red shorthorn bull. The defendant told witness he had sent on £2 the week before for a special inspection. He had two other bulls which he had sold.

Mr. Farrell said his client is not very well off.

Justice—He sold two bulls. It is time for him to awake up. What was he fined on the last occasion.

Dr. Cunnihan—£2 in respect of each animal.

The Justice in imposing a fine of £5 said if such conduct was allowed to go on the Government might as well tear up the Statute.

DISORDERLY XMAS SCENE.

Guards T. Barry, John O'Dea and Sergt. Tenhan, were complainants in cases against Michael Connors, Patrick O'Connor (1st cousin of Michael), and Daniel Connors (father of Michael). The defendants are members of an itinerant family and the case arose out of unruly scenes caused by the defendants in O'Connell Street on Christmas Eve last.

Guard O'Dea gave evidence of finding the defendants in O'Connell Street on Xmas Eve. They had their coats off and were fighting.

M. O'Connor, replying to the Justice, said he had nothing to say but that it was Xmas time. He was sorry for what had happened and would be very thankful to the Justice if he would overlook it. It is two years since he was in Dungarvan before. They are at present living in Cappoquin but are natives of Carrick-on-Suir. His father, Daniel, is sick and not able to attend court. He does not remember hitting the Garda and he is sorry for doing so.

Justice—I am inclined to send both of you to jail.

Connors—Give us a chance this time.

The Justice said he would impose a suspensory sentence of one month, the defendant not to issue as long as they kept out of Dungarvan, but the minute they set their noses inside the town again they will have to do the month.

DRINK AT CHRISTMAS.

Supt. Walsh charged Wm. Dugan, Cathal Brugha Place, with being drunk on Xmas Eve.

Guard O'Leary said that while on duty on Christmas eve he was called to the licensee premises of Mr. Morrissey where the defendant was kicking up a row. It required a bulldozer to eject him. He had been ejected from another house more than that evening.

Five shillings or seven days (with a month to pay) was the penalty imposed.

A FAMILY DISPUTE ADJUDGED.

In a case by W. Carey, Sarsfield Street, Abbeyside, against his wife, and step-son, E. Nolan, for assault, which arose over the ownership of a motor-car, a punt, and gear and sets for same.

The Justice after a lengthy hearing adjudged the case to allow the parties settle between themselves the ownership of the boat.

Late Mr. John V. O'Neill.

The interment of the late Mr. John V. O'Neill whose lamented death we published in our last issue took place in the family burial plot adjoining the Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Friday last after the celebration of Requiem Office and High Mass.

As on the previous day there was again a heavy by snow-fall over the town and country to say a last tribute of respect to his memory.

The Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. T. Canon O'Brien, P.P. V.F.; Rev. T. Draper, C.C. Carrigles was deacon and Rev. M. Power, C.C., Abbeyside, sub-deacon. Rev. T. B. Walsh, B.A., C.C., was master of ceremonies and the chorists were Rev. Fr. P. O'Farrell, C.C., Dungarvan, and Rev. J. Harty, C.C., Carrick-on-Suir.

In the choir were Very Rev. N. Dunphy, P.P. Abbeyside; Very Rev. P. McGrath, P.P. Old Parish; Very Rev. P. Donoghue, P.P. Carrigles; Very Rev. M. Prior, C.S.A., Dungarvan; Very Rev. M. F. Reilly, P.P. Carrigles; Rev. Fr. Brennan, C.S.A., Dungarvan.

Death of Mr. P. Browne, O'Connell Street.

It is with very sincere regret we record the death of the above young man, which took place in the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Thursday evening last after a very brief illness.

A keen and practical business man, the deceased ran an extensive business as Cycle Dealer, Repairer, etc., at which he engaged the confidence of a very large clientele from the town and country.

One of the largest funerals seen locally for some time, followed the remains from the Hospital to the Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Friday evening, where on arrival the coffin was met by Rev. Fr. O'Farrell, C.C., who read the prayers for the dead.

Following the celebration of Requiem Masses on Saturday morning the funeral left for Ballinacree where the remains were laid to rest amid many manifestations of genuine sorrow and regret.

Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., Ballinacree, read the burial service.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. Bridie Browne (widow), Phyllis, Aicia and Frank (children), Mrs. Browne (mother), Mrs. Lenihan (mother-in-law); Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Ronays (sisters-in-law); Willie, Tom, Eddie and Jim Lenihan (brothers-in-law); Thomas Sullivan (uncle); Aileen and Anthony Mabony, Mrs. Lyndon, Mrs. Kely, M. Fitzgerald, Jack Sullivan, Jas. and Aise Walsh, William Ronays, Mrs. Craty, Joan Craty, Mike Butler, John Ronays, Pierre, Margaret, and Eddie Butler, Mike Lenihan, David Murray, D. and T. Landers, R. Whelan, etc. (cousins and relatives).

A very large number of Mass cards and messages of sympathy were received by the family.

Late Mrs. Bridget Barron, Knockboy.

The observances of the late Mrs. B. Barron, wife of the late Mr. Pk. Barron, Knockboy, Ballinacree, sister of Very Rev. John Gleeson, P.P. Aghlish and mother of Messrs. Wm. Barron, Kicooney and M. Barron, Knockboy, took place in Knockboy graveyard on Friday last, as on the previous day at the funeral of the late Mrs. Barron, who was interred in the same grave.

There was a similar charge against Mary Higgins, Ballyknock South.

Mr. J. P. St. John O'Neill (for Mr. J. Carey, State solicitor, Mitchellsown) prosecuted.

Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., Youghal for Mrs. Donovan, pleaded guilty. She was a widow under the doctor's care. The land was let to graziers, who promised to clean the land. What she said they had not done so, she sent her brother to do it.

Replying to the Justice, Mr. Hodnett said the area involved was eight acres, the total holding being 60 to 70.

In the case against Mary Higgins, Mr. O'Neill said he understood that she told the Garda she would admit the offence. They hadn't the Inspector present.

The Justice—Rather a peculiar position to act on such an admission.

Mr. O'Neill said that Guard O'Neill, who had served the summons would prove that she admitted the offence.

The Justice to the Guard—Did you get an admission from herself? I got it from her daughter who is married in the place.

The Justice—What good is that. The law of evidence must be considered.

Mr. Halley suggested that the case be adjourned to next Court.

The Justice—The question is will I have the means of getting here then (laughter).

Mrs. Donovan was fined 8/- and 2/- costs and the case against Mary Higgins was adjourned. The Justice saying he would accept in evidence a written statement from her admitting the offence.

CHARGE AGAINST SOLDIER.

Private L. Dunne, Castlebridge, Fermoy was charged with maliciously damaging a plate glass window in the motor show room of Mr. Thomas Kavanagh, McCurtain Street, Fermoy, the damage being estimated at £13.

Supt. Moore, Fermoy, prosecuted. Corporal J. Whelan, of the Military Police, deposed that he saw the defendant who appeared to be under the influence of drink, deliberately kick and break the window. Witness rushed and questioned him and he said he was fed up owing to some family trouble.

Defendant said he had no question to ask.

The Justice—How do you plead?
 Defendant—Not guilty, Sir.

Supt. Kieley, Fermoy, gave evidence of arrest. When cautioned defendant said "I will not say anything."

Mr. Thomas Kavanagh, Fermoy, gave evidence of the damage done; and of the cost involved £13.

The Justice—You say you are not guilty, what?
 Defendant, said he didn't remember breaking the window. The only drink he actually took was a bottle of stout, but on the night he took whiskey and it must have gone to his head. The last thing he remembered was being in the public house.

The Supt.—Do you remember telling Corp. Whelan that you were fed up? No, I was as simple blank.

Replying to the Justice, Corporal Whelan said defendant had been ejected from a public house before the occurrence.

TALLOW COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J.).

SHEEP DIPPING CASES.

At the request of Mr. M. M. Halley, solr. Waterford (for the Waterford County Council), the Court took up the hearing of charges against James O'Brien, Kiltwinny, and John Mills, Kiltwatermore, for not complying with the sheep dipping orders.

Mr. Halley said that O'Brien admitted the offence through Mr. J. L. Keane, solr., Youghal. He said he was very busy with the wheat harvest at the time.

Mr. Hynes, Department Inspector, said he accepted O'Brien's explanation.

The Justice—What about the other defendant, Mills?

Mr. Hynes said he turned up to the first official dipping but not to the second. He was a small farmer having about 20 sheep. He said he had to help cutting the corn at Moorehill. He lived close to the county tank.

Mills admitted he didn't avail of the second dipping at the County Council tank. He was busy at the time, and he dipped the animals at home.

After a lengthy legal argument regarding the Acts and regulations, the summary was amended to allow the case being dealt with by the Court.

Mr. Halley said those cases were brought to let the farmers in the area know that such offences were looked upon as serious.

By their wishes to avail of other than the County Council tanks, proper notice should be served. The County Council would not press the cases at present, but in future they would ask the Court to impose the maximum penalties, which were heavy.

Fining O'Brien 1/- and 12/- costs, and Mills 1/- and 2/- costs (owing to their respective status), the Justice said he thought they were guilty of only technical offences. The public should not infer that he took a light view of the regulations—he had shown that in other cases. In the future he intended to enforce these regulations strongly.

NOXIOUS WEEDS.

The Minister of Agriculture charged Helen Donovan, Ballylusky, Ballynoe, with an offence under the Noxious Weeds Act.

There was a similar charge against Mary Higgins, Ballyknock South.

Mr. J. P. St. John O'Neill (for Mr. J. Carey, State solicitor, Mitchellsown) prosecuted.

Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., Youghal for Mrs. Donovan, pleaded guilty. She was a widow under the doctor's care. The land was let to graziers, who promised to clean the land. What she said they had not done so, she sent her brother to do it.

Replying to the Justice, Mr. Hodnett said the area involved was eight acres, the total holding being 60 to 70.

In the case against Mary Higgins, Mr. O'Neill said he understood that she told the Garda she would admit the offence. They hadn't the Inspector present.

The Justice—Rather a peculiar position to act on such an admission.

Mr. O'Neill said that Guard O'Neill, who had served the summons would prove that she admitted the offence.

The Justice to the Guard—Did you get an admission from herself? I got it from her daughter who is married in the place.

The Justice—What good is that. The law of evidence must be considered.

Mr. Halley suggested that the case be adjourned to next Court.

The Justice—The question is will I have the means of getting here then (laughter).

Mrs. Donovan was fined 8/- and 2/- costs and the case against Mary Higgins was adjourned. The Justice saying he would accept in evidence a written statement from her admitting the offence.

Keen Competition.

and he was staggering along, nobody with him.

Lieutenant Creedon gave evidence as to character. He regarded the defendant as a reliable and praiseworthy soldier and was surprised to hear of what had happened.

The Supt. said that was the second case of the kind before his worship. In the previous case the defendant got away with what he thought was a bottle of whiskey, but it was only coloured water (laughter).

The Justice—In that case the offence was aggravated by the larceny. In this case I don't want to see the ratepayers mulcted for the amount of the damage.

Defendant said his people would help to make good the damage done.

The Supt.—Is he sincere in his statement that he don't remember what had happened?

The Justice—I'd say it was possible that he was drunk.

After further hearing the Justice said that a stop should be put to that class of offence, the second before him. He was adjourning his decision to the Fermoy Court, and if provision were made to save the ratepayers the cost, he might give the defendant an opportunity to carry on his career in the army.

Sergt. J. O'Shea, Tallow, charged J. J. Hogan, Longueville, Co. Wick, with using a motor car without a proper red light and with having three holes in the right front tyre.

The Justice—One hole is enough as a rule (laughter).

Replying to the Court, complainant said the effect was to render it a dangerous car.

Defendant stated that what the Sergeant was a garter inside the tyre. This protected the tyre. It didn't affect the running of the car.

Replying to the Court, Mr. Kavanagh, Fermoy, said it would be severe on the car, but would not be dangerous.

Complainant said the defendant had a flash lamp at the rear but it didn't illuminate the identification plate but upwards.

The Justice—It lit skywards (laughter). The cases were dismissed with acclamation.

The County Championship Ploughing match held at Ballyhussa, Kilmacthomas, in a most suitable field for the purpose kindly lent by estimable Mrs. Catherine Nugent, licensed tinner and farmer, Newtown, was a pronounced success from every standpoint. The ploughing was well above the average standard. The keenest competition prevailed in the different classes consequently the winners in each section accomplished ploughing work which they can well be proud of. Many of them will be heard of again in the All-Ireland Competitions. A word of praise must be tendered to the energetic and hard working Messrs. Laurence Valle and D. J. Kiersey, and their efficient colleagues of the Newtown Ploughing Committee, who had charge of the fixture. They handled the programme to admirable style and to the complete satisfaction of all.

The day was gloriously fine and at the conclusion of the work, Mr. John Kiersey, ex-T.D. (President) proposed a vote of thanks to the Judges, Messrs. P. Roushan, ex-T.D., Knocktoppy, Co. Kilkenny, and Michael Kiteatin, Burnane, Monaghan, and said he was quite sure the decisions were pleasing to the general public.

Mr. Pat Cummins, seconding the vote, said that nobody could dispute the decisions. The big crowd of spectators, who were composed mainly of ploughmen, placed most of the prizes as the judges had placed them.

Both judges suitably acknowledged this tribute.

WESTERN DIVISIONAL BOARD CONVENTION.

CHAIRMAN, TREASURER AND SECRETARY RE-ELECTED.

Good Year's Progress.

The twelfth annual Convention of the Western Divisional Board, G.A.A., was held in the Cinema Hall, Tallow, on Sunday last.

Prior to the business, Mr. Frank Ryan, former Chairman of the Western Board, extended, on behalf of the Tallow Club and Gaels, a hearty welcome to all the delegates. He added that he was glad to see the old familiar faces of Moss Conery and J. F. O'Donnell still present. He also expressed the wish to be associated with the vote of sympathy passed to the late Mr. "Locky" Byrne.

Opening the proceedings, the Chairman, Mr. S. Moloney, N.T., thanked Mr. Ryan and the local Gaels for the hearty welcome which was extended to the delegates of the Gael. He said he hoped that all the delegates had received copies of the secretary's report and statement of accounts and agenda, and that they would voice their opinions freely thereon and on all matters coming before the Convention and give the Board their wholehearted co-operation in the coming season, as they did in the year just passed, and thus strengthen the foundation of G.A.A. activities in West Waterford. He was also sure that the delegates and club members fully appreciated the work done by their secretary during 1940, especially in preparing his report, agenda, and statement of accounts. From the latter they could see that there was a substantial credit balance to carry forward, which was a tribute to the hon. secretary, treasurer, and to the organisation as a whole, and should stimulate their efforts in 1941.

On the proposal of Mr. D. O'Sullivan, seconded by Mr. John Hayes, the minutes of the last Convention was taken as read and duly signed.

The Secretary then submitted his report and statement of accounts, and on the motion of Mr. J. Cunningham, Tallow, seconded by Mr. M. Connerly, Kinsalebeg, both were adopted.

The following officials were in attendance—Mr. S. Moloney, N.T., Chairman; Mr. E. Brady, deputy Vice-Chairman; Mr. S. Dwyer, Treasurer; Mr. T. Kyne, Secretary; members of County Board, Messrs. D. Goode, O'Donnell, Brady. Delegates—Dungarvan, Messrs. T. McCarthy, O'Conner, Fielding, Kelleher, Abbeyside, Messrs. Foley and Hayes, Shamrock, Messrs. Sullivan and Ryan, Pike, Mr. P. Lynch; Fourmilewater, Messrs. Grant and Keane; Faha, Messrs. Casey and Foley; Sliabh na Cuia, Messrs. Coffer and McGrath; Nire, Messrs. O'Grady and O'Mara; Lismore, Messrs. Regan, Bransfield and Duggan; Tallow, Messrs. Cunningham, Burke, Curley and McCarthy; Cappoquin, Messrs. McGrath and Ryan; Moorshill, Messrs. Baldwin and Neville; Kinsalebeg and Aglish, Messrs. Connerly and Cotgrove; St. Carthage's, Messrs. Willoughby, Kiely, Lynch, Ryan, Sean-Cabhail, Messrs. P. McCarthy and McGrath; Clashmore, Messrs. Aherne and Fitzgerald; Knockanore, Messrs. Joyce and Neville.

STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTS. Having carefully examined the balance sheet, the Chairman complimented the Secretary on having everything in order.

Referring to the league, the Secretary said it was a failure and receipts were very bad. Mr. Foley added that with regard to over-charges being made by clubs, any club should not take a match if they could not agree with the 33 per cent. basis without over-charge. Clubs should try and make and effort.

The Secretary intimated that they could carry out the rule stricter.

On the proposition of Mr. Cunningham, seconded by Mr. Connerly, the statement of accounts was adopted.

The Secretary's report was then read as follows:—

SECRETARY'S REPORT. A Chairde—I herewith submit for your adoption statement of accounts and report of the working of the Western Divisional Board for 1940. I am glad to be able to report a credit balance on the year's working. The affiliation of clubs was almost up to last year's record of 38 clubs. This year the number was 35 clubs and they fielded 35 teams as against the 1939 record entry of 60 teams. The fall in clubs was due to the failure to affiliate three minor clubs who entered in 1939 at the reduced minor rate. The fall in entries into the championships in 1940 as compared with 1939 was due to those three minor clubs failing to enter and two junior teams of 1939 joining in with other clubs. The falling off in clubs and entries does not in any way indicate a reduction in Gaelic games in our area, because the number of games and number of players taking part was never higher. It goes rather to show that the clubs are joining forces in different areas to produce better teams. The games are safe in West Waterford, and with the exception of a few isolated areas, each district has its cumann.

The divisional winners for 1940 were as follows—J.H. Lismore; J.F. Knockanore; M.H. Dungarvan; M.F. St. Carthage's. I congratulate those clubs and especially those who later went on to bring county honours to our division. Our championships were finished in good time, although we had a heavy programme of nearly 50 games in the competitions. The early start in the year showed good results. Objections and appeals were numerous, but the firm handling of those cases by the Boards concerned will tend to stop any objections which might be contemplated in the coming year with a view to getting a "second go" at the winning team. There was not one single replay resulting from objections in the year.

The motion, to the Convention cover any improvements that I could recommend for the coming year. That one in particular insurance of our fields, is one of great importance to the Board. A few points that club secretaries should note in their own interests are:—(1) All applications for transfers, permits, etc., should give full particulars and be accompanied by the fees if so required. This will save much correspondence being referred back from meeting to meeting. (2) Gate returns, referees' reports, etc., should be returned within the time limit. Failure to do so causes incomplete records and may mean a source of loss to the Board. (3) Blank transfer forms should always be returned when not used. Every year this causes a big loss in stationery and is a heavy drain on the Board's funds. (4) Registers should be fully completed within required time, and secretary's name and address should be clearly given in Irish. Change of secretary should be notified at once. (5) Additions to registers should be written fully on Irish watermarked paper and of such size as to allow same to be pinned to the club register already sent in.

I desire to thank the clubs for my return as Secretary for 1941, and I will try to give good service to the Board. I extend a hearty new year's greeting to all our clubs for a record year.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS. Messrs. Sean Ormonde, N.T. and Chas. Curran, Clashmore wrote, withdrawing their names from the number of contestants for the Chairmanship. Messrs. J. Moloney and J. F. O'Donnell were then left to contest the seat. On a poll, Mr. Moloney was re-elected by 30 votes to 14 for Mr. O'Donnell.

Messrs. M. Foley, N.T.; Moss Conery, and J. Hayes expressed the desire to withdraw their names from those contesting the Vice-Chairmanship. On a poll between the two remaining candidates, Messrs. J. Mason and D. O'Sullivan, the former was elected by 20 votes to 18.

Mr. James Goode having withdrawn, Messrs. J. Dwyer and James Hayes contested the treasurership, the former being elected by 40 votes to 4.

Messrs. J. Goode, C. Curley, M. Regan, W. Lineen, M. Foley, N. Kelly and J. Mason went forward for three representatives on the County Board. The result of the first poll was—J. Goode 27; M. Foley 24; C. Curley, 21; Regan, 21; Lineen, 10; Kelly, 2; Mason, 19.

Messrs. Goode and Foley were declared elected, and Lineen and Kelly were then eliminated, which left three candidates for the third seat.

A poll resulted as follows—Regan, 24; Curley, 12; Mason, 9. Mr. Regan was declared elected.

MOTIONS. (1) That 75 per cent. of the funds on hands be divided between the junior clubs in the ratio of the number of matches played by each club in the 1940 championships—Lismore.

The Heroes of Youghal.

'Tis not in the ink of a foeman's pen Shall our freedom's script be writ. But in the blood of men who stood And battled with death for it.

Comdt. O'Reilly and Volunteer Fitzgerald, executed and buried in the prison grounds, Waterford, January, 1923; re-interred in the Republican Plot, Youghal, October, 1924, after a public funeral and amidst impressive scenes.

We'll sing of those heroes the valiant Who fell by the Suir's glancing wave Now they sleep by the banks of Blackwater With their comrades the dauntless and brave.

They fought with the boys of the Column And answered young freedom's clear call. Brave O'Reilly and gallant Fitzgerald Who died with their backs to the wall.

So remember the heroes of Youghal Who fought for the old land and died. They're now with our martyrs in heaven With Kevin and Pearce and MacBride.

'Tis for Ireland we die," sang the heroes As they marched unafraid to their doom, "And we're going to meet up in heaven When our bodies lie cold in the tomb."

The last sad farewell then was taken. Like brothers they kissed tenderly. Proud and straight stood those soldiers of Erin Who died that our land might be free.

So remember the heroes of Youghal Who fought for the old land and died. They're now with our martyrs in heaven With Kevin and Pearce and MacBride.

They faced the grim rifles when ready. Their bearing majestic and steady. Oh! God, that such men had to die. Then forth from the guns pealed a volley, Their blood gushing forth like red rain. And there in the yard of the prison Fitzgerald and O'Reilly were slain.

So remember the heroes of Youghal Who fought for the old land and died. They're now with our martyrs in heaven With Kevin and Pearce and MacBride.

Sleep on, valiant soldiers of Erin. Sleep on with the brave and the true. You gave your young lives for the Nation. What more could the noblest do? But boys from the Suir to Blackwater. 'Twill never be forgotten their fame. And the four winds of Erin forever Shall echo each young hero's name.

So remember the heroes of Youghal Who fought for the old land and died. They're now with our martyrs in heaven With Kevin and Pearce and MacBride.

Mr. Foley proposed a direct negative, in agreement with Mr. Kyne.

Mr. O'Connor added that he thought it would be a good thing, not alternately but occasionally.

This was adopted. (4) That Divisional Boards allow reasonable travelling expenses of teams representing them in the county finals.—St. Carthage's.

Mr. O'Connor asked that he thought it would be a good thing, not alternately but occasionally.

Mr. J. F. O'Donnell—I propose that "Western Divisional Board" be inserted instead of "Divisional Boards," and this was adopted.

(5) That the net gate of any West Divisional fixture remaining after all expenses are paid be divided as follows—60 per cent. to Board and 40 per cent. to be divided between the teams taking part.—Dungarvan.

Mr. Kelleher moved the adoption of the motion, Mr. Foley seconded, and the motion was passed.

(6) That season tickets for admission to all Western Board fixtures be issued by the Board.—Dungarvan.

Mr. Foley—You have regular patrons attending matches of poor standard. That ticket would entitle them to go into any match in the division.

Secretary—The man who can put his hand in his pocket and produce the price of the season ticket gets the concession. The poor man can't get it.

The motion was defeated by 30 votes to 6.

(7) That at all fixtures held under the control of the Western Divisional Board, the pitch where games are played be covered by insurance for civil liability.—Dungarvan.

DUNGARVAN PRIEST HONOURED IN AUSTRALIA

First Priest To Volunteer As Chaplain To Australian Imperial Force.

TRIBUTES AT FAREWELL FUNCTION.

We are indebted to a North Queensland reader for the following which recently appeared in an Australian journal and which we have much pleasure in re-printing:—

On Wednesday night last Bishop Heavey, clergy and parishioners gathered together to bid farewell and God-speed to Rev. Fr. Whelan, O.S.A., who is leaving this morning for an appointment with the A.I.F. as chaplain. The Mayor (Ald. W. A. Collins) presided, and the guests at the official table were Bishop Heavey, O.S.A.; the guest of honour (Rev. Father Whelan, O.S.A.); Very Rev. Fathers T. Hunt, O.S.A., P.P. (Cairns); L. P. Maddock, O.S.A. (Victoria); J. W. Larkih. O.S.A., P.P. (Mareeba); J. J. Hogan, O.S.A., P.P. (Tully); Rev. Fathers E. B. Hogan, O.S.A., P.P. (Mossman); P. A. Doyle, O.S.A., P.P. (Atherton); W. J. Wallace, O.S.A., P.P. (Gordonvale); C. N. McCarthy, O.S.A. and J. H. Hooper, O.S.A. (Cairns); J. P. O'Mahony, O.S.A.; E. Clifford, O.S.A.; P. J. O'Farrell, O.S.A. (Innisfail); Mr. R. T. McManus (Chairman Cairns Harbour Board), Mr. T. G. Dillon, and Mr. J. Lender.

Three orchestral numbers were rendered by St. Monica's Convent High School. "Minuet in G." "Neapolitan Song," and "Ave Maria." The artists were: Pianist Mary Signorini; violinists, Shirley O'Connell, Beryl and Joyce Reynolds, Bonnie Lees, Mary Levy. Miss Gloria Reid sang sweetly "Kilbarney" and "Just for Today," while an eulogium by Miss Leonie Hoskins, "All Shall Pass Away," was much appreciated. Mr. W. Gates delighted with his rendition of "Doona" and "Trees."

Speeches were made by the Mayor, Bishop Heavey, Mr. R. T. McManus, and responded to by the guest of honour. A suitable offering was also made. The rooms were tastefully arranged with flowers from the garden of Miss B. Cleary. A dainty supper was supplied and served by members of the C.D.A. (Cairns branch), under the direction of the President (Mrs. A. D. Shambrook).

MAYOR'S TRIBUTE. The Mayor said: "This indeed a very important occasion when we have gathered to bid adieu to Father Whelan, and it brings clearly to our minds the stress and turmoil which exists in the world, making it necessary for Father Whelan to leave us. Our thoughts will follow him and we cannot but hope and believe that he will come back one day to the good people of North Queensland, with whom he has been associated so long. I know it is in the life of every priest god where duty calls him. Wherever the duties of Father Whelan may call him, in the air, on the sea or on the land, we feel that he will be at home with his men. I have never met a person whom I have considered deserving of affection as he has. He is one of those friendly persons, possessing a genial disposition, devotedness to duty, which are the characteristics of a good priest. In his associations with the military, his work for the Prince of Peace will be of the greatest importance. Wherever souls are to be saved a priest will do his duty, and up to the last moment of his life the priest will be there performing the duties of his high office."

"We feel very proud indeed to participate in this function when the first priest of the north is being farewelled. We shall have a very good priest representing the district of Cairns, as a chaplain in the fighting forces. Father Whelan is one of whom we are more than proud, and he can rest assured that everyone in North Queensland will be more than interested in his future wellbeing."

His Lordship, Bishop Heavey, said: "I suppose after the guest of the evening, I myself am the most interested in this affair, because I will have to try and replace Fr. Whelan somehow, but considering the circumstances of the time, it will be hard to replace him. This even may seem to be sudden, but it is not as sudden as it seems, because long ago Father Whelan gave his name for duty as a chaplain in the army to help our soldiers wherever his aid was needed, either here or overseas. But, of course, we cannot be firm and rigid, the applicant came only two days ago. I wish to offer my thanks to the Mayor, who referred very eloquently to the duties of a chaplain, because they are very serious indeed, and are of inestimable value to the army. The chaplain even in his person is a reminder to the soldiers of the higher things. He speaks to them of their ultimate destiny. He instructs them with regard to God and their fellowmen. He directs their footsteps in a way of righteousness. Father Whelan is going to carry out this serious duty with all his heart and strength, and I, therefore, join my voice with the Mayor in wishing him every success."

DUTY OF A PRIEST. The Chairman of the Cairns Harbour Board (Mr. R. T. McManus) said: "This is an unusual occasion, probably the first of its kind in which we have participated during the grave period through which we are passing, and I think it is fitting that the applicant be extended to Father Whelan. Sir Philip Gibbs, a war correspondent during the period 1914-1918 stated that 'the chaplain at work in war-time was characteristic of the high office of those men who were under the First Command of the Cross.' It readily comes to our minds just what a duty a priest has to perform amid the tumult and carnage of war, and a feeling comes to all of us of the greatest pride in knowing that these men are never daunted, particularly in serving the soldiers during their dying hours, attending their spiritual needs, taking messages from them for com-

THE SHORTAGE OF BAR IRON TO-DAY

Is appalling, and the price prohibitive, and this applies especially to Horse Shoe Iron. Anticipating this scarcity we purchased early last year a tremendous quantity of Swedish Horse Shoes in every shape and size. We need not remind you that Swedish Horse Shoes are the finest in the world, and give wonderful wear, and the price will be less than half the present prices.

We would appeal to every farmer to purchase half a dozen sets to carry him over the winter. We cannot advise you too strongly on giving this matter your serious attention, as we know that in a very short time it will be impossible to purchase any class of horse shoes, or the iron to make them. Send us your order at once while the quality is good and the price reasonable. Remember we deliver all goods free to your door.—Harpur Brothers, Ironmongers and House Furnishers, Waterford.

communication to their own people, doing what is not possible for any other human to do. This task is not going to be anything very easy; it does not mean merely a trip abroad and the pleasant association with troops in camp; it means something more, demanding the greatest service, in a Catholic sense, to those men who will need his services. We who are left behind to admire him in our hearts for his greatest gesture in joining the forces and associating himself with the struggle and the effort of Australia in this war. We can assure him that he is taking the good wishes of all the people of North Queensland, and we do hope from our hearts that he will return to us having discharged the noble duties to which he has just subscribed."

FATHER WHELAN'S RESPONSE. Rev. Father Whelan, responding, said: "This is a most embarrassing occasion for me, because, when I offered my services to the army, I had hoped to leave quietly for the distant scenes of my future labours. However, things have been arranged otherwise, and I find myself to-night the recipient of the prayers and good wishes of so many kind people. I hope that wherever duty may call me, I will do honour to my God and to my country. I am deeply grateful to each and every one, and I shall gladly do my best to live up to all the hopes which have been placed in me to-night."

Noted—Rev. Fr. Whelan, O.S.A., who is a son of our popular townsmen, Mr. John Whelan, Emmet Terrace, was over a great favourite in his native Dungarvan. His many friends here will be proud, though not surprised to learn that he is the first to volunteer for such an arduous and dangerous post.

Fr. Whelan was raised to the priesthood in the Friary Church, Dungarvan by Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore in July, 1931.

WATERFORD CO. BOARD MEETING. Many Matters Discussed.

At a meeting of the above held in Egan's Hotel on Tuesday night last Mr. M. V. O'Donoghue, B.E., chairman, presided. Also present were: Mr. D. Goode, Secretary; Messrs. W. Walsh, M. McCarthy, P. Aherne, D. McCarthy, T. Kyne, M. Foley, M.A., N.T.; J. O'Donnell, E. Brady, J. Goode, M. Creagh, M. O'Connor, C. Ware, Waterford, J. Hayes and P. Kelleher, Portlawn, Ted Wall; Mr. Simon, M. Gallagher, P. Duggan; Erin's Own, J. Ware, P. McDonald; St. Stephen's, Br. Brendan, D. Galvin; Clona, P. J. O'Sullivan.

PORTLAWN v. EASTERN BOARD. Portlawn club lodged an appeal against the system of voting at the recent Eastern Divisional Board Convention.

Mr. Wall said that there were fifty delegates present at the meeting. Three members were to be elected as representatives to the Co. Board. Therefore, he added in all there were 150 votes.

Mr. Creagh added that any candidate must have 38 or more votes to have a clear majority. The Eastern Divisional Board's quota was 28 votes. Then it was possible for five candidates to get this quota, therefore that could not be right.

Mr. Wall—if it's possible to elect four with 37 votes each then is 28 a clear majority.

The Chairman said he was very much impressed by the appellants, Wall and Creagh. He admitted this system had some grave defects and he suggested that the matter should go before the Co. Convention next Sunday.

When requested by Mr. Creagh to make a ruling on the matter, The Chairman said he was tied down to procedure. He had no power now. The matter was deferred to the Co. Convention to be held in Dungarvan on Sunday next.

DISCIPLINARY MATTERS. Arising out of the referee's report of the M.H. final between Dungarvan and Clona Messrs. W. Barron and P. Nagle appeared before the Board charged with misbehaviour.

Mr. Barron gave an explanation of his conduct and said he was sorry for what had happened and he apologized to the Board.

The Chairman, however, did not accept Mr. Nagle's explanation, and a suspensory sentence of twelve months was imposed on him, to take effect if he was implicated in any like occurrence.

Arising out of the referee's report on the junior hurling final, J. Deasy, Erin's Own and J. Bransfield, Lismore, appeared before the board to give explanations of their conduct at the junior hurling final played at Dungarvan.

After explanations had been given no action was taken.

Concerning a civil bill issued to the members of the Board, Mr. W. Walsh said everything had been settled up-satisfactorily.

An application for referee's expenses in connection with the M.H. final, by R. Galvin, was ruled out of order.

SYMPATHY. A vote of sympathy was passed to the relatives of the late Mr. Loughlin Byrne. The Chairman, Messrs. C. Ware, Walsh, Gallagher and O'Donnell spoke favourably on the process of the late Mr. Byrne as a hurier and a gentleman.

O'MAHONY BROS. IMPORTANT NOTICE. WE DESIRE TO ANNOUNCE THAT WE ARE PREPARED TO MAKE OUTSIDE PANEL DOORS, MOULDED IN THE SOLID, AT 12/6 EACH. ALSO FRAMES, WINDOWS, AND ALL OTHER JOINERY AT SIMILARLY KEEN PRICES. CUSTOMERS TO SUPPLY OWN MATERIALS.

KILMATHOMAS NOTES

SYMPATHY. The Fahs, Stradbally, and Killossanty Gaelic Clubs, respectively, voted condolence with the family of the late Mr. Thomas Connors, Fahs, who was a sterling supporter of the national codes.

RABBITING. Not less than 100 trappers have been operating in Killossanty parish since the 1st, and big consignments of bunnies are still being sent from the district.

THE WEATHER. Conditions climatical were attuned to a veritable Arctic "Blitzkrieg" within the week, and as result of the formidable display on the part of our erstwhile fickle friend, "Mr. Weatherman," many young and old people in our midst are on the sick list at the moment.

The farmers of these parts are bravely striving their utmost with plough and tractor to break a record acreage of arable land for spring sowing and planting.

BY THE WAY. Strikes it would be a very wise move on the part of the I.L.C. to immediately divide the untenanted farm they hold at Curraheen, Killossanty, between suitable local applicants for tillage purposes. A pity to see such a fine place lying almost derelict.

ROAD MENDING. Gangs of County Council workmen, in charge of competent overseers James Torpey (Glendalligan) and Walter Walsh (Ballymabanogue), respectively, are at present quarrying at Leamybrien, and resurfacing, steamrolling and tar-spraying the road leading from there to Killossanty village, via the local Garda Síochána Station. They are also widening this much-used stretch and piping the old water-drains linked to it. We are informed that the road from Curraheen level, crossing to Mahonbridge, and the Lyre road, are both listed for a similar course of improvement in the coming weeks. Good to find good work going on!

DWELLINGHOUSE GUTTED. The residence, at Shanacoe (near Durrrow), Stradbally, of Mrs. Stacia Burke (widow), farmer, was completely gutted by fire in the early hours of Sunday night last. The deservedly popular owner and her young family fortunately escaped unhurt. The origin of the outbreak has not been traced.

PETROL SHORTAGE. Due to the scarcity of petrol, a very large number of automobiles have gone off the road in Mid-Waterford, and owners of hackney vehicles in particular are handicapped. There is a marked increase in the number of push-bicycles now in daily use in every parish.

BROUGHT DOWN. A barrage balloon, which evidently had broken away from its moorings somewhere beyond the shores of Eire, was brought down in the vicinity of Kill village on Monday.

SOLD. The farm of the late Mr. Thomas McGrath, Ballyshunock, Kilmathomas, containing 108 acres, S.M. plot dwelling-house and outbuildings, and subject to annuity of £13 18s. 10d. p.m., F.L.V. 257 56, has been bought by private treaty for £500 guineas, by Mr. Edmund Cummins, Newtown, do. The sale was conducted by Messrs. John D. Palmer and Son, M.I.A.A., Waterford, and Mr. T. Kiersey, solr., do, had carriage of the transaction.

ON WITH THE DANCE! Under the aegis of the Tramore District Command, L.D.F., will be held a 3rd and gala long cinderella dance at the popular New Hall, Kilmathomas, on to-be-row (Sunday) night. Music will be supplied by Peter Cody and his Band (Carrick-on-Suir). Admission, 3/6 (inclusive of customary capital catering by the Hall Management). Special buses will leave the Clock Tower, Waterford, at

POVERTY DISEASES OF ANIMALS

Troubles Make Trouble.

Animals in poor condition and with rough dirty coats are more prone to become infested with lice, ringworm or mange than those which are better fed and cared for, and it is to be expected that such troubles will not be far away this winter owing to the feeding stuffs shortage.

Young cattle are the most susceptible to these troubles, although no age is exempt. Since these parasitic infestations tend still further to lower condition and depress vitality, a vicious circle which soon leads to general weakness.

If the victim becomes infested also by intestinal worms, or by the lung worms, even slight infestations which a healthy and vigorous subject would survive, may well prove fatal.

Cattle become infested by two species of lice, one being a blood-sucker and the other a crawler which travels about the body, feeding on the surface of the skin, causing extreme irritation and loss of hair. Both of these parasites are visible to the naked eye, but the blood-suckers are roughly twice the size of the scale-eaters.

Most of the dips will kill lice. Derris kills their eggs or nits as well as the adults. Dipping in severe weather, however, is not always practical, and resort has then to be made to powdering, either with derris or with tobacco powder.

By powdering once a month young stock can be kept fairly free from lice, but once they become badly infested, weekly treatment for 3 to 4 weeks is needed to free them. The weekly treatment means more work, of course, but it is well worth it.

Keeping young stock clean allows them to make better use of what feeding stuffs come their way.

Mange parasites cannot be seen by the eye without a magnifying glass, but they cause intense itching and loss of hair, thickening up of the skin, and scurfiness, but as a rule, except in neglected cases, they confine themselves to the neck and rump. In such cases as these, powdering is not effective, but dipping, or the dressing of the body all over, once weekly for 3 to 4 weeks, together with the application of sulphur ointment, well rubbed into the visibly affected parts two or three times a week, should be the treatment.

This trouble also calls for the cleansing, scraping and disinfection of all rubbing places, as the parasites can survive off the body for at least a month, and they may live even longer under certain conditions.

Ringworm is caused by vegetable parasites or fungi, which reproduce themselves by seeds or spores. The fungus attacks the hairs of the part and causes the hair to fall out about skin level, leaving a bare circular patch, which may, however, run together and form large irregular bald patches.

The affected skin is covered with greish scales or scurf, which later may become crusts and scabs, but itches is usually slight compared with lice or mange.

When treating ringworm it must be borne in mind that it is contagious to human beings. Wear close-fitting cap, overalls, and wash the hands in disinfectant immediately after handling a case or, better still, wear rubber gloves.

There are many effective remedies for ringworm, but any of them will fail to kill the fungus unless they come in intimate contact with it. To ensure this, the affected parts must first be cleared of all scales, scabs or crusts with hot water, soap and soda, applied with friction with a piece of coarse sacking, which should be burned after use.

Tincture of iodine, sulphur ointment (1-5), 2 per cent. solution of formalin, or a dressing composed of 1 part crosete, 7 parts linseed oil, and a 10 per cent. solution of salicylic acid in Friar's Balsam are suitable remedies.

These dressings, with the exception of the sulphur ointment, which may be well rubbed in every day, are best put on with a brush three or four times weekly, not only on the bald patches, but including a wide margin of skin around them, as the disease spreads outwards from the edges.

To make dressings easier and more effective, the hair is best clipped away all round the affected parts. Cased which hang free, and do not respond readily, may be cured by a different dressing.

Ringworm is difficult to prevent, because the spores are carried in the air, and settle in the dust on overhead beams in the building and from thence fall to the bodies of cattle beneath. All woodwork and rubbing places should, however, be scraped and cleaned with a boiling solution of washing soda in water, 1 oz. to the gallon, and then be disinfected with a 4 per cent. solution of carbolic acid in hot water, or other efficient disinfectant. ### Death of well-known Co. Waterford Cattle Dealer.

MR. THOMAS CONNORS, FAHA.

As was briefly chronicled in the previous issue, Mr. Thomas Connors died at his home at Fahs, Kilmathomas, on Thursday morning of last week, and by the sad event the Decies has lost one of its best-known and most highly respected and popular figures.

Worthy member of a fine old family stock, he was a prominent cattle dealer and one of the most extensive, progressive and successful dairy and tillage farmers in his native county. Honest as the day, Tom Connors (as he was affectionately called) was, indeed, a beautiful example of what a truly Catholic Irish citizen should be, and the devoted sons and daughters he has left greatly mourn his loss. They have lost a remarkable father, noted for his whole-hearted unselfishness where their welfare was concerned; at all times affectionate, sympathetic and charitable, not only to the members of his own family, but to all who had the good fortune of calling him a friend.

From his early days he took an active part in every local movement which had for its objects the improvement of economic conditions in the country and the betterment of the people amongst whom he lived. He will be remembered best by his numerous friends for his straightforward and upright manner and his cheerful and genial disposition at all times. Among those who will regret his passing will be found many poor and destitute.

A sportsman through and through, he always harboured a great grasshopper deep in his heart for the games and pastimes of the Gael. The members of the Fahs Club, at their annual general meeting on the 9th inst., voted thanks to him for giving them the use of a splendid field for training and match-playing purposes. Two of his brothers—Mr. Nicholas Connors, Park, Stradbally, and the late Mr. Pat Connors, Curraheen, Killossanty (the birthplace of the family) were on the famous Killossanty football team of twenty-one which, in 1888, brought the County Championship to the historic parish for the first time. Three of his sons have been footballing with Fahs, and one of them (Jim) is captain of the team. His nephew, Percy Kirwan, of Drumlohan, captain of the Stradbally senior football team, which won the County Championship last year, and which includes two other nephews of the deceased—Jim and Nickey Connors of Park.

The late Mr. Connors was a notably successful breeder and exhibitor of thoroughbred livestock. An expert in all matters appertaining to the farming industry, his valued advice was thoroughly appreciated by his neighbours, whom he gladly helped all in his power.

Although in failing health for some months past, deceased did not at any period of his illness lose his patient, lovable disposition. Fortified by the rites of his Religion, he died a holy and a happy death—just nineteen months after the passing of his own and his happy name, the late Mr. Connors was a man to be relied upon and he gave freely to the demands of any deserving cause. He has passed beyond recall, but the good men do lives and his name will live on in the memory of us all. We will never forget the recollection of his natural simplicity, the charm of his character, the warmth of his affection, and loyalty of his friendship.

Amidst all the progress of his busy life he never forgot the welfare of his employees and in all he did for them there was evident his careful thought and mature consideration to ensure the absence of maudlin sentimentality or anything that might look like charity and effect in any way the self-respect of his workmen.

His hospitality knew no bounds and nothing pleased him more, after his long day's work was finished, than to gather his friends around him. He made a charming host, and when he related anecdotes and joked with his guests it was difficult to recognize in him the man of such genius in business.

No picture of Tom Connors would be truly drawn which omitted reference to his affection for the friends of his boyhood, and his love of children. With childhood's insight the little ones read his character, knew him to be their friend, and one of the kindest men that ever lived. There was his sense of justice, fairness. He was the last man to do any injustice, and the first if injustice were done to put it right. It was one of the qualities of his character that we admired greatly. Though he is gone from our midst, we will long feel the inspiration of his example, and be the better for having had for a friend this great-hearted, broad-minded, wonderfully kind and human man. Better spiteful no neighbour need desire. May his soul find everlasting peace in the Mansions of the Blest; and may God comfort the bereaved ones in the heavy loss they have sustained.

On Friday the remains were removed to St. Bridget's Parish Church Killossanty where they were rested overnight on a catafalque before the High Altar. The accompanying cortege on the occasion was fully two miles in length, and, despite petrol restrictions, there were 177 motor-cars in the imposing procession, which was representative of all counties in Munster, as well as of several counties of the adjacent Province of Leinster—truly a magnificent tribute of public respect to the memory of a man who was a familiar personage at the principal fairs and agricultural shows in the land over the last two score of years.

In Saturday morning at 10.30 o'clock Solemn Office and Requiem High Mass were sung at which the Very Rev. R. Crovy, P.P., Killossanty, presided. The Rev. J. Walsh, C.C., Carrickbeg (cousin of the deceased), was celebrant of the Mass; deacon, Rev. J. Harty, C.C., Carrick-

"LOCKY" BYRNE DEAD

Passing of Brilliant Waterford Hurler.

Played in Several All-Ireland Finals.

Gaels throughout his native County Kilkenny, in Waterford City and district, will learn with deep regret of the death, which occurred on Saturday last in a Dublin nursing home, of a brilliant young Waterford hurler in the person of Loughlin Byrne hero of many a hard-fought battle on the playing field of Ireland and participant in more than one thrilling All-Ireland hurling final.

A pupil of Mount Sion Christian Brothers Schools, "Locky" Byrne, as he was known to many thousands of followers of our native pastimes, first came into prominence when with the Emeralds Club, Sollypark, he was a member of the team which won the Waterford minor hurling championship. This initial success was to prove the forerunner to many further impressive victories, for in the same year he had the distinction of being chosen to represent Waterford on the side which brought to the Suir-side county their first All-Ireland minor championship honours.

To the game which he loved so well and of which he was such an outstanding exponent he continued to devote himself with unflinching zeal and enthusiasm, and it came as no surprise when he was picked to represent at right full back, Munster in the College championship of 1930. But it was in attack rather than defence that "Locky" excelled, and it was in the forward line that he gained his most noteworthy triumphs. Speedy, nippy, alert, he was also the perfect opportunist, and when in 1935 Kilkenny gained their memorable victory over Limerick in the All-Ireland senior hurling championship at Croke Park, he played no small part in bringing this coveted honour to the home of the Black and Amber. It was through no fault of his that the victors of the previous year became the vanquished in the following September, when the Shamrocks avenged their defeat. In this same year, "Locky" was again selected to represent the county in a Railway Cup match, which he won when playing in the St. Patrick's Day final in Dublin with Leinster.

"Locky" was again with Mount Sion in 1938, when the county won the Munster championship, but, for the first time in the history of hurling in the Decies, successfully saved their rugged path to the National Stadium only to go down, with colour flying, in the ultimate stage of the senior championship in Dublin.

In addition to his other achievements, "Locky" also helped Mount Sion to win the County Waterford senior championship in 1938 and 1939. In the latter year he also figured on the victorious Munster team which won the Railway Cup final. He was the holder of two County Kilkenny senior championship medals, won several Dr. Hackett Cup medals, with Mount Sion, and was also for a period a member of strength to the Mooncoin team in their haleyoon days.

Apart from his hurling prowess, "Locky" Byrne was also a sterling Nationalist, coming as he did of a family whose work for the Cause is well-known and will be long remembered. His aunt, Mrs. E. O'Neill, was one of the foundation members of the Cumann na mBan in Waterford, and "Locky" himself played more than a man's part in helping forward the struggle for Irish freedom.

His death, coming as it does at an early age, has removed a striking young personality from the sphere of further Gaelic endeavour, and his passing creates a void which it must indeed be difficult to fill.

To the bereaved relatives we extend our sincerest sympathy.

His voice unheard; his word that echoed never
But to bespeak the soul of high emprise;
The Life that gave so much to with the Giver,
In His own Paradise!

"Dungarvan Observer" SATURDAY, JANUARY 25, 1941.

ALL IN STEP.

The struggle which won for us the measure of freedom which we enjoy to-day was essentially a people's war. It knew no distinctions of class or creed. In the army of volunteers which was its spearhead the arbitrary and artificial gradings of the social code no longer existed.

We are not at war to-day, but we have been compelled, by circumstances not of our creating, to organise our defences as never before. The danger that threatens is possibly the greatest we have ever been called upon to face, and the urgent appeal launched by the people's leaders has been magnificently responded to—responded to by all sections in a manner that is entirely in keeping a proud tradition, and if the final test comes, the army that will fight will again be a people's army.

The men and women who have joined one branch or another of our defence organisation are fully representative of the nation that we are. The man from the farm, the shopkeeper, the doctor, the nurse, the tradesman, each is playing a praiseworthy part. All are in step to-day, quiet, unselfish, resolute sons and daughters of song and story famed Rosin Dhu, ready to fight for their beloved Motherland's liberties as another gallant and kindly generation of Gaels fought two decades ago.

A Oia Tóip Eile!

LISMORE NOTES

R.I.P. The rather sudden death of Mr. David Rice, Tourtane, Lismore, which occurred at his residence on Tuesday, January 14th, 1941, after a brief illness came as a great shock to his host of friends. He was a well-known member of the farming community and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. The funeral proceeded to the Macrooney Cemetery, Kilmorth on Thursday afternoon, where he was laid to rest. A huge concourse were present to pay their last respects to such a kind and courteous gentleman. The townspeople tender their heartfelt sympathies to his sorrowing wife and children in their sad bereavement.

ATTENTION GAELS. The annual general meeting of the Lismore hurling and football clubs will take place in the Courthouse, Lismore, on Sunday, February 2nd, 1941, at 3 o'clock (S.T.). All members and intending members as well as those interested in the clubs are invited to attend.

COMPULSORY TILLAGE ORDER.

As will be seen from the announcement which appears in our advertising columns to-day, the Compulsory Tillage Order for the current year embodies a very comprehensive definition of what an occupier has to do in order to fulfil his obligation under the Order to cultivate or to have cultivated on his holding in the year 1941 a portion equivalent in extent to one-fifth of his arable land. He is required to prepare the ground for sowing or planting; to grow a crop (other than grass, clover or rape) which is capable of being used as, or converted into, human or animal food, or to grow a crop of flax or tobacco and to harvest the crop this year. All these operations must be performed in accordance with proper methods of husbandry. In some districts it is a common and in fact, a good practice, to fold sheep on turnips, and here is special provision therefore, inasmuch as the Order provides that a crop may be used as a growing crop subject, however, to such use being in accordance with proper methods of husbandry. Wheat, oats, barley or rye sown in 1940 for harvesting in 1941 are regarded as having been sown in 1941. Land cultivated in 1941, either in concave or by allotment holders, will, for the purposes of the Order, be regarded as cultivated by the occupier.

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL

Mr. Thomas McCarthy (Vice-Chairman) presided at the weekly meeting of the above on Friday night. Also present—Messrs. P. Quinn, J. Dahill, P. Byrne, P. O'Dwyer.

PAYMENTS. Payments on the unemployment relief grant (Marsh scheme) for £51 16s. 8d. and on the general account £18 15s. 7d. were presented and passed.

BACK DOORS FOR LOUGHMORE HOUSES.

A number of the tenants in Loughmore wrote asking that back doors be supplied for their houses.

Mr. Dahill—I thought we got a contract for all the doors required.

Clerk—We accepted a contract for 12. Mr. Quinn—No doubt any houses facing east require back doors.

The applications were referred to the Borough Surveyor.

RENT OF DUNGARVAN FORESHORE.

The Department of Industry and Commerce wrote reminding the Council that the sum of 1/6, being the rent of the above-named foreshore for the year ending 31st January, 1941, is now due. Please forward remittance as soon as possible. The cheque should be crossed and made payable to the Superintendent, Mercantile Marine Office, Dublin.

Mr. Quinn—It's a pity all our demands are not as small as that.

HOUSE WANTED.

A lady named Wright of Sunbury-on-Thames, Middlesex, wrote asking for a house in Dungarvan or vicinity at a rent of about 15/- a week.

No action was taken on the letter as no houses are available.

COUNCIL'S CARPENTRY WORK.

Mr. M. Cashman, Sheares Street Abbeyside, wrote requesting to get a job at repairing Council houses, as he understood all carpenters are to get work in turn.

The letter was referred to Mr. Brady, B.S.

TRANSFER OF PLOT.

Mr. T. C. Williams, solicitor to the Council, wrote enclosing parchment and asking the Council to get the Borough Surveyor to endorse on same a map of the portion of ground to be transferred to Mr. Michael Ryan.

Mr. Dahill—Mr. Ryan hasn't possession yet?

Clerk—No. The document is not yet signed. Mr. Brady is to make a map of the plot.

APPLICATION FOR 1 ACRE PLOTS.

Messrs. T. Lee and M. Noonan, members of the Parish Council (unemployed section) appeared before the meeting and requested the Council to give 1 acre plots to unemployed men with big families. Mr. Lee said that when you have cabbage and other vegetables planted, there is very little left for potatoes. The 1 acre is all right for single men or men with small families.

Mr. Byrne—How did it work last year?

Mr. Lee said that applications from men with large families were sent to the Department. He (the Clerk) imagined that it would not be so difficult to get the increased acreage this year.

Mr. Dahill—Will they be able to get cabbage seed at all this year?

The Clerk said in connection with seeds for allotment plots, there is an application from Messrs. O'Neill's Nurseries, Fermoy, stating they would be pleased to tender to the Council for the supply of vegetable plants for the allotment plots.

The Council decided to invite Messrs. O'Neill to tender.

VOTES OF SYMPATHY.

Votes of condolence were passed with the relatives of the late Mr. Patrick Browne O'Connell Street; the late J. V. O'Neill, Western Terrace; the late Mr. McCarthy, Cathal Brugha Place; the late Charles Coughlan, O'Connell Street; the late Mrs. Kieley, Friary Street, and the late Miss Kiely, Castle Street.

Link With Canon Sheehan

Brother of Famous Author
Interred at Mallow.

The interment took place at Mallow Churchyard on Saturday last of Mr. Denis Bernard Sheehan, Local Government auditor, deceased, who had resided at Cove for some years. He was brother of the late Very Rev. P. A. Canon Sheehan, D.D., world-famous writer. The late Mr. D. B. Sheehan was the last surviving member of the family which for generations had close affiliations with Mallow. Canon Sheehan was predeceased by his two sisters, who were members of the local Convent of Mercy community. The saintly pastor and distinguished author is interred at Doneraule, where he ministered for some years prior to his death in 1913 and where a bronze statue was erected in his memory. In Mallow two stained glass windows in St. Mary's Church were erected by the parishioners; and Gienanair and Lisheen Rows, at the new urban housing schemes, pay tribute to one of Mallow's noblest sons.

JUST COMMONSENSE

YOU need not be an Expert to realise that a Genuine Overhaul cannot be done on your Car for a few shillings. As a Motorist you would not expect a super performance from a badly worn engine, or trust your life to a run salvaged from a junk yard. Yet there ARE Motorists who toy with the idea of saving a pound or two on their Overhaul, the one item concerning which parsimony is unwise to the point of foolishness.
Have your Car Overhauled in one of the best-equipped Garages in the South. Over 200 Engines Re-bored in two years, and still going strong.

D. POWER & CO., GARAGE, DUNGARVAN.

FARMERS—Do not scrap that broken wheel, or broken part, no matter what kind of machine it is on. I can weld and machine it like new for a little more than half the price of a new one, and save you waiting time in trying to get a new part.—D. POWER & CO., DUNGARVAN.

Phelan, Furrileigh, Kilmacshomas, in her sad bereavement occasioned by the death of her equally estimable sister, Mrs. Mary Quinn (nee Stafford), relict of the late Mr. John Quinn, farmer), Ballinacourty, Cappoquin, all that was mortal of whom was reverently laid to rest in Lismore cemetery, on Tuesday evening of this week (The Light of Heaven to the gentle soul departed).
HUNT MEET POSTPONED. Due to the heavy fall of snow on Sunday night, followed by torrential rains, the meet of the Waterford Hounds arranged for Durrrow on Monday had to be postponed until the following day, when a small field experienced fairly good hunting in the area.
LATE MR. T. CONNORS, FAHA. At a specially convened meeting of the Irish Cattle Dealers' Association, held in Dublin, a vote of condolence was passed with the family of the late Mr. Thomas Connors (who was a valued member of the Association).
R.I.P. Fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church, Mr. Thomas Power, Lisnagarriff, Bunnahon, breathed his last on Tuesday morning after a brief illness and at a comparatively early age. A man of sun-gold temperament, unfailingly happy humoured, he was beloved of all who knew him. A big concourse of neighbours accompanied the removal of the remains on Wednesday evening to St. Anne's Church, Ballyhenane, where they were received by the Rev. P. F. Walsh, C.C. Stradbally, who recited the prayers for the dead. Following the celebration of Requiem Masses next morning, interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. The chief mourners included—Mr. Jas. Power, Lisnagarriff (brother); Mrs. M. Gammon, do. and Mrs. E. Williams, Ballyhenane (sisters); Mr. Edward Williams, do. and Mr. Michael Gammon, Lisnagarriff (brothers-in-law), etc.
A PETITION. We have it that the tenants of St. Anne's Terrace, Kilmacshomas, are petitioning Mr. S. J. Moyhnan, Commissioner conducting the affairs of the Waterford County Council—asking for the extension of the Kilmacshomas public electric light supply to the Terrace; the re-surfacing, steam-rolling and tar-spraying of the roadway leading thereby, and the erecting of a door at the rear of each dwelling.
DID YOU HEAR? That Kilmac' is likely to have a cinema before the present year will have spent its course?

Kilrossanty Football Club.

Annual General Meeting.

The annual general meeting of the Club was held at Leamybrien Hall on Friday, January 17th. Mr. John Drohan, P.C., presided. There was a large attendance including members from the Pike Club. The Secretary, Mr. Thomas J. Power, P.C., submitted a statement of accounts and balance sheet for the year, and stated that it was very pleasing to find the Club in such a satisfactory financial position. Looking over the year it is well to record that Kilrossanty has well-maintained its football traditions. Defending their title of senior county champions, they defeated the previous year's junior champions, Mt. Sion, after a sturdy hour, when every inch of the way had to be fought. Fighting their way into the final by their defeat of St. Stephens, they were once again matched against Stradbally. Although they didn't play up to their usual standard on this occasion, the game was a fine display of clean football, played in a friendly and sporting spirit, and Stradbally who proved themselves a better trained and a more fit team are to be heartily congratulated on their victory.
A pleasing feature which cannot be passed without mentioning was the ready response of the boys to their country's call. In June when the L.S.F. opened its ranks for recruitment, all the playing members of the Club were amongst the first to become enrolled, and they have not neglected a single opportunity since, when called upon to take their place and do their bit in the Group that they are representing, in fact, I would venture to say, they put their country before their county, and what they neglected in their football practices, they made up for it in their eagerness to serve their country's need. He was a most painstaking and energetic Chairman, and the loss of his sound advice and influence was felt most acutely.
I would like to tender on behalf of the Club our sincerest thanks to Mrs. Tennyson Boyle for his kind generosity in placing a playing pitch at our disposal at all times, also to Mrs. Bridget Croty for the free use of the Hall, both for meetings and social entertainments, and all those whose support and encouragement have helped in no small measure to maintain our enthusiasm for the great game of the Gael in our parish.
NEW CLUB FORMED. After the adoption of the reports the question of affiliating a team was considered, and owing to a number of prominent players having left to join the Army it was decided to amalgamate with the Pike Club. The new Club will be known as "Kilrossanty-Pike".
It was also decided to affiliate 3 teams from the new Club, a senior and junior football team and a junior hurling team for the coming year.
Some of the players asked to have their names sent in for regrading, and the matter was left stand over to the next meeting.
The following officers were elected for the coming year—
President—Very Rev. Fr. John Croty, P.P., Kilmacrossanty.
Chairman—Mr. John Drohan, P.C.
Vice-Chairman—Mr. Maurice Landers; Treasurer—Mr. Patrick Walsh; Hon. Sec.—T. Lynch.
Selection Committee—Messrs. Paddy McGrath, Paddy Veale, Martin Fitzgerald, Patrick Guiry, Thomas J. Power, Jim Fennell, Faddy Lynch, Martin Curran and Maurice Connors.
The above committee have power to add to their number.
Captain of senior football team—Mr. Tom Veale; Vice-Captain—Mr. Jim Fennell.
The election of captains and vice-captains for the J.H. and J.F. teams were postponed till after the first practice match.
The next meeting of the Club will be held at the Hall Leamybrien, on Friday night, January 31st, at 8 p.m. (old time). All members are requested to attend.

MOOREHILL NOTES

HURLING CLUB ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Moorehill Hurling Club was held at the L.D.F. Hall on Thursday night of last week and was attended by all the local Gaels. The report of the hon. secretaries was considered very satisfactory, and they were highly complimented on their handling of the club's affairs during the past season. The treasurer's report showed a credit balance, and he was suitably thanked on behalf of the club. A special vote of thanks was passed to Rev. Father Flynn, P.P., Knockanore, for placing the school at the disposal of the Hurling Club for 45 drives during 1940. It was decided to affiliate minor and junior teams for this year's championships, and also to hold the annual 45 drive same time as in 1940. The election of officers for 1941 then took place and resulted as follows:—Chairman, C. Donovan; vice-chairman, J. Baldwin; treasurer, H. Cody; hon. sec., W. Neville and J. Murray; committee—J. Morrison, M. Murray, M. Ahearn, J. Donohue, T. Ryan, P. Russell, V. Acres, T. Geary, and T. Ryan. The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the L.D.F. for the use of the Hall for the meeting.
L.D.F. 45 DRIVE. The first drive under the auspices of the Moorehill L.D.F. was held at their new Hall on Sunday night last, and was a great success, a very large crowd attending despite terrible weather conditions, and a very enjoyable evening followed. Although the crowd was good, it could have been better seeing it was for such a worthy object. During an interval the hon. secretary thanked all those who attended on behalf of the Moorehill L.D.F. Some very exciting and interesting games followed, and the prize-winners were—1st, H. Willis, Janeville, and P. McGrath, Moorehill; 2nd, C. O'Brien and J. Ryan, Moorehill; 3rd, M. Ahearn, Dunmoo, and J. Morrison, Kilwatemore.

L.D.F. SHOOTING COMPETITION.

The shoot-off in connection with the L.D.F. rifle competition between Tallow, Curriglass and Moorehill took place at Tallow on Sunday in very inclement weather, but in spite of this, some very close contests took place, the final score being—T. Hancock, Tallow, 40 points; S. Roberts, Moorehill, 39 points. These two will represent the district, and we wish them good luck. The teams were—Tallow, T. Hancock, T. J. Scanlon, and P. Ronnig; Curriglass, J. O'Brien, W. Hogan, J. Coleman; Moorehill, S. Roberts, M. Murray, J. Mills.

Gael Bereaved

Cork Lady's Death at Drogheda.
The news of the death of Mrs. Beatrice Kelleher, which occurred at her residence, George's Street, Drogheda, came as a severe shock to her many friends in Cork, Drogheda and other places. The deceased lady became seriously ill quite suddenly, and passed away after a few hours' illness. She was wife of Mr. J. Kelleher, the well-known Drogheda Postmaster, and mother of Mr. D. Kelleher, a highly qualified teacher in Drogheda Technical School. A native of Cork City and a member of a talented family, she resided at Highfield Avenue, Cork, before taking up her residence in Drogheda. Her husband is well known in Gaelic circles being prominently connected with the Wolfe Tone G.F.C., and secured the All-Ireland medal when playing with the London-Irish hurling team. He was also a very active member of the Cork County Board for many years, and having a very deep interest in the success and advancement of the national games, which he so admirably advocated, and never failed to pay an annual visit to Cork. He associated himself with the work of the Cork County Board. The late Mrs. Kelleher's passing is mourned by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, whose respect and esteem she won by her many amiable qualities.
The funeral left St. Peter's Church, Drogheda, after 10 o'clock Mass on Friday, and the interment took place on Saturday in St. Finbarr's Cemetery, Cork, at which a representative attendance was present as a final tribute to the deceased lady.

CAPOQUIN NOTES

NURSING ASSOCIATION WHIST DRIVE

The Cappoquin District Nursing Association whist drive, held in the Boathouse Hall on Wednesday night last, proved a most successful and enjoyable function from every point of view. Despite the prevalence of influenza and the restrictions on travelling due to the scarcity of petrol, there was a large attendance, and all had a very pleasant and enjoyable time. Mr. F. X. O'Leary, N.T., was a very efficient M.C., while invaluable assistance was rendered by Miss Bell (treasurer), and Messrs. M. J. Sargent, P.C., J. McCarthy, B.A., Fred Anderson, Geo. Healy, Austin Walsh, etc. At the interval a splendid supper was served by the pupils of the local vocational school, in charge of Miss Flynn. This was a treat which was appreciated by all. The winners of prizes were: Ladies: 1, Mrs. F. X. O'Leary, N.T.; Cappoquin; 2, Miss E. Hughes, Bellville, do.; 3, Mrs. Kingston, do.; 4, Miss Peggy O'Brien, Modeligo; 5, Mrs. M. J. Cronin, Knockalraha; 2, Mr. Sean Noonan, Cappoquin; 3, Mr. Paul Twomey, do.; 4, Mr. R. Connors, do.; 5, Mr. J. E. Crowe, do. A draw for a valuable food cake was also held, and the winner was Mr. Lath, Doonagh. When the names of the winners had been declared, the prizes were graciously presented by Mrs. E. V. Stuart, and each recipient was loudly applauded. Having presented the prizes, Mrs. Stuart addressed those present. She returned thanks to all present for supporting the good cause, and expressed the hope that they had all enjoyed themselves. She also expressed her gratitude to Mr. F. X. O'Leary for acting as M.C. and conducting the drive in such a very satisfactory manner, and to Mr. M. J. Sargent and the Rowing Club for giving the use of the hall. They were deeply grateful to all those who so kindly gave prizes, and to Miss Bell, Miss Flynn, and the pupils of the vocational school for their herculean work. (Applause.) It was then announced that Mr. Sean Noonan, who had secured the gents' second prize, had very kindly given back his prize to be auctioned for the District Nursing Association funds. Following some lively bidding, Mr. Barry, Cappoquin, was declared the purchaser.

PARISH COUNCIL

Very Rev. Father T. Fitzgerald, P.P., presided at meeting of the Cappoquin Parish Council, held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall. Amongst those present was Rev. J. S. O'Loughlin, Rector, Cappoquin, who was cordially welcomed on attending the first meeting since his election as member of the body. The Council dealt with various matters, including A.R.P., about which a letter was read from the County Secretary. It was announced that the onus of the work would be undertaken by the L.S.F. The members expressed satisfaction at the progress of the question at the well attended meeting since the election of Mr. E. O'Donnell, Rector, and O'Donnell's assistance in the matter of the unemployed and for persons who have no gardens. The hon. secretary was instructed to communicate with the Department of Agriculture, the Minister for Agriculture, and Commissioner (Mr. E. S. McGarry) on this important matter. Business of a routine nature ended the meeting.

DEATH OF MRS. E. TEMPLETON

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. E. Templeton (nee Pratt), Cappoquin. The deceased was wife of Mr. John Templeton, Dungarvan, Robert Templeton, Dublin, and Fred Templeton, (U.S.A.), and to these and her bereaved daughters and other relatives deep sympathy is extended. There was a large concourse of mourners at the removal of the remains to Cappoquin Parish Church and also at the funeral in Affane cemetery. Rev. J. O'Loughlin, Rector, Cappoquin, officiated.

DROMORE, AGLISH

TRIBUTE TO LOCAL GAEL

At the West Waterford G.A.A. Convention on Sunday last, Mr. J. Mason was elected vice-chairman of the Board for the coming year. This is a deserved tribute to Mr. Mason, who has done herculean work for the Association, and we join in congratulating him on this recognition of his services. At the Convention it was decided to hold the annual meeting for the purpose of affiliation, draws, and fixtures in Cappoquin on Sunday, 11th Feb. This is welcome news for the Gaels of these parts.

HUNTING WITH THE WEST WATERFORDS.

The West Waterfords had a good day at Crough, where they had one of the best runs of the season. The fox which recently provided another splendid run was soon away from Teatin's covert. He took the chase on a nice line to Beary's Cross and by Killooney to Kilgraney. It was a most enjoyable and exhilarating run and provided a ven mik hunt. Amongst those out were Mr. R. J. Mulcahy, M.F.H.; Mr. J. V. Stuart; Mr. R. L. Keane; Mr. H. Miles; Capt. and Mrs. Alexander; Mr. T. C. Williams; Mr. G. Cronin; Mr. J. P. Cashman; Mr. R. McGrath; Mr. M. Holley, etc.

BADMINTON.

AN ACCIDENT.

While cycling near the town, Patk. Kjelof, of Barack Street, was in collision with a boy named John Tobin of Tourin, and as a result of the impact was rendered unconscious. The accident was witnessed by a local man, and the injured boy was immediately removed to the Garda Barracks, where he was attended by a priest and doctor. Later he was removed to Durgarragh Hospital, where he is progressing satisfactorily.

LATE MRS. M. QUINN, VILLIERSTOWN.

A well known and respected West Waterford resident passed away during the past week in the person of Mrs. M. Quinn, Villierstown. ### G.A.A. NOTES

From "Clonca Castle."

The question is often asked what is wrong with Kilmac? Where in the past a stylish hurling team always flourished it is a sad state of affairs to report there are at least 15 to 20 able-bodied and healthy young men in this little town by the Mahon, whose ages range from 18 to 25 years, born hurlers all, who never think of handling the stout caman. The answer is, of course they are too soccer-minded and live in Kilmac' proper, called since Cromwells time, "Graigie-Shoonem."

I am doubtful if Clonca-Power or "Croughan Rangas" can field a decent team this year. Here's a proposition, and it should be put before the Convention next Sunday by Willie Flynn, the Clonca delegate—Allow Clonca to pick a senior hurling team from Mid-Waterford by drawing the best men from affiliated junior clubs in the area, parishes to be defined. Some will not lose their junior status and be eligible to play as such, with their respective teams in the current year's County Championship (junior grade).

Let by Sonny Power of Windgap as Captain, the following are asked to stand firm and face the wind of senior hurling team—a long time overdue—Sonny Power, Captain (from Windgap) with 30 others, Moore, Wade, Keating, Kirby and Power (Clonca); M. Downey (Goal), Burke Brothers (2), Berkie Power, Mick Whelan, "Plus" Dalton, Tom Coleman, T. McCarthy, F. Troy, T. Vesle, (Croughan) Rangas; J. O'Donnell, N.T., and Mick Keane (Durov). This is a matter for discussion at the Convention on Sunday and all genuine Gaels along the border line are most anxious that the proper teams should amalgamate for 1941.

HYGIENE IN THE HOME.

The problem of preventing infection during sleep has long occupied the attention of the scientific and medical worlds. It is a known fact that germs of colds influenza and other ills remain in ordinary mattresses to propagate and reinfect. Second-hand restored mattresses are serious carriers of disease, and so important is this matter that in the U.S.A. the sale of second-hand bedding is prohibited by law. Not until the invention of the Sanitized Process was sleep made utterly safe. This process, which was discovered after prolonged scientific research, is now incorporated in the O'Donnell Sanitized Mattresses. It renders them, in addition to being supremely comfortable, actively antiseptic, self-sterilizing, odorless and permanently germ-proof. No amount of ordinary shaking, airing, brushing, or dry cleaning can weaken this effect, and continued hygienic cleanliness is consequently ensured. More and more progressive people are replacing their old mattresses with the O'Donnell Sanitized, and thus enjoy sounder sleep and sounder health. Because this famous mattress is made only from brand-new raw materials, and because it incorporates this revolutionary health feature, sleeping on one is equivalent to having a new mattress every night. We hold full stocks in every size and colouring. Prices: very reasonable.—Harpur Brothers, House Furnishers, Waterford.

Tallow 45 Drive.

Despite unfavourable weather conditions and similar attractions locally, there was a good attendance at the fortnightly 45 drive held at the Temperance Hall, Tallow, on Sunday night last. The usual keen card-playing was evident early on, and the final were exceptionally well contested. First prize winners were Messrs. D. Savage and M. McGrath; second, Messrs. M. Curley and M. McGrath; third, Messrs. M. Mulcahy and R. McManama.

ARDMORE RESIDENT'S DEATH.

An old and respected resident of the Ardmore district passed away during the past week in the person of Mr. P. Barron. A member of a well known and popular family, deceased was a general favourite, and his demise has occasioned deep regret amongst his many friends, who with widespread sympathy is extended to his family and relatives in their bereavement. The funeral to Ardmore cemetery was of large and representative proportions. Very Rev. Fr. Byrne, P.P., and Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C., officiated.

DUNGARVAN BRANCH I.N.T.O.

The annual meeting of above was held in the Technical School, Dungarvan, on Saturday, 18th Inst. Mrs. Kennedy presided, and the following members were present—Mrs. Connors, Mrs. Conroy, Misses Walsh, Murphy, Brennock, Long, Fitzgerald, Gough, Brick, Messrs. Conroy, Breathnach, Delaney, Brennock, Cullinan. The minutes were signed and the secretary financial report was adopted. Satisfaction was expressed at the strength and financial state of the branch.

Correspondence included a letter of acknowledgment from Mr. P. O'Neill, Abbeyside N.S.; a letter from St. Joseph's Young Priests' Society (Teachers' Branch), and requests for nominations for the C.E.C.

The following officers were elected for 1941—Chairman, Mr. Tomas Breathnach; Vice-chairman, Mrs. Kennedy; Financial Secretary, Mr. Walter Cullinan.

Mr. Sean O'Connor was elected delegate to the Congress in Bundoran. Messrs. Brennock, Sean Delaney and Mrs. M. C. Browne were appointed delegates to the County Committee.

The following were nominated for the C.E.C.—Vice-President, Mr. M. Coleman. S.C. Road, Limerick; Principals' Representative, Mr. J. Mansfield, Cullen N.S., Tipperary; Assistants' Representative, Mr. D. Farrell, Cork City Branch.

Mr. Sean O'Connor, Stradbally W.S., and Mrs. Hays, of Kibirren N.S., were congratulated on their recent marriages. The following resolutions were also passed unanimously—

"We regret the unwarrantable delay in meeting justice to Mrs. Keenan, Principal of Kilkenny Girls' School; we call on the C.E.C. to do all in its power to bring this case to a satisfactory conclusion and so obviate a greater rift in that fine spirit of co-operation which for long had existed between the managers and the national teachers. The members of this branch pledge themselves unconditionally to give all the moral and material support in their power towards this end."

"We strenuously protest against the utter neglect and indifference in the very important matter of putting the provisions of the heating and cleaning grant into effect in our primary schools, and we assert that the conditions prevailing in very many of these schools is a disgrace to any boasted civilisation. In this respect the neglect is so glaring that one is forced to the conclusion that we in this country are only emerging from barbarism."

"We again strongly protest against the very unjust marriage rule in the case of lady teachers, and especially as so many are obliged to retire on partial pensions only. We are of opinion that a test-case in the law courts ought to be again considered by the C.E.C. We claim that these teachers be continued till 1941, for full pension or, alternatively, a sufficient number of years be added to their service to entitle them to full pension."

Western Div. G.A.A. Notes

The latest news from Faha Cumann is that the annual general meeting was a great success. Nicholas Casey was re-elected Sec. for the year. A good man for a difficult post. The use of a splendid field was secured from Mr. Tom Connors of Faha, the Hon. President of the Club. It was decided to enter a junior hurling and junior football team in the championship under the control of a trainer. The position of trainer to be given to a veteran Gael from the district. Nick Casey will have the support of a highly efficient and interested committee in the club management. A great year is in store for this Club if they continue on those lines.

News of the above meeting was received late for last week's notes and I have since learned with regret that Mr. Tom Connors, Faha, Kilmacthomas who was Hon. President of the Club and who so kindly gave the Club the use of his field for their matches has died rather suddenly. I am but expressing the feelings of the Division in offering the relatives of the late Mr. Connors the sincere sympathy of the Western Clubs. Faha Club and the Kilmacthomas district have lost a good friend who's place it will be difficult to fill. We can all afford the loss of those who stand for all that's good and upright in Irish life.—R.I.P.

The hurling clubs around the Kilmacthomas area are pressing for a senior team to be selected from the junior clubs in this district. The juniors not to lose their junior status by competing in the senior ranks. The idea is not new. There are several objections to it that caused it to fall before. One is that the expense of getting the team together should be met by the Division concerned and this has before proved considerable. The second objection is that it is difficult to get a committee to select the team and run it. The third is that it is often considered unfair for a Division Group team to put out a weak senior team by playing the pick of sometimes four or five good junior clubs. That a good group team could be got in the area I have no doubt but that it would improve hurling in the area I do not doubt.

My friend "Pete" from Kilmacthomas district is very keen on a Mid-Division and also on a group team. He has also a great belief in a trainer to a team. His idea is if a team were properly trained they would not need to mix it so often and as a result the uncalled scenes on our fields would be gone for good. There is some truth in it that a badly trained team does try and make up for lack of training by "getting the man" methods. Anything that would tend to stop these methods should be welcomed.

Cappoquin Club will hold their general meeting on January 31st. A large attendance is hoped for and the Club certainly deserve the support of the townspeople. The Club has during 1940 secured for the town several important matches which was a source of income to the teachers. It was due to the perfect management of these matches which was carried out by the Club that the Division gave the field several fixtures, etc. after the other. Joe Mason and Liam Ryan will each have their reports before the meeting and I understand that both reports were successful and successful in 1940. I hope that the "Coronet" Cumann will be just as successful if not more so in 1941.

In answer to my request for information re the winners of championship for dates omitted from the official records of the County. I have received the following as a list of the winners of the championship in Dungarvan. The G.A.A. Annual gives the following: 1930 July 16th, 1935, the home final S.H. for the year 1933 was played at Dungarvan. Score: 8 goals 9 points, beat Kilmac (7 goals 8 points). I hope this is what you were after.
