DUNGARVAN CIRCUIT COURT

His Lordship, Mr. Justice Sealy, opened the business of the Dungarvan Circuit Court in the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Wednesday last. The calendar was a light one.

NEW PUBLISHER'S LICENCE.
Mr. McGuire, B.L. (instructed by Messrs. Peter O'Connor & Son, solicitors Waterford), applied for a new licence in respect of the premises known as Mac's Hotel, Abbeyside, on behalf of the Associated Trading Co., Dublin.
Mr. McGuire explained that the premises were licensed up to 1940. Continuing, Mr. McGuire said the premises were by conveyance transferred on behalf of the Associated Trading Co. to Mr. Nugent, of Cork, as trustee. Mr. Nugent overlooked the fact that he was the licensed owner and did not apply for a renewal of the licence.
Mr. Vincent Crowley said he was acting as receiver on behalf of the Associated Trading Co. The intention is to sell the premises if the licence is granted. It would be unsaleable without the licence.
Supt. Walsh, in reply to his Lordship, said the State solicitor was to appear and the State was, normally, opposing the application in view of the fact that there are already six hotels in the town.
To the Court, Mr. Vincent Crowley said he is not related to the last licensee, Miss Crowley.

His Lordship said he thought it was a proper case in which to grant a licence, and made an order granting a new seven days licence.
PERSONAL INJURIES CLAIM.
Mr. Molloy, B.L. (instructed by Mr. Kiersey, solicitor for applicant; Mr. McGuire, B.L. (instructed by Messrs O'Meara, solicitors), defended.
This was a civil bill brought by Mary Barry, Ballyduff Upper, Co. Waterford, a minor, suing by her father, for £300 for personal injuries received on 7th May, 1939. The defendant is Richard Huntington, an employee of Messrs. Ford's, Cork.
Mr. Molloy, B.L. said the case is a sequel to a collision which took place on May 7th, 1939, when defendant drove his car up on the footpath and knocked down the applicant when in the act of leaving a shop. He then described the injuries received, which included a dislocated collar-bone, concussion, etc., permanent disfigurement, and unable to do any heavy work.
The applicant, in reply to Mr. Molloy, bore out the foregoing facts, and said that after 12 o'clock Mass she went into O'Neill's shop in Ballyduff and when leaving was knocked down on the footpath. She was a domestic servant, employed by a Mrs. Scanlon, a farmer's wife. Her work consisted of general housework and farm work—milk-cows and feeding. She was paid £16 a week and had her living in the house. She calculated her board, etc., at 10/- a week. The first six weeks after the accident she was laid up at Scanlon's, and then went home and spent a couple of months in bed. She was attended by Dr. McCarthy, who has since been transferred to Co. Donegal. About nine months after the accident she went back to Scanlon's and did her best to work, but she could not. This is due to pain in collar-bone and hip when lifting buckets. She tried it for two months, but had to give it up. She has since tried for light work but did not succeed in getting it. She imagined she could do light housework now. Dr. McCarthy was attending her daily for the first couple of months and later about twice a week.
To Mr. McGuire—She was six weeks in bed at Scanlon's and got her food there. She had spent two years there before the accident. She is looking for light work and is prepared to do it when she gets it.
Dr. Lahiff, M.C., Ballyduff, said he succeeded Dr. McCarthy. He examined Mary Barry on April 15th. He found permanent disfigurement due to a lump at the juncture of collar and breast bones, and permanent limitation of movement of arm. She could do domestic duties. As far as the work she was at—farm work—disability would be 50 per cent.
To Mr. McGuire, witness said there is no sign of muscular wasting. As regards the disfigurement, he did not think an operation would do any good.
Mr. McGuire said this was a case which was repudiated by the insurance company and in which damages had already been given against the defendant in other cases of previous courts arising from the same accident.
His Lordship said that in view of the disfigurement and permanent injury, it is a case in which he would not give anything less than the amount claimed. Therefore he will give a decree for £300.
Mr. McGuire asked that it be made payable in instalments of 10/- a week.

Richard Huntington, defendant, said that already decrees and costs arising from the same accident amount to £190, for which he is paying £2 a week. His wages amount to £360 a year. His sister is living with him and she is earning £2 a week. He submitted a statement which showed his household and personal expenses amount to £290. This includes the decrees already got against him.
His Lordship said if the defendant cut down expenses he could pay £2 a fortnight, and he made an order that defendant pay that amount.

WHELAN v. G.S. RAILWAYS.
Jury Sworn.
Mr. McGuire, B.L. (instructed by Mr. Kenny—Messrs. E. A. Ryan & Co.), for the plaintiff; Mr. M. O'Driscoll, B.L. (instructed by Messrs. Farrell and Morrissey, solicitors), for the G.S. Railway Co.
This was a case brought under Lord Campbell's Act by Mrs. Whelan, Carrigroe, Dungarvan claiming damages for the loss of her son, whose death was due to the alleged negligence of the defendants on March 10th, 1940. The case was a sequel to a collision on the Dungarvan-Cappoquin road on March 10th, 1940, when a bus the property of the defendants collided with a motor cycle ridden by Patrick Whelan, son of the applicant, who was fatally injured.
The following jury were sworn to try the case: John Lynch, James Meskill, William O'Brien, Thomas Keenally, Michl. Power, John Hannon, Patrick Walsh, John Bluet, Maurice Lynch, Ed. Fleming, D. Moloney, Wm. O'Brien.

Mr. McGuire, B.L. outlining the case for the jury, said that on this particular day the deceased was riding a motor cycle and was coming out a bye-road leading from the Ballycoush quarry to the main Dungarvan-Cappoquin road. When he got to the mouth of the bye-road, the evidence will show that he looked first to his left (towards Cappoquin) and then to his right (towards Dungarvan). He saw the bus coming on his right and he could have done one of two things; he could have stopped or got across to his own side on the main road. He did the latter and got over on his own side, and it was while on his own side he was struck by the bus, which was on the wrong side. His injuries were so severe that he died that night. It will be shown that long before the accident and at the time of the accident Patrick Whelan was drawing a steady 25/- a week. Deceased was a bachelor, aged 28 years, and his mother was dependent on whatever deceased gave her. Out of this wage he gave her 25/- a week. Mr. McGuire said evidence would be given that from the point the brake was applied the bus travelled 38 yards, and said this will convey to the jury the speed at which the bus was travelling, and that the real cause of the death of this young man was the unskillful handling of the bus.
Mr. J. Ormonde, B.E., deposed to preparing maps (produced) showing the juncture of the bye and main roads. The width of the road from fence to fence is 45 feet; the surface width is 32 feet on the Cappoquin side and 35 feet on the Dungarvan side. There is a gradient down from "Master McGrath's" monument to the bye-road.
To Mr. O'Driscoll—The bye-road is not a steamroad.
William Doyle, Cappoquin, said he is a photographer among other occupations. He took photographs of the scene.
Patrick Moloney said he remembered the evening of March 10th 1940. He had known the deceased (Whelan) and earlier that evening had seen him going down the bye-road. As deceased was coming back witness was sitting on a stone opposite the forge. It was about six o'clock. As the motor cycle came into sight on the bye-road witness saw the top of the bus. Witness raised his hand to the cyclist to stop, but he did not stop. The bus swerved and struck the motor bicycle. Witness jumped off the stone and ran towards the forge. The cyclist came out of the bye-road at a medium pace, and when he saw the bus he made for the other side of the road. Witness cannot remember hearing a horn sounded.
To Mr. O'Driscoll—The bus would be about the same distance away on the main road as the cyclist was on the bye-road when he saw them. When the cyclist came out the bus was about 15 yards away. Witness did his best to stop the cyclist, but he took no notice, and came out in front of the bus.
James Quinn, in reply to Mr. McGuire, said he was standing outside John Tobin's cottage and had a view of both roads. As Whelan was emerging from the bye-road witness's view was cut off. He had a view of the bus, which he thought would be doing from 30 to 35 miles per hour. He thought he heard a horn sounded. Witness knew the deceased well.
To Mr. O'Driscoll—A man named Power brakes and pulled towards the right hand side.

To Mr. McGuire—There is a straight stretch of a mile when you come to the monument, but he did not leave the bus go all out. When the cyclist came out witness did not know what way he was going to go. The cyclist, he thought, was travelling fairly fast. He would not agree now that if he (witness) kept to his side there would not have been an accident. If he had kept straight on, the accident would have happened in any case.
John Kelleher, conductor, said the first intimation he had of anything was the application of the brakes. He looked and saw the cyclist about 3 feet from the radiator. It is his opinion that the bicycle was pushed before the bus for a slight distance. He had ten passengers in the bus.
After Mr. O'Driscoll and Mr. McGuire had addressed the jury.
His Lordship summed up the evidence, and said the jury would be asked to answer the following three questions: (1) Was the defendant driver negligent? (2) Was the deceased man negligent? (3) Could the defendants' driver, notwithstanding that the deceased was negligent, have avoided the accident?
The jury then retired and after an absence of 20 minutes found that the bus driver was negligent, that the deceased was negligent, and that the defendant could, even the deceased was negligent, have avoided the accident. They also assessed damages at £130.
His Lordship ratified the jury's findings, but on the request of Mr. O'Driscoll, he put a stay of execution for 14 days.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT ACT.
Claim for Overtime.
Mr. Kenny (Messrs. E. A. Ryan & Co.) for applicant; Mr. Molloy, B.L. (instructed by Mr. T. C. Williams), defended.
Applicant is Augustine Walsh, who was employed as a night watchman by defendant, Mr. Thomas McGrath, who was contractor to the Urban District Council for the building of a scheme of 139 houses.

Mr. Kenny, solicitor, dealt ably and at length with the various sections of the Conditions of Employment Act, which he submitted applied to this case, due to the nature of the duties performed and the number of hours worked by the applicant, who was employed at a weekly wage of £2 4s. 6d. Mr. Kenny contended that that amount covered a period of 48 hours, and pointed out that the applicant worked from 104 to 113 hours per week.
Augustine Walsh, replying to Mr. Kenny, said he was employed by the defendant on 11th February, 1938, as night watchman on a building scheme. His duty was to be there and look after the building. He was employed soon after the start. There were two other watchmen. He was watching the centre block of buildings. His duty was to look after all the materials. Witness was on duty from 5.40 each evening to 8 o'clock next morning. He started by filling 15 barrels of water. This often took him to day-break. He had to collect all material and equipment and put them in houses, cover cement, etc. Then he had to unload timber on Saturday evenings, and draw pegs and bars out of copings. He was paid £2 4s. a week. On Monday he went on at 5.40 p.m. and knocked off on Tuesday at 8 a.m. That was the same up to Saturday, when he went on at 12.30 and stopped on continuous until Monday morning at 8 a.m.
To Mr. Molloy—He was employed up to October, 1938. He left this employment without any trouble or any complaint. He understood when he left that he was entitled to more.
Mr. Molloy—That was in October, 1938. Why wait until 1941?
Applicant—I was not in a position to go on as the other watchman Kieley. He was engaged to look after the buildings and materials. He was instructed by Mr. Thomas McGrath to fill barrels and close in foundations. He went to work in April. He got instructions regarding filling the barrels from the foreman carpenter, Thomas O'Mahony, and foreman plasterer, James Butler. They often told him in the presence of Mr. Thomas McGrath to do this work. A man named Pierce Donnelly helped witness to fill the barrels. He gave him 2/6 or 3/- a week. Mr. McGrath it was who offered him £2 4s. a week.
Mr. Molloy—It is quite clear you were never asked to do this work, your evidence is most contradictory, and I put it to you that you took it on yourself to do these things?
Witness—No.
Michael Hayes said he was a general labourer and worked on the housing scheme at £2 4s. doing day work. All the men knocked off at 20 minutes to six. He knew Walsh was night watchman. Often when he was on the concrete mixer they would leave her full when the whistle sounded and she would be empty in the morning.
James Street, another employee of Mr. McGrath's during March and April, 1938, said he was employed as watchman at a wage of £2 4s. He saw Walsh picking up tools and once discharging a lorry.
To Mr. Molloy—Witness will be 70 next August. He is a general labourer. He left this job of night watchman at 2 o'clock in the morning.
Pierce Donnelly, an employee of the Commercial Hotel, said he knew the applicant, Walsh. Witness lived where Walsh worked for Mr. McGrath on the building scheme. Walsh was watchman. He often met Walsh when he was on duty. Witness spent from 7 p.m. to 10.30 with him every night. He filled 7 or 8 barrels of water every night, and Walsh used to fill the rest. He also saw Walsh bringing gravel into houses and saw him unloading a lorry.
To Mr. Molloy—He is 18 1/2 years. He realises the sacredness of an oath. He did not intend to come here, but got notice from the process server. He knew the case was coming off for a considerable time past. He had spoken of the case with Mr. Walsh. He (Walsh) did not remind me of what I saw him doing, as I know myself. About one month ago Walsh asked him to be a witness. Witness has a good memory and can remember what happened between February to October, 1938. He helped Mr. Walsh drawing water of his own free will. He drew it for about six months, and then witness got a job. He used to fill 7 or 8 barrels; there were about 12 barrels in it. He drew the water with two buckets from Thomas Terrace.
Mr. Molloy—I put it to you that you never drew water from Thomas Terrace.
Witness—I always drew it. There was only one occasion on which he saw the barrels full. He got 2/6 a week from Walsh all the time he was there.
To Mr. Kenny—He refused to come to Court when asked. He was served with a subpoena yesterday. With regard to the hose, Mrs. McCarthy gave them permission to run the hose from her place for one night.
Mr. B. Murray, clerk, employed on the scheme, produced evidence of the times and the wages paid to the employees. Walsh entered the employment of Mr. McGrath on February 11th, 1938. He was employed to 22nd September, 1938. He worked 31 weeks.

To Mr. Kenny—The grading of the workmen was for his own convenience. No employees were working on St. Patrick's Day, Easter Monday, Whit Monday, or August bank holiday.
To Mr. Molloy—Walsh got a weekly payment.
Mr. Thomas McGrath, defendant, said he had much experience in the building trade in all its phases. He contracted with the Urban Council to build 139 houses. In February, 1938, on the site where Walsh was working, they were only clearing the site. Kieley was watchman on No. 1 site and tool sheds and offices were there. Walsh was on the No. 2 site with only a watchman's hut. On No. 3 site Street was watchman, and he was later replaced by Thomas Duggan. Plaintiff approached witness about employment. Witness said he thought Kieley would be able to act as watchman of Nos. 1 and 2, but found he could not do it. Witness then employed Walsh. He had water pipes laid on to all the sites. There was very little water coming through, and he had to hire a man named Mooney to draw the water. Witness never heard of Walsh being given orders to do anything but watch the site. The procedure was that the men finished mixing concrete about twenty minutes past five each evening, so that all the concrete would be put in before twenty minutes to six. Mooney always had two barrels ready for the morning. Some days there was no water used at all. The men always put in their own tools, and the man in charge of the mixer was to cover it. Walsh got no instructions regarding the drawing of pegs. It was in June, 1939, they put down the kerbing, and all that work was done on No. 1 site.
To Mr. Kenny—He heard the evidence of the man on the concrete mixer. Not to his knowledge was there a scrap of concrete left over unworked. The watchman on No. 1 site was to watch the site later. He asked him to draw the pegs. The water pressure on No. 2 site was bad. There might be five barrels empty after the work for the day finished.
Mr. J. Mooney, in reply to Mr. Molloy, B.L. said—I was employed to draw water between the months of February and September, 1938. On occasions I used to draw water to No. 3 site. Drawing water was my job. I had a horse and cart of my own and two barrels. I did not often see the hose working.
To Mr. Kenny—I used bring water to all the sites. If water was wanted the night watchman would fill the barrels.
Mr. T. O'Mahony was the next witness, and he swore he was foreman on No. 3 site. On one occasion he gave instructions to Mr. Walsh to fill two barrels. He did not know if the plaintiff used fill the barrels at night, as he was not foreman on this site.
Mr. J. McGrath, a labourer employed on the scheme, said he was employed on No. 2 site. He was employed mixing concrete in November, 1937. He was also on the mixer in 1938. He never saw any concrete left in the evenings.
His Lordship—an ordinary night watchman does not come under the meaning of the Act, but this man did work other than night watchman—filling water barrels unloading timber.
Mr. Molloy—Mr. Walsh did not do this work as a regular duty. These were unexpected or isolated acts. Assuming that this man did some little work does not bring him under the provisions of the Act.
His Lordship, summing up, said the evidence on both sides was unsatisfactory. It is hard to remember things that happened three years ago. The Conditions of Employment Act was not introduced until 1938. This Act was quite unknown to contractors at that time. It is only now that contractors and workmen know the Act, and that is the reason why this action has been brought. A man employed as a night watchman would find some small jobs to do. In this case instructions had been given that would make Mr. Walsh an industrial worker. I think on many occasions there was work to be done such as filling barrels, pulling out rods, rolling foundations, etc. I accept this part of the evidence, but I am far from accepting the evidence as a whole. These were occasions of occasional work. It is hard to come to a conclusion. I should measure some amount for the industrial work he did.
A decree for £23 was granted, with a stay of ten days.

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL

The weekly meeting of the above was held on Holy Thursday night, Mr. M. Morrissey, T.D. (Chairman) presiding. Also present: Messrs. J. Dahill, D. Foley, M. O'Connor, P. Byrne, M. Clancy, and T. McCarthy (Vice-chairman).

VALUATION APPEALS. A letter was read from the Valuation Office requesting the Council to forward all notices of appeal lodged within the prescribed period.

OLD DOORS. The letter was referred to the Clerk.

A letter from Philip Beresford, Newline, Abbeyside, regarding the old doors in the Council yard at Bridge Street, which he is prepared to buy, was referred to the B.S.

CLAIMS FOR INTEREST. Arising out of the claims by Messrs. McCaffery and O'Carroll, contractors for the sewerage scheme, and Mr. Thos. McGrath, contractor for the housing scheme, Mr. Williams, solicitor, wrote:—

"I find it difficult to see why the Council should be liable for this interest, as I understand they were not responsible for the delay in payment. Furthermore, I understand that both contractors were very considerably behind in the completion of their respective schemes, and under their contracts the Council could have made heavy claims against them for not having the work finished within the specified time."

The Council directed the Clerk to send a copy of the letter to both contractors.

PIERS AND HARBOUR ACCOUNT. Mr. Williams, solicitor, wrote stating that they had gone fully into the income tax figures for the year 1938-1940 and 1940-1941. We find that the Council are liable to tax on £190 at 5/6 in the £ for the year 1938-1940. This amounts to £52 5s., and should be paid at once.

The Council were also liable for income tax on a sum of £97 at 6/6 in the £ for the year 1940-1941, and the assessment for this will be sent you in due course.

The letter was marked "Noted."

ACKNOWLEDGMENT. Mr. James Donovan, Abbeyside, wrote thanking the Council for resolution of sympathy passed to him on the death of his mother.

A similar letter was read from Mr. Jas. O'Keefe, Touraneena, on behalf of the family, thanking the Council for resolution of sympathy passed to them on the death of their mother.

ALLOTMENT PLOTS. A letter from the Department regarding the qualifications of five further applicants for allotment plots stated that all may be regarded as unemployed and as eligible to receive plots at the reduced rent.

NO SWORN INQUIRY. The following letter was read from the Department of Local Government and Public Health:—

"The Minister for Local Government and Public Health has had under consideration the resolution of the Dungarvan Urban District Council of the 7th February last, requesting him to hold a sworn inquiry into certain matters in connection with the water improvement scheme. In connection therewith the Minister desires to point out that in July last the Department's engineers inspected the works in Dungarvan and discussed the whole question with the consulting engineer and the contractor. As a result of the inspection and discussion it was agreed that it was not possible to determine the cause of leakage through the dam until further exploratory tests were made in the tunnel and dam. It was further agreed that the consulting engineers should make a specification of the tests and work necessary and discuss these with the contractor and place their combined views before the Department's engineers. A meeting was held in the Department on 8th February, 1941, at which the consulting engineer and the contractors were present, and the proposals which the consulting engineer had discussed with the contractor were examined. Some amendments were made and finally a series of tests and works were agreed upon. Until these tests and works are carried out there would be very little use in holding a sworn inquiry into the matter, as it would not be possible, in the absence of the information which it is hoped the tests will disclose, to determine the cause of leakage. It is understood that the consulting engineer is still awaiting the contractor's agreement to the procedure recommended at the conference with the Department, but it is expected that he will be reporting fully to the Council on the matter very shortly."

After a discussion the Council made an order expressing dissatisfaction at not being allowed the sworn inquiry, and requesting the Department to expedite the submission of proposals for remedying the water scheme. It was also decided that the Department be requested to reply to that portion of the resolution of the Council dealing with the sewerage scheme.

REPORT OF B.S. Mr. Hassett, B.S., reported:— "The scraping of the main from Shandon to Kilrush is proceeding satisfactorily. As I pointed out, it is a much slower job on a 14-inch main than on a larger pipe. As directed, I inspected the 14-inch pipe to Skeharine. This is fed by a 2-inch main off a 3-inch main in Sheares Street. To do the job suggested the whole main from Sheares Street should be done. This is a distance of nearly three-quarters of a mile and will involve an expenditure of about £100. The 24-inch main going down Strand-side South is fairly badly corroded also."

The Council made an order to do the Skeharine pipe at a cost not exceeding £100.

THE MARSH SCHEME. Mr. Hassett further reported that the money allowed for the above scheme is exhausted. A certain amount of useful work has been done, which will help considerably in any future improvement of this area. I need hardly point out, however, that until the lower portion of the Marsh has been trunked and an extra outfall for the canal has been provided, the occasional flooding of the Marsh will not be prevented. A flap valve on the 12-inch pipe leading from the Marsh into the small canal going towards the railway should be provided.

The report was marked "Noted."

E.S.B. CIRCULAR. A circular letter from the Department re economy in the consumption of electricity was read. The circular stated that the annual generation of electricity had grown from about 180 million units in 1931 to 430 million units in 1941. This demand is considerably in excess of the normal output of the Shannon scheme, especially during the summer months. Part of the electricity sold has accordingly to be generated from coal, the quantity varying with the rainfall and the consequent flow of water in the Shannon. Your Council will be aware of the difficulties in coal supplies and of the urgent national necessity for conserving same. The Board accordingly wish to bring to the notice of the Council the desirability of reducing the consumption of electricity for public lighting purposes.

The letter was referred to the Town Inspector to report for next meeting.

SWIMMING POOLS AND PROMENADE. Arising out of the following resolution, passed at a meeting of the Dungarvan Council on 12th February, 1941:—"That we, the members of the above, desire that a local scheme should be put into operation which would relieve the unemployed of the town. We wish to suggest a scheme which we believe would give a fair amount of employment for several months and at the same time help to make Dungarvan a seaside resort. Our suggestion is that the promenade known as the 'Lookout' be extended out to a level with its widest part and extended across to the men's bathing place. We also suggest that the building of swimming pools be incorporated in this scheme."

The matter was referred to the B.S. to submit proposals for schemes for the relief of unemployment.

COUNTY COUNCIL DEMAND. A letter read from Mr. J. H. O'Sullivan, Secretary, County Council, stated that the amount to be demanded by the County Council from the Urban Council for the services for the financial year ending 31st March, 1942, is £5,491 15s. 11d.

The Clerk, in reply to the Chairman, said last year's amount was £5,386 2s. 0d., an increase of £105 13s. 11d. Consideration of the letter was adjourned to next meeting.

SUGGESTION FOR IMPROVING DANCE HALL. The following letter was read:— "Dear Sirs,—Dame rumour has it that the dance licence attached to the Town Hall will expire in the near future and that the Council are not seeing to it. As for years it has been a popular dance centre. The various clubs and benevolent societies who have derived funds from dances are going to be badly hit. No doubt this will put an end to several clubs, as dances were their chief source of revenue. Dungarvan is lacking enough in the line of sport without curtailing them still further. It is ridiculous to think that a town like Dungarvan, with a population of close on 5,000, could not have a licensed dance hall, while practically every village and town in Eire can have them. Something should be done and something can be done. Permit me to make a suggestion which I believe would get a big response. The suggestion is that a 'hall improvements fund' be opened and all clubs and others benefiting from the hall be asked to run a cellophane, concert or dance, the proceeds to this fund. I am confident that in this way £200 or £250 would be secured. A start is everything, and I believe it is worth doing something in order to avoid losing the dance licence.—Yours faithfully, Nicholas Kelly."

The letter was marked "Noted."

SYMPATHY. On the proposition of Mr. Dahill, seconded by Mr. Foley, a resolution of sympathy was passed with the Misses Meade, Square, Dungarvan, on the death of their sister.

On the proposition of Mr. McCarthy, seconded by the Chairman, a similar vote was passed to Mr. and Mrs. Power, Fair Lane, on the death of their child.

Dungarvan Show Committee

At a meeting of the Dungarvan Show Committee, held at the Commercial Hotel, on Wednesday last, April 16th, Mr. A. Hunt (President) presided. Also present were Messrs. J. O'Dwyer, N. Connors, N. Morrissey, J. F. Bowen, R. de Vere Hunt, J. J. Crotty, C. Dempsey, J. Power and P. J. Lynch, Sec. pro tem.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and signed.

The Chairman, addressing the meeting said they all knew why the meeting was held to-day. It was to vote sympathy to their dear departed colleague, their late Secretary, Mr. John Lynch. It was his hard work and personality that kept the Show going. Even up to the last, his mind was on the Show and its welfare. Even in bed he was thinking of the cups and their safety and it was he who got them put into the Bank. We have lost a good friend, a man we cannot easily replace. It is with deep regret that I propose a vote of sympathy to his relatives.

Mr. John J. Crotty, in seconding the vote said he had known John Lynch since childhood and the passing of such a popular gentleman and general favourite was deplored by all classes.

Mr. J. O'Dwyer, associating himself with the vote said he had been associated with the late Mr. Lynch from the inception of the Show and he paid a glowing tribute to the manner in which the late Mr. Lynch discharged the duties entrusted in the running of the Show.

Messrs. J. F. Bowen, N. Morrissey, J. P. Cashman, N. Connors, C. Dempsey and P. J. Lynch, having agreed to be associated with the vote of sympathy the meeting adjourned as a mark of respect.

Letters of apology for their inability to attend but wishing to be associated with the vote of sympathy were received from Messrs. C. Langley, J. J. Morrissey and P. Quinlan.

1,900 p.c. RISE IN FISH PRICES. Describing the British Government Price Control of Iceland cod as 'a mere grain of sand in a bucket,' Mr. G. H. Mayhew, a member of Northumberland Sea Fisheries, stated at a Newcastle meeting that a basket of fish, which, before the war, could be bought for 6/- was now sold for £8. That was fleeing the public. He knew a man and two boys who made £150 in one week.

It was decided to urge control of all fish.

THE FARMER'S SON

Where'er are scattered the Irish nation, In foreign land or on Irish ground, In every calling, rank and station, Gold men and true will be always found. But amongst their masses and ranks and classes, When nobler deeds must be dared and done, There's no heart more ready, no hand more steady, Than the heart and hand of a farmer's son.

His homely garb has not fashion's graces, But it wraps a frame that is stout and strong. His brawny hand may show labour's traces, But his honest toil does no man wrong. For generous greeting, for social meeting, For genial mirth and for harmless fun, For sport and pleasure, for love and leisure, There's none to equal a farmer's son.

Some other men may have words more flowing To speak and plead for dear Erin's cause; And others, too, may have ways more knowing To win her smiles and her grand applause; But when her story is crowned with glory, How'er the battle was fought and won, Amongst the first to gain it and to maintain it, You'll always find there a farmer's son.

RECRUITING FOR THE L.D.F. During the past week recruiting for the L.D.F. has been in progress throughout West Waterford, with satisfactory results. As an example the Clashmore group has almost doubled its membership. A squad has been formed in Kinsalebeg and further recruits are expected. Up to now this was the most backward part of Co. Waterford, but now that a start has been made there is no reason why excellent progress could not be made. Unfortunately however, cases have come to light, where individuals have definitely discouraged members from joining. Such conduct cannot be too strongly condemned and it is hoped that every young Irishman will be left to his duty to his country and himself. Defeatism cannot be too strongly condemned.

FISHING TACKLE. Gut that is particularly fine drawn, special flies tied to pattern, hundreds of rods, baskets, reels, trout lines, sea lines, hooks, casts and baits of every description, you will find them all in exhaustive variety at Harpur Brothers. Harpurs devote a special department to the care and selection of trout flies which are all hand-tied from carefully selected materials with the wings matched so as to be as perfect a copy as possible to the real fly. Every hook used is made from the finest steel and will stand the hardest strain. Harpurs have over two hundred varieties in stock, selling at 2/- a dozen, post free. Enclose a 2/- postal order now for a dozen and give Harpurs flies a trial.—Harpur Brothers, 48, Quay, Waterford.

KNOCKANORE PARISH COUNCIL DANCE. A successful and very enjoyable dance, under the auspices of the local Parish Council was held as Knockanore on Easter Sunday night. All arrangements were perfect in the capable hands of Mr. D. Montayne, Hon. Sec. and the organising committee while the music was excellent and the large attendance showed their appreciation in no uncertain manner.

ARDMORE PRIEST'S ILLNESS. His many friends in all parts were grieved to hear of the serious illness, this week, of Rev. Fr. N. Walsh, C.C., Ardmore. It is sincerely hoped that he will recover quickly and thus be in a position to resume once more his sacred duties.

CLASHMORE MINOR'S FIRST MATCH IN CHAMPIONSHIP. On Sunday next at Villierstown the Clashmore minor team take on St. Carthages (Lismore) and a first class game is assured. It is the Clashmore boys' first match this season but they can be relied upon to give an excellent account of themselves against stronger and more experienced opponents. Granted propitious weather conditions there should be a good attendance to see this important match. Mr. T. Morrissey has been appointed referee.

ARDMORE V. FAUGH-A-BALLAGH. Ardmore and Faugh-a-Ballagh (Mellera) will meet at Aglish on Sunday next in the initial round of the current year junior hurling championship and a thrilling contest may be expected. On the occasion of a former meeting the Mellera men won by a small margin following a great game. On Sunday Ardmore will be all out to reverse this decision and consequently it is a game that nobody should miss. The Aglish gaels can be relied upon to have all arrangements perfect.

CLASHMORE MATCH. On Sunday the 27th April at Clashmore the old rivals Ardmore and Aglish will clash in the first round of the J.F. championship and a record attendance of the general public is expected at this ever popular centre. Full particulars will appear next week.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

HOLY WEEK. Holyweek was observed with appropriate solemnity throughout West Waterford and very large congregations attended the various ceremonies in the churches. All day on Good Friday large numbers of the people performed the stations of the Cross and at the public devotions that evening there were particularly large congregations. On Easter Sunday morning large numbers received Holy Communion.

L.D.F. MEMBERS JOIN THE ARMY. During the past week two members of the Clashmore L.D.F.—S.L. M. Fitzgerald and Vol. William Prendergast were called up for service in the regular army. Both were most enthusiastic and active members of the L.D.F. and will be a big loss to the Clashmore Group. Their many friends join in wishing them a most successful military career.

ON THE LAND. During the past few weeks tillage operations have been pushed ahead and large areas of wheat, barley and oats have been sown. The response to the appeal for an increased production of food has been most satisfactory and reflects the greatest credit on the farmers, who have thus shown once more that they are at all times ready to serve their country. It is hoped that the Government will reciprocate by ensuring that an economic price is paid for produce of the land. Precautions should also be taken to ensure that the "middleman" does not get more than a reasonable profit. Should wholesale profiteering be tolerated the poor would inevitably, suffer most in the end.

UNEMPLOYMENT. Unfortunately quite a good deal of unemployment prevails in the rural areas at present and there is little possibility of any improvement in the near future. It is a tragic situation that so many people are condemned to almost permanent unemployment while so much productive and very necessary work could be done if the money was made available. Other countries have solved this problem but here it is only being trifled with, thus placing a further burden on the nation. The present situation amply demonstrates the imperfections of our economic system. It is hoped that in the "new world order" we hear so much about nowadays there will be full and plenty for every man anxious to work. A change for the better is badly needed.

COWS

"GOING WRONG"

Veterinarian's Assistant, VAP. MAKES THEM RIGHT! Vap is a certain cure for cows that will not hold the milk. Thousands of farmers use and recommend it. Thousands of cows are now in calf—thanks to Vap.

T. O'Donnell, Cloughane, Castlebar, writes:—"My milk fell off Vap. I got what I wanted, and I am very thankful to them. My cows went all right since."

We neither asked for nor paid for the above. If your cow or cows do not hold the milk, Vap is the best and most reliable. VAP is 12/6—suitable for 15 cows.

October Time in Ireland.

(This very beautiful poem is from the pen of Sister M. Brigid, of the Sisters of Providence, St. Mary's of the Woods, Indiana, U.S.A. The author is a sister of Mr. P. J. O'Brien, the well-known historian and auctioneer.)

'Tis Rosary Time in Ireland, And looking across the years A picture unfolds before me— 'Tis dimmed with mist of tears. For sure it lacks gorgeous setting, No wealth of colour it boasts, But Rosary Time in Ireland Is envied by angel hosts.

Ah! never was rank or station, Or fame of glorious deeds, As dear as the scene in Ireland When mother took down the Beads. And readily would I barter The trophies the years have won To kneel by that hallowed fireside When the day's rough task is done.

I care not for stately temples, Or glamour of service grand, I'd rather one prayer in Ireland, For isn't it God's own land? The smell of the turf for incense, And love for the sacred light, Ah! Rosary Time in Ireland, My heart is with you to-night.

ship Clashmore meet Villierstown. As yet neither team has done much practice but during the next couple of weeks will be busily engaged preparing for the contest. The issue is very open but the Clashmore men can be relied upon to give a good account of themselves.

THE REGAL, YOUGHAL. Very large crowds from town and country patronised the Regal Cinema for the special Easter Holiday programme. On Sunday night the principal picture was "Stanley and Livingstone" while on Easter Monday the splendid double feature programme consisted of "Charlie Chan at Treasure Island" and "Dark Adventure". "Heart of the North" was shown on Tuesday.

The management are to be congratulated on supplying such a splendid programme for the holidays.

On Sunday night next an unrivalled double feature programme will include "The Last Outpost" a picture that is particularly appropriate to-day.

CLASHMORE PARISH COUNCIL. A special meeting of the Clashmore Parish Council will be held in the N.S. Clashmore on tonight (Friday) at 8 p.m. Old time and all members are requested to attend.

The purpose of the meeting is to arrange for the provision of fuel and food supplies and members of the general public interested are invited to be present.

SCARCITY OF BUTTER. For the past few weeks there has been an unprecedented scarcity of butter in these parts. This state of affairs has caused general dissatisfaction and on all sides one heard complaints. One can understand the scarcity of coal, oil, meal etc., but it is hard to explain why there should be a scarcity of butter in an agricultural country at this period of the year. It is probably another of the imperfections of our economic system.

KINSALEBEG PAROCHIAL CONCERT. On Sunday night last a very successful concert and variety entertainment, in aid of Parochial Funds, was held in Kinsalebeg N.S. The programme was supplied entirely by the talented pupils of the local N.S., trained by Mr. T. Kennedy N.T. It was of a very high artistic standard and there was a large and appreciative audience including Rev. Fr. M. Power, C.C. The success of the entertainment reflects the greatest credit on Mrs. Kennedy and her talented pupils. A repeat programme will be held in the near future.

"Dungarvan Observer"

SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1941.

The Pope's Plea.

Couched in words which breathed a passionate sincerity was the Easter message of Pope Pius, in which Our Holy Father appealed to the rulers of the nations to set a limit to the barbarism of the methods employed in the present war.

More ruthless, more cruel and more extensive than ever before is the conflict which the world is witnessing today; the weapons used now are incalculably more potent than ever before, and their effects infinitely more hideous.

The struggle is no longer confined to the contending armies; it is borne to the hearths and homes, and it spares neither age nor sex. In such frightful circumstances, the plea voiced by the occupant of the Chair of Peter is one that will find an echo in the hearts of every Christian man and woman.

Barbarous as modern warfare undoubtedly is, it can, by employing even more devastating scientific inventions, assume an even greater aspect of frightfulness, and the Head of Christendom's appeal to the belligerents is to save humanity that final outrage.

The peace for which Pope Pius prays daily will come sooner or later, and when it does come the nations will be immediately confronted with the task of the rebuilding of the world's social structure.

If, in that rebuilding, there is no effort to establish the "new fraternal solidarity" of which the Pontiff spoke, if it is not wrought in a spirit "which guarantees equal rights among the strong and the weak," then the "encyclopaedia of heroic sacrifices"—an unforgettable expression—will have been made to no purpose.

TALLOW NOTES

TRANSFERRED. Mr. M. J. McKeever, who has been for some years attached to the local branch of the Munster and Leinster Bank as accountant and teller, has been transferred on promotion to Borrisokane. He is being replaced by Mr. McCormack of the latter branch, who served in a junior capacity, approximately some twenty years ago, in the local office, and now returns on promotion as accountant and teller. Their many friends wish them both success in their new spheres of activities.

MOOREHILL NOTES

KILWATERMOY PARISH COUNCIL. A meeting of the above was held on last Sunday evening, Mr. J. J. Roche, Chairman, presiding. The following members were present:—C. Donovan, T. Geary, W. Sullivan, P. Russell, L. Galvin, J. Acres and D. Cody, Hon. Sec. In the course of a general discussion of food production and supplies, keen disappointment was expressed at the failure of the Government to control the prices and distribution of seeds, manures, and other essentials and it was urged that parish councils throughout the County should unite in demanding that in future there should be no exploiting the labours of those who in spite of many difficulties are now striving so hard to produce food for the nation.

It was also agreed to request the local authority concerned to have the inspection of cattle under the Warble Fly Order, suspended until the Foot and Mouth maledy had been eradicated. In connection with the Minister's circular regarding fuel it was decided to hold a meeting next Sunday evening to consider this matter.

GRAND SOCIAL

A very successful cinderella was held at Knocknaree on Sunday night last under the auspices of the Knocknaree Parish Council. A very large crowd attended from all the surrounding districts and all voted it a very enjoyable night. The music was supplied by the Shamrock Orchestra and was much appreciated by all. The playing of the National Anthem brought to a conclusion, one of the most enjoyable nights held in Knocknaree for some time.

KNOCKANORE V. MOOREHILL.

On Sunday last at Knocknaree grounds the locals met Moorehill in a friendly hurling contest in aid of the Green Cross (Prisoners' Dependents' Fund). The attendance was on the small side which was rather surprising seeing the "gate" was for such a worthy object. Knocknaree won the toss but the wind was not much advantage as it was blowing across the pitch. Moorehill attacked and Neville cleared, but Murray returned and some keen duels were witnessed between Rust and Neville of Knocknaree and Baldwin and McGrath of Moorehill. The Knocknaree defence was very sound and held the forwards at bay. A long drive from Kelly sent Moorehill attacking in the course of which Moloney (Knocknaree) was injured and retired, being replaced by O'Neill. Some lively play followed. Connerly crossed to Donovan who placed Neville for a goal. The puck-out reached P. Neville and he sent knocknaree attacking but Ahearn and Ryan cleared. Murray lashed a long ball right into the Knocknaree square but G. Moloney cleared over the line. The cut-in was taken by W. Neville who sent over the bar for a point and a few minutes later another cut in to Moorehill landed in the back of the net. Following the puck out Knocknaree attacked for P. Kelly to beat the opposition for a goal. The short whistle left the score, Moorehill, 2-1; Knocknaree, 1-0.

The second half opened in favour of Knocknaree who now put all their vigour into the fray and P. Neville soon had the white flag waving, and shortly after P. Kelly repeated the feat to leave them two points behind. Play became very fast and both sides sent wide in turn. Knocknaree attacked time and again but "Chausser" saved in brilliant fashion, and the defence of Morrison, Ahearn, Ryan, Moloney and Roche gave few openings. Murray delivered a long ball to Mills for a wide. Knocknaree again attacked for P. Kelly to raise the green flag. Moorehill launched a last attack for Baldwin to graze the posts. There was no further score on either side and the final score, Knocknaree, 2-2; Moorehill, 2-1, was a true indication of a close game.

Mr. W. Neill, Knocknaree was a capable referee. Knocknaree—M. Neville (Capt.), P. Neville, J. Neville, P. Kelly, J. Kelly, J. Moloney, M. Neill, J. Donovan, W. Reving, G. Moloney, D. Ahearn, J. Rust, T. Moloney, D. Hynes, T. O'Neill.

Moorehill—M. Ahearn (Capt.), J. Frensdergat, J. Morrison, J. Ryan, T. Roche, P. Moloney, C. Murphy, S. Murray, W. Kelly, J. Baldwin, J. Mills, J. McGrath, J. Donovan, T. Connerly, W. Neville.

L.D.F. NO

Now that the Easter has passed and all the local L.D.F. Officers will again return to the training which will be resumed at Schools, Dungarvan, on under the auspices of the L.D.F. Officers, Yougal.

For the next few Sundays courses will be the special course and these should be of particular interest than those of instructional training up most of the time heretofore absolutely necessary should turn out without failing few Sundays left to us.

For many weeks past the been going through an instructional and practical course and these should be of particular interest than those of instructional training up most of the time heretofore absolutely necessary should turn out without failing few Sundays left to us.

Mr. Dunne, who was appointed one of our County done a lot of work in the organisation of the course and he has not spared his expert knowledge as time to the service. We our ranks and express our appreciation for the fine work done in conjunction with Mr. Keane. During the past week Capt. M. Sheehan has had conversations with the District L.D.F. in the district and further steps are now expected to make the organisation effective adjunct to the Forces. Comm. Halpin's appreciation of the standard ready reached by our ranks will be with us more frequently field exercises and manoeuvres full swing with the advent of the summer.

This week we congratulate promotion to the position of A/G/L, respectively of the Group L.D.F. Both these are well known officers of their choice are very valuable to our local men.

We are glad to note that there has now a good number of volunteers. This week many useful hints on the essential L.D.F. training that should have a copy each and study it well. Owing to demand elsewhere and paper it is however essential that should book An Cosantóir order for it with the new. In fact it is now almost back copies owing to the for then when on sale.

The District Staff Dance day night at the Town Hall as the hall was packed to an appreciative and representative. Arrangements for the ment of the hundreds of the very capable hands of the acted as M.C. and left the street for the entertainment. Twilight Serenaders Dance more gave a delicious respite dance music with local relief bands and the able hands of Messrs. Ahearn and Co. and Miss Rafferty's popularity of the Force was by the throng who came to Let us hope a similar event.

L.D.F. NOTES

Now that the Easter holidays are over all the local L.D.F. Officers and the N.C.O.s will again return to the serious question of training when the lectures and demonstrations will be resumed at the Vocational Schools, Dungarvan, on Sunday next, under the auspices of the Military Authorities, Youghal.

For the next few Sundays field exercises will be the special feature of the course and these should prove of more particular interest than perhaps the essentials of instructional training which have taken up most of the time heretofore. It is therefore absolutely necessary that every man should turn out without fail for the remaining few Sundays left to complete the course.

For many weeks past the engineers have been going through an intensive course of theoretical and practical training in their specialised services under the direction of Mr. M. Keane B.E. District O.C. of engineers and his assistant, Mr. N. Dunne, B.E.

Mr. Dunne, who was only recently appointed one of our County Engineers has done a great deal of work in helping to perfect the organisation of the engineering service and he has not spared himself in giving of his expert knowledge as well as his spare time to the service. We welcome him to our ranks and express our sincere appreciation for the fine work he is doing in conjunction with Mr. Keane.

During the past week Commd. T. Halpin and Capt. M. Sheehan had important conversations with the District Staff in matters pertaining to the organisation of the L.D.F. in the district and as a result still further steps are now expected to be taken to make the organisation in the area an effective adjunct to the Military Defence Forces. Commd. Halpin expressed his appreciation of the standard of training already reached by our men and expects to be with us more frequently in future when field exercises and manoeuvres will be in full swing with the advent of fine weather.

This week we congratulate Messrs. J. Fraher and P. Cullinane on their recent promotion to the positions of G/L and A/G/L respectively of Dungarvan No. 1 Group L.D.F. Both these Abbotside men are well known officers of the L.D.F. and their choice are very popular appointments with our local men.

We are glad to note that "An Cosantoir" has now a good sale among our local volunteers. This weekly contains so many useful hints on matters concerning essential L.D.F. training that every member should have a copy each week without fail and study it well. Owing to the enormous demand elsewhere and present scarcity of paper it is however essential that members should book An Cosantoir by putting an order for it with the newspaper at once. In fact it is now almost impossible to get back copies owing to the ready demand for them when on sale.

The District Staff Dance held last Sunday night at the Town Hall, Dungarvan, proved a super Easter attraction indeed as the hall was packed to the doors with an appreciative and representative gathering. Arrangements for the perfect enjoyment of the hundreds of dancers were in the very capable hands of M. M. Kelly who acted as M.C. and left nothing to be desired for the entertainment of all. The Twilight Serenaders Dance Band once more gave a delicious rendering of appropriate dance music with the help of our local relief band and the catering was in the able hands of Messrs. Thos. Power and Co. and Miss Rafferty, Abbeyview. The popularity of the Force was well evidenced by the throng who came to give its support. Let us hope a similar event will soon take place.

HATCHING & BROODING UNDER HENS.

Good broody hens properly managed, can still compete with artificial hatching appliances.

They take up a little more daily time than incubators or brooders. One meets with unreliable specimens, but this difficulty is overcome by having a reserve bird or two in readiness.

Pullets often give good results, but hens are more reliable. It is risky to use last-stock cross bred from a light bred male such as a Leghorn, and a heavy bred hen, such as a Rhode. Pullets from such a cross will usually only sit for a few days, even though they appear reliable at the start.

When selecting broodies make certain that they are fit and healthy. There is a risk of this birds giving up before the end of the incubation period. Makeshift sitting boxes may do for a few hens, but when planning for a score or more it is better to use proper boxes. Each nest should be about 15 inches square, and fitted with a hinged front.

I like the boxes to be of the six-compartment type, this being an easy unit to move and stowed to at the one time. Make the floor of small mesh wire netting to admit moisture and as a protection against rats. I like to make the nests saucer shaped, using broken up wheat straw for the foundation, adding a thin layer of soft hay for a lining. Turves in the bottom of the nests are a waste of good grass and are unnecessary. If moisture is needed it can be applied by sprinkling the eggs, during the last four or five days of incubation, with lukewarm water.

SHELTER FROM COLD. While it is still at all cold I prefer to put sitting boxes under covers. A cart shed or any quite building will do if it is free from

RED CROSS NOTES

Arrangements have now been completed for the holding of the First Aid Certificate examination at the Technical School on Friday next, the 25th April, at 7 p.m. As already stated the examiner is Dr. M. O'Farrell, County Medical Officer of Health. All intending candidates should be in attendance at 6.45 p.m. and should there be some who have not yet given their names to the Hon. Sec. they should do so immediately stating the First Aid Course they attended.

Ladies are reminded that the home nursing class also commences on Friday next, the 25th April, at the Technical School and all are cordially invited to attend. The lectures will be given in the Domestic Science room at the head of the stairs and while they are in progress the usual weekly work depot will be discontinued. However, as the branch is at present being asked to undertake the making of haversacks, it is hoped that when the necessary materials are to hand volunteers will be forthcoming to do this work at home. In this connection and in connection with any other work our branch of the Society is engaged on we would point out that the personnel of the workers is not by any means confined to members of the society. Our main objective is naturally the carrying out of the work we are required to do efficiently and well and anyone willing to assist in the work is heartily welcome to our ranks whether he or she is a subscribed member of the Irish Red Cross Society or not. Of course we wish to have as many subscribed members as possible in the branch but our first consideration is the carrying out of the primary aims and objects of the Society in the town of Dungarvan.

IRISH RED CROSS SOCIETY. National Blood Transfusion Service. THE following is the present position with regard to National Blood Transfusion Service volunteers in the County:— Cappoquin 52 Ballyduff 42 Ardmore 22 Lismore 22

We wish again to impress on the people of the County the necessity for fostering and supporting this Scheme of self-help. Persons wishing to obtain information on the subject may save time by applying to their local doctor, who is in most cases the Local Area Director for the Service.

DANIEL T. MCCARTHY, M.B., MICHAEL O'FARRELL, M.B., County Directors. LISMORE BRANCH. The Lismore Branch of the National Blood Transfusion Service held its first meeting, which was very well attended by members of the general public, the Irish Red Cross Society, the Local Security Force and Local Defence Force, in Lismore Courthouse on Tuesday, 15th April. The Local Area Director, Dr. D. Healy, explained the organisation and objects of the Service, with particular reference to the activities which would be expected from the Lismore district. On an appeal for donors, 22 of those present volunteered. These include ladies and gentlemen from the general public, as well as from members of the organisations present. It is felt, however, that this is by no means an exhaustive list of intending donors, and any others wishing to volunteer should give their names to either the Joint Hon. Secretaries—Mrs. D. Healy, Doyle, Kilgenny, Cappagh. The groom is a well-known Deise footballer, having helped his county in all their senior engagements during the last three years. He captained the Pike football team from its inception to its amalgamation with Kilmrossanty this season. At present he is van playing with a strong breeze in the combination and is a highly valued member. The reception took place at the Park Hotel, Dungarvan, where a large number of guests attended, after which the happy couple, who were the recipients of numerous gifts, left for Cork where the honeymoon is being spent. We wish both many years of conjugal bliss.

rats, moderately light and well ventilated. When hatching waterfowl and turkey eggs the sitting boxes can be placed outside under the lee of a fence. I have known many hens forsake their nests because of lice and red mite. Apply a drop or two of nicotine sulphate to the breast and vent feathers a week before eggs are due to hatch. When applied late there is a risk of fumes suffocating the chicks. Remove the hens from the nests and feed them once daily on grain. BROODIES FOR REARING. Using broodies for rearing purposes can be done if the hens are first allowed to sit for a week. Day-old chicks can be put under the hens who will receive them with "open arms". At dusk I put a couple of chicks under each hen and leave them till next morning, removing each hen with her two chicks in to the coop and then giving her the full dozen or more, according to time of year and weather conditions. The hens settle down without any trouble. If putting bought chicks under the broodies, see that they are thoroughly warmed up before they are given to the hens. Chicks which have travelled by train appear a little sleepy on arrival, but if placed before a fire for half an hour they become lively and less likely to get trampled or left out in the cold. Remember to feed the hens a week before the chicks are due to arrive.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

WEDDING BELLS.

A very pretty wedding was solemnised by the Rev. Fr. Robinson at Westland Row, Dublin, on Easter Monday with Nuptial Mass. The contracting parties being Mr. Pk. Doolan, 9 Leinster St., Dublin, and Miss Alice Jones. The bride who was attended by her sister, Miss May Jones, was given away by Capt. P. McGuire, Royal Navy. Mr. Dan Daly, College St. Police Station was best man. After the happy ceremony, a reception was held at the bridegroom's home, 9 Leinster Street, where many friends of the newly wed couple were entertained. The honeymoon is being spent on a tour of the South of Ireland. Mrs. Doolan is well-known and extremely popular in Dungarvan, being daughter of the late William and Margaret Jones who carried on an extensive Licensed Grocery and Provision business in the Main St. some 20 years ago.

DUNGARVAN FAIR.

Dungarvan fair, held on Wednesday last was on the small side in point of supply in all departments, while it reached the lowest record in point of demand and prices. There was a complete absence of shippers and the few transactions which took place were of a purely local character. The highest prices recorded were 25 to 28 for yearlings; £10 to £12 for two-year-olds; £15 to £20 for springers; 50/- to 70/- for sheep, with pigs making from 50/- to £3 and £3 5s.

CONCERT AT THE PIKE HALL.

A grand variety concert in aid of the Garranbane Church Improvement Fund will be held in the Pike Hall on next Sunday night commencing at 8.30 p.m. The Abbotside Troop of Catholic Boy Scouts will stage some of their many wonderful acts and other well-known and popular artists will contribute. All who can, should make it a point to be there and thus help a most praiseworthy object.

PRISONERS' DEPENDENTS' FUND.

The following players were selected to represent Waterford against Kilkenny at Waterford on Sunday next at 3.30 p.m. in a match in aid of the Prisoners' Dependents' Fund—S. O'Grady (St. Stephens), C. Curley (Tallow), M. Regan (Lismore), J. Mountain, W. Barron, P. Daly, C. Moylan (Dungarvan), A. Fleming, J. Keane, P. Duggan, W. Morrissey (Mount Sion), M. Hickey (Portlaw), J. O'Meara, A. Casey, F. Minoque (Mount Sion), J. Duggan (Lismore), P. Bluet, J. Galvin (Portlaw).

KILLED IN AIR RAID.

Widespread sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. L. Gough, Mitchel Street, Dungarvan, who have received news of the death of their son, Rev. Wm. Gough, O.S.A. Hoxton, London, as a result of an air raid. Rev. Fr. Gough, who was 28 years of age, was ordained 3 years ago and was attached to the Augustinian House, Hoxton, London. He spent a short holiday in his native Dungarvan last Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Gough and the other members of their respected family have the heartfelt sympathy of all in their great sorrow and loss.

WEDDING BELLS.

On Tuesday morning last a very interesting and pretty wedding took place in the Church of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. Straddally, the contracting parties being members of two well-known mid-Waterford families, in the persons of James, eldest son of John and Mrs. Fennell (farmer), Garranbane, and Anne, youngest daughter of John and Mrs. Halpin, Durrow, Straddally. The ceremony, with nuptial Mass was performed by Very Rev. E. English, P.P., Times defeated Cathal Brugha's by a small margin after a great hour's play in minor football. The winners were best served by Hayes and Barron while Barry was prominent for the losers. Prior to the senior match, Mr. D. Goode, Sec. Co. Board G.A.A., recited a decade of the Rosary for all who died for Ireland. Both sides were minus a few of their championship players, but were evenly matched. Dungarvan played with a strong breeze in the first half were only able to keep on level terms with their opponents, who were playing with fourteen men up to the interval. Half-time score, Dungarvan, 1-2; Kilmossanty-Pike, 1-2. P. Veale, last year's Kilmossanty Captain came on at half time to help his side, but the Dungarvan men were the better trained lot and ran out winners on the score, 4-2 to 2-3. For the winners, Barron, Lannon, Carbery, Harrington, Noonan and Curran were best. The losers were best served by Johnny Drohan, Dick McGuire, Paddy Dalton, Sean Crotty, Paddy Daly and the Fennell brothers (4).

LAST SUNDAY'S MATCHES AT DUNGARVAN.

On Sunday last two very evenly contested football matches were played at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, in aid of the Prisoners' Dependents' Fund. St. Augustines defeated Cathal Brugha's by a small margin after a great hour's play in minor football. The winners were best served by Hayes and Barron while Barry was prominent for the losers. Prior to the senior match, Mr. D. Goode, Sec. Co. Board G.A.A., recited a decade of the Rosary for all who died for Ireland. Both sides were minus a few of their championship players, but were evenly matched. Dungarvan played with a strong breeze in the first half were only able to keep on level terms with their opponents, who were playing with fourteen men up to the interval. CONDOLENCE.

At a specially convened meeting of the Colligan Fianna Fail Cumann a resolution of sympathy was passed to Mr. Patrick Fitzgerald, Ballymenon, and the death of his mother. A similar vote was passed to the Keating family, Glendog on the death of their father.

COMMITTAL ORDER SOUGHT.

At the Dungarvan Circuit Court on Thursday Mr. Molloy, B.L., instructed by Dr. Coughlin, State Solicitor, moved a notice of motion seeking an order for committal to prison, of Mrs. Mary Kate Murphy, Ahaunboy North, for disobedience of a Court order restraining her from trespassing on the lands of Ahaunboy North. Mr. Molloy said the case was previously before the court and Mr. James Murphy is now in prison for not complying with the order. Mrs. Mary Kate Murphy who had at that time complied with the order again went on the lands.

His Lordship adjourned the case to the Waterford Circuit for the production of a copy of the order served on Mrs. Murphy in 1941.

ABBESIDE BOY SCOUTS' ANNUAL ENTERTAINMENT.

The annual entertainment given by the Abbotside St. Joseph's 4th Waterford Troop of Catholic Boy Scouts in the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on Wednesday night, was as usual very successful and was afforded a wonderful measure of patronage. Space does not permit us to deal with the various items on the interesting programme individually, so we must content ourselves by saying that the rounds of applause which greeted each and every one of the artists whether in solo or group parts was well deserved. At the conclusion Rev. M. Power, C.C. Troop Chaplain, addressing the audience, on behalf of the Troop, said that the Troop had always received excellent support when they performed in Dungarvan, but that this time has surpassed all previous records. It was gratifying to see such a large attendance, especially since all concerned had done their best to make the concert a success—"I am sure you will all agree," continued Fr. Power, "that great credit is due to our Scoutmaster, Mr. Liam Lanigan, who, aided by his A.S.M., Mr. Daly, has taken such pains to train the boys under his care, and to teach them the various lessons they have performed to-night. I wish to thank the Scouts themselves for their entertainment, and for their earnestness.

"I would like to thank the Chairman and members of the Urban Council who so kindly placed the hall at our disposal, also the staff at Miss Cunniffe's who helped us in no small measure, and all who offered their services in any way.

"I have a little apology to make on behalf of our guest artist, Tommy Byrne. He travelled from Dublin under difficult circumstances, being handicapped by a bad cold. Consequently his voice was not at its best to-night and he asked me to tell you he was sorry he could not sing as many songs as he had intended."

The concert concluded by the Troop singing the Scouts' National Anthem, followed by the Irish National Anthem.

A performance was also given in the Scouts' Den, Abbotside, on Sunday night last, where another "Full House" thoroughly enjoyed the bill of fare produced.

A further lecture will be held in the Courthouse on next Wednesday night at 8.30 p.m. In connection with the last meeting an apology is due to members who were inconvenienced by attending at the Courthouse, as due to the court the premises were not available.

The examination for the certificate of the Knights of Malta will be held by Dr. O'Farrell next week. Old First Aiders are very busy getting practice at bandaging. Nurse Casey, and the Jubilee Nurse have given their valuable assistance, and a high percentage of passes is confidently expected.

The patrols continue to be carried out very satisfactorily, one or two members, however, are inclined to avoid this duty, and as this is most unfair to the rest of the Force we must ask them to do their part in future.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

WELL-KNOWN CAPPOQUIN MAN'S DEATH.

The recent death of Mr. T. Crawford removed an old and respected Cappoquin resident. Aged 95 years the deceased came to Cappoquin as a police recruit about 70 years ago and spent his entire service there. On retirement from the Police Force he was employed by the Keane family and spent a number of years in the Bacon Factory as overseer and timekeeper. During his lifelong association with Cappoquin he was known for his integrity and fair dealing and was most popular in all circles. A lover of sport he was a keen angler and well known shot and also took a deep interest in rowing etc. To his bereaved sons, Lieut H. Crawford, serving with the British Army in England, and Messrs. B. and J. Crawford, Cappoquin, deepest sympathy is extended. At the removal of the remains to the Protestant Church, Cappoquin, and at the subsequent funeral to Affane cemetery there was a large and representative congregation. The chief mourners were Messrs B. and J. Crawford (sons), Rev. J. O'Loughlin, Rector, Cappoquin, officiated.

The examination for the certificate of the Knights of Malta will be held by Dr. O'Farrell next week. Old First Aiders are very busy getting practice at bandaging. Nurse Casey, and the Jubilee Nurse have given their valuable assistance, and a high percentage of passes is confidently expected.

The patrols continue to be carried out very satisfactorily, one or two members, however, are inclined to avoid this duty, and as this is most unfair to the rest of the Force we must ask them to do their part in future.

YOU need not be an Expert to realise that a Genuine Overhaul cannot be done on your Car for a few shillings. As a Motorist you would not expect a super performance from a badly worn Engine, or trust your life to a ruin salvaged from a junk yard. PADDY CURRAN'S FIGHTING MEN

THE RESCUE OF BILL LENNON.

There was no fear for Ireland for she had soldiers still.

When Curran's boys were in the wood and Keating's on the hill.

Paddy Curran, of Glenmore, was one of the most daring and resourceful of the Waterford L.R.A. leaders. He fought the good fight both in the Anglo-Irish war and during the civil war, and was hated and feared by the Black and Tans. Perhaps his greatest exploit was his rescue of Bill Lennon, another gallant soldier who was wounded and captured during the civil war. Under medical treatment for some time at Dungarvan Hospital, he was to be executed when well again.

On the night before his removal, Curran and five more gallant comrades—Mick Ryan of Ross, Paddy Wylie of Waterford, Tom Kelleher of Cappoquin, Willie Walsh of Lisfenel, and Eddie Curran of Glenmore (Paddy's brother)—got to work. Nurse Guiry did her part inside, also Thos. Murray, ambulance driver (since dead).

Curran and his comrades, under cover of darkness, scaled the walls and by a clever ruse got into the hospital, and after holding up the sentry, they got safely away with Lennon. In half an hour's time all the soldiers in Dungarvan were hot on their trail, but Lennon was never again captured. Curran, after many another gallant feat, was taken, but made a sensational escape from Waterford, and is now in America.

We'll sing of Paddy Curran and his gallant fighting men

Who struck a blow for freedom's cause by river, town, and glen.

Mick Ryan and Paddy Wylie, Tom Kelleher the brave,

Will Walsh and Eddie Curran, who fought our land to save.

They met both Tans and 'Staters and showed what men could do.

And never hauled their colours down, their Irish hearts were true.

Let down by former comrades, ahl sorrowful the tale.

They kept their shield untarnished, each tried and gallant Gael.

And fought a gallant losing fight although their hearts were sore.

But there was no surrender in Curran of Glenmore—

Then gallant Irish soldiers, we toast them here to-night.

Who manned the Bearna Baoghail like men and fought the nation's fight.

To-morrow, boys, Bill Lennon the firing squad must face.

Will we stand by and let him die, ahl woe and dire disgrace.

He was a gallant soldier and did a true man's part.

And now a foeman's bullet will pierce our comrade's heart.

Twice thus spoke Paddy Curran unto his dauntless men,

Each raised his hand and swore we'll die or rescue him again.

That night those heroes scaled the walls and held the foe at bay,

And then with gallant Lennon they safely got away;

By glen and wood and mountain right hot upon their trail

The foemen followed after, but 'twas of no avail.

I thank you gallant comrades, said Curran to his men.

We have another dauntless heart to fight for us again.

For those true hearts, green Erin's sons, we'll raise one ringing cheer.

Those gallant boys from Waterford who knew not what was fear;

Who stood up straight for Ireland's cause, the valiant and true.

And risked their lives to save a friend—what more could heroes do?

And here's a cheer for Lennon, too, and three times three again

For those who saw him safely through for Curran and his men.

EVACUEES MUST BE BILLITED

COMPULSORY SCHEME.

A Scheme for the compulsory billeting in reception areas of people from the evacuation districts has been decided upon by the Government.

This was revealed by Mr. Moylan, Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Co-Ordination of Defensive Measures, when at Dundoran on Monday he appealed to the I.N.T.O. Congress for the co-operation of teachers in the evacuation schemes.

Mr. Moylan said 70,000 houses had been surveyed in the reception areas, and offers of accommodation had been received from 15,000 of these householders.

This would provide for about 40,000 people out of the quarter million who had registered for evacuation.

While a number of people had offered accommodation from patriotic motives, the majority of offers came from those who saw in the State contribution towards maintenance some economic benefit to themselves.

The State contribution came from public monies and it was the Government's duty to husband the public resources.

“The hour of national peril is here” said Mr. Moylan. “Our choice is now between untrammelled individual liberty and national submergence” in other words we have no choice.

The Government has decided on compulsory action, because we shall have to get the accommodation.

Mr. Moylan believed that one body likely to supervise the plans for the organisation of reception areas was the I.N.T.O. The scheme envisaged the appointment of teachers as senior billeting officers, and the I.N.T.O. would select a number of local officers to assist him.

These officers would be engaged on a whole-time basis and a number of substitute teachers would carry on the school work.

Mr. Moylan also told the Executive that he proposed to take over all unoccupied or semi-occupied large houses or mansions in the reception areas, and prepare them for the reception of unaccompanied school children on an institutional basis.

The question of continuing the children's education must, he pointed out, from the subject of consultations between the Departments of Defence and Education and the I.N.T.O. Even with this accommodation ready for use they would still have to press for all possible space in ordinary dwellings.

Mr. Coleman (Limerick) vice-chairman, assured Mr. Moylan of the teachers co-operation.

NOTE—State grants of 3/- for lodging and 3/- for food will be paid weekly in respect of each child evacuee whose parents' income is under £300 a year. Where an adult guardian accompanies children under six years, 5/- will be paid for the adult's accommodation and 5/- for food.

LAST CHANCE TO REGISTER FOR EVACUATION.

During the whole of next week a central registration office for the registration of residents of Dublin City, Dun Laoghaire who did not register on the last occasion, including those who made postal application since then will be open at the Evacuation Section, Department of Defence, 26 Westland Row, Dublin, from 9.30 a.m. till 5 p.m. and from 8.30 p.m. till 9.30 p.m. daily.

This will be the final opportunity for registering.

EARLY SPRING.

Successful gardeners plan ahead; that is one reason why they are successful. An early spring does not catch them unprepared. They have settled beforehand the seeds, plants and bulbs that they intend to grow. They have decided the number and kind of garden tools that are required. Some garden experts have predicted an early spring, so like good campaigners, they have purchased their simple tool needs already, and the assurance of July weather in March would not flurry them a bit. They are prepared. You, too, may need a spade, a rake, a digging fork, or a trowel. A spade saves so much work when anything more than a bucketful of earth has to be moved; a rake saves so many backaches and so many minutes that can be turned to productive work; a digging fork is indispensable, for it saves you literally from cutting away the roots of your horticultural hopes; a trowel is the indispensable companion of the digging fork and the necessary small brother of the spade. Why not get one of more of these tools now at Harpur Bros. and be prepared? Harpur's have everything for the garden at all prices—Harpur Brothers, 48, Quay, Waterford.

FERMOY URBAN COUNCIL

At the meeting of the Fermoys Urban Council, held on Tuesday night last, April 8th, Mr. M. J. Young, Chairman, presided. A letter was read from the Department stating that they had been informed by the County Council that the amount lodged to their credit by the Urban Council as at 20th February represented 12.6 per cent. only of the total amount of the current County poor rate Demand. Having regard to the fact that over 11 months of the current financial year had now expired and in view of the obligation of the Urban Council to meet the demand by quarterly instalments it was requested that immediate explanation be furnished of the present unsatisfactory position as to what steps were proposed to be taken to meet the full demand within the current financial year.

The Chairman said that in his opinion an explanation was very easily given. The business of Fermoys was diminishing every day and the amount of money in circulation was getting lower and there was difficulty in the collection of the rates. The Urban Council were defraying the expenses of lighting, sewerage, water, scavenging and other expenses and it was hard to know what services they were getting from the County Council which was comprised practically of all farmers who benefitted by the reduction in their annuities. The Urban Council were doing their best to pay the County demand and they could do no more.

Mr. J. O'Connor—Is the total indebtedness any greater than it was in past years. The Clerk said that it was not.

Mr. O'Connor said there seemed to be a misunderstanding about the payment of the County Demand. The rates were not able to be collected in time but all the demand was met later during the year. They should inform the Minister that the demand would be fully met but that they could not ask the people to place an extra burden on them in order to pay off arrears. Taxation in the past had not affected to any great extent the poor man but at present he was paying indirectly, owing to taxes on many commodities. It was hidden taxation. The arrears of the demand were paid off each year and it should be remembered that the County Council held them responsible for 100 per cent. of the demand although 75 per cent. may only be recovered. There was no allowance made for irrecoverable rates and that was a great hardship on Urban Councils.

The Clerk stated that the Council had paid £2,565 16s. 11d. to the Council being the balance due to 31st March, 1940. That amount was paid between April and November last and besides the sum of £1,000 was paid off the demand to the 31st March last leaving a balance of £2,864 9s. 7d. due. The Council had also paid in May last to the Railway Company the sum of £134 18s. 7d. in respect of refund of rates on reduced valuations by decision of Judge Davitt and of that sum £91 was poor rate for which the Council applied to the Co. Council but which was not apparently going to be refunded. That was a great hardship.

Mr. O'Connor said that the amount was their total indebtedness to the County Council so far and it was intended to have that cleared off as soon as possible. One would get from reading the County Council meetings on the press that they owed a great deal.

The Clerk said that the County demand had increased this year by £196, bringing the amount to the high demand of £4,160 which would mean an addition to the poor rates.

Mr. O'Connor said with all the demands made on the people and that were due to come, there was a tough time before them.

The Clerk said that up to the end of March they had paid 28 per cent of the County Demand. He thought that the Co. Council could have stayed their hand without writing to the Minister.

Mr. Kearse said that considering all that had been said they could have stayed their hand.

SOWING THE SEED

In every part of Eire the miracle of Spring is on the way, and the tiny seeds committed to the gentle earth by the sower are germinating; giving the promise of a bountiful harvest in a year when more than ever before there is a necessity to utilize fully the gifts which Nature has bestowed on us.

What a wonderful return we secure from the sowing of these tiny containers of potential energy! From the microscopic seed will come the bountiful harvest of produce on which our very existence will depend in these difficult days.

Just as the stately plant is the product of the seed, the small premiums paid by Policyholders of The Irish Assurance Company Ltd. will provide a capital sum at the end of a selected period or at death, and in this case there need be no fear of a poor harvest as the security of our Policies is absolute. Life Assurance is a necessity to every man and woman in these days, and particulars of our profitable assurances will be gladly given by our Representatives or on application to:

THE IRISH ASSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED

Chief Office:
Hannam Buildings, Upper O'Connell Street, Dublin, C.S.
J. BRENNAN, (Superintendent), MARY STREET, DUNGARVAN.

It was decided that the Clerk would give particulars to the Minister.

A letter was read from the Secretary, County Council, stating it was not intended after the 31st March last to continue payment of contributions towards the cleaning of main roads in the Urban District, as all main roads through Urban District were now laid in dust surfaces and the cleaning of such surfaces was not necessary for the maintenance of the roads. It was intended to have the cleaning of the main roads carried out by the County Survey staff in future.

Mr. Daly said that he understood this question had been adjourned and would be arranged at a latter meeting of the County Council. The least said is the soonest mended.

The Chairman said that the contribution received for the cleaning of the main roads was £100 and they expended about £150 on the work.

The Clerk said that if the contribution was stopped it would only mean the employment of one or two men who were constantly engaged on the cleaning of the main roads throughout the town. He did not know how the County Council came to the conclusion the roads were dust free as everyone knew that such was not the case. It was a serious matter for the Council.

Mr. O'Connor said they should protest in the strongest manner possible. It meant they might as well give the running of the town to the County Council.

Mr. M. J. Kearse said that surely the people were not going to stand for dust free streets as they called them. They all knew that the roads were not dust free especially at the present time with the amount of horse traffic over them consequently on the curtailment of motor traffic.

The Chairman said he has sent word to Mr. Power who suggested that all Councils should protest. If the County Surveyors were allowed to do this in a few years the Council would not be there at all.

Mr. O'Connor said that they were bound to take notice of the matter when official notification had been received.

Mr. Daly said that the question had been adjourned by the County Council and he understood that a great many had been against it including some of the Surveyors.

Mr. O'Connor proposed that they strongly protest against the stoppage of the contribution and asking that it would not be enforced considering that the work of cleaning the main roads had always been carried out in a satisfactory manner by the Council and considerable expense.

Mr. E. Daly seconded the proposition which was passed.

A letter was read from the Department in reference to derelict sites and requesting that the Town Surveyor be asked if the list of sites coming within Section 1 of the Act had yet been prepared and when received it should be submitted to the Council and a copy furnished to the Department with the Council's minute thereon.

A letter was read from the Town Surveyor stating he had already replied but it would be better to get the Council's opinion and to give him the correspondence.

Mr. J. O'Connor asked had they sufficient data to send to the Department. The Clerk said they had not.

The Chairman asked had the Surveyor any other way of dealing with the matter outside getting the maps, etc.

The Clerk said he presumed that the Surveyor had his own maps. The Surveyor had stated that the three sites which in his opinion were derelict were Clancy Street, Devlin Street and Redmond Street, and that these had been acquired. Then he referred to Section 8 and said that the Medical Officer should be asked to report.

Mr. Kearse said would not the Clerk give the maps, etc. that were required, which he said he would not like to leave out of his possession.

The Clerk said he did not think the Council would like to do so. The letter from the Department asked the Town Surveyor to make out a list and estimate.

Mr. O'Connor asked when was the Surveyor here last.

The Clerk stated he was there in connection with allotments on the 31st March.

Mr. O'Connor said it would be better he should come over and go into the matter. The Chairman said that the best thing they could do was to have the Town Surveyor and the Solicitor attend and deal with the whole question. He suggested they should have a special meeting for the purpose.

On the proposition of Mr. O'Connor seconded by Mr. Daly it was decided to hold a special meeting on the 15th inst. and that the solicitor and surveyor should attend and deal finally with the matter.

A letter was read from the Minister inquiring what further action had been taken by the Council with a view to the demolition of the remaining 8 houses vacated by persons rehoused under the Council's schemes of 41 and 62 houses.

Mr. J. O'Connor asked what could they do.

The Clerk said that they had been dealing with this question of the demolition of these houses for a long time and the owners had not helped the Council in any way. The only thing that could be done would be to have the work of demolition put up for contract.

Mr. O'Connor—These houses have to be written to to that effect.

The Sanitary Officer should go to the owners and see what they would do.

Mr. E. Daly said they had given every latitude to the owners and they could give 10 days to carry out the demolition works and the Department could be written to to that effect.

The Chairman said that we were led to believe that according to the Acts that certain things could not be done. We discovered afterwards that there was such a thing as an Improvement Order. If Mr. Hyde's house came down what would the Clerk do. They could not remove Mrs. Kennedy from her house as she was an invalid and anything might occur on her removal. Mr. Crowley seemed to have a grievance as he was only paying a small head rent and could not be expected to pay 3/- a week.

Mr. O'Connor—These houses have unfortunately been sentenced to death.

Mr. E. Daly said that the question of Hyde's house might be got over as the demolition of two houses at the back would give space. There was no reason why the houses in Connolly St. of Miss Hogan should not come down.

It was decided that the Sanitary Officer would call on the owners and request them to state what action they were going to take in regard to the demolition orders.

A letter was read from the Department in reference to the supply of milk under the Free Milk Scheme and stating that the tender for the supply was considered excessive but that the Minister would be prepared to approve of prices at 1/3 per gallon during the summer period and 1/6 per gallon during the winter period. The tenderer should be approached with a view to a reduction in his prices to the figures stated.

A letter was read from the contractor Mr. A. Wall stating he was prepared to supply the milk for the summer period at 1/3 per gallon but on no account could he alter his price for the second half as the milk was scarce and dear in the winter, from 1/8 per gallon.

Mr. O'Connor proposed that a copy of Mr. Wall's letter be sent to the Department with a recommendation that owing to the high cost of feeding during the winter months his tender for the second period be accepted.

Mr. Daly seconded the proposition which was agreed to.

A letter was read from the Minister of Supplies in reference to the Council's application on behalf of Mr. D. J. Buckley for a licence for the purchase of motor spirit and stating that having carefully considered the purpose for which a supply of motor spirit was required, he was unable to grant a licence.

LEARNERSHIPS IN G.P.O., CORK. SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES IN RECENT EXAMINATION.

The Civil Service Commissioners have announced the result of the examination held last December for learnerships in Cork Post Office and elsewhere.

First place in the male learnership open competitive examination for Cork Post Office was won by Patrick Lyons, 22, St. Finbar's Place, Cork, and first place in the female learnership open competitive examination was secured by Miss Eily Boylan, 33, Gilabbey Street, Cork. In each case there was only one vacancy and the competition was very keen.

Master Patrick Lyons, the successful male competitor, is second son of Mr. P. J. Lyons, an occasional contributor to our columns. Master Lyons, who was a pupil of the North Monastery and Sullivan's Quay Schools, secured an £80 scholarship four years ago, and again last year he won another valuable scholarship.

A noteworthy feature of the result is the fact that at the previous open competitive examination for one clerkship in the G.P.O., Cork, the first successful candidate was Master Diarmuid Lyons, elder brother of the present winning candidate.

Miss Eily Boylan, who took first place in the female learnership examination, is a very popular and highly respected young lady at present attending St. Mary's of the 15th Schools. Her father is a native of Roscrea, Co. Tipperary, and her mother hails from Co. Kerry.

MODERN TENDENCIES.

The last ten years have witnessed marked changes in the fashion in wallpapers. The newest vogue is the resurrection of the Empire Regency period. Thus, when decorating a modern house, one should keep to very quiet tones, possibly introducing self-colours which help to make rooms look very much larger. This, of course, is a vital consideration in a modern house, where space is sometimes very limited. The new wallpapers stocked by us fit in well for this purpose, especially the light patterns as these give character and a furnished effect to a room without detracting from the apparent size. The tendency to change wallpaper is greater now than ever before, as people take greater interest in the home, perhaps because there is a far larger proportion of house-owners than in previous times. It is often desirable to alter the apparent size of a room. An uncomfortably large or unglamorous one looks smaller and cosier when an assertive colour like red, orange or warm yellow is used to make the wall appear to come forward.—Harpur Brothers, Wallpaper Specialists, Waterford.

EAST CORK DIVISIONAL COMMITTEE.

At a meeting of the East Cork Committee held in the Town Hall, Midleton, the Vice-Chairman, Mr. M. P. Spillane, N.T., V.C., presided. Also present were Messrs. George Cashel, N.T., Hon. Treasurer; Thos. Powell, Hon. Registrar; Eamon Fleming, Hon. Sec.; Denis Conway, John Parker, East Cork representatives on Cork County Board; Rev. Brother Roberts, Midleton C.B.S.; W. J. Abernethy, Castlemartyr H.C.; J. Barry, B.A., N.T., Hon. Sec. Castle-martyr New Grounds Committee; Sergt. J. Cronin, Harbour Forts, F.B.C.; J. Coyne, Youghal F.B.C.; J. O'Grady, Cove H. and F.B.C.; James Walsh, M. Geleher, Aghada H.C.; B. Murphy, Sarsfields F.B.C.; J. O'Sullivan, Russell Rovers H.C.; D. Crotty, Shanagarry F.B.C.; J. Moynihan, N.T., Cloyne H.C.; T. Barry, J. Ring, Ballinacorra H.C.; C. Dorgan, C. Griffin, Little Island H. and F.B.C.; J. Fitzgerald, T. Barry, Lisgool H.C.; Sean Ahern, Lisgool M.H.; P. J. Campbell, D. Slaney, Midleton H.C.; M. Cotter, Midleton F.B.C.; W. Conroy, Carrigtwohill F.B.C.; P. Fohy, Carrigtwohill H.C.; E. O'Regan, St. Mary's Minor F.B.C.; Youghal; J. O'Sullivan, M. Lynch, W. Walsh, Midleton, Handball Board, etc.

Arising from the minutes a letter from Rev. J. Ronayne, Bishop's Secretary, Bishop's House, Cogh, Co. Cork, acknowledging a vote of sympathy passed by the Committee on the occasion of the death of Very Rev. C. L. O'Flynn, P.P. was read.

Another letter from Rev. J. Hurley, Bishop's House, Farranferris, Cork, acknowledging a vote of sympathy passed by the East Cork Committee, on the occasion of the death of the Rev. Timothy Murphy, P.P., Watergrasshill.

Both letters were ordered to be inserted on the minutes.

REFEREES' REPORTS.

All the referees' reports before the meeting were adopted while that in connection with the match played at Inch, Youghal vs. Kileronat, was held over, pending inquiries.

The Chairman said he wished to congratulate the teams and all concerned upon the very satisfactory results achieved with one exception which would come up for consideration at the next meeting.

MIDLETON v. BALLINACORRA.

Mr. T. Barry, on behalf of the Ballinacorra H.C., congratulated Midleton on their well deserved victory in the semi-final for the Christian Brothers S. T. tournament. The object was certainly a very deserving one and appraised forcibly to the players and people of the town and the Division. It gave the Ballinacorra Club great satisfaction to be in a position to help the project. He wished Midleton Club still greater success (applause).

Mr. D. Slaney, on behalf of Midleton

Committee and players suitably replaced.

DUNGOURNEY v. BALLINACORRA.

Mr. Bobby Ring warmly congratulated Dungourney Club upon the magnificent and surprising display made on the occasion of the opening tie in the championship versus Ballinacorra, played at Midleton on the previous Sunday on behalf of the Ballinacorra Club and people he wished the Dungourney Club and Gaeils the best of luck in their coming engagements and sincerely hoped that the spirit, grit and determination which characterised the old Dungourney Hurling team would take possession of the present day exponents and help them onward, to place that time honoured name on the roll as Cork Co. Champions (applause).

Mr. Seamus Colbert in reply thanked Mr. Ring and the good Gaeils of Ballinacorra for the congratulations so generously extended to his Club. To be candid his colleagues surprised themselves and he should say it was a source of pride and satisfaction to encounter such honorable and manly Gaeils, as Ballinacorra proved themselves to be on the occasion. He appreciated the compliment paid his Club. Both teams played the game as it should be played. Victory or defeat did not in the least count (applause).

MIDLETON v. FERMOY.

Arising out of a letter from the Co. Secretary relative to a fixture, Midleton v. Fermoys at Riverstown. The members were unanimous in again writing the Co. Board for next meeting expressing surprise at the ruling reached in the case and asking that the application be reconsidered with a view of meeting the wishes of the East Cork Committee and accepting the alternative proposal put forward.

The Chairman said the Hon. Secretary would attend to the matter. It would be well that the Divisional reputation would be present and put forward the views of the members.

Midleton H.C. applied for permission for the holding of an Inter-Road Hurling League competition, same to take place during the coming summer evenings, and enclosed a draft of the rules governing the competition.

Permission was granted. Lisgool H.C. applied for and were granted permission for a two day junior hurling tournament and asking for an early date to start same, also enclosing the names of teams who had kindly decided to take part.

Permission was granted provided the fixtures, the Hon. Sec. to arrange with the tournament committee.

KILMATHOMAS NOTES.

A FASHIONABLE LOCAL WEDDING.

Neath sun-washed skies on Tuesday (Festival of St. Crescentia), the splendid Parish Church of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, Stradbally, was the scene of a very pretty and interesting wedding, the contracting parties being worthy members of two of the finest old far-flung family stocks of the Decies, in the persons of Mr. James Coffey, draper, Main St., Dungarvan son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coffey (licensed vintner and farmer), Whitechurch, Cappagh, and Miss Mary Francis (Fanny) Fitzgerald, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Fitzgerald, Spring Valley Hotel, Bonmahon (and Ballinacissla, do.).

The ceremony proved one of the most fashionable seen in Mid-Waterford this year, and a large gathering of people waited outside the sacred edifice to catch a glimpse of Miss Fitzgerald as she entered and left.

The bride, who was given away by her father looked charming attired in a slim fitting frock of powder blue, cut on classical lines. She had accessories to match and carried a bouquet.

Mr. Michael Coffey, T.C., Waterford (brother of the groom), acted as best man, and the bridesmaid, who wore a frock of old rose, was Miss Kathleen (Kitty) Fitzgerald (sister of the bride).

Following the wedding, over fifty guests were entertained at Spring Valley Hotel, where the numerous and beautiful presents were displayed, together with the addresses of congratulatory messages. Amongst those present, in addition to the happy couple, the brides parents, and the groomsmen and bridesmaid, were: Fr. Leahy, Fr. Walsh, Fr. Power, Mr. J. Barron, Dungarvan; Mr. D. O'Keefe, do.; Mrs. Walsh, Bayliss, Cappoquin; Mr. R. Walsh and Miss Walsh, do.; Mr. and Mrs. W. O'Connell, Mallow; Mr. and Mrs. J. Power, Kilbeg; Mr. Thomas Buckley, Kilmoylan, Kilmathomas; Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Gaule, Provincial Bank, Kilmathomas; Mr. John Kennedy and the Misses Kennedy, Stonehouse, Kilmadee; Mr. J. Kennedy Kilbeg, Kill; Mr. Robert Mooney and Miss Mooney, Kiltagee, do.; Dr. Jennings, Bonmahon, and Messrs J. and T. Magner, do.

Proposing a toast to the happy couple, Fr. Walsh paid a high tribute to the bride, and said she was one of the best—not the best—and most exemplary Catholics in the parish. All he was sorry for was that Bonmahon was losing her, but what was Bonmahon's loss was Dungarvan's gain. He did not know the bridegroom as long, but what he did know was that he was a man of uncommon personality and ability, and came of a good Catholic family.

Fr. Power said that he endorsed all that had been said about the bride, but that he felt happy in the thought that they would continue increasing their already extensive circle of cordial friendships.

Messrs J. Barron and D. O'Keefe also spoke, and associated themselves with the tributes paid to the newly-joined pair.

The groom suitably replied, and the bride's father also voiced a pretty phrased acknowledgement.

A few enjoyable hours followed, vocal items being contributed by Mr. J. Barron, Mr. J. Kennedy, Mr. M. Coffey, T.C.; Mr. W. O'Connell, Miss Walsh, and Miss Kennedy which were greatly appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Coffey later left for the Metropolis, where the honeymoon is being spent, and were given a rousing send-off.

The groom, who is a brother of the Rev. Patrick Coffey, Portlaine, South Australia, and the late Rev. John Henry Coffey, O.S.A. Fethard, Co. Tipperary, is one of the most sporting, generous and respected couple in the town, and has his charmingly mannered life-partner have the very best wishes of a long, prosperous and unbroken life of conjugal bliss in the years to come.

By the way, the bride's father is a valued member of the Dungarvan Show Society since its inception a quarter of a century ago, and is also identified with several other public bodies. A neighbour who has made a niche in the farming industry, he is quietly spoken and unassuming; has a keen, energetic brain, and possesses tolerance and understanding of fellow men to a marked degree. Mr. Fitzgerald and his equally amiable wife as host and hostess respectively were hospitality personified on the auspicious occasion of their daughter's marriage.

EASTERTIDE. Under Divisional Staff J.O. Jeremiah Collins, and G/A Thomas J. Carey, the Kilmathomas L.D.F. unit paraded to the 11 a.m. Mass at the Parish Church, Newtown, on Easter Sunday.

The cancellation of the Tramore race meeting on the Bank Holiday left many local holidaymakers without their seasonal relaxation that day.

The dance at the New Hall, Kilmathomas, on Easter Sunday night proved a great success. There was a big attendance and dancing continued with great spirit until early morning. Mr. P. Barron, Kilmathomas, functioned as M.C. with wonted ability, and excellent music was provided by Mr. M. Griffin. The catering, by the Hall Management, left nothing to be desired.

Dances held on the same night at the halls at Kill, Leamshy, and the Pike, respectively were also largely patronised and thoroughly enjoyed.

NONAGENARIAN PASSES.

Though she was a nonagenarian, the death of Mrs. Mary Lonergan, wife of Mr. J. Lonergan, farmer, Knockeylan, Kiltrossanty, which happened at her home on Good Friday, after an illness of some few months, was deeply regretted, not only by her immediate friends and relatives but by numerous others from far and near, to whom she proved a very good friend.

Fine old type of Catholic Irishwoman, deceased was a fluent speaker of her native language, and an intelligent narrator of the folklore of the district. She had numerous relatives and friends throughout the Decies who will miss her kindly humorous manner, and interesting narratives of the olden days, of the historic genealogical interest. Consoled by the rites of her religion, she died a holy and a happy death. With her bereaved husband and sons and daughters, sympathy is universal. The light of Heaven to her gentle soul.

Respected and esteemed by all who knew her, a practical tribute was paid to the memory of the late Mrs. Lonergan in the very large and representative attendance that accompanied the removal of the remains on Easter Saturday to St. Brigid's Parish Church, Kiltrossanty, where they were rested overnight on a catafalque before the High Altar.

Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery after the 11 o'clock Mass on Easter Sunday, in the presence of many mourners and sympathisers. Very Rev. J. Crotty, P.P. Kiltrossanty officiated at the graveside, assisted by the Rev. W. Meehan, C.C. do.

A number of beautiful floral wreaths were placed on the grave, and shoals of spiritual bouquets and messages of condolence were received.

The chief mourners were—Mr. James Lonergan (husband); Messrs. James, Matthew, Patrick and John Lonergan (sons); Mrs. A. O'Connell, Thurles; Mrs. Nora Hayes Ballycashin (daughters); Mrs. M. Lonergan, Mrs. J. Lonergan, Mrs. P. Lonergan and Mrs. John Lonergan (daughters-in-law); etc. etc.

Masses for the happy repose of the departed soul were offered up during the week.

Four of deceased's daughters are domiciled in the U.S.A.

It would be impossible to give a complete list of the general public present at the removal of the remains and at the burial. (American papers will please copy).

SYMPATHY. Widespread sympathy is extended to the relatives of the late Mrs. Quinn, Ashdown, Kilmathomas, all that was mortal of whom was reverently laid to rest in Fews Churchyard on Easter Monday, in the presence of innumerable mourners and sympathisers and amid many manifestations of profound grief. (R.I.P.)

HOME. Miss Mary Dunford, who is the youngest qualified nurse in England, is now spending a holiday at her parental roof-top. Daughter of deservedly popular Mr. and Mrs. Dunford (farmer), Rathmadden, Kilmathomas, the highly talented lady is in excellent health and spirits.

RETURNED. The uppermost topic of conversation throughout these parts to-day is the first round clash in this year's Senior Football County Championship competition between Stradbally (last year's champions) and Kiltrossanty-Pike—coming off at Fraher Field, Dungarvan, on to-morrow (Sunday) week. 'Twill be the game of the season.

A NEW POSTMAN. Now postman of the Kilmathomas-Coolnaborna rural delivery is Mr. J. O'Brien, Dungarvan. He was telegraph messenger at the Old Borough Office for some years past, and the change means promotion to him.

WATERFORD BOARD OF ASSISTANCE

T. D. Connelly, Chairman, presided at a meeting of the above held in the Court-house, Dungarvan, on Wednesday last. Also present were Messrs. S. J. Moynihan, Commissioner, B. Cunningham and James Power. Mr. M. Phelan, Home Assistance Officer, and Mrs. P. A. Croke, Acting Secretary, were also present.

Dr. Jennings, M.O., Bonmahon, appeared before the meeting and asked that the Board foot a bill of £7 10s. for fittings for the installation of five Calor Gas outlets at his residence at Bonmahon. With 25 per cent of the normal supply of Calor Gas and 25 per cent of oil he could carry on. When the fittings are installed they are then the Board's property.

The matter was approved. SECRETARY'S ILLNESS. The Chairman said they were all very sorry to hear that the Secretary, Mr. M. O'Flynn, was unwell and that they all wished him a very speedy recovery.

The Chairman proposed that Mrs. Croke act as Secretary during Mr. O'Flynn's illness.

Mr. Power seconded.

COCOA POWDER. Drs. White and Shipsey recommended that cocoa powder be procured for Waterford Co. Hospital owing to the tea shortage.

The matter was approved.

PORTLAND DISPENSARY. Dr. Prenderville, M.O., Portlawn, applied for the installation of electric light, fire and steriliser. He said he had received two quotations from two local electricians.

It was decided that the E.S.B. be written to and the lowest tender be accepted.

A.R.P. IN WATERFORD CO. HOSPITAL. Mr. McGrath, overseer, reported that the three block of buildings had been made ready for casualties. Two doors had been broken out and the place had been cleaned down and whitewashed.

Chairman—The building has good accommodation and there are men working there at present. I think we should bring the matter before the authorities.

Commissioner—I think they should give us some contribution.

It was agreed that the Department of Defence be asked to contribute.

FOOD AND FUEL CAMPAIGN. Mr. Moynihan suggested that the Government initiate some scheme so as to make those able bodied men getting home assistance useful to farmers. Farmers could give 8s. a week to them along with the 6s. from the Board of Assistance. If the subsidy was granted they would do a lot of useful work in the line of draining and improving of land. Of course, these men would be extra hands.

Mr. Cunningham agreed with the Commissioner's suggestion, and added that they would be very useful with regard to the turf scheme.

With regard to the production of turf, the Commissioner said the County Surveyor is investigating the matter. It is not yet possible to say whether there will be plenty of turf on the Comeraghs if there was any means of conveying it down from the mountain.

The Chairman said owing to the shortage of petrol, etc., each Co. must try and get their turf supply as near as possible, when a member asked him would it not be cheaper to get it from the Bog of Allen.

Mr. Cunningham said that at the Corporation the question was asked if the Board of Assistance could strike a rate for the purchase of turf for the poor of the city.

Mr. Jephson—There is very little turf in the Eastern portion of the County. Annetstown is the only place.

Commissioner—I think the Co. Surveyor should be asked to prepare an estimate of the Board's requirements and make the necessary provision for supplying that order.

Mr. Cunningham—We have made arrangements only for fuel. If anything happens we are to blame. We are asked to provide food also.

Secretary—You can't get tea but cocoa is an order.

Mr. Cunningham—I propose we apply for a loan of £5,000 or £6,000 for two or three years.

Chairman—You can't name an amount until the County Surveyor finds out what will be necessary.

Mr. Cunningham—If you don't get a loan the ratepayers will be mulcted.

It was finally resolved that the Department of Local Government and Public Health be requested to give sanction for the raising of a loan of £5,000 to this Board for the purpose of meeting possible unprecedented demands for food and fuel during the present emergency. Payment of the loan to extend a period of ten years.

BOARD THANKED. A letter was received from the Secretary of the Red Cross, thanking the Board for making an ambulance available in the case of an emergency.

Dr. O'Callaghan, M.O., wrote thanking the Board for his temporary appointment in Bonmahon for the past ten months.

X-RAY FOR DUNGARVAN. Having received a number of quotations for a portable X-ray for Dungarvan District Hospital, Dr. McCarthy, M.B., recommended the Victor Model F.3 Portable X-ray with combination of apparatus including Model 35 tube-stand, at a cost of £202.

Mr. Moynihan, Commissioner, proposed that Dr. McCarthy's recommendation be referred to the Department for sanction.

"THE ROLL OF THE DRUM."

Grand Entertainment at Cappoquin.

Despite many counter attractions the Boathouse, Cappoquin, held a capacity audience when a well varied and highly entertaining programme was presented on last Sunday night.

The entertainment was presented on a drum tap being used instead.

Then a direct contrast four soldiers: Corporal Moore and Privates Lysaght, Barret and Kennedy gave a comedy turn.

"Drill as it should not be done," and the eccentric movements of this "Awkward Squad" caused much mirth.

A Camp Fire Scene in which a company of soldiers marching, Corporal Moore and new members were very well received. The soloists were Pte. Ned Kennedy ("The Old Potato Cake"), Pte. Doherty (A Parody on "Home Sweet Home"), Pte. Lysaght ("The Woodpecker Song"), Pte. O'Kelly ("The Kit Inspection"), Pte. Corporal Leighton ("Lowlands Low").

Four inchoatly organsists, Corporal McNamara and Privates Murphy, Barret and Kennedy played in excellent style while "Corporal" Thomas Healy, who were uniform for the time earned rapturous applause for his splendid exhibition of Irish step-dancing.

"Three Nice Recruits," a parody on Delia Murphy's famous "Three Lovely Lassies" gave Privates Lysaght, Barret and Kennedy an opportunity of showing what good comedians they were and (assisted by Corporal Moore as the blustering Sergeant) they created much laughter and received rounds of applause.

"Pasha" the conjuror is no stranger to Cappoquin and the audience enjoyed every moment of his diverting and mystifying series of cleverly presented illusions.

The programme included a newcomer in the person of Miss Patricia Sargent, daughter of Mr. A. J. Sargent. Her playing of two pianoforte solos in brilliant style showing her a musician of much promise and much appreciated.

Mr. P. X. O'Leary sang two humorous songs which were well received and Miss Sheila White in "O'Rourke's Request" and, as an encore, "The Green Eye of the Little Yellow God" displayed elocutionary and histrionic ability of a high order.

The entertainment concluded with the singing of the National Anthem by the artists and the audience.

Miss E. Mullins, A.V.C.M., played all the accompaniments in her usual faultless style and Mr. O'Leary was a successful compere.

This was agreed to.

REPAIRS TO BONMAHON DISPENSARY. The tender of Messrs. Flynn, Waterford, for the painting of the above at £29 14s. was accepted. As the tenders for the carpentry work were not considered in order, Mr. Jephson, B.E., was directed to get the work done.

REPORT OF HOME ASSISTANCE OFFICER. The report of Mr. Phelan, Home Assistance Officer, showed the amount of expenditure on Home Assistance for the month as £2,232 8s. 1d., compared with £2,133 5s. 7d. for the preceding five weeks and £2,041 10s. 5d. for the corresponding period in 1940.

SNATCHING AN EXTRA GRAZING CROP.

Italian rye-grass is the answer to the provision of grazing for sheep and cattle during winter and early spring. Producing abundant keep for sheep during winter and early spring, it is linked with the building up of fertility.

Sowing Italian rye-grass with spring-sown oats is a sound practice, especially for sheep men in those districts where folding is impossible. The herbage developed after the corn is harvested will provide keep of the most valuable kind not only in autumn, but also during the critical period March to mid-April, when the most pastures have not started to grow.

Italian rye grass is usually used in seeds mixtures for hay, but it is as a grazing grass that it excels. More than any other species it has the capacity to recover rapidly after intermittent grazing, while a further valuable feature is its ability to continue growing throughout winter.

A field of 14 acres, 700 feet above sea level and of fertile soil, was ploughed up, dressed with Nitro-Chalk and sown with oats and 28lb. of Italian rye-grass per acre.

The oats were harvested in September, and, owing to the dirty state of the land, only half a normal sward of Italian rye-grass was obtained. From November 23rd to December 30th the field was grazed by eleven store bullocks.

From February 12 to March 26, 91 lambs grazed the 14 acres for 14 hours each day. They thrived and compared most favourably with lambs which were wintered away on lowland farms.

About 20lbs. per acre of Italian rye-grass sown under oats this spring will not only ensure valuable grazing next autumn, but if wireworm attacks the oats there will still be useful fodder instead of complete failure. If the corn is harvested, the stubble grazing offered by the rye-grass helps to build up fertility.

Many alternatives are open to the man who uses this grass properly. He may decide to have the oat-Italian rye-grass mixture for hay. In this case sowing is deferred until the end of April or early May and cut before the oats shoot. If desired perennial rye-grass and wild white clover could be included in this mixture, giving it a longer duration turn.

One hundredweight of Nitro-Chalk after harvesting the hay crop is strongly advised as the grass responds to heavy manuring, particularly nitrogen. Italian rye-grass is likely to suffer from a brownling of the leaves during winter which is known as "winter burn". This can be controlled to a great extent by the method of grazing adopted.

To prevent undue browsing, and, since keep from November to April is so scarce, intermittent grazing during this period is a wise policy. Although the early bite will be less under this system of management the herbage offering in early spring will be more attractive to the sheep than if it had been grazed in autumn only.

The adaptability and great value for grazing of Italian rye-grass ought to be more widely recognised.

CORK'S OWN HURLING MEN.

(This little song, written some years ago by "Silabh Ruadh" (the late Mr. Phil O'Neill) is of particular interest to-day, when its repetition is particularly appropriate.)

I'll sing you a song as we steam along In a well-filled special train. We're merry and bright and glad to-night With our colours on top again; For the day is done and Cork has won, And now we hold the sway. So join the cry and raise on high For gallant old Cork—hurrah!

(Chorus): For Cork we shout hurrah! For Cork we shout hurrah! For Cork we shout hurrah! For Cork we shout hurrah!

We're proud of the name and glory and fame Of our hurlers one and all. Who're ready to dare with never a care And answer their country's call. The "Rockies" and "Barrs" and the sporting "Sars."

The "Redmonds" game and gay; Cloughdun so bold, St. Mary's of old. All fighting for Cork to-day. (Chorus.)

We praise East Cork for the gallant work They've done on many a field; On Dungourney's pride we ever relied. When the foe was slow to yield; And still we love old Carrig and Cove. And Middleton down that brunt. All in the front of the battle's fray. And fighting for Cork to-day.

Well sing you, too, of the hurlers true. Wherever on earth they be; The boys we have yet and we don't forget The exiles o'er the sea. But now fill up the last good cup To those who hold the sway. And join the shout and let it ring out— For gallant old Cork—hurrah!

(N.B.—This song was dedicated to Sean Oge Murphy, of all-Ireland hurling fame, and may be sung to the air "Ireland, Boys, Hurrah!")

West Waterford Divisional G.A.A. Notes.

BY "AN ANAIDHE."

GREEN CROSS FUND. From the returns received to date it is assured that a substantial subscription in aid of the Green Cross Fund was secured by the benefit games in West Waterford on Easter Sunday. The games were carried out as billed and great credit is due to the clubs who helped. A complete return is not yet available but a full detailed account of all the games will be submitted to next Board meeting by the Divisional secretaries. Clubs who took part in any of the games can have the satisfaction of knowing they have helped in a deserving cause.

FABA OBJECT. Faha Cumann has sent in an objection to the Brickey Rangers junior football team being awarded the first round J.F. fixture on the grounds that the "Brickies" were late on the field and that the lists of players were not handed to the referee as per rule. A counter objection is said to be under consideration. As usual in cases which are unfilled I will give no opinion on the merits of the case but from what I hear of events it is likely to be a long hearing. The Brickey Secretary says "never trust anyone to do anything important while you can do it yourself."

WITHDRAWALS. There is talk of teams withdrawing from championships and of others not fielding out in their first rounds. I can't say if there is any truth in this but in case any club have considered withdrawing I would like them to make a special effort to fulfil their engagements. If clubs would try and get the youths going in their areas they would find plenty material. Call a meeting and go to the younger boys and invite them there and you will be surprised at the result.

For the benefit of referees, umpires and spectators at our games I would like to point out that at "Congress" on Sunday last it was agreed that in future when a score is being signalled the umpire should raise the flag in the middle of the space between the goalposts and not at side of post as has been done in the past.

It would be well to start in the new way at once. Do not confuse with a disallowed goal which is indicated by crossing both flags in goal space.
