DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT

Licensing Prosecutions.

Metal Moulders' Melee near Cahir.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT AT CAPPAGH LEVEL CROSSING.

The Dungarvan District Court was held on Wednesday last before Mr. S. J. Troy, D.J.

EXAMINATION ORDER.

David Riordan, Shandon, sought an examination order against Jas. Butler, St. Garvan's Terrace. The application was granted for next court.

Mr. Farrell (Messrs. Farrell and Morrissey, Solrs.) for applicant.

COMMITTAL ORDER SOUGHT.

The Attorney General sought a Committal Order against Luke O'Brien, Ballintaylor in respect of his failure to pay a decree got against him for £17 lbs. 6d. by the Revenue Commissioners.

Mr. Lanigan, Solr., appearing for Dr. Connelan, State Solr., prosecuted.

Mr. Kenny, Solr. (E. A. Ryan and Co.) defended.

Replying to Mr. Lanigan the defendant, O'Brien, admitted that he promised to pay in October last. Since then he sold 4 tons of beet, but when everything was out of it he got about £6.

Justice—What did you get for the beet.

Witness—£6.

To Mr. Lanigan—He had 71 acres of land and 26 acres let. He got a lump sum of £125 in respect of the 26 acres, 4 years ago. His stock consists of 2 cows, a horse and a sow.

To the Justice—All the money he had to live on since October was one solitary £6.

Justice—You seem to get on well on that.

Witness—I got a few pounds here and there (laughter).

To Mr. Lanigan—He got £25 for wheat in October.

Justice—And you told me you had only £6 since October.

Replying to Mr. Kenny, Solr., witness said he owned 2 farms. The Ballyduff farm was let about 4 years ago. It consists of 28 acres.

The Ballintaylor farm is a rough mountain land. He had let one field of this about 5 years ago at 30/- an acre. The rattle put on this were seized for rent and he let the Ballyduff farm as he wanted money to release the impounded cattle. He let it at £35 a year for six years. He let it cheap as he had his hand in the dog's mouth (laughter). Messrs. E. A. Ryan and Co. held the 5 year's rent, and witness got the balance and bought back the impounded cattle. He lost £10 and £25 in this way. A man named Ronayne took the Ballyduff land, but he would not take it on witness' undertaking to pay the rent and rates.

At this point Mr. Kenny explained to the Justice that the decree was for Estate duty in respect of the Ballyduff farm which was left to the defendant's son (a minor).

To Mr. Kenny—Defendant said he promised to pay the £17. He had thought he could get Mr. Ronayne to take the land for a few more years. He is killing the Ballintaylor farm and has a tractor working on it at the moment. He failed to pay this decree because he could not let the Ballintaylor land due to the seizure of the cattle. He can hardly make ends meet.

Mr. Kenny—You are a man who has broad acres but no money (laughter).

Witness—Yes.

Mr. Kenny said that when his client, Mr. O'Brien, consented to the order he thought he could make a letting.

Mr. Lanigan—You had sums of £6 and £25 since October.

Witness—Yes. There may be other sums.

Mr. Kenny said the man had rent and rates to pay out of this as well as supporting a family. He has not sufficient money to make ends meet. He suggested that the Justice make an order for the payment of 10/- a month.

The Justice finally made an order for £1 a month in the meantime if a letting is made the capital sum is to be paid.

MORDAN v. HUMBLE.

Mr. Farrell (Messrs. Farrell and Morrissey, Solrs.) for applicant.

Mr. Kenny (Messrs. E. A. Ryan and Co., Solrs.) defended.

Mr. Farrell said this is an application by David Riordan, Shandon, to commit to prison for failure to pay an instalment in respect of a court order made in November, 1940.

Mr. Farrell said the instalment was for £1 per month, there are now four instalments due.

Mr. Kenny, Solr., said that he understood the order made applied only to periods worked by his client.

The Justice said the order made was for £1 a month.

Mr. Humble sworn, in reply to the Justice said he could have paid £1 since December, 1940.

The Justice—These proceedings are in respect of the first instalment.

Mr. Kenny—The fact of the matter is that I have received £3.

LICENSING CASES.

Superintendent Walsh charged Mrs. Margaret Whelan, O'Connell Street, with a breach of the licensing law on Saturday, April 5th, 1941, and six men were charged with being on the premises after closing time.

Sergt. Liddane gave evidence of visiting the premises at 10.5 p.m. on Saturday, April 5th. When he knocked the door was opened by the barmaid, who, when she saw who was there closed the door in his face. He heard men rushing. When he got in he found one man in the kitchen who said he did not know the men who were in the kitchen. The men who were in the bar stood there. The licensee was not on the premises. There was stout in all the glasses on the counter. There was an attempt to hinder him in the discharge of his duty.

Mr. Kenny for the defendant admitted the offence and said the barmaid lost her head and did a very improper thing. He would ask for leniency.

Superintendent Walsh replying to the Justice said there were two convictions, one in 1924 and another in 1925.

Mr. Kenny explained that that was before the present licensee bought the premises.

The Justice in imposing a fine of £3 on the publican and 5/- on each of the men found on the premises, said what he saw serious in the case was the way the Sergt. was treated.

Superintendent Walsh charged Miss E. Power, Fair Lane, with a breach of the Licensing Act on Sunday, March 30th. Mr. Williams, Solr., for defendant.

Sergt. Teehan deposed that accompanied by Guard O'Dea he visited the premises where he found three men named Jas. Reilly, Keating St. Jas. Murphy, Ringereby and Bill O'Brien. He found 3 glasses, two of which contained stout and 3 large bottles on the mantelpiece.

To Mr. Williams—All three were perfectly sober. This house is ran by a lady and there was no conviction since 1925. He was admitted at once.

A fine of 5/- was imposed on the publican, the men found on the premises were each fined 2/6.

ECHO OF EMBEZZLEMENT CASE.

In the adjourned case of Superintendent Walsh v. Frank Gallagher.

Complainant said that there was no effort to pay back any of the money.

Mr. Farrell, Solr., said he understood that a sum of £3 had been paid to Messrs.

ROAD TRAFFIC ACT.
Superintendent Walsh charged William O'Connell, 38 Harbour Row, Cobh, under the Road Traffic Act. The case arose out of an accident at the Cappagh level crossing on February 29th, when the defendants' oil lorry after passing through the gates crashed into the fence.

The Justice said there is a letter from the defendant who has since joined the Army stating that he could not attend the court.

Guard King, Cappagh gave evidence of the lorry scraping along the fence for 18 feet. It was a new oil lorry. Miss M. Early gave evidence, of seeing the lorry which she said was being driven reasonably slowly, going through the gates and later heard the crash.

A fine of 15/- with 5/- expenses was imposed.

LIGHTS ACT.
Guard McGowan charged John McGrath, Two-Mile-Briggs, under the above act.

The defendant said it was a bicycle he had got a loan of and he was coming for a doctor.

The case was dismissed.

Ardnann, they were dursed by the accused and Patrick hit witness with an iron bar and knocked him down, Ml. hit him with a plant.

William Confort, brother of the last witness corroborated and again described the assault. They were iron moulders by trade and went around the country working for farmers.

Sergt. Mellett, Ardnann, gave evidence of arrest and of the statements of the accused which denied hitting the injured man with either a bar or a plant.

Thos. O'Connor brother of the injured man said he did not see "Paddy" hitting his brother with a bar. This witness was cross-examined by one of the accused.

One of the accused then made a long voluble statement describing the whole melee in which the injured man was hit with a fist only. He described how they pursued Wm. O'Connor through a field to tell him they would not harm him. How they followed Ml. and Wm. O'Connor in Thomas' (the other brother's) car. The only drink they had that day being two pints which they got from the father of the injured man. They went to see their sister who is married to the injured man. Both then appealed to the Justice for a chance this time and one remarked that they would join the Army.

The Justice—The Army would be better without you. The last time you were before me you had painted Dungarvan red, ending up by assaulting the Guards. I will now give each of you a sentence of 2 calendar months with hard labour to date from April 17th (date of arrest).

Death of Mr. John Fraher, Ballyguiry, Dungarvan.

The passing of the above highly esteemed gentleman has evoked feelings of general regret amongst the people of the town and surrounding districts and amongst many friends of the family throughout the county. His death, which occurred at his home on Tuesday morning after an illness of some weeks' duration and at the fine age of 85 years, removes from our midst a citizen reputed for strict probity and courtesy. Possessed of a natural gift of gentle, cheery kindness, he had the respect and confidence of a wide circle of friends. Sprung from a well-known and widely connected family, he was a most practical and successful farmer. His death, fortified by the rites of Holy Church, was in keeping with a life of exemplary attainment to his religion. During his illness he was regularly attended by the Rev. T. B. Walsh, C.C.

To his bereaved wife, sons and daughter the deepest sympathy is extended in their sorrow. On Wednesday morning Requiem Masses were celebrated for the repose of his soul. A large and representative cortege accompanied the remains, which were removed to Moaligo Parish Church on Wednesday evening, and on Thursday morning, after the celebration of Requiem Masses by the Rev. Fathers Murphy and Cassidy, interment was made in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery.

Fraher (daughters-in-law); Pat, Thomas, Willie, and James Kirwan, James, Josy, Laurence and Peggy Fraher (grandchildren); James and Mrs. O'Brien, Michael and Mrs. Casey, Moaligo; Patrick and Mrs. Nugent, Coolatree; Mr. and Mrs. Hayden and Mrs. Hayrick, Carriglea; Jas. and Mrs. Hackett and family, Carriglea; Mrs. Fraher, Ballynasmear; John and Patrick Fraher, Coum; Ed. and Mrs. Fraher, Cappoquin; Mrs. and Mrs. O'Flynn, Dungarvan; John and Mrs. Kirwan, Mary St., do.; John and Mrs. Kirwan, Liskern, etc. (cousins).

Death of Mr. Thos. Keane, Ballinagulkee, Ballinacult.

It is with regret we announce the death, which took place on Monday last at his residence, Ballinagulkee, Ballinacult, of Mr. Thomas Keane. The deceased, who farmed on a large scale, was extremely popular. Throughout his well-spent life he was always a kind, generous and sincere friend, and was on the best of terms with his neighbours which won for him an exceedingly large circle of friends. He was brother of Mother Margaret Mary, Mercy Convent, Stradbally, and of the late Miss Johanna Keane, whose death we recorded in our issue of March 31st last.

There was a very large attendance of relatives and the general public present at the removal of the remains to the Parish Church, Tourinacra, on Tuesday evening. On Wednesday morning, after the celebration of Masses of Requiem for the happy repose of his soul, interment was made in the family burial plot adjoining.

Rev. J. Cullinane, P.P., and Rev. B. McGrath, C.C., officiated at the graveside, at which there was again a big concourse of relatives and friends. R.I.P.

HURLING FIXTURE AT INCH POSTPONE

The hurling challenge match between Inch and Dungarvan, fixed for Mount Uniacke last Sunday was postponed owing to the death of Mr. James Murphy, Ballyre, whose demise occurred on Saturday morning.

KILLEAGH, GLENBOWER AND MAY SUNDAY

Time passes very quickly. It seems but yesterday that we wrote of the 1940 May Sunday celebrations at Killeagh and yet twelve trying and very eventful months have gone by. Changes in plenty have everywhere taken place, the map of Europe has been altered, but time and tide cannot alter or erase in the hearts of the people within a radius of many miles of Killeagh, the glamour which the very name of Glenbower exercises over the young especially, and the middle-aged as well. The beauties of Glenbower have been told by many a pen and spoken of in many a land, for where ever Killeagh born men and women have found a home thousands as May Sunday comes around will go back to life's morning and perhaps love's young dream amid the sylvan beauties of fair Glenbower. It was a wise and popular decision on the part of the Government to take over this lovely place and convert it into a natural park for in many respects it rivals the glorious loveliness of Killarney and for many it has memories and associations which no other place on earth can awaken. It has its ancient characteristics have been carefully preserved, towering rocks and centuries-old trees take on an added grandeur in contrast to newly made walks and young plantations. The bridges where countless generations of carefree holiday makers danced and made merry on many a May Sunday in the dim and distant past are still there with all their mite but alluring appeal. The white bridge at the end of the lake, in its setting of green and gold, looks particularly inviting. Petal restrictions will no doubt make travelling from a distance difficult this year, but there were crowds in Glenbower on May Sundays before petrol was thought of and before motor cars were invented. True, we had the waggons in those days and these may not be quite extinct, we may have evidence on Sunday week that they are not, but in any case we still have the trains, and perhaps a bus or two. We have the bikes and the traps, and should the worst come we have the good old reliable Shank's mare to fall back upon, and some what we're not going to miss this day of days at Killeagh on May Sunday.

KILLEAGH HURLING CLUB—MAY SUNDAY CELEBRATIONS.

The Killeagh Club are putting forward a specially attractive programme in connection with the May Sunday celebrations this year and a specially staging an inter-county hurling match in which teams representing Tallow (Waterford) and Imokilly (An East Cork Selection) will do battle for their respective counties. This match is bound to attract very extensive patronage and will be a thrilling exhibition of the code of which both sides are past masters. The local committee are to be heartily congratulated on securing the service of such important teams and they can be relied on to have the arrangements as perfect as human brains can conceive and human hands can make them. A minor hurling match, between Mogeely and St. Coleman's (Cloyne) also figures of the programme and this because of the record of the teams engaged should prove a most exciting game. We shall return to the subject next week, but in the meantime we would advise all and sundry to start making arrangements and of course dates for Killeagh on East Cork's day of days next Sunday.

DEATH OF MR. I. MURPHY, BALLYRE.

On Saturday morning, 19th inst., at his residence, Ballyre, Killeagh—fortified by the rites of Holy Church of which he was a very zealous member—Mr. Jas. Murphy passed peacefully away. He had attained a ripe age, but his faculties right up to the end were unimpaired. A man of outstanding integrity of character, and coming of a family which had given distinguished service to Church and State, he was looked up to and respected by all who knew him. A brother of his, Rev. B. Murphy, P.P., had a very distinguished career in the Australian Church, and built churches and schools out there. A son of deceased, the Rev. Thomas Murphy, P.P., who is also on the Australasian Mission, was home on a holiday twelve months ago and had the pleasure of seeing both his parents, again after twenty years' separation. The late Mr. Thomas Murphy, P.L.G., Coolbegan, Co. Waterford, who for many years represented his native district on the Youghal District Council, and Board

CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH AT MODELIGO

Colligan Rockies, 6-0; Finisk Rovers, 2-1

At Modeligo on Sunday last Colligan Rockies and Finisk Rovers met in their tie in the first round of the current year's junior hurling championship. The evening cleared up well after some heavy showers in the early afternoon, which caused the challenge game, Sean-a-Cabhair v. Faugh-a-Balagh to be postponed, timed for 2.45 p.m. The game was very evenly contested and the scores do not give a true reflex of the play. Faulty goal-keeping on the part of the Finisk Rovers was the main factor responsible for their defeat. The game was played in fine sporting spirit and the Finisk Rovers fought gamely to the final whistle.

Colligan, playing with a strong breeze were away on the throw-in but the opposing backs held out for 15 minutes before conceding a goal. Ground hurling was the order of the day and the going was pretty hard. The Finisk lads had three wides and after some exchanges at mid-field the Rockies went further ahead by a goal. The Finisk Rovers got away from the puck out but had to be content with wides. Both teams improved as the game progressed, but the hurling was never up to the standard of the displays given by those teams last year. Colligan had a third goal shortly before the half-time whistle. The score at the interval was—Colligan Rockies, 3-0; Finisk Rovers, 0-0.

On resuming the Rockies faced a very strong breeze and their chances were considerably reduced. Within a minute of the restart the Rovers had a goal and were all out for victory. The puck from goal was returned but Peter Moloney, Walsh and Burke saved their lines. The Rockies raced away led by Cliffe, Crotty and Hickey and succeeded in going through for a goal, which was soon followed by another major score. The Rovers came back to attack and had several wide before their second goal came. R. Barron and Connors were prominent on the Rovers side but wides resulted. The Rockies went on to attack from a long drive by Burke to secure their last score, a goal. Shortly before the full-time whistle sounded McCarthy had a point from a free far out for the Finisk Rovers.

Mr. D. Healy, Sean-a-Cabhair H.C., proved a most impartial and efficient referee.

of Guardians, was a brother of deceased. The late Mr. Murphy was a practical and successful farmer and was a keen student of public affairs, about which he had a very keen knowledge. A kind, considerate and obliging neighbour, he was ready and willing to give a helping hand to those who needed it, and was never given to talking of his good deeds. Due entirely to his just and noble character he had been very robust for some time and his death was not unexpected. To his widow and daughter (Mrs. J. Crokin), as well as to his sons in Australia and America and other relatives, we offer our respectful sympathy. The remains were removed overnight to Inch Church, being received by the Rev. P. Hordell, C.C., who was officiated at the funeral—several other priests being in attendance—which took place on Monday, 21st inst., at the family burial ground at Knauckanore. A very large number of people from East Cork and West Waterford were present at the funeral. R.I.P.

CASTLEMAHAYR COURT.

Richard Aherne, Ballymakelagh House, Killeagh, was summoned under the Emergency Powers Act for having failed to hand up a rifle and for having rendered the gun ineffective. Evidence having been given by members of the gaidai, and by military witnesses, the defence was to the effect that the gun was given over in the condition in which it had been while in defendant's custody. The case was dismissed. Mr. D. Casey, State solicitor, prosecuted, and Mr. W. L. Barry, solicitor, Middleton, defended. David Barry, Killeagh, and John Power, do. were summoned for having assaulted and detained at his residence, Supt. P. Kelly prosecuted and Mr. W. J. Barry, solicitor, defended. After a protracted hearing, the Justice adjourned the case to the next court for the production of an important witness, and gave permission to Mr. Barry to issue cross-summons.

THE NEW CREAMERY AT INCH.

Much progress has been made in a comparatively short time with the building of the new creamery at Park, near Inch. During the past few days, however, work for some reason was suspended. It is to be hoped that before this note appears in print work will have been resumed. It is essential under present conditions that the creamery should be completed and be in a position to take in supplies as soon as possible and delays or stoppages for any reason in the work of construction should be discouraged.

MOOREHILL NOTES

It is with feelings of deep and profound regret we announce the death of Miss Isabella Parker, Janeville, which sad event occurred at her home on Saturday of last week. The deceased had reached her 87th year and had been in failing health for some time past, nevertheless, her demise came as a great shock to her many relatives and friends, all of whom sadly mourn her loss. Respected and esteemed by all who knew her she made numerous friends and her passing has left a void time cannot fill. A practical tribute was paid to the memory of the late Miss Parker in the very large and representative attendance that accompanied the removal of the remains on Monday last from her late residence to St. Catherine's Cemetery, Tallow, where the burial took place. Rev. Dr. Bryan, Rector, Tallow, conducted the funeral service. A number of beautiful floral wreaths were placed on the grave. The chief mourners included were—Mrs. Jane Olive Tobin, Janeville (niece), Mr. James Tobin, Janeville, Mrs. Sarah Geary, Moorehill, Mr. Michael Tobin, Janeville, and Mrs. Margaret Tobin, do. May she rest in peace.

LOCAL DEFENCE FORCE.

In the Moorehill area the L.D.F. continues to make satisfactory progress and the different sections are getting fairly well advanced in training. Much credit is due to those men, for without any hope of reward they are willing to lay down their lives for their native land. There's a big responsibility, but they are willing to follow in the footsteps of their fore-fathers, who gladly faced death that Ireland might be free. To-day that freedom is in danger. Ireland calls to her sons, prepare! Be prepared to defend her. The men of Moorehill will not be found wanting, the majority have answered the call but there are still numbers of young men in the district who have not joined the ranks. We make this last appeal to them to come into the L.D.F. or L.S.F. without delay. Numbers of young men seem to forget that in the case of an emergency, the military authorities will be in control and every man must play his part in National defence. So join the force to-day, remember, unity is strength.

NEXT SUNDAY AT TALLOW.

The Tallow venue should stage a very interesting junior hurling game on Sunday next, when Ballyduff meet Moorehill in the first round of the West Waterford Championship. Both clubs have several young players and with some seasoned ones to blend them together a very close game should result, and while Ballyduff are certainly the more experienced, still Moorehill are expected to give them a good game. The Tallow Gaels will have the pitch in excellent condition and when Referee Hartigan, sets the game going at 4 p.m. (S.T.) we expect to see a large crowd present.

EGGS FOR WINTER

For two successive years, long hundreds of eggs by dipping them singly in a proprietary solution, drying off and packing them in partition cases have been stored. This year it is not so easy to collect a quantity, and for picking small numbers of eggs as they are obtainable the well-known system of storage in a solution of water-glass in earthenware jars or zinc-lined pails has distinct advantages.

It may not be generally known that after dipping in this way for a few weeks the eggs can be taken out, wrapped singly in paper and stored away dry in boxes, so leaving the jar or pail free for the picking of a further supply.

Smearing with grease is another method that is useful, where only small numbers of eggs are to be preserved. Half an ounce of lard mixed with a teaspoonful of powdered borax is enough for two or three dozen eggs. This mixture was tried at the end of April and the eggs were brought into use in October of 1940.

No apparatus is needed; the palms of the hands are liberally covered with the mixture, and the eggs when thoroughly greased are wrapped in paper and stored in a jar or box.

MODERN TENDENCIES.

The last ten years have witnessed marked changes in the fashion in wallpapers. The newest vogue is the resurrection of the Empire Regency period. Thus, when decorating a modern house, one should keep to very quiet tones, possibly introducing self colours which help to make rooms look very much larger. This, of course, is a vital consideration in a modern house, where space is sometimes very limited. The new wallpapers stocked by us fit in well for this purpose, especially the light patterns, as these give character and a furnished effect to a room without detracting from the apparent size. The tendency to change wallpaper is greater now than ever before, as people take greater interest in the home perhaps because there is a far larger proportion of house-owners than in previous times. The new wallpapers alter the appearance of a room. An uncomfortably large or ungainly one looks smaller and cozier when an assertive colour like red, orange or warm yellow is used to make the wall appear to come forward.—Harpur Brothers, Wallpapers Specialists, Waterford.

has attended many social events in different parts of the country, cellidhes, concerts, picture halls, etc. During the hours of amusement everyone is happy and gay, but like all good things it comes to an end and the National Anthem is played. What happens, everyone stands to attention? "Oh no!" on the contrary there is a rustle for the cloak room, or exit as the case may be, and when the strains of the National Anthem are ended, you find the hall almost empty, and as they rush for the exit you even see some of them sneer and say, "fools," we hear that often enough. Well, well, and this is Ireland, the Ireland of to-day, but as an old timer remarked it was "Roll out the barrel," or "My Bunnie lies over the ocean" the band played, they wouldn't rush for the exit, be sure they wouldn't.

HOME KILLED—HOME CURED

With the price of pigs not as attractive as we would like to see it, many owners of pigs will feel that a pig killed for the home will give more satisfaction than one sold.

Before slaughter the pig should be well fasted, but not so far that it tires itself by wandering around yelling for its food. The fact that a well-fasted carcass would cure better than one from a pig that had been worried and moved about has recently received scientific confirmation.

Work done by Dr. Callow has shown that lactic acid is formed in the muscles of a rested pig, but that little is present when the animal is fatigued before slaughter. If possible, therefore, kill the pig at home, and before it has had time to get looking for its meal. The safe temperature at which to scald is about 145 deg. F. For a pig 2cwt. live weight this may be exceeded, but it is better not to go much above 150 deg. Three buckets of boiling water to one of cold should produce something like the required temperature, but it is wiser to control it with a thermometer.

Before dressing the pig, singeing will harden the skin and help the sides to keep better. In most cases a heap of straw burning on the ground will supply sufficient flame for the purpose, but blistering must be avoided.

The actual dressing of the carcass may be done by someone on the farm, but unless he is experienced in this job it may be wiser to get a slaughter man to do it.

After removing the guts the butcher should remove the head, tail, backbone, feet, hocks, forearm, oyster bone, aitch bone, kidneys, leaf fat and tender-iron fillet. Incidentally, the last is one of the finest parts of the carcass, and makes a very tasty dish cooked in a stew.

The two sides dressed in this way should now be left hanging in a cool and well-ventilated place till the following morning. By this time they should have cooled down to the temperature of the air, but in the case of large pigs it is most important that the thick parts of the meat, such as the hams, should really have cooled right through.

Some people do use a combination of both dry and wet curing. The wet method, or tank curing, produces a milder type of bacon, and on the whole the meat is more tender. My own preference is for the dry article. It does not, however, keep so well as dry-cured bacon.

Dry salting allows of keeping the sides considerably longer, gives a fuller flavour, which may prefer, but it tends to make the lean meat harder. In the case of home-cured pigs it is usually necessary to keep the bacon for some months and so the dry cure is the more popular.

Most recipes for home curing include sugar in some form or other as molasses or, may be, beer. But because sugar is not available, and because we must avoid all risk of loss through the meat going wrong, it will be better to leave out of all recipes for the present.

For sides not exceeding 60lb. sprinkle 4oz. of saltpepe on each side and rub in 2lb. of common salt and 2lb. of bay salt. This is the coarser form of salt used in salting fish, etc., and the slight impurities in it probably help in the curing.

Particular care must be taken to pocket that plenty of salt is put into the sockets of the forearm. Almost more important than salt in this game is elbow-grease. The rubbing must be thorough, and it is said that the best person is produced when the operator doesn't know whether the side or his hands have had the bigger dose of salt.

The side should now be laid, rind down on a cool floor or a slate slab, and left in the dark for about four days. At the end of this time remove all the hair and salt and repeat the process. Leave for about twelve to twenty days according to the degree of salting required. Then wash off all salt and dry the side.

Surface drying with a cloth is sometimes all that is done, but heat drying is preferable. It is for this reason that in the old days the sides were hung up in the farm chimneys which exist to this day.

The hot smoke did three things. It dried the surface of the side and this prevented the formation of slime. The creosote and other chemicals from the wood smoke left an antiseptic covering on the bacon, and, thirdly, it imparted the flavour that we recognise in smoked hams and fish.

Smoking nowadays can be done in a small enclosed space with a hard floor on which hardwood sawdust, and preferably oak, can be allowed to smoulder. A small out-house may be sufficient, or a special oven may be built from brick or corrugated iron.

Nowadays it is possible to buy salt specially treated to give the flavour and the antiseptic properties imparted by the real smoking, though in this case it must be exercised about proper drying.

Pickle for wet curing should be made from 12lb. common salt and 6oz. of saltpepe dissolved in 4 gallons of water for every 100lb. of meat. This must be boiled and skimmed until it is quite clear, and allowed to cool.

Pickle should preferably be kept in a crockery vessel, though hard wood is sometimes used. The sides, either whole or cut into smaller pieces, are placed in the crock and the pickle poured over them.

The sides must always be kept under the liquid, and if necessary the pickle must be weighted with wood. This must be left in pickle for from ten to twenty days according to the strength of cure required, and if a brine pump can be obtained the gammons should be pumped with the pickle before immersion.

Waterford Circuit Court.

The Waterford Circuit Court, Easter Sitting, opened at Waterford Courthouse on Monday, before Judge James J. Sealy, K.C. CLAIM FOR DAMAGES. Patrick Curry, Ballyquin, Carrick-on-Suir, claimed damages against Thomas Hayes, farmer, of the same townland, for the alleged seduction of his daughter, Josephine Curry. Mr. J. J. McGuire, B.L. (instructed by Mr. Peter O'Connor, solicitor) appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. F. G. O. Budd, B.L. (instructed by Mr. Quirk, solicitor, Carrick-on-Suir) for the defendant. Judge Sealy said that on the facts of the case a man like Mr. Curry would be entitled to substantial damages. A very great disrepute had been done to his home. He seemed to be a very respectable man living an honest, decent life. There was, however, more chance of recovering money on foot of a moderate decree than on foot of a vindictive decree. In one sense the defendant had behaved badly to the girl, and in another sense he had acted honourably because he has not tried to make the girl into a liar. He has taken responsibility for the child. His Lordship thought a decree of £70 would meet the case, and he allowed costs and witnesses' expenses. TRAMORE NEIGHBOURS AT LAW. The abnormally dry summer of last year, and the consequent shortage of water, was commented on when Maty Flynn, Garrarus, Tramore, claimed £10 damages and sought an injunction restraining Michael McNamara, Caher, Tramore, from obstructing and diverting a stream which ran through their lands. Mr. F. G. O. Budd, B.L. (instructed by Messrs. E. A. Ryan & Co., solicitors, Dungarvan), appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. P. Tynan, B.L. (instructed by Messrs. Dobbins & McCoy, Waterford), was for the defendant. Judge Sealy, remarking on the fact that there seemed to be some discrepancy in the evidence between the plaintiff and defendant, said he did not accept the plaintiff's evidence. He thought the defendant was within his rights in filling up the channel. Flynn was not entitled to come along and interfere with the pithole even though he was getting no water himself. Plaintiff's case was not well founded and he would dismiss it with the usual costs. C.B.A.L.—FERMOY BRANCH. The following are the results of the weekly competition of a Howell movement over 22 boards, played at the Royal Hotel on Friday night: First, Dr. and Mrs. O'Donovan, 56½ points; second, Mr. E. and Mrs. G'Mahony, 45½ points; third, Mr. Barber and Mr. E. KILROSSANTY-PIKE v. STRADBALLY.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP. On Sunday next at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, the Stradbally senior football team, last year's County champions will be called on to defend their title against the newly formed Kilrossanty-Pike football combination, in the opening round of the current year's senior football championship. The Stradbally men, who are trained to the ounce, are going all out to retain their title for at least another year. While the game is expected to be a thriller from start to finish, the general opinion is a Stradbally victory, and the defeat of the champions would come not only as a surprise to followers and supporters of the team but to Waterford Gael. Every player on the team has played on the Waterford inter-county selection, and all are well-known throughout Munster. The probable line out will be— J. Whelan J. Corbett J. O'Meara N. Connors T. Veale J. Veale P. Kirwan (Capt.) P. Kiely J. Curran K. Whelan J. Cummins T. Corbett D. Hickey J. Orpen The Kilrossanty-Pike team on the other hand, believe that with a little luck they can lower the Stradbally colours and reach the top of the ladder this season. Their team will include several well-known inter-county footballers who are presently at the peak of form, and are capable of overcoming any senior team. Sunday's team will be selected from the following—Fennell (4), Veale (3), Fitzgerald (3), McGuire (2), J. Crotty, P. Dalton, P. Daly, J. Loneragan, M. Whelan, J. Moroney, J. Keel, J. Drohan, T. Coughlan, D. Walsh, J. Walsh, B. Power, J. Power. Mr. T. A. Collier, Co. Registrar, presette Judge Sealy with white gloves at Waterford on Monday. Judge Sealy said that under the present economic conditions freedom from serious crime was a thing to be proud of.

TOWN HALL IMPROVEMENT. To the Editor, "Dungarvan Observer." Dear Sir—I have read with much interest in your issue of the 19th inst. the letter from Mr. N. Kelly containing a proposition to the U.D.C. that a "hall improvement fund" be started by all clubs and committees interested, here in Dungarvan. I for one do not agree with such a proposition, as I think the clubs and committees of this town have at the present time as many calls as can be met with, besides subscribing towards the improvement of our town hall. In a town half the size of Dungarvan you will find two and three dance halls, and yet in a town with a population of roughly 6,000 we cannot afford to spend a small sum towards the necessary improvement. A member of the U.D.C. seemingly does not approve of the hall being used for dances, but I think it is the youth of today (the age that are prepared to defend us) that must be catered for. 20/4/1941. GALVANIZED WIRE NETTING.

It is almost impossible to-day to secure a full range of good galvanized wire netting. We were lucky to secure a large cargo from America some time ago, and it would be impossible to offer at to-day's prices if we had to purchase now. Where sure protection from animals, vermin and birds is needed, depend upon galvanized wire netting. There are a thousand and one places where it is invaluable. It saves its very low costs many times over in the sure protection it gives. And that cost can be very low. At Harpitz Brothers you can buy galvanized wire netting for as little as 1/4d a yard. You can afford to renew old netting or replace makeshift, untidy and inefficient protection methods with neat, safe netting at this price, even. As Harpitz, too, you can choose your netting from one of the largest and most varied stocks in the South of Ireland. Only large stocks and large sales permit netting to be offered at so low a price. When you need protection from animals, vermin and birds in your garden, as you will find, now on, use wire netting. When you want galvanized wire netting at a low price, get it at Harpitz Brothers, 46, Quay, Waterford.

Dungarvan Urban Council.

Late Father Gough, O.S.A. COUNCIL ADJOURNS AS A MARK OF RESPECT. Mr. M. Morrissey, T.D. (Chairman) presided at the weekly meeting of the Dungarvan Urban District Council on Friday last. Also present: Messrs. T. McCarthy, P. Byrne, M. Connors, D. Foley, P. Quann, M. Clancy, and J. Dahill. PAY SHEET. A weekly pay sheet of £26 17s 5d. was passed. MEETING ADJOURNS. Following the signing of the pay sheet, Mr. Clancy said that a gloom had been cast over the town by the sad news of the tragic death of the Rev. Father Gough. He thought that the least the Council should do to express their deep sorrow was to adjourn the meeting. Mr. Byrne—The same thing was in my mind. I intended to move a resolution the same as Mr. Clancy. Chairman—We will take any important business on the file and deal with it. The only thing here is the application for the cinema licence, and that can be put on the agenda for the next meeting. Mr. Clancy then moved a resolution expressing the sorrow of the Council at the death of the Rev. Fr. W. A. Gough, O.S.A., extending their sympathy with the parents and family, and that the Council adjourn as a mark of respect. After the members present had spoken of the sorrow with which the people of the

"Dungarvan Observer" SATURDAY, APRIL 26th, 1941.

Be Cold if You Desire To Be Warm.

Though this caption may sound like a paradox, what we mean to convey is that if you wish to be warm next winter you better spare your coal, turf, or other fuel supplies now. Of a verity it is far easier to suffer April's showers and cold weather than the famishing conditions climatical of mid-winter. Unless things change vastly and rapidly, our country will be confronted with an extremely grave fuel situation before the present fateful year will have completed its course. Quite obvious to all is the fact that coal imports are shrinking every week. This, we need scarcely state, affects not only the domestic users of coal, but also the majority of our major industries. It is hoped to make up the shortage by the use of turf. But no sane person will expect turf to suddenly appear in all our hamlets, villages, towns and cities by merely pressing a button, or expressing the magic words "Hey, presto!"

First of all, the turf must needs be cut and saved, and, secondly, adequate arrangements will have to be made to distribute the precious harvested fuel throughout the Twenty-Six Counties. Here we hit up with the heavier difficulties, because coal and petrol are two essentials for our heavy transport—trains and lorries—and if we are not in a position to provide the transport then the peat in the boglands will certainly be cold comfort for shivering people in the hamlets, villages, towns and cities.

Unquestionably, the problem is a big one, and, like some others, does not seem to be rightly understood by the people in general. Slogans, surely, are not enough for dealing with these vitally important matters. We agree with the suggestion that if somebody tried a reverse process they might succeed. For example, "Burn more coal now—and be frozen stiff next winter," might triumph where straightforward advice and "warnings" fail.

HIERARCHY'S SYMPATHY MAY 11, DAY OF INTERCESSION FOR PEACE.

The following statement of the Standing Committee of the Irish Hierarchy was issued at their meeting on Tuesday. "We tender our heartfelt sympathy to the people of Belfast in the great sufferings just inflicted on them; we deeply appreciate the efforts that are being made throughout the country to help refugees from the stricken city, and we earnestly recommend these and other sufferers from the recent air raid to the charity of the faithful.

"Furthermore we desire to impress upon our clergy and people the urgent need for continued prayer in the present trials. Our own good will and co-operation are, of course, necessary, but first and before all, our trust should be in God. Who is infinite in power and mercy, and Who governs the fortunes and the destinies of nations no less than the destinies of individuals.

PRAYERS URGED

"We should pray to Him fervently and fervently. With humble and contrite hearts we should approach His throne and implore His infinite mercy to spare the world, to accept the terrible sufferings which men have endured already as an atonement for their sin to mitigate the horrors which at present afflict them, and to hasten the day when a truly just and Christian peace will assuage their sorrows.

"Especially we should ask the Almighty to save our own country from the horrors of war and to keep within bounds and alleviate the trials through which she is now passing.

DAY OF ATONEMENT

"In the furtherance of our desire we direct that Sunday, May 11, be observed as a day of special atonement and intercession for the objects mentioned, we recommend that during the continuance of the cattle plague the prayer pro peste animalium be said in the Mass as an Oratio imperata and we exhort the people to be faithful to the bi-weekly devotions for peace already arranged by the Bishops.

"The clergy are to take publication in the newspapers of this statement as notification of the direction contained in it.

"Joseph Cardinal MacRory, "Chairman."

"Jeremiah Kinane, "Secretary."

Selectors might have a likely inter-county player on Board do not agree, which prompted the passage. It seems queer that the selectors met on the 15th inst. to be able to stage a minor (West Division) before the game was played. I agree with him that you can't pick minor form. WEST DIVISIONAL G.A.A. NOTES.

By "AN RUNAIDHE"

MINOR FOOTBALL SELECTION.

This Division is doing its best to carry out the motion passed at the Co. Convention as regards playing off the 1st. and 2nd rounds of the minor matches before the dates of the Inter-Co. games. This motion was passed in order that the minor selectors might have a chance of spotting likely inter-county players. I am afraid Co. Board do not agree with the reasons which prompted the passing of the motion. It seems queer that the minor football selectors met on the very day that at least two important football matches were being played in the West. I know one selector who feels very sore about this as he holds that you can't pick minors on last year's form. I agree with him in this and I feel that our minors and juniors have been neglected due to too much of the limelight being taken up by our senior hurlers. Seniors get every consideration and we are apt to rush into our minor selections. In many cases the teams are picked without a player being seen in action in that year's Co. Championships. I am glad to hear that the minor football selectors decided they would not (or could not) select the inter-county team until later. It is hoped to be able to stage a minor football trial (West Division) before May 11th.

HOW TO TAKE DEFEAT.

Meeting the secretary of a club whose team had been engaged in the championship the previous Sunday, I asked how they had fared. To my great surprise he answered: "We had a great game. Our lads were beaten well, but it was great to be able to get a team going and to have the boys out for a day's sport. We might have done a bit better if we had not had a little bad luck in the weather, but next year I hope we will give a better account of ourselves." I don't think I need mention that this secretary did not ask to see the register or in fact consult any rule or bye-law book. There's a lot in the Yankee talk of a person being "able to take it."

DUNGARVAN CONFIDENT.

"The Blues" selectors are quite happy as regards football talent as a result of the running of the Town Football League. I understand that the panel of players is so large that the selectors had difficulty in coming to a final choice. The Nire boys, on the other hand, have their fifteen all decided on, and they have no doubt of the result. Those who will witness the game at Touraneena on Sunday next should get value for their money. A challenge football game, Sliabh gCua v. Kilgobinet, will fill up a nice programme. Challenge games are not usually very bright affairs but these teams are keen on finding out their weak spots and as a result they should give a sound display.

AT THE TALLOW VENUE.

Ballyduff who are going strong in hurling this year met Moorehill at Tallow on Sunday. Wm. Neville, the Moorehill Secretary says that his team are all fit and well and quite ready for Sunday's game. Hurling is on the up grade in the far end of our Division and the keen rivalry should make for a close game.

TALLOW STREET LEAGUE.

The local club have started their annual Street League games. Before the championship match on Sunday the Club will stage a hurling game, Barrack St. and Convent St. v. West Street and Chapel Street. This game should be worth seeing as prominent Tallow Club men will figure on both sides. Barrack St. and Convent St. will be helped by M. Curley, D. Doyle and Sheehan Bros., while West St. and Chapel St. will have the services of S. Curley, N. Condon, McCarthy Bros., Malone and T. Daly. Match starts at 2.45 p.m. (S.T.).

ARDMORE V. AGLISH.

The Gaels of Clashmore and district will be able to witness the struggle between the boys from the Round Tower district and those successors of the famous Aglish team. Football had a home in Aglish at the time when the Ducey Brothers and Paddy Moloney took the field. Sunday will prove if the younger Gaels under Terry O'Brien can overcome the Ardmore Gaels.

LAST SUNDAY'S RESULTS.

CHALLENGE GAME.

At Dungarvan (School Hurling), Abbey-side N.S., 4-0; Dungarvan C.B.S., 1-1.

SCHOOL HURLING.

I would like to congratulate the promoters of the inter schools hurling games at Dungarvan. The standard reached by those youths is as high as ever in the best school games in Dublin. It is a pity that more local support is not given to these matches. I hope that those games continue and some effort should be made to aid this competition.

NEXT SUNDAY'S GAMES.

Championship Matches at Dungarvan.

On Sunday last at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, Dungarvan Minor Footballers defeated Sliabh gCua in first round of the minor football championship. Sliabh gCua were without a number of their players owing to the heavy rains before the game, nevertheless, those who did turn up played very well and the score gives no indication of the evenness of the play. The Dungarvan lads played clever football and their combination was a special feature of the game. An exceptionally strong breeze militated against high standard football.

The full time score was—Dungarvan 7-3 Sliabh gCua 1-2.

Outstanding for Dungarvan was Good Harrington, Houlihan and Kiely while Power was best for the Sliabh gCua side. The teams were—DUNGARVAN—J. Goode, P. Stack, T. Power, B. Moloney, R. O'Brien, J. Lyons, M. Houlihan, T. Cashin, J. Kiely, J. Butler, J. Dwyer, E. Foley, J. Harrington, D. Hill, T. Riordan. SLIABH gCUA—J. Power (capt) J. Walsh, M. Walsh, T. Wall, J. Barron, W. McGrath, J. Power, A. Power, P. Tyers, P. Flynn, R. McCarthy, J. Cullinan, W. Whelan, L. Tobin, M. Ahern.

JUNIOR HURLING.

In a very even and keenly contested game the Brickey Rangers defeated St. Augustines by 4-1 to 1-0. St. Augustines put up a very creditable display against a strong Brickey Ranger combination. Only five minutes from the end the score was 1-0 to 1-0.

The Brickeys were best served by M. Donnelly, P. J. McGrath, S. Curran and Martin Curran. Connors, Flynn, Power, and Mahony were outstanding for Abbey-side.

THE TEAMS WERE—

BRICKEY RANGERS—P. J. McGrath, P. Cole M. Donnelly, M. Curran, J. Power, N. McGrath, J. Griffin, W. O'Keefe, P. Barry, W. Barry, J. Daly, P. O'Donnell, P. Noonan, S. Curran. ST. AUGUSTINES—M. L.S.F. NOTES.

Members of the district staff visited Ardmore on the 21st inst. The following report was received from Group Leader R. Lincoln, N.T.:

"At the weekly meeting of the L.S.F. of Ardmore on the 14th inst., the election of officers took place. The appointments made were: Group Leader, R. Lincoln, N.T.; Asst. Group Leader, John McGrath; Section Leader, E. Fitzgerald; Asst. Section Leader, John Keane; Squad Leaders, Jas. McGrath, Frank Nugent, Frank Troy. The members expressed sincere regret at the indisposition of Rev. Father Walsh, C.C., and hoped and prayed for his speedy recovery. Rev. Father Walsh helped very considerably in the reorganisation of the group, and his help and guidance were much appreciated. A dance in aid of the L.S.F. funds will be held in St. Declan's Hall in the near future. There was a good attendance on Monday night, and the members showed keen appreciation of Mr. Maher's lecture on the various types of bombs. The lecturer illustrated his remarks with some experiments with magnesium, sodium and phosphorus. Methods of dealing with fires started by incendiary bombs were explained. The dangers attendant on the use of water as an extinguisher were stressed. It is expected that first aid equipment will be procured out of the funds secured through the dance. Every effort is being made to make this function a complete success. It deserves and will get generous and enthusiastic support. The Red Cross classes are being carried on very successfully, and it is expected that very soon a considerable number will be added to those who are already qualified to render first aid to those in need.

FERMOY PARISH COUNCIL.

At a meeting of the Fermoys Parish Council held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall on Friday night, Very Rev. E. J. Fox, Adm. Chairman, presided. Others present were Rev. W. E. White, Rector; Messrs. T. Hickey, M. Dowling, P. Hanley, M. J. Young, J. Roche, M. Mansfield, and R. J. Baylor, Solicitor, Hon. Sec. In connection with the provision of fuel for the coming winter a discussion took place and it was decided to make inquiries in the district as to any available turf banks, and to arrange as soon as possible for the providing of turf and its distribution in winter time.

CONDOLENCE.

At a parade of No. 1. A Group, Dungarvan L.D.F., held in the Barrack Square, on Tuesday night last. Mr. P. Cullinan, Assistant Group Leader, after the "Fall-in" referred to the bereavement suffered by the Group Leader (Mr. Jas. Fraher) and Squad Leader (Mr. L. Fraher) by the death of their father, which had occurred during that day. A resolution, conveying to the brothers Fraher the sincere regret of the Group, on their bereavement, was proposed by Mr. J. Power, seconded by Mr. P. J. Walsh, and passed in silence, while the parade stood at attention. The "dismiss" was then given.

WEDDING BELLS.

The marriage was solemnised (with Nuptial Mass) at St. Andrew's Church, Westland Row, Dublin, on 16th. Inst. of Lieut. S. J. O'Meara, B.Sc., A.O.S., son of Mr. Wm. O'Meara, Town Clerk and Mrs. O'Meara, Dungarvan, and Eileen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Keane, Mullagh, Millownmalbay, Co. Clare. Rev. R. J. Casey, C.F., Senior Chaplain, officiated. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Rita Keane and given away by her brother, Lieut. Frank Keane, A.S.C. Lieut. P. A. Derivan, A.M.S., was bestman. A reception was subsequently held in the Clarence Hotel. The happy couple got a rousing send-off from a big party of friends when leaving on the honeymoon which is being spent in a tour of the South and West of Ireland.

FREEDOM FROM CRIME.

There was a pleasant interlude to the proceedings at Waterford Circuit Court when to mark Waterford's freedom from crime, Mr. Thomas A. Colebert, County Registrar, presented Judge Sealy with gloves.

Mr. Colbert said it was a great pleasure for him to inform His Lordship, that there was no crime on the criminal calendar for the city and county and to make the customary presentation of white gloves to His Lordship.

Judge Sealy, acknowledging the presentation said: "It is with great pleasure that I receive this presentation. I realise that times are pressing very hard on the County and City of Waterford, on the one hand because of the awful cattle disease and on the other on account of its loss of sea-borne trade, which I am told, has caused great destitution and unemployment. Under such circumstances freedom from serious crime is a thing to be proud of and in congratulating the city and county on their freedom from crime I hope also that it will long continue."

HOME SAVING OF RAPE SEED.

The Minister for Agriculture announces that the difficulty experienced by farmers last Autumn in procuring supplies of rape seed for catch crop purposes is also likely to obtain next Autumn. Farmers who succeeded in procuring seed and who have crops of rape growing at present are strongly urged to allow portion of the crop to ripen and save the seed therefrom. In this way and in this way only will disappointment be avoided next Autumn when the necessity for sowing rape and other catch crops will be greater than ever.

DANCE AT MELROSE HOTEL.

In view of the proximity of Melrose Hotel to the house where the Curate, Fr. Walsh, lay sick, as it was too late to abandon the dance, Mrs. Collins decided to hold it in the Village Hall. Thanks to hard work and excellent organisation by Mr. and Mrs. Collins this arrangement, despite the extra labour involved and naturally a certain amount of disappointment, proved a great success. An excellent supper was served in the interval at Melrose. Nancy Crowley's band played for dancing and contributed in no small measure to the success of the evening.

Among those present were—Dr. and Mrs. O'Farrell, Lismore; Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Byrne, Dungarvan; Miss Lynch and Mr. J. P. Cashman, Miss Musgrave, Miss Madden, Miss Leahane, Mr. J. O'Donovan, Mr. C. Dwyer, Mr. D. Dwyer, Mr. K. Kearney, Dr. Cantillon, Mr. McCormack, Mr. J. Hesley, Mr. M. Crowley, Cork; Mr. Egan, Clonmel; Mr. and Mrs. O'Flaherty, Dublin; Mr. and Mrs. H. SLIABH gCUA GAELIC LEAGUE.

At a committee meeting held recently of the members of the newly formed branch of the Gaelic League in Sliabh gCua it was decided that for the next two months instruction in Ceilidhe dancing will be given in the Half-Way Hall, on every Thursday evening, commencing on Thursday, May 1st. The instruction will be given by Mrs. Hallinan, Dance Instructress. The committee are hopeful that this opportunity of learning our stately native dances, will be fully availed of by the youths of the surrounding districts. "Let us be Gaelic in our pastimes and proud in our dances," which will certainly be the dances of tomorrow in Eire.

CAFFOQUIN L.S.F. NOTES.

The District Staff Officers and local officers of Knockanore and Killeagh held a joint meeting in the Hall, Knockanore, on April 18th, and there was a very good attendance. Many matters of vital importance were discussed, especially getting more young men to join the Force. In some districts there is room for improvement but it cannot be too often emphasised that in the case of an emergency every man must play his part, all such people who are not members should become members at once and not be ranked with those who through cowardice are shrinking their responsibility. The best thanks is due to those members who are taking such an active part and turn up regularly.

A joint meeting of the D.S. Officers and the local officers was held in Villierstown on April 18th, when there was a full attendance. A review of the organisation, and work of the different sections was made and considered satisfactory. It was decided to hold public meetings in the various districts with the object of getting more members and join in the meantime the local officers were asked to try and get as many new members as they can and that the District Staff Officers would give them all the help they could. The following members of the District Staff attended:—Messrs. M. J. Sargent, D.S.O. 1. T. Harris, D.S.O. 2. M. F. Walsh, D.S.O. 3. Senator S. Goulding, D.S.O. 4. A. J. Sargent, D.S.O. 5. P. O'Neill, D.S.O. 6. Dr. M. O'Farrell.

Knockanore: Messrs. M. Ahearne, T. Murphy, D. Donovan, P. Barry, Sergt. O'Brien.

KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING.

The householders of Dungarvan and the surrounding districts will be pleased to learn that arrangements for supplying their fuel requirements are already well under way and that this "burning" question has been answered satisfactorily. Meetings of the newly formed Turf Committee of which the Rev. T. E. Walsh, B.A., C.C. is chairman, have been held. Representatives of the firms of A. Moloney and Sons; Dungarvan Co-operative Creameries Ltd.; K. Williams and Co., and Sheehan Ryan and Co., attended. We learn that already 20 met are engaged in winning turf from the extensive turf banks in the possession of Mr. M. Keating, P.C., Comeragh, and that in a very short time from 80 to 100 men will be employed on the same good work. We also learn it is intended to form a Turf Co. for the better development of this important industry and that the product will be made available at a reasonable price to the public.

The quarterly meeting was held in the Technical School on Saturday, April 19th. Mr. T. Walsh presided and the following members were also present—Mrs. Connors and Mrs. Walsh; the Misses Whelan and Gough; Messrs. S. Delaney, S. Connors, M. Brennock and W. Cullinan, Secretary.

The minutes were signed and the Secretary's financial report was adopted. Letters acknowledging resolutions were received from Sean O'Connor and from Mrs. Hayes. The committee in charge of the proposed "Bob Weldon" Memorial wrote asking that the matter be brought to the notice of the teachers in the area.

The quarterly Bulletin was then read and discussed. Mr. Sean Connors was elected Honorary Life Member of the Branch. Votes of sympathy were passed with the Misses Fitzgerald, Ballylemon, on the death of their mother, and with the parents and relatives of the late Rev. W. A. Gough, O.S.A., London.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

CLASHMORE PARISH COUNCIL.

At a special meeting of the Clashmore Parish Council, a letter was read from the Minister for Industry and Commerce relative to fuel supplies and stressing the necessity for utilizing any turf supplies available in the locality. It was pointed out that in former years turf was dug in a particular part of the parish and it was decided to get in touch with the Co. Commissioner with a view to having the matter investigated. Members expressed the view that some turf at least, could be produced there.

The question of securing fuel supplies from other sources was also discussed. A discussion took part on food supplies, unemployment, fishing and the question of profiteering, and it was decided to circulate the opinions of the Council to the proper quarters.

Satisfaction was expressed at the success of the local allotment scheme, and members expressed gratitude to Commissioner S. J. Moynihan, and Mr. N. F. Dunne, B.E., for their assistance in the matter. Business of a routine nature concluded the meeting.

CLASHMORE M.F. TEAM GIVE GOOD DISPLAY.

On Sunday at Villierstown the newly organized Clashmore M.F. team (St. Machu's) lined out against St. Carthage's (Lismore) in the initial round of the current year's championship and a good game ensued. There was a fairly large attendance and the local club had all arrangements perfect. For the greater part of the game the exchanges were of an even nature, but the better training and experience of the Lismore men proved decisive towards the end, and they ran out winners on the score 2-1 to 0-1. Mr. T. Morrissey, Villierstown J.F. team, refereed.

BIG DAY AT CLASHMORE NEXT SUNDAY.

On Sunday next all roads lead to Clashmore to witness the long awaited clash of the old sporting rivals Ardmore and Aghlish in the first round of the J.F. Championship. This promises to be one of the best games of the year and granted propitious weather conditions, there will be a record attendance at this ever popular centre. The local club have been busily engaged during the past week making the necessary preparations and all arrangements will be perfect on Sunday. As the teams are rather evenly matched it is not easy to forecast the outcome but supreme confidence prevails in both camps. Ardmore have been somewhat the more impressive during recent years and in championship and tournament have given splendid displays. Only hard luck prevented them from reaching the top of the ladder on several occasions. This record will, no doubt, prove an incentive to greater effort and on Sunday they will be "all out" to win. The progress of the Ardmore club has been most gratifying and the happy state of affairs is largely due to the untiring efforts of Messrs. Martin Hurley, Sean Downey, James Rooney, Patrick Mockler, M. Ryan, etc., to whom the greatest credit is due.

Aghlish on the other hand can be relied upon to give a good account of themselves and are quite optimistic as to the outcome of the fray. Having some of the best individual players in the Division they can be relied upon to give an excellent account of themselves. During recent years they have shown good form and have improved steadily.

Whoever wins, a thrilling struggle for supremacy is assured and no Gael in these parts should miss the encounter.

MOUNTSTUART L.D.F. DANCE.

The grand cinderella dance, held under the popular auspices of the Mountstuart L.D.F. on Sunday night last proved a most successful and enjoyable function from every point of view, and was a very large attendance. Officers and Volunteers of the L.D.F. from Clashmore, Villierstown, etc. attended in uniform. All arrangements were perfect in the capable hands of the S/L J. Conroy, M.T., S/Q T. Foley, Hon. Sec. and the volunteers of the local section. Splendid music was supplied by Aghlish L.D.F. Band personally conducted by D.S.O. J. Fenton. The floor was in perfect order while carnival decorations added to the general appearance of gaiety. S/L J. Conroy was a most efficient M.C., and under his able direction everything went smoothly. Dancing concluded with the playing of the National Anthem.

CLASHMORE V VILLIERSTOWN.

The meeting of Clashmore and Villierstown in the initial round of the J.F. Championship is sure to provide a good game. The personnel of both teams will be somewhat different to last season as some members of both fifteen have joined the army and their places will have to be filled by young recruits. This will give the young players a splendid opportunity of proving their worth. Despite the changes mentioned both sides can field useful combinations and the issue is rather open. The scales are, however, slightly in favour of Clashmore and a victory for them is not at all impossible. Whoever wins a good game is assured.

PROFITEERING.

One frequently hears examples of ruthless profiteering. Profiteering is a crime against the whole community and such unfair and unchristian conduct cannot be too strongly condemned. It is a frightful state of affairs that big firms take advantage of a period of national distress to "fleece" the public and especially the poor. In other countries a way was found of dealing with such conduct. The Government should take immediate action to limit profits otherwise there will be widespread dissatisfaction and dissatisfaction could easily be something more serious.

The L.D.F. continues to make satisfactory progress in all areas and more recruits are forthcoming each week. More are however still needed as it is essential that the special services should be at full strength in each area. Those who up to now, have been apathetic should realize their national duty and join the L.D.F. at once and thus prepare themselves to be worthy soldiers of Ireland. Those who have not the courage of their convictions are unworthy of the name of Irishmen.

CLASHMORE L.D.F. IN TRAINING.

For the past week the Clashmore L.D.F. have been undergoing a course of training in charge of Corporal McCarthy, District Instructor. Good progress was made and Corporal McCarthy proved himself to be an excellent instructor. He is most popular with those under instruction and the various groups in the district are fortunate to have the services of such a splendid instructor. Under his very able and thorough direction they should reach a very high standard of efficiency in the minimum of time.

EARLY SPRING.

Successful gardeners plan ahead; that is one reason why they are successful. An early spring does not catch them unprepared. They have settled beforehand the seeds, plants and bulbs that they intend to grow. They have decided the number and kind of garden tools that are required. Some garden experts have predicted an early spring, so like good campaigners, they have purchased their simple tool needs already, and the assurance of dry weather in March would not fluster them a bit. They are prepared. You, too, may need a spade, a rake, a digging fork, or a trowel. A spade saves so much work when anything more than a bucketful of earth has to be moved; a rake saves so many backaches and so many minutes that can be turned to productive work; a digging fork is indispensable, for it saves you literally from cutting away the roots of your horticultural hopes; a trowel is the inseparable companion of the digging fork; and the necessary small brother of the spade. Why not get one of more of these tools now at Harpur Bros. and be prepared? Harpur, have everything for the garden at all prices.—Harpur Brothers, 48, Quay, Waterford.

CARRICK-ON-SUIR DISTRICT COURT

The Carrick-on-Suir District Court was held on Monday before Mr. F. J. MacCabe, D.J.

A number of Civil Bill cases were adjourned owing to the absence at the Water-Circuit Court of the solicitors engaged in the cases. Case brought by the Minister for Industry and Commerce, Minister for Lands and Water, Co. Board of Health, were also adjourned owing to the absence of the solicitors engaged at Waterford. WARNING TO PARENTS OF SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Two boys, aged about 13 years, were sent to Clonmel Industrial School on the application of Guard Hickey, School Attendance Officer.

Guard Hickey said the boys were beyond control or obedience to any person. They had been frequently warned about school attendance and other offences.

The justice said he hoped the boys in which he had dealt with these boys would be a warning to boys who will not go to school and to their parents. He praised the zeal of Guard Hickey and also of the Portlaoine, Piltown and Rathgorman guards in enforcing the School Attendance Act.

Owing to the absence of the solicitors engaged in the cases, the Justice adjourned a charge of stealing goods from the road, four years ago from the Ballyneale district. BOUND TO THE PEACE.

Margaret Bourke v Bridget Bourke. Plaintiff lives at Kilonery and the defendant at Pill Road, near Carrick-on-Suir. Plaintiff is married to a stepon of the defendant.

Mrs. Margaret Bourke, the complainant, stated, in reply to Mr. J. C. Power, solicitor, who appeared on her behalf, that she was married to a stepon of Mrs. Bourke (defendant). She (Margaret Bourke, complainant) was refugee from England. Her home there was bombed. On the 1st of February, when witness was going down Pill Road, defendant came up to her and gave her terrible abuse and threatened her. The abuse and threats were repeated on several occasions.

Justice—How do you meet the defendant? Witness—I never meet her. She comes to me when I am going down the road. I have to pass her house on the Pill Road going to and from Carrick.

Justice (to defendant)—What have you to say? Defendant—This woman has been saying terrible things about my two children who are in London. She has been saying that I am in London in going with Communists there.

Complainant—My husband was asked how this woman's children were doing in London and he told her the truth. Justice—This is one of the few cases in which I clearly see my way to bind to the peace. I bind defendant to the peace for 12 months, herself on £5 and a surety of £10.

Defendant—I will not be bound to the peace. Justice—Very good. If you will not be bound to the peace then you will go to jail for days.

Defendant—I will go to jail. Justice—Please yourself. Mr. Power, solicitor, applied for and was given 15/- costs. SERIES OF LARCENIES.

Patrick Thompson, Carrickbeg, was charged with the larceny of timber, value 5/- and property of Mrs. Hickey, Coolfin, Portlaoine. Guard Fahy stated, in reply to Supt. Kelly, that when passing an old house at Carrickbeg, the property of Mrs. Hickey, he saw defendant coming from the house carrying six pieces of timber. When the defendant saw witness he threw the sticks away.

Defendant, in reply to the Justice, said the bits of sticks he had were pieces of old rotten timber which he thought were of no value. In reply to the Justice, Guard Fahy said he thought the timber would be worth about 2/-.

Mr. E. Driscoll, agent for Mrs. Hickey's property, stated, in reply to Supt. Kelly, that he valued the timber at 5/- a good deal of damage is being done to the house. The Justice dismissed the case under the Probation Act.

Supt. Kelly v Patrick Allen. Defendant was charged with the larceny of a bicycle, the property of Betty Moore. The Supt. said the owner of the bicycle left it outside the Catholic Church at Carrick-on-Suir when she went to Mass. Defendant rode the bicycle to Kilkenny. He stated he had cycled to Kilkenny to join the army.

Defendant's father informed the Justice that his son was only 15 years old. He was discharged from the army for having been under age.

The Justice said he was inclined to treat defendant leniently owing to his age. In reply to the Justice, Supt. Kelly said the bicycle had been recovered and had been given back to the owner. A sum of £1 13/4 costs had been incurred in the case.

The Justice said the defendant could not be allowed to roam around stealing bicycles. He would let him off under the Probation Act. If he is up again for larceny he will be severely dealt with. He ordered him to pay the costs in the case. Supt. Kelly v John Walsh.

Defendant was charged with the larceny of timber at Cregg, the property of Mr. P. Power. Defendant said he put the timber back in the field when Mr. Power's son spoke to him. The timber was of little value. He had had it in his cart but took it out when the owner's son spoke to him.

The Justice warned the defendant that if Experiment With Silage.

The advantages of making Ensilage instead of hay have been given such prominence of late years, I decided to turn 7 1/2 statute acres I hold in Callan into ensilage last year (1940) in order to test the matter out.

This land was grazed to the roots on the 29th April when it was closed off.

There some delay in procuring a concrete Slab Sid from the Weather-Tile Co., Clonalkin, and in consequence the grass was a trifle more forward than is desirable for best silage, when it was cut on the 10th and 11th June. We made this silage with Molasses (procured from the Irish Sugar Co., Carlow) and used one ton of molasses diluted half and half with water, on the grass from the 7 1/2 acres, which filled two silos both 16 ft. in diameter by 6 ft. deep when compressed, making in all about 40 tons of silage.

Due to the very dry Summer we did not get another cutting, so there was a fair stand of aftermath on the land when I put on eleven 3 year old cattle on it on the 20th November, and averaged 10C. 6Q. 25lbs. each. They were fed on nothing but ensilage until they were weighed again on the 25th January 1941, when they averaged 10C. 3Q. 18lbs. each, a gain of 2Q. 21lbs. each. From the 25th January they received in addition to the silage one ton of Beet Pulp and 6 cwt. of molassed Meat and Bone Meal, and were delivered to Clover Meat Ltd., Waterford, 7 on the 11th and 4 on 13th March this year. They weighed alive before slaughter 120cwt. or 10C. 3Q. 11lbs. each (exactly the same weight as they made in Callan on January 28th), and dressed a total of 67C. 1Q. 8Lbs., or an average of 6C. 9Q. 13Lbs. each of grade one beef 10c.

These cattle cost £237/5 on November 20th, and made £314/3/4 gross on March 11th. The expenses to be deducted were as follows—molasses £3, one ton of beet pulp £7, 6 cwt. of meat and bone meal £4, and carriage of cattle to factory per G.S.R. lorry at 8/3 per head, £4/10/8, leaving a net of £293/12/7, equal to a profit of £56/7/7 on the transaction.

The financial result of the experiment has small bearing on it, as this might be either way dependent on how the cattle were bought, market fluctuations etc. but it shows the class of cattle used, and what really is important is that these eleven cattle came through one of the hardest winters on record, out in the open all the time, and were fed two months out of 3 1/2; they were on Callan on making Ensilage, plus the aftermath on the place. They were fed 4 1/2 worth of artificial in the last 6 weeks, and all of them compared more than favourably with the stall-fed cattle which were killed in the Factory at the same time.

The live-weight obtained in Callan would be only approximate as there was no cage on the scales, and the cattle had to be held while they were being weighed. The cattle were not fully fasted for the Callan weighings, but were fully fasted when weighed at the factory. We found in Clover Meats that cattle held overnight fasting will dress around 2 p.c. more than if killed on arrival. Therefore, if we reckon the final weight of a 54 p.c. dressing instead of 56.1 p.c. on the fasted weight it would appear as if the cattle gained something over 1 cwt. each since the first weighing in Callan on November 25th, a period of fifteen weeks. The increase may or may not be satisfactory from the feeder's point of view, but it shows that ensilage is a good cattle food, and as compared with hay off the same acreage of land, it is am sure has shown much better results. It must also be remembered that the weather from Christmas onwards was extremely bad for cattle led in the open being both wet and much colder than is usual, and that those cattle were out under the weather all the time.

I will in the near future give a description of how we made this ensilage, so as to enable anyone who wishes to make a trial batch this year. In the meantime I shall be pleased to answer any questions submitted to me.

dogs, and fines of 5/- were imposed in the majority of the cases.

EXEMPTION ORDER. Supt. Kelly applied for an exemption area order for Killeagh on May Sunday. The application was granted.

The Commissioners of Public Works applied for a committal order against James Drohan, Ardmore.

Mr. Keane (for Dr. Counihan, State solicitor, Waterford) said that the amount of the decree was £2 18s. 6d., and there had been no payment. The cost of the removal would be £4.

The Justice—You would have to pay that yourselves.

The application was granted, with 20/- costs.

PITTABLE CASE. A man thrown out of employment by the petrol shortage was charged by Guard Ceasar with the absence of three of his children from school.

From the statement of defendant and his wife it appeared there were nine children, from one year up to sixteen. In addition to the dole, the two eldest children earned 9/- weekly between them. The reason given for the children not attending school was that they had no boots and the weather was too bad to let them go in their bare feet.

After questioning the parents at length, the Justice adjourned the cases to the end of July.

On the proposition of Mr. Lynch seconded by Mr. Whelan it was decided to put down two new piles at the Pier Head.

COAL QUESTION. The Clerk read the Press notice regarding the scarcity of coal at the Gas Works, and read a long correspondence showing that they had been endeavouring since last June to procure an extra supply, but failed owing to the British Control refusing the necessary permit, although they had two vessels chartered.

The Gas Manager, Mr. M. J. White, gave details of his persistent efforts to procure the coal.

The Chairman said that some people in the town were of the opinion that the Council had not taken action in the matter in time but what they had just heard from the Clerk and the Gas Manager showed that everything possible had been done by them to get the coal, but the British control put an embargo on its export.

The Press to note the fact so that the blame could be put on the proper shoulders.

Mr. Power said it was not the Gas Manager's fault, but the Council's. It had been suggested long ago that an extra stock should be bought and stored.

The Manager said he had procured an offer of 40-50 tons of ordinary coal from Wexford. There was a prospect of a further lot, but it should come by rail.

Mr. O'Gorman said it wasn't right in the circumstances that the public should blame the Council for shortage.

After a very protracted discussion on matters of detail, the Manager was instructed to continue his efforts to procure coal.

The Manager said he had 150 tons of coke on hands and made a suggestion that it might be given out to the local coal merchants, they to give coal in return when they got it.

LIBRARIAN'S HOUSE. Miss O'Connell, branch county librarian, applied for the house rendered vacant by the death of Mrs. Power, former librarian.

Mr. Power said he thought it only right that the lady should get it at a nominal rent.

Mr. Savage agreed. The Chairman said the matter should go on the agenda.

Mr. Whelan said they couldn't decide the question then. They were all anxious she should get the house but they couldn't give it anything.

The Chairman said they were threatening some of their tenants with eviction from houses rented at 4/- weekly. This house was worth more, Miss O'Connell wasn't an employee of theirs, but of the County Library Committee.

Mr. Keane agreed with the Chairman. It was finally decided to put the matter on the agenda for the next meeting.

MAIN STREET MAINTENANCE. The following letter was read from the Cork County Council:—

"With reference to yours of the 3rd, arising out of the maintenance of main roads in urban districts, I beg to direct your attention to the terms of the circular letter issued by the L.G.D. on 28th April, 1936, to each county council and urban district council wherein it is stated that 'where it is the duty of a county council to maintain and construct in urban districts, the county council is under obligation to cleanse the roads so far as may be necessary for the proper maintenance of the roads for traffic. Where the road is a 'street' section 52 of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, empowers the urban district council, as sanitary authority, to undertake or contract for the proper cleansing of the street. The exercise of this power may be enforced by order of the Minister. Ordinarily, the cleaning of a street involves more than is required for road maintenance, and preserves the amenities of the street and its sanitary condition. Such extra cleansing can and should be performed by the urban district council.' It is therefore evident from the terms of the Department's circular 'letter that there is no obligation on a county council to perform any cleaning of main roads within an urban district other than what is considered necessary for the maintenance of roads for traffic, and any extra cleaning incidental to the preservation of urban amenities is a matter for the appropriate urban district council. The removal of refuse deposited by householders on main roads referred to in your letter is clearly a duty of the urban district council, as specified in section 52 of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878.—Yours faithfully, J. F. Wrenne, secretary."

The Clerk said that Fermanagh, Mallow, Middleton and Cobb were in the same position.

The Chairman said the Council were getting a bad deal from the County Council in this and other matters, such as the poor rate, as they would learn later.

Mr. Savage said that the County Council took over the main roads and now they were shirking their liability.

Mr. Smyth—Can you alter it? Mr. Whelan suggested that they should co-operate with the other councils concerned in protesting against the action of

EARLY GOSLINGS USE GRASS FULLY.

These are the only variety of fowls capable of living entirely on grass for several weeks in the year, but early goslings score over those hatched later, because they get the best-quality herbage during May and June.

Later-hatched birds are too young to get the best from the high-quality grazings, and are slower in growth. Some breeders prefer to kill goslings for table long before the Christmas period, and here the early goslings score again.

Breeding do not need water for mating purposes. Even during the breeding season geese need only one small feed daily. It might even be possible to secure a good egg yield without the use of hand-feeding.

Thin-shelled eggs are usually due to over-fatness. Less corn or mash and the addition of 2 per cent. of ground limestone in the ration may help normal cases.

Goose eggs, for incubator hatching, should be not more than ten days old, but broody hens will produce goslings from eggs three weeks old. I usually date all my eggs so that the stalest can be discarded if necessary. A good-sized hen will cover four eggs and mother eight to ten goslings. Remove the hens once daily and turn the eggs at the same time. Test the eggs on the tenth day.

If incubating the eggs, try to keep a temperature of 103 deg. F. Moisture trays should never be allowed to get empty. Examine the air space of the egg occasionally to find out whether sufficient moisture is being provided.

The air space should be well defined and expand about one-fifth of the whole egg during the last week of incubation. An extra large air space suggests shortage of moisture.

It is not very often that such eggs hatch, and if the gosling does hatch, it is usually too weak to be of any use.

Large numbers of incubator-hatched goslings produced at one time simplify brooding. Later on, when grazing starts, large groups can run together. Groups of various ages complicate feeding arrangements until the youngest are old enough to fend for themselves.

Ferry Collecter. There were two applications for the position of Ferry Collecter, viz.—Capt. T. Browne and D. J. Burke.

Mr. Savage proposed Capt. Browne, who had been doing the work so well for some time past.

Mr. Smyth, seconding, said they could not get a better man.

Capt. Browne was appointed unanimously.

County Council. Mr. Daly said they should protest to the Minister from the health point of view.

The Chairman and others supported Mr. Whelan's suggestion, which was unanimously adopted.

Turf. A letter was read from the County Council re "turf production," asking for particulars of their turf requirements above those which they might normally be able to provide for themselves.

The Clerk said he had made inquiries and the nearest source was Ballyduill mountain.

The Chairman said that was not in their jurisdiction.

The matter was adjourned for further inquiries.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Letters of acknowledgment of resolutions of sympathy were read from Mrs. Mary Nagle, Miss S. O'Brien, Church Street, and Mrs. R. Walsh, South Abbey Cottage.

SYMPATHY. Mr. Whelan proposed, and Mr. Lynch seconded, a vote of sympathy with the relatives of the late Mrs. Power, former librarian, Free Library.

The Chairman, associating, said she was a very estimable lady.

Mr. Lynch proposed, and Mr. Smyth seconded, a similar vote to the relatives of the late Miss Ellen Aher.

Mr. Daly—Her brother gave his life for his country.

COUNTY MATCHES AT FERMOY.

At the Fermoey Handball Court on Sunday, before a fairly large attendance, five soft ball matches in the county championships were completed. The Fermoey players proved much too good for their opponents from Middleton and Kiltworth, and they annexed the four games which had been contested. In the fifth game—soft ball double—Kiltworth got a walk over, as Spike Island did not turn up. The following are the results:—

Novice Soft Ball Singles, between M. Spillane, Fermoey, and T. Roche, Middleton. Spillane had no trouble in winning both games, the scores being 21-3, 21-11.

Junior Soft Ball Doubles, between Fermoey "A" (J. O'Brien and J. Roche) and Middleton (T. Roche and R. Kirby). This went to the Fermoey pair on the score 21-9, 21-2.

Junior Soft Ball Doubles, between Fermoey "B" (T. Condon and J. Fortune) and Kiltworth (S. Barry and B. Walsh). The locals proved good winners on the score: 21-5, 21-0, 12-21, 21-15.

Senior Soft Ball Doubles—Fermoey "A" (J. Aherne and W. Green) against Middleton "B" (T. O'Sullivan and J. Lynch). This game also went to Fermoey, the scores being: 21-14, 21-7, 21-18.

The judge was Mr. J. Coll, and Mr. D. Slattery acted as marker.

Subsequent to the above games, a meeting of the County Board was held, at which Mr. J. O'Brien (Chairman) presided, and Mr. T. O'Sullivan, hon. sec., Middleton was in attendance. Representatives were also present from the different clubs. The following fixtures were made:—Sunday, 4th May, at Kiltworth, Novice Hard Ball Doubles—Fermoey v. Kanturk; Junior H.B. Doubles, Kiltworth "B" v. Mallow; Senior Hard Ball Singles, Mallow v. Fermoey; Junior Hard Ball Doubles, Mallow v. Fermoey "B"; Junior S.B. Doubles, Fermoey "B" v. Spike Island. The following players were selected for the H.B. All-Ireland contest:—Senior H.B. Singles, P. O'Reilly, Kanturk; Senior H.B. Doubles, T. Twobill, Kanturk, and R. Ward Mallow. It was decided that J. Sweeney, Kiltworth, was eligible as a novice.

"RICARDO" (RATHGORMACK) WRITES -

"The other day I took my small nephew (who is an evacuee from London) to see Crotty's Rock. He was very much disappointed because he could see no giants and asked where they were. When I told him they were all dead, he asked me what they were like, where they lived, and a few dozen other questions about the giants of Ireland. I told him used to have plenty of giants. One of the most famous was Cornelius McGrath, when, when a boy of sixteen was six feet nine inches. His hand was like a shoulder of mutton. When McGrath visited Trinity College he used to amuse himself by trifling students by the coat collar and holding them out at arm's length. When he died, the medical students stole his body, the skeleton of which is still to be seen preserved at Trinity College. Another famous Irish giant was Charles Byrne. He determined that no medical students would get his body, and left directions that when he died, fishermen were to be paid to take his body and sink it with lead weights in the middle of the Irish Channel. However, his wishes were not obeyed, and his skeleton now stands in the museum of the Royal College of Surgeons, London. Byrne was eight feet four inches tall, but died, three inches shorter than Patrick Cotter, another Irish giant who hailed from Kinsale. When quite a boy, Cotter's father hired him out to a travelling showman for fifty pounds a year. Cotter was no ordinary boy, and soon after refused to appear in the shows unless he got money for himself. The showman thereupon put poor Cotter into prison for breach of contract. Immediately he was released Cotter "managed" himself and made thirty pounds in three days. Cotter used to take walks early in the morning so as to avoid the curiosity of crowds. The lamps were lighted with oil in those days, and he carried his pipe lit by simply tuck off the tops off the lamps and applied his pipe to the flame. One night he attended a Masque dinner and amused the company by drawing from his pocket a dwarf called Count Borulawski, who was appearing at the same theatre. When Cotter died he ordered that his body should be put in a leaden vessel. This was done, and it took fourteen days to carry him to the grave. All these Irish giants lived in the eighteenth century, and I fear Ireland has ceased to produce giants."

RECENT WEDDINGS.

At the Servites' Church, Fulham Road, London, was solemnised the marriage of Miss Maria Quinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Quinn, Kilmacthomas, to Mr. James Williams, of the Royal Corps of Signals, son of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Streatham, London. Miss Betty Green was the bridesmaid, and Mr. C. Williams acted as best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Mr. James Barron, formerly of Garrynturton, Kilmacthomas, uncle of the bride, where the guests included Mrs. M. Meredith (nee Quinn, aunt of the bride); Mr. M. Meredith (cousin of the bride); Sergeant B. Abbott, Signalman Collett, Signalman Leeson, Mrs. M. Barron (nee Kirwan, formerly of Hill Cottage, Kilmacthomas); Miss H. Power, and Miss B. Green. Subsequently the happy couple left for Scotland on their honeymoon.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Kearns, Gardenmorris, Kill, to Mr. James Lannon, William Street, Portlaoise, took place at the Parish Church, Portlaoise, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. L. Vereker, C.C., do. Miss Hannah Kearns, Gardenmorris (sister of the bride) acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Thomas Lannon, Portlaoise (brother of the groom), acted as best man. The newly joined pair, who enjoy widespread popularity, were the recipients of numerous costly and useful gifts to mark the auspicious occasion.

WOUNDED IN ACTION.

Mr. Thomas Francis Maher of the Royal Artillery, who is now confined in a hospital somewhere in Herefordshire, England, suffering from wounds he recently sustained on active service, is eldest son of Mr. J. J. Maher, licensed vintner, Main Street, Kilmacthomas. For many years prior and up to his joining the British Army at the outbreak of the present war, "T. F." (as he is affectionately known by his troops of friends and well-wishers on both sides of the Channel) was first jockey to the powerful race trainer, Mr. W. P. W. for whom he has piloted many mounts to victory in steeplechases as well as "over the sticks." He served his apprenticeship at Senator J. J. Parkinson's training establishment, Muddenstown Lodge, Curragh, and had proved himself a jockey of considerable merit before he went across-Channel.

Squad Leaders Joseph Phelan and Martin Power, of the Kilmacthomas Group, have just undergone a course of special training at the Curragh. Other members of the Unit will, we understand, leave at regular intervals from this onwards to undergo a similar course at the Curragh.

R.I.P.

Fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church, of which he was a most exemplary member, Mr. Matthew Power, of Carrigahilla, Stradbally, passed peacefully and resignedly away to his eternal reward, after a comparatively short illness, in his 69th year. He was a most amiable and beloved neighbour, and so much had his life-work and the charm and nobility of his personality become a part of the community among whom he lived and laboured that he became a veritable institution. He is survived by his good wife and a large and respectable family, to whom a great wave of public sympathy goes out in their sad bereavement and loss. A cortege of imposing dimensions accompanied the removal of the remains to the residence in the Parish Church, Kill, where they were rested overnight on a catafalque before the high altar. Following the celebration of Requiem Mass on Friday morning of last week, interment was made in the adjoining cemetery, in the presence of innumerable relatives, friends and sympathisers, and amid many manifestations of profound sorrow. Rev. M. Power, C.C., Kill, pronounced the final absolution at the graveside. The 11 o'clock Mass at St. Ann's Church, Ballynaneen, on Sunday (celebrated by the Rev. P. F. Walsh, C.C., Stradbally) was also offered up for the happy repose of the soul of the late Mr. Power.

DANCING.

The usual weekly dance under the auspices of the L.D.F. and L.S.F. (Killorossant Groups), held at Leamybrien Hall on Sunday night last, was splendidly supported, and with Mr. Sean Kirwan doing M.C. there wasn't a dull moment from the commencement to the close. The hall band being voted extra good. A short dance at Baldwin's Hall, Kill, on the same night was also well patronised and proved a highly enjoyable affair.

WHELAN-POWER.

St. Brigid's Parish Church, Killorossant, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday morning, the contracting parties being worthy members of well-known farming families of the District, the persons of Mr. Joseph Whelan, Kilmacraha, Dungarvan, and Mrs. Bridget Power, third daughter of Mr. Patrick Power, Knock, Stradbally, and the late Mrs. Power, do. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass, was performed by the Rev. W. Methan, C.C., Killorossant. The bride, who looked charming, was attended by her sister, Miss Sarah Power, Knock, as bridesmaid. Mr. Thomas Whelan, Ballyvaden, Kill (brother of the bridegroom), acted as groomsmen. The exceedingly popular happy couple, who are spending their honeymoon in Dublin and Wicklow, received numerous expensive and serviceable presents. We join with their legions of admirers in warmly wishing Mr. and Mrs. Whelan length of years in full enjoyment of the peace and blessings of conjugal bliss. By the way, the bride's deservedly esteemed father is one of the few surviving members of the famous Killorossant Gaelic football team that brought the county championship crown to the good old parish for the first time—over a lack in 1888.

INFARMING.

Mid-Waterford farmers, cottagers and ploughmen have certainly responded magnificently to the "grow more food" call. Most of the farmers in the area have ploughed quantities of last season's turnips and mangolds for seeding purposes. Every farmer who has done this will not be in want of turnips and mangold seeds in the springtime of next year.

class at Killorossant on Tuesday night of each week at Leamybrien Hall. Students are requested to attend regularly and punctually, and each to be provided with notebook and pencil. We are asked to appeal to the ladies of the district to join the class immediately.

GAELIC GARNERINGS.

Stradbally, Killorossant-Pike, and Faha junior hurling teams, respectively, are requested to get into serious training from now on. They will be in action in the first round of the county championship very soon. The public will not support matches unless they feel sure that the teams concerned have undergone training. Tremendous interest is manifested in the Stradbally v. Killorossant-Pike clash in the first round of this year's senior football championship, fixed for the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on tomorrow (Sunday). The match is spoken of on all sides with pleasurable anticipation, and the attendance is sure to be appreciably large. "Even if we have to travel by wheelbarrows, we'll be there," is the cry of old and young alike of both the Stradbally and Killorossant parishes. Stradbally will not hear of defeat, and Killorossant-Pike are equally confident. Stradbally will be selected from: P. Kirwan (capt.), J. Corbett (goal), J. Whelan, J. Curran, J. Orpen, P. Kiely, J. Power, N. Connors, M. Connors, T. ("Tuddles") Corbett, J. Veale, T. Veale, J. Cummins, J. O'Meara, R. Hickey, K. Phelan, M. Flynn, D. Power, and R. Fitzgerald. Here's hoping the better team will win.

TURF CUTTING.

Upwards of fifty men are now employed cutting turf at Comeragh, and more hands will be engaged as the work progresses. DID YOU HEAR— That the Metal Man is hiking to the Old Borough to-morrow (Sunday) to see Stradbally and Killorossant-Pike "at it"? That Annastown Anne is going all out for Stradbally? That Lizzie Lozenger is sweet on Killorossant-Pike's prospects? That Maud Moryah has a hunch that the honourable rivals will live to fight another day? That Lazarus Lewis also inclines to an honourous exit?

All the Cappouquin players acquitted themselves satisfactorily and deserve praise for their great achievement.

RED CROSS NOTES

Members cannot but feel proud of the part played by the Irish Red Cross Society in the tragedy that overtook many hundreds of our kinsfolk in the North last week. As shock to her numerous friends and deep and widespread sympathy is extended to her bereaved parents, brothers and sisters in their sorrow. Aged 16½ years, deceased was ill only a few days and this renders her death more tragic. Eldest daughter of Mr. Michael McSweeney and Mrs. Madge McSweeney, N.T., the late Miss McSweeney was possessed of a most genial disposition, and was a great favourite in all circles, consequently her sad death has cast a gloom over her native town.

Now, there may be some who up to the present have not given much thought to the Irish Red Cross Society. They knew in a vague way that such an organisation existed but their ideas as to its functions were of the haziest. The reading of the past week's daily papers should have presented the true picture to all. The Irish Red Cross Society is a humanitarian organisation pledged to help the victims of disaster irrespective of creed or allegiance. In this, it really personifies the natural instincts of man to help his stricken neighbour, be he friend or enemy, in time of calamity and as it were, that instinct multiplied and organised to render that help in a systematic and effective manner. As such it is deserving of the support of every man and woman in this town and we appeal to all who can reasonably afford the annual subscription fee of 5/- to join our ranks to-day and thus show that they are one with its aims and objects. Some there are who may be deterred from joining the Society because they cannot or do not wish to take an active part in its work. Let that not prevent them from joining. Only those who voluntarily offer to take an active part in the work are expected to do so, and the very fact that you do not intend to take an active part is all the more reason why you should become a subscriber member and show the workers that you are behind them. Dungarvan, come forward and join the Irish Red Cross Society to-day. Subscriptions can be given to the Hon. Secretary, Miss C. Flynn, the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. J. F. Bowen, the Hon. Secretary of the fund-raising committee, Mr. L. Comerford, or any member of the Committee. An official receipt and membership card will be issued immediately. Life membership subscription is £3-3-0.

We would remind those who for one reason or another cannot become members of the Society that they can nevertheless assist us in many vital ways. As we said last week anyone willing to help us in our practical work—Work Depot, First Aid, Home Nursing, is wholeheartedly welcome whether he or she is an actual member or not and all can help us in our fund-raising endeavours by giving us their support. You will see from an advertisement in this issue that we are starting a Waste Paper Scheme in the town. All you have to do is to save your waste paper for us, we will collect it. This is not much to ask of you and in this co-operation with us in the running of the scheme you will be doing your bit for the Society.

Finally we would remind ladies that the Home Nursing Class commences to-night at 8 p.m. in the Technical School and those interested, that the First Aid Certificate examination will commence at 7 p.m.

L.S.F.—Dungarvan Group.

The Dungarvan Group of the L.S.F. is not as large as would be expected from the town of Dungarvan with its long history and tradition of service. The country is passing through a time of emergency, and it is very fortunate in maintaining its neutrality which is a prize possessed by few nations in Europe. The present time call for a spirit of sacrifice. A giving of self in any form that may give expression to this spirit of sacrifice. Any man who has not joined ought to ask himself seriously, "Am I pulling my weight in this present crisis?" Those who wish to join should call at the Garda Bar, Ticks, or hand their names to any of the following: G/L J. J. Tobin, Congress Villas, A/G/L M. O'Meara, Western Terrace, S/Ls. Park Power, Main St., S. Whelan, Garvan's Terrace, N. Eagle, Park Terrace, P. J. Walsh, Friary Street.

Dr. Cusack gave the First Aid Section a final run through on Monday night. As was to be expected nearly all those going forward for the examination were present and the Doctor was kept busy answering knotty problems. The big test has been fixed for Friday night at 7 p.m. and First Aiders are prepared to "blitz" their way through to victory. We confidently await the result.

At a meeting held on Wednesday night a resolution of sympathy with the members of the Fraser family, Ballygarry, on the death of their father, was proposed on behalf of the Dungarvan Group, by G/L J. J. Tobin and seconded by A/G/L M. O'Meara, and passed in silence. The meeting was adjourned as a mark of sympathy.

Circumstances outside our control prevented the meeting arranged for the Courthouse on Wednesday night, and an apology is due to members for any inconvenience suffered. In future all meetings and parades will be held in the Town Hall.

A general parade will be held at 8.30 p.m. in the Town Hall on Monday night 28th inst. All members are required to be present. Squad Leaders will notify their men accordingly.

Connradh na Gaedhilge.

Felle Gaedheil will be held in Cork on August week end. The programme will include—Masjed Pipe Bands; Masjed Dancing; Masjed Choral Singing; All Ireland Pipe Band Championship; All Ireland Solo Piping Championship; Irish Pipe Solo Championship; Best Dressed Pipe Band Championship; Final of Senior Hurling Tournament.

Besides, many other vocal, instrumental and platform items, and the Festival Ceilidhe in the Cork City Hall.

That such an elaborate programme can be arranged is due to the success of the initial effort last year. For this success we owe thanks to our subscribers and all those who contributed to the Arridheacht. All who attended at last year's Aeridheacht will not readily forget the colorful spectacle of the March past of over 100 killed pipers, and the dancing of 150 dancers in the national costumes, and we hope that this year's effort will result in a far greater response from competitors this year, particularly in view of the inclusion of the new competitions, namely:— The junior pipe band championship; Girls all Ireland championship, so that in a year or two Felle Gaedheil will have developed into a huge spectacular gathering of every aspect of Gaelic culture and drawing visitors and competitors, not alone from Ireland but also from outside.

All classes of pipes and pipe bands are being catered for this year and further trophies will, of course, be offered for these new competitions. We would also like to point out that the Ceilidhe Gnatha of Connradh na Gaedhilge are keeping August week end as a close date all over Ireland, so that Cork should be the gathering ground for Gaelic Ireland to date.

In the hurling arena, with known senior teams will compete and follow the assured of a good display of our national pastime.

An enthusiastic committee are working at full pressure in Cork to ensure that everything will run without a hitch and they will be glad to have any suggestions or inquiries from anyone interested.

All communications should be addressed to:—
