DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT.

Carlow Firm Prosecuted.

MOTOR PROSECUTION.

Guard O'Leary, Dungarvan, prosecuted Messrs. Strathams, Ltd., Carlow, and Saml. Moore, driver, on four counts under the Road Traffic Act—(1) driving without a licence, (2) being allowed to drive without a driving licence, (3) failing to produce insurance certificate, and (4) driving with- out a rere number plate.

Guard O'Leary gave evidence of finding the lorry in the Square, Dungarvan, on the 28th April last. There was no rere number plate, and the driver failed to produce his driving licence or certificate of insurance, but promised he would produce them to the Guards at Carlow within the specified five days.

Mr. Nolan, solicitor—I put it to you that this was not a lorry at all.

Witness—It had the body of a lorry with a trailer attached.

Witness—The trailer was attached to the cab and was capable of being detached.

Mr. Nolan—The question is one of the trade plate.

To Mr. Nolan witness said the driver would be wrong if he stated that witness did not ask him for his licence. He (wit- ness) told the driver when he hadn't got the licence to produce it to the Guards at Car- low within five days.

Supt. Walsh said he had a phone mes- sage from the Guards at Carlow stating that the licence and insurance had been produced, but not within the statutory period of five days.

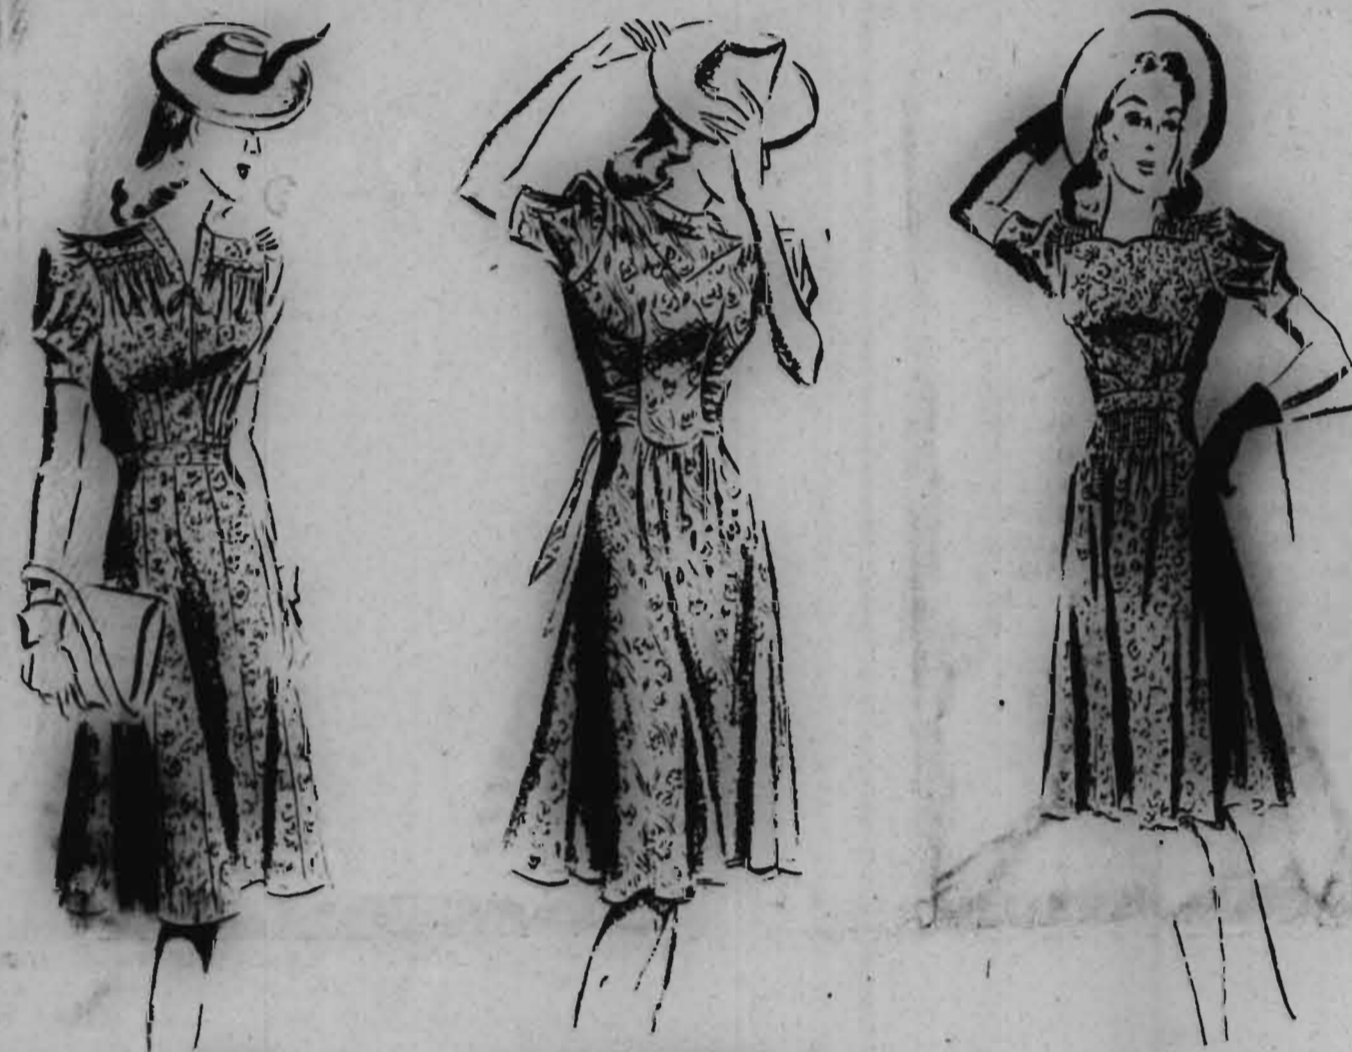

Mr. Nolan said his clients did not know there was any question of insurance or the driver's licence until the issue of the sum- mons. They then produced them. He agreed that the driver's licence had expired at the time, but the firm were unaware of that.

The Justice said it was their duty to ascertain if the driver was licensed.

Guard O'Leary, continuing, said it is his opinion that the trade plate was not properly produced. A tractor was loaded on the trailer.

Supt. Walsh said the position was that they should have a general instead of a limited trade plate. Instead of towing the tractor as allowed by the limited trade plate they were carrying it, for which a general trade plate is required.

A fine of 10/- was imposed on the driver, Moore, for driving without a licence, and Messrs. Strathams were fined 5/- for allow- ing him to drive without a licence. The third count (failing to produce insurance certificate) was dismissed on the merits, and the fourth case (in respect of rere num- ber plate) was dealt with under the Probation of Offenders Act.

OCCASIONAL DANCE LICENCES.

Mr. Williams, solicitor, applied on behalf of J. A. Cartwright, hon. secretary, Dun- garvan Carnival Committee, for occasional dance licences for three Sunday nights— July 13th, 20th and 27th—from 2 p.m. to 12 midnight, and for all week nights during the carnival from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight. The applications were granted.

OCCASIONAL LICENCE FOR TOWN HALL REFUSED.

Mr. Morrissey explained that it was an application made by an individual on be- half of the above. He then explained to the Justice that the licence granted by him for dancing in the Hall had lapsed, and that the proposed sanitary conveniences had not yet been installed.

Justice—Why should I give a daily licence when I refused to give a yearly one? When I am dealing with a licence I deal with the hall for which it is required. I don't see how I could grant this after re- fusing already on the grounds of sanitary accommodation. Surely the Council should have done their own job first.

The application was refused, as was also a similar application made by Mr. Mor- rissey, solicitor, on behalf of Mr. Patrick Ryan, hon. secretary, Dickens Leather Co. Social Club.

LIGHTS.

Fines ranging from 5/- to 1/- were im- posed in cases under the Lights on Vehicles Act.

UNTAXED CAR.

Complainant gave evidence of finding the car stationary in Dungarvan on the 19th

Co. Waterford Nun's Death.

Sister Cera was a native of Garranbane, Dungarvan, in which district members of her family engaged in farming and com- mercial enterprise. She joined the Mercy Order by entering the Clonakilty Convent, and here she was professed 66 years ago, being a diamond jubilarian. The deceased sister was one of a num- ber of nuns from the Clonakilty com- munity who went in a foundation to estab- lish a convent at Waterford just over 50 years ago, and was subsequently recalled when the latter community became firmly established. Throughout the many years of her activities she endeared her- self to the members of her order and to all with whom she made contact during that period in which she tended the sick and the infirm at the County Home, Clonakilty.

Among the clergy present were—Rev. J. O'Driscoll, P.P., Timoleague; and Rev. J. Casey, C.C., do. Rev. J. Collins, P.P. Leay, and Rev. J. McGrath, C.C. do. Rev. P. Cahalane, P.P. V.F. Rosscarbery, and Rev. K. Collins, C.C. do. Rev. W. Holland, P.P. Ardfield, and Rev. P. O'Connell, do. Rev. T. Duggan, P.P. Barryroe, and Rev. F. Coakley, do. Rev. J. Among the chief mourners were—Mr. Patrick Colender, Cappelquin (nephew), and Mrs. and Miss Colender; Mr. T. Colender, Garranbane, Dungarvan (nep- hew).

February last, the tax for the current year not being displayed.

Mr. Williams, solicitor, appeared for Mr. Byrne.

Mr. R. Shanahan, in reply to Mr. Wil- liams, said that the defendant lived with him. On this morning, which was the morning of the Dungarvan fair, witness took the defendant's car instead of his own, which was taxed. The defendant did not know he was taking it.

A similar ruling was made in a case by Guard J. O'Dea, foods and drugs inspector, against a local milk retailer with selling milk slightly deficient in fats.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE CASES.

A young man named James Egan, charged by Supt. Walsh under the Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, was returned for trial to the Waterford Circuit Court on bail.

KILMATHOMAS NOTES

R.I.P. At both the 8.30 and 11 o'clock Masses at St. Anne's Church, Ballynaneon, on Sunday last, prayers were offered up for the happy repose of the soul of Mr. Michael H. Power, farmer, Ballynaneon Upper (and Cullen Castle, Tramore), the second anniversary of whose death occurs about this time.

At the Convent of Mercy Church, Waterford, on the 28th ult. (Festival of St. Ireneus), the profession took place of Miss Catherine (Kathleen) Kirwan, Kilmacneave, Kilmathomas, and niece of Mr. Percy Kirwan, Kilmathomas. The newly-professed nun (in religion, Sister Catherine) is now attached to the Kilmathomas branch of the Mercy Order, and we congratulate her and wish her length of years of happiness in the service of God. AN OCTOGENARIAN.

A grand type of Catholic Irishwoman of her generation was Mrs. Ellen Coughlan, Kilbrack, Rathgarrick, all that was mortal of whom was reverently laid to rest in the local cemetery on Thursday last week, in the presence of many mourners and sympathisers. Belict of the late Mr. Patrick Coughlan, Ballybrack, the deceased lady had reached the fine age of 86 years, and she passed hence fortified by the consolations of her religion. She was mother of Mr. Patrick Coughlan, Kilbrack; two Mrs. Cahill, resident in Rathgarrick; Mrs. McGrath, Carrick Hill, and Mrs. M. Murray, Ballykilmurray, Killorossanty, with whom widespread sympathy is felt in their bereavement.—The Light of Heaven to the gentle soul departed.

TO-MORROW'S FESTIVAL. The Secretary of the Oliver Plunkett Union, Rev. T. P. Murphy, C.C., states that, in accordance with the decision of the Hierarchy, the Feast of Blessed Oliver will be observed on to-morrow (Sunday). Radio Eireann will relay High Mass from St. Mary's Cathedral, Kilkenny, at noon; the Bishop of Ossory, Most Rev. Dr. C. J. Cullen, will preside. At 6.30 a play, "The Long Road to Tyburn," will be broadcast. On to-morrow week (20th inst.), Rev. W. J. Hegarty, C.C., will speak from the Cork Studio on "Blessed Oliver and the Dangers of To-Day." (Note: Bishop Oliver Plunkett, Primate of Ireland, was executed at Tyburn on July 1st, 1681).

CLUBS' CONDOLENCE. Dunhill Amateur Dramatic Club voted sympathy to Miss Kitty Murphy and Mr. Michael Murphy, both foundation and esteemed members, on the death of their mother, the late Mrs. Margaret Murphy, wife of Mr. John Murphy, Shanaculane. At a specially convened meeting of the Dunhill Branch of the Gaelic League, Seamus Dunaidhe (Chairman) presiding, a vote of condolence, on the proposition of Padraig MacEoinin and seconded by Liam Egan, was passed with C. N. Muccada and Mical O' Murchada, both valued members of the Branch, in their recent sad bereavement.

RECENT WEDDINGS. POWER-GREEN: The wedding (with Nuptial Mass) was solemnised at the Parish Church, Portlawn, by the Very Rev. M. F. Hearne, P.P., do., of Mr. Joseph Power, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mee Power, Upper Brown Street, do., to Miss May Green, second daughter of Mr. Wm. Green, Customs and Excise, Dublin, and the late Mrs. Green, do.

Mrs. Nora Green, Dublin (sister of the bride), and Miss Kitty Harney, Portlawn (cousin of the groom), were the bridesmaids. Mr. William Harney, Portlawn (cousin of the bridegroom), acted as best man. The happy couple received numerous costly and serviceable presents to mark the auspicious occasion. The gifts included a handsome cheque from the Management and Office Staff of Irish Tanners, Ltd., Portlawn (where the bride served as shorthand-typist for a term of six and a half years); a case of cutlery and carvers from the foremen and workers of Irish Tanners; Ltd., the Portlawn Branch of the Irish Red Cross Society (of which the bride was Hon. Secretary), and the Portlawn Parish Choir (of which she was a valued member). Their troops of friends unite in warmly wishing Mr. and Mrs. Power many years of matrimonial happiness.

GRAY-STOUTY: The Protestant Church at Cragh, Skibbereen, Co. Cork, was the scene of a very pretty and interesting wedding, when Mr. James Donald Gray, only son of Mr. Harry Gray and the late Mrs. Gray, Ballynashila, Bannabon, became the spouse of Miss Frances Stout, daughter of Mrs. Stout and the late Mr. John Stout, Ballynashila, Skibbereen. The bride, who looked charming in a dusty pink dress and blue hat, was given away by her brother, Mr. John Stout, while her

DEATH OF MRS. M. KIRWAN. We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Mary Kirwan, widow, Kealfoun, Kilmathomas, which sad event occurred on Sunday last after a comparatively short illness and in the fullness of her years. She came of a good old stock of Killorossanty parish—the Gowman's of Comeragh, and enjoyed widespread esteem in the locality, where she was a familiar personality. During her last illness she was constantly attended by the Rev. W. Mehan, C.C., Killorossanty, who ministered to her spiritual necessities. She passed away with a peacefulness and resignation expressive of a devout Christian, being a most exemplary Catholic all her life. Of a quiet and inoffensive nature, she made many firm friendships by her kindly and homely disposition, and was a true-hearted Irishwoman, whose passing will be sadly missed by the residents of the locality. Deceased was a fluent speaker of her native language and an intelligent narrator of the folklore of these parts, and it was a joy to listen to her interesting narratives of the olden days of historic and genealogical interest. She was mother of Mr. Patrick Kirwan, Kealfoun; Miss Margaret Kirwan, do., and the late Mr. John Kirwan, U.S.A. Deceased was sister of Mr. Patrick Cowman, Comeragh, and grandmother of Mr. Edward Moroney, Currahaha, Kilmathomas; Mr. John Moroney, Mahonbridge, do.; Mr. Patrick Moroney, U.S.A., and Miss Mary Moroney, do.

Her son, Patrick, who is an extensive and progressive farmer, was one of the ablest Gaelic footballers ever raised in the county; he occupied the centre-back berth on the Killorossanty senior team that took the County Championship to the parish in 1919, and he and his brother, John (R.I.P.), proved their worth as Gaels under subsequent years when Black-and-Tans tried in vain to crush the National spirit. Mrs. Kirwan's grandson, John Moroney, filled the full-forward position on the Killorossanty senior football team that won the County championship in 1939. The sympathy of all sections in the area will go out to the bereaved relatives, both at home and across the ocean, in the loss they have sustained. A large and representative cortege accompanied the removal of the remains from the residence on Monday evening to St. Brigid's Parish Church, Killorossanty, where they were received by Father Mehan, who recited the prayers for the dead. Requiem Masses were celebrated next morning, and the burial took place afterwards in the presence of innumerable relatives, friends and sympathisers, and amid many manifestations of profound sorrow. Father Mehan officiated at the graveside, assisted by the Rev. J. Phelan, of the Diocese of Edinburgh. A number of beautiful wreaths were laid on the grave, and many Mass cards and messages of condolence were received.

MANSFIELD-HIGGINS: Worthy members of two well and popularly known mid-Waterford families were united in the sacred bonds of matrimony at the Parish Church, Newtown, on Wednesday morning of this week, the contracting parties being Mr. Patrick Mansfield, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Mansfield, Lower Newtown, and Miss Margaret Higgins, daughter of Mrs. B. Higgins and the late Mr. John Higgins, Craigue, Kilmathomas. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass, was performed by the Rev. J. Hally, C.C., Kilmathomas. The bride, who looked charming, was attended by her sister, Miss Joan Higgins, as bridesmaid, and Mr. James Mansfield (brother of the groom) acted as best man. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, where upwards of fifty guests were hospitably entertained. A few hours were whiled pleasantly away with music, song and dance. The happy couple were the recipients of a big array of costly and useful presents, and their legions of friends join in sincerely wishing Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield length of years in full enjoyment of the graces and blessings of conjugal bliss.

PRIZE-WINNING VOCALIST. Congratulations are extended to Master John Battye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Battye, Currahaha, on his having won the singing competition conducted at the Temperance Hall, Kilmathomas, on Sunday night last (under the auspices of a popularly established travelling company of Irish players). A handsome monetary prize was on offer for the test, which attracted a fine entry, and it was announced beforehand that the winner would be the competitor whose performance gained the greatest volume of applause from the audience. A capacity house applauded Master Battye's effort to the echo.

BY THE WAY. All growing crops greatly benefited by —Peace to the gentle soul departed. Irish-American newspapers will please copy).

SYMPATHY. A great wave of sympathy goes out to estimable Mrs. M. Downey, Millbrook Terrace, Kilmathomas, in her sad bereavement occasioned by the death of her nephew, Mr. James Cuddihy, which happened in a Dublin hospital on Sunday, following a protracted illness and at the all-too-early age of 23 years. Possessed of many fine qualities of head and heart, deceased was for some years past a valued member of the staff of Mr. Pat Kiersey's bakery establishment at Kilmathomas. Beloved of all who knew him, his remains were laid to rest in Ballyduff Lower Churchyard on Tuesday, in the presence of an immense host of mourners and sympathisers. Very Rev. M. F. Hearne, P.P., Ballyduff and Portlawn, pronounced the final absolution at the graveside.—Ar deis De go raibh a h-anam.

EASTERN DIVISIONAL JUNIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP. The best game ever seen in the above competition was staged at the Gaelic Field, Waterford, on Sunday last, when Dunhill defeated Newtown (Divisional Champions, 1940) by 2-1 to 0-3. Paddy Gough and Casey brothers were outstanding for the winners, while Larry Vesle, Ned Nugent and the Bluet and Mansfield brothers were always well in the picture for Newtown.

TO-MORROW'S ASHEN-BLADE BOUT. Portlawn will bring a big following to Fraher Field, on to-morrow (Sunday) where they will oppose the Old Borough's own senior hurling strip in their tie in the current year's County Championship. A topping tussle is assured.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS. The attention of our farming friends is respectfully directed to an advertisement elsewhere on this copy—namely tractor services provided by exceedingly well-liked neighbour Noel Gleeson, Stradally.

INCIDENTALLY. The veteran hurler, Paddy Walsh and his eldest son were on the Killorossanty-Pike junior representation which succumbed to Dungarvan's second string at Fraher Field on Sunday last. This fray frothed the exciting junior football encounter between Stradally and Killobinnet, and details of both bouts are given in another column.

STRIKING FUNERAL TRIBUTES. We regret to announce the death of one of West Waterford's best-known residents, in the person of Mr. Thomas Walsh, Ballybrusa, Grango. A large and practical farmer, deceased was a general favourite, known for his many estimable qualities, and his demise has occasioned widespread regret. He was brother of Very Rev. Canon Walsh, P.P., Tramore, and to him and the other members of his family deepest sympathy is extended. The funeral to Grand Parish Church was of huge proportions and included large numbers of the general public and representatives of all sections of the community.

At the Solemn Requiem High Mass for the eternal repose of his soul, Very Rev. Father M. Byrne, P.P., Ardmore, presided. Rev. Father C. Lawn, C.C., Little Sisters of the Poor, Waterford, was celebrant; Rev. Father Casey, C.C., Fourmilewater, was deacon, and Rev. Father J. Flynn, C.C., Ardmore, was sub-deacon. In the choir were Very Rev. Fr. N. Dunphy, P.P., Abbeyside; Very Rev. Fr. J. Gleeson, P.P., Aghlish; Very Rev. Fr. P. Murphy, P.P., Clashmore; Very Rev. E. English, P.P., Stradally; Very Rev. Fr. NATIONAL SECURITY. National Security: Local Security: Words which are on every lip in these troubled times. All security is based on Family Security and since Baby is the most important member of any family it is of vital importance that Baby receives primary consideration. Knowing that the first and most dangerous years of Baby's life are spent in a baby carriage, we decided that if we could guarantee security here we would have progressed a long way towards success. Regardless of the labour and expense involved, we have made it our first aim that our manufactures must use only the very best materials obtainable and produce a finished article upon which only the very highest skilled labour has been used. All mothers naturally worry about their babies but we can safely assure them, that in any one of our Carriages, Baby will be safe, happy and comfortable. Sleeping peacefully, inside or outside in sunshine or in rain, with absolute security. Surely, a heavy load lifted from mother's shoulders. Please call at any time, when, without obligation, we shall be very pleased to show you our extensive range of Baby Carriages, Pramettes, etc. We assure you a visit will repay you.—HARPUR BROTHERS, WATERFORD.

A LOVER'S LAMENT.

She has passed through those gates many a fine summer's morn.

Yet how little she thought on those fine summer mornings.

As she passed o'er Inch Ray 'neath the cliffs' cooling shade.

That the angel of death above her was hovering.

Oh times after school as we romped home together.

With the sun shining down on her bright golden hair.

And I with a heart just as light as a feather into her fond loving eyes I would stare.

In my dreams I look back on our last walk together.

As the tears from her eyes dawn her cheeks they were streaming.

To my heart I then clasped her both fondly and true.

There in grief we both thought of our last and sad parting:

MICHAEL O'BRIEN, The Manchester Martyr.

Michael O'Brien was born near Ladysbridge, where a memorial was unveiled in 1937 by Mr. Tom Barry.

Patrick Morrissey, killed in action 3-4-20; William Hoare, killed in action 8-4-21; William Cox, killed in action 25-10-22; have their names inscribed on the monument.

Michael O'Brien was apprenticed to a draper in Youghal and earned during the period of his apprenticeship the respect and esteem of all who knew him.

He walked to his death and his execution with a calmness and courage that have become a legend.

Here is a copy of Michael O'Brien's last letter to his brother in Ladysbridge whose family is residing there—

My dear brother, I have been intending to write to you for some time but having seen a letter from Mr. Moore addressed to the governor of this prison and knowing from that that you must be in a disagreeable state of suspense, I may therefore let you know how I am at once.

With reference to the trial and all connected with it, it was unfair from beginning to end, and I should die in consequence of the injuries my murderers more than it will injure me.

She always is with me, ere I am mistaken. To guard and protect me while on this bleak shore.

In that vale I shall meet her to leave her no more. D. SEXTON.

APPLICATION FOR INCREASE.
Mr. Hassett, B.S., wrote applying for increased remuneration for the position of Acting B.S. The application stated that the time of his appointment the work entailed was only part-time, but for some months past the cleaning of mains, testing and inspection of services has increased the work so much that it is now a whole time job.

DUMP AT SPRING.
Mr. J. O'Mahony, Spring, wrote complaining about the dumping of dead dogs, donkeys, etc. in the above. He requested the Council to sell him this place and he will have it cleared up and prevent it being used as at present.

PARISH COUNCIL MEETING.
A meeting of the Kilwatermoy Parish Council was held on Sunday after Mass, Mr. D. Cuddy, Hon. Sec. attended, and the following members were present:—J. Acres, B. Murray, J. O'Neill, W. O'Sullivan, E. O'Connell, P. Russell, M. Ahern, M. Murray (Jr.), C. Donovan. ST. CARTHAGE'S V. MOOREHILL.
On Sunday evening, St. Carthage's met Moorehill in the semi-final of the West Waterford minor hurling championship, at Tourin, the former winning by a comfortable margin. Both teams were short of substitutes for five of their regular players who were off through injuries etc. Nevertheless the "subs" gave a good display. The game was a very tame affair in the first half. St. Carthage's dominance showed a great improvement, and a good display followed. St. Carthage's had a decided pull at centre-field. Duggan giving a very fine display. The weather was very inclement during the match, heavy rain falling at times, and this helped to turn the tide in favour of St. Carthage's who were able to control the greasy half better, and make use of every opportunity. Moorehill were worth a few more scores but the shooting of the forwards was very erratic. Duggan, Fives, Ahern, Ryan, Healy and Ford, were outstanding for St. Carthage's, while Moorehill were led by Murray, Ahern, Frennd, Fives, Kelly and Roche. The match was played in a good sporting manner, and Mr. T. Morrissey, Villierstown, was an efficient referee. St. Carthage's now meet Dungarvan in the Western final, and on Sunday's display, should make a bold bid for county honours.

TOURIN V. MOOREHILL.
On Sunday night, Tourin met Moorehill in a junior hurling friendly, at Moorehill, and a good game should result, when the teams met Tourin won by a comfortable margin, so on Sunday Moorehill will be all out to reverse the decision. The match will be played at 7 p.m. (S.T.) in all patrons, please come early.

The Department of Agriculture announces that the purchase, from growers, of barley or oats of this year's harvest will be restricted to licensed dealers. Grain purchased by such dealers can be disposed of only as directed by the Minister for Agriculture, and purchase and sale prices will be fixed. The Minister will consider the issue of grain purchase licenses only to such persons or firms as have adequate storage facilities and have duly completed a form of application which may be obtained from the Department of Agriculture, 33 St. Stephen's Green, Dublin. A separate application form must be lodged together with the prescribed licence fee in respect of each grain—barley or oats—in which it is proposed to deal.

WE CAN CLEARLY UNDERSTAND that the present season has not been one of profit for the average farmer. As we believe that the life of the country depends on the prosperity of the farmer, we intend to make a very strenuous effort to meet him half way. For that reason alone, we have decided to cut down our profits to the lowest possible margin. We still have huge stocks of everything a farmer requires and we hope to have early next week a very large consignment of Blue Jay Binder Twine which is American manufactured and which we consider the best Binder Twine in the world. As long as our present stocks hold we will offer this at the lowest price possible. Offering at a price considerably under to-day's value. No matter what you want inquire our price before purchasing.—HARPUR BROS., WATERFORD.

SEEDS FOR 1943.
The Minister for Agriculture reminds farmers who wish to produce supplies of root seeds for sowing in 1943 that this can most suitably be done by sowing seed of such roots, i.e., turnips, mangels, etc., during the present month. In the case of turnips and swedes, the best results will be obtained by thinning the plants and allowing them to seed during next Summer without transplanting. This method may also be adopted in the case of mangels, or the seedlings may be transplanted next Spring to the new site on which they are to be allowed to seed. Fuller particulars are contained in special Leaflet No. 15 "The Production of Root and Vegetable Seeds" a copy of which can be obtained free of charge from the Department of Agriculture, Dublin.

WATERFORD BOARD OF PUBLIC HEALTH

TRAMORE PUBLIC HEALTH COMMITTEE.
The above Committee reported that at their last meeting Mr. M. Malone, presiding, it was recommended that the Hydrant at the cove be put in order, that the strand pipe may be screwed down properly, and that following a number of requests for seats on the Doneraile Road, the Committee recommend that a few seats be purchased for the place.

The Board decided to refer the first matter to the engineer and it was decided to have three extra seats provided. DUNMORE PUBLIC HEALTH COMMITTEE.
The Secretary of the above reported that complaints had been made with regard to persons using the water supply for other than domestic purposes (watering gardens, washing motor cars etc.). As there is a threatened shortage of water, the Committee recommend that the Board of Health have notices printed warning householders against the use of the public water supply for other than for domestic purposes and respectfully request that the notices be printed immediately.

CASTLEQUARTER WELL.
Dr. P. J. O'Sullivan reported that the well at Castlequarter which is the only supply to the townland is liable to pollution and flooding, being very little above river level. He recommended an alternate supply or protection from pollution and flooding. The matter was referred to the Co. M.O.H. for observations.

WELL AT BAWNFOIN.
Dr. O'Sullivan reported that there is an inadequate supply of water in the Bawnfoin Upper district. Admission to well on the lands of Patrick Leonard (the only source of water) is refused, and he recommended sinking a well. The matter was referred to the Co. M.O.H. for observations.

BALLYOLIVANE WELL.
On the report of Dr. Foley, Ardmore, that the public well at Ballyolivane is exposed to cattle, the matter was referred to the engineer to get the well attended to. SCART WELL.
Mr. Ormonde reported that the above well was extensively used. It is situated in the middle of a field and open to pollution. In addition to protecting the well it would be necessary to improve approach, as it was very unsafe at present. The cost of work would be about £10. The Engineer was directed to have the work done.

KNOCKROE WELL.
Mr. Ormonde reported that above well was a very badly polluted pool. There were other wells in the neighbourhood, the cost would be about £8. The matter was referred to BALLYDUFF-KILMAGLEN PARISH COUNCIL.

A letter was read from the Secretary of the above stating that the Council were of the unanimous opinion that the Board should be asked to consider the obvious need at Ballyduff of a public pump. Firstly, because of the 190 children on the school roll who are obliged to go a quarter of a mile to the nearest well or depend on the kindness of the neighbouring houses for water, secondly because there is no public water supply in the village, and in winter time a quarter of a mile is rather a long distance to carry the amount of water required for domestic uses. There are close on a dozen houses in the area not counting the school. The matter was referred to the M.O.H. for report.

COTTAGES TO LET.
107 Killingsford to Thos. Hickey, Windgap; No. 8 cottage to Jas. Waters, Killyure; 252, Amberhill, to Thomas Larkin, Ballyduff, Kilmaglen.

PERMISSION GRANTED.
Mr. O'Loughlin, The Rectory, Cappoquin, was granted permission to tap the main and take 1/2 inch pipe for one tap and flush lavatory for the Parochial School House, Cook St., Cappoquin.

CARETAKER APPOINTED.
Mr. Dunne, B.E., reported that Patrick O'Donnell, caretaker, Hacketstown graveyard, is carrying out the duties satisfactorily and he recommended that O'Donnell's services be continued until the permanent caretaker returns. The Board appointed Mr. O'Donnell subject to sanction.

INCREASE REFUSED.
Mr. S. Kennedy, Grange, declining to accept the position of caretaker at the rate of £3 per annum asked for an increase. The increase was refused and the Co. Surveyor was directed to submit proposals for the caretaking of the graveyard.

ADJOURNED.
A letter from Mr. Jas. Flynn, Monstrea, asked for a postponement of the enforcement of the order served on him at a previous meeting. After some discussion the matter was adjourned.

FEES GRANTED.
The Minister for Local Government and Public Health, wrote, stating that he will raise no objection to the proposal of Commissioner Moynihan, to pay the sum of £100 to Mr. Doyle, B.E., for work carried out by him, in connection with the super-

LISMORE NOTES

The death occurred on Thursday the 3rd inst. of Mrs. Ellen Ross, South Mall, Lismore. The deceased was relict of the late Mr. George Ross, an ex-member of the R.I.C. A native of Co. Cork, she had long been resident in Lismore, where she and her family have always been held in the highest esteem. She was a lady of quiet and gentle disposition, and her amiable qualities endeared her to her lots of friends, who deeply regret her passing.

Keen sympathy is felt in all West Waterford gaelic circles for her popular son Jim, who is a well-known and active promoter of our national games. The funeral to St. Carthage's Church on Friday evening was of large and representative proportions, and at the interment on Saturday in the Council cemetery, a striking manifestation of her widespread popularity was shown by the large concourse that attended. Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

The chief mourners were:—Jim, George (U.S.A.), and John (U.S.A.), sons; May (daughter); Mrs. Shinnick (sister); Ed. Shinnick, A. Shinnick, P. Roche, and M. Roche (nephews); Mrs. Healy (aunt); Misses A. and M. Curtin, Mr. D. MacEoin, Misses E. and W. MacDonald, and Wm. Geary (cousins).

We congratulate St. Carthage's minor hurling team on the addition of further success to their long list of honours. By defeating Moorehill on Sunday evening last at the Tourin venue they advanced another step along the road to County Honours. Though Moorehill had far less experience than their opponents, they put up a sporting fight throughout the game, but St. Carthage's were superior in most departments, especially the forward line, and were easy winners.

The game was refereed by Mr. T. Morrissey, Villierstown. We heard a reliable report that a hurling and football club is shortly to be formed at Ballinvelia. No doubt it will be welcomed by all the young men of that district, many of whom are already distinguished athletes, and who provide first class material for hurling and football teams. Later on we hope to give readers fuller details of the project.

On Sunday afternoon last Lismore on their home ground, defeated Dungarvan in a senior hurling challenge match. The teams provided a brilliant display of hurling for a large crowd, and many trial players were fielded by both teams. In the first half, the opponents were evenly matched, and scores were level at half-time. In the second half, the Lismore forward-line proved superior, and the final whistle sounded with the home team several goals ahead.

DEPARTMENT CORRESPONDENCE.
The Minister for Local Government and Public Health, wrote, regarding the claim of the contractor for extra payment in connection with the Non-Municipal Towns Housing Scheme at Cappoquin, and to state that it will be possible to give a decision in this matter before the 15th inst. as requested. The claim for extras in this case is abnormal and one of the engineering inspector of the Department has been directed to investigate the matter locally.

With regard to the cottage 302 at Kilmarshey, the collector was directed to get possession and the cottage to be re-occupied.

The Grand Dance.—On Sunday night, after the big sports meeting, a most successful and enjoyable dance was held in the Boathouse Hall. There was a very large attendance, and all had very pleasant time dancing to the sparkling music of the ever popular Twilight Serenaders' Dance Band, who were at their best. All arrangements were perfect in the capable hands of Mr. M. J. Sargent, P.C., and the organising committee.

LOCAL ATHLETE RECOVERING. His numerous friends will be pleased to learn that Mr. J. J. Foley, the popular local athlete, is well on the road to recovery from the effects of his recent mishap at Charleville sports, when he received rather serious injuries, as announced in our columns last week. As a result of this regrettable accident he will, however, be unable to compete for some weeks to come, when we hope to see him resume his winning ways.

ILLNESS OF POPULAR YOUNG MAN. Mr. W. J. Sargent, popular son of Mr. M. J. Sargent, P.C., Cappoquin, is at present lying ill in a Cork hospital. His illness is not, however, of a very serious nature, and we hope to see him fit and well again in a few weeks. His indisposition means that he will be unable to take his part in roving or hurling for some time to come. He is one of the leading members of the Rowing Club, the G.A.A. team, and the N.A.C.A. team, and his temporary loss will be keenly felt. When he resumes fully recovered we hope to see him in even better form than before.

PRACTICE DANCES AT BOATHOUSE. The practice dances in the Boathouse Hall on Sunday and Thursday nights continue to be well patronised and are a source of welcome recreation to the dancing enthusiasts of the area. These dances will continue on each Thursday and Sunday night and will no doubt become increasingly popular amongst dancing fans.

DEATH OF MRS. K. KENNEDY. We regret to announce the death of Mrs. K. Kennedy, an old and most respected Cappoquin resident. Her death took place, at an advanced age, at her residence in Barrack Street, and deepest sympathy is extended to her sons and relatives in their bereavement. The remains were removed to the Parish Church, and the funeral took place to Droimore cemetery. On each occasion there was a large and representative attendance of the general public. The chief mourners were T. Kennedy, Cappoquin, and Garda J. Kennedy, Clonakilly (sons); T. Stapleton, Affane (nephew). Rev. Father T. Dunphy, C.C., Cappoquin, officiated.

COAST TO COMERAGH CHIPS.

Well and popularly known members of two old-established farming families of the Dees were married at St. Brigid's Parish Church, Kilsrossanty, under Wednesday morning's sun-washed skies, the contracting parties being Mr. John White, Ballysaggart, Dungarvan, and Miss Alice Fitzgerald, eldest daughter of Mrs. Fitzgerald and the late Mr. Edmond Fitzgerald, Knockyelan, Kilsrossanty. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass, was performed by Rev. W. Meahan, C.C., Kilsrossanty. The bride, who looked charming, was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Fitzgerald, as bridesmaid, and the best man was Mr. Patrick White (brother of the bridegroom). After the ceremony the wedding party motored to the home of the bride's mother, where a reception was held, upwards of fifty guests being sumptuously entertained. Following the highly enjoyable festivities, which continued for some hours, the happy couple left for Cork, where the honeymoon is being spent. The bride is sister of Messrs. Martin and Patrick Fitzgerald, who are prominent players on the Kilsrossanty senior football team. Mr. and Mrs. White received a big array of costly and serviceable presents, and also shoals of congratulatory telegrams, to mark the auspicious occasion. Both have the good wishes of their hosts of friends from the coast to the Comeraghs for their future happiness and prosperity in the matrimonial sphere.

A SAD DEMISE. Fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church, to which he was ever devotedly attached, Mr. James Weldon, grandson of the Gaelic Poet of the Comeraghs (Bob Weldon, of honoured memory) died in the hospital at Perlau on Friday night of last week, after an illness of some months and at the premature age of 36 years. Deceased was popular with everyone that knew him; his good wife predeceased him two years ago, and a young family is now left to mourn the loss of both. A big concourse of friends and sympathisers accompanied the removal of the remains on Saturday evening to St. Brigid's Parish Church, Kilsrossanty, where the funeral was met by Father Meahan, who said the prayers. Interment was made in the family burial ground adjoining after the 11 o'clock Mass on Sunday.

ARDMORE L.D.F. DANCE. There was a large attendance at the recent L.D.F. and L.S.F. dance at St. Declan's Hall, Ardmore, and all had a very pleasant and enjoyable time dancing to the strains of Mick Delahanty's Dance Band (Clonmel). All arrangements were perfect in the capable hands of G/L Prendergast (L.D.F.), G/L Lincoln (L.S.F.) and the members of the organising committee and the function was voted a great success by all present. We learn that another dance under the same popular auspices will be held at the same centre in the near future. Full particulars will appear in later issues.

IRISH RED CROSS NOTES.

Through the generous invitation of the L.D.F., the L.S.F. and Red Cross have now joined forces with the L.D.F. in running the Carnival which is due to commence in the Christian Brother's Grounds on Sunday next at 8 p.m. All three services which are essentially complementary to one another, and together present a National Emergency Service "of the people by the people, for the people," embark on this common undertaking in the confident knowledge that it will meet with the support it deserves. In supporting this Carnival the people of the town and district will be supporting their own interests and the interests of their country, and will be effectively demonstrating the fact that they are appreciative of the self-sacrificing work of the members of the services, many of whom for one reason or another cannot take an active part in the work of the services but all can very materially help on the work by supporting their fund-raising activities and encouraging others to support them, and it is in the people's interests and in the interests of their country to make the service as strong as possible. It is with confidence, therefore, that we embark on this common undertaking which offers a very pleasant channel to all to demonstrate their support of the services.

In connection with the actual running of the Carnival it has been decided to include the ever popular "twopenny dip stall" and as it is felt that many people may like to help by giving something in the way of a prize for this stall collectors will be round to all householders on Monday and Tuesday of next week. Most people have something for which they do not find a whole lot of use. The official collectors are:—Misses D. Lawn and M. Quigley—St. Mary St., The Square, Bridge Street; Misses A. Murphy and E. Curry—Main St., Quax; Abbeyview; Mrs. Church St., Friary St., Emmet Street; Mrs. M. Lacey and Miss M. Curran—O'Connell M., South Terrace, Emerald Terrace, Congress Villas, Mitchell Street; Miss J. Maher and A. N. O'Her—St. Thomas' Terrace, St. Brigid's Terrace, Western Terrace; Misses Mulcahy and O'Brien—Abbeyside.

On Wednesday last a meeting of all first aid workers in the district was held in the Technical School under the auspices of the County Air Raid Precaution Scheme. The meeting was addressed by Dr. M. O'Farrell, M.O. in charge of the scheme, who explained the position under the scheme and the necessity for the formation of the Red Cross First Aid Divisions, which regulations required should be composed entirely of men or women, either V.A.D. or F.A.D. The local divisional officers who are charged with the responsibility of the formation of their respective divisions, and had that morning received notice of their appointments from the C.O.D., Mr. E. O'Grady, Waterford.

FIRST AID NOTES. Before proceeding to deal with the all important subject of bleeding (or haemorrhage) it is necessary to sketch in an elementary way the mechanism by which the blood is sent throughout the body. Many people talk of their "circulation" without realising the precise meaning of the word—not that it makes any difference whether they do or not. But it is a fact that the blood does circulate, that it completes a circular movement through the body starting from the central pump, the heart, and returning to it again (this fact was not discovered until the year 1628 when the great William Harvey published the results of his experiments in his "De Motu Cordis"). From the heart the bright-red oxygen-bearing blood is carried by the arteries all over the body to nourish the various organs and tissues. It nourishes them by yielding up to them the oxygen it contains; it thereby loses its bright red colour and becomes dark purplish red.

Haemorrhage may occur from any point on this circular route of the blood, hence the bleeding may be (1) from an artery, arterial blood is bright red and may issue in spurts; (2) from a vein, venous blood is dark and flows in a steady stream; (3) from a capillary, capillary blood is redder than venous and may flow briskly or ooze from all parts of the wound. Bleeding may be external or internal.

External Bleeding.—The formation of a clot is nature's method of arresting haemorrhage, therefore, blood clots should not be disturbed. In the treatment of external bleeding there are two words that should be kept in mind, (1) pressure, and (2) position. All external bleeding can be controlled or stopped by pressure.

Pressure may be applied directly to the wound by pressure of the fingers or by the means of a pad applied over the wound and firmly bandaged. If this is ineffective it will be necessary to apply pressure indirectly by means of digital pressure on the appropriate pressure point or by the means of a tourniquet. A tourniquet is a device used to apply sufficient pressure to a limb to cause the circulation in that limb to cease. There are only two situations in which tourniquets should generally be used, (1) round the centre of the thigh to compress the main artery of the lower limb—the femoral artery, and (2) round the middle of the arm to compress the brachial artery—the main artery of the upper limb. A tourniquet should be used only when firm pressure by pad and bandage has failed and should never be used in slight or moderate bleeding. It is dangerous if applied for too long a period and a limit of say fifteen minutes is a suitable time, after which to test whether bleeding will recommence. If on losing bleeding persists reflex action, if bleeding has ceased leave the tourniquet loosely in position so that it can be reapplied if necessary.

Position.—Where possible the level of the bleeding part should be raised above the level of the heart. For instance in bleeding from the leg lay the patient on his back and raise the leg into the air resting the foot on some suitable support. Internal Haemorrhage.—This is an extremely serious condition in which the patient bleeds into the chest or abdominal cavity. It may result from a puncture wound injuring a blood vessel or organ such as the liver or spleen or kidney or lung or crushing injuries or violent kicks or blows. All the signs and symptoms of shock will almost certainly be present. Pallor will be marked and also very characteristic are the restlessness of the patient, the feeble pulse, the rapid breathing accompanied by sighing or yawning. Most helpful of all from the point of view of diagnosis is the fact that the pulse becomes progressively more rapid as the bleeding continues. Apart from the treatment of shock there is little that can be done as a first aid measure. The patient should be transported to hospital as quickly as possible.

HOME NURSING NOTES. GENERAL. As stated in last week's notes it is a nurse's duty to observe carefully and report accurately to the doctor every detail of the illness she is nursing. She should proffer no expression of opinion as to diagnosis or treatment, but she may discreetly anticipate the possible directions of the doctor by getting things in readiness for the remedies she expects he will prescribe.

L.D.F. NOTES

Monster Carnival.—During the past week the combined efforts of Dungarvan L.D.F., L.S.F. and Red Cross have been going full swing in the preparation of their Monster Carnival which opens on Sunday next, the 13th July, and judging from the enthusiasm displayed by the numerous voluntary workers who have come forward and given an energetic hand in the many details of organisation it can with safety be said that during the coming fortnight our town will be treated to a first class amusement show.

Hon. Secs.—That no effort is being spared by the Hon. Secs. (Messrs J. A. Cartwright, W. Cullinan and J. Bullfin) to surpass all other similar endeavours in past years is evidenced from the fact that so many special novelties are being provided for the entertainment of visitors. The Hon. Secs. are to be highly congratulated on their fine work, and we feel sure their initiative will be amply rewarded by a successful enterprise.

Committee In Charge.—The joint committee who are in charge are Messrs J. Mansfield, M.L. Shalloe and E. J. Keyes, representing the L.D.F.; Messrs D. Power, J. Tobin, J. Scott, and M.L. Walsh representing the L.S.F., and Miss C. Flynn, B.A., Dr. Cusack and Mr. L. Comerford B.A., representing the Dungarvan Branch Red Cross.

Military Band.—On Sunday next at 8 p.m. sharp, a Military Band will parade the town to the carnival field where the opening ceremony will be performed.

High Divers.—The Lindberg High Divers have been specially booked to give nightly exhibitions which should prove super attractions as in the numerous cities and towns through the land in which he has already performed. Hundreds of thousands have been thrilled by his wonderful display and we feel sure that Dungarvan will also appreciate such a superb performance.

Dancing.—Each night there will be dancing in the large marquee provided specially for the purpose at considerable expense so that all the dancing fans of the town and countryside will have an opportunity of indulging in their favourite pastime. Half-hourly sessions at 8.30, each will be held nightly from 8 p.m., except on Sunday and Thursday nights when prolonged dances to midnight will be held at popular prices, and to the music of popular local bands.

Childrens Fancy Dress Dance.—Arrangements are also well on hands to hold a childrens fancy dress dance in the marquee on Sunday, 27th July, when prizes will be distributed to the lucky winners. In this connection it is understood many competitors have already expressed their willingness to participate so that the arrangements are really by popular demand.

Madame Zoro.—Another keen attraction should prove to be that world famous palmist Madame Zoro, who has been engaged by popular demand also to tell of our future joys and pains. Special accommodation is being provided for this distinguished guest so that there will be no leakage of intimate secrets which she will unfold to her customers.

Red Cross Activities.—The local Red Cross Branch are also providing a feast of entertaining novelties which should prove a great attraction too, as the ladies committee lead by Miss C. Flynn, B.A., B.Com., Hon. Sec., will leave no stone unturned to give first class value.

Gate Prizes.—On each night of the Carnival there will be valuable gate prizes and holders of gate tickets should be careful not to throw away their tickets on entry to field, as the lucky number will be amongst them. On Sunday night the gate prize will be £5.

Cash Raffle.—The ever popular raffle will be run throughout the Carnival and such valuable prizes as £10, coat, tea, etc. will be distributed to the winners. Special items which are being very kindly contributed by local traders will also be drawn for.

Games etc.—Besides a regular galaxy of games, competitions, and drawings will be in evidence and McDonald's Calidonian Amusements will be special features of enjoyment for the thousands from far and near who will patronise the Carnival nightly throughout the duration. McDonald's Amusements are second to none so come along and enjoy yourself, at the same time helping a good cause.
