Death of Mr. J. Torpey, Glendalligan.

Fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church, to which he was ever devotedly attached, Mr. James Torpey, Glendalligan, Kilrossanty, passed peacefully and resignedly away into his eternal reward at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, at 2 o'clock on Friday evening of last week, after a comparatively short illness and in his 72nd year.

One of the outstanding personalities of these parts, deceased was at all times affectionate, sympathetic and charitable, not only to the members of his own family, but to all who had the good fortune of coming to him as a friend. For a considerable number of years prior to and up to his last illness he had charge of a large gang of County Council roadmenders. As overseer, he played a straight game with his staff and their loss is keenly felt. Possessed of a high conception of duty, he set the example and had the power to create enthusiasm in others. He was for a long period a valued and able member of the old Kilmacthomas Board of Guardians and Rural District Council. A man to be relied upon, he was a staunch nationalist and a life long sterling supporter of the games and pastimes of the Gael. In his heyday he captained a formidable Kilrossanty football team (of 21 players). This team, incidentally, qualified to face the famous Dungarvan Hopes in a County Championship final. The match was fixed for Lismore, but as the County Board of that particular year offered only £1 expenses to Kilrossanty, the latter refused to travel and, consequently, the Hopes received a walk-over.

The late Mr. Torpey did not at any period of his last illness lose his patient, lovable disposition, and he retained all his faculties to the close of his honour-crowned career. His demise leaves a void in the ranks of the community which it will be hard to fill. On the formation of the Local Security Force, some twelve months since, he was one of the earliest enrolled members of the Leamybrien Group. Widespread sympathy is extended to his daughter and the other immediate relatives in their sad bereavement and loss.

A cortege of imposing dimensions and representative of all classes and creeds accompanied the removal of the remains on Saturday evening to St. Brigid's Parish Church, Kilrossanty, where they were received by the Rev. W. Meehan, C.C., do., who recited the prayers for the dead.

Immediately after the 11 o'clock Mass in the Church on Sunday, the casket was carried by six of deceased's colleagues of the L.S.F. (Leamybrien Group) to the grave-site in the adjoining cemetery, the pall-bearers being:—Messrs. Thos. J. Power, P.C., Leamybrien; Patrick Veale, do. (Captain) Kilrossanty S.F. team, County Champions, 1939; William Morrissey, do.; Maurice Landers, do.; John Kieley, Ballingown, do.; John Power, Robertstown, do.; following other members of the Group formed a Guard of Honour en-route:—Messrs. John Droghda, P.C., Knockeigh; Patrick McGrath, Leamybrien (Capt., Kilrossanty S.F. team, County Champions, 1919); John Tobin, do.; Martin Curran, Robertstown; Thomas Rowe, Ballyloch; Percy Coffey, do.; Thomas Norris, Eaglishdown; Nicholas Power, Knockeigh; Michael Hurley, Kilrossanty; Edmund Gough, Ballykerogue; Michael Keane, Ballyvoile; William O'Brien, Ardmore; Dick Kieley, Ballingown; and Jeremiah Halpin, Durrrow.

Father Meehan conducted the burial service. A number of beautiful floral wreaths were laid on the grave. The chief mourners were:—Mrs. P. Kieley, Glendalligan (daughter); Messrs. Patrick Kieley, do., and Jas. Flavin, Killineen, Dungarvan (sons-in-law); Miss Katie Torpey, Carrigrohane (niece); Messrs. Seamus and Thomas Kieley, Glendalligan (grandsons); Miss Mary Bridget Kieley, do. (grand-daughter); and Mrs. J. Torpey, Garranturton (niece-in-law).

Amongst the vast concourse of friends and sympathisers present were the following named neighbours who played on the team captained by the deceased:—Messrs. William B. Power, Comeragh; John Connors, Furrageigh; William Drohan, Crough; Patrick Donovan, Comeragh; Michael Power, Glendalligan; William Navin, Ballinavouga; and Thomas Coffey, Cutteen. Numerous Mass cards received, included:—From Bridie, Paddy and family; Katie and brothers; Mrs. J. Torpey; Garranturton; M. C. McCarthy and family, St. Thomas' Terrace, Dungarvan; the O'Connell family, Dukespool; his friend, Mrs. R. Crotty and family, Leamybrien; the Duggan family, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan.

On Monday morning Solemn Requiem Office and High Mass were offered up in St. Brigid's Parish Church, for the happy repose of the soul of the late Mr. Torpey. Rev. W. Meehan, C.C., Kilrossanty, was celebrant of the Mass; deacon, Rev.

KERRY DRAW WITH LAOIGHIS JUNIORS

Kerry, 3-3; Laoighis, 4-6. Fast and clever football marked this game, played at Portlaoighe. Excitement ran high in the second half when Laoighis took the lead from Kerry, and in a neck and neck struggle kept ahead until close on full time.

Kerry had two points in the opening ten minutes per T. Lons and P. McCarthy, and then M. Dunne pointed for Laoighis. After Long had added a point and a goal for Kerry, Laoighis got up and M. Dolaney scored a goal, which was followed by a point by N. Rice for Laoighis. M. Lyons and J. Kennington each pointed for Kerry, and T. Haughey added a point for Laoighis. Kerry added a point (Long) and a goal (O'Donnell), leaving the half-time score:—Kerry, 2-6; Laoighis, 1-3. Laoighis had a point per P. Moran soon after the resumption, but a free in put Kerry attacking, and they forced a 50 which brought no score. Play alternated quickly, and Laoighis had three frees. Peacock scoring a goal for Kerry, and on their next point on the third, Laoighis scored a free without affecting the scores. Laoighis' play at this stage improved, and another free close in was awarded to the same side. Following the next attack Dunne had a goal for Kerry, and on their next point M. Lyons scored and later pointed. Taking a free in for Laoighis, M. Rice tried for a goal but the kick was stopped and the backs cleared. Kerry got away, but the Laoighis' defenders cleared, and when M. Dunne sent a long, high shot to the Kerry goal front, N. Rice punched into the net. Laoighis had a point and a goal per Peacock and Hughes and respectively, giving them the lead of 4-6 to Kerry's 3-3, which they held until O'Donnell made the equalising point for Kerry shortly before the final whistle.

KERRY AND GALWAY For All-Ireland Football Final.

Kerry, 2-9, Dublin, 0-3. Galway, 1-12; Cavan, 1-4.

For the second year in succession Kerry (holders) and Galway have qualified for the all-Ireland senior football final, which is fixed for September 7th, at Croke Park.

After leading by a goal at half-time (1-3 to 0-3) Kerry ran out easy winners against Dublin, 2-9 (13) to 0-3, in the replayed semi-final at Tralee on Sunday, while in the second semi-final at Croke Park, Galway, who had an interval lead of 3 points (1-4 to 1-1) finished 8 points ahead of Cavan, 1-12 to 1-4.

Allowing for fairly forward work in the first half, Galway were convincing in their defeat of Cavan. Showing sound judgement, they excelled in speed and fielding, leaving no doubt as to their superiority. It was a disappointing display by Cavan, who failed to live up to their promise of last year against Kerry. Weaknesses were revealed in the Cavan defence, and a bout of unnecessary hand-passing in front of the sticks in the early stages cost the Ulster champions dearly.

Changes were made in the second half, and this did not improve matters, and to add to the chagrin of the Cavan followers, the wind which had favoured Galway in the opening moiety, died away.

To state this, however, need not be taken as reflecting on Galway, who were in all respects deserving winners.

The Irish Transport Workers' Band led the tune on to the field, and played the National Anthem at the start.

Kerry were masters at every stage in their big victory over Dublin at Tralee, and the margin in their favour (2-9 to 0-3) does not unduly flatter them.

The positional changes made by Kerry from the side which drew at Dublin were highly successful, for Mort Kelly was a great full-forward, his strength and well-directed shots giving the Dublin defence a lot of trouble.

LOVE OF IRELAND. Denis Lacey.

BEAL-NA-BLATH, August 22nd, 1922. Oh! weep for the noble and fearless, The valiant and mighty laid low, So gentle and kind to their kindred, So dauntless and fierce to the foe, Mavourne, the Idol of Ireland, The hope and the hero of all, Who raised Erin's banner of freedom, Beneath it to conquer or fall. Collins, the bold and the fearless, True soldier of Ireland was he, And his life was an epic of effort That the land of his love might be free.

When Ireland required all her bravest He eagerly rushed to the fight, To the side of great Pearse and of Plunkett, 'Neath Eire's green banner of Right, What pity he lived not to share in, The victory his genius had won— 'Twas he bore the brunt of the battle And toiled through the night and the day.

Though great were the dangers around him Still onward he strove through them all, For he'd rather the grave of a free-man Than to live 'neath the Sassenach thrall.

Collins, the true and the faithful, The big-hearted generous friend, The patriot, soldier and statesman, The rebel—and this was the end.

At length when the struggle was over, When Ireland once saw the light, When the power of the Saxon was broken, 'Twas Collins had won the great fight. He had fought where the danger was greatest, In battle no foe did he fear; The butchering Tans he had scattered, O'er the hillside and plains far and near.

Oh! shame that he lived not to share in, The victory his genius had won, By the marvelous feat he accomplished And the wonderful work he had done.

Collins, the true and the faithful, The gallant, the bold and the free, The patriot, soldier and statesman, The rebel who set Ireland free, Collins, though traitors deride you, Though base men have caused your sad end, Deep down in our hearts do we pride you.

Our chivalrous leader and friend, Our hero, we'll always acclaim you, Your memory will 'er with us dwell, Your name will be honoured by free-men Who will hallow the spot where you fell.

EDMOND POLEY, Knockmonlea, Youghal, Co. Cork.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

Present: Messrs. M. D. Broderick, chairman; R. Power, T. Bouasng; R. Savage, P.C.; J. R. Smyth, P.C.; E. P. Lynch, P.C.; J. O'Gorman, P.C. Mr. W. Dunne, Harbour Master, was also in attendance.

VOTE OF THANKS. The Harbour Master's report was read and approved. On the proposition of Mr. Lynch seconded by Mr. Smyth a cordial vote of thanks was passed to Major Wyse for facilitating the Harbour Master by giving him the necessary gear to carry out repairs.

RECENT MEAT CASE. A letter was read from Mr. W. R. Hodnett, solicitor, regarding the recent Court case against Mr. O'Donoghue. The Justice dismissed the case for the reason, it would appear, that the meat hadn't always been inspected in the slaughterhouse, and another reason given was that the Council didn't fix the hours of inspection.

ALLOTMENTS. A report from the Department's Inspector, on his inspection of the allotments was read, stating that there were a number of admirable crops, the potatoes being very promising. He suggested that the money (£24) so kindly presented by Canon Dinneen for prizes amongst the plot-holders should be more widely distributed.

MR. CAHIR HEALY, M.P. A letter was read from the Department of External Affairs re the arrest and detention of Mr. Cahir Healy, M.P.

TRAIN SERVICES. A letter was read from the G.S.R. regarding the train service, stating that the passengers from Cork to Tralee were nearly five times the number from Youghal.

ABATTOIR. A letter was read from Mr. P. J. Little, T.D., regarding the granting of a beef export licence for the Youghal abattoir, stating that the Minister, after having considered the matter personally, was unable to give sympathetic consideration to the proposal.

Very strong protests were made by the Chairman, Messrs. Lynch and Power on the tenacity of the Department to grant monopolies to certain firms, some of whom had never had any experience of handling fresh meat.

The Chairman said he had heard of one case where a big amount was lost owing to bad handling by one of those firms. There was absolutely no encouragement for private traders who had been in the business for many years.

The Clerk referred to the Macroom case. Why were they refusing licenses to private firms?

The Chairman—They can give no reason. The Clerk—They are making the rich richer and the poor poorer. SYMPATHY. On the proposition of Mr. O'Gorman, seconded by Mr. Lynch, and joined in by the Chairman and other members and the Clerk, a vote of sympathy was passed to Mrs. G. Simkins on the death of her husband.

BRAVE RESCUE. Mr. Lynch called the attention of the Council to a brave rescue from drowning of a boy by Wm. Lynch, aged 70, and he proposed that his action be brought under the attention of the proper quarter.

This was seconded by Mr. Savage, endorsed by the Chairman and other members, and passed.

SANITY BEGINS AT HOME. In these dark days it is sheer madness to overlook the mighty risk of infection while you sleep. Ordinary mattresses, often made from old materials which have been previously used, released, forwarded and called new, are a regular playground for germs. You endanger your health every time you turn in on one.

THE HOUSE FOR REAL GOOD VALUE. GENT'S READY-MADE SUITS. GENTS' OVERCOATS. Quality Waterproof. IRISH BLANKETS, SHIRTS, HOSIERY, etc. etc.

WILLIAM POWER Draper, Outfitter and Boot Merchant, Mary Street, Dungarvan.

"Dungarvan Observer" Harvest Time.

There is no gaining anything out of this year's harvest if it is not well stored. It is for the benefit of all concerned that it is now being urged that the stores be well stored.

The farmers made a great effort during the past year to produce a surplus of food and it is to be hoped that within the next few weeks no deficit of the week will be felt. The stores of food that the country has produced are a credit to the farmers and the Government.
