LABOUR SAVING DEVICES To-day the modern housewife is only too anxious to avail herself of the newest and most modern labour saving devices, particularly in the kitchen. It has always been our concern to satisfy, as far as possible, the housewife in her particular sphere. We quite recognise that our obligation does not cease with the supply of the article. We would like to emphasise the fact that we spare no trouble or expense in providing services which may assist in the satisfactory using of the articles which we sell. We would direct special attention to our range department, where you will find the newest and most up-to-date ranges manufactured to-day. We also direct your attention to the "Esse" cooker, which carries almost a perpetual guarantee.—Harpur Bros., 48, Quay, Waterford.

A Dumb Show. A proposal that the deaf and dumb in this country should be proided with a silent cinema has our vhole-hearted sympathy. We agree also that it might even be made a ommercial success, for no small section of the community are of the opinion that the old-time film, restful and attractive, in much preferable to those talkies in which the English language is "Americanised" and vitiated with Yankee slang. It is now no unusual thing for an English-speaking child to challenge the chastisement of its mother with irreverent retort. "Seys you", or to express its approval of father's sentiment with such words as "O.K., chief." However, our advocacy of a cinema for the deaf is with the object of giving those who cannot hear and who cannot speak the joy they are able to find in a moving picture of the right sort. It is one of the irones of life that the inventor of the talkie, himself a victim of deafness, lost his greatest source of happiness: when the silent film was superseded.

Mr. Mansfield—That's in connection with demolition?

Mr. Walsh, S.S.O., said Mr. Hassett and himself had gone around, and handed in a report of their findings.

Dr. Casey had written to the last meeting stating that he wants the area of rooms, etc., before he can complete his report.

Mr. Crotty said that letter is in connection with the clearance area.

Mr. Walsh—As regards the clearance area, when the Council took over that work, some owners went to clear the areas themselves but did not finish the work. Mr. Ballot finished his portion to the satisfaction of the inspector.

Mr. Mansfield said the Council should not make fish of one and flesh of another. They should finish the

St. Carthages objected to Dungarvan being awarded the match on the grounds that they played an illegal player (this was only one objection) and were awarded the match. This award was made at the Letters in connection with the Divisional Board meeting, but Dungarvan appealed to the Co. Board, at a meeting of which the decision of the Divisional Board was upheld. In upholding the decision of the Divisional Board, the chairman, Mr. M. V. O'Donoghue (who is also chairman of the St. Carthages Club) speaking as an individual, asked the St. Carthages representative to offer a replay to Dungarvan. The reply the representative made was that he would not like to do so without consulting the players. A few days afterwards a general between some of the players and some members of the committee, During this meeting two members resigned, namely M. Ryan and E. Lynch (sec.). In the meantime the resigned secretary. under instructions from the abdicated chairman, called a committee meeting at which there were only six out of nine or ten members present, the captain, Joe Duggan being absent because he was not told that the meeting was to be held, and Mr. D'Donoghue refused to admit a proxy for the captain. However the chairman proposed that St.

Mr. Walsh's report, which was an other form of conscription, and one exhaustive one, set out the condition in which he found all the houses. In only one instance was the condition described as bad, the majority being marked as "very good," "good," with roughly a dozen designated as "fair."

Unsightly and unsanitary sheds for animals—principally for stables—were reported in about a dozen cases also.

TOURIN v. RALLYTRUCKLE.—
The postponed replay takes place at Dungarvan on Sunday next. From what I learn from both camps the delay will not take anything from the keeness of the teams or their supporters. Tourin and their followers are all ready for the game. Nothing else is spoken of for the past week. Every available method of transport is being put into service. Ballytruckle are also all-set and I have heard quite a big number complain that they crannot see the senior football final in Waterford, as they are coming in strength to Dungarvan. I feel, outside of my own disappointment, that it was a mistake not to avoid a clash of fixtures.
One week later for the J.H. re-play would have saved this and would not have caused much inconvenience. Another thing is that the minor hurling county final could be fixed in with it in Dungarvan. Playing the minor county final by itself is only waste of time. When will the Board learn sense.

The case, reported in our last issue, brought under the above Act Issue, brought under the above Act by Matthew Organ, Abbeyside, against Dl. Jones, Perth, Glamorganshire, Wales, was again mentioned by Mr. Molloy, B.L., instructed by Mr. L. F. Lanigan, solr., at the Waterford Circuit Court, on Tuesday last. The claim was in respect of injuried alleged to have been received while the applicant was employed by Jones, who was in Dungarvan buying potatoes. At the Dungarvan Circuit Court, the Judge expressed doubt as to whether he had jurisdiction to cover a resident in Wales. This week Mr. Molloy quoted the 1746 Statute to show that "in any case where the Kingdom of England or that part of Great Britain known as England shall be mentioned in any Act, the same shall be deemed to apply to the Dominion of Wales and the town of Berwick-on-Tweed." The case was adjourned to the next Dungarvan Circuit Court.

KILMACTHOMAS NOTES

SYMPATHY- Widespread sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Barron, Faha Kilmacthomas in their sad bereavement occasioned by the death of their son, Thomas age 6 years, who was laid to rest in Faba Catholic Churchyard last week. OTHER RECENT DEATHS .-O'NEILL-Fortified by the rites of the Holy Mother Church, of which she was a most exemplory member, Mrs Catherine (Kate) O'Neill, widow Mahonbridge, Kilmacthomas, died at her residence on Thursday of last week. The deceased, who was in her 84th year, was a great favourite in the district. The rich and poor allike deplore her loss. In short, she shall be missed by everyone who valued a genuine, sincere, unselfish and kind-hearted friend. To her bereaved family deepest sym pathy is extended in their sorrow. The very large proportions of the cortege which accompanied the removal of the remains on Friday evening to St. Brigid's Parish Church Kilrossanty, was a striking tribute to the memory of deceased. Following the celebration of Requiem Mass on Saturday morning, the burial took place in the adjacent old cemetery. Very Rev. J. Crotty, P.P., Kilrossanty, officiated at the graveside. The chief mourners included, Messrs. Patrick, Nicholas and Edmond O'Neill (sons); Mrs. Michael Cowman (daughter); Mr. Joseph Blevins (grandson); Mr. Michael O'Neill (stepson); Mr. Pk. Gallaher, Kilmacthomas (nephew); etc. etc.-Peace to her soul.

WALSH.-Mr. Patrick Walsh answered the great call on Thursday of last week, after a protracted illness and while yet in his early thirties. A neighbour of straightforward and upright convictions, he was very highly respected by everyone that knew him. His gentle, amiable and kindly disposition, ever cheery and generous, won the respect and esteem of all. With his bereaved ones sympathy is universal.
