EMERGENCY POWERS (No. 124) ORDER, 1941.

NOTICE TO OCCUPIERS OF LAND.

The above-mentioned Order made by the Government provides, subject to certain exceptions, that every occupier of ten or more statute acres of arable land shall in 1942 cultivate an area equivalent to not less than one-fourth of such land.

For the purposes of the Order an occupier is defined as the person who is rated or is liable to be rated in respect of the land and his holding as defined as all the arable land in his occupation in the State. If the holding comprises more than one farm, the occupier may use his discretion as to the farm or farms on which he will cultivate the requisite area. In case the rated occupier of a holding is absent from the State, any person authorised by such occupier to make lettings of such holding on his behalf will, for the purposes of the Order, be deemed to be the occupier.

Production of the ordinary farm and garden tillage crops, i.e., cereals, potatoes, roots and other persons for fruit, vegetables, flax and tobacco, ranks as cultivation. Grass clover or rape, whether mown or grazed, do not, however, rank as cultivated crops for the purposes of the Order.

Where any part of a holding to which the Order applies has been sown in the year 1941 with wheat, oats, barley or rye, for harvesting in the year 1942, such part shall be deemed to have been sown in the year 1942.

The Order does not apply to any holding comprising less than ten statute acres of arable land or used for industrial purposes, accommodation, stud farms on which high-class thoroughbred horses are maintained, race courses tracks and stand enclosures, tracks for the training of racehorses by licensed trainers, show grounds, sports grounds and school and college playing fields.

Full particulars of the conditions on which exception may be granted are set out in the Order and also in the form of application for exception, which may be obtained from the Department of Agriculture (Tillage Branch). An occupier of ten or more statute acres of arable land, all or portion of which is used for the above-mentioned purposes, must, if he wishes to be relieved, wholly or partially, from the obligation imposed by the Order, lodge his application on the appropriate form with the Department not later than 1st December, 1941.

The Minister for Agriculture is empowered on or after 16th January, 1942, to take possession of a holding and cultivate it or arrange for its cultivation in case he is satisfied that the occupier has not taken reasonable steps towards complying with the Order.

Copies of the Order will be placed on sale without delay at the Government Publications Sale Office, 3/4 College Street, Dublin, or from any bookseller.

DUNGARVAN AND DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION.

REPORT FOR THE YEAR ENDED JULY 31st, 1941.

I HAVE great pleasure in submitting the 11th Annual Report, for the year ended 31st July, 1941. It is with much satisfaction that we report on another splendid year's activities, despite prevailing conditions.

The following figures give an idea of the excellent work accomplished during the year—

General Nursing Visits ... 3,018

Public Health Visits ... 2,288

Ante-Natal Visits ... 177

Patients Treated at Dispensary ... 2,871

Patients Treated at Nurse's House ... 1,225

Nurse MacMahon tendered her resignation in February, 1941. This was accepted with much regret, as Nurse MacMahon had proved herself to be most efficient and painstaking. The Committee presented her with a cheque and wished her success in her new position.

Miss Boarke took up duty in March, 1941, and is indeed a worthy successor to Miss MacMahon.

Miss Kavanagh visited the district in January and expressed satisfaction at Nurses' excellent work.

Several new members were elected on the Committee. The Annual Jumble Sale and Cinderella Dance, also a raffle of a Silver Kettle (kindly presented by Mrs. Usher), proved a wonderful success.

We take this opportunity to thank all who co-operated with the Association during the year, and especially to the people of the town and adjoining country, for their generosity when subscribing to the annual collection.

MOOREHILL

NEW TEACHER.

Friends throughout the district are very pleased to hear that Miss Tully, N.T. Tallon, former assistant teacher at the Moy School, Miss Tully, who has spent a number of years at Kilsrossary, on owing to the average, she left the Moy School. Now that she has considerably increased her experience, Miss Tully has been appointed to fill the vacant position of general favourite teacher at the Moy School, who

MOOREHILL NOTES

NEW TEACHER.—Her many friends throughout the parish will be very pleased to hear that Miss B. Tully, N.T., Tallow, has been appointed assistant teacher at Kilwatermoy School. Miss Tully is no stranger in this parish, for she spent a number of years at Kilwatermoy before, when owing to a big decrease in the average, she left to take up a vacancy at Glensm National School. Now that the average has considerably increased in Kilwatermoy, Miss Tully has been appointed to fill the vacant position, which she is very capable of doing. During her previous term here, she was a general favourite with young and old, who are now delighted to hear of her appointment. We join with them in wishing her every success in her new position.

FORTY-FIVE DRIVE.—On Sunday night next at Kilwatermoy School a sixty penny forty-five drive will be held. This is the first drive to be held in the school this winter, and we appeal to all classes to make it a great success. It is being held under the auspices of the Parochial Church Fund Committee, and as it is for such a charitable object, we hope to see all our old friends and legions of new ones present. Doors open at 7.30 p.m., usual cash prizes and a hearty cold milk fallie is extended to all.

CENSUS.—In Moorehill and over Eire the Census forms were filled in last Monday morning, and the present population of the Country will be announced in due course. Since the last census were taken it seems that the population has decreased, as large numbers of our young men and women have left our shores to seek employment in an alien country. The war is responsible for this, as numbers of factories and industries have closed down due to shortage of raw materials. It is a great pity these men and women have to go. Could not the Government try and provide some work for them? There was never so much unemployment as there is at present and if we are to stop our young people from leaving, some remedy must be found to provide work for them at home.

WRETHED WEATHER.—With the past couple of weeks the weather has taken a decided turn for the worse, and winter has set in. On Sunday a torrential rain fell and severe flooding was the result. The Bride overflowed its banks and the surrounding lands were covered with water.

THE POTATO CROP.—Reports from all the different districts in this area indicate a bumper potato crop. Digging out operations have been in progress with the past few weeks and full advantage was taken of the very favourable weather. The acreage devoted to the raising of the crop has been in keeping with the general village policy, and considerably this year, and that fact coupled with a very fine yield ensures a plentiful supply of one of the chief articles of our national diet.

THE RABBIT MARKET.—Judging by the large consignments of rabbits which are being dispatched daily from the various centres, since the season opened, the rabbit season at present is progressing, is proving to be a most profitable one for all concerned. The present price is certainly a record one, rabbits fetching 4/6 per pair, so young and old are on the rabbit. The rabbit is not so numerous this season due to the large numbers killed last year. With the past few years the rabbit has become a pest in most districts where he does considerable damage, but he is now proving to be a great money making proposition.

TOURNAMENT POSTPONED.—At a meeting of the Moorehill Hurling and Football Club held recently it was decided to postpone the medals replay, Tallow v. Tourin, and the final in which the winners meet Knocknasherry until after Christmas, owing to weather conditions at present prevailing, so all Garryduff followers should look forward to some great games at the Moorehill venue early in the New Year.

Late Mr. J. Mulcahy, Clasha, Co. Waterford

The death occurred at the Slieveannon Hotel, Clonmel, on last Sunday week, of Mr. James Mulcahy, farmer, a native of Glasha, Four-Mile-Water. Deceased who had been residing in the hotel for the past seven years, was a member of a most respected County Waterford family, and was uncle of Rev. John O'Connell, P.P., who is the original of the late G. K. Chesterton's famous character, 'Father Brown.'

The remains were removed to SS. Peter and Paul's Church on Monday evening week, and on Tuesday following Requiem Office and High Mass, the funeral took place to St. Patrick's Cemetery. Right Rev. Monsignor Dean Byrne, P.P., V.G., presided at the High Mass. The celebrant was Rev. Father Murphy, C.C., SS. Peter and Paul's; deacon, Rev. J. J. Power, C.C., Kilgobnet; sub-deacon, Rev. P. Power, St. Mary's; master of ceremonies, Rev. N. Power, C.C., SS. Peter and Paul's.

DUNGARVAN PARISH COUNCIL ANNUAL MEETING.

Very Rev. T. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F., presided at the annual general meeting of the Dungarvan Parish Council held on Monday night last in the Town Hall. The following members were also in attendance: Messrs. J. J. Croity, treas.; P. B. Sheridan, secy.; W. H. O'Brien, scilr.; C. Dempsey, J. Lynch, T. Lee, E. Butler, T. Waters, P. Lyons. Mr. C. J. Murphy, hon. secretary, was also in attendance.

FAVOURABLE YEAR.—The treasurer produced the balance sheet which showed a credit balance of £15 15s., which was considered most satisfactory by the members present.

The Chairman congratulated both the hon. secretary and the hon. treasurer on the completion of their first year in office and complimented them on the results achieved.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—On the proposition of Mr. C. Dempsey the out-going chairman, hon. secretary and hon. treasurer were re-elected a vote.

Mr. Sheridan proposed that seven members be elected to form a standing committee to run the Parish Council under Mullin na Tire rules.

The following sub-committee was then elected—Farmers, P. B. Sheridan, farm labourers, M. Power; trade unionists, Ed. Butler; unemployed, Thomas Lee; businessmen, C. T. Martin; professional men, T. C. Williams scilr.; plot-holders, P. Lyons.

The meeting made it clear that any other member who so wished could also attend any meeting, and each member of the standing committee had power to send a proxy.

It was decided that a meeting of the whole guild would be held whenever it was deemed necessary.

ORDINARY MEETING.

Following the conclusion of the annual general meeting the ordinary meeting was held.

PLOTS.—In reply to the chairman, Mr. Veale stated that he understood that most of last year's plot-holders would take plots again this year.

The Secretary stated he had received a number of offers of land for the Council plots and asked the meeting what steps he should take in the matter.

After some discussion it was decided to direct the Secretary to decide a decision to the end of the month when in the meantime the Council would have ascertained how many plots were required.

Mr. J. Ormonde, B.E., was appointed to measure the plots. It was also decided that the Council cross-plough the land, prepare for drilling and drill, and the plot-holders do the rest.

Mr. P. B. Sheridan proposed the early ploughing of Mr. Buiett's land as a means of destroying the wire worm which proved such a menace to the crop last year. 'Jack Frost and all galls will see to him if the land is ploughed-up early,' Mr. Sheridan added.

When the question of the advisability of lime was put to him, Mr. Sheridan replied he did not think lime would serve any good purpose on Mr. Buiett's land as the land was dry and rich. Lime would only be serviceable on wet, sour soil.

It was finally decided that all applications for plots should be in before the end of the month so as to give the Council an opportunity of securing sufficient land and doing early ploughing.

TIMBER.—The Chairman said he had received complaints regarding the price of timber, as people who could well afford to pay the Government controlled price of £2 per ton, were getting that Council's timber at the cost price, i.e., 30/- per ton. He added that if those who could afford to pay the controlled price did so it would swell the Council's funds and help them to provide timber free, may be, for the very needy poor during the coming cold months.

Mr. T. Lee said any ordinary worker cannot afford more than one cwt. at a time. It was finally decided that any householder getting over 2 cwt. of timber per week be charged the controlled Government price, i.e., at the rate of £2 per ton.

MONEY BEING BOUGHT.—The Secretary said his attention had been drawn to the fact that at present 1/- was being paid for nine pennies in town.

Mr. Lee said he did not bear that, but he knew cigarettes were being sold at a penny each, thus bringing 5d. for a packet worth 3d.

It was decided to let the proper authorities deal with this matter.

TALLOW NOTES

CINDERELLA DANCE. Under the auspices of the Tallow Republican Memorial Committee one of the most successful dances of the present season was held at the Cinema Hall, on last Thursday night week.

To a most delightful and varied programme of music rendered by the Erin Co. Brass Band, Fermoy, (eight instrumentalists), the exceptionally large company present thoroughly enjoyed every moment of the hours allocated to this delightful function. But for the inclemency of the weather the large company present would have been further augmented as quite a large number of intended patrons were prevented from attending. The committee are to be complimented on the success achieved in the circumstances, and it is earnestly hoped that a similar function will be arranged to take place early in the new year.

CONGRATULATIONS. Congratulations are again extended to Messrs. Terry Hancock and Sam Roberts, members of the local Defence Force, on having been presented with the District Shield, which they won at the recent shooting competition. The presentations took place at the Courthouse, Lismore, on last Sunday night during the progress of the District Staff Dance. Commandant Murphy, who made the presentation, complimented the winners highly on their marksmanship and paid a high tribute to the efficiency of the local group, and particularly to the group leader, P. Ronayne, through whose earnest efforts, in organisation and training, such a high standard was reached. Recommending that every effort should be made to wards further recruitment of the young men of the town and district, Commandant Murphy expressed the hope that the ranks would be increased a hundredfold before the end of the year. The recipients congratulated individually of all those present.

OBITUARY. By the death of Mr. Michael Willoughby, which sad event took place last week end at Lismore Hospital, the town has lost one of its oldest and best known residents, and to his immediate relatives the sincere sympathy of their many friends and neighbours is extended.

"Mike," as he was familiarly known was a member of a well known and highly respected family of professional plasterers, examples of whose workmanship is to be found in practically every town and district of the county as well as in the adjacent counties of Cork and Tipperary and many more distant places. In musical circles he was also a well known figure during the period of his early manhood and one of his greatest pleasures in after life was to recall outstanding incidents of this period and the memories of his former associates in this sphere. A life long nationalist, his convictions were deeply rooted, and remained so to the end. The attendance of the general public at the removal of the remains to the Parish Church and at the subsequent interment which took place in the adjoining cemetery was both large and representative. Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul was offered by Rev. Fr. Corbett, C.C. who assisted by Very Rev. Fr. Kehoe, P.P., officiated at the graveside. The chief mourners present were: Mrs. M. Willoughby (widow); and Mrs. Moore (sister)—R.I.P.

WIND STORM. Late on Sunday night a wind storm swept over the town and district, and in some places caused desperate uneasiness to occupants of the less robust buildings. In the early hours of Monday morning the storm assumed gale force and many residents feared much disaster. However, notwithstanding the prognostications very little serious damage was caused. Unlike that of the previous Sunday, no rain of any consequence fell during the progress of the storm, consequently no report of damage by flooding of the river Bride has been reported.

MARKET PRICES. At the local market the following prices ruled last week—best farmers' butter, salted, 1/- per lb. creamery do., 1/7 1/2 per lb.; eggs 2/8 per dozen; chickens, 1/4 per lb.; old fowl, 1/3 per lb.; rabbits, 4/- per pair; fat geese, 6/- each; onions, 4/- to 4/6 per stone; tomatoes, 1/2 per lb.

PAPER FROM WASTE REUBARR. It is generally agreed that there are between 2,000 and 3,000 tons of rubbish waste every year in the rubbish growing areas, available between November and February. Mr. Selwyn Wade, of Leeds, instigated experiments in using the fibre from this waste. Where the rubbish fibre has been strengthened by the use of 50 per cent. waste paper, a very useful product similar to cartridge paper is achieved.

THE MANCHESTER MARTYRS.

A Can'p' Saeb'at: "On the twenty-third day of November, 1867, a strange and terrible scene was witnessed in the city of Manchester. Darkness had not yet given place to dull winter's dawn when the sound of footsteps echoed through the dreary streets, and the voices of hurrying throngs rose on the frosty air. The pale clerk, the brawny navy, the withered crane and the stout of rickety on the streets, the living mass. With them came the legions of vice and ignorance, from the dark alleys, the reeking cellars and the field lanes. They came in all their repulsiveness, with the rags of wretchedness on their backs, and the cries of ribaldry on their lips. On, and on, they came, until they reached the suburb known as Salford. There they stood and riveted their eyes on the massive prison walls, against which they could dimly discern the outlines of a gibbet. They struggled and fought for a better view and filled the air with vile blasphemies and imprecations."

At last three pinioned, white-capped men were led out upon the platform. For a moment there was a tense silence, during which the solemn words of the "Litaney for the Dying" were heard. Then came a dull crash, the three were jerked and swayed, and three souls had floated from that crime-laden atmosphere to the Great White Throne of God.

"So perished in the bloom of manhood and the flower of strength three noble sons of the Gael, far from the land they loved, far from their kith and kin, with none but cruel foes beside them, and watched by the gleaming eyes of a brutal mob who thirsted to see them die. No prayer was breathed for their departing souls. The filthy jest and the blasphemous oath was mingled with their dying breath." Then, like the Roman mob from the blood-stained amphitheatres, the vermin crept away from that fatal spot, to those reeking cesspools where they shun the light of day. They left behind them the strangled bodies of William Philip Allen, Michael Larkin and Michael O'Brien. But, those present, they did not fail to honour or unwept. In every Catholic Church in the city the faithful knelt in earnest prayer for mercy, peace and pardon for their departed souls, while throughout Ireland, from the rocky coast of Antrim to the foam lashed headlands of Cork their story was told in tones of vengeance, hope and pride."

Pictures to yourselves the scene in that court of so-called justice when five men stood in the dock, charged with the unforgivable crime of Patriotism. In response to the usual question as to why sentence should not be passed upon them, each in turn addressed the court: Allen, Larkin, O'Brien, Maguire and Condon. The words of Edward O'Meara's Canon are dear to every Irish heart: "You will send us before God, and I am perfectly prepared to go. I have nothing to regret, to retract or to take back. I can only say 'God Save Ireland.' Loud rang the voices of his doomed companions as they cried in chorus, 'God Save Ireland.' Raising their manacled hands they gazed undauntedly upon the hostile crowd, and with fervent spirit repeated the cry, 'God Save Ireland.'"

Maguire and Condon were subsequently reprieved by Allen, Larkin and O'Brien were killed to save the blood-oust of the unrelenting foe. Seventy-four years have passed away since the unholly ground of Salford jail received their calined corpses, but their names are shrining in the hearts of the Mother for whom they died, and the "Manchester Martyrs Commemoration Concert" is an annual event of every national organisation worthy of the name. A Can'p' Saeb'at, let us recall on Sunday next that sacrifice offered for Ireland by those three young Irish exiles and let us couple with our prayers their beautiful prayer for their native land: "God Save Ireland," and let us repeat in our hearts their noble sentiments:—"Whether on the scaffold, high or in the battle field we die. Oh! what matter when for Erin dear we fall. Let us not forget during this month of the dead to say this lovely simple prayer:—"God rest the Dead of Ireland, Who sleep in Irish clay. God rest the Dead of Ireland, Whose graves are far away. God rest the noble martyred Three, Whose names like a beacon shine. To lead us on 'till the goal is won, Allen, Larkin, and O'Brien." THE LABEL WITH 70 YEARS' REPUTATION BEHIND IT!

MR. DE VALERA ON EIRE'S DANGER Defence Forces Need Every Young Man.

"We have no time to lose in completing our organisation. Those who are taking this war as if it held for a war in the Far East are living in a fool's paradise. And remember this, the war will not have even begun to reach its time of real intensity until the coming spring or summer."

Mr. de Valera said that when he addressed a large body of members of the defence units. Mr. de Valera said that he had had no compulsory military service here, ought to cause every young man to take it as a point of honour to join up. "It is utterly selfish and cowardly to leave to others the burdens and risks which we should share," he said.

Mr. J. Dillon, T.D., said that that gathering was a declaration before the world that a united Irish people would resist aggression against this country whenever ever it might come, and that a united Irish people would support the legitimate Government of this country in any hour of crisis that lay ahead.

Mr. de Valera stood for half an hour at the saluting base in Eyre Square, Galway, on Sunday last, watching members of the regular army, L.D.F., L.S.F., fire-fighting squads, demolition squads, A.R.P. workers, Red Cross and Knights of Malta, ambulance divisions, etc. march past. Later in the afternoon, Mr. de Valera, Mr. James Dillon, T.D., and Mr. M. Hayes, T.D., Limerick, addressed the forces at Galway sportsground. The Mayor of Galway, Ald. J. F. Costello, presided.

The Taoiseach, speaking in Irish, said that when the call went forth about a year ago, up to 100,000 men joined the forces, but they were not satisfied that all the young men had joined up. There was need for every man in these days. They had to watch the sky, the land and the sea, and the work was such that the assistance of thousands was necessary.

"The fact that we have not compulsory military service here ought to cause every young man to take it as a point of honour to join up, and that without delay," said Mr. de Valera. "It is utterly selfish and cowardly to leave to others the burdens and risks which we should share. I am convinced that if an attack was actually made on us we would at the moment have thousands coming in to offer their services. But it would then be too late. The man untrained would live little value. Not knowing how to use arms properly or to take his place in any organisation, he might even be more of an encumbrance and a hindrance than a help. Those who are going to join must join now. As well as armed forces, it is essential that in the cities and towns the fire watching and A.R.P. services should also be fully manned and thoroughly organised, whilst the medical and first aid services, the Red Cross, etc., must be staffed and organised throughout the entire country."

"REAL INTENSITY NEXT YEAR." "We have no time to lose in completing our organisation. Those who are taking this war as if it held for no more immediate danger than a war in the Far East are living in a fool's paradise. And remember this, the war will not have even begun to reach its time of real intensity until the coming spring or summer."

"Apart from the steps necessary to meet a military attack," said Mr. de Valera, "I have warned our people many times how dangerous it would be to rely for primary essentials such as food and fuel on supplies from overseas. It would be obvious to everybody that the danger in this regard will not grow less as time goes on. This year the bounteous harvest which Providence has given us has saved us from anxiety as regards food, unless there should be criminal selfishness somewhere and food that is necessary for human beings be fed to the animals."

The Taoiseach also spoke of the need for increasing last year's acreage under wheat by one-third, and the cutting of more turf. This winter, he said, owing to the transport difficulties, the people of Dublin were grievously short of fuel. Failure to look ahead and to take steps in time in regard to production might mean disaster. In conclusion, he said: "Your work for the nation will continue to bear fruit long after this emergency has passed. In everything we do we must seek not merely to safeguard ourselves in the present crisis but so to turn it to account that we shall emerge from it a better disciplined, more united, more self-reliant people, and socially a better organised and more highly developed community than before."

MR. DILLON'S ADDRESS. Mr. Dillon said he shared the Taoiseach's apprehension about the danger of this country becoming involved in the war and, therefore, it was vital that every man and woman in the country should prepare to do their part for the defence of their people and their country.

This gathering of the armed forces, said Mr. Dillon, was not only an inspiration to those who saw it and to those who constituted it, but it was a declaration before the nations of the world that a united Irish people would resist aggression against this country whenever ever it might come, and that a united Irish people would support the legitimate Government of this country in any hour of crisis that lay ahead.

"Let no outsider imagine," continued Mr. Dillon, "that a libellous attack upon the personnel of the Government will persuade our people that someone outside Ireland is better able to choose a Government than the Irish people. For long people outside Ireland thought they could. We put them out, and anyone who wants to try the same thing will put out in the heel of the hunt, no matter how long we have to try."

"We know our weakness but we know our strength as well. We know that we may not have the resources and equipment and the artillery of some great armies in the world today, but we know, as the world knows, that 700 years was not too long to fight the battle of Irish freedom, and we have yet to meet an opponent who is prepared to fight as long."

Mr. M. Hayes, T.D., Limerick, also referred to the magnitude of the danger that faced the country.

WITH THE LIMITED QUANTITY OF COAL AVAILABLE THIS WINTER. We must ascertain what is the most economical form of cooking. When we examine carefully all the newest types of ranges we will find that there are obvious faults in most of the new ranges. One would have to put almost a week's supply of turf to light the fire, as the fireplaces are so large. If one would carefully examine the "Victor" range you will find that the fireplace is the ordinary size, and it is designed to burn coal, turf or timber, either individually or mixed together, and in addition to that can be converted into an open fire which gives a cheery warmth to the room. If you installed a "Victor" range, manufactured by the famous firm, Philip Pierce and Co., Wexford, you will have made a very wise choice, as you will make your fuel go twice as far, and that is a consideration, as we believe coal will be almost impossible to procure during the coming winter, and you may rest assured that we would not give our now famous guarantee unless we were convinced that this is the most economical range on the market, and you will never regret installing one of these famous ranges. Place the order with their agents in the district and you will never regret it. Sole agents: Harpur Brothers, Waterford.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

LATE MR. J. DOOCEY, CLASHMORE.—We regret to announce the death of Mr. Jeremiah Doocoy, senr., Kilgubrick, Clashmore. A member of a well-known family, deceased was a general favourite, and his demise, at a comparatively early age, has occasioned much regret amongst his numerous friends, while widespread sympathy is extended to his bereaved relatives. The late Mr. Doocoy spent a large number of years in the Royal Marines and saw active service right through the last great war. On returning home, he devoted his time to farming. At the removal of the remains to Clashmore Parish Church, and at the subsequent interment in the adjoining cemetery there was a large and representative attendance of the general public. The chief mourners included Eugene Doocoy (brother); Mrs. E. Conway and Mrs. M. Costin (sisters); Rita Conway, Maureen and Rita Doocoy (niece); Jeremiah and Patricia Doocoy (nephews); Mrs. E. Doocoy (sister-in-law); P. Costin (brother-in-law); E. Flavin, E. Corbett (cousins); Rev. P. Murphy, P.P., Clashmore, and Rev. M. Power, C.C., do, officiated. R.I.P.

ARDMORE DANCE.—All roads lead to that popular centre, Ardmore, on Sunday night next, 22nd inst., where a grand all-night dance will be held, commencing at 10 p.m. The music will be supplied by Miss Sheila Moloney and her popular dance band, while all arrangements will be as usual. It is perfect in the capable hands of Messrs. J. Conroy and J. Treacy, and Mr. Moloney, etc., and a great night's enjoyment is assured to all. (See advertisement in this issue.)

ON THE LAND.—With threshing operations completed, farmers are at present busily engaged clearing the land of root crops in preparation for tillage operations for the coming year. A big increase in the area under tillage is expected in all districts. This is most important in view of the fact that production is vitally important in the national interest.

DANCE AT HOTEL MONATREE.—The forthcoming grand all-night dance at Hotel Monatree promises to be one of the leading social events of the season and is already being looked forward to by big numbers of dancing patrons throughout West Waterford and East Cork. Clancy, and Senator J. Butler. A paysheet for £21 14s. 3d. was presented and passed. DEMOLITION AND CLEARANCE. Mr. Bowen, B.S., reported on above as follows: "As desired, I have inspected the sites of houses which were ordered by you to be cleared. Some of the sites have been satisfactorily cleared by the owners; some have been cleared by the Council, and now are still not satisfactorily cleared. The following are not sufficiently cleared: New Chapel Street site, owner Mr. J. McGrath; Buttery Street site, owner Mr. Casey; Yougal Road site, owner Mr. Keohan. In this case the pair of houses have been converted into a one house. I think this might be allowed in all circumstances. Castle Street site, owner Dr. Casey. In this case the outer wall has been left standing and the ops built up, except one large doorway. This opening should be closed or otherwise secured. The outer wall should be removed. St. Bridget Street site, owner Mr. Cartwright. In this case the house consisted of small rooms and owing to its peculiar situation could not be removed without opening up another dwelling under the same roof. I understand that the adjoining house has been condemned, and the room dwelling to stand until the adjoining house is removed. Thompson's Lane site, owner Mr. Curran. In this case the outer wall was not removed; owner promised to remove it at once. I propose to commence work on Monday morning to complete the clearance of all these sites and to work at it continually until completed."

After some discussion, an order was made marking the report noted, and also that owners of sites not satisfactorily cleared to be notified before the work starts.

ERECTION OF SHED. Messrs. A. Moloney & Sons wrote: "We understand it is necessary to get your approval now for any new buildings which we may erect along-side public roads. We attach plan of a small shed which we intend erecting in our colliery at Roderick's Quay. This is necessary for shelter for our men working there during the winter months, and also for the storage of some turf. The plan is to be submitted to the B.S. on Monday next."

FOUNDAE SANCTIONED. The Minister for Local Government and Public Health wrote sanctioning the payment of poundage to the rate collector in respect of the lodgment of the full amount of the first motley and arrears.

HOLIDAYS. Mr. Bowen, B.S., wrote in reply to the Council's letter of the 12th inst., stating: "The Conditions of Employment Act of 1936 govern the holidays to be taken by public employees, including the Council's employees. The holidays provided are as follows: Christmas Day, New Year's Day, St. Stephen's Day, St. Patrick's Day, Easter Monday, Whit Monday, and the first Monday in August. Any employer is bound to give his employees the latter three days any of the following church holidays: Ascension Thursday, Corpus Christi Day, Corpus Christi Monday, the Feast of Corpus Christi for Whit Monday, and the 15th August for the first Monday in August. All other holidays are not observed as public holidays and generally are regarded as days of no work. If urgent work must be done, men are paid as on ordinary days. This is the full legal liability of the Council."

The matter was deferred, and the Clerk directed to go into the matter. DEELISH WATER SUPPLY. Mr. Denis Dee, caretaker, reported that the temporary dam is being washed away owing to floods. The matter was referred to the B.S. TREE PLANTING. Mr. Bowen, B.S., wrote stating that in connection with tree planting at Queen's Lough, it is absolutely essential to erect a new paling or other fence along the road to prevent trespass.

It was decided to have notices displayed warning trespassers. Arising out of this matter, it was also decided to ask the B.S. to submit an estimate of the cost of erecting a wall opposite the Shandon Dairy premises.

USE OF LIBRARY ROOM. Mr. Scott, on behalf of the newly formed Dramatic Society, was granted the use of the library room on Tuesdays and Fridays.

WATER SAMPLES. Dr. O'Farrell, County M.O.H., wrote stating he had samples of the town water bacteriologically examined and the results show that neither the Kildangan nor the Deelish filters are working properly. He recommended that both filters be again cleaned. This was referred to the B.S.

REPORTS. Dr. O'Farrell, County M.O.H., also wrote asking to be supplied with copies of reports made by the M.O. and S.S.O. during the past six months and if the Council will in future arrange that all such reports will pass through his office to the Council. An order was made that the doctor's request be complied with.

REQUEST FOR LIGHT. Mrs. P. A. Croke, Stella Maris, wrote: "The tenders for public lighting for the present year were being considered by the Urban Council last March, I applied to have the lights restored to my gate. I understand from the members and from the Press reports at the time that the Council had granted the application. Since the lighting was resumed in the town last month I have been expecting to see the light restored to my gate. It has not yet been put on there, but it has not up to the present. On inquiry from the E.S.B. officials as to the reason, I was informed that they were awaiting the order of the Council. I would be grateful if the necessary direction was given." It was decided to notify Mr. Coleman, of the E.S.B. LIGHTING. The E.S.B. wrote: "We have been advised by the Board's district engineer that it is proposed by your Council to discontinue public lighting at 10.30 p.m. each night and to avail of the hour's free lighting from 10.30 to 11.30 p.m. In the event of this proposal being approved by your Council, the Board will grant an allowance of £13 18s. 4d. in respect of period for the foregoing as soon as possible, to permit of the necessary arrangements being made whereby the lighting will be continued until 11.30 p.m."

The proposal was approved. DAMAGE TO COUNCIL PROPERTY. Mr. A. R. Farrell, Adjutant, Dungarvan No. 1 Group, L.D.F., wrote: "I have been instructed by Group Leader James Fraher to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. He has instructed me to express his regret that damage was caused by the members of the group to Council property, and he has taken steps to see that such conduct, which fortunately is only an isolated instance, will not be repeated. If you have the damaged seat repaired and send me the bill for same, it will be refunded at once."

Arising out of an application from Mr. L. F. Langan, on behalf of the Golf Club, for the use of 40 chairs for the annual golf dance on the 28th inst., The Council granted the application provided the club will be responsible for any damage caused. C.E.M.S. Mr. E. O'Gorman, hon. sec. wrote on behalf of one asking the Council's co-operation in the running of "question time" at the Club, and asked the loan of one dozen high-backed forms for seating accommodation.

SWIMMING POOLS. The Department wrote referring to the proposed swimming pools as follows: "I am directed by the Minister for Local Government and Public Health to state that this work does not appear to be suitable for execution during the winter months as an employment scheme. The work could only be carried out at low tide, and owing to the shortness of the hours of light it might be impossible to execute any work on certain days. The fact that the work proposed is the first section would entail leaving the tank open might result in serious damage being done by tidal water during the winter months. In these circumstances it would appear that this work is one which could be carried out more successfully later on during a period of longer daylight, and if the Council agree with this view, consideration will be given as an alternative to the further works proposed at Williams' Marsh. The matter is one, however, in the first instance for the Council, acting on the advice of their Town Surveyor. Should the latter be prepared to accept full responsibility for the carrying out of the first section of the swimming pool as a winter relief scheme, the matter will be further considered on the submission of full sections and drawings of the proposed tank, together with specification."

On connection with the above, Mr. Bowen wrote: "With reference to the Department's letter of the 10th inst., I have been in telephonic communication with them to-day (14th), and it is expected that an inspector will visit the district next week to fully into the matter."

On the proposal of Mr. McCarthy, seconded by the Chairman, a vote of sympathy was passed to Mr. John Power, Sexton Street, Abbeystead, on the death of his wife. A similar vote was, on the proposition of Mr. McCarthy, seconded by the Chairman, passed to Garda Egan on the death of his mother.

KILMACKTHOMAS NOTES

Widespread regret has been occasioned by the death of Mrs. Ellen Power (nee Walsh), wife of Mr. Robert Power, Ballinasciala, Bonmahon, which, at the age of 75 years, took place after a somewhat protracted illness on Wednesday night of last week, leaving her husband and children, and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss.

In her district the deceased was regarded as one of the most genial and pleasant neighbours one could desire, her good humour being un-falling. She was a most exemplary Catholic, and it is a matter of consolation to her friends that she passed peacefully to her reward as she lived, resigned to the Will of her Creator.

The late Mrs. Power was mother of Messrs. Patrick and Charles Power, Ballinasciala; Mrs. P. Power, Kilmoylan; Mrs. M. Gaul, Slieve-rup, South Kilmoylan; Miss Alice Power, do; Miss Nell Power, England; Miss Hannah Power, do; and the late Mr. Michael Power, who was killed in action in the last Great War (1914-1918). Followed by an extremely large number of friends and the general public, the remains were removed from the residence on Thursday evening to St. Anne's Church, Ballyvaughan, where they were received by the Rev. P. F. Walsh, C.C., Stradbally, who recited the prayers for the dead. On Friday, following the celebration of Requiem Mass for the happy repose of her soul, all that was mortal of this good woman was reverently laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery, in the presence of innumerable mourners and sympathisers and amid many manifestations of profound sorrow. Father Walsh officiated at the graveside—Ar deis De go raib a bhanam.

P.I.V. £9. The auction has been fixed for Thursday of next week (27th inst.); it will be held on the lands, at the hour of 2 p.m. (S.T.).

It is a well-known fact that this compact holding, which fringes Stradbally village at the eastern end, is in prime heart, having been carefully manured and cultivated by the vendor. The lands are noted as excellent each season. The holding is well fenced and there is an adequate supply of water all the year round. The auctioneer directs the special attention of intending purchasers to the outgoings, which are nominal. Immediately after the sale of lands, Mr. Butler will auction some lots of cattle; quantities of hay, barley, oats straw and unthreshed oats, and a number of farming implements. Messrs. E. A. Ryan & Co., soles, Dungarvan, have carriage of sale.

POPULAR COUNTY OFFICIAL'S BEREAVEMENT.
The many mid-Waterford friends of universally esteemed Mr. S. J. Moynihan, Waterford County Commissioner, sincerely sympathise with him in his bereavement occasioned by the death of his brother, Mr. Jeremiah Moynihan, 60 The Manor, Waterford, which sad event took place on Monday—(Dean trocraie or a man).

DANCING.
Upwards of 250 couples patronised the annual all-night dance (9 to 4), held at the New Hall, Kilmackthomas, on Sunday night last, under the auspices of the Kilmackthomas District Nursing Association. Pete Coady's Band (Carrick-on-Suir) rendered a fine programme of music with wonted ability, and the catering and general arrangements were all that could be desired.

Last Sunday night's grand cinderella dance (8 to 2) at the Pike Amusement Hall—under the aegis of the local Amusement Club—was a great success. The attendance was unusually good, and the cheery couples were kept merrily on the move to the exhilarating music supplied by the Shamrock Dance Band—a brilliant Old Borough combination of instrumentalists.

POPULAE GUARD BEREAVED.
His many friends in Dungarvan and district heard with regret of the death of Mrs. Enright, mother of Garda Thos. Enright, Dungarvan, which occurred at her residence Ballyduff, Co. Kerry, on the 7th inst.

RELIGIOUS PROFESSIONS.
The profession took place at Glencain Abbey, on Wednesday, 5th inst. of Sister Emmanuel (Power) and Sister Kevin (Farrell). Sister Emmanuel is daughter of the late Mr. Edmond and Mrs. Katie Power, and sister of Miss Ellis and Mr. Mical Power, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan, and niece of Rev. M. Power, C.C., Abbeyside.

The following clergy were present at the happy ceremony: Right Rev. Dom Celsus O'Connell, Lord Abbot of Mount Melleray; Very Rev. T. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan; Rev. M. Power, C.C., Abbeyside; Rev. H. Symott, C.C., Cahir; Rev. Fr. Aylward, and Rev. Fr. Carthage, Chaplain, Glencain Abbey.

Numerous friends of the newly professed nuns were in attendance at the impressive function. Sister Emmanuel's relatives present included: Mical (brother); Ellis (sister); Rev. M. Power (uncle); Misses Katie Power and Anne Power, N.T. (aunts).

C.Y.M.S. (St. Mary's Branch).—The Club Rooms were again the centre of attraction on Friday night last when we held our first "Quiz" and concert of the season. It was another happy night. It is the general opinion that each entertainment run by the society is better than the one before and that the last one was best of all. It is heartening to see how popular we have become. Long before starting time the spacious card room was packed out—not a foot of space was available by 8 p.m.—and the only ones disappointed were the late-comers who failed to gain entrance. Punctually at 8.30 the "quiz" sounded and we were "on the air." The first item was a very popular "quiz" with Mr. M. Brennock, N.T., questioner; Mr. D. Phelan, adjudicator; Mr. P. Murphy, time-keeper, and the following were the teams:—Ladies—Miss Dodo Lawn (leader), Misses M. Lee, L. Dalton, B. O'Neill, E. Moloney, Morrissey, sohr. (leader); Messrs. M. Nagle, J. Scott, T. B. Boyle, R. O. Murchada, R. Johnson. Four questions were given to each member of the teams. All heads were busy; the standard of answering was high, and on the total count Miss D. Lawn and Mr. R. Usal O Murchada, had scored the highest. Again questions were chosen, the winners each toed the line and were again "put under fire." The end came all too quickly and R. Usal O Murchada was declared the winner. A most enjoyable concert then followed. Miss M. Delaney, A.L.C.M., accompanied all the artists in the various items. Mr. E. Phelan sang with great gusto and expression the beautiful "Di Provenza" for which he received loud applause.

Mr. D. Dee (accordion) and Mr. J. Tobin (violin) were loudly cheered on their selection of reel, jig and hornpipes. Then Miss Mary O'Gorman treated us to a varied selection on the piano including "It's Foolish but it's Fun," "I—I like you very much," "Yes, My Darling Daughter." This young player received loud applause and had to respond again. Next Miss K. Burke (Presentation Convent) delighted all by very sweetly singing "A Brown Bird Sings," and as an encore the beautiful "A Prayer Perfect." A rollicking selection of old and new favourites was played by Mrs. S. Ryan (Pianocorder) including a medley from "Swanee River" which put everyone singing. Miss A. Crotty (violin), rendered a true and perfect interpretation of "Jealousy," by Gade; "Serenata," by Moszkowsky; and "Tales from the Vienna Woods," by Strauss, which held the audience spell-bound. Then Mr. M. Brennock, N.T., was loudly applauded on his fine singing of "Keep right on to the end of the Road," and "Rocked in the cradle of the Deep." The next item was one of the many surprises of a memorable night. Miss Olive Gough, one of the newcomers, sang very sweetly "Lullaby" and "If I were a Blackbird." Then followed Miss Nancy Crawley another new-comer, who delighted us with many favourites including "Three Lovely Lassies," "Say, Little Hen," "Bonny Banks," "Little Ken" from his many admirers Mr. James Waters sang very beautifully "Ireland, Mother Ireland" and as an encore "Till Walk Beside You." Miss E. Patterson played a selection of swing numbers on the piano which again put the audience singing. Another surprise item was introduced then by Rev. T. B. Walsh, B.A., C.C., in the person of little Miss Anne Keane, who sang out sweetly "Roll out the Barrel," "Three Lovely Lassies," and that popular parody on "Bless them All." The grand finale came all too soon—Mr. D. Dee (accordion) Mr. J. Tobin (violin), accompanied by Miss M. Delaney, A.L.C.M. (piano), with the whole audience supporting gave us some rollicking numbers, and concluded with "God Save Ireland" and the "National Anthem. Thus ended another happy night. Again we thank Rev. T. B. Walsh, B.A., C.C., for his advice and support in organising such a successful night. Fr. Walsh, acting as comper for the concert kept everything going harmoniously. It was a bumper programme of music and song. It gladdened our hearts. We also thank the organising committee which included Mr. J. Patterson (chairman); Messrs. E. O'Gorman, E. Dalton, J. F. Bowen, P. Murphy, M. Walsh, M. Brennock, N.T., D. Phelan. May they soon be 'on the air' again. Slan aglath agus go raibh gac beannacht da feabhas orah go gasfhaimid le chelle aris.—Con.

ist), rendered a true and perfect interpretation of "Jealousy," by Gade; "Serenata," by Moszkowsky; and "Tales from the Vienna Woods," by Strauss, which held the audience spell-bound. Then Mr. M. Brennock, N.T., was loudly applauded on his fine singing of "Keep right on to the end of the Road," and "Rocked in the cradle of the Deep." The next item was one of the many surprises of a memorable night. Miss Olive Gough, one of the newcomers, sang very sweetly "Lullaby" and "If I were a Blackbird." Then followed Miss Nancy Crawley another new-comer, who delighted us with many favourites including "Three Lovely Lassies," "Say, Little Hen," "Bonny Banks," "Little Ken" from his many admirers Mr. James Waters sang very beautifully "Ireland, Mother Ireland" and as an encore "Till Walk Beside You." Miss E. Patterson played a selection of swing numbers on the piano which again put the audience singing. Another surprise item was introduced then by Rev. T. B. Walsh, B.A., C.C., in the person of little Miss Anne Keane, who sang out sweetly "Roll out the Barrel," "Three Lovely Lassies," and that popular parody on "Bless them All." The grand finale came all too soon—Mr. D. Dee (accordion) Mr. J. Tobin (violin), accompanied by Miss M. Delaney, A.L.C.M. (piano), with the whole audience supporting gave us some rollicking numbers, and concluded with "God Save Ireland" and the "National Anthem. Thus ended another happy night. Again we thank Rev. T. B. Walsh, B.A., C.C., for his advice and support in organising such a successful night. Fr. Walsh, acting as comper for the concert kept everything going harmoniously. It was a bumper programme of music and song. It gladdened our hearts. We also thank the organising committee which included Mr. J. Patterson (chairman); Messrs. E. O'Gorman, E. Dalton, J. F. Bowen, P. Murphy, M. Walsh, M. Brennock, N.T., D. Phelan. May they soon be 'on the air' again. Slan aglath agus go raibh gac beannacht da feabhas orah go gasfhaimid le chelle aris.—Con.

KILMACKTHOMAS COURT.

At the Kilmackthomas District Court on Wednesday before Mr. Justice McCabe, D.J., Superintendent Creane, Tramore, prosecuted Miss Kate Curran, Bonmahon, for a breach of the Licensing Laws, on October 28th. Mr. Thomas Kiersey, Solicitor, Waterford, appeared for the defendant.

In outlining the case, the Superintendent stated that on the date in question Guard Bolger, Stradbally Station, in company with another Guard, visited defendant's premises at about 9.45 p.m. That was a Sunday. Guard Bolger was admitted promptly. Whilst inside he found nine men on the premises whom, he was told by Miss Curran, were travellers. In fact, only two of them were travellers. There was no reason for any of the men, travellers or not, to be there at that hour of a Sunday.

Supt. Creane admitted that defendant was honest and straight about the whole matter, and added that the premises were well conducted. Mr. Kiersey, addressing the Justice, stated that there was no previous complaint against his client and this was the first offence of its kind under which she was charged. He endorsed the Superintendent's remarks about the place being well conducted.

The D.J. said he was of the opinion Miss Curran was very honest about the whole thing and consequently he did not intend dealing very severely with her. He then imposed a fine of 10/6, the conviction to be recorded on the licence.

NATIONAL HEALTH CASE. In the case of the Minister for Local Government against Mrs. Margaret Walsh, the Square, Kilmackthomas, Mr. M. M. Halley, Solr., Waterford, appeared for the defendant. Mr. Desmond R. Couahan, State Solicitor, Waterford, prosecuted.

Defendant was summoned for failing to affix National Health Insurance stamps for two employees (domestic servants) in respect of contributions payable for the period ending June 30th, 1941.

Mr. Halley admitted the offence on behalf of his client. Mr. Philip Egan, National Health Insurance Inspector, stated in evidence that Mrs. Walsh had stamped the cards periodically with ninepenny stamps instead of elevenpenny stamps, and then forwarded the cards direct to the National Health Office.

In reply to Mr. Halley, witness said that Mr. Mortell told defendant that ninepenny stamps would be alright in respect of agricultural workers. Defendant refused to affix the elevenpenny stamps to the cards after Mr. Mortell's first visit but later, when Mr. Mortell had again visited her in connection with the matter, she decided to put on the elevenpenny stamps.

It was stated by the prosecution that under-stamping was a method of escaping liability. Mr. Halley pleaded that his client was under the impression that the ninepenny stamps would be sufficient. She realised her mistake later and put on the elevenpenny stamps. Mrs. Walsh was an old lady, which was an excuse for her fault.

The Justice fined defendant £2 5/4 with 8/- costs. Fines ranging from 6d. to 5/- were inflicted in a heavy calendar of Garda prosecutions dealt with, the complainants in same (Breaches of the Lights and School Attendance Acts) being: Serg. Herby, Kilmackthomas; Guards Hamilton, Boyle and Rice, do.; Serg. Taaf, Stradbally; Guards Bolger, Fitzgerald, and O'D. Leahy, do.; Serg. Tierney, Leamybrien, Guard Synnott, do.; Guard Cole, Portlaw; Guards Nowlan and McGrath, Kill.

Waterford County Board of Public Health used Michael and Mrs. Gleeson, Stradbally, for £3 14s. and £2 4s., respectively, claimed as being due by the respondents for the time both were patients at the Cottage Hospital, Dungarvan.

Respondents did not appear in court and his worship adjourned the bases to the next sitting.

The court was then cleared and a children's court was held.

Attention is directed to the announcement of the Cork County Committee of Agriculture that application for selection to keep premium bulls should be made not later than the 6th December, 1941.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

TRIBUTE TO CAPPOQUIN GAIEL.

In a recent issue of a Waterford City paper the following tribute was paid to Mr. Labhras O Cadha, Cappoquin, well-known throughout Munster as an Irish teacher, writer and singer:—"Appropos my sketch of the life of An Fear Mór, given in last week's notes I received a letter from a well-known Gael asking that I would, from time to time, give similar pen-pictures of some of Munster's present-day Gael, whether associated with the language, games or cultural interests of the country. This is a tall order! However, as they say, 'I'll try anything once' and for this week I have chosen Waterford's never-ageing traditional singer, Labhras O Cadha. Labhras, whose fame like music being wafted on the breeze to the four corners of Ireland, is a native of Waterford County, being born in Scart, Ballinamut.

He received his early education at Kilmorien National School, but here, unfortunately, the knowledge he acquired of his native tongue was very small. Although a member of the professorial staff of Ring Irish College during the summer courses, he is not a native speaker like the majority of the staff. He obtained a large amount of his knowledge of the language from an old woman—a neighbour of his—whom he used to visit daily.

He became associated with Ring in 1909, and except for a period of six years, which he spent teaching in St. Declan's College, Ardmore, he has continued to teach Irish in Ring College during the summer courses, a position which he still holds. During 1918-27 he taught in many districts in Co. Waterford, including Dunmore, Dunhill, Butterstown, Cheekpoint, Portlaw, Ballyduff and Clonea-Power.

The happiest years of his life he spent in Ring in the company of Dr. Richard Hennebery and Dr. Sheehan. Both of those eminent Gaelic scholars conducted classes in Ring College (and, incidentally, were most prominent in the founding of Coliste na Rinne) from 1909-16, and it was principally due to their efforts that Ring has produced such notable Gaelic personalities as Nicolaas Toibin, Miceal O Cionnhaolaidh, Padraigh O Cadha, etc.

Labhras was a personal friend of the late Richard Beldonn ("The Port of the Comeraghs") and on one occasion the poet sang for him one of his own compositions—"Methadh Mo Charáid." This poem was addressed to Torna (Taidhg O Donnchada) as a Christmas greeting.

In September, 1934, Labhras recorded 18 pieces of traditional music and song. He was a prize-winner at the Oireachtas on two occasions, 1908 and 1918. He has merited the good wishes of all because of his love of Irish culture. In 1934 he was appointed a member of the staff of the Cappoquin Vocational School, a position which he still maintains.

May I, in conclusion, wish him many years of success and thank him for the many courtesies he has bestowed on me in visits to Ring.

A Labhras, a dhúine le gleo, fúidhinn sonas is samradh ort anois is coidhebe.

COMING EVENTS. On Sunday night, 21st December, a big whist drive, in aid of Xmas charity, will be held in the Boat-house. The Cappoquin Red Cross are holding their big annual dance on Wednesday night, January 14th. The usual big all-night dance will be held in the Boat-house Hall on St. Stephen's night. Full particulars of all the events mentioned will appear in our advertising columns later.

ANNUAL MEETING OF C.Y.M.S. The annual general meeting of the Cappoquin Catholic Youth Men's Society will be held in the Society's Rooms on Sunday night next at 7.30. All members are requested to attend, and intending members are cordially invited.

"SPAIN IN ARMS" AT CAPPOQUIN The famous picture, "Spain in Arms," was shown in the C.Y.M.S. Hall, Cappoquin, to a large and appreciative audience, which included several military officers. This great picture vividly shows the fight for liberation and religious freedom of Catholic Spain, and delighted those who had the privilege of seeing it. Also shown was a picture demonstrating the work of the missions. In an address, Rev. Father Carter, C.S.S.P., who had charge of the programme, spoke of the great herculean work of the missions, and made an appeal for the co-operation of the public in the good work. A draw for a sacred picture was won by Miss Mary Ryan.

THE BADMINTON DANCE. The forthcoming big dance under the popular auspices of the Cappoquin Badminton Club will be held in the Boat-house on Tuesday night, 2nd Decr. This big dancing promises to be one of the leading social events of the season, and a large and fashionable attendance is expected from all parts of West Waterford, East Cork, etc. The music will be supplied by the Twilight Serenaders' Dance Band (Fethard), which will be specially augmented for the occasion. For full details of this great dance, see our columns next week.

BADMINTON SEASON OPENS. The first badminton match of the season was played in the Boat-house between the local team and Middleton. Following closely contested games, the visitors emerged victorious. The Cappoquin team were: Messrs. Fred Anderson (captain), Jas. Ahearne, M. J. Sargent, jun., Ernie Anderson, R. Curran, and Liam Ryan. Mrs. F. Anderson, Misses S. White, M. Cahill, E. Lacey, —Hennessey, and Lal Ryan. During the week a meeting of the local club was held, when many matters of interest were discussed, including that of further matches and arrangements for the forthcoming big annual dance.

WELL-KNOWN PLAYRIGHT. From the daily Press, during the past week, we learned that a popular play entitled "Ducks and Drakes," by M. J. Farrell, has been showing at the Apollo Theatre to large audiences. By the way, M. J. Farrell is no other than Mrs. R.L. Keane, Bellevue, Cappoquin, who is also the author of that popular Irish country house comedy, "Spring Meeting."

SUNDAY PICTURES

Appeal by Clonmel Clergy.

Preserving a Great Tradition.

The following was read at all the Masses in the three churches in Clonmel on Sunday last:—"The priests of the town have for the past seven months made a continuous and earnest appeal to their people to preserve the sacred traditions of the town and diocese, and abstain from attending cinemas on Sundays. They feel that everyone of their flock is now fully aware of their attitude and their earnest wishes in this matter, and that the time has come when the maintenance of the tradition must be directly committed to the hands of the people.

"Accordingly we now entrust the preservation of the tradition to your faith, piety, and sound religious instincts. We would remind you that the Bishop of the Diocese, who is the Divinely constituted religious teacher in our midst—"The Holy Ghost hath placed Bishops to rule the Church of God."—(St. Paul)—while refraining from formal prohibition has given to what he calls the grand tradition his highest approval and commendation.

"In view of the town now make an earnest and permanent appeal to every individual member of their flock to take no part or responsibility in destroying the grand and sacred tradition of our beloved town, especially in the present time of awful crisis, when Divine anger is manifestly scourging a sinful world."

Gleggary for L.D.F.

The L.D.F. is now to have a new type of cap. It will be the Gleggary. The Department of Defence, after examining caps of the various types—the peaked cap, the forage cap, and the Gleggary—has decided that the latter is the most suitable for the L.D.F.

The Gleggary is at present worn by the Cavalry (armoured) Corps with a black ribbon round its rim and streamers behind. For the L.D.F. the streamers will be dispensed with, but on it will be mounted the Army crest.

It is also understood that the intention is to provide in the near future each man with a great coat of army type in addition to the present issue of waterproof capes. A well-known Dublin L.D.F. Officer, asked for his opinion of these new additions to L.D.F. clothing, said: "I am delighted at the decision in favour of the Gleggary. The new uniforms are all based on it." Referring to the great coats, he said: "Sometimes it has been pretty cold on parade without the great coat and its addition to our clothing will certainly be welcome."

It is expected that the initial issues of new outfits will be made before Christmas, and it will be given at first only to those whose parade attendances have been good. The new tunic, as has already been announced, will be of the blouse or battle dress pattern, with two sewn-on pockets on the legs of the trousers. The trousers will be gathered in at the bottom with army type short leggings. The material used is the substantial green serge now used for the regular forces.

L.D.F. officers will be attired in the same dress as the rank and file but will, of course, carry their distinctive rank markings on the shoulder epaulettes.

augmented for the occasion. For full details of this great dance, see our columns next week.

The Connaught Rangers

"Forgotten heroes who made a gallant stand for Ireland."

"I wish 'twas in Ireland for there is the place, says Burke that we'd die by right, in the cradle of our soldier race after one good stand up fight." CLAKE.

News at last of the murderous Tans had come to India's shore boys, Unto the gallant Connaughts came and loud and deep they swore boys. And thus some spoke what can we do here in this land of strangers. Although our Irish hearts are true, alas for the Connaught Rangers.

With you I'll stand, 'twas Sergeant Woods, an Englishman that spoke, from the one great island. And from the valiant rebel band, a ringing cheer soon broke boys. For Irishmen are gallant souls to fear your hearts are strangers.

'Twas then young Daly stood and spoke — attention, Connaught Rangers. Brave comrades be not dismayed, 'twas he, from the one great island. Those were the words the hero said, from your land boys and my land.

We'll seize their guns, the fort we'll sack defying death and dangers, And raise the Green o'er the Union Jack and Hurrah for the Connaught Rangers. Then fierce the Irish battle-rang clear upon the air boys. Resolved to conquer or to die, those valiant heroes were boys. Then down upon the fort they bore, to fear those boys were strangers.

When volley raked their ranks full sore, betrayed, were the Connaught Rangers. Then fell the Indian Madrades, a hero tried and brave boys. Unarmed, gallant comrades dying, and compassed round with dangers. Yet still they kept the Green Flag flying, the glorious Connaught Rangers.

Young Daly sleeps in a foreign land, his name enshrined in glory. With Ireland's glorious martyred band, will live in song and story. And here a health to his comrades true, brave hearts despising danger. Who stood up straight, Old Land for you, each dastard Connaught Ranger.

M. WALSH, Ballingarry, Kiltrossary. On November 25th, 1920, a small band of the Connaughts, stung to fury, at the news of Erin's independence, that reached their far-off station, made a spirited protest, flinging down their guns and refusing further service, hauling down from the pole the Union Jack, and brave heroic gesture no less fine because of its desperate isolation, hoisted the beloved Tricolour of the Irish Republic. Thus, in far-off India, thousands of miles from home, the entanglements of army discipline, those poor lads answered Erin's call of sacrifice.

As a result of the mutiny, the British troops were completely shut off. Machine guns were turned on them as they were shot down. Two courageous army chaplains, however, one Belgian and the other Irish (Father Baker), intervened to save them, preventing wholesale massacre. The mutineers were run up about them, and for days they were left at the mercy of the torrid Indian sun under barbarous conditions. Attempting to rush a magazine for arms and ammunition a rush in which a brave Indian gave up his life for the rebels, they were cut off, betrayed by an informer a renegade Irishman eager for military promotion. Daly, the young leader was tried by drummed court-martial and shot forthwith. His comrades, Corporals Flannery, Donoghue, Kennedy, and McDonnell, and the others were kept close prisoners and despatched as soon as possible to British convict prisons. Some to serve terms of penal servitude. An Englishman, Serg. Woods also joined them. He was a brave Irishman, helping the rebels, lost his life. His name and the Englishman's deserve to be recorded. The mutiny was quickly quelled, and the authorities once more had the situation well in hand as the phrase is. Nothing but the imperishable memory remains as great a gesture as that of 1916 when a small band held the British at bay for one short week. Some day when Ireland is free, the names of the Connaughts who rose in India will be recorded in Ireland's Roll of Honour.

SUGAR PERCENTAGES DROP IN ENGLAND.

Disappointment has been caused in Lincolnshire by the drop in sugar percentages by comparison with the high figures of a year ago. Mr. W. E. Cartwright (chairman of the local War Agricultural Committee) may, for example, be regarded as having a typical experience in recording a drop from 19.7 per cent. a year ago to 15.7 per cent. to-day.

"In 20 years of beet growing I have never had so low a sugar content," Mr. Cartwright commented. A Bardeny factory official suggests that the average for the week would work out at a full 17 per cent. "Some returns in respect of crops grown on newly ploughed grass have been adversely affected this year so far as sugar content is concerned," he said, "because of an excess of nitrogen and also because of the late season. The beets have kept on growing instead of ripening."

XMAS IS COMING.

Yes, Xmas is only five weeks off, and we must face the ordeal—at all costs! The friends at home and across the seas will be very disappointed if we fail to remember them, so don't put off selecting the inevitable Xmas greetings and little mementoes that go to make Xmas a time of happiness and goodwill. And don't forget the less better-off, or too often badly off friends and neighbours during this season. Give them a little of the joy which Xmas symbolises, and you will feel indescribably more happy by doing so.

AN TAOISEACH'S APPEAL. The appeal made by An Taoiseach at Galway as regards recruits for the Army and the L.D.F. deserves the serious consideration of all eligible young men. The older men, Mr. de Valera said, are for the L.S.F. and other non-voluntary auxiliary forces. Hence it would seem the appeal is applicable especially to young men who are available for the above services. We have sufficient "traffic cops" to meet the incoming tanks, etc.; it is full-blooded soldiers Ireland will need.

Waterford Priest in France.

We take the following from a recent issue of the "Waterford Star": The current issue of the "Catholic Herald" announces that Bishop Flynn of the diocese of Nevers in France, has secured the services of Irish priests for his diocese, which is part of occupied France.

Bishop Flynn is the son of a Catholic Irishman who was on the diplomatic service in France and remained in that country after he had resigned from the service. His father and his brother became priests in the diocese of Nevers and later his Bishop. Bishop Flynn's brother was the late Monsignor Henry Flynn, Rector of the famous Madeline Church, Paris. Bishop Flynn was a close personal friend of the late Bishop Hackett, of Waterford. He visited Ireland about 12 years ago in quest of the services of Irish priests who knew some French, for service in his diocese, where vocations for the priesthood had fallen considerably. Bishop Hackett sent to a seminary in Bishop Flynn's diocese, Rev. John Hennebery, a native of Rathgormack, Co. Waterford. Fr. Hennebery finished his theological course in the French seminary, and after his ordination served for four years as an assistant priest in Nevers diocese. He returned to Waterford Diocese three years ago. He was for a short time Chaplain at the Little Sisters of the Poor, Waterford, and later assistant priest at Lismore, during the illness of the late Canon Burke, P.P. On Canon Burke's death, a few weeks ago, Father Hennebery was appointed chaplain to the French speaking community of nuns at Carrigea, near Dungarvan.

Father Hennebery is an excellent French and Irish scholar. His training at the French seminary has given him a continental culture and a knowledge of the position of the Catholic Church in France that have made our talks with him most interesting and informative.

Father Hennebery's sister (Miss M. Dympha) is a member of the Mercy Community at Carrick-on-Suir. He is a nephew of Mr. Seamus Hennebery, Carrickbeg, Carrick-on-Suir, one of the founders of the Gaelic League in that town 40 years ago, and an enthusiastic Gaelic League to-day. Priests from Cork diocese who know French fairly well have also been lent to Bishop Flynn by Most Rev. D. Colohan.

Writing about Irish priests who know French well, we might mention that among the best French scholars among the priests of the priesthood in our diocese are Father Michael Kirwan, S.J. (a native of Waterford); Father Henry Sinnott, C.C. Cahir (another Waterford man); Father Fitzgerald, St. John's College; and Father Baldwin, C.C. Ardmore. All these, except Father Keating, are ex-Waterpark College students.
