DUNGARVAN COURT

Held on Tuesday before Mr. S. J. Troy, D.J.

LANDLORD v. TENANT.

Edward Conway (Landlord), Mitchel Street, Dungarvan, sought an ejection order against Thomas Egan, tenant, for the non-payment of rent of the dwelling house occupied by the defendant in Mitchel Street.

Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., appeared for plaintiff.

Mr. Kenny, solr., defending, said that because the question of the arrears of rent was gone into, his contention is that there are no arrears of rent as the rent charged 27 per week is in excess of the assessment allowed under section 4 (2) of the Increase of Rents Act, with regard to the fixing of the standard rent which the Justice has power to fix.

Mr. Cashman, C.E.O., gave evidence of serving the notice to quit.

Mr. James Norris, rent collector for plaintiff stated the house is let at a weekly rent of 2/7. The arrears due up to Saturday last were £3 12s. 6d.

Thomas Egan, defendant, said he is tenant of this house since 1922. He went to lodge in the house and the tenant, John Dunne, went to hospital and witness got the tenancy from Miss Mary Anne Daniel, at 2/- a week. Prior to his becoming a tenant, Dunne told him the rent was 1/2 a week.

The Justice—What you were told is not much use.

Mr. Kenny said that although they had made inquiries regarding the 1914 rent go off was made by the plaintiff to supply the evidence asked for.

Mr. Williams, solr., said they were unable to give the information sought as both Mr. Conway and Mr. Norris had made every effort to get the information but failed.

Continuing his evidence, Egan said he paid his rent regularly up to the 14th July. He refused to pay when he asked the rent collector about repairs to the roof and the rent collector told him that he was not concerned with repairs but to collect the rent. He also asked the landlord personally about repairs; the roof is leaking very bad and leaving in the weather in many places than one. There is a clay floor which gets wet in the bedroom. Witness put in a concrete floor in the kitchen at his own expense. He stopped paying the rent after the landlord told him he would neither do repairs nor set the house demolished.

To the Justice—The rates are included in the 2/7.

To Mr. Williams—He refused to do repairs. He put a man on the roof last summer, but it was not much good, as the man said he was in bad form that day as he was at a dance that night before. (Laughter.) It would require a new roof to make it a good house.

To Mr. Kenny—The landlord said he would not either repair the house or allow it to be handed down.

Nicholas Walsh said he knew the premises. He remembered Mr. Dunne, the former tenant, as witness lodged with him in 1922. He was paying Dunne 2/6 for a room. He also knew what Dunne was paying in rent as he saw him paying Miss Daniels 6/8 for 4 weeks' rent.

Mr. Kenny contended that the standard rent in 1914 was 1/2. He deducted that from the rents paid similar houses in the area.

Mr. Kenny said for the purposes of the case he is prepared to agree that the tenant was not paying any sum over 1/8.

The Justice said unless the defendant can prove that the landlord had agreed to pay the rates, the landlord would be entitled to the penny more than he is receiving as a 20 per cent. increase on 1/8 as allowed by the Rent Act would be 2/- plus 6d. rates, that is unless it can be proved that the landlord was paying the rates. As regard the repairs Mr. Kenny said he assumed that a reasonable state of repair would mean a good roof and comfortable floors to walk on.

The Justice said the tenant had given evidence that the landlord had put a man on the roof even though the man was at a dance the previous night (laughter). He is satisfied from the facts that the rent is not beyond the standard rent. He is also satisfied there is a sum of £3 odd due and is satisfied that the landlord has taken reasonable care. When he hears of a man holding back rent he (Justice) looks with doubt on a case as there is another way for a tenant to get redress. He would give a decree and also find that the standard rent under the Act is 2/- plus rates.

The School Attendance Officer, Ballinacorney, prosecuted John Kiely, Kilmire Upper. The case was adjourned for three months.

EXTENSION OF HOURS.

Mr. L. F. Lanigan, Solicitor, was granted an extension of hours on behalf of the Dungarvan Golf Club for the night of Wednesday 26th inst.

RIGHTS.

A large number of persons were charged under the Lights on Vehicles Act and fines ranging from 2/6 to 3/6 were imposed. The Guards concerned were: Farrell, O'Leary, Enright, O'Dea and McIlwain.

ALLEGED ASSAULT.

Jermiah Mulcahy, Colligas, prosecuted Pk. Keane, do with alleged assault on Nov. 7th. Mr. Morrissey, solr., for plaintiff. Mr. Kenny, solr., defended.

Plaintiff's evidence said on Nov. 7th as he was going home about 10.30 p.m. near Harney's Cross the defendant passed on a bicycle and after going on a bit he left the bicycle and came back to witness and said he was a long time waiting for me. He then struck witness and beat him with a stick which witness had in his hand. He told witness that if he would go up the avenue he would kill him. Witness had gone home that way for the past 20 years. He was afraid to go up there that night.

To Mr. Kenny, solr.—Witness had been laid up for some time and had a plaster on his back. He had gone to Mrs. Quill's for a few drinks. His house was about 14 Irish miles from Quill's. He arrived at Quill's at about 5.30 p.m. and was returning about 10.30 p.m.

Mr. Kenny—I suggest to you that it was nearer 12.30 a.m.

Witness—No.

Justice—Were you thirsty? Witness—No.

Mr. Kenny—How many drinks had you from 5.30 p.m.?

Witness—I had not many, about 9 bottles (laughter).

To Justice—That would not make me drunk (laughter).

To Mr. Kenny—He worked for Mr. Keane, the last time about 6 weeks ago. Mr. Keane is a contrary man. He owed witness 8/ wages but witness did not attack him for that. He asked him for it when he was down on the ground. He knew very well how it all happened. Keane walked back, struck witness and said he was a long time waiting for you.

Mr. Kenny—Are you sure you know what happened after all those bottles?

Justice—He only had nine (laughter).

Pk. Keane replying to Mr. Kenny said that on the 7th Nov. as he was returning home he passed Mulcahy who was very drunk. He was shouting that himself and another man had drank all the beer in two publichouses. Witness got off the bicycle and the plaintiff asked him for his wages. Witness did not owe plaintiff any wages as he had to pay him every night while he worked for him to drink it. The plaintiff owed witness 10/- but he did not mind that. Witness came off the bicycle as plaintiff made an attempt to pull him off. He did not leave the bicycle against the fence, but kept it with one hand. He slipped plaintiff by the back of his other hand. Plaintiff then attempted to strike witness with the stick he was carrying and witness took it from him and hit him with it, in the softest part of his body.

To Mr. Morrissey—Witness did not beat the plaintiff with the stick. The man is always in good health.

The Justice dismissed the case.

ATTITUDE v. MAGLE.

This was a summons brought by Miss Mary Attridge, Cathal Brugha Place against Mrs. Nagle and her daughter, Hannah, for damage and annoyance.

Miss Attridge replying to Mr. Morrissey, Solicitor, said she is now 12 months residing at Cathal Brugha Place. She described how in Oct. over witness's wall and on another occasion she threw yellow wash over a coat in witness's garden, destroying it (cost produced). Witness also referred to another occasion when the flowers in her garden were pulled up and broken. Defendant came out and abused witness saying she would wipe the road from top to bottom with anyone who would interfere with her. She did not care for the Guards, Court or Council.

To Mr. Kenny—Witness described the way her wall was covered with wash, and how the coat was destroyed. She saw them pulling the flowers, golden privet and chrysanthemum. The flowers were not destroyed by a gale, a gale would only break not pull the flowers. Witness never abused anyone in her life.

Mrs. E. Keane said she was in Miss Attridge's garden when the wash was thrown on the coat. Witness had not spoken to defendants.

Hannah Nagle (8 years) said Miss Attridge assaulted her on the 6th. Witness did not show the wash or pull the flowers.

Mr. Morrissey was continuing his examination when the Justice said:—Don't make her tell any more lies than you can help.

The Justice called Mrs. Nagle and admonished her to keep her child quiet and also herself if not the child

"Dungarvan Observer."

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1941. Our Vital Need. Stressing the war danger to this country, an address (Mr. de Vries) urged that every man should join the defence forces in some form. Our defence plans must, therefore, not only continue increasing, they must be made ever more wide and comprehensive. Our personal and most important need is broader sense covers many activities: it connotes fire-fighting, coast-guarding, ambulance work and that A.R.P. stands for it include the safe-guarding of the people's food and the nation's fuel; it involves keeping the nation's credit good and its industries on a healthy basis, and, not least, it has to do with maintaining the nation's morale at its highest level. It is plain, then, that almost everybody can play his or her part in the defence effort. Citizens who, instead of grumbling at the hardships of the times, accept them in a spirit of cheerfulness—they certainly are playing the part that the crisis calls for. There is a place for all in her defence ranks.

Golf Club Dance.

Upwards of 90 couples were present in the beautiful ballroom of the Dungarvan Golf Club, in the Clubhouse, Ballinacorney, on Wednesday night last, the occasion of the Club's annual dance. Patrons in addition to a big local contingent were present from Clonmel, Youghal, Mitchelstown, and many other neighbouring towns. The music under the baton of Mick Delahunty was voted perfect as was the relief music played by the Dungarvan Carnival Band. The ballroom (recently renovated) was most artistically decorated and the supper, served under the supervision of the ladies of the club was excellent. With such perfect arrangements it was no wonder that the big gathering enjoyed every minute of the gala event until the playing of the National Anthem at 5 a.m. terminated a truly enjoyable function.

Stradbally Again Senior Football Champions. Dungarvan Team An Hour Late.

When the Dungarvan S.F. team did not field out at the appointed time on Sunday last at the Waterford Sports Field to contest the Co. final with Stradbally (1940 champions), the referee, Mr. C. Ware, had no option but award the match to Stradbally. The Dungarvan team arrived an hour later and a challenge game was played for the benefit of the spectators, which Stradbally won by a point. The gate receipts totalled £26. Jimmy Waters opened the scoring with a point for Dungarvan. Kevin Whelan equalised with a point for Stradbally, and shortly afterwards put the side ahead with a similar score. John Veale, who was the star of the Stradbally team pointed for Stradbally. Dungarvan took the lead when Joe Harrington (a miser) had a great goal—goals before the interval Percy Kiewan (the Stradbally Captain) equalised. On resuming both defences stood up remarkably well and there was only one score at this moiety, a point for Stradbally, when Mickey Lenders (the Dungarvan goalie) punched a racking drive from Percy Kirwan over the bar. The final score was: Stradbally, 6-5; Dungarvan, 1-1.

Stradbally were without their star centre half-back, Tom Veale (brother of John's). Dungarvan were without McDaniel, who was attending his uncle's funeral at Dungannon. Stradbally lined out as under: — James Corbett (goal). J. O'Meara, John Power, J. Whelan, M. Connors, N. Connors, John Veale, Percy Kirwan and Patrick Kiely (Capt.). J. Curran, Kevin Whelan, J. O'Connell, R. Hickey, J. Cummins, Danganavay—M. Lenders (goal). T. Kiely, D. Gahan, J. O'Connell, J. Mountain, T. Curran, P. Walsh, C. Moylan and W. Barron. P. Cahill, J. Harrington, P. Lannon, J. MINOR FOOTBALL FINAL. St. Stephen's 7-4. Cathal Brugha's 0-1.

The minor football final prior to the senior game resulted in a surprisingly easy victory for the De La Salle boys. Cathal Brugha's came with a big reputation, their team being composed of ten members of St. Augustine's College. They were expected to be better experienced than the city lads, but after a hard-fought game they were never able to get the advantage of the Stephen's who had a splendid understanding among their forwards. The teams, however, have the unique distinction of being the youngest ever to contest a minor final.

The game as far as scoring went was a one-sided affair. Cullen and Regan held midfield for St. Stephen's and gave Aspell, Boyce, Hearne and Co. plenty of the ball. The whole Stephen's forward line was brilliant in the first half. T. Hearne (2-2), T. Gasey (1-0), W. Sullivan (1-0), P. Hammond (0-1), and P. Cullen (1-0). Brugha's improved in the second half and pressed at times; their only goal, however, came from an 50 taken by Nicholas McGrath, who was also their outstanding player. Boyce started the scoring for St. Stephen's with a goal in the 10th minute. The scoring for St. Stephen's, Stephen's backs were seldom tested by T. Lawler, Deegan and Coody were the pick of the bunch and dealt capably with anything that came their way.

Dungarvan were best served by Wall and Hogan in defence. McGrath's midfield and White and Randels in the forward line. St. Stephen's: T. Regan (capt.); T. Power, M. Lawlor, J. Murphy, P. Murphy, M. Coady, S. Deegan, P. Cullen, J. Boyce, W. O'Sullivan, T. Aspell, P. Hammond, T. Hearne, T. Casey, and D. Power. Cathal Brugha's: M. Londeney, F. Hogan, J. Duggan, F. Randels, M. Wade, M. Vale, N. McGrath (capt.), L. White, R. O'Connor, J. Sullivan, T. Guffin, E. Wall, M. Curran, E. Farrell.

DANCE AT KNOCKANOBE. The annual dance under the auspices of the C.T.A. was held at Knockanobe on Sunday night last when there was a big attendance. All arrangements were perfect and with excellent music all present had a most pleasant and enjoyable time. Dancing concluded with the playing of the National Anthem.

ADROBE DANCE. A very enjoyable dance was held in St. Kieran's Hall, Ardmore, on Sunday night last. First class music was supplied by Sheila Hichens' Band, Youghal. HUNTING. The West Waterford's continue to have a good season's sport. Sporting enthusiasts in these parts are already looking forward to the big annual meet at Clashmore on St. Stephen's Day, when, as usual, there will be a record influx of visitors to the historic village. This season's meet promises to be as big and attractive as ever and some notable figures will be out. G.A.A. The next few months will be "all quiet" in the G.A.A. circles and clubs will be principally engaged making arrangements for next season, which, we trust, will be most successful. It has just concluded. There were far too many objections during the past season and these had an upsetting effect on the championships. It is hoped that during the coming season there will be fewer objections and that a better spirit will animate all clubs. Objections are most undesirable. If, on the one hand, clubs refrain from playing, illegal men, and, on the other, do not lodge objections on technical and frivolous grounds, better progress would be made. The ideals of the G.A.A. should come first in all instances. "Scenes" on the field should also be stamped out otherwise irreparable harm will be done and the prestige of the association will suffer.

HOTEL MONATREA DANCE.

The forthcoming grand all-night dance in that ever-popular centre, Hotel Monatrea, promises to be the leading social event of the season in these parts and a large and fashionable attendance is assured. Splendid music will be supplied by Nancy's Crowley's Band, Youghal, and catering arrangements will be carried out by the efficient hotel staff. No dancing enthusiast in West Waterford or East Cork should miss this big night in lovely Hotel Monatrea.

WATERFORD CO. BOARD G.A.A.

At a meeting of the Waterford Co. Board, held at the De La Salle Hall, Stephen Street, on Sunday night last, Mr. M. V. O'Donoghue (Chairman) presided. BURLING LEAGUE. The Secretary stated he had received replies from Cork, Limerick and Kilkenny agreeing to take part in the senior burling league. No reply had been received from Tipperary. The matter will come before the Munster Council on Saturday next for their approval. It is proposed to run the League on a two-years basis. The gross gate receipts to be divided 50/50. If Tipperary were not prepared to take part the League would comprise Waterford, Kilkenny, Limerick and Cork. The opening rounds would be played early in 1942.

DUNHILL OBJECTION.

Dunhill objected to the Brickey Rangers being awarded the junior football final. The referee (Sean O'Moide, N.T.) in his report stated that the game for three-quarters of the hour was played in a sporting manner. In the 22nd minute the result of an incident, two players came to grips and the pitch was invaded by spectators. After order was restored the game was resumed. During play at the Dunhill goalmouth, the umpire raised the green flag for a goal for the Brickey Rangers. He was immediately struck and knocked to the ground and the flag taken from him. On consulting both umpires who agreed there was no doubt about the score, he awarded a goal to the Brickey Rangers. The Dunhill players hotly disputed the score and he asked the captain of the Dunhill team if they were prepared to continue the game. The captain stated he was not. He then lined up the Brickey Rangers and awarded them the game. Mr. E. Moore (Dunhill) stated that when the pitch was invaded Dunhill players were assaulted by the Brickey Rangers. He was reassured by spectators. Before the referee awarded the game to the Brickey Rangers he should have endeavoured to find out how many of the Dunhill players were prepared to continue and so were the majority of the Dunhill players. He stated that the referee fulfilled his duty when he suited the Dunhill captain. He therefore awarded the game to the Brickey Rangers and any Dunhill players who refused to finish the game was suspended for six months. Acting out of the allegation that Dunhill players were assaulted certain individuals and players were ordered to appear before the next G.A.A. Board meeting.

MINOR HURLING FINAL.

Arising out of the minor hurling final between Dungarvan and P.H. Pearse, to be played at Dungarvan on next Sunday, an Eastern delegate stated that St. Carthage's were awarded the Western final by 2-2 to 1-2. A replay will be played at Dungarvan in Lismore. Some days before the date of the match the St. Carthage's Club notified the Secretary of the Western Board that they were unable to field a team and were giving a walk-over to Dungarvan.

The County Football Final.

To Editor, "Dungarvan Observer." At long last the senior football championship of 1941 has been decided. Stradbally are champions for the second successive year, but only by the narrow margin of one point. Much will be spoken of and written about this great final—all things considered it was a great final. Disappointments, postponements and bad climatic conditions are not conducive to good football. The standard of play could not be written of as brilliant, save in parts of the second half. Truly, it was an hour packed with thrills—an hour of dare-devil, man-to-man combats in which mercy was neither asked for nor given. It was a great final because not once in that close struggle was there an incident to bring discredit to the G.A.A. of Portlargo. Owing to a mishap, en route to the Dungarvan team, the match was delayed for fifty minutes. For fifty-five minutes the Stradbally boys were in their togs in a cold November blast and drizzle. Without doubt this hardship had a serious effect on the display of the village boys in the first period. Notwithstanding the fact that they played with the bill, with the decline in the city goal and were backed by a strong breeze which reached gale force at times, they could but even the scoring at four points all. At the interval, defeat stared the cove boys in the face. They did not wince but "took the bit

WATERFORD BOARD OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.

A meeting of the County Board of Public Assistance was held in the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Wednesday, Nov. 27, 1941.

On the proposal of the Chairman a vote of sympathy was passed to Alderman Jones on the death of his daughter.

A similar vote to which the members spoke was passed to Commissioner Moylhan, on the death of his brother.

The Superintendent Assistance Officer submitted the following figures for Home Assistance paid out during the month which was £1,886 19s. 0d., for the preceding month the amount was £1,839 10s., and for the corresponding period last year £1,888 10s. 0d.

The Superintendent said that this included practically £100 for children's clothes so that the amount was less than last month.

On the recommendation of Dr. Healy, M.O., Lismore, Mr. C. O'Gorman, Lismore, was appointed warden.

Mr. Dunne, engineer, reported that turf had been delivered during the week and the cost of painting the doors and windows would be £5 but it would be better to leave this work to the Spring.

Mr. Dunne reported that the stove in above is useless, a new stove is required and the cost will be about £4.

Mr. Power—Land is valuable. Mr. Cosgrave—The Commissioner can tell you if land is taken over from farmers for the building of cottages what the price is.

Secretary—The house is urgently required, the question is will you take an acre or a half acre.

Mr. Caulfield—He may not give a half acre.

Secretary—He is prepared to give a half acre at £60.

Commissioner—The price is very high. Mr. Cosgrave—It is the wrong time to build.

Mr. Power—I suppose it will cost £1,600 or £1,700 to build, but there is no alternative.

Secretary—The house requires the present house and has got a decree for possession.

It was decided to acquire a half acre.

WEATHER and Wheat Sowing

Experience during the past few years has shown that Wheat can be sown under soil and weather conditions unfavourable for other cereals.

Having regard to the great importance of the Early Sowing of Winter Wheat, this point cannot be too strongly emphasised.

In the campaign for greater wheat production Winter Wheat has been and must continue to remain in the forefront. Early Sowing is the biggest factor in a successful harvest.

Every hour of every suitable day should be occupied in the sowing of Winter Wheat. It is more profitable to have Winter Wheat Seed in the soil than in the sack.

RECENT COURT CASE RECALLED. A letter from the Department referred to the recent case of the boarded-out child placed with Mrs. Coffey, Drumore, Ballymacarby.

Chairman—I understand the work will be increased four-fold, while the net voucher only required one extra. Mr. Cullen—We should ask the Department to send down an Inspector to see for themselves or ask for an additional grant towards remuneration.

Mr. Caulfield said a small deputation to meet the Minister should be sent. Commissioner Moylhan, if in Dublin would do, he could explain to him the amount of work involved particularly for the two men in Waterford. Those men are entitled to remuneration as they are working up to 10 and 11 o'clock every night.

Mr. Cullen suggested asking the Department to send down an Inspector and let Commissioner Moylhan and the Chairman meet him.

Commissioner Moylhan said the same circumstances must prevail in every county. He suggested that the Secretary write to some of the five counties as to the procedure adopted by them.

The Secretary said he saw by the Press that they were appointing four extra officers under the Dublin Board to administer the scheme.

Mr. Power—Oh, that's all-right for Dublin, but it would be all wrong down here.

The Commissioner's suggestion was approved.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT. The monthly financial statement submitted by the Secretary showed a balance credit of £8,482 5s. 9d.

SITE OF LISMORE NEW HOSPITAL. Mr. M. Whelan, Ballysaggartbeg, wrote offering £14 for the site to grow wheat thereon in the coming season. The writer stated he has paid the rates for some every year and has also paid this year's millage.

Mr. Caulfield objected to such a price and said a Waterford auctioneer told him he got from £9 to £11 an acre for land to grow wheat.

The Secretary said the site is in Mr. Whelan's land and is not yet railed off. He had it at £10 last year.

The Board decided not to give the land for this sum, and asked the Commissioner to see Mr. Whelan.

SHELVING AT CO. HOSPITAL. WATERFORD. A letter from the Minister for Defence referred to the shelving for the storage of medical supplies which had been sent to the County Hospital, Waterford, and pointed out that while it is appreciated that the shelving was erected primarily for the storage of medical supplies, the property of the Department of Defence, the shelving will be of permanent value to the institution. In these circumstances it is considered that a 50 per cent grant towards the cost of erection

KILMATHOMAS NOTES

WATERFORD HOUNDS.—These hounds did not receive a permit to start cub-hunting until the middle of October, but since then have killed five foxes each outing.

Mr. Russell and Major Lord William Beresford are the Joint Masters for this season and Foxhunting is again carrying the horn, with A. G. Thatcher whippin-in. Last Tuesday the 18th, the meet was at Fallagh Bog, and ending in the bog, hounds ran out towards Rathmeaden, across the Kilcanavee road and back to Fallagh Bog where he was lost. Next found in Graig and after hunting up and down the covert for some time, hounds marked to ground from which the fox was evicted and killed. Hounds then went on to draw Ballymacarby, where a fox was quickly found and went away across the Kilmac-Ballylennan road through Ballygarry and to ground near Grouse Lodge after a nice gallop of 15 minutes.

Last Saturday hounds met at Kilmerrymore in pouring rain. Kilmerrymore and Bess were drawn blank, but a brace of foxes were on foot in the Slate Quarries Gorse, and hounds went away towards Hacketstown, right hand side, short of Kildermore and back to the Slate Quarries, where hounds lost no time, and drove on towards Ballyva across the Gulleagh-Carroll's Cross road to Ballybussa, from which he returned back into Ballyva and was killed. This was a nice hunt of 40 minutes, although the going was very heavy after a night's rain.

THE LATE FATHER SHEEHAN.—The Rev. D. M. Sheehan, B.A., C.C., Fourmilnewater, who went to his eternal reward on Saturday of last week (Festival of St. Cecilia, V.M.), passed a number of his 25 years of priestly life here in Kilmathomas. Loyal to the Church in every detail of his life, he was equally loyal to the land of his birth, and the while in our midst he identified himself prominently with the local G.A.A. Club. Father Sheehan was a man of wide culture, sound judgment, and a great force of character, with a singular facility for making friends for himself amongst all classes of people, and here by the Mahon the sad tidings of his all-too-early demise occasioned deep and sincere regret. Dear Father Denis, your smile, be sure,

A heart of ice would quickly thaw; Nor proofs not lacking that in the poor. Our Divine Saviour you saw. May Eternal Light shine on you, pure.

Very Rev. E. English, P.P., Stradbally, performed the ceremony. Mr. James ("Christy") Curran, cousin of the groom, Stradbally, functioned as best man. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Nellie O'Brien, Garryhill, as bridesmaid. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, where some few hours were whiled pleasantly away with music, song and dance by a large party of relatives and friends of the happy couple (who received numerous expressions of good wishes and congratulations). The groom is a noted playing member of the Stradbally senior football team, and he and his estimable life-partner are exceedingly well-liked on all sides locally. Mr. and Mrs. Curran have the best wishes of all for their matrimonial happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Denis O'Donnell, Brickey, Kilmathomas, who is now holidaying at his parental roof-tree, having come from Hollywood, Co. Down, where he has been engaged in his professional capacity as an engineer for some time past, Mr. O'Donnell, who is in radiant health and spirits, is a personal friend of Mr. Fergus Mac Con Midhe, G.A.A., President, whom he frequently meets at ceilidhs held under the auspices of the Down County Board.

HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL.—The sale conducted by Messrs. John D. Palmer and Son, M.L.A.A., Auctioneers and Valuers, Waterford, at Comeragh House, Kilmathomas, on Wednesday and Thursday of last week (for the executors of the late Miss C. G. Fairholme) was largely attended on both days, and the various articles on offer were sold at exceptionally good figures.

IRISH CLASSES.—There is room for improvement in the attendance at the Irish Class which is being conducted at Kilmathomas National School, on Wednesday night of each week (starting at 7.30 p.m., Old Time) by Mr. Joseph Fahy, M.G., Ross, Rathgormack. Certainly the boys and girls of the parish did not miss the splendid opportunity of improving their knowledge of the native language, and it is to be fervently hoped that a marked increase on the present membership of the Class will be registered in the near future.

Gaelic Garnerings.—Congratulations to Percy Kirwan and Co. on taking the Co. SF. title to Stradbally for the second year in succession. Following their twenty-minutes aside exhibition with the Old Boro' boys last Sunday, Percy and his men were entertained to dinner in a city hotel, where Father P. Cummins, O.S.A. (Prior), Cork, who presided at the function heartily congratulated them on retaining the Co. crown. The members of the Stradbally Club, at a specially convened meeting, held during the week, passed a vote of congratulation to their colleague, Mr. James Curran, on his marriage.

Have it that the Stradbally Club intends tabling a motion to come before the annual Co. Convention asking for the formalisation of a Midwaterford Board, and that the full support of all clubs in the county is being given to this proposal.

BALLYVAFF CLUBS.—The annual general meeting of the Ballyvauff (Kilmeehan) H. and F. Club will take place at the local National School, on to-morrow (Sunday) evening, at 3 o'clock (S.T.), when the agenda to be dealt with will include election of officers for the coming year.

VEALE-CONNOLLY. Worthy members of two of the best known and most popular farming families in the mid-Waterford area were united in the sacred rites of matrimony at St. John's Parish Church, Waterford, on Wednesday morning, when Miss Kathleen Connolly, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Connolly, Churchtown, Windgap, Carrick-on-Suir, became the wife of Mr. Leo ("Larry") Veale, eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Veale, Ballyshunock, Kilmathomas. The ceremony (with Nuptial Mass) was performed by Rev. Father Baldwin, O.P.M., Limerick (cousin of the bride), assisted by Very Rev. T. Galvin, P.P., Newtown; Rev. J. Hally, C.C., Kilmathomas; Rev. J. O'Donnell, C.C., Ardman (cousin of the bride); Rev. J. Walsh, C.C., Carrickbeg. The bridesmaid was Miss Alice Baldwin, Curraghduff, Carrick-on-Suir (cousin of the bride), and Mr. John Kiersey, ex-T.D., Ballyhussa, Kilmathomas, functioned as best man. The wedding breakfast was served at the Imperial Hotel, Waterford, at which thirty guests (including the clergyman already named) attended. Speeches in felicitous terms of Mr. and Mrs. Veale were made by several members of the distinguished company, and were suitably acknowledged by the bridegroom. The happy couple, who were the recipients of a big array of wedding presents, left in the afternoon for Dublin, where the honeymoon is being spent. The universally esteemed bridesroom is life-partner, Secretary of the Newtown Ploughing Committee since its inception, and in both the County and National ploughing competitions in which he has always acquitted himself with pronounced ability. He is the buying agent in these parts for the Co-operative Meat Stores, Christchurch, Waterford; is a valued member of the Newtown and Ballyvauff Home Testing Association, and was Honorary Secretary of the Newtown Football Club of some years ago, and is an active member of the present Club there. Equally well-esteemed is his charming life-partner, and we warmly wish them length of years in full enjoyment of the peace and blessings of conjugal bliss.
