MOOREHILL NOTES

We regret to announce the death of Mr. W. Smyth, Coolbeggan, which occurred at his residence, on Tuesday week, after a rather protracted illness, and fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church. The deceased was very popular and his 'passing has occasioned deep regret. He was a good neighbour and a sincere friend. and to his brother and other immediate relatives the deep symeathy of the community is exended. Requiem Masses were offered up for the happy repose of his soul, and on Thursday the funeral took place from his late residence to Kilcockin cemetery, accompanied by a large and representative cortege, many travelltribute to a friend.
