THE BUDGET. Now that prognostications over the Budget have been made we are asked if there is any likelihood of a tax on bachelors. We do not know and we do not care. The bachelors of our acquaintance in the county seem unperturbed and why should we worry? But it will be news to many that the legislatures of almost every land at some period of its history has imposed penalties on bachelors. In Sparta celibacy was treated as a crime, and the Roman consuls during the Republic frequently imposed fines upon unmarried men. In 1895 an Act was passed by the British Government entitled "An Act for granting to his Majesty certain rates and duties upon marriages, births and burials and upon bachelors and widowers for the term of five years for carrying on war against France with vigor." Bachelors above twenty-five years of age paid 1s. yearly or more according to their rank. Thus for a bachelor duke the tax was £12 and other ranks in proportion. This tax was allowed to expire in 1767. Anyway, even at this blessed moment, Eire's own excellent Minister for Finance may be contemplating the imposition of a tax on bachelors and on bachelors! In a few short weeks his Budget will be made known, and, er-pussant, we must say that this is no easy task in those difficult times.

CORRESPONDENCE. To Editor, "Dungarvan Observer." Sir—Please allow me space in your paper to advocate or suggest a L.S.F. review of all L. D. Forces and L. S. Forces of Waterford to be held in Dungarvan on St. Patrick's Day next, or some suitable date. As far as I am aware, no such parade has been held in Co. Waterford and I am sure it would greatly assist in recruiting new members and stimulate the activities of existing members if such a parade were held. It would also help the business community as there would be a good deal of money spent in the town on the day of the parade. Now then, L. D. Officers, why don't you organise this parade? It should be a simple matter to invite one of the Ministers from Dublin and I am sure they would be only too willing to assist. You could also make a small collection from your shopkeepers and present a prize or two to the best unit in the parade. The Red Cross and Fire Fighting Units should also be asked to participate. So, what about it, Dungarvan? "WATERFORD L.D.F. MAN."

BALLINACULTY HURLING CLUB. To Editor, "Dungarvan Observer." A Charter was much pleasure in announcing the revival of hurling in Ballinaculty after a number of years. Some 120 Ballinaculty were very much in the fore in hurling and were being beaten by a point in a County Final by Windgap. Our present team is only in its infancy and great things cannot be expected from them presently, but I expect they will be heard of to advantage in the near future. Our club is badly in need of funds and we appeal to our Gaelic friends in Ballinaculty district to give support to the Club by giving a subscription, large or small, to any member of the Club. P. NAGLE, Acting Secretary.

THE FIRST MEETING OF BOARD. Sunday next at 8.00 p.m. is zero hour. All the cumans will be in Cappoquin in strength. The meeting is always the most cheerful and well conducted of the year. The prospect of starting off again seems to put the delegates in great form. The Divisional Secretary has asked me to mention that he will be in attendance at the Schoolhouse at 2.30 p.m. (S.T.) to give clubs a chance of getting terms registered and securing regarding transfer farms, etc. Clubs not yet entered should note this. See next week's "Notes" for highlights of Sunday's meeting.

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

Mr. Theo. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman, presided at the weekly meeting of the above on Friday last. Other members present were Messrs. J. Dahill, M. Connors, J. J. Crotty, and Senator J. Butler.

APPLICATION FOR HOUSE.
A man named Moylan, who had applied for the tenancy of one of the vacant houses in Cathal Brugha Place again came before the members and asked for a definite answer as to whether he would get the house.
Mr. Crotty—I think we recommended this man for a house provided he got a surety. He is living with his family in a small house where another family lives.
Chairman—If you think we recommended him for the house, but we asked the Rent Collector to report to the Council on his application, that even if we recommended a tenant Mr. Walsh can turn down our recommendation.
Moylan—I can have two sureties at 11 o'clock in the morning.
Mr. Crotty—He should get this house.
Chairman—All we can do is to recommend it to the rent collector.
Moylan—I hope I will get it, its inhuman that I am present.

ALLOTMENT PLOTS.
Two men representing the Plotters' Association came before the meeting and asked that the ploughing of the land rented from Mrs. Moloney be speeded up.
The Clerk said the Department's Inspector said that the ploughing of stubble land will not be sanctioned.
Mr. Hogan (for Plotters)—That will mean that we must pay for the ploughing ourselves.
Mr. Butler—Would it not be better to write to the Department?
Chairman—Where are these poor unemployed men to get money to pay for ploughing?
Clerk—I will write the Department in the morning.
Mr. Crotty—The last letter sent to the Department took 7 weeks to be replied to.
Applications are still coming in even though the closing date was fixed and again extended to 31st December last.

MANURE IN DEPOT.
The Clerk said he drew the attention of the Department to the manure lying in the Council depot at Youghal Road, he understood they were prepared to allow 3/6 a ton for it in lieu of artificial.
Mr. Crotty—That's ridiculous, I could get 10/- a ton for it.
Replying to Mr. Butler the clerk said it would take at least 2 1/2 a load to have it delivered at the plots.
Mr. Connors—How would it be divided between the plotters?
Clerk—The plotters suggested delivering it to the nearest plot field.
After some more discussion it was decided to pay the manure to the Department at 7/.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.
A letter from Mrs. Nora Cashin, Abbeville, thanking the Council on behalf of herself and family for the resolution of sympathy passed to them in respect of her late husband, KILDRANGAN WATER SUPPLY.
A report from Mr. P. Dalton, Caretaker of the above reservoir was read and considered most satisfactory. There was also a request for a suit of oils and rubber boots and an application for permission to fill one of the fields adjoining the reservoir.
Mr. Crotty—This place is very much improved. This is the place we were told to scrap but Dr. Casey advised us not to do so.
Chairman—What about the oils and boots?
Mr. Crotty—Give them.
Mr. Butler—It will be hard to get rubber boots now.
Chairman—How about the tilling of the land?
Mr. Dahill—There was tillage there by the previous caretaker. I saw it tilled.
Mr. Crotty—I would not favour that.
Mr. Dahill—I saw it tilled before.
Mr. Crotty—You give permission, the agreement is for grazing.
It was decided to draw up an agreement giving the caretaker permission to till one field.

BALDWIN.
H. J. Shier, Hon. Sec., wrote on behalf of the Monroe Baldwin Club asking for the use of the Hall on Thursdays.
The Clerk said that the L.D.F. and L.S.F. had the use of the Hall and suggested that Mr. Shier arrange with them regarding Thursdays.

RESOLUTION FOR KILLARNEY U.D.C.
The following resolution read from the Killarney Urban District Council was unanimously adopted—
That we request the Minister for Local Government and Public Health to extend the housing grants for new houses and reconstruction grants to the Urban Districts which would relieve the housing shortage and help to make many houses habitable besides helping to relieve unemployment.

DUNGARVAN MILK FOR DUBLIN.
A letter from the Department of Local Government and Public Health informed the Council that the Minister has under the Emergency Powers conferred on him, issued a special licence to the Dungarvan Co-operative Creamery, Ltd. entitling them to sell in the Dublin District milk pasteurized by them.

HOUSING.
The Department writing on the survey of houses reported on in 1938 as unfit for human habitation but capable of being rendered fit, asked if the report of the B.S. has yet been considered by the Council.
The letter directed that the procedure specified by the Department be observed in dealing with houses which are anticipated to be made the subject of applications for the provision of the Housing Act 1937. Section 3 of the Housing Act 1937 and requested a report in the matter as to progress made.
Clerk—Reports were asked for from the officials concerned.

LISMORE NOTES
SUCCESSFUL CEILLIDHE.
The Town Hall was the scene of a sparkling festival of Irish dancing on Sunday night last when the Tourin hurling and football club held another of their popular ceillidhe. There were almost 200 couples pre-arranged and each and everyone had a thorough night's enjoyment dancing to the strains of the Lismore Ceillidhe Band (specially augmented) under the able conductorship of Mr. Tom Keating. Amongst the youthful crowd we noticed the faces of many old-timers who had slogged out back to enjoy a night in the good old-fashioned way and they certainly were not disappointed, for an excellent blend of Irish and old time dances was provided throughout the night. During the interval, Sergeant P. Graham gave a fine rendering of two well-known songs, and received a tremendous ovation. A drawing of prizes in aid of the club also took place and the lucky winner of 100 cigarettes was Mr. J. Meehan, Co. Longueue, Cappoquin. The second prize was won by Miss M. Aherne, Cappoquin, and the third went to Master Sean Griffin, Tourin. At the conclusion of the dance, Mr. J. P. O'Donnell, chairman of the club, warmly thanked the patrons for their splendid support. The onerous duties of M.C. were capably discharged by Mr. Jack Barry, Tourin.

DEPARTURE OF POPULAR L.D.F. OFFICER.
A presentation was made by the Welfare Committee of the Lismore District Staff, L.D.F., to Mr. John Danaher, a popular official of the club, who was to depart for Tralee, where he has been transferred. Mr. Danaher has been quartermaster of the Lismore District Staff since its inception, during which time he won the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact, for his efficiency coupled with a genial optimism. The Staff will feel the loss of one who was an ardent worker in the interests of the L.D.F. The presentation, a canteen of cutlery, was made by Mr. L. O'Donnell, Assistant District Leader, Lismore, who, in an address, paid a high tribute to the sterling qualities of the outgoing quartermaster. Mr. O'Donnell expressed the regret of the staff at the loss of such an enthusiastic officer, whom he said, they would find it hard to replace. Other speakers were Mr. G. Healy, Assis. Dist. M.O., Cappoquin; Mr. Wm. O'Don-

CO. WATERFORD PLOUGHING CHAMPIONSHIP.
Very fine weather favoured the County Waterford Ploughing Championship and other competitions which were successfully brought through on Thursday last week at Ballyshunock, Kilmachthomas, under the management of the Newtown Ploughing Committee. To the drive for further increased tillage is attributable the wonderful interest evinced in the event, the monster attendance being representative of all parts of the Decies, and contingents were also present from South East Cork, South Tipperary, County Kilkenny and Westport. Kindly Kent by deservingly popular Mr. Edmond Cummins, farmer, Ballyshunock, was the large field in which the tests took place and which had not been broken for a considerable number of years. Similar to that of last year was the number of competitors taking part in three classes consisting of (A) Open County Championship; (B) Open to those who never won first prize in this grade; and (C) Novice Competition. Messrs. R. Holohan, ex-T.D., Knocktober, Co. Kilkenny, and M. Kinsella, Mooncoin, do, officiated as judges. Messrs. Hurley, B.Sc., and J. O'Dwyer, Secretary, represented the County Committee of Agriculture (which body, by the way, granted a subsidy of £20 to the fixture). The standard of work was very good throughout and was highly praised by both judges. The winner of the County Championship displayed very fine ploughing technique, being awarded 1st prize and the prize for the best entry. The success of the fixture was largely due to the work of the energetic committee in charge, viz., Messrs. John Kiersey, ex-T.D., (president); James Gough (chairman), Pat Cummins (hon. treas.), Michael Cummins, Edmond Cummins, Simon Kenny, Edmond Rockett, James Kelly, Patrick Kelly, Patrick Nugent, Patrick Gough, T. Whelan, Edmond Drohan, Frank Drohan, P.C., and Laurence Veale and D. J. Kiersey (joint hon. secs.). Not the slightest semblance of a hitch marred the enactment of the day's card, which was completed in excellent time. The results were: Class A—1st, Thomas Whelan, Carron, Co. Kilmachthomas; 2nd, Edmond O'Sullivan, Carriganure, Kilmachthomas; 3rd, James Kelly, Ballyshunock, Kilmachthomas. Best Centre—Thomas Whelan. Best Furrow—James Kelly. Class B—1st, Michael Hayes, Butlerstown, Waterford; 2nd, Edmond Hartley, Dunhill, Annetstown, and J. Gough, The Portlaw L.D.F. Group, is second son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Duggan, Co. Wick, and brother of Mr. Patrick Duggan, a prominent player on the Portlaw senior hurling team and a valued member of the staff of Irish Teachers, Limited. The bride is eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Daly, Grove House.

Their troops and legion of friends unite in warmly wishing Mr. and Mrs. Duggan length of years in full enjoyment of the graces and blessings of conjugal bliss.

THE LATE MISS MARY KIERSEY.
Office and High Mass for the repose of the soul of the late Miss Mary Kiersey, Kilmachthomas, were offered up at the Convent Church there on Wednesday morning, 4th inst., the celebrant of the Mass being Rev. J. Hally, C.C., Kilmachthomas, Rev. M. Power, C.C., Kill, sub-deacon, Rev. W. Meehan, C.C., Kilmachthomas; master of ceremonies, Rev. D. Power, Assis. St. John's, Waterford. In the choir were: Very Rev. T. Galvin, P.P., Newtown; Very Rev. M. F. Hearty, P.P., Portlaw; Very Rev. E. English, P.P., Stradbally; Very Rev. J. Crotty, P.P., Kilmachthomas; Very Rev. M. Dowley, P.P., Ballyduff; Rev. T. Power, C.C., Portlaw; and Rev. J. Hart, C.C., Carrick-on-Suir. The remains had lain in the church overnight and immediately after the Mass the funeral procession started for Newtown Cemetery, where interment took place. All the priests already named again officiated at the grave-side in the presence of an enormous gathering of the general public. A number of beautiful floral wreaths were laid on the grave and showers of Mass Cards and messages of condolence were received. The chief mourners were: Messrs. Patrick Kiersey, Kilmachthomas and John Kiersey, Ballyhassa, do. (brothers); Mrs. C. Power, Dungarvan (sister); Mrs. P. Kiersey, Kilmachthomas (sister-in-law); Messrs. David Kiersey, Kilmachthomas; Thomas Kiersey, Waterford; David J. Kiersey, Ballyhassa; David Power, Dungarvan, and Thomas Power, do. (nephews); Mrs. E. Mulcahy, Clonmel; Mrs. H. M. Palmer, Waterford, and the Misses Kiersey, Ballyhassa (nieces); Mrs. Fleming, Youghal; Miss O'Neill, Dungarvan; Mr. Thomas G. Flaherty, Portlaw; Mr. James Flaherty, Kilmachthomas; Mr. Timothy Dowley, do.; Very Rev. M. Dowley, P.P., Ballyduff, and Mr. John Dowley, Ballykneff (cousins).
Telegrams and letters conveying messages of condolence were received from: Barbara, Bolger;

The usual monthly meeting of the Traamore Divisional Staff and officers of the respective groups in the area was held at the Co. House, Kilmachthomas, on Tuesday night, when a big agenda of business was dealt with.

ENJOYABLE SOCIAL.
The annual dance and re-union of the members, supporters and well-wishers of the Newtown Ploughing Committee took place in the New Hall, Kilmachthomas, on Sunday night last. The splendid ballroom was filled to capacity, the attendance including people from the city and county and adjoining centres. The function was a delightful success from every point of view and everyone left in the morning with very happy memories of an extremely pleasurable occasion. The artistic decoration of the hall gave a festive air to the proceedings. Music was faultlessly rendered by the Premier Dance Band (Waterford). Mr. Paddy Barron discharged the duties of M.C. with wonted ability. The members of the committee deserve to be congratulated for the pronounced success crowning their efforts. The brunt of the responsibility and work fell, naturally, on the shoulders of the jovial joint hon. secretaries, Messrs. D. J. Kiersey and Laurence Veale. Both are worthy of the very best thanks, not only of the committee, for the financial success achieved, but also of the dance-loving fraternity for the social pre-eminence attained at these reunions.

STRADBALLY HARRIERS' CLUB.
As advertised, the first annual dance under the auspices of the above-named sterling sporting set will be brought off in the New Hall, Kilmachthomas, on to-morrow (Sunday) night, and no effort is being spared to make the affair the most pleasurable ever. The Premier Dance Band has been engaged to provide the music. Dancing will commence at 9 o'clock (S.T.) and will continue up to 2 a.m. Mr. Paddy Barron will fill his usual role of M.C. and light refreshments can be had if required. Admission (including tax) 2/6. The youth and beauty of the Barones will not miss this sure-to-be sparkling treat.

G.A.A.
A nice-sized crowd enjoyed the two-part programme staged at the Ballyduff-Kilmeaden venue last Sunday. In the junior football league, the final (county division) Fenor-bested Newtown by 2-3 to 0-2. Ned Nugent on the vanquished side was the best player on view. The minor hurling mix between Portlaw and Butlerstown wound up in favour of the former by 3-2 to 1-2. At Newtown on to-morrow (Sunday)—Portlaw v. Ballyduff, junior hurling (semi-final of league, county division), 3.30 p.m.; Newtown v. Butlerstown, minor football (challenge), 2.15 p.m. Granted reasonably fine weather this brace of bouts should be seen by a good crowd.

TALLOW RACES

Point-to-Point Season Opens.

A record crowd were present and witnessed some very nice racing at Tallow on Wednesday last. Taking the fixture as a criterion, the point-to-point season in the South looks like being most successful, for there was every element that would go to make up a good meeting. There was not a lot to jump, and the going was good, but there were many falls, though fortunately, neither horses nor riders were injured.

There were a crop of incidents in the Live-weight Race. Hidden Page fell early, but was remounted. Gallivanter fell at halfway and then Perculator, mistaking the course, ran out. The Green Minstrel beating Hidden Page in the run home. Casualties were many in the Maiden Race, all except the winner falling at some stage. Castle-comer and Economic looked like fighting out the finish but they fell a quarter of a mile from home, and then Killatinn resisted a challenge from the remounted Economic. Golden Rust was looked on as good for Heavy-weight Race, and he was always in front until a quarter of a mile from home, when he came to grief, and Easter Hero won comfortably. The old reliable, Sevenside II, came to the rescue of backers in the Subscribers' Plate. Almost from the start he was in front and never looked like being pressed. It was left to the concluding event to provide the best finish of the day. Springfield Boy had made most of running and had to go all out to resist a strong challenge from Midnight Sun. Details—

KILMORE PLATE (Confined). £17, £2, £1. About 3 1/2 miles.—Mr. J. Curley's Springfield Boy, by the Publican, dam by Peter White. 12-11. Mr. W. Whelan, Mr. J. O'Keefe's Midnight Sun, 12-10. Mr. B. Lane, 2. Mr. P. Walsh's Fanny's Knight, 12-0. Mr. P. Sheehan, also ran—Cottage Golden, Mr. T. Bennett, 31. and 501. Fanny's Knight fell.

DROMANA PLATE (Light-weight). £17, £2, £1. About 3 1/2 miles.—Mr. D. Heskin's The Green Minstrel, 12-7. Mr. E. Flynn, 3. Miss M. R. Conran's Maiden Page, 12-7. Mr. W. Tracey, 2. Also ran—Gallivanter II, Mr. B. Whelan; Perculator, Mr. T. Walsh. Hidden Page and Gallivanter II fell. Perculator ran out.

MOOREHILL NOTES

OBITUARY

The announcement of the death of Maurice O'Brien, Carrageen, (late of Ballyhamlet) was received with feelings of deep regret in this, his native parish, and not in this parish alone, but all over the Decies where deceased was well and popularly known, and his death after a short illness is deeply regretted. Worthy member of an old and highly respected family, the late Mr. O'Brien was well known and valued for his many sterling qualities. He was a keen sportsman and all outdoor sport, racing, coursing and hurling had a very enthusiastic follower in the deceased. He was a worthy member of the Holy Catholic Church, an excellent neighbour and a sincere friend. Modest, unassuming and genial in manner he had warmly endeared himself to all who had the pleasure of knowing him. The deep sympathy of the entire community is extended to his wife, daughters, sisters and other members of the family in their bereavement and loss. The funeral took place from St. Columba Church to the family burial ground at Ballynacree, where all that was mortal of deceased was reverently laid to rest in the presence of innumerable relatives, friends and sympathisers. At 6 o'clock he was buried in a coffin.

SUCCESSFUL DANCE AT KNOCKANORE.

The Knockanore Harrier Club held their annual re-union dance at Knockanore Hall on Sunday night and it was an outstanding success. In addition to a big attendance from Knockanore, parties attended from all the surrounding districts, and all had a very pleasant and enjoyable time dancing to the strains of a first-class band. It was voted by all present to be one of the most successful and enjoyable dances ever held at this popular centre and a wonderful night concluded with the playing of the National Anthem.

SPEED THE PLOUGH.

The drive to grow more food is meeting with a great response around Moorehill district. Fields that have not been tilled within a number of years are being ploughed and everyone is anxious to help for after all, we should do our best to keep the emergency food has given us soil as capable of producing food as any all over the world, so all must come to the rescue and do all they can to help to grow more food.

DANCE AT MOOREHILL.

All roads lead to Moorehill on Sunday night for the first grand social before Lent. The local hall is being specially prepared for the occasion and a record attendance is expected. The music will be supplied by the Evergreen Orchestra, which will be specially augmented for the occasion. So join with the merry crowd on Sunday night, for nobody should miss this joyous function.

Ordination at St. John's College, Waterford.

An ordination ceremony in which three young students from Mount Mellary Seminary, were raised to the priest's hood took place in St. John's College, Waterford, on Sunday last, 8th inst. The newly ordained clergymen are Rev. Fr. Oliver Barrett, Drogheda; Rev. Fr. Lascaris (Doyle, Carlow); Rev. Fr. Fintan O'Neill, Dungarvan. The sacred ceremony was performed by His Grace, Archbishop Kinane, assisted by a number of clergymen. A large number of relatives and friends of the three young priests were present. At Mount Mellary Abbey on Monday, the holy sacrifice of the Mass was offered by all three priests before large congregations, including family relatives and friends. Rev. Fr. Fintan is son of Mr. Joseph O'Neill, retired Manager of the Munster and Leinster Bank, and of Mrs. O'Neill, Kildarra, Waterford. We join with their legion of friends in wishing these three young workers in the vineyard, length of years in health and strength to pursue their noble and sacred calling.

Compulsory Tillage.

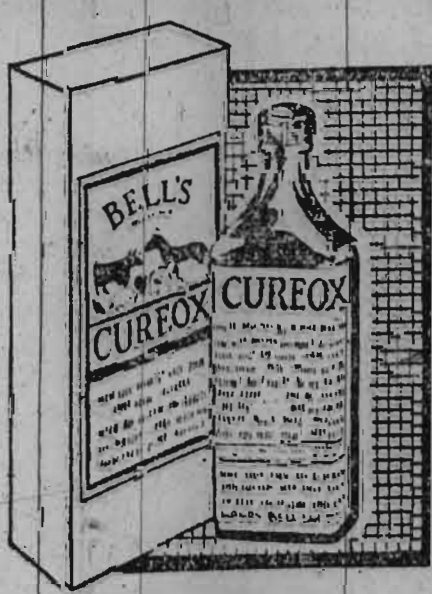

Inspectors of the Department of Agriculture are now actively engaged in taking over land on which it is evident that an effort is not being made by the occupiers to comply with the tillage requirements for the year 1942. Arrangements are being made to have these lands cultivated by contract holdings or otherwise. In addition legal action will be taken against the defaulters concerned. Strong measures are being adopted to ensure that at least the required quota will be tilled on every holding.
