GAELIC NOTES (SENIOR CLUBS)

By " Taobline "

Brickeys.—Discussing the forthcoming senior football clash, between the Brickeys and Kilrossanty during the week I was informed, and regretted very much to hear that Paddy Joe McGrath, one of the "star" Brickey players was most likely to be out of the game for some time owing to a recent injury. I am are I am only voicing the wish of all Gaels in wishing P. J. a speedy recovery, and that he will be able to play on May Sunday. The loss of this young and promising player would be a serious set back to the Black and Amber supporters, who say we must be at our best to beat Kilrossanty. Rumour is misleading now-a-days but I hope there is no truth in the latest rumour that, Ned Power, another Brickey stalwart is shortly going to England, to take up a position there. Ned, one of the fairest in the game would be a big lose now that P. J. McGrath is doubtful. Martin Curran, however, says, "we have tons of material to select a position there. Ned, one of the fairest in the game would be a big loss now that P. J. McGrath is doubtful. Martin Curran, however, says, "we have tons of material to select from and we have no fears of being ousted by the Comeragh men in the first round."

Stradhshly.—"Tuddles" again. I asked the question on Sunday last at Faha, was T. ("Tuddles") Corbett retiring from the game? I was teligible to hear that he will probably again figure on the Stradbally senior team in this year's championships. It is a score of years ago when first I saw "Tuddles" playing in Shandon field, and strange to my memory in those days he was more at home when playing in his 'stockined feet. I was presented during the week with a G.A.A. calendar for Waterford. I am very grateful to the County Secretary for being so thoughtful, as the calendar is a very neat "turn out" and included a lovel photograph of the Stradbally team, senior football County champions, 1940 and 1941. Any Stradbally supporter desirious of procuring a calendar, should apply to Deuglan Guid, Runaidhe, Coisde Conndae, Dungarbhain.

Kilrossanty,—"Monnie" McGuire again in the news. He gave an outstanding display in the All-Army final at the Curragh during the week there was great Monnie was praised very highly and received special mention on the "Curragh Bulletin" and Dublin daily newspapers. At Leamybrien during the week there was great Gaelic activities, More than 20 of the Kilrossanty seniors were limberiated activities, in More than 20 of the Kilrossanty seniors were limberiated activities, and the cores Them.

Gaelic activities. More than 20 of the Kilrossanty seniors were lin ing up in a bog near the cross. They were coached from the side line by none other than Paddy McGrath, a veteran of the 1919 team. Paddy, who is a general favourite, will not hear of his team's defeat when they meet the Brickeys. Remember addy! Come with the team when hey line out against the Brickeys and do not stay at home like you did, when they defeated Dungarvan, in the Green Cross Fund match. May be, however, the old proverb, "it is the championship that really unts," stayed you. Dungarvan.-The "Blues" seem to have made a start for the year's acti-vities. Several of the seniors turned out punctually for practice this week. Their defeat by Kilrossanty seemed to be an incentive to some of the footballers, who, indeed, needed a little training. Speaking to a member of the Club Committee recently I was informed that the senior a member of the Club Committee recently I was informed that the senior hurlers, last year's County champions, had not yet received their medals. Surely, the County Board are not going to include another set on the "long list." All Dungarvan Gaels are eagerly awaiting the Street League final between the "Shandon Rovers" and the "Wasps." I was asked a few days ago if the final was ever going to be played. I was not in a position then to give a reply, but I have learned since from reliable authority, that the Street League final will be played on the first available Sunday. Perhaps the County senior hurling selection committee may like to see the game. I am afraid they need a lot of limbering up, more so in my opinion than the players.

Thereis a Diagraphic Gibbons the existing that the senior hurlers, Vincent Cudahy and John Mackey. Cudahy has been transferred to Leix and Mackey (not the Limerick Mackey) has asked permission to return to his native Mooncoin. Both those transfers will mean a serious loss to the "Saints" this year. Nevertheless, in Brother Brendan they have a Gael who will not how down to set-backs, and his "keep the flag flying" policy is to be admired not alone in Stephens.

Tourin.—Diarmuid Gibbons the exCobh player is now eligible to turn out with Tourin, and his appearance with the senior team may strengthen Tourin's hopes for their forthcoming clash with their neighbours, Lismore at Tallow in June. John Fives, who replaced Tom Phelan as secretary to the Club is a promising young hurler, who I expect to see more of in inter-county competitions. John, who is tall, strong and well-built, is the leading light in Tourin Gaelic activities to-day. I understand Tom Phelan, last year's junior captain has joined the Defence Forces. Tom was instrumental last year in securing for his club, County junior honours, and to his efficiency on and off the field, the champions owe their success.

Lismore.—I was more than sur-Portlaw have arranged a senior hurling friendly with their cross-theriver neighbours, Mullinavat. Billy Campbell will be making his first appearance with the team, and all "Leather City" supporters are looking forward to seeing him in action against the Kilkenny men. I was, howeven surprised last week to note that John Whelan, the Portlaw full

Lismore.—I was more than surprised to note that two Lismore players. Mick Regan and Joe Duggan, were not included on the Waterford team who were selected to play against Cork on Sunday last, in Cork for the match in aid of the "Ga" Ahearne fund. In my opinion Mick Regan would have filled the full back position admirably, and youthful Joe could, indeed, be easily included in our full line of attack. Now is the time Mick and Joe start your training immediately. I am backing ye both to redeem yourselves in the near future.

and to his immediate relatives the sincere sympathy, of their many friends and neighbours is extended. Deceased, who was of a most unassuming disposition was exceed-ingly popular in his immediate district. The attendance of sympathisers and the general public, at the removal of the remains to the Parish Church illustrated fully the popularity of deceased and the sorrow felt at his demise. Equally large numbers were present at the interment which took place in the new cemetery adjoining the church. Very Rev. Fr. Kehoe, assisted by Rev. Fr. Corbett. C.C., officiated at the graveside. At Mitchelstown Point-to-Point meeting on Monday last, two well-known local owners' horses filled the first and third berths in the Heavyweight Race; they were Mr. D. Kenneally's Cottage Ben, and Mr. P. Curley's Springfield Boy. At the same venue, Mr. T. Walsh's Castlecorner, ridden by the owner, won her third race for the season, when she captured the Lightweight Race from Golden Rust, the property of another well-known owner and layer of odds, viz., Mr. D. Noonan whose stable hasn't had all the luck it deserves this season. Aran Bard, owned by Mr. E. Rice, who had its initial outing at the local meeting, ably ridden by Mr. J. J. Quinn, won readily the Maiden Race.

In every part of the country the miracle of Spring is on the way, and the tiny seeds committed to the gentle earth by the sower are germinating: giving the promise of a bountiful harvest in a year when more than ever before there is a necessity to utilise fully the gifts which Nature has bestowed

What a wonderful return we secure from the sowing of these tiny containers of potential energy! From the microscopic seed will come the bountiful harvest on which our very existence will depend in these difficult days.

Just as the stately plant is the product of the seed, the small premiums paid by Policyholders of The Irish Assurance Company, Ltd., will provide a capital sum at the end of a selected period or at death, and in this case there need be no fear of a poor harvest as the security of our Policies is absolute. lars of our profitable Assurances will be gladly given by our Representatives, or apply to:-
