Kilrossanty v. Brickey Rangers.
With M. Donnelly, centre-half back and Stephen Hickey full-back, the Brickey Rangers are confident of defeating Kilrossanty in the medal tournament at Dungarvan on Sunday. We understand there will probably be a few changes on the side. Paddy Barry may be in goal and Howell and Slattery may get places. Paddy Daly will turn out for Kilrossanty but Paddy Wade will be absent to the medal tournament at Dungarvan on Sunday. We understand there will probably be a few changes on the side. Power, D.S.O.1, who was unavoldably absent thanked the doctor for his work on behalf of the L.S.F., the men who took part, for the work they had put-into their preparation, the members of the Vocational Education Committee for so kindly putting their premises at the disposal of the L.S.F. for the day. He also thanked Mr. L. Comerford (Red Cross Branch) for his kindness in lending some equipment for the competition. The members of the team were reminded that competition was not the "be all and end all" of their existence; it was only a means to an end—the giving of help to those in need of it. It is proposed in the near future to hold an inter-district competition in first

We wish our local representatives every success, but warn them that they have hard preparations before them. At least, that is an opinion from what we have heard about the winners of the Tramore area con tition. The Dungarvan Group L.S.F. are to be congratulated on the success of their first competition in first aid. We heartily wish them similar success in any and every similar comDungarvan
