Death of Mr. J. Halpin, Durrow, Stradbally.

It is with the most sincere regret that the announcement of the death of Mr. John Halpin, Durrow, Stradbally, is made. He died at his residence on Saturday of last week (Festival of St. Lawerence Justinian), in the fullness of his years, having been in indifferent health for some few months. The late Mr. Halpin was well known as an industrious, progressive farmer. He was a man of unbounded generosity and all forms of outdoor sports had in him a liberal patron. In agricultural matters his advice was eagerly sought and always helpful.

Deceased was for years an enthusiastic worker in the language revival movement, and keenly interested in thing Irish and national. He was a most exemplary Catholic, and it is a matter of consolation to his friends that he passed peacefully to his reward as he lived, resigned to the will
