Nine Meet Lismore—The Div. final in junior football, Nire v. Lismore, takes place at Keshigo on Sunday. The Nire are taking to it as usual although very confident of victory. A full selection has been listed by them for the game. Bill Ryan told me he believes they will win well. Lismore are out to secure the double honour of this year and are now as keen on securing the football championships as they were on the hurling. They have several useful Army men that have made a big improvement in their team. Joe Mason will act as referee. Ardmore Gael Brevard.—His many friends in the G.A.A. all over the county will join me in extending to Mr. Con Downey, of Ardmore Club and his family, my deepest sympathy on the recent death of his father, Mr. Con Downey, one of the veteran Gacks that were once proud of serving the Association in every way possible. We said that we had many more like him. I trust it will be many years before 'posibly' any kind will come to this great Gack.

GEO. PRESCOTT & SON IRELAND'S LEADING OPTICIANS

Once again GEO. PRESCOTT & SON—Ireland's leading opticians—place their skill, experience, and their wonderful scientific sight-testing apparatus at your disposal. £500 WIND MISSED BY ONE ERROR. £23 6s. 8d. WON. The Westford Solutonist was £23 6s. 8d. m. S. Indpt. No. 307. Missed £500 outright by one error. The word "that" sent to all clients turned up as "Blow" in Results. All clients got the same guaranteed "bankers" every week. When the client wins, others also win. Yet one client can win £500 outright. The Secret—sent to clients only. Week after week my clients capture the bulk of the "Big Prizes". Send 2/- stamped envelope, for revealing particulars. I guarantee you a win in 8 weeks. J. MERRIMAN (D.O.), COMPETITION SPECIALIST, VEX FORD.

WATERFORD U.D.C. The quarterly meeting of the above was held on Friday last, Mr. T. McCarthy, Chairman, presided; others in attendance were Messrs. L. A. Veale, T. A. Kynce, J. Egan, M. Morrissey, T.D., M. Clancy, J. McGrath and Senator Butler. Mr. S. J. Hynihan, Manager, was also present. Provision of Lavatories.—The provision of lavatories in the town, especially one on the Square, was debated, and the Manager promised to take up the matter with the B.S. Tourist Board.—The possibility of securing a grant from the Tourist Board for the provision of baths, etc. was discussed and the Clerk was directed to get in touch with An Fear Mór (a member of the Board) on the subject. Weekly Meetings.—The Council discussed the necessity or otherwise of holding weekly meetings and the matter is to be further discussed at next meeting. Retirement of Canon Going.—On the proposal of Mr. Kynce, a resolution expressing regret at the departure on retirement, of the Canon Going, after 25 years in the area, was passed unanimously. Town Hall Improvements.—Mr. Veale moved the notice of motion: "That the Council arrange for the provision of £300 for the carrying out of the improvements." A letter was read from the Manager, M. & L. Bank, stating that the money would be made available provided sanction of the almsmen was received. After a protracted discussion, an amendment by Mr. Clancy and the original motion were withdrawn, on the understanding that the Manager and B.S. would arrive at a decision on the repairs necessary which will ensure that a dance license for the hall can be secured. Reports Asked.—Arising out of a letter from the B.S. stating that he would be unable to attend the meeting, but that he would attend any other meeting the Council wished instead, the members expressed a wish for reports to be made on the progress of the work at the Deish Dam and at the Swimming Pool. Sympathy.—Votes of sympathy were passed to Mrs. Patrick Foley and the relative of the late Mrs. Guiry, Rice's Street.

LISMORE NOTES. The Marriage with Nuptial Mass took place at Ballybrien Church, Waterford, on 19th inst. of Mr. Jack Coleman, second son of Mr. J. Coleman, New St., Lismore, and Miss Rosaleen Clancy, youngest daughter of Mr. W. and Mrs. Clancy, Clashra Place, Waterford. The ceremony was performed by the Ven. Archdeacon Kelleher, S.T.L., V.E., P.P. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Maurea Clancy, and the best man was Mr. M. Coleman, brother of the groom. KILMACKTHOMAS NOTES. Obituary.—The remains of the late Sergt. Pilot Phelan, eldest son of Mr. N. F. Phelan, ex-T.D., and Mrs. Phelan, Cove Cottage, Stradbally, whose death (the result of an aircraft accident) was reported in our last issue, arrived at Durrus Station at 6 p.m. on Friday last and were removed to the Parish Church, Stradbally, where they were received by the very Rev. E. English, P.P., do., and Rev. J. Lavin, C.C., do. The accompanying cortege on the occasion was over a mile long. On Saturday morning, Masses of Requiem were offered up by the aforementioned priests and the funeral took place on the same day, at 2 p.m., for Newtown via Kilmackthomas. Never perhaps in the memory of Stradbally people was there seen such an extraordinary manifestation of public mourning for the loss of a valued neighbor or of sympathy with his bereaved relatives. Here was proof, palpable but unmistakable, that the deceased had in the fullness of his heart, and devotedly attached, shared a happy death on Friday of last week, following a comparatively short illness, and in the fullness of her days. The representative and large size of the cortege, both to the Parish Church, Newtown, on Saturday evening (where the remains were received by V. Rev. T. Galvin, P.P., who recited the prayers for the dead) and to the family burial place at Ballylucan the following day, bore sufficient testimony to the sincere regard of her departed. The Rev. P. Walsh, C.C., Stradbally, officiated at the graveside.—R.I.P. Examination Results.—We direct the attention of our readers to the examination results appearing elsewhere in this issue (page 1) of the Ballylucan Christian School. Sacred Heart Confraternity.—At the Parish Church, Dungarvan, on this (Friday) evening, 30th inst., the Men's meeting takes place. There will be a reception of new members immediately after the meeting. DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL. NOTICE RE VACANT HOUSES. APPLICATIONS for tenancy of a Vacant Urban Council House must be made to TOWN CLERK, TOWN HALL, DUNGARVAN. Conveying by or on behalf of any applicant, STRICTLY FORBIDDEN, and may lead to disqualification. S. J. MOYNIHAN, Manager.

Obituary.—The remains of the late Sergt. Pilot Phelan, eldest son of Mr. N. F. Phelan, ex-T.D., and Mrs. Phelan, Cove Cottage, Stradbally, whose death (the result of an aircraft accident) was reported in our last issue, arrived at Durrus Station at 6 p.m. on Friday last and were removed to the Parish Church, Stradbally, where they were received by the very Rev. E. English, P.P., do., and Rev. J. Lavin, C.C., do. The accompanying cortege on the occasion was over a mile long. On Saturday morning, Masses of Requiem were offered up by the aforementioned priests and the funeral took place on the same day, at 2 p.m., for Newtown via Kilmackthomas. Never perhaps in the memory of Stradbally people was there seen such an extraordinary manifestation of public mourning for the loss of a valued neighbor or of sympathy with his bereaved relatives. Here was proof, palpable but unmistakable, that the deceased had in the fullness of his heart, and devotedly attached, shared a happy death on Friday of last week, following a comparatively short illness, and in the fullness of her days. The representative and large size of the cortege, both to the Parish Church, Newtown, on Saturday evening (where the remains were received by V. Rev. T. Galvin, P.P., who recited the prayers for the dead) and to the family burial place at Ballylucan the following day, bore sufficient testimony to the sincere regard of her departed. The Rev. P. Walsh, C.C., Stradbally, officiated at the graveside.—R.I.P.
