THE BOYS OF COMERAGH.

Kilrossanty has a great football tradition since the days when Patsy Wall led his men into Clonmel to be unluckily beaten by one point by the famous All-Ireland Champions, Bohercrowe.

We'll sing about praises of the colours green and gold.

Against the Brickey Rangers first a drawn game they played. Hard pressed for want of practice, a gallant fight they made. Colbeck Street, Waterford, But next against Dungarvan, they showed both style and speed: of Sale. or to the Auclineers, And scored six times against the breeze and never lost the lead.

> In the replay they showed their worth and won the game in style. Although the gallant Brickies they held them for a while. But Crotty, Power and Dykey, outstanding on that day, Lynch, Lannon, Pats, Mick Whelan, they kept them well at bay.

> Again they beat the Brickies but lost the final game Against the boys of Stradbally already known to fame. And wasn't it a thriller, the tale is worth being told. Of how the wearers of the red just beat the green and gold The ball was thrown between them, excitement running high. The leather soon was soaring, it almost reached the sky.

Mick Whelan, fouled, just missed a goal, but Dalton, straight and true. 27th instant, if not previously dis- He sent a beauty o'er the bar and up the white flag flew.

Then Matty Ryan was cheering, old star from Leamybrien; And Johnny, too, we heard his shout, it rang along the line: And Mary Gulley gave her cheer, and Maurice Hurley, Who shone in many a hard-fought game, for old Kilrossanty. and John Kett would pull us through.

Then for a set of medals those heroes met once more. Fast and scientific was the game, a thrill before each score.

Sayers and Wade, a great game played. Tom Veale was brilliant. And Kilrossanty were victors when the final whistle blew.

And Johnny Drohan in the goal, with Maher shone that day. Our backs and forwards all were stars, our midfield men O.K.
And here's a health to Stradbally, her true and valiant men. When next they meet the Comeragh boys, may we be there again.

Ballingown, Kilrossanty.
