LISMORE NOTES.

Red Cross "Rag" Day.—The firs "Rag" Day within the recent history of our town, which was held on Sunquietude. Church services were, as usual, attended by large and devout congregations and on all sides one heard expressions of good will and wishes that 1943 may witness a cessation to the awful conflict which is bringing ruin and disaster to the world to-day.

Bowling.—On New Year's Day an interesting bowling contest took place locally, the contenders being, Messrs. J. J. O'Sullivan and W. O'Donnell, both well known leading exponents of the popular pastime. Following keen bowling Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan proved victorious. The contest aroused the greatest interest locally.

The Confrateraity.—At the usual monthly meeting of the Women's Confraternity on Sunday evening last, Rev. Fr. T. Dunphy, C.C., Spiritual Director compilizant of the Red Cross Society, was a tremendous success, financially and otherwise. The event was organised and carried out by a troupe of military artistes who deserve to be highly complimented on their painstaking efforts and on the originality and artistry displayed in the various amusing representations. Though it was on Saturday that the posters announcing the parade were put up, the news travelled quickly and large crowds from the town and surrounding districts turned out on Sunday evening. The procession was headed by a romantic looking "sheik" in resplendent costume, mounted on a spirited steed and looking so real that he might have just stepped from out the pages of contest aroused the greatest interest locally.

The Confraternity.—At the usual monthly meeting of the Women's Confraternity on Sunday evening last, Rev. Fr. T. Dunphy, C.C., Spiritual Director, complimented the members on their steadfast devotion during the past year and exhorted them to do even better during the coming year, as their efforts would earn an eternal reward. In the world to-day some nations denied God but his Holy Will would prevail. They should all have a deep devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus.

Match At Cappoquin.—At Cappoquin on Sunday last the newly formed Camphire junior hurling team met the locals in a challenge match and a fairly good game ensued. The Cappoquin XV proved successful but the visitors gave a creditable display. Mr. E. Brady, Cappoquin, refereed.

Relict of the late lamented Mr. Roger O'Connor, farmer, Ballyboy, Kil-O'Connor, farmer, Ballyboy, Kil-maethomas, and sister of the late Mr. David Power, do., and the late Rev. Fr. Ml. Power of honoured memory, the deceased lady was of a most hospitable nature, kind and generous and was an example to all by her devout Catholic life. A prominent and popular figure in local farming, sporting and social circles is her son, Mr. Cornelius O'Connor. Ballyboy, to whom and the other immediate relatives the sincere sympathy of everyone is extended. An extremely large and representative cortege accompanied the removal of the remains on the evening of New Year's Day to St. Anne's Church. Dunphy.—The death of Mrs. Mary (Minnie) Dunphy, wife of Mr. Patrick Dunphy, farmer, Rockview, Ballylaneen, Kilmacthomas, which took place on New Year's Day, following a somewhat protracted illness has aroused the deepest feelings and sympathy with her devoted husband and family in Kilmacthomas and throughout the Decies. Mrs. Dunphy, who was a beautiful example of what a truly Catholic Irish mother should be, belonged to an old-established, widely connected and highly respected family stock of the historic parish of Kilrossanty. Deceased could not have made an enemy. All who had the pleasure of knowing her became her firm friends. It is not an exaggeration on our part but simple unvarnished truth to state that the world in which she moved now feels a deep sense of her loss. We respectfully extend our sincere sympathy to a universally esteemed neighbour in this heavy tribulation. Those who know Patrick Dunphy, and his kindness and consideration o all, who encounter similar trouble will grieve with him. That in itself is a consolation for if it is hard to efface the recollection of a fond wife and mother, the knowledge that one's loss is shared in by those with whom she intermingled tends to soften the blow and accept it with resignation. An immense concourse of relatives, friends and sympathisers mpanied the remains on Saturday evening to St. Anne's Church, Ballylaneen, where they lay over-night. After the 11 o'clock Mass on Sunday, all that was mortal of the late Mrs. Dunphy was reverently laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. Rev. P. F.
