I paid a visit to Youghal last week and met there the East Cork divisional secretary, Mr. Eamon Fleming, who sends his greetings to all my friends in West Waterford G.A.A. circles, and was full of fine tributes for the co-operation extended to him and his Board by all Western Board and officials. A great worker and a great Gal is Eamon. Will all club secretaries who have sent word of games and club meetings for last week please excuse the failure to publish last week. FIANNA FAIL MEETING IN DUNGARVAN.

A large number of old members of the Dungarvan Fianna Club and several new members, attended at the annual meeting, held in the Court-house, Dungarvan, on Tuesday night last, at which Mr. P. J. Little, Minister for Posts and Telegraphs, and Mr. Michael Morrissey spoke. Mr. James Curran, Harbour View, presided.

Opening the meeting, Mr. Morrissey, T.D., said he was delighted to see such a large crowd present, and was particularly glad to see so many ladies in the audience. As all are aware continued the speaker, we will very soon be faced with a general election. The people may not like this, but the Government have no option, unless agreement is reached, but there is little likelihood of this, as we can see from speeches by both Opposition parties daily. If this is the case, there is nothing else left to the Government but to go out, as it could be said later that it had no mandate to represent the people. To his mind, the present is a very difficult time to make an appeal to the country, due to the present conditions, and still we have people taking advantage of the time. We have at present the whole propaganda throughout the country against Government, and why, he can't say, as they have no deal to be ashamed of, but a great deal to be proud of. Cast your minds back to 1932, continued the speaker, and you must realize from the national aspect alone what has been achieved by Fianna Fail. If we were in the same position in 1939 that prevailed in 1932, when Fianna Fail made its 1922 with the British Government, in times of war this country was to give certain facilities to England, such as the use of the ports, air routes, etc. Neither do they forget the bitter fight by the present Government to get back those facilities, and were it not for that settlement, we would now be in the position in which we find ourselves. To maintain this happy position of neutrality they must have the support of the people, and this he felt sure they would have. Dealing with the provisions made to assist the poorer classes of the community, Mr. Morrissey said he had heard what in his mind were most unfair remarks on the Minister for Supplies and Transport, and he felt sure that they would have. DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT

Held on Tuesday before Mr. S. J. Troy, D.J.

Lights—Guard Begley v. Sonny Whelan, Colmastrane, fined 3/6; Guard Enright v. P. Barry, Fermoy, 3/6; Guard O'Leary v. John Power, Gortnalough, Leamybrien, 3/6; Guard Strane v. Thos. Kieley, Kilbrien Upper, 6/- for being under the influence of drink on the same occasion defendant was fined 5/-; Guard Ryan, Leamybrien, v. M. Power, 3/6 and 2/6; same v. D. Ryan, 3/6.

Drunk—A charge of drunkenness brought by Guard Straine against Wm. Moylan, was withdrawn on the complaint stating that defendant was quiet at the time and also in poor circumstances. A woman named Stella Gallagher, Waterford, charged by the same complainant with a like offence was fined 5/-.

Confiscated Books Case—Supt. O'Mahony prosecuted Mrs. Wilcox, Mary Street, under the Censorship of Publications Act in respect of two books distributed from her lending library.

Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., appeared for the defendant.

Sergt. Liddane disposed to visiting the premises on 13th October and making inquiries regarding two books, "Boontown" and "My Son, My Son." Defendant admitted having the books and said they were not at the time. She got them back after the time, and sent them down to witness.

To Mr. Farrell—He also got from her the "Autobiography of a Cad." He did not know that this was banned, but he sent it down also. He went through the book, "My Son, My Son," from which a good many pages had been torn out.

The Justice said his recollection of the book is that there was only one incident in it, but "Boontown" is a filthy, putrid thing, which should be stamped out.

Continuing Sergt. Liddane said that Mrs. Wilcox told him she never read any of the books herself.

Mr. Farrell, solr., submitted that the case against his client should fall, according to the definition of the word "distribute." She could not distribute a book.

Supt. O'Mahoney held to the case and it was agreed that the defendant should submit the points raised to the present, so much so indeed, that the floor was occupied fully throughout the hours devoted to dancing. Included amongst the patrons were familiar figures from all the adjoining districts, as well as from Fermoy, Youghal, Cappoquin, Killeagh, Carrigrohilly, Lismore, Ballyduff, Kilworth, and other centres. The committee desire to express their appreciation of the splendid support accorded on this occasion and look forward with pleasure to welcoming all their old and many new friends at their next dance.

Death of Mrs. C. O'Connell.—It is with feelings of deep regret that we announce the death of Mrs. Catherine O'Connell, Headborough, which sad event occurred on Wednesday of last week, after a short illness, and fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church.
