DUNGARVAN U. D. C.

RATE ESTIMATE ADOPTED AT 20/- IN THE £.

A rate of 20/- in the £—an increase of 10d. in the £ over last year—was adopted at the estimates meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council on Friday last, at which Mr. T. McCarthy (Chairman) presided, other members in attendance being Messrs. L. A. Veale, T. A. Kyne, J. Dahill, M. Morrissey, T.D.; John McGrath, Michael Clancy, and Senator J. Butler. The County Manager (Mr. S. J. Moynihan); Mr. Bowen, B.S.; Mr. Michael O'Meara, rate and rent collector; and Mr. Wm. O'Meara, Clerk, were also present.

Acknowledgment.—Most Rev. Dr. Coholan, writing from St. Finbarr's West, Cork, expressed his deep gratitude to the Council for their resolution of congratulation so kindly passed to him at a recent meeting.

Presentation of Address.—The Council unanimously decided to present an address of welcome to Most Rev. Dr. Coholan on the occasion of his consecration as Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, on Sunday next, April 4th.

The Estimates.—The Town Manager (Mr. S. J. Moynihan) submitted his estimate of expenditure in respect of the various services for the year March, 1943, to March, 1944. In doing so Mr. Moynihan said he would like to pay tribute to Mr. O'Meara (Town Clerk) for his great assistance in the preparation of same. The following are the figures for the various services:—

Town rate, made up as follows:—Urban roads, repairs and improvements, 1/1 in the £; public health rate, 3/10 in the £; town's improvement, 2/- in the £; public water, 1/7 in the £; provision of meals, 6d. in the £; housing, 3d. in the £; total, 9/3. Poor rate, total, 10/-; also a domestic water rate, 1/6 in the £. Grand total, 20/3 in the £.

Replying to Mr. Dahill, the Manager said that the Urban Council would only benefit by a small proportion of the £50,000 owing to the Co. Council through unpaid annuities.

With regard to the provision for the payment of emergency bonuses of 5/-, Mr. Kyne held that the lower paid officials should be entitled to a bigger bonus.

On the question of the increase of wages, outside of the bonus, the Manager, replying to Mr. Butler, said he knows it is within his power to recommend this.

Mr. Veale stated that on the bonus question a big number of council made payment retrospective from January 1st. He would ask the Manager to do this.

The Manager said that provision for an increase is not made in the estimate, nor was it made in the last year's estimate. It could be given if sanctioned by the Department, which he doubted.

Mr. Clancy asked what work will be done under the town's improvement, and said it would be well if the members were made aware of those items.

The Manager enumerated the items.

Mr. Morrissey, T.D.—Regarding the item of £100 for the fire brigade, could the Manager tell the Council how he arrived at the figure of £100 for Dungarvan? He thought £100 was too heavy for Dungarvan.

Manager—I consider £100 a very reasonable sum for a town like Dungarvan to pay for a fire service.

Mr. McGrath referred to the total valuation of the county, and said the figure for Dungarvan should be based in proportion.

The Manager said there are places in the county paying for the service where it will never operate.

Mr. Bowen, B.S., said the people had a very powerful engine, with first class equipment, stationed in the town, and he thought the figure of £100 very reasonable for such a service.

Mr. Butler, he said that it was the intention to make it a fixed charge over a number of years, say 25 years. There would be no further charge to the Council in the erection of suitable buildings or otherwise.

Mr. Butler—in that case I agree that the figure is reasonable.

Mr. Kyne also agreed that it was a reasonable figure for such a service.

Mr. Clancy said that to his mind the provision of fire escapes in buildings was more essential than fire engines. He referred to the loss of life in the recent and former fires in the town through lack of fire escapes in buildings.

Mr. Bowen, B.S., said that under the recent Fire Brigades Act, the County Manager has powers to inspect all or any premises and insist on proper facilities being installed.

Mr. McGrath asked if the old fire-fighting engine, the property of the Urban Council, would be bought by the County Council.

Mr. Morrissey, T.D., said the Co. Manager should take into consideration that the Urban Council are giving a fire station at a nominal rent of £1 a year. He would ask the Manager to reduce this item somewhat.

Senator Butler said they had no control over the poor rate, but he thought if they went through the town rate they may be able to reduce it somewhat by agreement. The rate-payers will not be pleased with an increase of 1/3.

Mr. Clancy asked about a suggestion from the Council some time ago relative to the erection of underground public lavatories, and asked whether any provision was made for this work.

Manager—No provision is made this year, but if the work is carried out it must be done by loan, and we could pay the loan charges.

Mr. Veale asked if provision had been made for the lighting of guide lamps for early workers during the winter months.

The Manager said that would mean a further increase in the estimate and suggested a rearrangement of hours with the E.B. on this question.

Mr. Clancy raised the question of the upkeep and maintenance of the county roads running through the town, and held that the County Council should be wholly responsible for the maintenance and cleaning of these streets, or alternatively to recoup the Urban Council.

Mr. Bowen, B.S.—This matter was discussed time and time again. The streets in the business of the sanitary authority, and the County Council have no authority to do anything other than maintain these roads.

After going through all other items, including public water (exploratory works), provision of meals, etc.

Mr. Butler proposed and Mr. Morrissey seconded, that the Manager reduce the public health estimate by id. housing by id., and public water rate by id., which will leave the estimate at 20/- in the £.

The Manager said he would do his best he could with that amount, but if he found during the year that he is short, he will have to come to the Council again.

Mr. Dahill—How much is the increase over last year?

Clerk—1d.

Mr. Dahill—That will mean that all the Council tenants will have to pay extra in their rent.

Clerk—Yes, roughly id. a week.

Sympathy.—Sympathy was voted to the family of the late John Power, Kilsheen; to the family of the late Mrs. Leahy, Loughmore, and to the family of the late Miss K. Stuart, Mitchell Street.

Acknowledgments.—Letters thanking the Council for resolution of works) passed to them were read from Mrs. Mary Cahill, Coolagh Rd., Youghal Road; Mrs. Whelan and family, Lismore, and Miss Tobin, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan.

MANURES NOW AVAILABLE.

30 per cent. Superphosphates are now available to supply farmers with a quantity of manure equal, at least to the quantity of Emergency Compound available last season. These supplies, of course, are independent of any special consignment made available for the growing of sugar beet, certified seed potatoes and root seeds.

The drought and delays of transport, however, make it imperative that farmers and retailers place their orders immediately. This is especially true in any additional manures which may become available later but it should be realised that the manufacturers cannot hold stocks indefinitely.

DEATH OF MRS. ALICE TOBIN, KILBRIEN.

It is with much regret we announce the death of Mrs. Alice Tobin, Kilbrien, wife of the late Mr. Patk. Tobin, who farmed extensively in the Coolnasmar and Kilbrien districts. Mrs. Tobin's death on Thursday, 29th March, after a comparatively short illness, caused widespread grief among her very large circle of friends and deep sympathy is extended to her family and relatives. Her unassuming and straightforward disposition endeared her to all with whom she came in contact during life. At the removal of the remains to the Church on Friday, 26th, the cortege which followed was very large and representative of all sections of the community throughout the county—a fitting tribute to the respect and esteem entertained for the deceased and the members of her family.

On Saturday morning Solemn Requiem Office was sung and High Mass offered for the happy repose of her soul. The celebrant was the Rev. M. O'Meara, C.C., Kilgobinet; the deacon was Rev. J. Power, C.C., Four-Mile Water; and the organist, Rev. W. Power, C.C., Ring (cousins of the deceased). In the choir were Very Rev. R. Roche, P.P., Kilgobinet; Very Rev. P. F. McGrath, P.P., Ring; Rev. T. White, O.S.A., John's Lane, Dublin; Letters regretting intially to Mrs. Costello, Ballyvaughan (son-in-law), Nephews, nieces and grandchildren included J. J. Moore, Deerpark; Mrs. Barragery (sisters); Mr. T. Looby, Crough; Mr. L. Looby, Cork (brothers); Messrs. R. J. Howard, Dublin; J. Barron, Craignagar; and E. Costin, Ballyvaughan (sons-in-law). Nephews, nieces and grandchildren included J. J. Moore, Deerpark; Mrs. David Fennessy, Kevlavin; Mrs. L. Walsh, Doon; Misses Annie and Kitty Hickey, Carrigrohane; Misses Cliffe, Carrigrohane; Misses Looby, Kilgerran; Mrs. Cooney, Carrigrohane; Relatives included Mr. T. Keady, Ballyvaughan; Mrs. M. Walsh, Farnane; Mrs. Keane, Ballyvaughan; Mr. J. Power, Knockawn; Telegrams received read: "Deepest sympathy, Mass offered, McCarthy, Tipperary." "Sincere sympathy to all the family, Cremin, Dublin." "Deepest sympathy, Bridie Whitey." "Deepest sympathy to all the family, E. R. Bell, Clonmel." "Deepest sympathy, Mass offered, Jerry and Mrs. Condon, Clonmel."

Mass cards were received from Mrs. Ray and family; Bridie and family; Hanna and family; Peg and family; Alice and Dick; Jack and family; Kitty; Blis; Bridget; Annie and Kitty Hickey; Jos Looby; E. R. Bell, Clonmel; Mrs. Hawkins, do.; the Smith family, do.; May Monahan, Dublin; the Staff of John's Lane Schools, Dublin. Wreaths were sent by "Her loving children"; "Her grandchildren Nancy, Annie and Kitty Hickey"; "M. Tobin, N.T., Kilbrien," etc., etc.

MINOR AND JUNIOR FOOTBALL AT DUNGARVAN.

First round matches in minor and junior football were decided at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday when Dungarvan minors defeated Cathal Brughas and Kilgobinet knocked out the Brickey Rangers junior string. While some good passages were seen in the minor contest, the junior game was disappointing, the display being very poor. Kilgobinet, which last year made such a good showing were not impressive when it is considered that their opponents on Sunday last were only a bunch picked up before the match started and that at least three if not more were from the Cathal Brughas junior team who had put in a gruelling hour's work against Dungarvan, before donning the black and amber jerseys.

McGregor, a newcomer to football, played a fine game for Kilgobinet, and when he learns to put more length instead of height into his drives he will be a decided acquisition to the side. Other outstanding for Kilgobinet were T. Bove, P. Flynn, P. Moloney, and S. O'Brien. T. Curran, the ex-Dungarvan player, was best for the Brickets.

The full time scores in these matches were: Dungarvan, 2-7; Cathal Brughas, 2-1; Kilgobinet, 3-5; Brickey Rangers, 2-1. The teams were: Dungarvan—T. Cashin, B. Moloney, R. Prendergast, S. Kieley, M. Hallahan, E. Hallahan, D. Barron, T. Butler, F. Heane, S. Keogh, S. Condon, G. Condon, D. Deasy, S. O'Brien, Cathal Brughas—E. Farrell, J. Dwyer, T. Griffin, W. Foley, P. Lyons, S. Twohig, L. White, J. Casey, P. Lennan, D. Heerly, F. Randles, M. Donnelly, D. Wade, P. Shee, Michael Costello, Thos. Bove (capt.); Pk. Flynn, S. O'Brien, S. Tobin, J. Hickey, P. Moloney, P. Drummy, Moe Connon, P. Tobin, J. McGregor, T. M. Nagle, T. Cantwell, D. Flynn, Brickey Rangers—D. Whelan, J. Whelan, M. Wall, D. O'Meara, P. Brien, T. Griffin, L. White, T. Curran, J. Curran, T. Howell, M. Heane.

BISHOP-ELECT IN RESIDENCE IN PALACE.

Most Rev. Dr. Canon Coholan, Bishop-Elect of Waterford and Lismore, arrived in Waterford on Monday and took up residence at the Bishop's Palace, John's Hill. With the exception of Most Rev. Dr. Keane, Bishop of Limerick, and Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe, all the other Bishops of the Province of Cashel, including his Grace Most Rev. Dr. Jeremiah Kinane, Co-Adjutor, Archbishop of Cashel and Titular Archbishop of Dercos, will be present at the Waterford Cathedral on Sunday next, April 4, for the solemn Consecration.

Dr. Coholan's uncle, Most Rev. Dr. Coholan, Bishop of Cork, who will be the consecrating prelate, will be assisted by Most Rev. Dr. Denis Moynihan, Bishop of Ross, and Most Rev. Dr. Roche, Bishop of Cloyne. The consecrating ceremony will be presided over by Very Rev. Dr. James O'Mahoney, O.F.M., Cap. M.A., D.Ph., of the professorial staff of University College, Cork.

The ceremony will commence at 11 a.m. Admission to the nave and side aisles of the Cathedral will be by ticket only. The galleries will be available to the general public. Special seats will be reserved for the clergy and members of religious communities. Government representatives, members of public bodies and relatives of the Bishop-Elect. The Mayor and members of the Waterford Corporation will attend in state.

After the ceremony at the Cathedral, a luncheon will be given to the visitors at the De La Salle College, Newtown, Waterford.

From 11.30 a.m. to 1.15 p.m. (approximately) on Sunday, the consecrating ceremony will be relayed from the Cathedral, Waterford—the sermon by the Rev. Dr. James O'Mahoney, O.F.M., Cap. M.A., D.Ph., of St. John's S.T.L., St. John's College, Waterford.

LABOUR PARTY MEETING

The Labour Party held a public meeting on the Square, Dungarvan, on Sunday. Mr. T. McCarthy, chairman, Dungarvan U.D.C., presided. Opening the meeting, Mr. McCarthy said that the people of Dungarvan would have an opportunity of listening to the policy of the Labour Party and of hearing the two Labour candidates, Aid. Jas. O'Connor and Mr. Jerome Guiry. He would appeal to every worker, shopkeeper and farmer to support Labour; because it was the only efficient party capable of governing the country. The Fianna Fail Party had to them at the last election how they would solve the unemployment problem. This was the year 1933 and since then they had done nothing to solve the unemployment problem. They had to go to England to seek a living.

Aid. James O'Connor said that the Labour Party was the only party for the working people of this country, who were really the people that count. They were entitled to the best this country could produce, but they had not got it. They had not got a decent standard of living from the government. There had been a change of masters but not a change of conditions. The present government had muddled the situation, unemployment and agriculture and other vital problems. The only thing to do was to push their present government out at the election and have somebody put in that were prepared to utilise the best resources of the country to produce the best for the people without profit or gain. The Labour Party was prepared to do that. Appealing for better organisation, Aid. O'Connor said they should all come together in that unity of purpose and aim as laid down by Pearce and Connolly.

Mr. J. Guiry said he wished to thank the men and women of Dungarvan, on behalf of the Labour Party, to which he had the honour of being elected, for the support they had given to the Labour Party, and the Labour cause in the local elections. Compared proportionately with the votes cast for Labour in Dublin, the votes given to Labour in Dungarvan were good. This was very significant, he said, for it is said, that what Dublin does to-day, Ireland will do tomorrow. The Labour success in the recent local elections were a prelude to a sensational, spectacular, smashing victory at the forthcoming elections.

Mr. Norton, Labour Party Leader, said he was very pleased to have this opportunity of addressing the people of Dungarvan, on behalf of the two Labour candidates—Aid. O'Connor and Jerome Guiry, who were carrying the Labour flag in the coming election. Judging by the success of the local election, these men would carry the flag for a government that would stand steadily for the plain people of Ireland.

During the past years the people of this country had looked to a government that would make this country secure in the matter of food supplies. The Government lamentably failed to do so with the result that to-day the people of this country were suffering from the incompetence and ineptitude of that Government. In 1938, after Munich, the red flag of war was being unfurled and it looked as if Europe was being precipitated into Armageddon. It seemed only a matter of time when the dogs of war would be unleashed on Europe. In that year they had, with other nations, plenty of opportunities of planning to get supplies and so avoid the ravages of war. In 1938 a Department of Supplies was set up and Mr. Lemass was appointed Minister for Supplies. From speeches made by Mr. Lemass it seemed as if nothing was being done about the matter of supplies. Then September 1939 came. The dogs of war were unleashed, the guns began to bark, and the armies to march. But what had been done in the Labour Party saw the Minister and asked what was being done to ensure that we had ample stocks of food in the country. The result was that Mr. Lemass had done nothing, with the result that many goods were in short supply today, when the Government, if they had been alert, could have got them. They could have got candles, soap, sugar, wheat and fertilisers—in fact all those commodities which cannot be got now. The sole blame for that negligence must be placed on the shoulders of the Government. There was no reason whatever why they should not have got them. They could have got them then. Any countries would be only too pleased to sell them. There was £300,000,000 of Irish money invested in British securities, and this money could be repatriated in the form of goods. It was not the goods were not bought and we can't get them to-day because the Government missed the tide. Mr. Lemass and his Government are solely responsible for this position of affairs. If Britain loses the war, that £300,000,000 would be no more use than 300,000,000 used tram tickets. Even if she did win the war, the money would still be lost—thanks to Mr. Lemass and his so-called Republican Government—because of the inevitable inflation that would set in. When a man goes on a spree he wakes next day with a headache and he sets about curing that headache. When countries go on a military spree which is described as war—Britain and the rest of the world will eventually wake up with a "headache," and there is a very expensive way of curing these "headaches." The £300,000,000 invested in England to-day would only buy a fraction of the goods which could be bought for that money before the war. That was caused by inflation. After the last war he (Mr. Norton) was in Germany and he saw American Officers fighting cigars with 50 Marks notes. Money then was virtually useless.

Judging the Government as a team they would realise that not only had the one member of the team failed, but that the team as a whole was rotten. The only thing left was to get a new team. That was the balm of Gilead. They had green posters covering the countryside to deceive green people. They were told of a plan whereby unemployment would be no more. Mr. Lemass, the architect of the plan, said that 84,103 would be put into employment. He even went as far as to mention the assistance to America to bring back the emigrants. They were led to believe that a new Moses had arisen, the Irish would be led into the promised land under the so-called Fianna Fail "Republican Government. To-day, eleven years after they took office, an examination of the employment position and the inter-related problem of unemployment would show that there was 60,000 more unemployment than when Fianna Fail took office in 1931. The Government had no policy to deal with unemployment. Their only policy was to send the Irish to Britain after the Black and Tans and tell them we have no work for them here."

Dealing with prices and wages, Mr. Norton said that prices were allowed to rise but wages remained stationary. When Mr. Lemass was questioned about it he said that we should be glad that we were not in the war and that prices were not as high as in the war. He said that the one hand had gone up by 60 per cent., while on the other hand, wages had gone up by only 10 per cent. The Government had muddled every problem—unemployment, agriculture, and now after four years of war there was in one of the best agricultural countries in the world, a shortage of butter, milk (in some places), meat, bacon and sugar.

Mr. Norton then went on to speak of the Labour Party's policy and said that it was based on sound constructive economy. Agriculture was their greatest industry, and they (Labour Party) would make sure that there would be more production in this industry, so that the farmer would be sure of a better return for his produce and in turn would be able to pay a better wage to his labourers. There would be also schemes of nationality—drainage schemes, hospital and housing schemes, etc.—and they would see that the industrial resources of the nation would be developed to the fullest. They proposed to give old-age pensions at 65 years; to increase National Health benefits and unemployment benefits; give increased pensions to widows and orphans, and to give a decent scheme of family allowances. Every man, woman and child in this country was entitled to be well fed, clothed, sheltered. They would see that this is done. They would see that never again would the people of this country know the misery and privations they had suffered under the Cumann na nGaedhail and Fianna Fail Governments. He would appeal to the people to help to build up a strong Labour movement, to help to create a strong Labour Government which would see that they would get under the two previous governments.

Aid. Pattison, T.D., said that the protest they made at the local elections should be repeated at the coming elections. They should protest strongly against the action of an Irish Government in allowing the best of their manhood and womanhood to be exported like cattle. The Government had treated the warning given at the local elections with contempt. It was necessary therefore, to repeat that warning and strike that blow that Connolly and Pearce, hoped, had they lived, to strike.

If you feel that you are not quite clear on any of the regulations or if you need expert assistance on any point, do not be hesitant about consulting the agricultural instructor. It is his job to help you and you will find him only too willing.

THE HOUSE that STOOD AMONG THE TREES

One Summer evening they saw the house. It made their dreams at once tangible. This was where it was all to happen. It became the setting for their new endeavours.

They were thankful for the house. Thankful for the parental forethought that enabled them to buy it. When you think of your child don't think of the present only; but plan for the future also.

A Children's Deferred Assurance Policy will provide your child with a start in life. The annual payments can be so small as to be barely noticed. At 21 the option is offered of a cash payment, or the continuance of the Policy as a Life or an Endowment Policy. For further particulars apply to—

AN UNHAPPY IMPORTATION.

According to a statement just issued by Dr. Robert MacKay, the plant pathology expert, what is known as red disease, or ear blight, has been given in four years from 6 per cent. to 24.3 per cent. here in Eire, and it has considerably damaged the yield of the wheat crop. In some parts of the country the reduction has been as great as 40 or 50 per cent. This is most unfortunate at a time when every acre of wheat is so preciously essential. Dr. MacKay maintains that the spread of the disease has been mainly attributable to imported seed, as it was during the years when imports were at their highest that its ravages reached their greatest proportions. How best to combat the unhappy importation is, of course, a matter for the Department of Agriculture and its experts to decide. While the war lasts our wheat crop will be vital and we cannot afford to be unduly optimistic about the yield. Every harvest is vital in itself and the area under wheat should allow a wider margin of safety. Ear blight is but one of the difficulties encountered since the outbreak of the crisis—prior to which to the way the average wheat yield in our isle stood round about 20 cwt. to the acre.

MOOREHILL NOTES.

Popular Gael Departs—During the past week John Baldwin Moorehill, left to take up a remunerative position in England, and his many friends regret his departure for with old and young he was one of the most popular of young men. Chairman and a playing member of the local hurling club, he played no small part in making the club a successful one, both on and off the field, and the club will now miss his sterling qualities. For since its inception John was seldom missing when the team took the field, and he also proved his worth in guiding the destinies of the club. Since the start of the L.D.F. organisation he was a very ardent member, and was also a valued member of the local Parish Council. We join with his hosts of friends in wishing him every success and prosperity in the land of his adoption.

The Lighting Problem.—The curtailment of the paraffin oil supply has left the country people in a very serious position, as no substitute can be obtained. It would be all right if candles were to be had, but since the oil ration gave out, candles seem to have gone off the market, at least down Moorehill way. Let us hope that the much harassed Minister for Supplies may be able to come to the rescue of the "poor old country people" and save them from darkness and despair.

G.A.A.—A very interesting junior hurling contest was played at the Moorehill grounds on Sunday last, between Conna and Moorehill, and resulted in a comfortable win for the home-boys. Both sides were short of several of their usual players, but nevertheless a very good game was the result. A feature of the game was the great midfield clashes between Tobin and Bourmes (Conna) and Murphy and Murray (Moorehill).

PRELATE'S VISIT TO DUBLIN

"As I offer Mass with you and for you, memories of those inspiring days have flooded back into my mind," said the Archbishop of New York, Most Rev. Dr. Spellman, addressing the congregation which attended his Mass at the Pro-Cathedral, Dublin, on Wednesday. His Grace was recalling his last visit to Ireland, on the occasion of the International Eucharistic Congress in 1932.

On his way to the church and from it, his Grace was met by surging crowds to whom he gave his blessing. As the car moved off from the Pro-Cathedral there was an outburst of cheering and cries of "safe journey" and "God bless you."

Many people were outside the Pro-Cathedral from an early hour, and when his Grace arrived accompanied by Lt.-Col. A. J. McChrystal, military attache to the U.S. Embassy in London, his car was immediately surrounded. On his way to the presbytery his Grace conversed with the crowds surging around him, and gave them his blessing.

VISIT TO MUNDO.

After breakfast his Grace called on his Excellency Most Rev. Dr. Pascal Robinson, Nuncio-Apostolic, at the Papal Nunciature. After a short stay he drove with Mr. David Gray, American Minister to Government Buildings, where they were received by Mr. J. Walsh, Secretary of the Department of External Affairs, who escorted them to Mr. de Valera's room.

Mr. Gray and Mr. Walsh then left, and his Grace had a private interview with Mr. de Valera lasting an hour and twenty minutes. Mr. Gray then called back for Most Rev. Dr. Spellman and brought him home to the American Legation for luncheon. INFORMAL DINNER.

DR. SPELLMAN'S ANCESTORS.

Speaking to Press representatives shortly after alighting from the plane on Tuesday evening, Monsignor Spellman said that his paternal grandfather, Patrick Spellman, was born in Clonmel, Co. Tipperary, and resided in Honora Hayes, of Limerick. His maternal grandfather was John Conway, of Cork, who married Ellen Keygh, of Carlow. "My mother," added the Archbishop, "is from Plympton, Mass."

The latter had scores per the Murphy brothers, Murray, Deves and Prendergast, while Conna's scores came from Bourmes, McGrath, and Fitzgerald. Both back divisions showed up well during the hour. The weather was very fine, but the attendance was on the small side.

L.S.F. Concert—A grand variety concert and question time will be held at Knockmore Hall on Easter Sunday night. For full particulars see later issues.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

Omitted.—In our report on the recent junior hurling championship match played at Modeligo, we omitted to mention that prior to the commencement of the game, two minutes silence was observed, in respect for the passing of two Gaels, Michael Mason of Cappoquin, and Eddie Hayes. The referee (Mr. J. Moloney, N.T.) in asking for the observance of two minutes silence, said that recently two outstanding Gaels had passed to their reward, and it would be only a worthy tribute to their memory to show this gesture of respect. We can only add, that both men, each in his own way, upheld and supported the games of the Gael to their fullest extent, and the tribute paid to their memory on the above occasion was a deserving consideration.

Gene To England.—Last week Ned Brady of Cappoquin crossed the waters to employment in Gt. Britain. The departure of Ned has caused regret in G.A.A. circles here, as he was a prominent committee member of the local hurling and football club, and a well-known outspoken delegate at Western Board meetings. Even though he never participated in the games, he was a tower of strength behind the scenes and remained to the last a stern supporter of the G.A.A. Club.

The last connection of the Mason family with the G.A.A. Club here has been severed by the departure to England on last Tuesday of Joe Mason, Joe, who was for many years a member of the Waterford Co. Board and Vice-Chairman of the West Waterford Divisional Board has done herculean work for the G.A.A. in Cappoquin. A most valiant of the canon in his hey-day, and a fast and polished footballer, he secured Co. honours in both grades playing with Lismore years ago. In his capacity as hon. sec. and ably assisted by Fat McCarthy, K. Lonergan, Pat English, and his brother, the late Michael Mason, he helped to keep alive the spirit of the Gael here for a long number of years.

Inspection of Red Cross Division.—An inspection of members of the Red Cross Division took place at the Divisional First Aid Post (Vocational School) on Sunday. The inspecting officers were Mr. Duggan, Dr. O'Farrell (Co. M.O.H.), Lieut. Dunne, (Army Medical Service), and Messrs. Callagher and O'Grady (County Sec.). The members of the division were under the charge of Mrs. Charnley, Company Officer, and the officers making the inspection were received by Miss S. White and Dr. Lahiff (Divisional Officers). Dr. Wm. White was also in attendance, making the inspection of personnel and equipment. Mr. O'Grady congratulated the members on the excellent turn out and their appreciation remarks. Prior to his appointment in this capacity he has been area instructor for some months and has been praised by all as being a capable, painstaking N.C.O., so that with such experience of army life he should make an ideal D.A.O.

Listed for Hearing.—On tonight (Friday), a meeting of the Western Board G.A.A. will be held in Egan's Hotel, Dungarvan. On the agenda is the objection by Cappoquin to the deligo-Affane, and this will, no doubt, prove a thorny problem. The points of the objection are (1) Failure to send in register of players within 12 days; (2) Playing match without a permit; (3) Including in the personnel of the team which contested the Co. Final players from an outside county and playing them under assumed names. Probably the big point of the objection and the one which the deligo-Affane delegates will do all to prove is the last point. It is a serious statement to accuse a club of bringing in players from outside the county and playing them under assumed names. The deligo-Affane delegates will do all to prove is the last point. Narrow Win Over Sliah gCua.—Cappoquin junior football team triumphed over Sliah gCua on Sunday last to engage Sliah gCua in the first round of the junior football championship. A good game resulted in which the L.D.F. had no control necessitated his return to the Garda Force, and had the L.D.F. a voice in the matter, they would have undoubtedly retained his services. On behalf of the L.D.F. in the area he wished Garda Byrne every luck on his return to his Garda duties. Several other officers present also spoke in warm appreciation of the work done by Garda Byrne during his connections with the L.D.F. Garda Byrne, in reply, thanked the District Leader and all, not only for their expressions of regret at his departure, but also for their kindness and assistance during his term as D.A.O. He was glad to see so many he had been associated with at the inception of the L.D.F., still active members of the force. He regretted leaving, but went over the bar to give Cappoquin the best. After a period of close play, the final whistle sounded leaving Cappoquin the winners on the score 9-4 to 6-3. Mr. J. Moloney, N.T. referred to his usual efficient and impartial manner.

Exile McDermott's Junior Hurling Team.—On Sunday last in Lismore from the position of postman of Mr. Wm. Ahearn, of Main Street, Cappoquin. Appointed to his position in the Cappoquin Post Office in 1885, he has completed forty seven years of unbroken service. During his period as postman, he travelled a big area discharging his duties and was liked and respected by all. Of a quiet and unassuming disposition, he to-day looks hale and hearty, with a healthy, tanned countenance, portraying years of outdoor exertion. May he be long spared to enjoy his well-earned rest.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS.

Late Mr. M. Hourihane, Temple-michael.—We regret to announce the death of Mr. Michael Hourihane, Commons, Templemichael. Excess was a most popular figure, possessed of a charming personality, and his demise has occasioned deep regret, while much sympathy is extended to his bereaved relatives. The remains were removed to Knockanore Parish Church, where Requiem Mass was offered up for the eternal repose of his soul. The accompanying cortege was of a large and representative nature. The interment took place in the local cemetery. R.I.P.

L.D.F. Instruction.—Cpl. P. Brennan is at present conducting a course on intelligence and observation for the members of the Ardmore and Clashmore Groups, L.D.F.

Death of Clashmore Woman.—The death has occurred of Mrs. M. Lenane (nee Keil), Kilmaloo, Clashmore. The deceased was 55 years of age, leaves a young family, to mourn her loss, and sympathy is extended to her bereaved husband, father and mother. The funeral took place to Clashmore churchyard, R.I.P.

Clashmore Red Cross Dance.—Dancing patrons are looking forward to the Clashmore Red Cross dance on Easter Sunday night. The music, by Pat Walsh's Band, will be the big attraction.

Salmon Fishing.—The salmon fishing season on the Blackwater and along the coast continues to be reasonably good, and during the past week there were some good hauls of fish. The price on the Clashmore market is 3/1 per lb.

On the Land.—Large areas of wheat have been sown and the crop is making good progress under ideal conditions. Many farmers have the potato crop planted. There is an increase in tillage in all areas, and good returns are hoped for.

Clashmore Parochial Car Drive.—All roads lead to Clashmore on Sunday night, as a big 45 drive in aid of parochial funds.

Day when a big L.D.F. parade and ceremony takes place. The district colours will be blessed and presented to the L.D.F. All outlying groups will attend so that the march past of the men in their new uniforms should present a glorious spectacle. On that night a big boxing tournament also takes place in Lismore.

The New District Administrative Officers.—The new D.A.O. appointed for Lismore District, L.D.F., by the military authorities is Sergt. J. Revins. Sergt. Revins, who is a native of Cappoquin, has been in the Army for twenty years in the National Army, and has also lately completed a G.A.A. course at Collins Barracks, Cork. Prior to his appointment in this capacity he has been area instructor for some months and has been praised by all as being a capable, painstaking N.C.O., so that with such experience of army life he should make an ideal D.A.O.

—Inserted by her loving family, That never will you most sincere, Forget you, mother dear.

KEATING—In fond remembrance of Commandant Thomas Keating, who gave his life for Irish Freedom on 3rd April, 1923.

—Inserted by his comrades of the Old I.R.A. Association.

Condoence.—At a specially convened meeting of the Old Parish Football Club, the following resolution was passed in silence: "That we, the members of the Old Parish Football Club, tender to the Leahy family our deep and heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement, occasioned by the death of William, an ex-member of the Club."

Sympathy.—Deep and widespread sympathy is extended to Mr. James and Mrs. Power, Ballinroan, in their loss, which occurred at the Hospital, Lismore, on Saturday last. Interment took place at Ballinroan on Sunday last.

Dungarvan Footballers and Hurlers.—All players are requested to attend at the Gaelic Field from 6.30 p.m. each evening for practice. In view of the forthcoming matches. All footballers who have not been notified are to be in the Square at 2 p.m. sharp on Sunday next, with bicycles and togs.

Ruinahide.—Sympathy is felt with the family of Mrs. McKee, widow, Ballydun, Bonmahon, who died on Wednesday at her residence, after an illness of some months and in the fullness of years.

Tennis.—The annual general meeting of the Dungarvan Lawn Tennis Club will be held at the Pavilion on Sunday next, 4th inst., at 12 o'clock. All members and intending members are requested to attend.

Bonus for Dungarvan Creamery Workers.—As a result of an application by the Amalgamated Transport and General Workers' Union, the following bonus order has been made: "Dungarvan Co-Operative Creamery—Engineers' dept., lorry drivers and helpers, sawers and helpers, storemen, boilermen, dairymen, powder handlers, buttermilk makers and assistants, 5/- from February 4."

In Search of Employment.—The exodus from the town of our unemployed continues, and morning after morning the 9.15 a.m. train to Dublin carries off some of our young men, who are in search of employment. The latest emigrants are Messrs. James, Augustine and Thos. Burke, sons of Mr. Burke, of the town, who left during this week. Three well-known hurlers, Jim in particular, will be missed by the Dungarvan hurling club, which again helped to victory in the county championship in 1941.

Tribute to Dungarvan Garda.—We are indebted to an esteemed reader of the "Observer" in Kilkenny, for the following cutting taken from the "People" (The Freeman) of the 12th inst. in Castlecomer District Command deeply regret the change of District Administrative Officers, L.D.F., as it means the loss of the services of the present D.A.O., Mr. Michael Deasy. Mr. Deasy won the respect and esteem of every man in the L.D.F. He played an important part in organizing the force and in helping to bring it to its present efficiency. Day and night he worked for the interests of the L.D.F. and in carrying out the various duties of his position he displayed distinct ability. No matter how busy he was at other tasks, Mr. Deasy was always ready and willing to help any member of the force who called on him at any time. He helped to smooth out troubles amongst members with tact and courtesy. His efficiency and integrity as well as his unflinching devotion to duty earned for him the full confidence not only of every member of the L.D.F. but also of the Army authorities. To mark their appreciation of his great services to the L.D.F. the combined groups of the Castlecomer Command, at a social at Cantwell's Hotel, Ballyragget, made a handsome presentation to Mr. Deasy, D.A.O. The Johnstown Group L.D.F. to mark the occasion of his departure also made him a presentation of a silver watch on Tuesday night. This presentation was made on behalf of the Group by Rev. E. G. Barry, M.A., Group Leader.

Turf.—Just arrived, a big consignment of best Kerry Turf. Apply Jas. Curran, Quay St., Dungarvan. (—) A consignment of Best Quality fresh Kerry Turf. (—)

Late Mary A. Morrissey.—The death of the late Mary A. Morrissey, who died on Monday last, is deeply regretted. She was a lady, whose exemplary Christian character endeared her to all with whom she came in contact during her life. The large and representative attendance at the interment in the family burial ground testified to the respect felt for her by this parish. The immediate chief mourners were: Miss K. Hanrahan, Caherbrack; Mrs. Nolan, do.; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Purcell, Fortwilliam; Miss M. Carey, do.; Mr. C. Purcell, Lisronagh; Mr. T. B. and Mrs. Boyle, Dungarvan; Miss H. LISMORE NOTES.

Junior Hurling Championship Matches.—At the local Gaelic Field on Sunday last, under ideal weather conditions, two good games in the opening rounds of the junior hurling championships were witnessed by a large gathering of hurling enthusiasts. The first clash between the newly formed teams, Camphire and McDermott, proved a very exciting contest, both teams going all out from the throw-in and never easing pressure until the final whistle. The game was not long in progress when Camphire drew first blood with a point per P. Ahearn, which they quickly followed up with a similar score per McGrath. The puck-out sent McDermotts attacking and they were in very hard luck when a lovely shot for the goal struck the upright and went wide. Shortly after this they had their first score when they raised the white flag from a free. Keeping up the pressure the army boys pressed for a major score and continued to do most of the attacking until the half-time whistle left the game well in hand in progress when Camphire drew first blood with a point per P. Ahearn, which they quickly followed up with a similar score per McGrath.
