DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT

Civil Bills.—A number of undefended civil bills were first dealt with, and decrees given in all cases.

Fraser v. Cowan.—This was a civil bill for £4 10s. brought by Mr. Mee, Fraser, draper, Dunganvar, against Thomas Cowan, Abbotside. Mr. Kenny, solr., for plaintiff, and Mr. P. J. Morrissey, solr., for defendant.

After hearing evidence and examining receipts, the Justice gave a decree.

Veale v. Kelly.—Mr. Kenny, solr., for plaintiff, and Mr. Farrell, solr., for defendant. This was a civil bill by Mee, Veale, Bellinacourty, Dunganvar, against Michael Kelly, 2, Strand Street, Youghal for £11 17s. 6d., with a credit for £1 paid in December.

Replying to Mr. Farrell, solr., plaintiff said that defendant promised to pay £1 a month, but only made one payment. He agreed with Mr. Farrell that defendant was ill for a long period and would now agree to a payment of 10/- a month.

The Justice made an order ordering defendant to pay 10/- a month, the first payment to be made on May 1st.

Temporary Dance Licence.—Mr. L. F. Lanigan, solr., was granted a temporary dance licence on behalf of Mr. Sean O'Halloran, for a dance in Clashmore Schoolhouse on 2nd May.

Lights.—A number of persons were prosecuted under the Lights on Vehicles Act, and fines ranging from 2/- to 5/- were imposed.

Guards.—Meloney and Synnott, Leamywater, Lacey, Appach, and Enright, Dunganvar, were the complainants.

Road Traffic Act Case.—Supt. O'Mahony charged John Hansberry, B. Coy., 10th Batt., under the above Act that on 30th March, at Kilrush, defendant did drive a motor cycle at a speed and in a manner dangerous to the public.

Patrick Kirwan, Coligan, said that on March 30th, when riding to Dunganvar, at Kilrush, he heard a noise coming behind him and at first he thought it was a bus. He was well on his proper side. The next thing he knew was that he was struck and knocked off his bicycle.

Captain J. Evans, South Terrace, Dunganvar, said he saw the accident at Kilrush on March 30th. He was sitting in his invalid chair talking to Mr. O'Mahony and had a clear view of the road for 200 yards. He saw Kirwan coming towards them at about 60 yards distance. He was cycling slowly and quite close to the kerb. Defendant came round the bend on a motor cycle on the crown of the road. When passing the cyclist he seemed to lose control and swerved towards and glanced off the cyclist, who was thrown off his bicycle. Defendant kept going in the direction of Dunganvar. Witness and O'Mahony went towards the cyclist, and Dr. Casey came along then and took Kirwan away in his car.

To Supt. O'Mahony—When the motor cyclist came round the bend the pedal cyclist was about 140 yards ahead of him.

Thomas O'Mahony (Jun.), Kilrush, corroborated the evidence of Captain Evans.

Guard Farrell read a statement made by the defendant when he reported the accident at the barracks.

Guard Thos. Barry said he visited the scene of the accident and found blood on the left-hand side of the road and at the kerb. The width of the road at the point is 30 ft. 0 ins., and the footpath 7 ft. 9 ins.

Defendant, in reply to the Justice, said on the day in question he was on manoeuvres and was coming from Cappoquin to Dunganvar. At Kilrush he was travelling at 30 miles per hour. He had to leave the crown of the road as there was a lady cyclist coming against him on the crown of the road.

The Justice imposed a penalty of £5.

School Attendance.—Guard Farrell, S.A.O., prosecuted John Power, 11, Loughmore, with a breach of the above Act and a fine of 5/- was imposed. Similar cases against John Hoare, Colmanogue, in respect of two children, and Bridget Flynn, Loughmore, were adjourned.

Drunks.—Sergeant Liddane v. James Wright, drunk and disorderly, 10/-; Guard Straine v. Michael Sullivan, no fixed abode, 5/-; a case of Guard Begley against Margaret Costigan was adjourned for a month.

Cruelty to Animals.—A fine of 5/- was imposed on a man named Power for working a pony suffering from a sore on its back with which the straddle was coming in contact. Sergeant Green, Guard Straine prosecuted. Donnelly, 38, Loughmore, Thomas O'Mahony, and another, for cruelty to a horse. Guard Straine, Thos. O'Mahony, and another, said that in a statement by Donnelly (read) he had told a man named Denis Daly to pull the animal out. Daly said he would do so, but if the animal was able to walk when pulled out she was to become Daly's property. (Laughter.) The animal was there from Saturday to Monday, when he got permission from Donnelly to shoot it.

Donnelly, in reply to the Justice, bore out these statements. Daly did not tell him anything about the animal, and he thought the mare was all right. He was not at home from Saturday to Monday, that is why he knew nothing about the animal. A fine of 20/- was imposed.

Six Weeks' Hard Labour.—Guard McGowan charged Michael Kieley, Barrack Lane, Dunganvar, and Thos. Costigan, Cathal Brugha Place, with being drunk and disorderly on 16th March. They were also charged by Supt. O'Mahony with unlawfully assaulting Guard J. McGowan while in the discharge of his duty.

Complainant stated that on the day in question he found defendants using filthy language. While taking Kieley to the barracks he was attacked by Costigan, who struck him and knocked him down. Kieley made a kick at his head when on the ground, but a civilian interfered and pushed Kieley. Witness then drew his baton and with the assistance of Guard Straine took both defendants to the barracks.

Patrick Sheehan corroborated the evidence of Guard McGowan and said that as Kieley made a kick at the Guard while on the ground witness pushed him away.

The Justice in sentencing both to six weeks' hard labour on the assault charge, marked the other charges proved and dealt with as follows:—

Breach of Licensing Laws.—Supt. O'Mahony charged Mrs. Cooney, The Square, with a breach of the licensing laws at 11.45 p.m. on Saturday. 11 men found on the premises were also summoned.

Mr. Kenny, solicitor, appeared for all the defendants and pleaded guilty. He asked the Justice to deal leniently with this case, which is perhaps the last case that will be heard under the old licensing laws.

The Justice said that having regard to the good record of the house, and taking into account Mrs. Cooney's request, he would impose a fine of 20/- without a record. The men found on the premises were each fined 2/6.

Excise Permit Violation.—Supt. O'Mahony prosecuted Patrick Moran, 3, Davis Street, Dunganvar, under the Excise Act, in respect of a permit.

Mr. Farrell, solr., appeared for defendant.

The Supt. said that defendant had already received a passport and had returned from England. When he wished to return to England he sent the passport for visa purposes, but it would appear it got mislaid. He then made application for a passport without disclosing the fact that he already had one.

The Justice dealt with the case under the P.O.A.

Selling Timber in Balk.—The Department of Supplies prosecuted John Tobin and his employer, Arthur Sheehan, Ballinacourty, under the Excise Act, in respect of a permit. No. 121 Order, 1942, (1) with selling timber otherwise than by weight, and (2) selling at a price exceeding rate set out in the said order. Mr. P. J. Morrissey, solicitor, appeared for defendants.

Sergeant Kelleher, weights and measures inspector, said he found Tobin selling blocks by the sack. He got the load weighed, and the car. He found the net weight of timber was 6 cwt. The timber was sold for 25/-.

The timber was cut very small, for a range.

To Mr. Morrissey—There was a very good bulk of timber for the weight.

Arthur Sheehan, in evidence, said this was diseased timber which he had cut in blocks 31 inches long for Mr. Ryan, and Mr. Ryan, and Mr. L. F. Lanigan, solr., appeared for Kieley.

Mr. Patrick Ryan gave evidence of the trespass of a pony the property of Lannon and a jennet the property of Mooney.

A fine of 2/- with 10/- costs was imposed on both.

Mr. Ryan gave evidence of handing over a pony to Kieley.

Mr. Lanigan said his defence was that this pony was the property of Mrs. Kieley.

Mr. Ryan said that Kieley admitted ownership of the animal.

Mrs. Annie Kieley said the horse was her property. She bought this horse for £2 and used him for drawing winkles, etc.

"CORK AUGUSTINIAN"

We have been favoured with a copy of the Easter number of this excellent organ of the Augustinian Community of the Rebel City (of which sacred band our valued friend, Father P. D. Cummins, a native of Stradbally, is Prior). The compilation is one of twelve pages, and on page six a number of notably charming Irish verses including Cove Bridge, Stradbally are beautifully pictured, all the brightness of their grandeur being clearly depicted. On page 9 appears a song for Catholic Boy Scouts, titled The March of the 89th words by Rev. M. V. Foley, O.S.A.; music by Fr. de Augustinis, and the chorus of the soulful piece reads—

For the glory of Our Leader, from the shadows of the day,
Till the shadows of the evening gently fall,
For the glory of Our Leader, we will work and we will pray;
May His Name be loved and honoured over all.

On page 10, the well-known Gaelic writer, Mr. P. D. Mehanan ("Harbory") deals with the progress of our ancient games in his own inimitable style. An Irish expert tells of an Irish hero of France on page 7, and on other pages are some delightful contributions from the facile pens of "Aisling," Very Rev. Dr. James, O.F.M., Cap. D. P. D. Litt. (who, by the way, preached the sermon at Waterford Cathedral on the occasion of the consecration of our new Lord Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. Cohan, on Sunday, the 4th day of last month); Fr. P. A. Doyle, O.S.A.; Rev. John O'Sullivan, P.B.; Fr. M. and "Oinseach," respectively. The leading article under the caption: "The Church and Post-War Planning" is a masterly composition. Here are its concluding paragraphs:—"Our own country's great blessing in being spared the horrors of war may be attributable to her better adherence to the laws of God in comparison to at least some of the conflicting nations. If it be our loyalty to the Faith that has saved us in the hour of peril, greater should be our appreciation of our goodness, the more should we value that Faith, greater should be our love for the Risen Saviour, less inclined should we be to criticise His ministers, more tolerant should we be of their human failings; remember that from the twelve apostles there was one who denied Him and one who betrayed Him. In Eire we are not outside the influence of religious criticism and cynicism. We have foreign-influenced free-thinkers and light-heads who to attract attention and for self advertisement do not hesitate to criticise and attack not only Christ's minister and servants, but God Himself. The discerning man will never fail to see in these attacks balm for the troubled consciences of their authors.

"Varied and many are the suggestions for an ideal post-war world, but few there are who advocate the one and only solution of returning to God and the Risen Christ."

ALLEGED CATTLE STEALING AND FALSE PRETEXTS CHARGE.

At the Dunganvar District Court on Tuesday, before Mr. Troy, D.J., Jas. Mahony, Toor, Aglish, was charged by Supt. O'Mahony, (1) that on 19th August, 1942, at Dunganvar, he did feloniously steal, take and carry away, five head of cattle, value £47 10s., the property of Thomas F. Casey, Dunganvar, and (2) that on 19th August at Dunganvar, defendant did with intent to defraud obtain from Thomas J. Casey, five cattle, value £47 10s., by falsely representing that he had sold six cattle to one John O'Gorman, of Tallow, and that the said John O'Gorman had paid him £74 for the six cattle. Mr. Kenny, solr., appeared for the accused.

Supt. M. O'Mahony, Dunganvar, outlining the case, stated that at the Lismore fair, last August, the defendant made a bargain with a man named O'Gorman, a large farmer residing near Tallow, to purchase six head of cattle for him (O'Gorman). The defendant told Mr. O'Gorman that he had no money to pay that day, but that he was expecting a legacy of £15,000 on the death of a relative in the U.S.A. Mr. O'Gorman then took out the usual cattle-dealer's book, wrote out '6 cattle £74' on one of the tickets, tore it off, and gave it to the defendant. Evidently Mr. O'Gorman heard recently about the defendant, because he told Supt. O'Mahony, he did not give him the cattle, and forgot to get the ticket back. At the Dunganvar fair, last August, the defendant bought 5 head of cattle, the property of Mr. Thomas Casey, Dunganvar, from Mr. Casey, Jun. The defendant told Mr. Casey that he had no money that day, that a man named O'Gorman owed him £74 for cattle, and would pay him (Mr. Casey) when he would get the money from O'Gorman. The defendant then produced and showed the ticket which he had got from Mr. O'Gorman to Mr. Casey. When the cattle were not being paid for, Mr. Casey, Sen., went to Tallow and saw his cattle there, and later he and the defendant went to Mr. Kenny's (solicitor) office, where the clerk was directed to write to Mr. O'Gorman for the money. Still the money did not come.

Supt. O'Mahony then went on to refer to a transaction regarding sheep which the defendant had with a man named Fenton, and which Supt. O'Mahony described as "another angle" in the case.

Continuing the Supt. said that on September 30 a wire was received in the Bank of Ireland, Dunganvar, which stated that £74 was being sent to the bank to pay James Mahony, Mahony a note to take to the National Bank and he left the Bank of Ireland before witness. He met him subsequently that evening when he came back to get the money. Witness gave instructions to an assistant to write to Mr. O'Gorman to forward the cheque as per docket. O'Mahony has told him on the Sunday that he had sold cattle to O'Gorman for £74 and he would pay him when he got the money. On 16th September (Dunganvar Fair Day) he met the accused at Mary Street, who said he was going to the Bank to get the money; he came back and told witness come down to the Bank to be paid. Witness went to the Bank and met the accused, he was not paid. On the following day (Thursday), witness accompanied by his son, went to Toor but did not see the accused. He did not see his cattle that day.

To Mr. Kenny—Witness did not take the cattle away when told by accused as it was Sunday evening and he would have too much trouble. He was satisfied to leave them there.

To Superintendent—If he had not seen O'Gorman's docket, he would have been out for the cattle on some day during that week.

Thos. J. Casey, son of the last witness said at the August Fair he had charge of five cattle purchased by his father. He drove them to Egan's Hotel Yard. That evening he met the accused in Egan's Yard and accused asked him to sell the cattle. Witness asked £10 each and eventually they made a bargain at £9 10s. each. While the bargain was being made accused said he would not be able to pay for them right away. He produced a cattle dealer's docket (exhibit A) and said he had sold cattle to O'Gorman and was expecting £74 in a day or two. He did not say why Mr. O'Gorman had not paid him. He agreed to meet him (Casey) on the following Friday when he would pay the money. Witness would not have given the cattle if he accused had not produced the docket. Witness met the accused as arranged on the Friday, and he said he was sorry but the money had not come at the moment, but he was sure that O'Gorman would send it the next week. Witness did not meet the accused on the following Friday when he would pay the money. Witness would not have given the cattle if he accused had not produced the docket. COUNTY LIBRARY COMMITTEE

A meeting of the above was held in the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Monday, 19th April, Rev. Fr. Power, Chairman, presided; also present: Miss Healy, Mrs. Maher, Mrs. Moloney, Messrs. R. J. Colliander, M. J. McCarthy, M. F. Walsh, M.C.C., M. H. O'Hara.

A letter from the Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, thanking the Committee for their vote of congratulation, was read.

Resignation of Mrs. R. E. Golog—Relative to the resignation of Mrs. R. E. Golog from the Committee, the following resolution was proposed by Miss Healy, seconded by Mr. R. J. Colliander, and passed unanimously: "That the members of the County Waterford Libraries Committee deeply regret the resignation of Mrs. R. E. Golog and wish to place on record their sincere appreciation of the very great services which she has rendered for many years to the Libraries Committee."

The County Librarian said that Mrs. Golog had always adopted an understanding, constructive and progressive attitude towards Library problems.

Co-opted of New Member.—On the suggestion of Miss Healy, a resolution recommending that the County Manager co-opt Mrs. Campbell, the Rectory, Abbeystead, to fill the vacancy created by Mrs. Golog's resignation was proposed by Mr. R. J. Colliander and seconded by Mr. M. F. Walsh.

Mr. O'Hara suggested that those who objected to books should be requested to name the pages or chapters containing the objectionable passages. The County Librarian informed the Committee that this has already been done some time ago but that it did not have the desired result. He was circulating the Librarians relative to this matter.

KILMACTHOMAS COURT

(Held on Wednesday, before Mr. F. J. McCabe, D.J.). A long list of undefended civil bills were disposed of in the usual way.

Two Stradbally youths, named Thomas Hickey and Patrick Walsh, who admitted the charge, were each fined 5/- plus 12/11 compensation for growing a quantity of timber, value £1 5/10, the property of Waterford County Council, into a river running by the place where the stuff was deposited.

Another resident of the Stradbally Garda district was fined 10/- for cutting a tree on his lands without the necessary permit to do so.

Defendant, a farmer, said the tree was a danger to his lands without the necessary permit to do so. The Justice said the excuse offered did not justify non-compliance with the law in the matter.

A man of the Kill district was fined 5/- and ordered to pay 5/- compensation for the larceny of a quantity of timber, the property of John Poer O'Shea, Gardumorris.

Bicycles belonging to Miss Bridie Cummins and Miss Mary O'Reilly, of Stradbally, respectively, were stolen on the 10th and 11th inst., and two young local girls—Rita Hogan and Peggy Morrissey—pleaded guilty to having taken them. Supt. P. Creane, G.S. Tramore, prosecuting, said the costs and expenses incurred in the case amounted to £1 11/8. Both bicycles were recovered.

After hearing Mr. Kiersey, solicitor, Waterford and KilmacThomas, for the defence, his Worship postponed his decision to the next sitting of the court (third Wednesday of May), the defendants agreeing to pay 15/10 each in the meantime.

Prosecutions for breaches of the Lights and School Attendance Acts evoked penalties ranging from 1/- to 5/-, and the complainants in these were: Sergt. Horaty, KilmacThomas; Guard Boyle, do.; Sergt. O'Reilly, Stradbally; Guard Fitzgerald, do.; Guard O'D. Leahy, do.; Guard Smyth, Leamybrin; Guard Moleague, do.; Guard Cole, Kill; Guard McGrath, do.; and Guard Breen, Portlaw.

Charged on five counts under the Wild Birds' Protection Act, James Power, Kill, was given the benefit of the P.O.A.

Defendant admitted trapping goldfinches to keep them in cages, but did not know he was breaking the law by doing so. He was never in Court before.

Unavoidable absence of the solicitors engaged led to the adjournment of a number of other cases to the next Court.

DISCIPLINE.

The annals of mankind show that disciplined men have built powerful nations that undisciplined men have allowed to perish from the earth. In these times thoughtful people are wondering where will come the disciplined men of the next generation.

From the average Irish home, discipline has all but disappeared along with the old-fashioned fireside. And it is hardly fair to hold the heads of the household responsible for this unfortunate situation. Modern life, with its multifarious diversions and distractions, its petrol-propelled vehicles and moving pictures, its social customs and indulgences, has, in thousands of cases, distressingly relegated the home to where it is mainly a place for the boys and girls of the household to sleep and get their meals. This lack of discipline and control is so general and overwhelming that those parents who are earnestly endeavouring to stem the tide are like pigmies struggling against a storm. They are conspicuous, perhaps even the object of scorn because of their endeavour to see that their children lead a normal life, subject to parental discipline and authority. Discipline is the mainspring of action and operation. The first price of successful achievement in any field or forum. Bear well in mind that no undisciplined man ever did any sustained thing. No undisciplined man ever made a real sacrifice. Surely, disciplinary education kills only that portion of a boy's or girl's initiative that does not deserve to live. As the horticulturist and the orchardist clip and prune that more beautiful flowers and more perfect fruit may be grown, so does disciplinary education trim and curb, prune off as it were, the sprouts of bad initiative which spring up at times in every normal boy and girl that a more symmetrical development may be nourished and sturdier manhood and womanhood be the harvest in his and her maturity of years. The superb discipline manifested by our immortal heroes and heroines of Easter Week, 1916, is a heritage not only to be preserved, but to be transmitted, encouraged and registered, to a grateful posterity.

COMERAGH VALLEY COW-TESTING ASSOCIATION

The fifteenth annual general meeting of the Comeragh Valley Cow-Testing Association was held recently, Mr. H. Hobbs (President) in the chair. The members present were Messrs. C. Langley, J. Barry, N. Casey, E. Coffey, R. Casey, D. Cunningham, P. Kirwan, M. J. Dromey (C.T.I.), and P. Coffey (Supervisor).

In his annual report, the Supervisor stated that the average yield for 229 cows which completed lactation was 4,492 lbs. of milk, 178.17 lbs. of butter fat, average test 3.60 per cent. taking butter fat at 2/- per lb. and separated milk at 2d. per gallon; the return per cow would be £21 2s. 2d. The five best cows yielded 9,596 lbs. milk, 348.34 lbs. butter fat, average test 3.63 per cent., cash return £41 4s. 10d. The five worst cows yielded 1,786 lbs. milk, 61.20 lbs. butter fat, average test 3.42 per cent., cash return £7 7s. 8d. per cow.

The best cow was the registered cow, "Seafield," regd. No. HC1552, with a yield of 14,374 lbs. of milk, 502.21 lbs. of butter fat, average test 3.48 per cent., cash return £59 11s. 10d. She is the property of Mrs. M. A. McGrath, Garrahalish. The worst cow yielded 1,106 lbs. of milk, 34.28 lbs. butter fat, test 3.1 per cent., cash value £4 2s. 2d. The best herd average of 9,189 lbs. milk, 336.96 lbs. of butter fat, average test 3.66 per cent., was that of Mrs. M. A. McGrath's herd.

The Supervisor paid 127 double visits to members' herds, and took 1,058 samples. Eleven calves were tattooed; three were awarded premiums during 1942; five cows were presented for inspection of cows, and all passed and have been placed on the Department's register.

The Waterford Committee of Agriculture Dairy Cattle Prize Scheme, 1942—Class 1, cows presented for inspection and passed: 1st, Mr. D. O'Mahony's "Red Twin"; 2nd, Mr. H. Hobbs' "Girl"; Class 2, yearling heifers: 1st, Mr. H. Hobbs' "Miss Muttel"; 2nd, Mr. E. Coffey's "Patricia"; reserved Mr. J. Barry's "Rosemary"; Class 3, two-year-old heifers: 1st, Mr. E. Coffey's "Ballyhenry Lucia"; 2nd, Mr. E. Coffey's "Patricia". Two entries were not shown.

The report was unanimously adopted.

LISMORE NOTES.

Easter At Lismore.—Paschal time at Lismore was celebrated with the usual solemnity. The sacred ceremonies connected with Holy Week were carried out at St. Carthage's Cathedral with all the impressiveness and edification of the ritual. On Holy Thursday morning the Church was filled to its utmost capacity and it was a most edifying sight to witness the throngs of communicants on that morning. After Mass the Blessed Sacrament was borne in Solemn Procession to the Altar of Repose and the children of the parish gave a beautiful rendering of the appropriate hymns. After the evening devotions Rev. Fr. Power, C.C., Aglish, preached an eloquent sermon on the Holy Eucharist. On Good Friday morning there was Mass of the Pre-Sanctified at 8 o'clock. Large numbers of the faithful visited the Church during the day and reverently made the Stations of the Cross. In the evening the Stations were recited by Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., Lismore, followed by a most touching and impressive sermon on the Passion and Death of Our Divine Lord, delivered by Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., Modeligo. Large crowds again received Holy Communion on Saturday and Easter Sunday mornings.

Last Sunday's Great Parade.—Lismore was the centre of attraction on Easter Sunday on the occasion of the big L.D.F. parade and the brilliant colours and large crowds from all over came to witness the turn out. Close on 400 men, drawn from all the groups in the District took part and it seemed a truly glorious spectacle to see the green-clad contingents marching through the streets with colours flying proudly in the breeze. Spectators in large numbers lined the route at various points to watch the parade, and all were greatly impressed by the soldierly bearing and high degree of efficiency displayed by all the participating units. The parade was in charge of the District Leader M. Fitzgerald, the officer in charge of the Colour Party was D.S.O. Davitt Tobin, Ballyduff, and the standard bearer was D.S.O. O'Brien, Tallow, and D.S.O. McGrath, Ballinacorney. Other officers present were: District Adj. J. Fogarty, D.S.O. K. Sullivan, D.S.O. J. Power, D.S.O. J. Fenton, and D.S.O. W. J. Sargent. The following officers were in charge of the various groups: Lismore, G/L Jas. Ormond; Cappoquin, G/L T. Kelleher; Tallow, G/L P. Ronayne; Ballyduff, G/L R. Hickey; Gillies, G/L T. Osborne; Killybegh, G/L W. Revis; Campfire, G/L D. Casey, and Ballinacorney, G/L P. Dalton. All the contingents assembled at the Military Field, where at 2 p.m. the ceremony of blessing the colours was performed by the Very Rev. Canon Walsh, P.P., V.F., Lismore, assisted by Rev. T. Murphy, C.C. and Rev. M. Ahearn, C.C. Following the ceremony Canon Walsh presented the colours to District Leader M. Fitzgerald, who in turn presented them to the Standard Bearer, District Officer O'Brien and McGrath. The General Salute was then sounded and the parade to the colours given. The salute to the colours was moved off and proceeded down the Main Street for the march past the saluting base at the Monument, where the salute was taken by Major J. Murphy, O/C 13th Batt. Present also on the platform were: Comm. Crofts, Staff Officer L.D.F., Southern Command; Comm. McCarthy, Area Officer, Tipperary Area; and Lieut. C. O'Donovan, Assist. Area Officer, do. As the parade approached the platform, a guard of honour, drawn from the Ballyduff group and under the command of G/L Jerry Hickey presented arms in a manner which reflected the greatest credit on the men and their instructors. After this the parade marched up Galloway Hill and New Street returning again via the Main Street to the Military Field where the men were addressed by Major Murphy. In the course of his address the Major complimented officers and men on the high standard of efficiency attained, and said he was proud indeed to have had this impressive parade. He hoped, he said, that the men of the Lismore District would not fall into the error of believing that the danger to our country had passed; nothing could be more fatal and he would urge every man to persevere in his training, so as to be ready to take his place should an emergency arise. Following this address, the Last Post was sounded and two minutes' silence observed to commemorate the memory of Ireland's dead. This brought the proceedings to a close and the men fell out for refreshments. Later in the evening all proceeded to a selected spot on the banks of the Blackwater for specially trained soldiers on methods of a section and platoon in attack, grenade throwing, laying and exploding land mines and concluding with a demonstration of tree-felling by explosives.

Raffle Postponed.—Ticket holders for the raffle in aid of the L.D.F. District Welfare Fund which was to have been held on Easter Sunday night will please note that the raffle has had to be postponed pending the return of blocks.

Race Dance.—The Race Dance held at the Courthouse on Sunday night was largely patronised and was last week's most successful functions one of the most successful functions held here for a long time. A delightful programme of music was provided by the Brideside Serenaders' Dance Band and all had a most enjoyable night.

Irish Grand National run at Fairyhouse on Monday won by Golden Jack, Prince Regent was second, and Herodism third.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES.

Clashmore Red Cross Dance.—Last Sunday night's dance, under the auspices of the Clashmore Branch of the Irish Red Cross Society, proved an unprecedented success from every point of view and was one of the most enjoyable social events of the season. There was a record attendance and of instrumentalists further enhanced the arrangements were perfect in the capable hands of Miss E. Murray (hon. sec.) and the members of the Red Cross Committee, who are to be congratulated on the success of their efforts. During the interval songs were contributed by Mr. Frank Kelly, whose rich tenor voice delighted all present and he was loudly applauded. Towards the conclusion of the dance a member of the committee returned thanks to all who contributed to the success of the function and complimented the band on their excellent performance.

Grange Dance.—A most successful and enjoyable dance, under the auspices of the L.D.F. was held at Grange on Sunday night last and despite counter attractions there was a big attendance. The organising committee had all arrangements perfect and first-class music contributed appreciably to the night's enjoyment. Dancing concluded with the playing of the National Anthem.

Next Sunday's L.D.F. Parade.—On Sunday next, 2nd May, a big parade of the Defence Forces will be held at Clashmore. The parade will assemble at 10 a.m. (old time) and headed by the District and National Flags, and led by the 'Youghal L.D.F. Pipers' Band will march to last Mass at the local Church. There will be a guard of honour at the Mass and the Elevation Colours will be dipped and the Royal Salute sounded. Taking part in the parade will be Clashmore L.D.F. and L.S.F. while units of Ardmore and Aglish L.D.F. have also been invited to participate. Clashmore v. Old Parish.—All roads lead to Ardmore on Sunday next for the meeting of Clashmore and Old Parish in the first round of the current year's junior football championship when a great game is assured. The game is arousing more than ordinary interest and a big influx of Gaels is expected to the seaside venue. Optimism prevails in both camps and it is generally conceded that the issue is very open. It is understood that both sides will be at full strength.

Last Sunday at Geesh.—At Geesh on Sunday last the locals met Blackwater Movers, in aid of the Green Cross Fund, and a well contested game ensued. Clashmore, however, and eventually the visitors ran winners.

Holy Week.—Was observed with fitting solemnity in all parishes and the various church ceremonies were attended by large and devout congregations. Easter passed off quietly.

Clashmore L.S.F. Celliade.—On Sunday night next, 2nd May, the Clashmore L.S.F. will hold a celliade to raise some necessary funds. See adv.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Alleged Robbery at Ballymacart.—At the Dunagarvan District Court on Tuesday last, a young man named Thomas Connors, 21, of Ballymacart, brought up on remand in custody from Limerick Jail, and charged by Supt. Mahony, Dunagarvan, that on April 7th, at Ballymacart, he had feloniously robbed James Nugent of five baby-power bottles of whiskey, value 10s.; 2 doz. of stout, value 20s.; two bottles of coffee essence, value 4s.; six bars of soap, value 5s.; six bottles lemonade, value 3/6; half bottle of wine, value 5/10; and three packets of salt, value 6d. Accused was also charged with damage and injury to a window and three half-pint glasses, the property of James Nugent, amounting to £1 4s. 6d. Sgt. Vaughan, who had charge of the case said enquiries are not yet complete and asked for a further remand to Fermoy Court on Friday, April 30th. The Justice granted the remand asked for.

Children's Celliade in Town Hall.—The success of this function which was thoroughly enjoyed by young and old alike, merits a special word of praise for Dunagarvan's excellent Dancing Instructors, Mrs. M. Hall-Dunphy, Knockmoyne. The girls and boys ranging from 4 to 17 years gave faultless exhibitions of cotillade and solo dances, showing the painstaking efficiency of her training. The Band, of five violinists—dancers themselves—contributed in no small measure to the success of the evening report elsewhere in this issue.

Confirmation Dates.—His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. Daniel O'Connell, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation at Ballybricken Church on Sunday, 2nd May, at 10 a.m. The Sacrament will be administered as follows:—Waterford Cathedral and St. Patrick's, May 20th; Aglish, May 21st; Lismore, May 23rd; Ballyduff, May 24th; Tallow, May 25th; Knockmore, May 28th; Modeligo, May 27th; Toureena, May 28th; Cappoquin, May 30th; Killybegh, May 31st.

Foley, Ballinacorney, May 20th; Aglish, May 21st; Lismore, May 23rd; Ballyduff, May 24th; Tallow, May 25th; Knockmore, May 28th; Modeligo, May 27th; Toureena, May 28th; Cappoquin, May 30th; Killybegh, May 31st.

Manager at Board of Health meeting on 27th—Cottage No. 111 Ballykerin, let to M. Foley, Ballinacorney, May 20th; Aglish, May 21st; Lismore, May 23rd; Ballyduff, May 24th; Tallow, May 25th; Knockmore, May 28th; Modeligo, May 27th; Toureena, May 28th; Cappoquin, May 30th; Killybegh, May 31st.

Two horses, four cash prizes and one residual prize were drawn by ticket-holders in Waterford City and County on Sunday last. The draw was held in aid of funds of the Irish Red Cross on the Irish Lincoln. The drawers of horses in the city were: Miss N. Drohan, 11 Ferrybank, Waterford, who drew Foam Crest under the non-de-plumet. The winners of the draw for the 'Five Diggers' (Ticket No. EN17680), which drew Grand Inquisitor, Mr. J. Byrne, 30 Morley Terrace, Waterford, won a cash prize of £100; and Mr. A. P. O'Brien, 1 Percy Terrace, Waterford, who has already been a winner in three draws, had a fourth win when he qualified for a £100 prize. "Three Chancers," Killotran, Co. Wick, drew the grand prize of £200. The prizes were distributed as follows:—Eire, Horses 50; residual, £128.70; and the prize fund, £62,907. The prizes were distributed as follows:—Eire, Horses 50; residual, £128.70; and the prize fund, £62,907.

Promotion.—We extend to Mr. Thomas Cooney, Presentation Convent Lodge, Dunagarvan, our congratulations on his promotion to the rank of 2nd Lieutenant in the Reserve of Officers.

Cattle Stealing Charge.—Charged with stealing cattle at Knockmoyne, value for about £98, Andrew Hogan, stated to be of no fixed abode, was returned for trial at Clonmel Court, Merl. Sheehy, Ballinacorney, said that after being questioned, accused took him to a place on the Newcastle road where he removed a small stone from the fence, inside which was an envelope containing £74 in cash, which was handed to witness. Accused was alleged to have made a statement admitting having stolen the cattle.

Value of Land.—Kilmurray Cottage (situated 3 miles from Dunagarvan) with 10 acres and 9 perches of land attached, rent £100 per annum, is up for auction on Monday last by Messrs. Queally and Ballot, Auctioneers and Valuers, Dunagarvan. Furniture etc. realised most remunerative prices.

had been consecrated bishop. He would like to avail of the occasion to express his sincere thanks to the clergy and laity of the diocese for all they had done for him since his advent to the city, and for the great spirit of friendliness and helpfulness shown towards him. In extending to the members of the congregation, their families, their friends, their homes and everyone in the diocese his heartfelt wishes for a happy Easter, he expressed the hope that as they were gathered there on that Easter Sunday, they might be gathered together one day for an eternal Easter Sunday in heaven.

Strabally Irish Countrywomen's Association.—As predicted in our last issue, an immense gathering patronised the grand cinderella dance under the auspices of the above, held at Ocean View Hotel, on Sunday night, despite the unpropitious weather conditions, the number of those who attended was most popular and all present voted it the best yet. In the capable hands of Miss Margaret O'Brien, hon. secretary, and Miss B. Lucy, hon. treasurer, assisted by a live-wire committee, all arrangements were first-class. Their numerous patrons look forward to another of these events in the near future. The Dunagarvan Chromatic Accordion Band supplied the music.

Abeysside Social Club's Annual Dance in the Town Hall, Dunagarvan, on Sunday night received a tremendous measure of support and the big through spent a most enjoyable night. Rev. Fr. Dooley, P.P., Ballyduff; Rev. Fr. McCarthy, C.C., do.; Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., Lismore; Rev. Fr. Meehan, C.C., Tallow; Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., Dunagarvan; Rev. Fr. Aherne, C.C., Lismore; Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., St. Patrick's, Waterford, assisted by the other clergy present officiating last night. Chief mourners present were: Mrs. A. Walsh (widow); Thomas and Helen (children); Very Rev. T. B. Walsh, P.P., Tallow (sister); Mrs. P. F. Walsh, O'Grady-Walsh, Tipperary; Mrs. G. McDonagh, Cork; Mrs. F. Leahy, Youghal (sister); Mrs. E. F. Walsh, Tallow (sister-in-law); Mr. J. Walsh (uncle); Mr. E. O'Grady-Walsh, Mr. G. McDonagh, Mr. F. Leahy (brothers-in-law). The attendance at the removal of the remains and interment was both large and representative and illustrative of the sympathy felt for deceased's family and relatives.

Wedding Bells.—RAHER-O'BRIEN.—The marriage was solemnised in Gurrane Church on Wednesday morning last, by Very Rev. N. Canon Dunphy, P.P., V.F., Carrick-on-Suir (cousin of the bridegroom), assisted by Very Rev. T. B. Walsh, P.P., Tallow (sister); Mrs. P. F. Walsh, O'Grady-Walsh, Tipperary; Mrs. G. McDonagh, Cork; Mrs. F. Leahy, Youghal (sister); Mrs. E. F. Walsh, Tallow (sister-in-law); Mr. J. Walsh (uncle); Mr. E. O'Grady-Walsh, Mr. G. McDonagh, Mr. F. Leahy (brothers-in-law). The attendance at the removal of the remains and interment was both large and representative and illustrative of the sympathy felt for deceased's family and relatives.

Amateur Dramatics.—On Easter Sunday night the members of the local Lawn Tennis Club made their debut at the Cinema Hall in amateur dramatics by staging the well-known three-act comedy, entitled "The Lord Mayor," under the direction of Mrs. V. McCarthy, Lismore, to whom much credit is due for the training of the artists, all of whom acquitted themselves in a most admirable manner. A capacity audience showed their appreciation by their generous and spirited applause and we are sure gladdened the hearts of all those taking part. The characterisation of the various parts, especially the part of the Lord Mayor, denoted unbounded talent, which, if fully developed could equal the status of first-class productions. The cast was as follows:—Mr. O'Brien, Lord Mayor, (Noel Condon); Mrs. O'Brien, his wife, (Josephine Condon); Mrs. O'Brien, their daughter, (Ina Condon); Gaffney, solicitor, (Pat Neville); Kelly, solicitor's clerk, (Brendan Gibbons); Scanlon, creditor, (Lukie McCarthy); Doherty, creditor, (Tom McCarthy); Mrs. Moran (Ann Ryan); Major Butterfield, (John O'Keefe); Mrs. Murphy, chaperone, (Lillian Condon); Mrs. Meloney, (Maureen Kelleher); Scene I, Gaffney's House; Scene II, Mansion House; Scene 3, Mansion House.

Social Club Dance.—On Easter Monday night the committee of the Social Club were at home to their many friends and supporters at the Cinema Hall Ballroom where they provided the most enjoyable cinderella dance of the new season and the patronage accorded to this annual event showed in no unmistaken fashion the popularity of the promoters who deserve the highest commendations on the manner in which they looked after their guests. A delightful programme of music was supplied by the Brideside Serenaders' Band which was specially augmented for this occasion and was fully appreciated by the large company present, all of whom conceded that the enjoyment reached high water mark, and expressed the hope that the committee would stage a further reunion at an early date.

Congratulations.—Again it affords us much pleasure to convey to the owners of "Springfield Boy," the heartiest congratulations of their many friends, on their dual success at Lismore Point-to-Point Races last Wednesday week. Our recently expressed hopes were thus doubly realised, and we hope to have the pleasure of recording further successes before the season ends.

Disappointment.—Our local senior hurlers travelled to Lismore on Sunday last, but for some unexplained reason, Lismore was unable to field a team to play the game billed for that date and which was in aid of the Green Cross Fund. Grave disappointment was thus caused to the many spectators who were present and who had eagerly looked forward to this clash of old rivals.

TALLOW NOTES.

Obituary.—By the death of Mr. Michael F. Walsh, P.C., Tallow, Co. Waterford, the town has to mourn the loss of one of its principal residents. Deceased was third son of the late Mr. P. F. Walsh, a well known nationalist of the old school, and brother of Very Rev. T. B. Walsh, B.A., P.P., St. Patrick's, Waterford, who was the celebrant of the Requiem Mass celebrated at Tallow Parish Church for the repose of deceased's soul, at which Very Rev. M. Canon Walsh, P.P., Lismore presided, and Rev. Fr. Corbett, C.C., Dunagarvan, and Rev. Fr. Power, C.C., do., were deacon and sub-deacon respectively. In the choir were Very Rev. Fr. Kehoe, P.P., Tallow; Very Rev. Fr. Dooley, P.P., Ballyduff; Rev. Fr. McCarthy, C.C., do.; Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., Lismore; Rev. Fr. Meehan, C.C., Tallow; Rev. Fr. Farrell, C.C., Dunagarvan; Rev. Fr. WESTERN DIV. G.A.A. NOTES

(By "AN RUNAIDHE.")

Games Abandoned.—Owing to the wet and stormy Easter tide the games arranged on Sunday last for the Green Cross Fund were in nearly all cases abandoned. It is regrettable that such had to be done as the subscription sent each year was a generous one and 1943 promised to be better than ever. Perhaps later on it may be possible to fix a date that will give the clubs and the public a chance of helping the Fund. There were some notable exceptions, where despite the conditions the fixtures were held. Chief of those was at Whitechurch when the Brickey Rangers played McDermotts. The attendance was, of course, only a fraction of what it would have been had the weather been fine. Still it was a great spirit that made the game go on.

At Ardmore.—The replay fixed by the Western Board of the junior football game, Old Parish v. Clashmore, will take place at Ardmore on Sunday. The Old Parish lads have been arranged ready for this match for some time and they are very confident that the result will show they are right. Interest in the team in the district has been steadily mounting and of Sunday next every man, woman and child will be on their toes with excitement. Can they win it? Well, Clashmore say 'No.' Charlie Curran has his boys hard at it also and with their greater experience he is satisfied Clashmore can defeat Old Parish. It promises to be a hard, honest game with both teams going all out for a win. P. Moloney, Aglish, will be in charge of the whistle.

Mrs. V. Strabally.—This senior football game at Dunagarvan on Sunday will have a big lot of support. The champion juniors of '42 will be having their first championship try in senior ranks. True, they are faced with a formidable task in meeting the Co. Champions but it is in games like those that sometimes the big surprise comes. Let Strabally take it a little too easy and with a little luck the Nire boys could slip in a score or two that the village players might find it impossible to catch up with. Fit, young and determined the Nire will certainly make a bold effort to win.

LABOUR NEWS

On Wednesday evening last a successful meeting of the Labour Party was held in Croft's Hall, Leamybrien, and a local branch of the Party in the district was formed. The officials elected were: Chairman, Mr. Thomas Veale; hon. secretary, Mr. John Walsh; hon. treas., Mr. Andrew Kett; committee, Messrs. T. O'Neill, W. Power, M. Fitzgerald, P. O'Donnell and J. Whelan. It was decided that the next branch meeting would be held in Killyrossary area and a further entolment of members accepted from there. Messrs. T. A. Kyne, Organiser; M. Crowdie, Sec., Mid-Waterford Area; and M. Downey, hon. treas., of Kilmacothomas Branch, attended.

EIRE'S FINANCES.

Eire's revenue from the 1st to the 24th April totalled £3,376,519 against £3,159,098 for the corresponding period last year. On the expenditure side, Central Fund Services absorbed £410,431 and Supply Services £1,080,000, making a total of £1,490,431. The balance in the Exchequer on the 24th April was £3,015,880.

pressed hopes were thus doubly realised, and we hope to have the pleasure of recording further successes before the season ends.

Disappointment.—Our local senior hurlers travelled to Lismore on Sunday last, but for some unexplained reason, Lismore was unable to field a team to play the game billed for that date and which was in aid of the Green Cross Fund. Grave disappointment was thus caused to the many spectators who were present and who had eagerly looked forward to this clash of old rivals.

C.A.A. ANNUAL CONGRESS.

The Gaelic Athletic Association Congress in the City Hall, Dublin on Sunday, urged the Government to direct the re-formation of the Army Athletic Council to promote national business and to grant to the games of the Gael the status they had hitherto enjoyed.

The Congress elected Mr. Seamus Gardiner (Tipperary) President by 105 votes to 69 for Mr. D. O'Rourke, T.D. (Roscommon), Capt. P. Cowan (Westmeath) withdrew his nomination.

Mr. Gardiner who has been chairman of the Munster Council for some years succeeds Mr. P. McNamee who has been President for five years—two years over the normal period, the extension being at the unanimous wish of Congress in 1941 and 1942.

Mr. Gardiner, returning thanks, said Mr. McNamee was one of the greatest Presidents the Association had known.

Mr. O'Rourke said there had been forces at work against the election as President of a member of the Dail, and he did not take the vote of Congress as a personal vote against himself.

On the proposition of Mr. Sean MacFarthy (Cork), Congress voted in favour of the work done by Mr. McNamee.

Mr. McNamee spoke first in Irish and then referring to the Army games said that they, as an Association, did not and never had denied the right of any citizen, least of all an Irish soldier, to play the game of his choice.

but they most emphatically held that the policy of putting foreign games in the Army was a nationally retrograde step.

Their games, historically, were a part of their national heritage and as such, were to be guarded as jealously as their national flag.

Mr. Sean O. Glasie (Donegal) said the point had been made that the recreational value of games was the only thing taken into consideration in the Army. If that were so, an athletic body doing good work in the Army would not have been superseded by another body "more pliable to the anti-national prejudice of certain people concerned."

Mr. P. Cowan (Westmeath) said the issue was whether the things the Association stood for were to survive or not. Up to January last, there was a voluntary democratic organisation called the Army Athletic Association and, when first organised, had a majority decided that the only games to be officially catered for in the Army were Gaelic games.

The individual officer or soldier was free to play other games, but these games were not catered for nor were they played officially.

NEW ASSOCIATION. The position now was that a regulation had been made by Mr. Traynor, Minister for Defence, appointing a voluntary democratic organisation called the Army Athletic Association and, when first organised, had a majority decided that the only games to be officially catered for in the Army were Gaelic games.

There was, however, no reference in the minutes of the meeting to it as Chief of Staff's message.

They were asked to be said, to put into the minutes the fact that the Chief of Staff conveyed these instructions from the Minister, he attempting to kill Gaelic games in the Army they were doing it with their heads hung in shame.

Mr. P. Mullaney (Mayo) said that in the coming General Election they should require candidates to declare where they stood on this issue. Gaelic to the various security forces might convey to the Army members with whom they were in contact that they defected the action of the new Army athletic body.

WATERFORD'S CHAIRMAN SPEAKS. Mr. M. V. O'Donnell (Chairman, Waterford Co. Board), said he believed that the matter was not unconnected with an incident in Dublin when banners and emblems of enthusiastic young Gaels had been torn up in a riot outside Earlsfort Terrace. As to the position in Waterford, he paid tribute to the support of the majority of the officers and men of the Army, but as good soldiers they must obey their authorities.

There had been no demand, as far as he knew, for the other games. Two men were responsible—the Minister and the Minister for Defence. The Central Council should decide on the appropriate action.

These people had been received with all honour at Croke Park. The question of refusing to associate or co-operate with them should be left to the Council.

Lieut. J. Keohane (Kerry) said that as a soldier he thought it was unfair that the Army should be "dragged down" in this way. In the three Commands of which he had experienced Gaelic games had been given first place. Association football and Rugby were being played by men who had always played these games.

The Chairman said they were not trying to drag the Army down. "I am satisfied," he said, "that the overwhelming majority of the Army favour Gaelic games. On the other hand, there has been a reversal of policy. There was an old athletic

TO FARMERS. An ROINN TALHAIDHEACHTA (Department of Agriculture) BAILE ATHA CLIATH (Dublin). On behalf of the Nation I want to thank you for your repeated and redoubled efforts this season. Your great achievement in spite of many difficulties is fully appreciated. I am confident that the area under wheat, oats and barley can be increased considerably during the next few weeks and the need for more and more potatoes must not be overlooked. The final effort to complete that extra tillage will make all the difference between want and plenty for man and beast in 1944. So neascuidh Dia leis an obair. Seamus O'Keefe 22-4-43. CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

Holy Week in the Church.—Large numbers of the faithful attended the ceremonies in the Parish Church during Holy week. On Holy Thursday morning, Mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock followed by a procession to the altar of repose. On Good Friday morning, Mass of the Pre-Sanctified was celebrated and the solemn ceremony of the adoration of the cross was carried out.

The April Fair.—From a fairly good supply of stock at Kilmac Fair on Tuesday, 3-year-olds fetched from £25 to £30; 2-year-olds, £17 to £23; yearlings, £14 to £17; milch cows and springers ranged up to £20; dropped calves, £3 to £5 each. Beef, live weight, mutton averaged 1/3 lb. and 1/2 lb. and littered £25 from about £21.

The Manly Art.—Under the management of sterling sportsman, Mr. Sam Moore (Provincial Bank), Paddy ("Pat Pounder") Wade, and Pat ("Bungle") Crowde, of the Kilmacthomas Boxing Club, are training assiduously for their respective bouts at Dungarvan in the near future.

Green Cross Fund.—For the above, a most desecrating cause, a hurling match was played in the Sportsfield on Sunday. Due to adverse weather conditions and many counter-attractions the number of spectators was very small. The old rivals, Cappoquin and Tourin vied for supremacy and after a clean, closely-contested game, the result was a draw on the score, 2-3 each. Prior to the start of the game prayers were recited for those who gave their lives for Ireland.

Easter Sunday Night's Dance.—The above dance held in the Boathouse Hall, Cappoquin, proved a wonderful success. Despite many difficulties, the hall was filled to its utmost with dancing fans from all parts of West Waterford. Sparkling music was rendered by the Blackwater Serenaders' Band which surpassed all its previous performances. With the floor in splendid order and all present filled with cheerful, holiday spirit, dancing was kept up with unceasing vigour all night long till the playing of the National Anthem brought to an end a great night's enjoyment.

Congratulations to Mr. Roger Sharkey, Ashdown, Kilmac, on the success registered by his horse, St. Donivan (retained at 7 to 1 against) at Malow Easter Monday Race Meeting.

Another Death.—Mr. Patrick Roche, Woodhouse, Strathally, answered the Great Call on Saturday last week, at the age of 89 years. Mr. Roche's passing, even though at a ripe old age, caused general and deep regret, not only by his immediate relatives, but also on the part of all his neighbours and many friends. An enterprising conversationalist, the deceased enjoyed recalling, in his usual vivid fashion, many outstanding episodes of our past history, including the political and industrial aspects, in all of which he evinced keen interest. He occupied the post of gardener on the Woodhouse Estate for fully sixty years—a post filled since his retirement by his equally exceedingly well-looked son and namesake, with whom, and the other proximate ties, sympathy is widespread. A cottage of imposing dimensions accompanied the removal of the remains on Easter Sunday evening to the Parish Church, Strathally. Subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Masses for his soul on Monday morning, the burial took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of another immense concourse of mourners and sympathisers. Father English, P.P., and Fr. Lavin, C.C., officiated at the graveside.—May he rest in peace.

KILMACHTHOMAS NOTES.

Felicitations are cordially extended to Miss Mary Colley, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Coffey, H.O. Rossmelin, and Mr. Wm. Gough, son of Mr. Thomas Gough (farmer) and the late Mrs. Gough, Carrigrohane, Killrossanty, on their marriage, which happy event was solemnised at the Parish Church, Strathally on Easter Sunday, by the Very Rev. E. English, P.P., do. The newly-weds, a deservedly popular pair, received a big array of serviceable and costly presents to mark the auspicious occasion. They are making their future home in the Old Boro' of Dungarvan, and their numerous friends, as well as the many who know and esteem them throughout these parts, unite in sincerely wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gough length of years of happiness and prosperity in the matrimonial sphere. Good luck to both.

Death.—The death of Mr. James Weldon, of Seafield, Bonmahon, occurred at his residence yesterday evening, following a month's illness and at a comparatively early age, and the end event is very deeply regretted, not only in his natal district, but far outside it. He passed peacefully away to his reward fortified by the Rites of the Holy Church, to which he was ever devotedly attached. Worthy member of a highly respected family of notably brilliant musicians and keenly enthusiastic supporters of the native games and pastimes, the deceased was a man of many estimable qualities; and his neighbours and friends testify to his godfellowship and charity to all. With his bereaved ones sympathy is universal.—Beneath the sod in the Bonmahon cemetery on Monday evening was one of the largest seen locally for a long time, and was certainly a fine tribute to public respect to the memory of a departed worth. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining St. Anne's Church, Bonmahon, 2 1/2 miles from Rev. P. F. Walsh, C.C., Strathally, pronounced the final absolution at the graveside. Chief mourners were Mrs. Mary Weldon (widow); Patrick, Michael, James and Matthew (sons); Mary, Ellen, Bridget, Margaret and Frances (daughters); John Fitzgerald and Thomas Power (sons-in-law); Laurence, Patrick and Michael Weldon (brothers). Masses for the departed soul were said during the week.—(American papers will please copy).

MOOREHILL NOTES.

Death of Mr. D. J. O'Brien.—It is with deep regret we record the death of Mr. David J. O'Brien, Sapperton, Moorehill, which occurred on Monday week after a rather protracted illness, and to the inexpressible grief of his sisters, relatives and friends, with whom sympathy is universal in their sorrow and loss. Worthy member of an old widely established and highly respected family, the late Mr. O'Brien was well known for his many sterling qualities throughout the Decies. In his early days "Johnny" O'Brien, as he was popularly known, became connected with the G.A.A. of which he was a very staunch supporter. In later years when Ireland called, he was not found wanting, and for a number of years he was vice-president of the Kilwatermoy Sinn Féin Club, in which capacity he proved a most indefatigable worker. On the formation of an I.R.A. Company in his native parish he was amongst the first to join, and was appointed adjutant, in which capacity he served until the signing of the truce. When the order came from Dail Eireann to man the public boards of the country, "Johnny" was selected by his fellow clubmates to represent his district as District Councillor, and was appointed vice-chairman, and during his term he never missed a meeting although at the time not a very enviable position. He is, alas, now no more, and one and all regret the passing of a good and sterling Irishman, one who put aside personal comforts when the old land called. On Tuesday evening a large and representative cortege accompanied the removal of the remains to Kilwatermoy Church, where they were received by Rev. Fr. Tobin, C.C., who recited the prayers for the dead. On Wednesday morning, Requiem Masses were offered up for the happy repose of his soul and the funeral took place to the adjoining cemetery, where all that was mortal of deceased was reverently committed to mother earth, in the presence of innumerable relatives, friends and sympathisers. Rev. Fr. Fynn, P.P., Knockanore, assisted by Rev. Fr. Tobin, C.C., do., read the prayers at the graveside. The chief mourners were: Mrs. H. O'Sullivan, Mrs. B. Aherne (sister); Mrs. J. O'Brien, Mrs. M. Malone, Miss K. O'Sullivan (nieces); Messrs. W. O'Sullivan, P. O'Sullivan, D. O'Sullivan, D. Aherne, P. Aherne (nephews), and Miss M. Malone, Mr. P. Malone, Mr. T.
