Sunday next will see a resumption of S.F. activities and a capital attraction is the meeting between Dungarvan and the Nire at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, in the S.F. championship Both teams on Sunday will be evenly matched and a rare tussle is expected. Dungarvan diew with the Brickey Rangers in the first round and if they are to survive this Nire challenge the "Bues" will want to improve a lot. The Nire men showed hard fought game, in the second half confidence against Stradbally and it was only towards the close of the hour, that the 'Keas' pulled out to was only towards the close of the hour, that the 'Reds' pulled out to win a most exciting game. I was pleased with the grit and determination shown by the Nire men against the champions and Dungarvan would want to be in carnest mood if they wish to qualify for Co. honours. Both Sunday's contestants featured in an exciting "Russell Cup" match some months ago at Touraneena, victory eventually going to Dungarvan after a tough hour's football. The Nire on Sunday are all out to avenge this defeat and are travelling at full feat and are travelling at full free, pointed for Waterford, and when John Keane, from a close-in when John Keane, from a close-in when John Keane, from a close-in through a quarters. KILGODINET. It is with very deep regret we announce the death of Mr. Thomas Devine, Kilgobinet, Dungarvan, which sad event occurred at the Hospital, Dungarvan, on Wednesday night last. The deceased gentleman was a large and practical man was a large and practical farmer, and a worthy member of an old, widely-connected and highly respected family. The late Mr. Devine was well-known and valued throughout the Decies for his many sterling qualities. A kind father, a good neighbour and a sincere friend, he was most unassuming and genial of manner and warmly endeared himself to all who had the pleasure of knowing him. To his bereaved of knowing him. To his bereaved family, and other relatives sympathy is universal in their bereavement and loss.

The funeral, which took place from the hospital to Kilgobinet Parish Church on Thursday evening was of very large dimensions and fully representative of all classes of community, and proved a fitting tribute to the respect entertained for the deceased and the sympathy extended to his family in their sorrow.

The burial takes place to-day (Friday) in Kilgobinet at 1 p.m.

On one occasion when witness went to the wood she saw Simon O'Brien knocking a tree. Thos. McCarthy, wood-ranger, came along to O'Brien and asked him who gave him authority to cut it. O'Brien replied that nobody, and McCarthy told him to go out. O'Brien' went out and came back afterwards after getting authority to fall the tree.

John Coghlan, carpenter, gave evidence of getting timber in the wood and of getting permission from the wood rangers previously to cut it. Witness never heard anything about going to O'Brien for permission. John Flynn, labourer, Cappagh, said he got about ten tons of timber in the wood about 17 years ago and paid the wood ranger, Thomas McCarthy for it.

James McCarthy, Ballyduff, also gave evidence of paying a wood-ranger for timber in the wood. Ml. Ryan, Lauragh, gave similar evidence.

Power, Kill. Co. Waterford, from so much of an Order of the High Court as refused to make absolute a conditional Order of certiorari directed to Mr. William Jones and Mr. Patrick J. Murray, Peace Com-missioners, to bring into the High Court for the purpose of being quashed, their warrant committing Miss Power to Waterford Mental

It appeared that Miss Power was arrested by Sergt. Horgan at Kill on October 16th, 1941, and taken to Waterford, where she was charged before Messrs. Jones and Murray with having struck the sergeant's daughter with a switch, and with having threatened to injure other children on other dates. The Peace Commissioners convicted her and committed her to Waterford Mental Hospital, where she was received on their warrant. She was released on October 30 in consequence of a letter from her solicitor. The High Court quashed the order of conviction, but held that the warrant of commital

Mr. Ryan, K.C., and Mr. Ashle Powell (instructed by Mr. C. S Quinlan), for Miss Power: Kingsmill Moore, K.C., and Mr. J. 1 McGuire (instructed by Mr. T. Kiersey) for Dr. Patrick O'Doherty. Acting R.M.S. Waterford Mental

> WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

The liver should pour our two pints of liquid bile into your bowols dally. It this bile is not flowing freely, your food deen't digest. It just decays in the bowols that bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk, and the world looks punk.

Laxatives help a little, but a mere bowel laxatives help a little, but a mere bowel movement doesn't get in the cause. It takes movement doesn't get in the cause. It takes those good old Carters I take liver Pills to get these two pints of bile flowing freely and make these two pints of bile flowing freely and make the liver Pills.
