Cabbage Seeds We have now received supplies of all varieties of English grown CABBAGE SEEDS. Moloney's Agricultural and Seed Depot, BRIDGE STREET, DUNGARVAN.

Dungarvan District Court.

(Held on Tuesday last, before Mr. Troy, D.J.)

Exemptions.—Mr. T. C. Williams, solicitor, was granted exemptions on behalf of Ocean View Hotel, Clonca, for the nights of the 19th and 26th July, when dances in aid of the Dungarvan Farmers' Association and the Cow-Testing Association and the Farmers' Association Committees, respectively, will be held.

School Attendance.—Guard Farrell, school attendance officer, had a number of persons prosecuted under the School Attendance Act. Fines of 2/6 were imposed in some cases, while others were dealt with under the Probation of Offenders Act.

Lights Act.—Guard Farrell v. D. Roche, Loughmore, 2/-; Same v. P. Power, c/o Maybury's, Knocknagrath, 3/-; Same v. Thos. Curran, same address, 3/-.

Guard Burke v. Thos. Morrissey, Montrim, Lismore, 5/-; same v. M. Barry, Owbeg, Lismore, 5/-; same v. Patrick Morrissey, New St., Lismore, 5/-.

Guard McCurtain, Ring, v. J. J. Curran, Mweelaha, 3/8; James Fennessy, Leigh, 3/6; Patrick Whelan, Stradbally, 2/4; John Foley, Church Lane, do., 3/6.

Guard Concanon, Cappagh, v. S. Dunford, 3/6.

Unlicensed Dogs.—Guard Concanon, Cappagh, prosecuted David Murray, Ballintaylor, with keeping three unlicensed dogs. Defendant, who did not appear, was fined 40/-, mitigated to 10/-, in each case.

False Pretences Charge.—Supt. O'Mahony charged a man named John McEnery on two counts (1) with obtaining meals, and (2) by giving false evidence of identification when signing the hotel register. Mr. P. J. Morrissey, solicitor, (Messrs. Farrell & Morrissey) defended.

Supt. O'Mahony said the defendant represented himself to Mrs. Ahearne, Park Hotel, as an insurance agent, and signed the register in the name of Mr. Harris.

Mr. Morrissey, solicitor, said the facts are as stated. Defendant came to Dungarvan looking for work and gave the name of Mr. Harris, a cousin of his. He has since secured a job in Butvant, and came here to work at great expense. There was one charge against him previously at Lismore. He had now secured employment after nine months' idleness. The case was struck out.

Larceny.—A young girl named Margt. Flynn, Fermoy, who pleaded guilty to the larceny of a bicycle pump, got the benefit of the Probation of Offenders Act.

Supt. O'Mahony said that she visited the house of Ed. Butler, of Castlequarter, and when she left, the pump was missed by Mrs. Butler.

F.O. Act Applied.—In the adjourned cases against a number of youths charged with larceny from Crotty's Cinema, Dungarvan, the Justice dismissed the charges, as in all cases, with one exception, the amount involved had been paid into Court.

Returned for Trial on Bail.—In the adjourned case of Supt. O'Mahony v. James Mahoney, Tyr., charged (1) with the taking of five head of cattle value £47 10s., the property of Mr. Thos. F. Casey, Dungarvan, and (2) by falsely representing that he had sold six head of cattle to John O'Gorman, Kilbeg, Tallow.

Mr. Kenny, solicitor, appeared for the defendant.

Supt. O'Mahony said the defendant, Mahoney, failed to his office on the 18th September, 1942, in connection with five head of cattle which he had purchased or obtained from Thos. F. Casey, Dungarvan, on the 10th August, 1942. Witness gave him the usual legal caution, and defendant made and signed a statement (handed in). Continuing, Supt. O'Mahony said that on 18th September Mr. Casey (senior) handed him a cattle dealer's docket which he retained in his possession until it was produced in Court. He is James Fenton, Hillview House, Fermoy, farmer and cattle dealer, said he held some grazing land at Dromore, Cappoquin. He knew the accused, James Mahoney, Toole, and met him at Cappoquin fair—probably the March fair, 1942. He had a conversation with him, and as a result witness sold him 19 sheep for £48 17s. 6d. Mahoney told witness he had some heifers for sale which he was to show at the following fair in Dungarvan and he would then pay me for the sheep. Witness met him at the Dungarvan fair and Mahoney said the cattle were not saleable and asked if witness did not mind waiting to a later date for payment. They arranged to meet later on in Cappoquin, and when they met they went into the Munster and Leinster Bank and Mahoney obtained a loan of £50. He then paid witness what was due to him. Some time later witness got a communication from the bank and in consequence he went to defendant's house. He bought five heifers for £57 10s. This would be from 10/- to £1 per head more than the cattle were worth. Witness couldn't remember the date. Mahoney delivered the cattle at witness's place at Dromore on the following Monday, and witness paid him for the cattle on the following Wednesday, in the Munster and Leinster Bank, Lismore. In witness's presence Mahoney then repaid the loan of £50 which witness had secured him for, to the manager. Witness did not know where he got the five cattle.

John J. O'Gorman, Kilbeg, Tallow, farmer and cattle dealer, said he was in Cappoquin fair in August, 1942. He met defendant, J. Mahoney, there. He asked for witness's name and address. He had six cattle for sale and Mahoney came up and started to buy. He sold him the cattle for £75, less £1 for the tax. He gave me to understand he had no money, but that he was getting a legacy of £15,000 from the U.S. from an uncle who had died there. He told witness he would wire him the money the following Saturday or Monday. He asked for witness's name and address. Witness gave him one of his cattle dockets (now produced). Witness wrote on the docket the amount he was to send (£74). Witness also got defendant's name and address. He made some inquiries about Mahoney and as a result decided not to give him the cattle. Witness forgot to collect the docket. The telegram proposed or any telegram was not sent by witness, and he authorised nobody to send one. At no time did I owe the defendant any money for cattle.

Sergeant Teshan, Dungarvan, said that on 19th September he arrested the defendant on warrant and charged him with the charge as set out in deposition, and gave the usual legal caution. He said, "I have nothing at all to say."

On Wednesday after Requiem Masses for the happy repose of her soul had been offered, the funeral took place to the family burial plot in Knockboy, very Rev. Fr. M. J. Phelan, P.P., Tournarena, officiated at the graveside on which many Mass cards and floral tributes were laid.

The immediate family mourners were:—Messrs. Patrick, Ned and Jack Lynch (sons); Mrs. C. Finn and Mrs. J. Dalton (daughters).

SENIOR F. CHAMPIONSHIP. At the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last, the Nire senior football string were outplayed by Dungarvan after keeping up continuous pressure for the first 10 minutes of the game, in which they were aided by a fresh breeze it was evident that the Nire forwards could make very little impression on the Dungarvan defence. The close tackling of their objective time and again with the result that although continually fed with the ball a series of overs only resulted. After six minutes play Dungarvan opened up and in one of their swift passing movements worked up the field to end a great dash with a good goal. From this to the end of the first moiety, although the Nire did most of the attacking they were unable except on one occasion (a goal) to penetrate a very sound Dungarvan defence. Dungarvan on the other hand had a further goal and a point, leaving the score at half-time: Dungarvan, 2-1; Nire, 1-0.

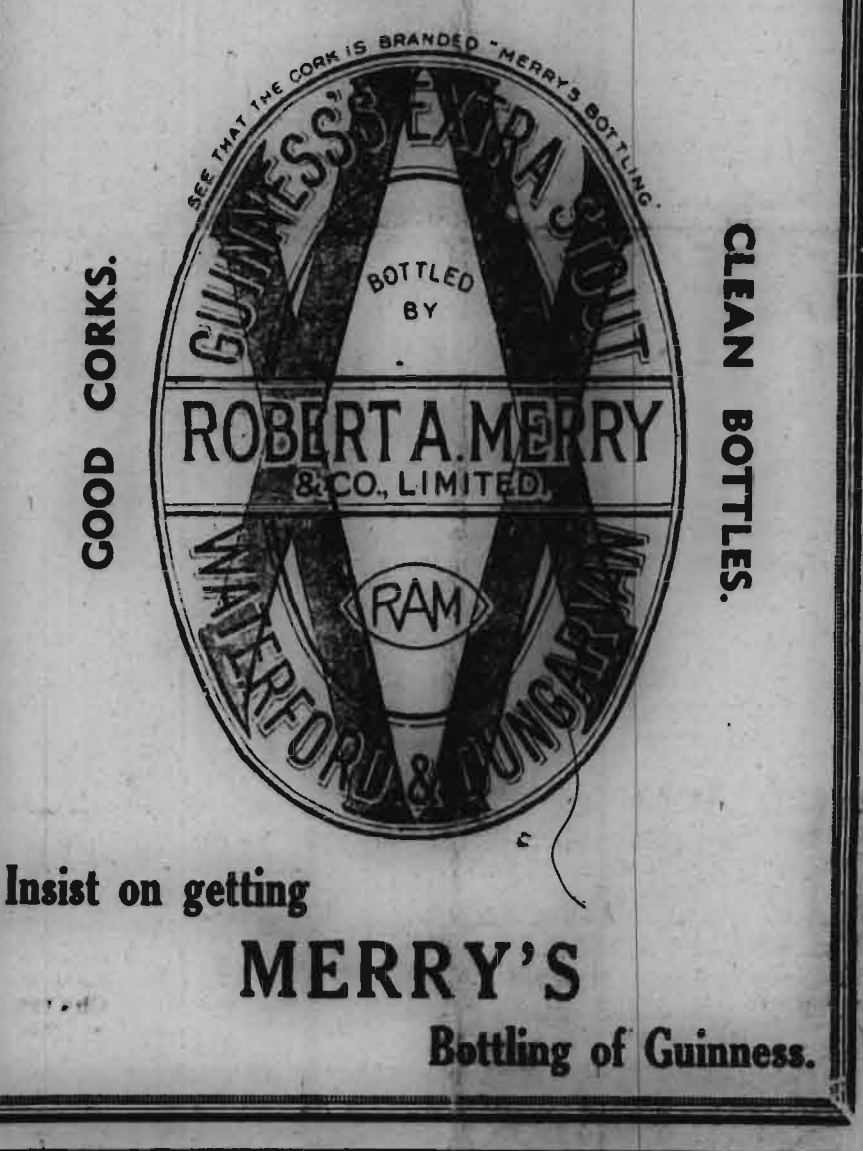

The resumption saw Dungarvan playing much better football, their combination being a feature of the game. They ran out worthy winners with 5 points to spare.

Best for the winners were: Dec Goode, Crotty, Cashin, in the last line of defence; Moylan, Barron, B. Moloney and P. Butler in their respective positions. The losers were well served by Moloney, O'Donnell, N. McCarthy, M. Power and Bill Ryan.

Mr. Kevin Whelan, Stradbally football club referred.

Dr. Kinane Cup.—At a meeting of the Munster Council, held at Cork on Sunday, permission was given to the Waterford Gaelic Field Committee to play the Dr. Kinane Cup tournament on a restricted scale. It is the intention of the committee to confine the competition to teams from Kilkenny and Waterford, and possibly one from Tipperary, for the present.

DEATH OF MRS. M. A. LYNCH O'CONNELL STREET.

It is with deep regret we announce the death which took place on Monday night last of Mrs. Mary A. Lynch, O'Connell Street.—R.I.E.

The deceased lady, relict of the late James Lynch, was the happy possessor of an amiable and gentle disposition and was beloved by all those who knew her. She was a very large concourse of relatives, and sympathisers present at the removal of the remains to the Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Tuesday evening.

On Wednesday after Requiem Masses for the happy repose of her soul had been offered, the funeral took place to the family burial plot in Knockboy, very Rev. Fr. M. J. Phelan, P.P., Tournarena, officiated at the graveside on which many Mass cards and floral tributes were laid.

THE LATE MR. PATRICK WALL, BALLINAVOUGA, KILROSSANTY.

With deep regret do we chronicle the demise of Mr. Patrick ("Patsy") Wall, Ballinavouga, Kilrossanty, which took place at his residence on Sunday evening, following a comparatively short illness and in the fullness of his years. Deceased's name is a household word wherever the children of the Decies foregather. He was captain of the famous Kilrossanty football team that took the County Championship title to the parish for the first time in 1888, in which year (when 21 players constituted a combination) at Clonmel, they unluckily lost the Munster crown by the minimum margin to Boherrowe, champions of Tipperary, who went on to win the All-Ireland laurels of that annum from the championship of the county. By the way, this was the only score registered against Kilrossanty in its history. Only two of that combination now remain, viz. Messrs. N. Connors, Park, Stradbally, and T. Riordan, Curraheen, Kilrossanty. Mr. Wall personally made him a favourite with all classes, young and old, as his sincerity of disposition and his cheerful manner never failed to touch a responsive chord in the hearts of everybody during his long and honourable span. It was only natural that the sympathy of the Gaels in a special degree goes out to the bereaved ones. Deceased was an extensive dairy and tillage farmer and a notably successful breeder and exhibitor of livestock. He was a fluent Irish speaker and had always harboured a great grudge deep down in his heart for the native games and pastimes. When the end came he was reconciled to meet his Maker, and surrounded by his grief-stricken relatives, having been fortified with the last Sacred Rites, he died a holy and a happy death.

The remains were removed to St. Bridget's Parish Church, Kilrossanty, on Monday evening accompanied by the officiating clergy were: Very Rev. J. Croft, P.P., Kilrossanty, celebrant; Rev. Fr. Corbett, C.C., Dungarvan, deacon; Rev. Fr. Power, C.C., do., sub-deacon. In the choir were: Very Rev. Fr. Roche, P.P., Abbeystead, Very Rev. Fr. Conway, P.P., Kilgobnet; Very Rev. Fr. English, P.P., Stradbally; Very Rev. Fr. Nugent, Clonca-Rathgormack; Rev. Fr. O'Byrne, C.C., do.; Rev. Fr. Lown, C.C., Stradbally; Rev. Fr. Doyle, O.S.A., Dungarvan; Very Rev. Dr. Curtis, O.S.A., do.

Burial subsequently took place in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery amid many manifestations of profound sorrow. All the priests already named again officiated at the graveside, in the presence of another attendance of unusually imposing proportions.

The immediate chief mourners present were: Patrick Wall (son); Bridget Wall, Mrs. M. M. Shanahan, Mrs. K. Lynch, Mrs. M. Cusack (daughters); Mrs. M. Cashman, Miss M. Shanahan, Miss E. Cusack (grand-daughters); Messrs. Thomas Patrick and James Lynch; David Patrick, Shanahan; John Cusack, Philip and Thomas Cusack (grandsons).

Mass cards were received from: Bridget and Pat; Katie, Mary Margaret and Michael; Madge and Pat; Tom, Paddy and Jim; Davy, Margaret and Paddy; John, Paddy, Eily, Phil and Tom; Mary and Jim Cashman; Mary Wall; the Cummins family; M. K. Barry; Nell and Matt Scanlan; the Wall family, Ballycoe; Kate and Hannah Coleman, Garranbane; Kit, Eddie and family, Kilossers; the MacManus family; the Condon family; Waterford County Board, G.A.A.; the "Observer" Staff.

POTATO BLIGHT IS SPREADING

Reports are reaching the Department of Agriculture daily from every part of the country, that potato blight continues to spread. The disease this season has assumed a very virulent form and farmers are earnestly urged to make potato spraying their first concern. Ample supplies of spraying materials are available. Full information on the preparation and application of the spraying mixture is contained in Leaflet No. 14, which can be had post free from the Department of Agriculture, Dublin.

MURDER CHARGE.—William Hewitt (21), Irish Street, Raphoe, was remanded by District Justice O'Hanrahan, at Stranorlar, charged with having murdered Private Joseph Doherty (32), National Army, a neighbour, on May 18th. There was an alternative charge of manslaughter.

DUNGARVAN U.D.C. £1 IN THE £ RATE STRUCK.

Mr. Thomas McCarthy (Chairman) presided at the fortnightly meeting of the Urban Council, held on Friday last. Other members present were: Messrs. J. Dahill, L. A. Veale (Vice-chairman), M. Clancy, and Senator J. Butler. Mr. S. J. Moynihan, Manager, was also present.

Mr. McCarthy, New Line, Abbeystead, writing to the Clerk, stated that the pipe conveying the water to his house has now been cleaned by a good plumber, and he has now a good supply. He therefore wished to thank the Clerk and all concerned—the Council, the Borough Surveyor, and the Borough Manager, for the interest taken in the matter.

Mr. Moynihan, Borough Manager, writing with regard to the resolution passed by the Council in regard to a further housing scheme, stated that he had discussed this matter with the Borough Surveyor, and they are of opinion that 40 houses would represent only a fraction of the town's minimum requirements. A survey of these is being made at present. Suitable sites are being sought, and when these are obtained, the preliminary work in connection with the scheme, viz. laying down roads, boundary walls, sewers, foundations, etc., can proceed, so that everything possible will be done to get the erection of houses when conditions admit.

Following a discussion in which the demand for a dearer type of house was stressed by members, the Manager promised to get an all-in estimate from the B.S. of the cost of building from 30 to 40 houses of a dearer type.

KILMACKTHOMAS NOTES.

Anniversaries.—Saturday of last week (Festival of Seven Brothers and Companions, Martyrs) marks the anniversary of the death of a distinguished Kilmackthomas born churchman—Most Rev. Don Maurus O'Donoghue, Lord Abbot of Mount Mellary Abbey, whose great work for the revival of the Irish language will never be forgotten in the Decies.

Today (Saturday) marks the anniversary of the death of another renowned Kilmackthomas man—Robert (Bob) Weldon, "the Gaelic" poet of the Comraighs. Close on two years have elapsed since a beautiful monument was erected above his grave in the cemetery adjoining St. Brigid's Parish Church, Kilmackthomas.

Have it that a Scotch firm has bought up the woods on the Fairholme Estate, Comraigh, and that felling operations—giving much needed employment locally—will commence early in October next. We understand that timber found only for commercial purposes is to be disposed of as fuel—to supplement supplies of turf.

The Shearing Season has just concluded on the Comraigh sheep-farms. In true neighbourly fashion owners readily and willingly helped each other at the work. "Matheals" of twenty or so usually assemble to do a thousand sheep in one day and we are told that it is no trouble to some of the young men engaged to shear from eight to ten "woolies" per hour.

Red Cross Dance.—A grand and gala dance under the aegis and in aid of the local Field Ambulance Corps, will be held in the Union Building, Kilmackthomas, on to-morrow (Sunday) night, commencing at 9 o'clock and continuing to 3 a.m. Music will be provided by the Harmony Sextet Band (Carrick-on-Suir). A covered cycle park will be an appreciable convenience, and light refreshments will be available. The object for which the function is being organised is a very deserving one, and we confidently predict that it will prove one of the best ever held here. Remind your friends of it, dear reader, and please show up and share in the fun with them!

A Kilmackthomas whose geniality of spirit makes him a welcome figure everywhere and who numbers amongst his friends the poor and lowly as well as the great, is Mr. Patrick (Paddy) Coffey, local buying agent for Clover Meats, Ltd., Waterford, who resumed business this week, having fully recovered from the effects of his recent indisposition.

Unfailingly happy-bumoured and courteous Mr. Sam Moore, Provincial Bank, Kilmackthomas, is now enjoying his annual holidays, being relieved by Mr. Denis Mackey, of the Waterford City branch, a gentleman who served similarly here in September last, and who holds a high place in the estimation of not only his brother bankers in our midst but also the local traders and farmers. Like his confrere, Mr. Moore, Mr. Mackey is a sterling sportsman and he is exceptionally keen on aquatics.

Gaelic Games.—We sincerely sympathise with our good friend Liam Breathnach, of Newtown, Waterford, in his sad bereavement and loss occasioned by the death of his son, Eamon.

We didn't know that the Portlaw and Erin's Own S.H. Championship clash had been postponed from Friday last when we wrote about it here last week.

C.T.A.—Mr. John Kiersey, ex-T.D. Ballyvaughan (President) presided at the Chair at the annual general meeting of the Ballyvaughan and Newtown Cow-Testing Association, at which there was a full attendance of the members. Mr. Patrick Gough, supervisor, read his report, as under:—

Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, I beg to submit to you my sixteenth annual report on the work of your Association for the year 1942. During the year we had 24 members keeping records with 330 cows under test. For 294 cows, that completed lactation periods the average yield of milk was 4,982 lbs. of milk and 1,143 lbs. butter-fat; average test, 3.64 per cent. Valuing butter-fat at 1/- per lb. and separated milk at 1d. per gallon, this yield would give a return of £10 14/7 per cow. The five best cows in the Association gave an average yield of 8,288 lbs. of milk and 203.46 lbs. of butter-fat. Valuing as before, they returned £17 18/7 per cow. The five worst cows gave a yield of 2,817 lbs. of milk and 14.51 lbs. butter-fat, and returned £8 3/2 per cow, a difference of £11 15/5 in favour of the five best cows. The best cow in the Association, aged 9 years, calved on the 9/8/41, yielded 9,156 lbs. of milk and 312.39 lbs. butter-fat in 43 weeks and gave a return of £16 12/4. The worst cow, aged 6 years, calved on the 8/3/42, yielded 2,284 lbs. of milk and 98.50 lbs. butter-fat, and returned £4 9/8. The difference in cash return—£11 8/7 in favour of the best cow. I made 166 double visits to members' herds; tested 1,348 samples of milk, and tattooed 20 calves. One was awarded a premium. We have at present in the Association about 46 registered cows, and 16 premium bulls. Members are asked to mark their registered cows with the regulations of the scheme. At the inspection of cows held last year the following prizes were awarded:—For best registered cow, 1st prize, Patrick Cummins; 2nd prize, John Foley. For best two-year-old heifer, 1st prize, Patrick Cummins; 2nd prize, John Foley. For best one-year-old heifer, 1st prize, Mrs. Alice Hally; 2nd prize, Thomas Power. I wish to thank the President and members for their kindness and co-operation in

MOOREHILL NOTES.

Feast of Blessed Oliver Plunkett.—On Sunday last, the feast of Blessed Oliver Plunkett was observed in Kilmackthomas. After eleven o'clock Mass prayers were offered up for the canonization of Blessed Oliver Plunkett and concluded with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Interesting Visitor.—During the past week a member of the Archaeological Society visited Moorehill and surrounding districts and spent a very interesting day surveying the various places of interest in the locality including raths, talach idaghs, old churches, etc. He spent some time exploring the souterrain in Kilmackthomas graveyard. Some years ago this was opened by local explorers who endeavoured to explore its secrets. They found the cremation chamber and proceeded to open the main gullet to the inner chamber which was situated in the neighbourhood of the old church, when a large flag caved in which closed the exit, after which they abandoned the project. The visitor also inspected the Buachaill Aimsir or servant boy on a neighbouring hillside. It stood eight feet overground and six feet in earth; this stone was used in penal days as a watch tower, to guard the coast and his flock who assembled at a nearby place known to the old people as Mountain Air.

Some years ago a local road contractor, Mr. John Mills, while quarrying stone, unearthed some valuable urns which were supposed to contain cremated remains, probably the burial place of some chieftain of former days. The urns are now deposited in the National Museum. Our interested visitor concluded his tour by visiting the blessed well which is situated about a quarter mile from Kilmackthomas Church, the waters of which on certain days of the year are supposed to contain a cure for nearly all ills. Some years ago, visitors from far and near visited it on pattern day and carried away bottles of its curative waters. Our interesting visitor was very pleased with his visit and promised to give a large number of his friends at a later date.

the work of the Association during the year. The meeting adopted the report, una voce, and glowing tributes were paid to the Supervisor on his efficiency, which Mr. Gough gratefully acknowledged.

A Play And Variety Concert, held at Kill N.S. on Sunday night last (in aid of a laudable parochial purpose) afforded immense enjoyment to a capacity house.

Mid-Dece Gacha join with the rest in offering heartfelt condolences with the family and immediate relatives of the late Mr. Patrick Wall, farmer, Ballyvaughan, Kilmackthomas, who captained the famous Kilmackthomas team that made football history in 1888.

Congratulations are cordially extended to Mr. Lewis Foley, son of Mrs. Agnes Foley, Newtown Buildings, Waterford, of the late Dr. Bryan Foley, Kilmackthomas (of worthy honoured memory) on his having passed his final medical examination.

Kilmackthomas Gaelic Football Club, at a special meeting, passed a vote of condolence with the children and grandchildren of the late Mr. Patk. Wall, Ballyvaughan.

Rev. P. F. Walsh, P.P., Newtown and Kill; Rev. M. Power, C.C., do; Rev. P. F. Walsh, C.C., Stradbally, and Rev. J. P. Walsh, C.C., Kilmackthomas, are amongst the clergy of the Diocese on retreat at St. John's College, Waterford, this week.

One Of Nature's Gentlemen and a sportsman of the first water, is genial Mr. Charles (Charlie) Skuce, of King, Dungarvan, with whom every member of the whole wide community who shares his acquaintance sincerely sympathises in his recent sad bereavement occasioned by the death of his wife—a lady who came from a good old family stock, was cultured and refined, and her years were fringed with countless unostentatious charitable activities and outstanding religious characteristics. (The Light of Heaven to her gentle soul).

Mr. Hughes, Aharlow, writes:— "Gurox completely cured two calves. They were in a dying condition when I gave the first dose. Soon I noticed a big change, and they came on gradually until completely cured."

BE WISE! At the first sign of gridding teeth, stretching neck, magering, drooping, scour, and hard in calves, also Wool Ball in lambs, give a few doses of Gurox and see the difference. Used in U.S.A., it never fails.

PROTECTION IN THOSE DAYS

Stout walls, wide moats and drawbridges. Thus the privileged ones of the past sought to protect themselves and to safeguard their future economic independence. For the others there was no such protection.

Now adequate protection is no longer the prerogative of the rich. It is the prerogative of rich and poor alike and none can afford to dispense with it.

The Policies of the Irish Assurance Company afford the fullest security to all at the lowest cost and our Representatives will help you to select the most suitable Assurance for your needs.

DUNGARVAN SHOW COMMITTEE

PREMIUMS TO MARES, 1943.

Under the auspices of the Dungarvan Agricultural Show Committee, the Royal Dublin Society offers four Premiums, each value £12, to Farmers who present a suitable mare (not thoroughbred) seven years old or under, before a judge approved by the Society, who shall certify that the mare is likely to produce a high-class hunter.

The premium will not be payable until a certificate has been received from a veterinary surgeon (appointed by the Society) that the mare has had a living foal, by a Licensed Thoroughbred Sire, within 12 months from the date of the Show, such stallion to be approved by the Royal Dublin Society. A certificate by the stallion owner that the mare has been so covered must be produced to the judge at the Show.

This scheme is confined to farmers who are defined as persons deriving their principal means of livelihood from farming. Not more than one premium will be awarded to any one mare or any one farmer in any year.

The Mare Show is being held in conjunction with the Horse Fair on Friday, August 13, 1943. Entrance fee, 2/6.

SPECIAL PRIZES FOR FOALS.

The Society also offers two prizes value £2 each, one for the best colt foal and the other for the best filly foal, the progeny of a mare which was awarded a premium in 1942. Not more than one prize will be awarded to any one foal or any one farmer.

The foals of mare who obtained premiums last year but which, owing to the mare competition, are eligible to compete for these foal prizes. Entrance fee, 1/-.

The decision of the Royal Dublin Society shall be final on all questions arising out of the scheme, whether as to the bona fides of the farmer or otherwise.

Entry forms, etc., and full particulars can be had from P. J. Lynch, Hon. Sec., Bridge Street, Dungarvan. Co. Cork Murder Charge: Another Remand.—John O'Donoghue (25) single, a farmer's son of Knockamane, Kilmahenny, near Mitchelstown, Co. Cork, was further remanded at Fermoy, on Monday, by Mr. Farrell, D.J., on the charge of having, between June 27 and 28, murdered Mrs. Mary Moher, a widow, aged 63, of the same place. Mrs. Moher, who lived alone on a farm, was found, on the afternoon of June 28th, lying on her bed with severe facial and body injuries. Death had taken place several hours before. Spelt. Moore, who applied for a remand of eight days, said he was making further inquiries which they expected would connect the accused with the crime. On the application of Mr. E. Finn, solicitor, the next hearing was fixed for next Monday, at Mitchelstown, to facilitate local witnesses. Mr. D. Casav, State Solicitor, prosecuted.

NEXT SUNDAY'S GAMES.

Erin's Hope pay a return visit to Dungarvan on Sunday next when they crowd cannons with the locals in the S.H. Co. Championships. Followers of our national pastimes are being well catered for and it is expected that a good attendance will be present. Tallow defeated champions but the Kilmackthomas men say they were not seen at their best against the Bridesiders.

On Sunday next they throw down a challenge to the Old Boro hurlers and they claim they have improved their team since they played Tallow. To win through they are set a stiff task as Dungarvan, at home, will take some beating. Presently there are plenty of young hurlers in Dungarvan and a wide selection has been made from which the team to do duty against Erin's Hope will be selected. We were surprised to hear that P. Nagle had given up the hurling, after which they were appointed in the winning of the championship for the Blues in 1941 and his services could still be availed of. Duncarvan training during the week for Sunday's clash include C. Moyle, W. Barron, J. Mountain, Paul Lynch, L. Lovell, B. Moloney, T. Cashin. It is expected that Tom Curran will fill his usual place on the team as judging from the form shown by him in the football championship, he can be reckoned in the peak of his form. Rumour say Dec Thode is doubtful owing to a hand injury received on Sunday last against the Nire footballers but he may yet play with the locals.

Erin's Hope, who came into prominence last year, surprised everyone the first year of their existence by winning out in junior competition, and backed by earnestness and enthusiasm they have a sporting chance of repeating honours this year. Notable players to line out on Sunday with them are Paddy Wade, Berky Sawyer, Jimmy Kirwan, and Eddie Keating, Padraig Kirwan, Aidan and Donagh Wall. Prior to the hurling game, Dungarvan and Stradbally will meet in the minor football championship (West Div.) and a rare tussle is expected. The minor game is set for 2.30 (S.T.) and the senior game at 4 p.m.

Those who cannot avail of the opportunity to witness the match at Dungarvan will be in a position to see the great match at Portlaw between Erin's Own and Portlaw. Those interested in the senior hurling championship but the locals at home are strongly fancied to reverse the decision this year and will be all out on Sunday next. Mick Hickey will captain the Tannery team and Jim Hickey will be in a position to see the great match at Portlaw. Other prominent players in action will be: Davy Power, W. Galvin, P. Bluet, W. Harney, F. Foley, Jimmy Kirwan, Padraig Kirwan, and J. Doherty, C. Ware, K. O'Connor, F. Pinkert, D. Wyse, A. Carey, with Erin's Own. The game will be refereed by P. Gough, Dunhill, time 4 p.m. (S.T.).

LISMORE NOTES

Late Mrs. J. Nugent, Glenavaha.—Sincere regret has been occasioned over a wide area by the death of Mrs. J. Nugent, Glenavaha, Lismore, which occurred rather suddenly at her residence early on Monday morning, July 13th. Deceased appeared to be in her usual good health when she retired on Sunday night, so her death was totally unexpected and the news came as a painful shock to her relatives and friends. Relict of the late Mr. T. Nugent, farmer, the deceased lady was possessed of a refined manner and genial disposition which endeared her to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, and her passing is deeply regretted. Every family for miles around was represented in the immense cortege which accompanied the removal of the remains to St. Mary's Church, Ballyvaughan, on Tuesday evening. Again at the interment in the adjoining cemetery on Wednesday large crowds of mourning friends and sympathisers were present, amply demonstrating the respect and esteem which the deceased lady enjoyed and the sorrow evoked by her demise. The officiating clergy were: Rev. Fr. Ahearne, C.C., Lismore; Rev. Fr. O'Brien, Lismore; and Rev. Fr. Troy, O.M.I., Ballyvaughan. The chief mourners were: John and Thomas Nugent (sons); Mrs. M. Ryan (daughter).

Bride Rovers v. Eire Oge.—On Sunday last in one of the best and most exciting minor games seen in Lismore for some time, Bride Rovers defeated Eire Oge in the first round of the minor hurling championship. Excitement was high throughout the game as the teams went all out from the throw-in, never easing the pressure until the whistle, while both teams were trained to the last ounce. Tallow were a much heavier side and it was the superior strength which proved the deciding factor in the closing stages. Final score, Bride Rovers, 5-5; Eire Oge, 5-1.

Local Lady Weds.—St. Carthage's Church, Lismore, was the scene of a Miss Pauline Fenton, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fenton, New Street, Lismore, became the wife of Mr. Michael Lydon, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lydon, Bowling Green, Galway. The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. M. Canon Walsh, P.P., V.F., Lismore. The bride, who is a very popular young lady in the locality, looked most charming in a blue ensemble with many accessories. She was attended by her cousin, Miss P. Whelan. Mr. Thomas Lydon, brother of the groom acted as best man. Following the church ceremonies the wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride's parents, where a select company of relatives and friends of the contracting parties were entertained. A happy and enjoyable time having been spent by all, the happy couple later left for Cork on their honeymoon amidst the heartiest congratulations and best wishes of all for many happy years of conjugal bliss.

WEST DIVISION G.A.A. NOTES

Co. Board Meeting Called.—I understand a meeting of the County Board is called for Sunday next at Portlaw. There will be three appeals held against decisions of the Western Board—Glen Rovers against Tourin being awarded the junior hurling game won by them; Camrath against Ballyduff getting the game won by Ballyduff and also Villierstown against the decision in awarding Old Parish the game on Sunday week last. It is possible the Nire and Kinsalebeg may also appeal on similar grounds against Cappoquin junior football and minor hurlers getting the last fixtures. It may be a long sitting on Sunday.

West Div. Board Meeting.—The meeting of the Western Board at Cappoquin was rather prolonged due to my opinion, so many supporters and spectators giving a helping hand to the appointed delegates. I heard the officials of the Board decide that in future only the actual appointed delegates would be allowed to attend. That's what comes of not playing fair. It is possible the Board always tried not to stand on ceremony but to maintain it as the business but discipline which must be done in anything like proper order and time. In future only delegates holding cards will be allowed to the meetings. Club secretaries must see to it that delegates are given their authority ever attended as soon as they are received from Div. Secretary.

Sunday's Game.—A big programme will be gone through on Sunday. At Dungarvan the S.H. Dungarvan v. Erin's Hope will head the bill. Last year's junior champions believe they can take two points off the Dungarvan team. Stradbally Rovers will meet Dungarvan in minor football at the same venue and give the public the worth of their money. I think a number of people will be anxious to see the football clash as the S.H. game. Those minors are very serious about their games. At Villierstown, the minor football game, St. Mochudas (Clashmore) versus Eire Oge (Lismore) will draw a big crowd. Lismore, out of minor hurling, will have all out for a win, but I heard St. Mochudas have a crack team for Sunday. Tommy Morrissey will referee in the absence of Jim Ahearne, who will be engaged with his club on Sunday. At Ballyvaughan, the local game, Four-Mile-Water v. Affane-Modeligo, having won the toss for home venue. They will wear the blue and gold of the Nire team. The Affane-Modeligo lads have selected P. Ryan, Dungarvan, to act as referee. I would like to see this game on Sunday and meet many old friends and sportsmen after the game. What do you say, Mickey? The junior football game, Cappoquin v. Finisk Rovers at Cappagh was another home venue decided by the spin of a coin. Our friend Dec Sullivan travels out to take charge of the whistle. The Finisk boys believe they will win this game but, of course, like a lot of things there are two sides to be looked at. Should the Nire appear before Friday (today at 8.30 p.m.) this game will have to be cancelled.

The Team to Meet Cork.—I hear the Senior Hurling Selectors will be in a huddle at Portlaw on Sunday. The team to meet (sorry, beat) Cork will be out on paper. Well the best of luck to their choice and may our good wishes help them to get as another step forward. That's all we need I think if we are to reach the All-Ireland this year.

Sunday's Fixtures.—(Co. Championships)—At Dungarvan, M.F. Stradbally Rovers v. Dungarvan, 2.30 p.m. (S.T.); S.H. Dungarvan v. Erin's Hope, 4 p.m. At Villierstown, M.F. St. Mochudas v. Eire Oge, 4 p.m. ref. T. Morrissey. At Cappagh J.F. Cappoquin v. Finisk Rovers at 4 p.m. ref. D. Sullivan. At Ballyvaughan, J.H. Four-Mile-Water v. Affane-Modeligo at 4 p.m. (S.T.). ref. P. Ryan. Challenge Game—(H.) Ballyduff v. Castletyons.

DUNGARVAN BRANCH I.N.T.O.

At the quarterly meeting held in Egan's Hotel, on Saturday, 10th July, a vote of sympathy was passed with Mr. and Mrs. Cashin, Ballyvaughan N.S., on the death of their daughter.

Heartiest congratulations and best wishes were extended to Miss N. Whelan, Abbeyside, on her retirement; to Mrs. Walsh, Garrahan N.S., on her recent marriage, and to Mr. Lincoln, Ardmore N.S., on having obtained the B.A. Degree.

A resolution was also passed appealing for an increase in the pensions allowed to ex-National Teachers.

G.A.A.—The Munster Council have presented a set of gold medals in connection with the Bishop Kinane Cup Tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fenton, New Street, Lismore, became the wife of Mr. Michael Lydon, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lydon, Bowling Green, Galway. The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. M.
