The Secretary said that as regards the County Home nothing was done as the chronic cases there were to be transferred to the Mental Hospital where extentions were to take place thus relieving the Co. Home.

The Chairman said that the war was not responsible for the delay in extending the Mental Hospital as twelve years ago they appointed an architect there and everything was ready to proceed with the extentions. The Local Government Inspector agreed that there was spector agreed that there was serious congestion but the Depart-ment held otherwise.

The Secretary stated that all the The Secretary stated that all the preliminary work in connection with the scheme is completed both for the County Hospital, Waterford and the District Hospital, Dungarvan.

will be a rapid development of motor transport and a great extension of the motor engineering trade. Throughout Ireland this trade is concerned largely with the maintenance and repair of motor vehicles in private and business use. The work is highly technical and will call for a considerable staff of qualified garage mechanics. The opportunities for employment in the motor trade at the end of the war are therefore very promising.

In preparation for the post-war situation the Society of Irish Motor Traders' Ltd. is taking steps to compile a register of those seeking employment as garage mechanics. The proposed register will form a waiting list from which those who are looking forward to becoming qualified mechanics will be selected. THE CHAMPIONS STILL ON TOP WEST DIVISION G.A.A. NOTES

In the great decider of the foot-ball championship on Sunday last Stradbally defeated Kilrossanty at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, by six points to two. As the competition is run on the league system, Stradbally have yet to beat the Brickey Rangers before they can be declared Co. champions. So far they have lost no point and out of four matches played Kilrossanty have lost only two points.

As an easy win was predicted for the champions on Sunday last the attendance was only half that of last attendance was only half that of last year but contrary to expectations the losers put up a gallant fight and the ultimate issue was in doubt to the final whistle. The day was ideal for a football match. When those two teams met in a challenge match in Waterford three weeks ago the Stradbally men were superior in all departments, and playing without the services of Andy Fleming while Kilrossanty had a full selection, won Stradbally had one change from their Waterford team when J. Cummins gave way to A. Fleming while Kilrossanty had a number of changes with numerous positional changes. Only three of the Comeragh men held the same position on the field as in Waterford.

The game was very robust and Stradbally attacked from the throw-in and had a wide. In another Stradbally raid a scuffle ensued in the Kilrossanty goalmouth as a result of which J. Foley (Kilrossanty full-back) and J. Crotty (Stradbally full-forward) were ordered off the field. From the kick-out Kilrossanty went into the attack and a neat piece of work by the Veale bros. and Fitzgerald led to a neat point by T. Ballymacmague Accident.—On enquiry at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, we learn that Mrs. Moran, the level-crossing gatekeeper, is progressing as well as can be expected. Mrs. Moran received injuries which necessitated the amputation of her left leg when a lorry the property of the Knockmeal Co-operative Society hit the gate on Monday, 11th inst. The injured lady was standing inside the gate, which at the time was closed against road traffic pending the passage of a train. Mrs. Moran, when hit by the gate was dragged on when hit by the gate, was dragged on to the permanent way, where she lay helpless in the track of the oncoming

KILMACTHOMAS NOTES.

Cinema Completed.—With a unity of purpose intelligently directed, with thrift, investment and enterprise, the progressive firm of Messrs. Edward Hill and Son, Limited, Kilmacthomas are justly claim a most in thomas, can justly claim a most inspiring record of successful accomplishment. This live-wire business concern is responsible, for the substantial, up-to-date equipped cinema just completed on a well-chosen site hard by the local Square, and the opening is eagerly looked-forward to. The Sound System installed is hailed as the greatest advance in film remately a decade and a half of years mately a decade and a half of years ago. From the cinema-goers' viewpoint one of the most important things about it is that all sound can be heard equally well from any seat in the cinema here. This remarkable result is achieved by the most modern method of distributing sound, which is all part of the system installed. That Messrs. E. Hill and Son, Ltd., will provide only the highest entertainment value obtainable is a fact obvious as it is pleasing to publish. The cinema certainly supplies a long felt want in our prosperous Mahon-veined pile.

Walsh, C.C., Kilrossanty, was celebrant of the Mass, and the clergy assisting in the choir, were:—Very Rev. J. Crotty, P.P., do.; Very Rev. E. English, P.P., Stradbally; Very Rev. H. Conway, P.P., Kilgobinet; Rev. P. F. Walsh, C.C., Stradbally; Rev. J. Lawn, C.C., do.; and Rev. P. O'Farrell, C.C., Dungarvan—all of whom again officiated at the graveside, in the presence of innumerable relatives and friends of the deservedly well-esteemed deceased gentleman.

A Loss To The I.A.B.A.—Deep and widespread regret was evinced in his native parish of Stradbally and Ballylaneen, when it became known that C.Q.M.S. John Coffey, of Griffith Barracks, Dublin, had passed away to his eternal reward. The sad event occurred at St. Bricin's Hospital, do., on Thursday week, following a short illness and at a comparatively early age. Deceased is survived by his wife, sons and daughters; his brothers—Messrs. Michael Coffey, Bonmahon, and Thos. Coffey, Ballydwan, do., and his sister—Mrs. W. Carroll, Ballylinch, Kilrossanty. A great wave of sympathy goes out to the bereaved ones. The remains were removed to Arbour Hill Military Church on Friday evening, from whence the funeral took place to Mount Jerome Cemetery after Requiem Mass the next morning. Williamstown, Stradbally, was the late Mr. Coffey's birthplace, and Masses for his soul were said in his natal parish during this week. The "Irish Independent" issue dated the 15th inst., carried the subjoined par anent the deceased on its sports' next meeting of the District Staff. Death of Mr. P. Burke.—We regret to announce the death of Mr. Patrick (Paddy) Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Burke, Currabaha and Mrs. William Burke, Currabaha West, Kilmacthomas, which took place at St. Patrick's Hospital, Waterford, on Thursday night of last week, after a short illness and in his 26th year. The sad event is mourned by a large circle of friends and relatives (including the fine old local family stocks of Harris and Quinn). A blacksmith by trade, the deceased was a first-class craftsman. A sterling Gael, he was a star hurler on the St. Anne's (Kilmac') team of some years back. He later helped the Croughaun Rangers' hurling combination, and afterwards assisted Faha in both junior hurling and junior football (of which he was captain). Possessed of many estimable qualities, he was a firm favourite with young and of which he was captain). Possessed of many estimable qualities, he was a firm favourite with young and old on both sides of the Mahon, and the sincere sympath of all goes out to his parents and brothers and sister in their bereavement and loss. The cortege which accompanied the removal of the remains to St. Anne's Church, Fews, on Friday evening, was extremely large and representative. The Gaels of Kilmacthomas and Faha formed a guard of honour about the bier en-route. Requiem tative. The Gaels of Kilmacthomas and Faha formed a guard of honour about the bier en-route. Requiem Mass for the happy repose of his soul was celebrated on Saturday morning and interment was made afterwards in the adjoining cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. M. Downey, D. Casey, T. McCarthy, M. Power, E. Foley and J. Foley. Rev. J. P. Walsh, C.C., Kilrossanty, officiated. A number of beautiful floral wreaths were laid on the grave. van, Kill.

In the first charge, in respect of July 15, Sergt. P. O'Sullivan, Kill, said, in reply to Supt. Creane, that on July 14 he had the premises under observation at 11 p.m. There were lights in the tap-room of the bar. He heard low male voices there. At 12.40 a.m. he heard the back yard gate open and heard the front door of the licensed premises being secured from the inside. He saw two men in the back yard, one of whom was wheeling a bicycle. When he asked the licensee to account for their presence there, she said that they were invited here, she said that they were invited

Mr. M. W. Keller, solr., who appeared for the licensee, said he did not think there was any evidence against the defendant. Justice—I agree with Mr. Keller.
The most that could be said here is that the circumstances were suspicious, and he (the Justice) was not entitled to convict. He would dismiss on the mostice.

Giving evidence in respect of the second charge, Sergt. O'Sullivan said that at 3 p.m. on Sunday, July 18, he saw a man enter from the rere of the premises through a back gate. The gate was closed but unlocked. He followed him into the yard and found him knocking for admission at the him knocking for admission at the back door. He said he was looking for bread. Witness got no reply at the back door and went to the front door. He heard a shuffle of feet in-

MATCHES AT CAPPOQUIN

Sparkling displays of junior hurling and football were witnessed at the Sportsfield, Cappoquin on Sunday last, when Tourin met Four-Mile-Water in hurling and the McDermotts (Army) met Blackwater signed the renewal of their certificates for the publicans concerned.

A heavy crop of undefended civil bills were disposed of in the usual way.

Fines ranging from 1/- to 5/- were inflicted in a long list of Gardai cases of the usual kind.

Messrs. Patrick O'Reilly shop-keeper, Kilmacthomas; Nicholas Fitzgerald, do., Bonmahon, and Patrick J. Baldwin, do., Kill, were each given the benefit of the P.O.A., on each agreeing to pay 2/6 expenses. They were summoned on a similar charge, viz., exposing for sale baking powder that was deficient in carbonic acid gas.

Licences to hold a series of dances were granted to Messrs. Patrick Crotty (in respect of Leamybrien Hall)) and P. J. Baldwin's (Baldyan, M. Fitzgerald, P. Ryan, D.

Junior Football.—A fast and closely contested encounter resulted from the meeting of McDermotts (Army) and Blackwater Rovers and for 45 of the 60 minutes it was any found another man there. He was recovered.

Mr. Halley said there was nothing previously against the defendant. On this occasion the defendant was at a dance in Bonmahon. He had drink taken. He came out of the dance hall and took the bicycle. He kept it for a time and later took it to Dungarvan and sold it. He had never been in trouble before.

Patrick Cummins stated that the defendant was a public right of way through her back yard.

For dank had worked for him for van and sold it. He had he in trouble before.

Patrick Cummins stated that the defendant had worked for him for three years and had given him every ratisfaction.

When asked by the Justice did the yard form part of the licensed premises, the witness said he did not satisfaction.

The Justice remarked that there was no need for him to say, as it had been said from every bench im Ireland, that bicycle stealing was a particularly prevalent form of theft and was a particularly bad one. He had the greatest possible distaste for sending a man to prison, and he would only make it a small sentence on this occasion.

Charges Against Kill Publican—There were a number of charges in respect of breaches of the licensing regulations against Mary C. O'Sullivan, Kill.

In the first charge, in respect of July 15, Sergt. P. O'Sullivan, Kill, said, in reply to Supt. Creane, that on July 14 he had the premises under Garda Sergeant.

Having heard the evidence of Sergt. O'Sullivan, in vespect of Friday, August 20, the Justice, dismissing this third case on the merits, said he was surprised to have this kind of evidence served up to him. If it were given again, he would like to inform the Gardai and others whom it may concern that he would never accept it. His comments would be more severe on the next occasion. He (Justice) would dismiss the case on the merits on the rounds that the evidence as to the
