O'CONNELL ST., DUNGARVAN.

The news of the death of Mr Laurence (Lory) Dwyer, O'Connell Street, caused a painful shock to the people of Dungarvan on Thursday morning when it became known that gard throughout the province of Munster where his keen business acumen and his integrity in all his dealings earned for him and for his firm the utmost respect and confi-dence of the populace.

dence of the populace.

Deceased, a sportsman to his fingertips, was keenly interested in the sport of the leash and was, since its inception, one of the leading members of the Dungarvan Coursing Club, and an ardent supporter of all national games. His death, so unexpected and after a short illness is deenly deplored by all. To his beis deeply deplored by all. To his be-reaved sisters and other relatives deep sympathy is extended in their great bereavement.

CO. WATERFORD I.D.S.B.S. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING.

At the annual general meeting of the County Waterford Irish Dairy Shorthorn Breeders' Society, held in Dungarvan on Saturday last, Mr. D. Coughlan, Chairman, presided. Also present were: Messrs. G. Bell, P. Morrissey, J. D. Fives, P. Hickey, M. O'Donovan, J. Ryan, T. J. Flahavan, Pierce Coffey, H. Hobbs, P. Gough, James O'Regan (secretary); M. J. Dromey (cow-testing inspector); D. Hurley (agricultural instructor), and P. J. O'Sullivan (horticultural instructor).

The Chairman said they had a very good Show last year. The entries were better than they expected, and the accounts were much better than the previous year. The cash in hands in connection with the Show was over twice that of last year. Their own statement of accounts was the same as last year, and on the whole the that the youth of to-day was gone accounts were very satisfactory. He hoped that before their next meeting the war would be over, when there would be a demand for heifers and bulls to stock Europe and Russia. It would be well for the dairy farmers to have some companyation for the dairy farmers. It was a training their training. It was a training

Mr. Coughlan—We were pretty overcrowded last year.

Mr. Dromey—It is not fair to ask a judge to act in such small spaces.

Messrs Bell, Flahavan and O'Regan were appointed to investigate the possibility of improving the situation.
£10 was allocated to the general secretary, Mr. P. J. Halliden, T.D.

Correspondence.—A letter was received from the general secretary.
Mr. P. J. Halliden, regretting his inability to attend, owing to the difficulty of travelling, and stating that he was hopeful that if the Government would put into effect the findings of the Post-War Agricultural Policy Commission the position of Policy Commission, the position of the cow-testing and dairy cattle improvement scheme would be very much enhanced. "In fact," he added, "it was only on Friday last, in a conversation, that Dr. Ryan told me that the secretary of the Department and his staff were working on it." He hoped that they would have new pro-posals for the congress, which would be held this year in the second week in January. He concluded by stating that they were still pressing, and would not be satisfied until they secured 1/- per gallon for milk during the following milking season.

On the proposition of Mr. Coughlan, seconded by Mr. Bell, a resolution was adopted congratulating Mr. Halliden on his recent election to the
