DUNGARVAN COURT.

(Held on Tuesday, before Mr. S. J. Troy, D.J.).

Ad Interim Transfer.—Mr. M. Hally, solicitor to the County Council, applied for an ad interim transfer of the licence attached to the Commercial Hotel, Dungarvan, from Daniel Walsh to Thomas B. Boyle, Acting Secretary, County Council.

The Justice asked if Mr. Boyle is in possession and if he is prepared to take over the business.

Mr. Hally said he did not know exactly how the business was to be run.

Justice—Is not that necessary? Mr. Hally, sworn, stated that the County Council are in possession and Mr. Boyle as the Secretary is the applicant.

Supt. O'Mahony, replying to the Justice, said there was no objection to the transfer.

The Justice granted the application.

Mweelahaona Dance.—Mr. Williams, solicitor, applied on behalf of P. Mansfield, Ballinates, Old Parish, for a dance licence for Mweelahaona School on 16th January. The dance is in connection with the ploughing match to be held on Thursday, 20th January.

The application was granted.

Literary Club Dance.—Mr. Williams, solicitor, also made application on behalf of P. I. Power, Dungarvan, for an occasional licence for the night of 20th January, the occasion of the Dungarvan Literary Club dance—9 p.m. to 3 a.m.

The application was granted.

Tower Ballroom, Tipperary.—Mr. L. F. Lanigan, solicitor, was, on behalf of Timothy Kiely, granted a dance licence for the Tower Ballroom, Tipperary.

School Attendance Cases.—After dealing with one case under the School Attendance Act, the Justice adjourned the remainder to next court.

P.O. Act Applied.—Defendants having paid into court the sum of £2 10s. each, the adjourned cases against Nora Cooney and Mary Mulcahy, both from the Ballinroad area, charged with taking two coats from bicycles outside Ocean View Hotel, were dismissed under the P.O. Act.

Trespass.—Michael Ryan, Buttery, Dungarvan, presented John Wright, Loughmore, with trespass on his land. Mr. Farrell, solr., for complainant; Mr. Kenny, solr., defended.

Patrick Ryan, replying to Mr. Farrell, said he acted as manager of his brother's farm, and on 12th December he found an animal trespassing. Witness added that in fairness to the defendant he should add that the animal was heavily spangled.

Mr. Kenny, for the defendant, said they admitted the trespass. This horse is a bit of a rogue and defendant is trying to sell him.

Justice—There are more rogues up there than the horses. They are giving an amount of trouble up there and in the court. I am going to stop this trespass.

A fine of 1/- with 20/- costs was imposed.

A similar case by the same complainant.

CORRESPONDENCE.

KNOW THE FARMER.
To the Editor, "Dungarvan Observer."

Sir—Mr. De Valera paid a visit to Cork quite recently and told his Cork audience that "the farmers were relatively better off at present than any other section of the community. Wages of city workers had not gone up anything like the cost of living, but farmers had been more than repaid. The prices given to farmers were fair, and in a time of crisis they should not make it impossible for a large section of the people to get essential foods."

An Taoiseach introduced the word "relatively" in making his comparison, but what conclusion are we to draw from that? If he wants us to accept it that the relative standards of the farmers and the others, pre-war and for many years before, were anything like fair to the farmer, then as farmers we flatly reject any such assumption. That we are better off relatively than any other section to-day we deny. We join issue on this point because it is indicative of an outlook which we seek to eradicate in the interests of a progressive agriculture and a virile Irish nation.

Our hopes for the future must be mainly based on the intelligent organisation and management of our agricultural industry. This presupposes intelligent men and women remaining on the land. If they elect to do so they must be credited with having desires and ambitions of ordinary intelligent people everywhere. When comparisons are being made we are farmers to be entered in the category with the lower income groups in the slums of our towns and cities.

The Trade Journal gives the comparative cost of living figures pre-war and mid-point of the present year. The index figure is 141 points, or 41 per cent. higher than 1938, and the increases are accounted for in the following manner, in the various commodities, on the price of which the cost of living is based. Even assuming that despite higher labour costs and lower yields, some of this increase eventually reaches the farmer, it is to be argued that his outlay on dearer clothing, fuel, light and sundries is something which he cannot avoid and has therefore no influence whatever on his income, unlike those other sections referred to?—Yours, etc., J. F. AGRICOLA.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS.

Successful Dance at Ballinacoola.
A recent crowd patronised the recent dance under the auspices of the local Ploughing Association. The organising committee had all arrangements perfect and first-class music was supplied by John Regan's dance band. An excellent supper was supplied by Mrs. Kelly, Lisamore. The organisers desire to express their gratitude to all who helped to make the function such an unqualified success.

A successful and instructive L.D.F. exercise was carried out in the Clashmore district on Sunday last. Participating were the Youghal and Clashmore L.D.F. companies. The exercise consisted of an attack along the Youghal-Clashmore main road by the Youghal Company, Clashmore fulfilling the role of defenders. The exercise was carried out under conditions as near as possible to those of active service but both units did their task admirably. Umpires with the Clashmore Coy. were Lieut. J. Gaylor (21st Batt.) and Army N.C.O.s, while Lieut. J. King (21st Batt.) and Army N.C.O.s, were umpires with the Youghal Coy. The operation was carried out under the supervision of Lieut. E. Furness, A.C. District Staff Officer, and Sergeants J. McCarthy and J. Holland.

Aglish Hunt.—The Aglish Harriers met at Clashmore on Thursday, 9th January, when about 30 horses and a big number of enthusiasts on cycle and foot turned up. Lickey covert was first drawn and a fox was soon away. This fox took the field on a good ringing hunt over a fine stretch of country. Another fox brought the chase from a covert near Clashmore on a good punt to Coolagh. On Sunday last this popular pack met at Clashmore and had a good day's sport in the locality. Amongst those out at recent meets were Messrs M. Ducey, W. Ferris, M. Perry, R. O'Connell, J. Neary, V. Bowen, R. Kenrick, M. O'Halloran, B. Curran, P. Foley, J. Foley, G. Hinchey, M. Moloney, E. Walsh, M. O'Connor, J. Neary, M. Moloney, B. O'Halloran, M. Curran, etc.

L.D.F. Course.—Patricia Leane, J. Hynes and Col. A. G. Hines were the present winners of the annual course for L.D.F. officers at Collins Barracks, Cork.

Aglish Army Instructor.—His many friends in the L.D.F. and Red Cross (V.A.D.) will be pleased to learn that the transfer (recently announced) of Col. P. Rogers, A.M.S., has been cancelled.

WEST DIVISION G.A.A. NOTES

Dungarvan Club.—The annual meeting of the Dungarvan Hurling and Football Clubs will take place at the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on Sunday next, 16th inst., at 12.15 p.m. The agenda will include the election of officers and committee for the year 1944.

Fourmilewater Club's 25 Drive.—A 25 drive in aid of the funds of the Fourmilewater Hurling Club will be held in the Hall, Ballymacabery, on Sunday next, 16th inst. This is an annual event and promises to be as popular as ever. Doors open at 6 p.m. (O.T.), and the prizes of £5 each to the winning pair and £1 each to the four runners-up will make it worth anyone's money. Tickets will be 6/- per table.

Will Ring Lose Their New Secretary?—I hear a lot of under-ground work is still going on among some of the big football clubs to secure the ex-Dublin-Kerry man stationed at Ring, Dungarvan. Stradbally, Kilmossanty and the Brickey Rangers would all find a place for him. Well, I expect it will be soon known where he will line out with, but I believe that Ring has still the strongest pull.

Sympathy.—Aglish Football Club, Cunnahilly, has received a great deal of sympathy with the Flynn family, Coolroe, on the recent death of their mother.

Blackwater Rovers Meet.—The annual meeting of Blackwater Rovers Football Club will take place in L.R. Dromore on Wednesday, 19th inst. One of the many important things to be discussed is the suggested formation of a hurling club. All interested are requested to attend. Several other important items are on the agenda.

A 45 Drive in aid of the Blackwater Govers' Club will be held in Aglish Schoolhouse on Sunday next, 16th inst. Prizes include £5 in cash and a hamper and cigarettes.

TALLOW NOTES.

Death of Mr. James Dahill, Coolowen.—The death of Mr. James Dahill, Ahauoboy, Tallow, which occurred following a very brief illness, evoked expressions of much regret throughout West Waterford, East Cork and South Tipperary. Deceased was son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Dahill, Coolowen, Tallow (and formerly of Russelstown, Clonmel), and brother of Rev. Fr. Malachi, O.C. Mount Mellary, and Rev. Mother Peter, Assumption Convent, Ballinacree, Co. Down. Deceased saw active service in the Wars of Independence in which he was seriously wounded. The interment took place in the Tallow Parish Church on Sunday last, and was met en route by a company of Old I.R.A. comrades drawn from West Waterford, South Tipperary and East Cork brigades adjacent to the town. The coffin draped with the tri-colour was removed from the bier and borne on the shoulders of his late comrades in relays to the church. Following Requiem Masses celebrated by Rev. Fr. Kehoe, P.P., the interment took place in the cemetery adjoining, where a large concourse of mourners and sympathisers assembled. The final prayers having been recited by Rev. Fr. Kehoe, C.C., a firing party drawn from his old comrades, marched to the graveside and fired three volleys over the grave as a final tribute to the memory of the deceased. Chief mourners were: Mrs. M. Michael, O.C. Cl. Mount Mellary Abbey; Mr. M. Dahill (brother); Mrs. Michael Dahill (sister-in-law); Mrs. K. Ryan, Newswale; Mrs. M. Ryan, P. Condon, Cahir; Mr. James and Miss M. Mulcahy, Grange; Mr. P. Prendergast, Newswale; Mrs. Agent, Mile Tree, Clonmel; Miss Josie Dahill, Feltham; Mrs. Feston, Clonmore, Cahir; Mrs. F. Ryan, Kilmalogue, Cahir; Mr. J. Ryan, Cahir (relatives). Also present were Senator Sean Goulding, Chairman of Seanad; Mr. M. Morrison, T.P. Divisional Secretary; Mr. J. B. Donohue, Clonmel. Mass cards were sent by: Aunt Kate and Uncle Mick; family, Grange; Mrs. and Phil Condon, Cahir; Tom and Blanche Nugent; Mrs. Ryan; Tom and Glohan, Tourane; Michael and Lisa McGrath, Lisamore; Michael O'Connor; Tallow Republican Memorial Committee; I.R.A. Comrades; Waterford and Cork Brigades; the Fennessy family, Glencairn; T. J. and Mrs. O'Dwyer.

Death of Misses Mary and Elizabeth Condon.—The announcement of the death of Mr. William S. Condon, Templeville, Tallow, following an exceptionally brief illness, evoked widespread expressions of deep regret and sorrow over large areas of the Counties of Cork, Waterford and Tipperary, and to his grief-stricken parents and other members of his family, the sincere sympathy of their many friends is extended. Deceased was son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Condon and brother of Rev. P. Condon, C.C., Kilkorney, Co. Cork, and was particularly well-known in farming and sporting circles. The dimensions of the cortege which accompanied the remains of the deceased, on their removal from the Bon Secours Home, Cork, to the Gougar Parish Church illustrated fully the regret felt at his early demise, and sympathy felt for his bereaved parents, brother and sisters. The subsequent funeral to Tallow Cemetery was of immense proportions and representative of all sections of the community of both parishes and large areas adjoining. Very Rev. M. Canon Ahern, P.P., Coma, assisted by Very Rev. Canon Tobias, C.C., Glanworth; Very Rev. Fr. D. Duane, P.P., Milford; Very Rev. Wm. Kehoe, P.P., Tallow, officiated at the graveside. Other priests were, Rev. O'Dwyer, C.C. Coma; Rev. J. O'Donnell, C.C., Ballynure; Rev. T. O'Brien, Fermoy; Rev. M. Hurley, C.C. Midleton; Rev. M. Ryan, Midleton; Rev. D. Evans, C.C. Carriganina; Rev. R. Ronayne, C.C. Carriganina; Rev. Fr. Duggan, do.; Rev. W. Sheehan, C.C., Ballyhooley; Rev. D. Mahony, C.C., Dungourary; Rev. D. O'Connell, C.P., Fermoy. Chief mourners were: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Condon (parents); Rev. P. Condon, C.C. Kilkorney (brother); Miss Josephine Condon, Mrs. B. Gibbons (sister); Mrs. Hennessy, Mr. and Mrs. Cotter, Mr. and Mrs. Duane; Mr. and Mrs. P. Condon, Glengurub, Mr. M. Condon, Misses B. and P. Condon, Mr. N. Condon, Miss G. Condon (Tallow); Mr. and Mrs. P. Condon, Kilmacow; Mr. J. Condon, do.; Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgibbon, Mr. & Mrs. Conroy, Mr. & Mrs. Healy, Mrs. Healy, Passage; Mr. M. Lyons, Ballyvaughan; Maser James Duane (relatives).

Monster Forty-Five Drive.—Under the auspices of the Point-to-Point Race Committee, with a view to promoting the race fund, a monster forty-five drive was held at the Cinema Hall on Sunday night, and proved an unqualified success as the attendance exceeded anything the high standard of former drives. Spirited and close finishing was evident in the earlier rounds and still closer finishing continued in the third round, with the result that there were four pairs for the final, who after consultation with committee in charge, decided to divide the prize money in equal shares between them. The following were the finalists: Messrs P. Curley, P. Malone, M. Mulcahy, Con Walsh, John Coleman, Edmund Cotter, Richard Hannigan, John Curley.

Irish Chess.—We understand that negotiations are in progress with a view to the establishing of Irish classes in the town in the near future under the direction of the County Vocational Educational Committee. Irish dancing and singing will be included in the programme. It is to be hoped that the national facilities will be fully availed of.

Felicitations.—Mr. D. Collins, our local senior and efficient post-man, has been the recipient of congratulations from his many friends in the town and country on his brother's appointment by the Coliste Gnotha Gaelic League, Dublin, as General Secretary, following on a long term as hon. secretary.

Ploughing Match on Thursday next (20th inst.), under the auspices of the Old Parish and Ring Ploughing Association. For full particulars see advertisement.

The Dungarvan Blaziers meet at Killy's Cross on Sunday next, 16th inst., at 12 noon.

GRAZING AND TILLAGE TO LET BY PUBLIC AUCTION. THE undersigned has been instructed by Tomas de Bial (Thomas Veale) to let all that and those parts of the Lands of OLD PARISH containing 98 Acres, or thereabouts, Statute measure, for the period of 11 months, as follows— 34 Acres or thereabouts for Tillage, 84 Acres or thereabouts for Grazing and Depasturage. By PUBLIC AUCTION, on the Lands, on MONDAY, the 24th day of JAN., 1944. JOHN BUTLER, M.I.A.A., Auctioneer and Valuer, Dungarvan. FARELLE & MORRISSEY, Solicitors, Dungarvan. CO. WATERFORD COMMITTEE OF AGRICULTURE. PREMIUMS TO BULLS, 1944. THE County Waterford Committee of Agriculture invite applications from persons intending to compete for Premiums to Bulls under the conditions set forth in the Department's Scheme for encouraging improvement in the breeds of cattle, 1944, and who are prepared to purchase such animals at any of the Spring Shows or Sales approved by the Department. In making selections, the Committee shall have regard to the need for securing the production of an adequate number of Bulls of the Short-horn (including Dairy Short-horn) breed. Towards this end, the Committee shall allocate at least two-fifths of the available premiums for Bulls of that breed, but of the total number of Premium Bulls of all ages to stand in the County for 1944 the proportion of Short-horns (including Dairy Short-horn) Bulls must not be less than the corresponding proportion in the year 1943. The Committee shall, if necessary, take other special steps as they may deem most effective to secure that at least this proportion of premiums is fully availed of. Cow-Testing Associations and Co-operative Societies can compete for those Premiums. Breeds of Bulls, eligible for Premiums and value of Premiums, Pedigree Dairy Short-horn, entered in the Register— (a) Where both sire and dam are entered in the Register, and the sire have not each a milk record of 7,500 lbs. or over—£22. Manster Men Lost at Sea.—The names of Paul Joseph Murphy, third officer, of 39, Barrack St., Waterford, and Peter Carron, ordinary seaman, of Town Wall, Yougal, appear in the latest list in London of merchant navy casualties at sea.

Irish Red Cross (Dungarvan Branch).—First Aid Lectures will be resumed on to-night (Friday) at 8.15 in the Technical School, Dungarvan. Lecture, Question-Time and Social.
 A function enjoyed by a big gathering was held in the Courthouse, Lismore, on Monday night last, under the auspices of the Lismore Branch of the Irish Red Cross Society. Very Rev. Canon Walsh, P.P., Lismore, presided and introduced the lecturer, Professor O'Donovan, U.C.C., who delivered a most interesting and instructive lecture on "Blood Transfusion" which was listened to with wrapt attention. The big audience thoroughly enjoyed "question-time" in which eight teams representing the Red Cross Branches of Cashmore, Ardmore, Tallow, Dungarvan, Cappoquin, Conn. sub. more and Ballyduff competed. After a very stiff test, honours went to the Conna team, the Ballyduff team securing second place. Mr. F. Murphy, Co. Librarian, was compere. The visitors were then entertained and enjoyed a sumptuous supper given by the Lismore Branch after which a dance was held to the

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.
POWER—Mrs. Power and the family of the late Maurice Power, Lyre, Ballymacabery, return sincere thanks to all those who sympathized with them in their recent sad bereavement, to those who sent Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy and to those who attended Mass and the Burial. They trust all will accept this grateful acknowledgment.
 IN MEMORIAM.
MCCARTHY (Third Anniversary)—In loving memory of Mr. McCarthy, Shandon St. (late Cathal Brugha Place) who died January 11th, 1941. On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Inserted by his sorrowing wife and family.

Clerical Appointments.—His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. Daniel Cohalan, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, has made the following clerical appointments: Very Rev. David Power to be P.P., Kilrossanty; Rev. M. Barron to be Adm., St. John's; Rev. Patrick Abshey to be C.C., Conn. sub. more; Rev. Patrick Power to be C.C., St. John's; Rev. James Lawn to be C.C., St. John's; Rev. James Lawn to be C.C., St. John's; Rev. James Lawn to be C.C., St. John's; Rev. James Lawn to be C.C., St. John's.
Late Mrs. Bridget Bluet.—The dear lady died on Thursday, 6th January, of Mrs. Bridget Bluet, Ballymacmague, Dungarvan, after an illness of a rather protracted nature. Widow of the late Mr. William Bluet, the deceased who had practically reached four score years was a lady of a quiet and amiable disposition, who had many friends, all of whom mourn now her loss. The funeral, which took place to the family burial place, Kilmohin cemetery, on Friday evening, was largely attended. Interment after Requiem Masses for the happy repose of her soul took place on Saturday morning. Rev. Fr. Mee, O'Meara, C.C., officiated at the graveside. The immediate mourners were: Mr. John Bluet, Cappoquin; Mrs. Mrs. Mee, Fahey, Ballymacmague (daughter); Mr. Mee, Fahey (son-in-law).
Remittances.—Emigrants' remittances received in the year 1942 totalled £8,379,000 of this amount £6,890,000 came from workers in Britain.
Purchasers of Labourers' Cottages.—The text of the Labourers' Cottages Act, issued on Saturday last. Under the bill, annuities at which labourers can purchase their cottages will be fixed at not more than 50 per cent. of their existing rents. The local authority will be required to give six weeks' notice to the occupier of his intention to apply to the District Court for a warrant for the possession of a cottage should it desire to register the new annuity.
On Consultative Council.—The Minister for Agriculture has appointed Mr. P. R. Power, Clondonnell, as a member of the Waterford County Consultative Council. The appointment is for a period of two years. Mr. Power, who is a member of the Waterford County Council is also Chairman of the Waterford Co. Committee of Agriculture and the Waterford Diseases of Animals Committee over a long period of years.
Ballyduff Man Missing.—Patrick Murray (28), of Ballyduff, Ballyduff, who has been missing since he was seen on leaving a local publichouse at about 10.45 p.m. on Christmas Eve, and has not since been seen or heard of. The Blackwater river, which flows past the village, has been dammed by the Garda Síochána and dragged twice by Gardaí and L.D.F. men, and the countryside has been searched over a wide area, but the man has not been seen. He is married, lived with his parents and two brothers, was of a retiring disposition. He worked with a local farmer and trapped rabbits in his sparetime. It is thought he had a fair sum of money in his possession. He is 5ft 11in. in height, has fair hair, and was wearing a brown suit, blue overalls and black boots.
Requiem Office and High Mass for the late Mr. Maurice Power, Lyre, Ballymacabery, will be celebrated in the Friary Church, Dungarvan at 11 a.m. on to-day (Friday).
Condoleances.—At a committee meeting of the Dungarvan Literary Club the following resolution proposed by Mr. Ed. Pheasant and seconded by the Vice-President (Mr. John Carroll) was passed in respectful silence: "That we, the Committee of the Dungarvan Literary Club on behalf of the members of the Club beg to tender to Mr. Thos. McGrath, Capt. Mee, McGrath and the other members of the family a sincere vote of sympathy on the death of their illustrious uncle, the late Very Rev. Dr. McGrath, O.S.A., St. Patrick's, Rome."

WHY WINTER WHEAT?

1. Winter wheat usually produces heavier crops of grain, stands better and ripens earlier than Spring varieties.
2. The tillage programme is a big one and the cultivation of your other crops will keep you very busy in Spring.
3. The greater the 'spread over' of the work the less strain there will be on man and machine.
4. An abundance of good seed of winter wheat varieties is available while supplies of the more popular Spring varieties may not be so plentiful.

These are four good reasons why you should strains of the Starlight Serenaders' Dance Band, Lismore. All present spent a few jolly hours.

Literary Club Dance.—The time is now drawing near for the great event of the dancing year. Every body is going and everybody is confident that there will be a great night's enjoyment. Mick Delahunty has written to say how glad he is to be coming to Dungarvan again after such a long absence. He says that he has been very much surprised that they will all be at their best on the 20th. He has all the latest successful dances from the country and also has plenty of the good old tunes. All arrangements have now been completed and no expense has been spared to make everything perfect. The running buffet will be in the very capable hands of Mrs. Greene, of the Square, and her charges will be very moderate. If anything were needed to top off a really excellent night it would be a nice cup of tea. The dance has been very much advertised in as far as the borders of Kilrossanty, Cork and Tipperary and it is expected that a great many people will come from out-of-town. It seems to add spice to a social event if there are some strange faces present so we will make the stranger doubly welcome. All arrangements have been made to cater for people from the country in the matter of cloakrooms, bicycle parks, etc. and it might even be possible that this very resourceful Club could conjure up a little whiskey in case the night is cold.
Dungarvan G.A.A. Clubs will hold their annual general meeting in the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on Sunday next, January 16th, at 12.15 p.m. All members and intending members are requested to attend.
With the Blazers.—Out with the Blazers on Sunday last when the meet was at the Master McGrath Monument where: T. Kieley (master); R. Hayes, S. Quessly, M. Pines, T. Carroll, A. Lawn, J. Lynch, J. O'Donnell, P. O'Donnell, T. Savers, L. Morrissey, V. Morrissey, J. A. Power, T. J. Fleming, M. Power, P. McCarthy, M. Kieley, Misses P. Barnes and Ita Flynn; Masters Quessly, O'Connor, Chearnley, Gillespie and Wade. Finding in covert adjoining Croty's rock reynard executed a circling movement by Lackendarra where bounds killed after a great run. This was the Blazers' second kill of the season.
A Brilliant Success.—The great popularity which Supt. P. O'Mahony, the local Gardaí and officers and Gardaí of the whole district enjoy was amply demonstrated by the immense measure of support afforded to the Garda Benevolent Fund held in the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on Wednesday night last. The function was voted by one and all of the 250 couples present to be the best and most enjoyable dance held in Dungarvan for a very long period. Had weather conditions been more favourable, there would not be standing room in the hall. Dancing commenced at 9 p.m. and there was not a dull moment until the playing of the National Anthem terminated the gala event at 3 a.m. The Bride-side Serenaders provided the music in their usual superb manner and cloakroom and parking facilities for bicycles were efficiently operated to the satisfaction of all patrons, while

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

Wedding Bells.—The wedding took place at St. Patrick's, Cork, on Wednesday morning, 29th Dec., of Mr. Vincent Finn, youngest son of Mrs. Mary Finn, Bray, Co. Wicklow, and the late Thomas Finn, R.I.C., Belfast, and Breda, only daughter of John and Mrs. Spillane, Cappoquin. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass, was performed by Rev. J. Camilleri, C.C. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Jack Crowe, Cappoquin, and looked charming in blue and white accessories and was attended by Miss Lal Ryan, Cappoquin. The best man was Lieut. A. P. Mooney. After the ceremony, the ceremony the entire wedding party repaired to the Metropole Hotel, where breakfast was served in a sumptuous style, when the toast of the bride and bridegroom was appropriately honoured. Later the happy couple, amidst the warmest congratulations and best wishes of all for a long and prosperous life of conjugal bliss, left for Dublin and spent the honeymoon being very popular, enjoy a wide friendship circle and were the recipients of unlimited costly and serviceable presents to mark the auspicious occasion.
Death of Mr. Patrick Lenane.—It is with deep regret we announce the death of Mr. Patrick Lenane, which sad event occurred in his residence, Dromans, Cappoquin, on Tuesday, 4th January, 1944. He was 57 years of age. Deceased was son of Mr. Patrick and the late Mrs. Lenane, Dromans, and belonged to an old and respected family. Of a quiet and unassuming disposition, he was a genuine favourite with all and his loss came as a great shock to his many relatives and friends, especially as he was father of a young family and now we offer our sincere sympathy to the great loss which they have sustained. The remains were removed to Affane Church on Wednesday evening, the large and representative cortege that followed the funeral testified the high esteem in which he was held. Interment took place in Affane Graveyard after the celebration of Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul. The chief mourners were: Kathleen (wife), John, Patrick and Mary (children); Patrick Lenane (father); Ed. John, Maurice (brothers); Mrs. Ned Lenane, Mrs. John Lenane (sisters-in-law); Mr. Mee, Power (uncle).

45 Drive.—A 45 drive will take place in the C.Y.M.S. Hall, Cappoquin, on Sunday, 16th January, in aid of the Cappoquin Athletic and Cycling Club. The first rounds can be "played" anywhere but the semi-finals and final will be played on Sunday evening at 8 p.m. for the desirable cash prize of £10; £3 going to the winning pair; £1 each to the runners-up, also £1 to householders where the winning pair play first round.
Death of Mr. M. Cahill.—The death took place at his residence on Monday, 10th January, of Mr. Michael Cahill, Affane, Cappoquin, at an advanced age. Deceased was one of the old stock of Affane and a man of genuine regret were evoked among the people of Affane and Cappoquin when the sad news was announced. Deceased was possessed of a gentle and cheery disposition and enjoyed immense popularity with all. To his beloved family deepest sympathy is extended in their sorrow. The very large cortege which accompanied the removal of the remains on Tuesday evening to Affane Church was a striking tribute to the memory of the deceased. Requiem Mass was offered up on Wednesday morning and the burial took place in Affane Cemetery in the presence of another large gathering of relatives and friends. Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., Affane-Modeligo, read the last prayers at the graveside. Chief mourners were: Patrick and John Cahill (sons); Mrs. P. and Mrs. J. Cahill (daughters-in-law); and his grandchildren.

N.A.C.A.—A special meeting of the local Club was held on Tuesday night, Mr. F. X. O'Leary presiding. Arrangements for the 45 drive to be held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall on next Sunday were made, stewards, etc., being appointed. The delegates to the County Board's annual meeting (Sergt. Eryome, Messrs. J. J. Foley and D. McGrath) gave a report of the proceedings. The meeting heard with interest and pleasure of the formation of new clubs at Kilmestomas, Lismore, Dungarvan and other centres and the hope was expressed that during the coming season there would be a considerable fillip to athletics. It was decided to hold the annual general meeting of the Club in a fortnight.

KILMACTHOMAS NOTES.

Last Sunday Night's Dance at Baldwin's Hall, Kill, was accorded a magnificent measure of support. Cordially and gaily proved the predominant notes of an all-pleasurable function. Dancing commenced at 9 p.m., continuing up to 2 a.m. A swing band, augmented by Dick Walsh, saxophonist (Waterford), rendered the music to the complete satisfaction of all. Praise is due to the management for their part in making the affair such a success.

A Public Lamp (electric current) has now been erected at St. Anne's Terrace, Kilmacthomas, at a point proximate to the Post Office. The occupants of the lower part of the terrace are hoping that a second lamp will be provided in their side.

Fianna Fall.—The annual general meeting of the Newtown, Portlaur and Clonsa-Power Club respectively, will take place on to-morrow (Sunday), and each will be addressed by Mr. M. Morrissey, T.D. The meetings are fixed as follows: Newtown, 10 a.m. (old time); Clonsa-Power, 11 a.m. (old time), and Portlaur, 3 p.m. (summer time).

Quitted.—The thatched roof residence of Mr. Wm. Galvin, labourer, Kilmoylan, Kilmacthomas, was completely destroyed by fire during the night of the 30th inst. Sparks from the chimney were believed to have caused the outbreak. The owner and his wife and large family are since dwelling in a nearby house which had been vacant.

Sympathy.—Widespread sympathy is extended to Mr. Michael Murphy, St. Anne's Terrace, Kilmacthomas, in his sad bereavement occasioned by the death of his uncle, the late Mr. J. Murphy, Ring, Dungarvan, a Waterford man who was greatly esteemed for his many sterling qualities of head and heart. On Monday, following the celebration of Requiem Mass for his soul in St. Nicholas's Church Ring (wherein the remains were rested overnight), the burial took place in the presence of innumerable relatives, friends and sympathisers. Rev. Fr. Power, C.C., Ring, officiated at the graveside.—Ar dheis De go raibh a fianan.

Agala.—Much sympathy also goes out to Mr. C. Langley, P.C., from Lodge, Kilmacthomas, on the death of his aunt, Miss S. Langley, which occurred in Dublin on Tuesday last.

Diocesan Appointments.—A complete list of the clerical appointments just made by our beloved Lord Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. Cahanan, is chronicled elsewhere. In the parish of Very Rev. David Power, Adm., St. John's, Waterford, who has been elevated to the pastoral charge of the combined parishes of Kilmoylan and Fews (in succession to the late lamented Very Rev. John Crotty, P.F.), is a native of Kilmacthomas. His father, James, was a member of the Rev. Denis Power, C.C., Dungarvan, and the Rev. Nicholas Power, C.C., Mary's, Clonsa-Power. His mother, Mrs. Mary, is a native of Clonsa-Power. His father, James, was a member of the Rev. Denis Power, C.C., Dungarvan, and the Rev. Nicholas Power, C.C., Mary's, Clonsa-Power.

Chairman (Mr. W. J. Broderick, T.D.)—Oh, no, it doesn't. The Chairman said everybody concerned objected to the selection of the site of the new bridge being taken entirely out of the hands of the local people. He was not prepared to ask the Council to be a party to providing money until he knew what procedure the Minister was going to adopt, and whether local opinion would be consulted.

Mr. E. O'Mahony asked if there was a suggestion that the Department did not approve of the existing site. Chairman—Well, that is the opinion, not publicly expressed, but the engineers' opinion. Mr. O'Mahony said if there was anything in the Department's mind as to the unsuitability of the present site, they might canvass public opinion on the point that if the site was to be changed at all the bridge should be brought nearer Youghal.

Chairman—Their idea is to bring it higher up the river, further away from Youghal. Mr. O'Mahony—Give us permission to work up public opinion to have the bridge somewhere near the ferry slip.

The Chairman said the members had seen his statement in the Daily. He took it that the Council was not prepared to put up any money until they knew definitely in what direction it was going to be spent. Mr. O'Mahony and others could get an expression of public opinion through the Tourist Board or from the Urban Council.

The Chairman's suggestion was agreed to unanimously.

MOOREHILL NOTES.

Vote of Sympathy.—At a meeting of the Kilwatermoy Dramatic Class, held on Friday night last, the following vote of sympathy proposed by Mr. Dunne and seconded by Mr. T. Roche, was passed in silence. That we, the members of the Kilwatermoy Dramatic Class, tender our deep sympathy to the relatives of the late Mr. James Dahill on their sad bereavement.

Remembrance.—At 9 o'clock Mass at Kilwatermoy Church on Sunday morning, prayers were offered up for the repose of the soul of Mr. Michl. Baldwin, Moorehill, the anniversary of whose death occurs about this time, and for whom Masses were offered up during the week.

Enjoyable Entertainment.—On Sunday night last a very successful variety entertainment was held at Camphire School, under the auspices of the local Hurling Club and was attended by a capacity audience, who, one and all, enjoyed the programme presented. The proceedings opened with a one-act Irish comedy by the members of the Kilwatermoy Dramatic Class, which was much appreciated. The next part of the programme included songs by Miss Condon, Miss Geary, Mrs. M. R. Acres, Mr. J. Power, Mr. B. Creagh, Mr. B. Farrell, and Mr. J. O'Connor; Irish step-dancing by the Misses McLaughlin, American melodies on the piano accordion by Mr. V. Acres; a comedy musical item by Messrs. W. Hogan and B. Creagh. Then came a variety of musical fare which kept the house in rars of laughter and the concluding part included songs by Miss J. and Miss Maureen McGrath, Mr. B. Farrell, Mr. B. Creagh and Mr. J. Connors; musical numbers by Mr. V. Acres and Irish step-dancing by the Misses McLaughlin. A delightful selection of Irish music was played during the interval by Mr. D. Geary, and the proceedings were brought to a conclusion by the singing of the National Anthem.

CORK CO. COUNCIL'S DISCUSSION ON YOUGHAL BRIDGE. The question of the proposed new Youghal Bridge again came up at Friday's meeting of the Cork County Council. At a previous meeting the Council had signified its willingness to contribute its own share of the cost of the preliminary surveys and the preparation of plans, but deferred consideration pending information from the Department as to what Government grant would be made towards the preliminary expenses and the building of the bridge. The Department now wrote stating that the cost of reconstruction of the bridge at Youghal, including preliminary surveys and the preparation of plans would be a charge on the Council's concerned, subject to whatever grant may be allocated from the Road Fund. In the present condition of the Road Fund, the letter added, there was no possibility of making any such grant.

Mr. W. J. Roycroft—That finishes it. Chairman (Mr. W. J. Broderick, T.D.)—Oh, no, it doesn't. The Chairman said everybody concerned objected to the selection of the site of the new bridge being taken entirely out of the hands of the local people. He was not prepared to ask the Council to be a party to providing money until he knew what procedure the Minister was going to adopt, and whether local opinion would be consulted.

Mr. E. O'Mahony asked if there was a suggestion that the Department did not approve of the existing site. Chairman—Well, that is the opinion, not publicly expressed, but the engineers' opinion. Mr. O'Mahony said if there was anything in the Department's mind as to the unsuitability of the present site, they might canvass public opinion on the point that if the site was to be changed at all the bridge should be brought nearer Youghal.

Chairman—Their idea is to bring it higher up the river, further away from Youghal. Mr. O'Mahony—Give us permission to work up public opinion to have the bridge somewhere near the ferry slip.

The Chairman said the members had seen his statement in the Daily. He took it that the Council was not prepared to put up any money until they knew definitely in what direction it was going to be spent. Mr. O'Mahony and others could get an expression of public opinion through the Tourist Board or from the Urban Council.

The Chairman's suggestion was agreed to unanimously.

BALLINAMEELA PLOUGHING COMPETITION.

AN OUTSTANDING SUCCESS. A glorious afternoon for the work followed had forenoon on Thursday when the above event took place at Launagh Cross before a tremendous crowd of spectators. The event was of its kind in the area, evoked the keenest interest. Through-out the day spectators were arriving in all modes of conveyances. The judges were Messrs. George Bell, Curraghmore, and P. Cummins, Carrigeen.

An energetic committee with two vice secretaries in Messrs. D. McGrath and P. Dwyer had all arrangements perfect and with the assistance of Mr. P. Hickey, Treasurer, the Committee, Mr. J. O'Dwyer, Secretary, Co. Committee of Agriculture, and Mr. D. Hurley, Co. Agricultural Instructor, everything passed off without the slightest hitch. The field was kindly lent by Mr. M. Ryan, Launagh. This ploughing competition was initiated through the efforts of the members of the Ballinameela Agricultural Class (under the auspices of the Co. Committee of Agriculture) of whom Mr. D. Hurley is the instructor and they thoroughly deserve Thursday's signal success in such a difficult but laudable undertaking. Those farmers who so kindly lent their teams to the occasion are also to be thanked.

Interested spectators amongst the large assembly were Very Rev. J. Gleeson, P.P., Aghil, and Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., Ballinameela. Details: Class I (Open)—1st, Mr. Martin Coffey, Dunhill; 2nd, Mr. Owen Corbett, Knockalara; 3rd, Mr. Wm. Tobin, Quarter. Best centre and best furrow, Mr. M. Coffey.

Class II (Confined to non-prize-winners)—1st, Mr. P. Barron, Ballinshemera, Cappagh; 2nd, Mr. Jas. Burke, Ballinmeela; 3rd, Mr. T. Cliffe, Ballygambon. Best centre, P. Barron; best furrow, T. Cliffe.

Class III (Tractors)—1st, Mr. Lennane, Bantroy, Co. Cork. His work was a brilliant display of ploughmanship. Two valuable winkers presented by Mr. M.L. Curran, Squares, Dungarvan, for the two best ploughmen attending the agricultural class at Ballinmeela, were won by Mr. P. Barron, Ballinshemera, and J. Burke, Ballinmeela.

LONG TERM LOAN FOR FARMERS. AGRICULTURAL CREDIT CORPORATION. expression of public opinion through the Tourist Board or from the Urban Council. The Chairman's suggestion was agreed to unanimously.

East Waterford Board, G.A.A.—The following officers were elected for the year 1944 at the 19th annual Convention of the East Waterford Board, G.A.A., held at Ballynatt on Sunday last: Chairman, Mr. C. Ware (Eoin's Own); Vice-Chairman, Mr. P. Kenneally (Ballyduff); Secretary, Mr. M. McCarthy (St. Stephens); treasurer, Mr. S. Murphy (Mount Sion); registrar, Mr. D. McCarthy (St. Stephens); delegates to Co. Board, Mr. F. J. O'Sullivan (Clonsa), P. Donnelly (Ballyduff), P. Duggan (P. H. Pearse).

Wedding Bells.—A pretty wedding was solemnised in the Abbeyside Parish Church on Tuesday last by Very Rev. J. Roche, P.P., when Miss Kathleen McCarthy, daughter of Mr. Wm. and Mrs. Tobin, Pike (Garranbane), Dungarvan, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Thomas Mahony, Garry, Dungarvan. The bride was attended by her cousin, Mrs. Nora Capper, as matron and an attractively arranged dance at the Town Hall, of which full details will be given in later issues.

Dungarvan Choral Society.—This week the members of the Choral Society met to commence the second part of their season. Filled with fresh enthusiasm and with the memory of their recent choral success still fresh in their minds, they all looked bright and happy. Miss Maureen Delany, (director) well-combed all back again and got down to business. It is contemplated to give a concert in the Town Hall in the not very far distant future, so all must now begin to take seriously to their work. There is an amount of work to be done—we must start from the very beginning, to regular attendance at the classes is essential. While our aim is to re-establish a love of music singing and to give it its rightful place in our lives, we can still enjoy ourselves. Everybody is welcome among us; we have a Choral Society, and with co-operation and help we can go far.

The concert which we propose to run will be on different lines to that of which you are accustomed to see. Our programme, which we hope to make as bright as possible, will consist of nothing but well-loved, and well-tested by music lovers. We also intend to invite some guest artists. At the moment we cannot say who they will be, but we will not be disappointed at our selection. At the moment it is understood that the membership list is closed out of reflections, but that there are still some vacancies for tenors. The meetings will be held on Thursdays, each Thursday night at 8.30 at Scoll na Gard—An Rúnaidhe.

Independence Day Commemoration.—Friday, 21st inst., is Independence Day and will be so observed all over the country by members of Ailtnri na h-Aisireigh. On that day 25 years ago Cathal Brugha read in Dail Eirann the Declaration of Ireland's Independence. That was the greatest moment in Ireland's history since 1776. It was the first time in 750 years that a real Irish Parliament met and the first time that Ireland's Independence was formally declared. It was the goal for which thousands died and had striven for generations, and though it was but short-lived, it was a glorious moment in our history. All members of Ailtnri na h-Aisireigh are invited to observe this day in some special manner. It is not possible at the present time to have any elaborate celebrations, but in Dungarvan a public lecture is to be given in the Town Hall on the night of the 21st inst. Every member is expected to attend, and it is anticipated that everyone who is at all interested in this glorious period of our history will be present to hear it explained and analysed.

Aisireigh, 1919/1944.—On January 21st, 1919, one of the most unique events which have taken place in Ireland for hundreds of years occurred when Dail Eirann, the Government of the Irish Republic, held its first public session in the Mansion House, Dublin, presided over by the fearless, noble-hearted Cathal Brugha. On the same day the first shot of the War of Independence was fired at Soloheadbeg in Tipperary. To commemorate those historic events, a concert under Aisireigh auspices will be held at the Halfway Hall on the 23rd inst. The programme will include two plays, Irish and English, by the Aisireigh Dramatic Class. The Irish play recalls a humorous incident in the bad days of the landlords, and serves to show that even in those terrible times of rack-rents and evictions the Irish people never lost their traditional sense of humour. It is one long laugh from start to finish. They will also produce Maeve Cavanagh MacDowling's famous tragedy of the troubled times, "In the Time of the Tans"—drama, action and romance against the blazing background of Ireland's fight for freedom. To see this play is to live again through days of death and destruction, of terror and tension, of grief and glory. The Proclamation of Independence will be read, and one minute's silence will be observed in honour of those who died for the Irish Republic in the years 1919-1923. We confidently count on the veterans of that period to show their respect for their fallen comrades by attending this function and giving their support and encouragement to the youth of the Aisireigh movement in the final phase of our fight for freedom.

Lissalen (Tramore) Ploughing Match.—A big crowd was present at Lissalen Ploughing Match, held on the 8th inst. The match was under the auspices of the Waterford County Committee of Agriculture, with the co-operation of the farmers of the Gaultier and Castletown districts, from amongst whom a virile committee had been appointed, with Mr. N. Sheehan, Leperstown, as the livestock hon. secretary. The judges were Messrs. M. Kinsella, Dunhill, and L. Murray, Shanadune. Mr. J. O'Dwyer, Secretary, Co. Committee of Agriculture, and Mr. P. Donnelly, agricultural instructor, were in attendance. Results—Senior Class (open): 1st prize (25), Joseph Walsh, Clonsara; Michael Hayes, Orchardstown, and Peter Murphy tied for 2nd place. Junior Class (open): John Kavanagh (Jun.), Kill, 1st; Denis Doyle, Lissalen, 2nd. Novice Class (open): Jos. O'Toole, Liscawn, 1st; Richard Delahunty, Harristown, 2nd; T. Faskin, Ballygunner, 3rd. Novices (confined to members of winter agricultural classes): John O'Connell, Kilmagee, 1st; Mce, Cheasty, Quilla, 2nd; Ed. Walsh, Ballygunner, and Fr. Flynn, Leperstown, tied for 3rd place.

Wages Tribunal at Waterford.—At the meeting of the Wages Tribunal, held in Waterford on Wednesday last, the following bonuses were agreed to by the employers concerned and the union representatives, payment to be retrospective as from 1st Dec. last: J. McGrath & Sons, building contractors, Dungarvan, 8/- per week; P. I. Power, St. Bridget's Well Brewery, 8/- per week; Jos. A. Power, (Bakery), 8/- per week; Sheehan Ryan & Co., 8/- per week; M. J. Casey & Co., 3/- per week; Crotty's Bakery, 2/- per week. The union was represented by Mr. G. Lynch and Mr. T. A. Kyns.

DEATH OF REV. WM. BURKE.

Deep regret was occasioned by the death of Rev. Wm. Burke, who took place at his residence in Stradbally on Tuesday morning. Father Burke, who was an octogenarian, was senior curate in the Parish of Stradbally, when failing health obliged him to retire from the Mission some fifteen years since. A native of South Tipperary, he was a most saintly priest and a gifted man. He had a distinguished collegiate course, and his ecclesiastical appointments in the Diocese before his advent to Stradbally, and after having spent some years on the Mission in England, included C.C. Clonsa-Power, mack, and C.C. Kilgobnet. There are wide and deep condolences with his relatives in their bereavement and loss. A cortege representative of all classes and sections of the whole wide community attended at the removal of the remains to the Parish Church, Stradbally, where they were placed on a catafalque before the High Altar. Solemn Office and High Mass of Requiem for his soul was celebrated at 11 a.m. (old time) on Thursday morning. Very Rev. E. English, P.P., Stradbally, presided. The celebrants were: Walsh, C.C., Stradbally; deacon, Very Rev. P. Cummins, Prior, O.S.A., Cork; sub-deacon, Rev. J. P. Walsh, C.C., Kilrossant; master of ceremonies, Rev. J. Corbett, C.C., Dungarvan. In the choir were Very Rev. J. Galvin, P.P., Newtown; Rev. M. Power, C.C., Kill; Rev. J. Halley, C.C., Clonsa-Power; Rev. T. O'Shea, C.C., Tramore; Rev. J. Law, C.C., Stradbally; Rev. W. Meehan, Clonsa-Power; Rev. Fr. Magee, O.S.A.; Rev. Fr. Doyle, O.S.A., Dungarvan.

Interment was made immediately afterwards in the adjoining cemetery. All the above named clergymen were present at the graveside. The relatives present were Edward Burke, James Ryan (nephew), Mr. Bridget O'Brien, Kilmolish, Clonsmeel (niece).

Ballycurrane Dance.—The dance at Ballycurrane will be the chief attraction in these parts on Sunday night next. First class music and excellent arrangements by the organisers give promise of a good night's enjoyment.

Red Cross Function.—The members of the Clonsara Red Cross Branch attended the Red Cross function at Lismore on Monday night last and had a very pleasant night.
