Dungarvan Circuit Court

The business for the Dungarvan Circuit was opened in the Courthouse on Wednesday last by Mr. Justice Sealy. There was a big number of cases on the list, many of which were, on the application of the solicitors engaged, adjourned to the next Court with a view to settlements.

Case Transferred.—Mr C. S. Quin-lan, solicitor, Waterford, applied to his Lordship to have transferred for hearing from Kilkenny Circuit Court to Waterford Circuit Court, two cases in which the litigants live convenien to Waterford city.

Dr. Counihan, State Solicitor, had a similar epplication, and all were Application for a Lock-up Licence.

—Mr. Molloy, B.L. (instructed by Messrs. Farrell & Morrissey, solrs.), made application on behalf of Mrs. respect of her premises, No. 28, The Square, Dungarvan. Mr. Molloy said the application was for a licence for part of the premises for which applicant at present holds a licence for the whole of the premises. The premises have been altered structurally, and the first floor is let to a lady hairdresser and the upper portion as flats.
The valuation of the premises is £22
10s. and the present licence duty is £15 18s. 2d. The portion now to be licensed will be re-valued, and there will be a considerable reduction in licence duty.

Mr. Hassett, B.E., submitted maps of the premises showing in detail the different portions and alterations. Supt. O'Mahony said that any objection which he could offer would be as regards sanitary arrangements, there being no provision for women using the premises. He would prefer to see more accommodation, but agreed it would be very expensive. As far as the Gardai were concerned, he premises would now be more easy

Mrs. Julia Dempsey bore out her ounsel's statement as to alterations, counsel's statement as to alterations, letting, etc. of the premises, of which she is the licensee since the death of her husband in July 1938.

His Lordship said it is a proper case to grant a new licence, and he ordered that a new licence is to issue.

Fencing on the Cunnigar (Curran v. Keane).—Mr. T. C. Williams, solr. for plaintiff (Mr. Ml. Curran, Ballynacourty, Ring, and Mr. J. F. Kenny, solr. for defendant (Mr. Pk. Keane, Ballinacourty). Mr. Williams, solr., said that Mr. Kenny (for Mr. solr., said that Mr. Kenny (for Mr. Keane) is under the misapprehension that the case was disposed of on the last day and that the case was struck

Mr. Kenny agreed and said that he, on behalf of his client, had paid the costs and damages. His client was costs and damages. His client was not notified to attend.

Michael Curran, plaintiff, in reply to Mr. Williams said he examined the fence that morning. It was not yet complete; there were two posts for a gateway and at the back of each there is a space of four feet. The gate is not hung but tied with wire to the post. Defendant has done nothing since the February Court, and there the fence that morning. It was not yet complete; there were two posts for a gateway and at the back of each there is a space of four feet. The gate is not hung but tied with wire to the post. Defendant has done nothing since the February Court, and there has been some trespass. The place does not require much to finish it. It could be done by one man in a day. does not require much to finish it. It could be done by one man in a day, but defendant won't surrender.

To Mr. Kenny, witness said it is news to him that Keane had paid the contract and have if invested and pay out so much a month. That would make it ren under 12 years. Counsel then dealt at length with the legal work in the case, involving extensive in-quiries by the applicant's solicitors (Messrs. 'Farrell and Morrissey) through the Department of External Affairs and a firm of solicitors in Eng-Affairs and a firm of solicitors in England. Applicant finally agreed to accept the maximum sum payable on death in England, and that amount was allocated as follows: £300 to the widow; Laurence, 12 years, £34; Ellen, 10 years, £77, and Rita Mary, 5 years, £134 17s. This sum was paid by deceased's employers into the County Court at Chippendale, and by the reciprocal arrangements between the two Governments, it was transferred to the Court here for adminisferred to the Court here for adminis-Counsel then dealt with the amount of legal work involved, and suggested that his Lordship allow a sum as miscellaneous costs, outside the usual costs. The widow is anxious that the money set aside for the children should not be touched, and that her own be given to her for the upbring-ing of the children, after paying ex-

LATE MRS MARGARET CONDON
O'CONNELL STREET.

A cortege of imposing dimensions attended when the remains of the late Mrs. Margaret Condon, O'Connell Street (whose death we announced in the previous issue) were removed from her residence to the Parish Church, Dungarvan, where the coffin was reciped by the Rev. D. Power C.C.; who recited the prayers for the dead. On Friday (Good Friday) interment was made in the family plot adjoining the church, where again there was a large and very representative attendance of mourners and friends of the deceased. Six of deceased's grandchildren acted as pallbearers at the obsequies, viz. Edmond and Jack Kiely, Gerard Condon, Pierce, Tommy and Jackie Butler.

Bessing the L.D.F. Colours.—All arrangements are complete for the should be decembered in the colours of Ardmore and Clashmore on Sunday next 16th inst. The parade, being held in conjunction with the event, will fall-in adjacent to Clashmore village at 11 o'clock (S.T.), sharp, and march to 12 o'clock Mass in the local Parish Church. At the Mass a grand of the more and the guard will 'Present Arms' and an Army bugler will sound the Royal Salute accompanied by a roll of drums. Subsequently the colours will be blessed by the Very Rev. P.Murphy, P.P., Clashmore, assisted by Rev. Fr. M. Power, C.C., do. and presented to the respective companies by a staff officer of the 21st Infantry Regit The adjoining the church, where again there was a large and very representative attendance of mourners and friends of the deceased. Six of deceased's grandchildren acted as pall-bearers at the obsequies, viz. Edmond and Jack Kiely, Gerard Condon, Pierce, Tommy and Jackie Butler.

The deceased lady was mother of Mr. Michael Condon, Mitchel Street, Dungarvan; Mr. David Condon, Douranore, Enniscorthy, Co. Wexford; Mrs. James Kiely, O'Connell Street, and Mrs. John Butler (wife of Senator John Butler), Mitchel Terrace, Dungarvan. The chief mourners were David and Michael Condon (sons); Mrs. Ciss Kiely, Mrs J. Butler (daughters); Messrs. Ned, Jack, Jas., Tom and Billy Kiely; Pierce, Jackie, Tommy, Michael, James and Alo Butler; Gerard, Paddy, Tony and Don Condon (grandsons); Misses Gretta Butler, Bernie and Joan Kiely, Theresa, Philomena, Helen and Kitty Condon (grandsons); Senator reports to hand it is clear that the Green Cross games on Sunday last received the support of the Western Gaels in a manner fitting the cause. At Tallow, Modeligo and Dungarvan record crowds flocked to see the games arranged. The West Division had the the proud record of making Easter Sunday a closed date for all games except Green Cross fixtures for the past five years.

Fourin were fancied to win easily but after an hour's first-class hurling Fourmilewater managed to get ahead by one point. This makes Sunday's final all the more exciting.

Division. The Army team with their big selection to pick from, perfect training facilities and smashing wins best of the Dungarvan backs. training facilities and smashing wins hus far in the competition are thus far in the competition are looked on by many as certain winners. Certainly no one can be surprised if they secure the trophies. But many clever judges of hurling who saw Fourmilewater defeat the all-powerful selection of Tourin on Sunday last say that the Army boys will have to wait until the long whistle goes before they can shout. The Fourmilewater men are sure they can and will win. Sunday's win created a sensation even among Fourmilewater supporters. Confidence has now grown to the peak point. With Paddy Halpin, Andy Ryan and Jamie Moloney in the defence ranks the Army forwards four teams. fence ranks the Army forwards four teams, should be well held. Willie Ryan and Dennie O'Sullivan will make midfield ship game to pick their best to prove it. A first class game looks certain. Camphire and Cappoquin play a challenge before the final so spectators will have the worth of their most by attending the Green Cross final. P. Ryan, Dungarvan, is referee.

I got a few new names from a soldier friend to pass on to the selectors. I was told that Dillon, O'Hara and Sullivan from the Army team are all worth places and Pte Moloney who played minor hurli with Dungarvan is now playing g football in the Army. Can any of the selectors find out? From what I saw on Sunday at Dungarvan both McGuire and T. Veale are worth a place while Dodo McCarthy and N. McGrath looked promising. Hosey and Stack were good for Dungarva as well as Lannon and Barron. Dike

Season Opens.—The first champion ship game of the season opens a Aglish on Sunday when Glenlickey Dennie O'Sullivan will make midfield hot for any army pair and Bill Ryan should hold the Fourmilewater for wards together for the hour. Of course the Army boys may have the answer to all these but they will have answer to all these but they will have to pick their best to prove it. A first their best to prove it. A first baye had a lean period for a number have had a lean period for a number of years now but if they can get any kind of a start they will take beating. The Club has suffered from transfers, emigration, etc but this year all the emigration, etc but this year all the gaps are filled up and they expect to have a useful string on Sunday. T. Cotter will be in charge of the game.

Challenge at Modeligo.—Finnisk Rovers and Sliabh gCua play a challenge game at Modeligo on Sunday. Sliabh gCua are anxious to have a try out before their championship Stiff They Come.—I am simply snowed up with selections for the S.F. game on 14th May. I hate not being able to publish those sent in so I will try and put them in the 'Notes' each week up to the date of the game. From 'Soldier Supporter," Curragh Camp: J. Colbert (S'bally) (goal).

A Chara-Your Tallow Correspon

picture of the condition of the grounds surrounding Tallow Library That the grounds are not carefully tended and tastefully laid out, is true. To do so would entail the regular employment of a gardener and the already overtaxed resources of Library Funds do not permit of such expenditure. The laying down of a concrete path from the gate to the Library is altogether out of the question for the same reason. Such re-finements would undoubtedly improve the general appearance of Branch Libraries but since the provision at long intervals of the requisite materials & labour to keep the buildings themselves in very moderate trim, already causes financial headaches, it is not reasonable to ask for the impossible.
