Mrs. Nora Aherne—The death of Mrs. Nora Aherne, wife of Mr. Vincent Aherne, occurred at the Cottage Hospital on Saturday after a short illness. The deceased who was a young woman, was a native of Co. Waterford and of very retiring disposition. A short time ago she contracted pneumonia. Her death has evoked widespread sympathy for her husband and grief-stricken family. The remains were taken to St. Mary's Parish Church on Saturday evening and from there to the Piltdown, Co. Waterford, cemetery for interment at 3 p.m. on Monday. A large and representative cortege accompanied the remains to the outskirts of the town and a huge concourse met the funeral at Piltdown. Amongst the chief mourners were Mr. Vincent Aherne (husband); Messrs. Edward, Maurice and Francis Aherne (sons); Mr. Ed. Coyne (father); Mr. David Coyne (brother); Mrs. M. Carey and Miss Mary Coyne (sisters); Mr. J. Foley (uncle); Miss Mary Coyne and Miss E. Carey (nieces); Michael Carey; John Matthew and Francis Aherne, N.T. (brothers-in-law); Mrs. G. LISMORE NOTES

Late Mrs. Walshe, Seemachuda. Sincere regret has been occasioned over a wide area by the death of Mrs. M. Walshe, Seemachuda, Lismore, which occurred on Friday last after a short illness and at a comparatively early age. The deceased was wife of Mr. J. Walshe, a well-known farmer in the district and came of highly respected stock. Possessed of a kindly and charitable disposition, throughout her life she enjoyed the respect and esteem of all classes and her passing has evoked much regret. Accompanied by a large and representative cortege the remains were removed on Friday to St. Mary's Church, Ballysgearg, where they were received by Rev. Fr. M. Troy, O.M.I., who recited the prayers for the dead. Every family for miles around was represented in the immense crowd which attended the funeral on Sunday to Mocollop graveyard where all that was mortal of the late Mrs. Walshe was consigned to its last resting place in the family burial plot. The immediate relatives included—Mr. J. Walshe (husband); Thomas Walshe (son); Mrs. M. Landers (daughter); Mr. Brackett, Ballyduff (brother); Mrs. Prendergast, Carrignagour (sister); Mr. W. Landers (son-in-law); and Mr. D. Walshe (brother-in-law).

Minor Football at Cappoquin.—Eire Oger minor footballers were in hard luck on Sunday last at Cappoquin, when they went under to Tourin Ramblers by the narrow margin of one point, the only score of the game. From the throw-in the game was fast with close tackling which left no opportunity for loose play and consequently scoring was low. The teams were well matched and play throughout was fairly even, and it was not until late in the second moiety that Tourin raised the white flag for the first and only score of the hour.

Next Sunday's Games at Tallow.—Tallow will again be the centre of attraction on Sunday next when two games in the current championships take place—the first is junior football between Tallow and Lismore, and the second, minor hurling between Eire Oge and St. Michaels (Ballyduff). While the forthcoming clashes are not expected to arouse anything like the enthusiasm displayed over the Lismore-Ballyduff game of some weeks ago, quite a large crowd from all over the district will travel to the Brideside town on Sunday. The football game should be an exciting tussle as both teams have been putting in some hard training and should be fighting fit.

Camogie.—It gives us much pleasure to record this week the revival of a camogie team in the town. The matter has been under consideration for some time past and last week the first step was taken when a meeting was held at the Court-house for the purpose of forming a committee. There was a very large attendance of intending members and others interested and from the enthusiasm shown by those present the project should receive support and co-operation in full measure. The first officers elected were: President, Rev. Fr. M. Ahearne, C.C., Lismore; Chairman, Mr. M. V. O'Donoghue; Hon. Secretary, Miss Monica Noonan; and Hon. Treas., Miss Sheila Daly. We feel confident that this new team will uphold the traditions of the old Lismore camogie team and wish them every success.

Eire Oge Drawing of Prizes.—A drawing of prizes in aid of the Eire Oge Hurling and Football Club took place during the practice at the Courthouse on Sunday night last and the prize-winners were: first, (£1), Miss P. Fitzgerald, Cappoquin; 2nd, (bottle of wine), Miss Geary, Mill Street, do.; third (£10-), Mr. W. Lee, Castle Street, do.

Urban Council.—There was no meeting of the Urban Council on Friday night last. Only two members, Messrs. Thomas McGee, (publican, Kill man) and John McGrath were present.

Gaeltacht Notes.—A local supporter of the Blackwater Rovers junior football team, in a letter commenting on their superiority over Ring on Sunday last, says that their splendid display Paddy Morrissey, who with sustained practice, will annex this year's county junior football crown.

Kilmachomas Court.—At Kilmachomas Court on Wednesday last before Mr. McCabe, D.J., fines ranging from 2/- to 5/- were imposed in a number of cases for breaches of the Lights on Vehicles and Schools Attendance Acts. A charge of a breach of the Licensing Laws, on a date last month, preferred against Thomas Thorpe (ex-Garda), Publican, Kill, was dismissed on the merits.

Abbeyside School Hurling League.—Intense excitement prevailed at the final of the above medal tournament played in Stokes Field, Abbeyside, on Monday evening. The big crowd present cheered lustily as the youthful finalists headed by Mr. John Hayes, playing martial airs on the melodeon, paraded round the field. The ball was thrown in by the Rev. Fr. Shaw, O.F.M., and from the start to the final whistle fast ground hurling was the order and it speaks volumes for the sporting contestants that only one foul occurred during this historic encounter. The teams were very evenly matched and at half time scores were level at 2-0 all. In the second moiety the Sars, got two further goals while Cuchulains also had two scores but one went over instead of under the bar. For the winners the McCarthy brothers, McHugh, Organ & Morrissey (goal) were outstanding. Jim Hayes (full-back) and J. O'Connor (midfield) gave a splendid display for the losers with A. Flynn (capt.), Phelan and O'Leary giving good support. Final score: Sarsfields, 4-0; Cuchulains, 3-1.

At Being Shorts on Sunday last, Mr. Jack O'Brien, (Kilmacreeve, A.C.) and late of St. Bridget's, Dungarvan, was second in the 880 yards (notice) Cork Co. Championship event.

DISAPPOINTING GAMES AT DUNGARVAN.

Two games, so one-sided that the spectators lost all interest were decided at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last when Dungarvan minor hurlers and junior footballers scored runaway victories over Cathal Brugha hurlers and Eire Oge footballers. The hurling encounter at the start gave promise of a good contest but Dungarvan proved too good and ran out winners on the score of 10-7 to which Cathal Brugha were unable to reply.

The football game was equally uninteresting with Dungarvan again proving too good, winning on the score 2-13 to nil.

Larceny of Timber.—The addresses of the youths, Carleton and Dundon, charged by Miss Nugent, Clonock-raine, at the last District Court, should have read St. Bridget Street, and not Fair Lane.

Potato Blight.—As weather conditions have become more favourable for the development of blight, farmers are urged to spray their potato crops without delay. A second and even a third spraying at fortnightly intervals will be found to pay. Leaflet No. 14: "Potato Blight and its Prevention"—can be had free of charge on application to The Secretary, Department of Agriculture, Dublin.

Dungarvan Fair.—There was a noticeable improvement in the demand for cattle at Wednesday's Fair at which there was a big supply of all grades and unless for very backward animals there was also a noticeable improvement in prices. Best 14 year olds made up to £12 10/-; inferior sorts £8 to £10. 24 year olds £15 to £20; 3 year olds £22 to £27 with choice lots making up to £30. Good young fat cows sold well at prices ranging from £18 to £24. Springing cows £24 to £30. Heifers-in-calf £22 to £28; sheep 24 to £3 10/-; Lambs 50/- to 75/-; Pigs were scarce and very dear.

DAIL DEBATE.

During the discussion on the vote for £,814,124 moved by Mr. Lemass, Minister for Supplies in the Dail on June 27th Mr. Heskin T.D. said:—

We all agree that the position, so far as the materials that we have to import are concerned, is a difficult one, and is bound to remain so as long as the war lasts. As regards the supplies that we are getting in, I suggest to the Minister that they should be used in the best interests of the people, mainly for the carrying on of business and the keeping in employment of those who are engaged in turf-cutting since March last, waited on me, and asked if something could be done to provide transport for the 500 or 600 tons of turf which they cut and ricked on the roadside. So far they have failed to get lorries to take it away. At a meeting of the council yesterday a proposition was made that, through the Minister, the Great Southern Railways Company should be asked to put lorries at the disposal of private producers of turf so that the turf might be conveyed away from the bogs. In many cases those private turf producers have been working since March last, but, for the reasons I have indicated, they have not, so far, been able to dispose of the turf. Many of them are small working farmers, and at the moment their labours have not brought them in as much as a shilling. I would be glad if the Minister could do something to place lorries at their disposal or in cases where lorries are available in their localities, give an increased allocation of petrol so that this turf may be disposed of. If those increased supplies of petrol were made available for a month or so, it should be possible for those men to dispose of the quantities of turf they have cut. As a matter of fact, I have here an order from a merchant in Dungarvan saying that he is prepared to take delivery of 500 tons of turf and is quoting a price.

I also want to ask the Minister whether he can give increased supplies of oil to those engaged in the dairy business. I was told in the Department of Supplies that they cannot increase the present allocation. The position is becoming very difficult for people who have large herds. Deputies are aware that, for various reasons, it is difficult at the present time to get people to milk cows. I fear that if a small increased allocation of oil is not made available, many of those people will be forced out of production. A situation of that kind would have very serious effects in many directions. Due to the curtailment of supplies, it may be difficult for the Minister to do very much, but if there is any hope of an improvement in the position, I hope that he will do his best to meet the demands of the people I speak for.

Another matter that I want to bring to the Minister's notice concerns the supply of oil for harvesting. For years past we have experienced difficulty in getting permits. I have already explained the position to the officials of the Department in Ballsbridge. My suggestion to the Minister is that any owner operating machinery during the harvest period should have in stock at least a week's supply of oil—100 or over 100 gallons. I make that suggestion for this reason: that between the date on which owner applies to the Department for a further permit and the date of a certain period of time will elapse. When the permission comes from the Department the owner has then to make a further application to the oil depot for his supply. The oil depots will not send out the oil, as they are curtailed. I would ask the Minister, therefore, not to confine a man to a very low supply. He should have at least 100 gallons in stock for every tractor and even more, if there was any danger in regard to the supply from the depot. That is a very important matter, as it is a period of occasions where machinery is being used in the harvesting period through running out of supplies of oil.

I do not know if lubricating oil comes within the scope of the Minister's Department. Many tractor owners experience great difficulty in getting supplies at present. I do not know if there are any regulations or conditions governing the supply, but I should like the Minister to tell me the best steps that tractor owners might take to obtain adequate supplies.

In regard to heavy nailed boots for farmers and county council workers, that matter does not demand much attention at present on account of the fine weather; but there is no harm in drawing the Minister's attention to it in good time, so that by the end of the harvest, he will have gone into the matter and have arranged a supply of heavy farm boots, especially for field work during the winter months.

As regards coal, on three or four occasions, I have asked several Departments about coal for blacksmiths. The supply for the month of June has been cut out completely in many cases. Blacksmiths require a more coal at the moment, as there is more road work for horses and cars than for years past. I have complaints from 10 or 11 blacksmiths that they cannot get coal for the banding of wheels. Even yesterday morning a blacksmith came to me and said he could not carry on. The Minister will agree that creamery work and other such business must be carried on and that cannot be done except by hauling milk to the creameries in ordinary carts. Particularly in dry weather, the bands become loose; so the Minister should try to make arrangements for a further increase of coal for blacksmiths for that particular work.

The position in regard to culm for

AILTIRE NA h-AISEIRSE

On an Oomhac reo caiste ro ceap baim muintir na h-Aiseirise

On the Square of Dungarvan Ailtire na h-Aiseirise held a public meeting in commemoration of the signing of the truce in July, 1921. Eamonn O'Riain, Ceannasaidhe o Forlraighe, addressing the meeting recalled the events leading up to the signing of the truce and stressed the fact that on this occasion, Ireland's greatest hour of triumph had been secured, not by a nation with a multiplicity of political parties, but by a nation standing united and determined to stand firm and to follow the policy of single leadership that unity which brought us so near our goal in 1921 could in 1944 again bring us that unity and a fulfilment of the ideals of Pearse, Ceann, Brugha and the others who gave their lives for Irish Freedom. Liam O'Coiláin, from Cork who also spoke referred to the sorry state to which party politics have brought us after twenty two years of native government and again stressed the fact that with our present system the attainment of a Free, Gaelic and Christian State was an impossibility, however good the intentions of our party politicians.

In conclusion Padraig O'Ceitinn, Chairman appealed to the young people to come and join Ailtire na h-Aiseirise. For years, the people have been looking for a lead in national affairs. In Ailtire na h-Aiseirise that lead has been given and with the co-operation of the people particularly the young people our programme can be put into effect and brought to its full conclusion. I would again remind readers of the weekly meeting held in the Town Hall, Dungarvan, at 7.30 p.m. each Saturday night by the local branch of Ailtire na h-Aiseirise. All are welcome to come along and hear the short lectures given by our members, each dealing with some aspect or point in the programme.—Beidh ceadh mile faille roimh each.

lime kilns does not arise at present, but there is no harm in raising it now, as in a month or six weeks time, those concerned will be starting to burn for the winter months. I would ask the Minister to do his best to meet the needs of the people on the lime question. We know that the lack of fertilisers has resulted in lime being very much used in recent years. The Department should, as far as possible, meet the requirements of those engaged in the burning of lime, by making as much lime available as possible, so as to keep production without a break. It is a well-known fact that if a kiln is left idle for a short period, certain heat goes out of it and it costs more to burn the lime than if continuous heat is kept in the kiln. Therefore a reasonable amount of culm should be made available to keep the kilns in production when they start.

Quite recently I raised the question of an increased butter supply and asked the Minister for Agriculture on a few occasions to impose again a ban on the use of cream for anything other than the production of butter. Many people are grumbling continuously, as they find the butter ration insufficient, particularly where men are coming in to work and where workers are going out on council work. Those people consider that the ration of butter at present is insufficient to meet their ordinary food demands. I would suggest—and I suggested it before to the Minister for Agriculture—that the ban be placed again on cream and also that the Minister for Supplies, or whoever is responsible, control the home production of butter. In many cases, we know that privileged people who have the wherewithal to purchase farmers' butter, have been getting more than their ration. It is very unfair to the ordinary worker and to employers who are keeping men on, so as to have them for the harvest. It is hard to get them to bring their ration to the farmers houses. Some people are in a privileged position with their double ration while others have only half enough.

In conclusion, I hope the Minister will see his way to increase the allowance of sugar in the harvest time. The individual farmer or beet grower may have a varying amount of acres and I suggest that the allowance be made to growers on an acreage basis so that they would all get a fair crack of the whip. I think the Minister will agree, particularly in the case of those who have hired men that a small allowance of sugar on an acreage basis should be made to them.

The Rainbow Cinema.—The picture showing here to-night (Friday) is entitled "Edison the Man." It is a terrifically true to life story, with Spencer Tracy and Ruth Johnson as the highlights. "Torpedo Boat" (starring Richard Arlen and Jean Parker) will be screened on Sunday night and is a taping thriller. Full particulars of the other programmes procured for the coming week are contained in the posters now on display in the town and surrounding districts. Incidentally, it is understood that, through the courtesy of the management, this cinema will be the centre of a grand variety concert (in aid of a laudable local object) during the coming autumn. Date and details will be duly advertised in the "Observer."

Rev. V. J. Betts, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Betts, National Bank, Dingle, Co. Kerry, was ordained by his Excellency Most Rev. J. J. Conroy, D.D., Archbishop of Los Angeles (a native of South Kilkenny) on Sunday, May 28th last, at St. Vibiana's Cathedral, Los Angeles, California, and celebrated his first Mass on Sunday, June 4th, in St. Francis de Sales Church, Ventura Boulevard at Fulton Studio City, California. Father Betts was educated at Roserea College and St. Peter's, Wexford. Later he studied at St. John's Seminary, Camarillo, California. Father Betts's father was manager of Kilmathomas branch of the National Bank for quite a long period prior to his transfer to Dingle, a decade of years since. He was the essence of kindness, courtesy and many other sterling qualities which made him—and equally estimable Mrs. Betts—numerous friends here. In congratulating them on giving their first-born son to the service of God and Holy Church, most ardently do we wish Father Betts "ad multos annos."

Saturday of Last Week was the Feast of St. Swithun, and was a glorious summer's day. That evening a cycling party of De La Salle Catholic Boy Scouts from Waterford arrived at Stradbally, where they were joined by other members of the club. The entire company is in charge of Rev. Bro. Bruno, and all will be returning to the city after spending 20 days at a Mid-Waterford continuous seaside resort. The continuous delightful and seasonable weather is daily hurling large crowds to the sea at Clonsilla, Clonsilla, Dunabraton and Anestown. From the coast to the Comeraghs haying operations are now completed and though the crop is the lightest raised in the area for some years past it is very clean and well saved. Grain crops are now gaining a golden hue and indications are not lacking that the harvest will be in early this year. Over the past four months enormous quantities of turf have been harvested from the bogs at Comeragh, Lyre, Learybrien, Glen, Garrunturton and Graigue, and most householders in the area have their winter supplies safely stacked on the premises. This year's main potato crop promises to be an exceptionally good one.

Masters N. J. King and M. J. Kent, of Kilmathomas, happened on an outside mushroom in a field near the town the other morning. It measured 9 1/2 inches in diameter, and the happy householders asked "misé ocht féin" to offer it to Anestown Ann as a sunshade!

Death of Mrs. B. Curran.—The death of Mrs. Bridie Curran (nee Dalton), wife of Mr. Joseph Curran, postman, Stradbally, occurred at her home on Wednesday evening of last week, following a protracted illness and at a comparatively early age, and the sad even is very much regretted, not only by her numerous friends but by all who knew her. Mrs. Curran belonged to an old local family, whose gentle, amiable and kindly disposition, ever cheery and generous, particularly towards the poor, won the respect and esteem of the people of the village and parish. To her popular husband, sons and daughters many expressions of sincere regret have been tendered. Deceased's elder son, Christy, is a prominent player on the Stradbally senior football team (county champions since 1940). The exceptional large funeral procession (including the postal staffs of Kilmathomas and Stradbally) which accompanied the removal of the remains to the Parish Church, Stradbally, on Thursday evening week, and again on the following morning when, subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Mass, interment took place in the adjoining cemetery, marked the feelings of respect for the memory of Mrs. Curran. Very Rev. E. English, P.P., Stradbally, assisted by Rev. T. Draper, C.C., officiated at the graveside. The chief mourners were John Curran (husband); Christy and John (sons); May and Phyllis (daughters); John Dalton (father); Mary, Katie, Madge, Agnes and Hannah (sisters); Wm. Curran and Fred Aderton (brothers-in-law); Mrs. Mary Curran (mother-in-law); Bridie and Kitt (sisters-in-law); Jas. and Bud Curran and John Kirwan (nephews); Mary, Nell and Ann Curran, and Mary and Nell Hurley (nieces). Mass cards were received from—Her loving husband, Joe; her loving family; Mary and Christy Lenihan & family; Sisters of Mercy, Carrick-on-Suir; 8th Standard, Convent School, Stradbally; Kitt and Fred Aderton; Madge, Hannah and Agnes (sisters); Sr. Mary Philomena, O.Cist.; Glencairn, Lismore (niece of deceased); her sister, Mary; Willie, Agnes and Ann; Mr. and Mrs. Leahy, Stradbally; her nephews and nieces; Bud, Mary and Nell; Gerda and Mrs. Fitzgerald and family; Bridgid Dalton, May, Ned and family; Gerda and Mrs. Moynihan, Stradbally; Lottie Phelan and family; H. Talented Local Young Ladies.—Her troops of friends and well-wishers unite in warmly congratulating Miss Elizabeth Kent on her appointment to the important post of supervisor of the Students' Hostel, Richmond Hospital, Dublin. This most accomplished young lady, who left for the metropolis on Monday, is the eldest daughter of Mr. John Kent, Main Street, Kilmathomas, whose second daughter, Miss Kathleen Kent (a pupil of St. Joseph's Technical School, Carrick-on-Suir), figures well to the fore among the successful candidates for the 22 vacancies for domestic science instructresses in the metropolitan area on Monday. Miss Kent was also a member of the Twenty-Six Counties staff for the examination. Like her sister (mentioned above) Miss K. Kent is a great favourite with all classes in our midst, who now heartily congratulate her on her brilliant success.

Spending her summer holidays amongst us is Miss Kathleen Power, a pupil of St. Mary's College of Domestic Science, Dublin. A most attractive and unassuming young lady, Miss Power is daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Power, Glen, Stradbally, and she is sister of Master Seumas Power, clerical student, St. John's College, Waterford, and niece of Mr. John Power, Clerk, a very esteemed member of the farming community.

Passing of a Popular Neighbour.—Seidon have the hearts of the people of this part, and indeed of the entire county, been so profoundly touched as when they learned on this day (Friday) week that in the late afternoon of the previous evening Mr. Patrick Gough, farmer, Kilmovee, Portlaur, had been called to his eternal reward. He was a sterling sportsman, a loyal and patriotic Irishman, and a member of a fine old Catholic family stock of the Decies. In his heyday he proved himself a hurler of pronounced merit, being on the famous Clonsilla-Power team of the 1939/'43 period. He was the efficient and painstaking supervisor of the Newtown and Ballyduroo Cow-Testing Association from its inception, and was an active member of the Newtown and Ballyduroo G.P.S. Gough's body his brother, Mr. James Gough, is at present worthy chairman. Deceased was also attached to the Kilmathomas L.S.F. group from its formation. Paddy Gough was a most lovable character. He was universally popular, an ornament to the community and the good work he performed in that direction cannot be fully appreciated. There was about him the competence and confidence of a prince among men. It is shown in the frank and even smile with which he greeted all he met. And with all that, there was never one so lacking in push or show, and one always felt that the bulk of his goodness was wrought by stealth, far away from public applause. For all these things he will be remembered amongst us, but above all we shall remember and honour him for the kindness and goodness of his heart and the nobility and integrity of his mind. It is no exaggeration on our part to state that he shall be missed by everyone who valued a genuine, sincere, unselfish and kind-hearted friend and neighbour. Fortified by the rites of holy Church, to which he was ever devotedly attached, he died a truly peaceful and happy death. A Munire Naomha gan Teimbeal, deia guidhe air (Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for him). Widespread sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones. The removal of the remains on this evening week to St. Patrick's Church, Portlaur, was made the occasion of an imposing display of public sympathy and regret. To attempt to give anything like an adequate list of the general public in attendance would be an utter impossibility. A further tribute to Paddy's popularity was seen when the hearse arrived near the town, and six of his colleagues of the Kilmathomas L.S.F. group, viz. Messrs. John McGrath, G/L. Francis Cahin, A/G/L. Lee, Dwyer, Lee, Veale, Mee, Sheehan, and Percy Kirwan, D/S/O.3 (all in uniform) formed a guard of honour about the bier until reaching the church gate, from whence they shouldered the casket into the sacred edifice and placed it on a catafalque before the high altar. A/G/L. Cahin commanded the parade, which acted with precision and impressiveness. Rev. L. Vereker, C.C., Portlaur, received the remains, and recited the prayers for the dead. Requiem Mass was celebrated on Saturday morning, and afterwards all that was mortal of the late Mr Gough was reverently borne to his last resting-place in the adjoining cemetery by six members of the Portlaur L.S.F. group, in charge of Mr. M. F. Shannahan, D/S/O.2. Burial took place amid every manifestation of profound sorrow. Father Vereker pronounced the final absolution at the graveside. A number of beautiful floral wreaths were laid on the grave, including one from the Kilmathomas L.S.F. group. Sheaves of spiritual bouquets and messages of condolence were received. The immediate chief mourners were Messrs. James and Michel Gough, Kilmovee (brothers), and Miss Clisive Gough (sister). L.S.F.—Kilmathomas group passed a vote of condolence with the relatives of the late Mr. Patrick Gough, Kilmovee.

Votes of Sympathy have also been passed by the Gough family, of Kilmovee, by the Newtown and Ballyduroo G.P.A., the Newtown Ploughing Association, Newtown Gaelic Football Club, Clonsilla-Power Hurling Club, Erin's Hope Hurling Club, and Kilmathomas Hurling Club.

Gaelic Gatherings.—At a specially convened meeting of the Stradbally Football Club, a vote of condolence was passed with the husband and family of the late Mr. Ardie Curran. Big contingents of Middle-Waterford enthusiasts journeyed by bicycle to Stradbally on Sunday last. They enjoyed the troyan taste that wound up with honours even, and all are bent on again peevall to Thurles for the replay, fixed for the last Sunday of this month.

Clonsilla-Power will have their arena laid out to the proverbial veins of money for the Kilrossary—Bats (Army) senior football match (in the county championship competition of the current year), fixed for Sunday, 8th August.

Spring Valley Hall, Boshamah.—The usual weekly dance held here on Sunday night last was largely patronised, and joy without alloy was the crowning feature of the capably conducted affair. The Seaside Serenaders' Band pleasingly rendered a well-balanced programme of dance music.

A Thunderstorm, accompanied by lightning and heavy showers, swept over the Mid-Waterford area on Tuesday, in the wake of intensive summer heat experienced on Monday and Monday night. Vivid flashes of lightning were observed at frequent intervals through Monday night.

Mr. Timothy O'Garraon, Urban Terrace, Tralee, who died on Sunday last (R.I.P.) captured the hearts of the town which took the All-Ireland title to "The Kingdom." Deceased and his twin-brother, James (who survives him) played brilliant football in the three games in 1903 against Kerry, which brought the blue riband of 1903 to Kerry. Deceased's son, James has played on Kerry selections since 1938. Incidentally, the great team led by the late Timothy O'Garraon boasted of no better player than Mr. Roddy Kirwan (retired manager, National Bank, New Ross), of the world-famous Kilmacneave-Kilmac family of all-round athletes. Of that Kerry team of the initial decade of the present century, Roddy Kirwan was the veritable sheet-anchor.

Amongst the Hands Engaged by Messrs. McAineath, timber merchants, Glasgow and Dublin, at selling operations on the Fairholme estate, Comeragh, Kilmathomas, is Mr. William Moloney, who is now 36 years with the firm. A native of the town of Tipperary, "Bill," as he is more popularly recognised, is a man of many admirable traits of head and heart—good luck to him!

Well & Popularly Known through-out the length and breadth of the land are Genl. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Barrett, traveling amusement entertainers. Mr. Barrett belongs by birth to Fermoy, Co. Cork, and his life-partner hails from Macroom, Do. Their show is receiving splendid support locally at the G.P.S. school, Kilmathomas, their latest halt.

The Pike Hall.—The dance brought off here on Sunday night last under the auspices of the well-established local amusement club) attracted upwards of 250 couples, and panned out in public applause. For all these things he will be remembered amongst us, but above all we shall remember and honour him for the kindness and goodness of his heart and the nobility and integrity of his mind. It is no exaggeration on our part to state that he shall be missed by everyone who valued a genuine, sincere, unselfish and kind-hearted friend and neighbour. TALLOW NOTES.

Obituary.—Widespread expressions of regret were "general over large areas of East Cork when it was learned that Mr. Jasper Cotter had passed away at his residence, Rathdrum, Ballymore, following a rather prolonged illness, and to his bereaved sympathy of their many neighbours and hosts of friends is extended in their bereavement. Deceased was a well-known figure in farming and sporting circles and his passing has created a void not easily filled. The funeral cortege to Britway Cemetery where the interment took place in the family burial plot was exceptionally large and representative of almost every household in the joint parish of Ballymore, Conna and Glemoura, and was a fitting tribute to the memory of one who was at all times a kindly neighbour and sincere friend. Very Rev. Canon Ahera, P.P., Conna, assisted by Rev. Fr. O'Donnell, C.C., Ballymore; Rev. Fr. O'Dwyer, C.C., Conna; Rev. Fr. M. Gouds and Rev. Fr. M. J. Beausang, Mrs. Lenihan, Mrs. Fliz-Gibbin, Mr. R. Gorman, etc. (relatives)—R.I.P.

Flanna Fall Victory Celebrations.—What has been aptly described as the "best ever" by many of the large gathering present on last Sunday night at the Cinema Hall where the Flanna Fall Victory Celebrations were held, was a most delightful programme of music was supplied by the Lismore Cellidie Band which was specially augmented for the occasion. The first violoncello was played by Mr. J. J. O'Riordan, who was accompanied by Mr. M. J. Little, Minister for Posts and Telegraphs, Senator Sean Goulding, Chairman, Seamus Eireann, and Mr. M. Morrissey, T.D., Dungarvan, all of whom received an ovation. At a later interval the large company present were thrilled beyond measure when it was announced by the M.C. that Mr. Frank Ryan, Waterford's famous tenor, who was present, had acceded to the Minister's request to perform in his own inimitable fashion sang three well-known numbers: "The Bard of Armagh," "My Mary of the Curragh Hill," and "My Old Fenian Gun," and accorded a wonderful ovation. On the arrival of the Minister and his party, the happy gathering expressed in no uncertain terms their pleasure in the presence of the Minister and the National Anthem was rendered by the band and duly honoured by Mr. O'Riordan, who in the person of M.C. Mr. Donald O'Sullivan, extended hearty thanks to the Government representatives and Mr. Frank Ryan for their patronage. Mr. M. Murray, assistant M.C., thanked the supporters and Band for their presence and service on this happy occasion.

Carnival and Fete at Conna.—In connection with the foregoing Carnival which is to be held in the Castle Grounds on Sunday, the 29th inst., all the preliminary arrangements have been practically completed and a delightful programme has been compiled which includes a grand variety concert at 3 p.m. at which Mr. Frank Ryan, Ireland's famous tenor, will render some of his well-known numbers. Other leading vocalists and instrumentalists will service. Other items include step-dancing, games, amusements and thrills, open air dancing to the strains of the now famous Bridside Seven adets Dance Band, inter-divisional First Aid competition and fancy dress parade. Another novelty item will be a trotting competition open to all comers.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

G.A.A.—Great interest was centred in the meeting of Eire Oge and Tourin Ramblers at Cappoquin Sportsfield on Sunday last. Weather being ideal, the large crowd of spectators were treated to a really first class exhibition of football. Close marking and fast accurate work were features of the game, and when half times came there was no score registered. On the resumption both teams put all they knew into the game and playing with rare abandon swept up and down the field with great speed and stamina, but still no score came. Both sides kept up the pressure till the last when at length a score came from the Tourin Ramblers—a point—and they ran out winners on that score.

Tennis Tournament.—On Sunday last our local Tennis players travelled to Lismore. The weather was ideal and this fact helped to swell the numbers present, and make matters pleasant for both players and spectators alike. Some very exciting contests were witnessed before Lismore were declared winners by a narrow margin. Spindlet teas were served by the ladies of the Lismore Club, so that a very enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Hurling at Modeligo.—Great interest is centred in the meeting of Fenavater and Cappoquin in minor hurling at Modeligo on Sunday next. Both teams are all out for success and are training hard for the encounter so that a ding-dong struggle is anticipated which should undoubtedly, attract a very large crowd of hurling fans.

L.E.P.—Mr. W. J. Sargent, a member of the District Staff, has returned after a few weeks' course at the Curragh in physical culture. He will soon begin a course of instruction in the District Staff, and certainly should undoubtedly, attract a very large crowd of hurling fans.

N.A.C.A.—It is understood that a sports meeting confined to boys attending the National Schools will be held in the near future. The promoters will be the members of the local Athletic Club.

Camogieheath.—We learn that representatives of the Cork Camogie Board will meet representatives of Waterford at Youghal on Sunday next with the object of forming a Waterford Co. Camogie Board.

Camogieheath.—The local camogie players made their debut at Ballyduroo Sports on Sunday last and went under to a better balanced and highly trained team from the latter village. From the start Ballyduroo attacked and had two goals in quick succession, and Tallou tried their utmost to reduce the lead but Ballyduroo beat off all attacks and half-time found the score in favour of the villagers, 4 goals to nil. In the second half Tallou showed up and put in a goal but lack of training was very evident and Ballyduroo getting going once more, registered two majors leaving them winners by a very comfortable margin. In the opinion of those competent to judge, the local should prove a useful bunch, provided they successfully fill the forward line. The backs and centre-field players in Sundays encounter certainly showed ability in handling the canan and with increased determination and consistent training should prove worthy opponents in further encounters. Here's wishing them better luck next time fielding team. In the recently formed officer board are: President, Rev. Fr. Meehan, C.C.; Chairman, Mrs. W. Ryan, Secretary, Miss M. Ryan; Treasurer, Miss L. McCarthy; captain, Miss M. Hickey; committee—Messrs. M. Fitzgerald, B. Lawton, N. Hickey, J. Morrison, M. Henley; Messrs. W. Sheehan and John Hartigan.

WEST WATERFORD NEWS

Blackwater Rovers Defeat Ring in Replay.—The long awaited and much discussed match between Blackwater Rovers (Dromore) and Ring in the first round of the J.F. Championship (West Div.) at Villertown on Sunday last attracted a big crowd who were treated to a closely contested game. The match had been one of the principal topics of conversation and it was generally admitted that the issue was very open. It will be remembered that when the teams met some time ago the Dromore men carried the day but an objection by their opponents necessitated a replay. This made each team determined to go all out to win on the second occasion and the respective sides fielded confident of victory. In the first half the game was evenly contested with the Ring men having some advantage. Their opponents, however, played a sound game. At the interval the men from the seaside led by 1-3 to 0-4. On the resumption Blackwater Rovers improved and, playing a rather robust game, secured a goal and three points while their opponents, who continued to play a good game, failed to score. This left the full time score: 1-7 to 1-3 in favour of Blackwater Rovers, who now meet Old Parish in the Group semi-final. Blackwater Rovers: P. Cotter, J. Lewis, J. Meskill, M. Keating, M. Ahearne, P. Landers, D. Scanlan, J. Lewis, L. Cotter, J. Cotter, P. Morrissey, R. McGrath, P. Ahearne, R. Clinch, T. Meskill, T. Ryan, F. Ryan, J. O'Connell, Miss L. O'Donnabháin, E. O'Curry, D. O'Mahonide, S. O'Mahon, R. MacAllister, L. Coire, T. De Roiste, M. O'Druiemmig, E. O'Clairba, N. MacCraith, T. de Bachman, L. O'Foghada, P. S. O'Leary, T. O'Murchada, S. O'Toibin, T. O'Rinnhaig, D. O'Murchada.

Ardmore "Patrons".—On Sunday next Ardmore will be the scene of the annual "Pattern" to commemorate St. Declan, Patron Saint of the district, and the usual big crowd of pilgrims will throng to the pretty seaside town to pay due homage to the Saint. The "Pattern" is one of the most remarkable celebrations of its kind in Ireland and certainly the most ancient and notable in the Decies. Certain religious exercises are performed on the site of Declan's abour during the course of the feast day. The "rounds" or stations begin with seven Patrons and Aves which the pilgrim recites kneeling before the well; then he walks slowly three times round the ruin, proceeding seaward, and during his ambulation he says the Rosary on his beads. Having completed the third circuit he finishes the Rosary kneeling before the well. A second series of seven paters and aves is then added, and as a record of his devotion the pilgrim scratches with a piece of slate the outline of a cross upon a stone in the ruins of the old cathedral. Pilgrims also visit the Round Tower, St. Declan's Oratory at Beunachan and the other existing monuments to Declan's apostolate. In Ardmore and the surrounding districts the name of St. Declan is held in the greatest veneration and many favours have been attributed to his intercession. It is claimed that Declan brought the Christian Faith to Ardmore, Clashmore, Kinsalebeg, Grange, etc. before the advent of St. Patrick. One thing is certain—there is no record that St. Patrick evangelised the Decies. Neither is he recorded to have sent missionaries to this territory nor to have committed it to any of his disciples. The previous teaching of St. Declan supplies this reason, and, moreover, founded by St. Declan, is one of the most historic and picturesque spots in the south and also the most interesting place in the Decies. Overlooking the village, in solitary, still grandeur, rises the stately Round Tower—the best preserved and the finest monument of its kind existing. There are a few spots in Eire that make so stirring an appeal to the Irish soul as venerable Ardmore with its mute memorials of a dimly glorious past. On "Pattern" Sunday night the usual grand dance will be held in the local hall and the function promises to be a huge success. One of the best dance bands in Munster has been engaged for the occasion and a gala night is assured.

Old Age Pensions.—At a meeting of the Youghal No. 2 Old Age Pensions Committee, Mr. R. J. Russell, Chairman, presided, and also present were Messrs. T. Bagge, C. Curran and M. J. Power (Clerk). The minutes of the previous meeting were read and signed. There was only one application for an Old Age Pension and the Investigating Officer reported that the claimant was entitled to 10/- week. The committee agreed with the officer's report that the applicant be allowed the maximum amount.

Clashmore Matches.—Two important championship matches will be played at Clashmore on Sunday week, 30th inst. In M.H. Geogh Emmets meet Kinsalebeg, and Blackwater Rovers, fresh from their victory over Ring line out against Old Parish, who defeated a good Clashmore team in the initial round. Two good games are assured in the pretty venue overlooking the Blackwater.

Camogie at Ardmore.—Visitors to Ardmore on Sunday next will have an opportunity of witnessing a camogie match between Clashmore and Old Parish, when a first-class game is assured. Both teams have been training hard recently and each side is eager to win. This unique event is sure to prove a great attraction.
