By "TAOBHLINE." "Hurling dies where it was born—why?" This was only one of the many slogans which greeted me on Sunday last when I travelled to Clonea-Power in anticipation of a ding-dong game between Kilrossanty and the Army, in the senior football championship. Quite a crowd turned up to see the game, but all like myself were sorely disappointed at the action of the locals who failed to place the venue at the disposal of the County Board. The meeting of Kilrossanty and the Army was eagerly awaited by all supporters of the meeting of the matter of the meeting of the mee

A very unique situation occurred at Clonea-Power on Sunday last, which was the venue for the Kilwhich was the venue for the Kilrossanty v. Army senior football championship match. When both teams and the referee arrived at about 3 p.m. they were astonished to find a "Trespassers will be Prosecuted" notice on the gate of the playing pitch and a number of slogans painted on the road. For a moment one would think another election campaign had begun. campaign had begun.

The goals on the pitch had also been dismantled. Mr. Dec Good, referee and County Secretary, interviewed members of the Clonea Club who were present on the roadside and, we understand, took statements regarding the situation from them, but as no agreement was arrived at, both teams had to return home.

rossanty and the Army was eagerly awaited by all supporters of the game and the outcome of the match would undoubtedly be a good pointer as to who would contest the County decider. I was very sorry for the players but admired the sportsmanship of the Kilrossanty and Army men who had cycled long distances to fulfil the fixture. As far as I could gather the whole parish of Clonea-Power was against the match being played due to the action of the Co. Board, who suspended the Chairman of the Clonea Club at its last meeting. However, the matter now rests with the County Board and Clonea won on Sunday last but there is always another day.

Dungarvan on Sunday next should house a record gathering to see the much talked of Clonakilty v. Stradbally senior football game. For the following we are indebted to Jim Ahern, the Cork and Clona-

CLONARILTY V. STRADBALLY. I arrived this week in Dungarya to visit a relative and await th Clonakilty v. Stradbally match. was not long in town when I decided to visit the Stradbally training H.Q. and there those live-wire officials of the Waterford Co. champions prevailed on me to write my views for the local press. This is something I never did before but I could not refuse to do something which might help such good sports as the Stradbally boys.

Before I write my few lines on the coming game I must state I was very impressed by my visit to the Strad-bally camp. There I found all the team in full togs with at least twenty other junior and minor footballers in they ran and sprinted right into the darkness of night. What a hard akilty, Cork Co. champions are making a trip to Dungarvan to repeat their decisive victory over Stradbally (Waterford). This, however, is far for Sunday next. On Easter Monday Stradbally lacked cohesion and palance which is ever noticea championship and practice games They are confident that those fault rising the ball in front of the post especially will be rectified for the refor a very swift moving machine for Sunday next, and will produce formidable opposition for the Cork champions. Clonakilty will field out at full strength and are taking no clonakilty's well-nigh impre back line of the tried veterans Kiel Cahalane and Finn were sore troubled by the Stradbally forward The half-line will be stre the return to form of Tigo Crowley, now reaching his old form while young H. O'Neill is a real find. The centre-field pair, tall, high catching, long-kicking, F. O'Donovan has found an able partner in C. O'Neill. an able partner in C. O'Neill. This pair will hold their own with any and will brook no opposition. D. Cullanane on the right wing is play-ing as well as ever he did when repreing as well as ever he did when representing Cork in the National League. He captained victorious Cork team when winning the junior championship of Munster in 1940. S. O'Donovan on the left wing played a big part in Clonakilty's success in last Sunday's semi-final. He, too has intercounty experience.

No doubt in forwards Clonakilty have plenty of talent. J. Crowley, J. Regan, D. Cullinane, S. O'Donovan, P. Ryan and Ahearn brothers and (Hitler) P. Healy are all first class

"Who's who"-M. Driscoll, the man in the gap is a capable netminder, also plays in goal for the Army senior hurlers, D. Cullinane, P. Kiely, T. O'Regan, Liam Ahearn, all helped Cork to capture Munster junior championship of 1940. Mick Finn and Cahalane are both of the great Cork team who lost to the Kerry '38 all-Ireland team, Tadgh Crowley captained last year's victorious Cork senior team. J Ahern and F. O'Donovan were also members with S. O'Donovan and L. Ahern among the subs. All have since gained inter-county experience Paddy (Hitler) Healy of the Army is a member of the present Cork nurling team and is also a first class footballer. J. Crowley declined the opportunity of inter-county football but has plenty of experience being the oldest playing member on the team since 1929. The remaining players, P. McNamara, H. O'Neill, C. O'Neill and P. Ryan await only the turn of fortune's wheel to enonly the turn of fortune's wheel to enable them to don the Red for Cork.

The fact that Clonakilty are traveling full strength is ample proof of the worthy respect they have for the Stradbally boys. Two evenly matched well-trained teams will always provide an hour of thrills. This return game has all the glamour of championship ties and inter-county appeal. May the best team win and the game in both Counties flourish as a result.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE. vithout Calomei — and you'll jump out of ood in the morning full of vim and vigour

The liver should pour out two pints of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk, and the world looks punk.

Laxatives help a little, but a mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good old Carters Little Liver Pills to get these two pints of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing H making bile flow freely. Aak for Carters Little Liver Pills. Stubbornly refuse anything cloe, 1/3 and 3/-.

The Army are fielding a team which includes some of the leading footballers of Ireland and it is hoped to have Lambe the famous Tipp. centre-field player in action. A big number of the famous McDermotts' team, Co. champions 1943, in junior football will also have places. Dungarvan, having a wish to extend this team to the full have asked the trade and served his time to the business in Dungarvan, later taking up a position on the staff of Messrs. Hearne and Co.. drapers, the Quay, Waterford, where he held the responsible position of buyer in woollens. In the course of his business activities, it can be said of him that he won golden opinions from all with whom he was associated, and established many valuable contacts in the capital. It was not surprising, therefore, when, Dungarvan, having a wish to extend this team to the full have asked the assistance of a number of selected players from Ballycoe, Kilrossanty, Brickey Rangers and the Nire. Hunt Club Formed.—At a recent meeting held in Ballyduff, a Hunt Club was formed and the following officers were elected: President, Dr. Lahiff, M.O., Ballyduff; Chairman, Mr. George Heskin; Treasurer, Mr. John Hickey, Toornageeha; Hon. Sec., Mr. John Daly, Clonbeg, Ballyduff. A very energetic and representative committee has undertaken to form a pack of hounds which will hunt regularly during the coming season. Already several first-class dogs have been secured and suggestion from the sporting public re the acquisition of hunting dogs will be much apreciated. In order to augment the funds of the Hunt Club a gymkhana will be held on Sunday, August 20th, when a very interesting programme will be witnessed. A very excellent committee are in charge and nothing will be left undone to make the day an outstanding success.

Nevertheless, she took the miles. Nevertheless, she took the field as fresh as the proverbial daisy and played a wonderful game. Others outstanding for the winners were: the Misses Peggy and Annie McGrath and N. Dalton. Newcomers in M. Creed and Nellie Phelan acquitted themselves admirably for their first match, while the three minors of the team, all under 16, Misses Noreen Collender, Terry Ahearne and Philomena Condon, the last named playing despite an injured ankle, also gave a grand display. Miss Cait Flynn played her usual efficient game in goal in the first half and in the full-back-line during the second moiety, back-line during the second moiety, but the stars of the side were Miss Biddy McGrath, whose solo runs and accurate striking were a treat to watch, while the speed and anticipation displayed by Miss Maureen Curran, coupled with quick lifting and striking was a telling factor in ngarvan's victory. For the losers, Miss M. Hennessy was an outstanding defender and the duels between herself and that grand camogie player, Miss A. McGrath were thrilling. Miss M. Scanlon, as full-back, was a stout defender, and she got able assistance from the Misses Whelan and Murphy.

The Misses Daly, Dunne and company, at centre-field, worked hard, though their efforts to turn defeat into victory were unavailing. The forward quartette—Miss Quinn, on the 25 yards mark; Miss Sullivan, full, and the Misses M. Murphy and K. Higgins, corners, also strove manfully to reduce the deficit but their efforts to overcome the Dungarvan defence was frustrated time and time again. The respective teams lined but Cait Flynn. T. Ahearne P. McGrath P. Condon B. Kirwan. M. Curran B. McGrath N. Dalton N. Collender N. Phelan M. Creed Ballyduff :... R. Daly.
