LATE MR. PATK. MANSFIELD BALLINTLEA, OLD PARISH.

It is with very deep regret we chronicle the death of Mr. Patrick Mansfield, Ballintlea, Old Parish, which occurred after a brief illness on Friday last, September 22nd. A Clear Day.—The Western clubs have a breathing space this week-end. Due to the inter-county can be the ogie game at Cappoquin and the county senior football at Dungarvar the clubs engaged in the county championship had to wait a week to Surprises.—The championship has been one long series of surprises. On Sunday last Sliabh gCua completed the series by defeating the fancied Blackwater Rovers' team and I believe that we are not yet at the end of them. Sunday week, when Bally-coe and Sliabh gCua meet may give week's notes. I said they were out week's notes. I said they were out for four in a row. They point out they have already held county honours for the past four years and they are out for the fifth victory this time. Sunday's win certainly makes their chances look good.

Can Sliabh gCua Win.—I asked a great judge of football yesterday if he thought Sliabh gCua could beat Ballycoe on Sunday week. He said "when Sliabh gCua get any team "when Sliabh gCua get any team from a town district out among their hills they not only can but will de-feat them. There is something about the yells of encouragement that get their players going and they can do anything then."

Lismore and Camphire Objection— Lismore J.H. club objected to Camphire being awarded the match played on 10/9/44.

The Secretary explained that the objection was in two parts for the following reasons: On the evening of he match Lismore asked to see the Camphire register; several names of players who appeared on the Camphire list of players were not on the register, but the Secretary pointed out that an additional list might be at his home. On the Monday following Lismore members called to his nouse, but did not ask to see the register. They lodged an objection, but he, Secretary found that they had objected to players as not registered. due to information got from register. whereas the players mentioned had been sent to him the Saturday before the match, but had not been added to the register. He told Lismore this and they added a separate objection. He asked if this was in order. The Chairman ruled that it was.

The Secretary then read both objections: The Lismore objection was—(1) That Sean Sliney and Stephen lurphy, whose names appeared on the Camphire lists were not registered. (2) That Pk. O'Shea was illegal to play as he came from outside gal to play as he came from outside the County. (3) That Sean Sliney, Stephen Murphy, Ed. Kelly and Wm. O'Keeffe, who played were not regis-tered 12 days before the match. (4) That Wm. O'Keeffe, Sean Sliney, Ed. Kelly and Stephen Murphy, whose names appeared on the Camphire ists did not play.

After discussing the evidence submitted on the four points, the Chairman ruled that Camphire offended against the rules in part 3 of the objection as their letters to the Secretary proved. He awarded the match

Camphire delegates denied playing any players from outside the County. Camphire counter-objected to Lismore on the following points: (1)—
That John O'Donoghue, who played

Vote of Sympathy.—At a specially convened meeting of the Ballyduff Red Cross, the following vote of sympathy was proposed and seconded: "That we the members of the Ballyduff Red Cross Society, ten-football rivals Stranbally, Co. chamder to Mr. D. Heskin, T.D., our sincere sympathy on his recent sad be-reavement occasioned by the death of his wife," The vote was passed in silence, all present standing as a mark of respect.

Now that the winter months are with us it should be an ideal pastime learning our native language. A special appeal is made to the young people to attend and support those Irish

The Minor Final.—The meeting of Dungarvan and St. Michaels (Ballyduff) in the West Waterford minor hurling final is being eagerly looked forward to, and a great game is anticipated. On the way to the final the local team have defeated some very promising teams which included "Eire Oge" (Lismore) and "Geosh Eire Oge" (Lismore) and Geosti Emmetts, and are now more than hopeful of adding another victim to their list when they meet Dungarvan. The latter are holders of the title for the past three years and will make a bold bid to make it four in a row. Be that as it may a great game is assured as both teams are dergoing a hard course of training and will be very fit when the day of the final comes,

Aims of Muintir na Tire.—Last May a branch of Muintir na Tire was established in Ballyduff and though only a few months is existence, wonderful headway has been made. The aims of Muintir na Tire as explained by the organising secretary, Mr. J. O. Barry Walsh, are: the organising of the rural people and the building up from the foundation of a great new social educational and evidence that we, in this country had neglected the building up of a christian social system. Nothing christian social system. that any government could devise would ever become completely successful until the people at home in their parishes woke up to their responsibilities and to the fact that hey themselves had to take part in Then and only then will rural districts become enjoyable and the drift to the city and town be overcome. We congratulate the local branch on what they have achieved during their short term in office.

Knockanore's Success. — At the Tallow venue on Sunday last Knockanore met and defeated Ballyduff in the first round of the Waterford Camoguidheacht championship. The day was cold but dry and there was a good attendance. The pitch was in excellent order, thanks to the local Gaels, and the game was followed with keen interest. Knockanore won the toss and played with the wind and from the throw-in broke away but the Ballyduff defence was very sound and an over resulted. From the puck-out Bally-duff attacked but the Knockanore backline drove them back. Some very hard clashes were witnessed es-pecially at centre-field, as both teams went all out to open the scoring but both defences held out well. Close marking was now the order and both goals had narrow escapes. Eventually Knockanore broke away and succeeded in opening the score with a goal which proved to be the only score of this half, as the short whistle went a few minutes later to leave the score: Knockanore, 1-0; Ballyduff, nil. From the restart Ballyduff went all out to level the score but the very able defence of the Misses Walsh, Neville and Mansfield saved the day and over's resulted. From the puck-out Knock-anore were away and despite wind and sun succeeded in raising the green flag. From the puck-out Ballyduff again went into the attack and had two 20's in quick succession.

Tipperary will not hear of defeat, so here's wishing both teams the best of luck ander new the best team win. L.D.F. Shoot = On Sunday last members of the Moorehill L.D.F., in conjunction with the Tallow group fired their annual course at the Tallow range. The shooting was very good, some members returning a very high score.

GAELIC NOTES : SENIOR CLUBS | BROTHER RICE CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS. By "TAOBHLINE." LECTURE AT LISMORE. Both ends of the county are well catered for this week end and a feast of hurling and football is in store for all Gaelic lovers throughout the In aid of the Edmund Ignatius Rice Memorial Fund, a splendid lecture on the life of the illustrious founder of the life of the illustrious founder of the Christian Brothers and on Education in Ireland during the past few centuries was delivered to a large audience at the Falladium Cinema on Tuesday of last week by Rev. Fr. T. Murphy, B.A., C.C., Islamore. It was also hoped to have the pleasure of a song recital after the lecture by Mr. Frank Ryan, but owing to unforseen circumstances this fine singer was unable to attend and instead the members of the Church choir rendered some well-known choruses in a specific proving and shillings; and often in pence. At the stations, often in pence. At the sta pions four in a row, once again meet their neighbours Kilrossanty in the senior football county championship.
At Waterford the senior hurling Co final replay is down for decision between Portlaw and the Army. Those two great games should prove a capital attraction and it is expected that record crowds will patronise both venues. At Dungarvan on Sunday next Stradbally and Kilrossanty line out in the senior members of the Church choir rendered some well-known choruses in a manner which won well-deserved applause from all. At the conclusion Very Rev. Brother McCovern, Superior, C.B.S., Lismore, in a few well-chosen words returned thanks to all which had helped them in any way to Mr.S. O'Connell and the Chair, and especially to Dr. and Mr.S. Healy who had so generously given the Cinema for the occasion and had assisted them in every way possible. Cipening football championship and as those are our two best football teams a great game is assured. For the past four years Stradbally were unbeaten four years Stradbally were unbeaten in championship games and they are intent this year to bring home the bacon. Should they win this year's championship they will join Clashmore and Dungarvan who each, in turn won the Waterford senor football blue riband five years in succession. Stradbally make no secret of the fact that they will emulate this proud achievement and they will not readily bow to the Kilrossanty men for the occasion and had assisted them in every way possible. Opening his lecture, Fr. Murphy said that Edmund Ignatius Rice was one or the greatest men of his century and the greatest Irishman of his day and time that knew Daniel O'Connell and Fr. Matthew. He rose in dark and evil days to free the youth of his race from the chains of ignorance and vice, to save them from the hands of the proselytisers and to instil them a love and knowledge of their holy Religion and the culture that naturally flows from it. The Rev lecturer then went on to deal readily bow to the Kilrossanty men who have proved themselves great clampionship fighters. Kilrossanty favour the catch and kick style of foctual whereas the champions excel at passing movements which is the secret of their success. The clash of the different styles should lead to a great game especially when the Kilrossanty slogan is: "Now of never dethrone the champions." I saw Stradbally defeat a strong Army team in the initial round of the comlecturer then went on to deal with the life of the great man and the petition and conditions were by no means favourable on the day in system of education which obtained in Ireland before the founding of the Christian Brothers. How we must adquestion and taken all round they proved to themselves and supporters that they were worthy title holders. mire the courage and faith of Edmund Ignatius Rice and his hand.
ful of Brothers in their first assault

That was all they had on their part, In their next outing they had an overwhelming victory over a depleted Nire team and this game cangreat new social educational and economic organisation which would bring to the country people a sense of responsibility and a spirit of self-reliance which would benefit them in many ways. Those who say that Muintir na Tire is not needed in any parish or that it has no work to do are going through life with unseeing eyes, for all around them lay the evidence that we in this country.

That was all they had on their part, and on the part of their pupils remained the faith and antehingence of the proved only a practice match for the champions who were superior in all departements. Kilrossanty, wearers of the green and gold have been the champions greatest rivals for the past number of years and there is little or not needed in any parish or that it has no work to only Stradbally always bring out that little extra in the closing stages.

That was all they had on their part, and on their part, and on the part of their race. The great cry of the past number of the past number of years and there is little or not needed in any parish or that it has no work to only Stradbally always bring out that little extra in the closing stages.

Kilrossanty, wearers of the past of their race. The great the past number of years and there is little or not needed in any parish or that it has no work to only Stradbally always bring out that little extra in the closing stages.

Kilrossanty have about the many and on their part, and on their part, and on their part, and on the part of their race. The great the past of not be taken into consideration as it proved only a practice match for the that little extra in the closing stages. Kilrossanty have about the measure taken of the little extra and they expect to counteract it which should prove the downfall of the champions if their expectations materialise. Kilrossanty defeated the Nire men but were not impressive against Dungarvan in the second round. Their supporters claim they always show-up best against Stradbally and presently there is plenty of confidence in the green and gold camp. Tom Veale, the Maguires, P. Dalton, P. Wade and "Dykie" Veale need no introduction to football followers and they themselves had to take part the government of their country. It was, therefore, as important for the people of a parish to take part in their Muintir na Tire guild or council as it was for them to participate in the political government of a country. It would be a grand thing to have a branch of Muintir na Tire in every parish in Ireland, and to build a parish hall in every country district where healthful and popular amusements could be carried out. Then and only them will rural district.

Then and only the aniovable and the standard and to bination. How they fare out on the people of a parish to take part in there is plenty of confidence in the green and gold camp. Tom Veale, the green are populated they are populated to their stand for free ed. Mur opposition, their stand for free ed. Mur oppositi ings and at a glance the Kilrossanty team is certainly a formidable combination. How they fare out on Sunday against Kevin Phelan, J Power, Connors Brothers, Veale Brothers, A. Fleming, R. Hickey, P. Kiely, P. Kirwan, J. Kiely, J. Orpen, etc. is another question which Sunday should decide. The game is timed to start at 4 (S.T.) and will be refereed by Dec Sullivan, Dun-

Sunday next the team representing the Leather City should be a very fit one. The Army have not been idle either and they are in training quietly at Waterford under the baton of Capt. P. Murrihy, their O/C. Portlaw expect to take home the championship on Sunday next and there is great confidence in the Tannery town and all modes of conveyance is being availed of to follow Mick Hickey and his men in quest of the blue riband of Deise hurling. Capt. Murrihy says: "Our team were not seen at their best in the drawn game but on Sunday we are hopeful of re-p-bducing our past brillance and if Sur boys play to instructions we will win our first senior hurling championship." This replay should be a th-411cs, a game without frills in which two of the fittest teams ever to play in a county final will be the contestants. Hurling of a high order is assured and enthusiasts citywards should not fail to see the greatest of all 1'elays. Mr. M. V. O'Donoghue, Chairman of the Co. Board will referee the game which is timed to start at 4 p.m. (S.T.). Fenor and Mt. Sion meet in the East Waterford J.F. final and a rousing game is
