Ballycoe, 2-1; Sliab gCua, 6-4.

There was a large crowd present at Modeligo on Sunday last, where Ballycoe defeated a fancied Sliabh gCua team in the Western J.F. final

GAELIC NOTES : SENIOR CLUBS | WEST DIVISION G.A.A. NOTES

"AN RUNAIDHE" By "TA PHLINE"

My readers this week will regret to learn of the death of Pad Malone, More Surprise Results—As the championships conclude the results cause much surprise. The defeat of Dungarvan minor hurlers by St. Michaels (Ballyduff) in a wonderfully fast nurling game must rank in the first place. Dungarvan claim there was something not quite fair about the selection which defeated them and I forsee an objection fol. which sad event took place on Saturday last in the Mercy Hospital Cork. A prominent member of the Tallow senior huning team for the past four or five years, Paddy was a loveable character, a staunch Cael and one of the most prominent personalities in his native Tallow. As a last tribute to a great player and Gael, his condrades of the Tallow team natched them and I forses an objection following. The victory of Cappoquin hurlers over Lismore is another unexpected one. They certainly won on the merits and I am confident rades of the Tallow team nlarched by his remains on Saturday last and shouldered the coffin to the local Church which was filled to capacity, a true indication of the deceased's popularity. Paddy, who comes from respectable farming stock is a big loss to his mother and the sympathy of Gaelic Waterford is extended to her and family in their recent sad bereavement. The name of Paddy Malone will not be forgotten by the Brideside and Tallow Club have lost a great player who, in passing, has con the merits and I am confident that they were as much surprised as Lismore. I can't include the Bally. Coe victory with the above as from the very first I believed this team would go a long way in the cham. Pionships.

were playing a lot of the ball, but the Ballycoe backs always managed to Ballycoe backs always managed to clear to the wings and make the shooting most difficult for their stronger opponents. The Sliabh gCua ralf-back line, where J. Power was not most prominent player, were letting little pass while E. Burke and McGrath had the pull at centre-field. T. Currin, the Ballycoe centre forward, who was the most dangerous forward on the side, led any fo ward, who was the most dangerous fo ward on the side, led any Baycoe attack that was made. After twenty minutes Ed. Foley equalises with a point from far out and four nimites later Sliabh gCua went ahead by a point from a free by J. J. McGrath and shortly after the same player had another point. In the 32nd minute Tom Curran was sent off by the referee and Ballycoe and an appeal will appear in the "Dungarvan Observer" in a later

> At half-time a Sliabh grua victory was i dead certanty and it was only a juestion of a high score Sliabh grua made a fine break from the throwing but walsh, Coughlan, ihrowin bull Walsh, Coughlan, Navii and company returned. Veale and Ed. Filey were now seen to be becoming very effective at mid-field and the ball was dropping into the Sliabh gCua lines. Every Ballycoe man was now putting a little extrainty the game which more than made up to the axira man. made up for the extra man. A re-shuffle in the Sliabh gCua side seemed to have an adverse effect on seemed to have an adverse effect on their to thall capabilities. Daw we still their fortball capabilities. Daw we still their great old defender, who has been responsible for holding more games than any olayer in the county was now playing just as well as in the 1939 senior (linal. He coolly work down the Sliabh ¿Cua attack on the right side. Following a Ballycoe break, P Kiely tapped in a goal giving his side a point lead. The game now became very exciting and the Touraneens men went all out to break up the Ballycoe lines. Ten minutes later Sliabh gCua were penalised for fouling in the parallelogram and S McGrath goaled from the penalty Sliabh gCua were not yet beaten and made some strong attacks before the end came; their only score coming from a free close only score coming from a free close in by J. McGrath (a point). Bally-coe were playing wonderful in the closing stages. Final score, Bally-coe, 2-1 Sliabh gCua, 0-4

Again we offer our heartiest congratulations to William (Billie) Foley, Coolroe, Old Parish, who has just left the Old Boro' to take up a four-year course at University College, Cork. This brilliant scholar has thus added further laurels to his wonderful educational career, as he wonderful educational career, as he had already won and completed a four-year scholarship course at St. Augustine's College, Dungarvan. We would also like to congratulate Tomas O Faolan, N.T., Old Parish, under whose capable tuition he reunder whose capable fultion he received his primary education. But we think a special meed of praise is due to Rev. Fr. Magee, O.S.A., and the teaching staff of the Friary College, whose brilliant teaching contributed so much to Billie's success in securng such a coveted prize as a University Scholarship.
Billie's prowess in the hurling and

CORRESPONDENCE. A.T. & G.W. UNION (DUNGARVAN BRANCH).

The Editor, "Dungarvan Observer." Dear Sir,—For the information of the general public I would like to give an outline of the dispute between the Union and the Dickens Leather Co., Dungarvan. In January of this year both the Union and the Company be-came members of the Joint Industrial Council for the leather industry, under a Department chairman. The Union undertook that no unofficial stoppage of work would be allowed, thus saving a vital industry for the nation. Should a dispute arise the Union undertook to go through all the machinery of the Council before a deadlock was admitted. When the deadlock came a further four weeks were to be given to the Government Department concerned to try and settle. If failure still resulted the Union undertook to allow in safety men to save the products from spoiling, so there would be no loss. All these undertakings have been carried out in spirit and in letter. The sum total of the dispute is that the Union members refuse to work with a number of their members who,

A Pronounced Success.—The dance held by the Cappagh Social Club at the Ballinameela School on Sunday night last was one of the most successful dances of the season and the huge crowd present thoroughly enjoyed themselves. All credit for this goes to the two live-wire hon. secs., the Misses Ciss Foley and Peggy Flynn who were untiring in their endeavours to please all. The music by the Shamrock Dance Band was pronounced tip-top, while the catering by Miss B. Corbett, Woodstock, could not be excelled. The drawing of prizes in aid of the Finisk Rovers F.C. which took place during the dance resulted in Miss Noreen O'Leary, Dungarvan, winning the first prize (two bicycle tyres), the winning ticket being sold by Mrs. B.

Local Factory Strike.—The em-ployees of the Dickens Leather Company to the number of about 160 did not return to work on yesterday (Thursday) morning. guilty on behalf of his clients, said that it appeared to be the practice in Dungarvan, on fair days, for young boys to mind cattle for farmers, for which they would get a few shillings. On the last fair day these boys asked a farmer who had cattle outside Lawwent up to the hotel and hung around for a while waiting to be paid. They then went upstairs and found a purse in a bedroom, in which was a bangle and some money. One of them took the bangle out and left it on the mantlepiece and took the money. One of the other defendants then took the bangle and they left the hotel and went up to a chip shop and bought chips. They then went to Mr. Bowman's in Mary Street with the bangle and asked him if it was gold or silver. The defendants, said Mr. Farrell, wanted to know if it was gold or silver, and if it was they intended to hand it back. If it was brass they intended to keep it as a curio. Mr. Farrell then went on to describe the circumstances of his clients' parents and said that Mrs. Crotty was the mother of six children and her husband worked in the leather factory. She worked as a charwoman around the town and did her best for her children. She did not know that this

LISMURE NOTES

Late Miss Elizabeth Healy, Main Street.—Few there are over a wide Street.—Few there are over a wide area who have not heard with deep and sincere regret of the death of Miss Elizabeth Healy, Main Street, which occurred at her residence on Sunday morning last following a prolonged period of ill-health. The deceased lady bore her illness with true christian fortitude and passed peacefully away consoled by the rites of Holy Church of which she had been a devout member during life. been a devout member during life.
Belonging to a prominent and wellknown family, the late Miss Healy was daughter of the late Mr. Maurice Healy and sister of the late Mr. Tim Healy, first Governor General, and of the late Mr. Maurice Healy, K.C. The deceased was Postmistress at Lismore for many years until obliged to retire in 1937 owing to ill-health, and during her long association with the public life of the town she endeared herself to all by her kindness deared herself to all by her kindness and never-failing courtesy. A lady in the true sense, deceased was possessed of many lovable qualities and was ready at all times to lend a helping hand to those in less favourable circumstances. Cultured, refined and erudite, the late Miss DEATH OF MRS. M. DELANY, CONGRESS VILLAS, DUNGARVAN.

We deeply regret to announce the death of Mrs. Margaret Delany (ex-N.T., Ballymacart), which took place at her residence, Congress Villas, Dungarvan, early on Thursday morning, 12th inst., after a rather protraction.

> Threshing Accident.—On enquiries at Lismore District Hospital at the time of going to press we are pleased to learn that Mr. Michael O'Keefe, Glenasaggart, Lismore, recently injured following the breaking of the beaters of a threshing set operating on the farm of Mr. J. Wall, Kilbree, is making satisfactory progress. Following treatment on the scene of the accident by Dr. White, Cappoquin, the young man was removed to Lismore District Hospital where for a few days his condition was regarded as serious. He is now doing nicely, however, and we join with his friends in hoping that this popular young man will soon be quite well Death of Mr. T. Murphy, Coole, Ballysaggart.—The death of Mr. Timothy Murphy, Coole, Bally-saggart, which took place recently at his residence at a ripe old age, has occasioned regret throughout the district. A well-known member of the farming community, the late Mr. Murphy came of respected local stock and was held in high esteem in the neighbourhood. Throughout his long and honoured life he was known as a man of upright character and industrious disposition and his demise is regretted by his many friends. The funeral from his late residence to St. Mary's Church, Ballysaggart, took place on Friday evening, when the remains were received by Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., Lismore, and Rev. Fr. Troy, O.M.I. Immediately afterwards the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a large concourse of mourners, relatives and friends. Chief mourners were: Mary, Margaret and Eileen Murphy (daughters); John, William, Michael and Timothy (sons); Mrs. E. Murphy and Mrs. J. Murphy (daughters-in-law); Angela, Bridget, Timothy, Thomas and John Murphy, Melleray (grand-children); Angela and Tim, Lismore

Successful Dance.—The cinderella dance at the Happydrome on Sunday night was a great success, large numbers attending from all over.
Everything combined to make the function an enjoyable one. Splendid music was supplied by the Starlight Serenaders Band, the floor was in perfect order and carnival decorations added to the festive atmosphere. The playing of the National phere. The playing of the National Anthem brought the dancing to a close and one and all voted it a most O'Connor many years of matrimonial enjoyable night.

Acute Fuel Shortage.—It is anticipated that the coming winter will be one of very grave shortage of winter fuel. We have invented a new apparatus, and when this is fitted to your existing range, no matter how old or what pattern, it will convert your range into a modern turf-burning range. It has several advantages; one is that it will burn coal, turf, ing range. It has several advantages; one is that it will burn coal, turf, wood or coke, and will save at least 50 per cent. in consumption. Another advantage, it will remain lighting overnight. The cost of fitting is not excessive, and will cost from £3 to £4/10/0, according to size and make of range. We fully guarantee this apparatus, and if it does not give satisfaction, your money will be refunded. We already have a waiting funded. We already have a waiting list, and it is growing every day, so please place your orders as soon as possible, in order to avoid delay.—

"Something New."-We are putting two New Turf Ranges on the market at considerably reduced prices. No. 1 H. and C. Water Range, high-pressure copper boiler, £16 16s. No. 2, Turf Range without hot water attachment, £9 15s. In addition to attachment, £9 15s. In addition to the above ranges burning turf, they will also burn coke, wood or coal without further adjustment. Owing to the new patent device attached, these ranges will remain lighting overnight. This advantage is not offered by other manufacturers. We can recommend both of the above ranges with considerable confidence.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

Resumption of Practice Dances.— The weekly practice dances will be resumed in the Boathouse on Sunday night next, October 15th. Large crowds of dancing fans are expected and it is hoped that the usually generous support given to practice dances here will be forthcoming for the future. G.A.A.—Cappoquin was the Mecca of all Gaels on Sunday last when two important matches were played in the Sportsfield. Dungar-van played Ballyduff in minor hurl-ing and Cappoquin met Lismore in junior hurling. Weather was in and the large gathering of spectators and the large gathering of spectators certainly got good value for their money. Both games proved close and exciting. In the Dungarvan-St. Michaels game, Dungarvan showed their superiority in craft and experience and turned over at halftime with a lead of two points. On the resumption St. Michaels took up the offensive. Hurling with rare abandon they swept down on the Dungarvan posts, succeeded in scor-ing but still failed to draw level with their opponents. Shortly after-wards St. Michaels went ahead with a great goal. At the final white St. Michaels led by 3-4 to 3-2. Dun-garvan were the more scientific hurlers but the speed and the great stamina of the Ballyduff boys won the day. Mr. James Lacey (jr.) acted as an able and impartial re-

Cappoquin Emerge Victors in the Semi-final.—In the semi-final of the Western Div. junior hurling championships, Cappoquin defeated Lismore after a splendid, clean game at the residence, Congress Villas, Dungarvan, early on Thursday morning, 12th inst., after a rather protracted illness. A lady of refinement and culture who was beloved by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, her death has occasioned deep regret to all her friends, and the deepest sympathy is felt for the members of her family.

Relict of the late Patrick Delany, ex-N.T., the deceased was mother of Rev. C. Delany, O.S.A., Hoxton, London (at present home on holidays). The remains were removed to the Parish Church, Dungarvan, on Thursday evening, where this (Friday) morning Requiem Office and High Mass will be celebrated at 11 a.m. summer time, the funeral afterwards taking place to Old Parish.

The remains were received at the Church Gates by Very Rev. T. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F., assisted by Revs. C. Delany, P.P., v.F., assisted by Revs. C. Driver, do.; Mrs. A. Carroll, Fermony; Mrs ceeded in scoring another goal shortly after. In another attack cappoquin raised the green flag. The Lismore back division now withstood terrific pressure but failed to hold the craftier Cappoquin forwards who had another point leaving the interval acore: Cappoquin, 2-2; Lismore, 1-1. On poquin pressed and hoisted a green flag. Lismore had a like score at the other end. Both sides again had scores. At this period the standard scores. At this period the standard reduce the lead but the long whistle sounded leaving Cappoquin worthy winners on the score: 4-4 to 3-2. Mr. P. Ryan proved a most capable and impartial referee. Outstanding for Cappoquin were: P. English, T. Crotty, S. Brennan, M. Connors, W. Rea, J. Ahearne, while Lismore were werl served by P. Moore, J. O'Gorman, J. Farell (goal), and R. O'Donnell. Wedding Bells.—The wedding took place on Tuesday morning, 10th October, at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Cappoquin. The contracting parties being Mr. Patrick O'Connor, son of Mrs. O'Connor and the late Mr. Jas. O'Connor, 46, Moyderwell, Tralee, and Miss Amelia Frances Kelleher, younger daughter of Mr. John P. and Mrs. Kelleher. Station House, Cappoquin. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass, was performed by Rev. Fr. Eugene O'Connor, brother of the bridegroom. The bride, who looked charming was attended by her sister, Mrs. L. C. Dooley, as matron of honour. Mr. Thomas O'Connor (brother of the groom) acted as best man. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents and was atended by a large number of guests when a very pleasant few hours were whiled away. The newlyweds afterwards travelled to Cork and from there to Kerry where the honeymoon is being spent. Both bride and bridegroom were the recipients of many useful and costly gifts. We unite with their troop of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs.

Wedding Bells.—At SS. Peter and Paul's Church, Cork, on Tuesday. 3rd October, Capt. John C. O'Boyle, eldest son of Mr. John and Mrs. O'Boyle, Reelin Bridge, Clogheen. Co. Donegal, was married to Miss Mary Eithne (Maureen) Slattery. Lackensilla, Cappoquin, only daughter of Mr. Thomas Slattery, D.A.T.I., and the late Mrs. Slattery, Oakpark. Tralee. Co. Kerry. without Calemei — and you'll fump out of heaf in the morning full of vim and vigour.

The liver should pour out two pints of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Cas bloats up your stomach. You get constipsted. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk, and the world looks punk.

Laxatives help a little, but a mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good old Carters Little Liver Fills to get these two pints of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carters Little Liver Fills. Stubbornly refuse anything else, 1/3 and 3/-.
