month was granted. Supt. O'Mahony v. Stephen Smyth, Kilkenny, a further adjournment for one month was granted. Apparel.—Supt. O'Mahony charged a girl named Mary Morrissey, Kilmacthomas, with, between 11/9/44 and 9/10/44, at O'Connell Street, Dungarvan, stealing (1) £3 in cash, bungarvan, stealing (1) £3 in cash, the property of Elizabeth Doyle; (2), stealing £1 in cash, a jumper value 10/- and a frock value £1, the property of Margaret Sullivan.

Supt. O'Mahony said that the delendant came to work in Dungarvan fendant came to work in Dungarvan on 11th Sept. She was not long here when a fellow-employee missed £1. There was, however, nothing about that until later another employee missed £3 and while enquiries were being made, defendant packed up and in packing up she took this jumper and frock. She was intercepted by the Guards before she got cepted by the Guards before she got home and the wearing apparel found in her case.

Mr. Kenny, solr., for the defendant, said he really appeared on behalf of the girl's father who was a most respectable man and the moment this matter came to his notice, he refunded all the money. The girl was never in any kind of trouble before. Her mother died in May last. He asked the Justice to deal with her leniently and she would go back to her father who will look after her. Superintendent O'Mahony in reply to the Justice, said that the father is a thoroughly banest man, but the a thoroughly honest man, but the Guards at Kilmacthomas have noth-ing to say about the girl. He, hima very mean form of theft to steal from a fellow employee. It is very unpleasant for a worker saving up some money to find £3 of her savings gone.

Addressing the defendant the Justice said he would impose a suspen-sory sentence of two months im-prisonment with hard labour not to be enforced if she does not commit an offence in the next twelve months.

Further Stay Sought. -Mr. Williams, solicitor, on behalf of Mrs. Quill, Ballymacmague, Dungarvan, applied for a further stay of one month in the decree for possession given against her at the August Court. Mr. Williams stated that immediately the decree was given Mrs. Quill applied at once to the Department of Supplies for a permit to purchase cement to enable her to make some alterations in her own house to ac-commodate her family, but it was only last week she got the permit and when she took the permit to the Co-Op. Creamery she could only get five cwts, although the permit was for five tons. He would ask to grant her one extra month to enable her to carry out the alterations.

Mr. Kenny, Solr., for Mr. Ml. Moloney said much as he would like to oblige he was unable to agree to this application. When the original stay was being granted the Justice was inclined to give a stay of one month only but on the application of Mr. Williams his client agreed to a stay of two months. The Justice, in marking the application refused, said it would not be fair to Mr. Moloney, seeing that he must cycle nine miles to his work particularly in the present weather. ant a further stay.

Tea Charge.-The Minister for Supplies prosecuted a tea retailer in the area with failing to keep a pro-per tea register and failing to account for 720 lbs. of tea between April, 1941, and May, 1944. Dr. Counihan said that the defendant was getting tea from a number of suppliers including Mr. J. Coleman, Cork. The tea received from him was not entered in the Form

T.15 as required. The nett de-ficiency over the period April, 1941, to May, 1944, is 720 lbs. Mr. Farrell, Solr., for the defendant, said that he was pleading guilty to the charge. The defendant had two regular tea suppliers. Messrs. Garretts, Dublin, and McCarthys, Cork, just before the rationing period started. Coleman, through a traveller, said to the de-fendant, that he would give him all the tea he wanted provided he dealt exclusively with him after the war. Defendant put in a big quantity of tea before rationing commenced. He has 100 rationed customers and he supplied each of those with a double nspectors agreed after a check-up that the quantity missing is the amount required to give the 100 customers the double ration. He kept all the entries of tea received from Coleman in a pass-book and produced this to the inspectors.

A fine of £10 was imposed. Alleged Breach of Contract.—J.
J. Walsh, Mary St., Dungarvan, had a civil bill for £9 against Mce. Trihy, Prao, Grange, Youghal, for loss sustained by him due to the failure of lefendant to carry out a contract entered into between the parties.

Mr. Farrell, solr., for plaintiff; Mr.
Kenny, solr., defended.
Mr. Walsh, replying to Mr. Farrell, said that in November, 1943, he made a contract with Trihy whereby Trihy was to bring a rick of wheaten straw into plaintiff's yard as required, to be made into manure by defendant's cattle. Witness sold Trihy about 5 tons oaten straw with which he was to winter his cattle in plaintiff's yard and spread the oaten straw to be made into manure. Defendant only brought in a few loads and the rest was left to rot in the field. He es-Browne, Abbeyside, against Capt. T.
Donohue, an adjournment for a grazing of a stubble field for a month and paid witness £6. He also bought the 5 tons oaten straw for £8 from witness. Witness gave the de-fendant the wheaten straw free, the cattle to be wintered in the yard and witness was to get the manure. De-fendant put the cattle in the yard is plenty water coming through the yard. If defendant say witness drew 30 tons of manure from the yard it would be wrong. At the time of ploughing in February, witness asked Trihy to take the cattle off; that would be about the middle of February. Defendant took them after asking witness to allow them there

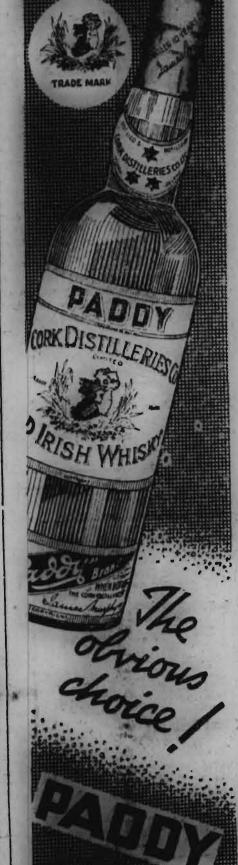

To Mr. Farrell-Witness said defendant took the field for one month from 27th November to 27th December for £6. He was then to winter

BALLYCOE ARE JUNIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS.

FENOR FLOGGED IN FINAL.

Ballycoe, 1-5; Fenor, 1-1. Newtown greeted us with a sunny smile on Sunday last, as we thronged in no small numbers for the County junior football ultimate to midwaterford's oldest stronghold of Gaeldom. The day was the kind of one October loves to serve, soft and warm in the middle but crisp about the edges. Bikes, traps and carts carried most of the spectators; the rest relied on "shanks mare." All arrived in good time and were more than amply rewarded for our trouble with a keenly contested game that never for a moment lacked interest and excitement. The attendance inand excitement. The attendance included veterans from parts near and far who could recount in remarkable detail tests that were won and lost over half-a century a go. Amongst the Ballycoe followers who cheered the Western combination to victory were Messrs. Hugh Foley, Michael Fives and Paddy Keane (three officials of the Club) as genial and genuine a trio of Gaels as one could hope to happen on. Fr. Alyward, Fenor's lovable young curate, was there encouraging by Alyward, Fenor's lovable young curate, was there—encouraging by his presence the team in whom the hopes of East Waterfordians were centred. His trusty "iron steed" brought the County Board's capable Secretary, Mr. Declan Good, from his home in the Old Borough of Dungarvan, and this unfailing courteous and obliging official expressed himself to us as being right well pleased and obliging official expressed himself to us as being right well pleased with the venue (field kindly lent by Mr. James Wall) and general arrangements at the hands of Messrs.

Frank Drohan, P.C. (Hon. President): Wm. Lenihan (Chairman); (hon. sec.), and their confreres of the flourishing Newtown Club. Sergt.

P. Graham (Army) had charge of the siren and he set the mix in motion sharp to the scheduled hour (3 p.m.). The opposing players (with their respective positions on the pitch in play indicated) were as under :--

Ballycoe— T. Kiely
P. O'Sullivan P. Dwyer J. Lindsay
J. Navin T. Coughlan D. Walsh M. Veale and E. Foley
P. Foley J. McGrath (capt.) M. Kelly
M. Hurley J. Elstead M. Kiely
Fenor— M. O'Sullivan
G. O'Keeffe M. Foran P. McDonald
K. Burns R. Cowman K. Cowman

D. Cowman and P. Howlett K. Sheehan P. Haley E. Harkins D. Brady M. Hayes J. Delaney Fenor won the toss and elected to face the road-end goal. Play was both fast and vigorous right from the throw-in and the defenders on each side were hard pressed in turn each side were hard pressed in turn in the opening minutes. A free to Ballyycoe was nicely placed by J. Lindsay but was cleared by R. Cowman. Veale launched another Ballycoe assault and McGrath and Hurley were seen to advantage before the latter cleverly crossed to Kiely, who booted a beauty by O'Sullivan into the Fenor net. But seven minutes of the hour had then elapsed and a minute later Ballycoe overed. Following the kick-out, sparkling passages were seen between the opposing mid-field pairs. A free to Fenor did not pass Daw Walsh whose drive led to a rousing struggle in front of the Easterners' citadel before the ball went wide. In the ensuing ball went wide. In the ensuing play, D. Cowman and Howlett were seen to advantage but their efforts were temporarily checked by a free to the Western side. A further Fenor advance was finished by an admirably annexed point from a rather difficult angle per D. Brady. The three "Kevins" — Burns, Cowman three "Kevins" — Burns, Cowman and Sheehan—shone in a subsequent wave of Fenor pressure. The Ballycoe goalie and backs defended stoutly and Fenor had wided thrice ere the sphere was again seen well within their own lines. Ballycoe narrowly missed the objective. A free led to Fenor's conceding a "50" and their custodian capitably repulsed a 'rasper' from Elstead. In the next phase, Sean McGrath, getting possession from a free, nimbly sidestepped R. Cowman, and pointed stepped R. Cowman, and pointed from about 35 yards out with deadly accuracy. Play remained in the Fenor region and a free to Ballycoe field men were kept busy for a time.

Another Fenor forward movement ended with the leather rolling wide. Each side had a free and Fenor again overed, when the interval-blast sounded, leaving the position:

Ballycoe, 1-1; Fenor, 0-1.

In the second moiety there was even a more rousing struggle, in which fierce clashes were the order right down to the end. Inside of a minute of the re-start the white flag was hoisted by the skipper of "the men of the west." In a fresh assault Fenor had a free close in but the drive was narrowly wided. The Eastern representation strove their utmost to increase their tally. A grandly direced free forced Ballycoe to concede a 50, which, taken by Burns, travelled to the goalmouth, but the over-eager Fenor spearheads but the over-eager Fenor spearheads failed to land the leather between Fenor's relief, however, the score was disallowed for an infringement was disallowed for an intringement of the "square" rule. Two frees in quick succession to Ballycoe brought the ball to M. Sergt. P. Graham (Army) had charge of the given and he set the mix in of 1 goal 4 points. This big scoredifference did not dishearten Fenor.
Several subsequent exciting exchanges lifted the supporters of either side to the peak of enthusiasm.
Fighting back fearlessly, Fenor invaded the Ballycoe bourne, and from a scrimmage some fourteen yards straight opposite the objective, Delaney tapped to Harkins, who banged home a great goal. End-to-end play ensued. A free brought Ballycoe into the Fenor region and the westerners were cutely manouvring for another score when the time-up trumpet pealed. Result: Ballycoe,

A record crowd is expected to patronise the City venue on Sunday next for the final of the Ignatius Rice Hurling Tournament between Cork, All-Ireland Champions, and Waterford, who on the home ground are quietly confident of beating the champions. The Decie hurlers throw down a strong challenge to Cork hurling supremacy and a ding-dong champions. The challenge to Cork down a strong challenge to Cork hurling supremacy and a ding-dong struggle is expected which should produce hurling of a high order. The team selected to represent Waterford is already published and all players are fit and well and backed by local enthusiasm they will be a tough nut to crack. I note from Press reports that the Cork team selected is a very strong one which is a true indication that they have a healthy respect for the wearers of the blue and white. GREAT MATCH AT CAPPOQUING

Waterford, 2-0; Tipperary, 1-1.
The Waterford girls confirmed their recent championship win over Tipperary when at the Cappoquin Sportsfield on Sunday last they finished with the above lead after a thrilling game. A big crowd wifnessed the contest and they were kept on the tip to a contest and the tip to a contest and they were kept on the tip to a contest and they were kept on the tip to a contest and they were kept on the tip to a contest and they were kept on the tip to a contest and they were kept on the tip to a contest and they were kept on on the tip-toe of excitement from start to finish. Despite the very heav sod, due to the inclement weather over the preceding week, the game was played at a cracking pace, each player virtually playing herself to a standstill, for which both sides received generous plaudits from the spectators. These were intensified towards the end when the Tipperary girls went all out to try and turn defeat into victory, but the Waterford backs and net minder proved equal to every demand made on them and beat off all assaults on their territory. while the home forwards had hard luck on at least three occasions in not adding to their total in the closing Competition (junior location). Bespite a heavy and greasy pitch, a very interesting and lively game was seen.

Exchanges during the first quarter were fairly even, but after that the St. Augustines showed a decided superiority. Without detracting from merits of the winners' victory, the losers were worthy of a few addi tional scores—not that they did not get opportunities of securing them. The C.B.S. opened well and had an early point, to which St. Augustines replied with a similar score. Alternating exchanges followed before the College boys took the lead with a major. Persistent pressure by St. Augustines ensued, but the C.B.S. team stood up well. The latter then

Co. Limerick Shooting Affair:—The tragic death of Mr. J. Kirwan, M.Sc., Divisional Inspector of Vocational Augustines ensued, but the C.B.S. team stood up well. The latter then had a spell of attacking but failed to improve their position, and St. Augustines again resuming the offensive added a further minor, leaving them with a lead of 1-1 to 0-1 at the interval. On resuming, the C.B.S. pressed, shaping like a score. Faulty forward work, however, still left them in arrears. St. Augustines then took the offensive and pointed, but a C.B.S. rally followed, yielding a goal. Both sides were all out now and some lively phases followed. A further minor to St. Augustines regained for them their interval lead, and a major soon afterwards had a demoralising effect on the opposition. From this Schools, who was fatally shot at Hos-

WEST DIV. BOARD MEETING.

A meeting of the West Divisional Board was held in the C.Y.M.S., Cappoquin, on Sunday last at 8.15 p.m. Mr. O'Connor (Chairman) presided. Also present: Messrs. D. Sullivan (Vice-chairman), P. 'Ryan (County Board), and T. A. Kyne (Secretary). Clubs represented were: Dungarvan—J. O'Dea; Modeligo—P. McGrath; Cappoquin—P. McCarthy and J. Ahearne; Lismore—M. Gough; St. Michaels—J. Quirke and W. Healy; Ballyduff—P. Feeney.

Correspondence.—Sarsfields' Club applied for permission to alter their name to 7th Cyclists. They also applied for permission to run a tournament in Cappoquin for parochial funds. Granted. Refund.—Lismore Club applied for and were granted a refund of £2 objection fees. An application for exenses was refused. Fourmilewater Club.—A letter was read from the captain of the Four-milewater Club repudiating the re-cent letter in the Press signed "Four-milewater Club." The Secretary was instructed to ask this Club to secure name to 7th Cyclists. They also ap-the name of the person responsible for the letter to the Press.

Dungarvan Objection.—Dungarvan objected to St. Michaels minor hurlers being awarded the divisional final. The grounds were (1) that four players were over age, (2) that incorrect particulars of two players were given on the St. Michaels' list, were given on the St. Michaels' list, (3) that one player was not registered with St. Michaels. Point one was dealt with, and St. Michaels lost on this, as baptismal certificates only were produced for three of the players questioned. (2) Chairman ruled that incorrect particulars were given. (3) Chairman ruled that the player stated was not registered. The St. Michaels delegate held that baptismal certificates were in order and that the name of the player not registered had been sent by post to registrar.

The Editor, "Dungarvan Observer."

Dear Sir,—Notwithstanding my recent letter, there appears to be still some doubt as to the reason for the D.L.C. strike. Let me make this clear: (1) The Union does not demand an increase in wages. Notwithstanding the fact that women workers in Carrick get more wages than men in the D.L.C., Dungarvan, for work of the same type and which is sold in the same market, the Union cannot under a Government Order strike for an increase in wages.

came on, (3) that the Dungarvan list was deceptive and misleading. The points (2) and (3) were heard and the Chairman ruled them not proven.

Point (1) was adjourned to the post.

The Union does ask that an agreement be entered into that only Trade Union members be employed there. This is for the good of the Union and of the factory, as it will prevent unofficial strikes, disputes and keep the men employed in ded for 12 months for abusing the referee in the Ballycoe-Sliabh gCua game.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES. CORRESPONDENCE A.T. & G.W. UNION (DUNGARVAN

Coming Soon.—The residents of the town and district are in for a rare treat on Monday next, October 30th, when a company of first-class artists, the Bailey Company will visit the Boathouse Hall for a week's engagement. This recordbreaking company comes direct from the Queen's and Olympia Theatres, Dublin; Ritz, Carlow; Ritz, Clonmel; the Opera House, Cork, etc. It comprises of music, song, dance, comedy and novelty and in fact all the ingredients for a first-class show. This Company is at present playing in Lismore and we hear such splendid reports of it, we feel confident it shall receive a very generous measure of support from the public of Cappoquin during the coming illness with christian patience and resignation and died a truly holy and resignation and died a truly holy and happy death on Thursday morning week (19th inst.), in the fullness of her years. Sprung from a most respected Kilrossanty family stock—the Powers of Mountkennedy—the deceased was a fine type of Irish womanhood. Pious, charitable and respectable, she possessed all those noble characteristics of the typical Irish Catholic wife and mother. Educated at the Convent of the Sacred Heart Schools, Ferrybank, Waterford, the late Mrs. Power was witty and highly intellectual in conversation, and she could enliven any discussion with consummative ease. At sation, and she could enliven any discussion with consummative case. At her neatly-appointed home every caller was assured of a hospitable and kindly welcome. Of a verity, in the passing of this affable, gentle and kindl lady, all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance have lost the understanding and sympathy of a very staunch friend. The tender affection and profound regard of young and old, rich and poor, is her greatest happiness in death. Her husband, Mr. Michael Power (of worthilly honoured memory), who died in January, 1918, was a life-long sterling Nationalist, and was one of the leading Waterfordians figuring in the stirring days of the Land League and Plan of Campaign movements. Splendid Entertainment.—One of the largest crowds eye to throng the Happydrome attended on Sunday right lass for the variety entertainment presented by the Cork Variety Artistes. Seldom have the townspeople had such an opportunity of seeing and hearing such an afray of talent, and they showed their appreciation by filling the spacious Happydrome and by giving each of the artistes a deserving reception. The programme opened with a selection on the accordeon by a well-known performer, Mr. W. O'Riordan, Next to appear was Mr. W. Rice, a bassbaritone, whose delightful rendering of such well-known songs as "Legion of the Lost" and "Asleep in the Deep" won buch applause. He was followed by the Catchpole Brothers, comedians who fairly brought down the house with their laughable sketches and funny stories. An interval followed, during which a smoking competition was held. This caused much amusement and the audience were in paroxysms of laughter at the competitors' efforts, each one puffing away like a miniature steam engine, enterval with Miss I.
