TRAGIC DEATH IN ENGLAND. POPULAR YOUNG DUNGARVAN MAN'S UNTIMELY END.

The news of the death of Mr. Michael Houlihan, son of Mr. Thomas and Mrs. Ellen Houlihan, Shandon, Dungarvan, which was received by his parents on Wednesday, 28th ult., cast a gloom over the town and surrounding areas, where the deceased young man was most popular with all sections of the community. Widespread sympathy is extended to his bereaved parents, brothers and sisters in their great sorrow.

At an inquest in Birmingham, where the deceased was employed, a verdict was returned that death was due to asphyxia due to drowning as a result of misadventure during the hours of darkness. We learn that the deceased left the factory by a side door where a canal is close by, and in the darkness walked into the canal, where he became embroiled in the mud, and, in spite of the fact that he was a splendid swimmer he was unable to extricate himself from the deep mud, where, when daylight came, he was found by his friends.

When the remains arrived at the Dungarvan Station on Monday evening, by the 5.30 pm. train, an immense gathering of the people from the town and surrounding districts were present to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of this popular young man and to show their deep sympathy with his parents and family. The service of the day which was waiting to convey the remains to the church was dispensed with and the coffin was borne on their shoulders by relays of young men from the G.A.A. clubs and the Dickens Leather Factory, the sad cortege being preceded by Rev. D. Power, C.C., Rev. D. McGrath, and Rev. Fr. Hennessey.

The chief mourners were: Thomas and Ellen Houlihan (parents); Sean and Thomas (brothers); Biddy, Nellie and Madge (sisters). Telegrams and messages of sympathy were received from: Rev. M. Cullinan, P.P., Birmingham; Messrs. Timkin Ltd., do; Burghfield Fes. Club, Reading; Mrs. and Marie McAdam, do; John Loney, Jas. Power, B. Coleman and fellow workers, Birmingham; John Flynn, London; Mary Tobin, Dublin; Mr. and Mrs. Allan, do.; James and Mrs. Fox, Carrick-on-Suir; M. and N. Guiry, Rathfriland; K. Norris, do.; M. Kennedy, do.; Hickey family, Portlawn; M. Longan, Cork; McGrath family, Lisfenel; House, G.A.A. Clubs, Dungarvan; Brass and Band, do.; Presentation Convent, do.; etc.

Mass cards were received from: Dad and Mam, Seaside; Biddy, Nellie and Madge; Aunt K. and family; Aunt B. and family; Aunt M. and family; Uncle Pat and family; Uncle Mickie, Hickey family; John Loney and Danny Dunne; John Loney; sore friends at the works; McGrath family; Dalton family; Nellie and Tommie O'Mahony; John Flynn; Birds and family; Willie Lyons; Jimmy Power, Birmingham; George Tully and family; Jas. Power and family; Minnie and Mike; Tom and Mary Keily; O'Mahony family; grandfather and grandmother; M. and P. Tobin; Langan family; Young family; John and Jack O'Keefe; Paddy and Eddie Dee; Dwyer family; George Cummins; Ollie and Kathleen O'Connor; Tom and Stella; Barry; O'Keefe family; Dean family; Paddy and Leslie Lyons; A. and B. Christopher; Sheila; O'Mahony family; Walshe family; M. Gough; Marty Walshe and family; Tobin family; Billymacmaugh; Mrs. Cody and Bridget, James and Mrs. Fox; Jack and Nellie Claville; Paddy and M. Callaghan.

The tragic death of Michael Houlihan has caused widespread regret in this locality and the sympathy of all goes out to his bereaved family in their great loss. We who knew him as a club mate and in later years as a fond pal, will sorely feel his passing. For he was indeed a true and faithful friend. One did not need to live with Mickey (as he was known to us) to know him; for there was something in him that betrayed his whole character. Perhaps it was that ever-present smile of his which was contagious in that he alone knew how to put us all in good humor. Perhaps it was his quiet and unassuming disposition, which, with other characteristics, marked him out as an exemplary young gentleman. A fine sport, Mickey was a member of the Dungarvan Hurling and Football Clubs and held many county medals in minor grade. As one who played against him in both hurling and football, I can truthfully say that he was also a gentleman on the playing pitch. Defeat and victory alike found him in the same spirit and he'd rise up to the ideals of the game in every sense.

Exemplary, gentlemanly and sportsmanlike—what more tribute could be paid to a man? But Death, the pauper, has taken Mickey from us in respect, has taken Mickey from us in respect, and we are left to mourn

LATE MR. J. K. BOWEN, B.E., COUNTY SURVEYOR.

By the death of Mr. John Kings- town Bowen, B.E., M.I.C.E., which occurred at his residence, Ballinaparks, Cappoquin, on Thursday, Nov. 30th, the County Waterford has lost an official, who, as County Surveyor, was second to none throughout the length and breadth of the county. Since his appointment as County Surveyor of Waterford in 1915, the late Mr. Bowen has transferred the roads of this county from the inferior condition in which he found them, into what they are today, the finest and best kept highways in the county. In addition, the late Mr. Bowen, in the capacity of architect and consultant was responsible for practically all the big building schemes in the county since his advent there.

After a brilliant professional career, the late Mr. Bowen graduated in 1908 and after spending some years as an engineer in the Congested Districts Board of the West of Ireland, was appointed Waterford Co. Surveyor and took up duty here on 1st April, 1915. In addition to being a member of the Institute of Civil Engineers of Ireland, he was also a Fellow of the Surveyors Institute (London), and a Fellow of the Institute of Highway Engineers. His most important and diligent work in the interests of the ratepayers, the hundreds of men who worked under him throughout the county found him a strict, but most conscientious employer, ever ready to reward merit in his employees.

He was appointed Borough Surveyor of Dungarvan in 1941 and during those few short years he did much to improve the condition of the roads and footpaths in the town and district. He was the driving force behind the scheme for the improvement of the town which was opened in 1942. Deceased was son of the late Mr. Patrick Bowen, Monksdown, Cork, and brother of Mr. Jas. F. Bowen, Mayor, Provincial Bank, Dungarvan; Mr. V. Bowen, Cobh; the late Dr. W. Bowen, Lismore; and the late Mrs. E. Bowen, Lismore; Mrs. E. Bowen, Lismore. The deepest sympathy of the whole populace is extended to his bereaved widow, son and daughters in their sorrow. On Friday evening the remains were removed from his late residence to the Parish Church, Dungarvan and despite the fact that it was one of the coldest evenings imaginable the cortege was of immense proportions embracing every section of the community. The remains were received by the Very Rev. T. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F., assisted by a number of other clergymen and escorted into the church, where they were placed in the High Altar. On Saturday morning solemn Requiem Office was said at High Mass offered for the happy repose of his soul at which His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. Cohan, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, presided. His Lordship was assisted by the Very Rev. Thos. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F., and Very Rev. John Gleeson, P.P., Aglish.

The celebrant of the Mass was Very Rev. John Canon Ryan, P.P., V.F., Fethard (brother-in-law); Rev. David Power, C.C., Aglish, was deacon and Rev. Jas. Hart, C.C., Carrick-on-Suir, was sub-deacon; Rev. J. Corbett, C.C., Dungarvan, was the master of ceremonies. The chanters were Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., Ballinacorney, and Rev. Thos. Murphy, C.C., Modello.

DEATH OF MR. C. P. HYNES, M.R.C.V.S., LISMORE.

Few there are throughout the county who did not learn with feeling of deep regret of the death of Mr. C. P. Hynes, M.R.C.V.S., South Mall, Lismore, which sad event took place on Thursday, Nov. 30th, at the son Secour Nursing Home, Cork, after a comparatively short illness, belonging to one of the oldest and most respected families in Lismore. Deceased had been practising as a veterinary surgeon in Lismore for over 43 years, and during that time won the respect and esteem of every section of the community. The late Mr. C. P. Hynes was one of the leading members of the Veterinary profession in this county. He qualified at the Royal Veterinary College, Edinburgh in the year 1901 and after a short period spent in practice in England he returned home to commence practice in Lismore where, by dint of hard work and unselfish devotion to duty he built up one of the most extensive general practices in the British Isles. He held important posts under the Waterford County Council, Department of Agriculture and Department of Public Health. He was a founder member of the Munster Veterinary Inspectors' Association, of which he was president and later secretary. Keenly interested in all forms of sport, he won many prizes at championship shooting competitions. He acted as a steward and starter at Lismore Point-to-Point Race Meeting, and at many other similar meetings throughout the county. Deceased was widely known and respected and his demise will be a sad blow not only to his family but to the farming community and veterinary profession in general.

The remains arrived in Lismore on Friday evening and were met outside the town by a concourse representing every class and creed and accompanied to the church, where they were received by Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., Lismore. Requiem Office and High Mass for the eternal repose of the departed soul were offered up on Saturday morning, following which the interment took place in the family burial plot in the Co. F. Cemetery, Drogheda. Another striking feature of the funeral was the gathering of mourning relatives and friends which provided ample testimony to the popularity of the deceased and the sorrow evoked by his demise.

Rev. Fr. Murphy, C.C., Lismore, assisted by Very Rev. M. Canon Walsh, P.P., Lismore, officiated at the graveside.

The chief mourners were: Mrs. Eileen Hynes (widow); Mr. Mortimer G. Hynes, Inspector, Dept. of Agriculture, Cork; and Mr. Arthur E. Hynes, Portroe, Co. Tipperary (sons); Miss Betty Hynes (daughter); Mr. M. G. Hynes (son); Mr. Arthur E. Hynes (son); Mrs. E. Hynes (daughters-in-law); Mr. M. F. Liston and Mr. G. Liston, Limerick; Mr. Terence J. Limerick, Mr. J. J. Limerick, Rathluir (cousins); Mrs. A. Hynes (sister-in-law); Mr. Cyril Hynes and Mr. Victor Hynes (nephews).

DEATH OF MR. A. J. SARGENT, CAPPOQUIN.

Deep and widespread sympathy and regret has been occasioned by the death of Mr. Alfred J. ("Bud") Sargent, Church Street, which sad event occurred at the Ban Secour Home, Cork, on Saturday last, 2nd inst. after a very brief illness. Having always enjoyed perfect health, and still in the prime of life, the tragic news of his unexpected passing came as a profound shock to all, and has evoked expressions of regret on all sides. A native of Cappoquin, and a member of a well-known family in this district, and brother of Mr. M. J. Sargent, P.C., the late Mr. Sargent was a man of many admirable traits of character and lovable qualities which endeared him to all who came in contact with him, and made him one of the most popular men both in Cappoquin and Lismore, where for many years past he had acted as proprietor of Sargent's Garage. His passing has now created a void that time cannot fill, and to his bereaved wife and children the deepest sympathy of the entire community is extended in their sorrow and loss.

Accompanied by one of the largest and most representative corteges seen in Cappoquin for many years past, the remains were removed from the Ban Secour Home on Sunday evening to St. Mary's R.C. Church. A striking tribute of respect was paid to the memory of deceased by the presence of a large number of L.S.F. and L.D.F. On Monday morning Solemn Requiem Office and High Mass was celebrated for the repose of deceased's soul. Rev. Fr. S. Brennan was celebrant; deacon, Rev. Jas. McCarthy, C.C.; sub-deacon, Rev. M. Foley, C.C.; master of ceremonies, Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C. In the Chair were: Very Rev. Canon Walsh, P.P., Lismore; Very Rev. J. Gleeson, P.P.; Very Rev. M. Morrissey, P.P.; Very Rev. Fr. Dowley, P.P.; Very Rev. Fr. Messill, P.P.; Very Rev. Fr. Fitzgerald, P.P.; Rev. Fr. Ahearn, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Byrne, C.C.; Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, C.C.; Rev. Fr. T. Murphy, C.C.; Rev. Fr. A. Murphy, C.C.

TALLOW NOTES.

Death of Esteemed Resident.—By the death of Miss Mary Flynn, which occurred at her residence, Convent Street on Sunday, following a somewhat brief illness, Tallow has to mourn the passing of one of its oldest and best-known residents, and to her bereaved relatives is extended, on behalf of deceased's many friends, sincere sympathy in their deep sorrow. In her early teens, deceased, who was a native of Lismore, entered the employment of the late Mr. and Mrs. John White, and on the death of the latter, continued with Miss Mary White and Mrs. Richard Purcell, and on their demise, in recognition of her faithful services, she was bequeathed the licensed premises and other property. Evidence of the regret felt on her passing was illustrated by the large and representative cortege of sympathisers who were present at the removal of deceased's remains to the Parish Church and at the subsequent funeral to the new cemetery, Lismore, where the interment took place on Tuesday, in the presence of many mourners and sympathisers. Requiem Masses for the repose of her soul were celebrated on Monday and Tuesday morning at St. Joseph's Carmelite Convent and the Church of the Immaculate Conception by Very Rev. Fr. Hearne, P.P., and Rev. Fr. Mehan, C.C., who also officiated at the graveside. Chief mourners were:—Messrs. Edward and John Daly, Lismore (nephews); Misses Mary and D. Daly, do. (nieces); Mr. and Mrs. W. Harding and family, Headboro; Misses J. and M. Harding, Lismore (relatives).

Gaelic League Activities.—The General Secretary of the Gaelic League, Conchubhair O'Coillain, during his tour of the Waterford-Cork Border visited the Comas Branch on Tuesday night week where a large gathering of Gaels awaited his arrival. He was introduced by Seamus O'Coillain, O.S. Secretary. Congratulating the branch on the good work they had done during the week, he said that if every village in Ireland was as enthusiastic as Comas there would be little fear of the language not being restored soon. They had given an example to the county by the manner in which they had met regularly in such large numbers for the study of the language and he felt that their success was in large measure due to the earnestness of their very active secretary and teacher, Seamus O'Coillain. It was time that the burden was taken from Seamus' shoulders and an Irish teacher sent to take over the work and he would make representations on the matter at an early date. He made a strong appeal to the county to provide opportunity for school-going children to meet in the afternoon to practice what Irish they had and are learning in school, as only by providing such facilities would they be sure that what they learned at school would not go to waste. If everybody took a serious interest in the promotion of language study for the next five years, they could secure this generation an honoured place in the pages of Irish history.

An Fálainn.—The General Secretary of the Gaelic League conducted examinations for "An Fálainn" in the following schools and Gaelic League Rooms during the past week, viz., St. Catherine's N.S., Tallow; Kilmac N.S., Tallow Boys N.S., Convent N.S. and local branch on (to-night) Friday. A reception in his honour is being arranged in Tallow and will be held on this (Friday) evening.

Postponement.—A large number of requests for the postponement of the date of the big draw to one early in the new year have been received by the committee of the local Gaelic League branch. The committee have decided to accede to such postponement and will announce the date of the draw in a subsequent issue of the "Observer." Meanwhile it is hoped that all holders of outstanding tickets will dispose of them and return blocks with remittance to the Hon. Sec. as early as possible.

NEWS FROM BALLYDUFF, KNOCKANORE AND MOOREHILL.

Red Cross Whist Drive.—A whist drive under the auspices of the local Red Cross branch will be held at the Ballyduff Hall, on this (Friday) night. Dec 9th and a record crowd is expected. Some very valuable and seasonable prizes are offered which include turkey, plum pudding, Christmas cake, etc.

Women's Branch of Muintir na Tire.—A very large and enthusiastic meeting was held in Ballyduff on Thursday night for the purpose of forming a women's branch of Muintir na Tire and was largely attended. It was unanimously agreed to form a branch at all the ladies present and in their names for enrolment as members. Another meeting will be held in the near future.

Ceilidhe Mor.—A very enjoyable ceilidhe mor was held at Ballyduff Hall on Sunday night and was a great success, the hall being packed to its utmost capacity. Large crowds were present from all the surrounding districts and in spite of the large attendance the best order prevailed and one and all had a very enjoyable night. Over 40 arrangements in a manner that gave universal satisfaction and there were few dull moments. The hall was decorated for the occasion while the floor was in perfect condition and the music which was supplied by the Fire Instrumental Ceilidhe Band, Lisimore, seemed to surpass all previous performances. During the night a number of vocal items were rendered and were much appreciated. Before the end, the master of ceremonies thanked all those who attended and the ceilidhe was concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.

Muintir na Tire Draw.—The pretty village of all excitement on the occasion of the drawing of prizes under the auspices of Muintir na Tire in aid of the New Harriers and as the various names of the lucky winners were drawn from the "drum" they were loudly applauded. The proceeds of the draw exceeded all expectations.

Obituary.—It is with very deep regret we record the death of Mr. John Revin, which sad event occurred at his residence, Ballynatray, after a rather brief illness and in the fullness of years. Deceased was a member of an old and highly respected family and was held in the highest esteem by all who had the pleasure of knowing him. All his life he was a staunch nationalist and possessed the real old Fenian outlook, and during the struggle for Irish Independence, in which his sons took an active part, he himself, although advanced in years, offered his services in any capacity for which he was fitted. His passing has severed another link in that grand old type of Irishman who is now becoming so rare amongst us. The deep sympathy of the entire community is extended to his bereaved son, daughter and other relatives. The remains were removed on Saturday evening to St. Michael's Church, Glendine, where they were received by Rev. Fr. Tobin, C.C., Glendine. The very large cortege which accompanied the remains testify in no uncertain manner to the respect and esteem in which deceased was held. Requiem Mass was offered up on Sunday morning and the funeral took place in the afternoon at the family grave in the Catholic Cemetery where all that was mortal of deceased were reverently laid to rest in the presence of a gathering representative of all classes of the community, many of whom travelled long distances to pay a last tribute to an old and valued friend. Rev. Fr. Tobin, C.C., read the last prayers at the graveside. The chief mourners included: W. Revin (son); Mrs. S. McGrath, Sr. Bernadette, Cistercian Convent, Glencalm (daughters); Mr. J. McGrath (son-in-law); Mrs. W. Revin (daughter-in-law); Mr. and Mrs. Lombard, Mr. W. Lombard, Mr. J. Ryan, Mr. M. Ryan, Mr. M. Carroll, Mr. M. Carroll, Mr. P. Revin (cousins and relatives).—Ar dheis De go raibh a nanam.

Successful Concert.—A very enjoyable variety entertainment was held at Moorehill Hall on Sunday night and was very successful as was also the matinee held in the afternoon at which the children's "Question Time" competition proved to be very popular. The answering of the various competitors was very good and the winner was Master John Morrison, Ballymore, while second prize went to Master Denis Geary, Moorehill. The performance opened with a one-act Irish comedy that was loudly applauded. The players taking part were: Miss K. Dunne, Miss E. Roberts, Messrs. J. Murray, T. Roche and J. Morrison, who one and all played their parts in a very realistic manner. The next part of the programme included songs, "The Miller's Daughter," Mr. T. Roche; "The Bard of Armagh," Mr. J. Morrison; "The Girl I Left Behind Me," Mr. J. Power, and "The Tumble Down Shack in Athlone," Master M. Flanagan. Two further comedies followed which kept the audience in roars throughout, and at the fall of the curtain the various players were loudly applauded. The concluding part of the programme included a grand exhibition of Irish step dancing by Miss J. Meade, while the following contributed songs, Miss K. McGrath, Master J. and Maureen McGrath, Mr. J. Ryan, Mr. J. Dunne, Mr. M. Murray and Mr. J. Morrison. Before the end, the master of ceremonies, Mr. J. Dunne, thanked the audience for their attendance and for their appreciation of the programme. The entertainment was brought to a conclusion with the playing of the National Anthem. A choice selection of Irish music was played on the accordion by Mr. D. Geary during the interval and was much appreciated.

FOUR-COUNTY HURLING LEAGUE.

TIPPERARY BEAT WATERFORD.

Tipperary, 5-3; Waterford, 3-2. In the opening match of the four-county hurling league tournament, at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last, Tipperary had a rather easy win over a fancied Waterford side. Weather conditions were very unfavourable and made the going very heavy, which gave the heavier Tipperary side any advantage that accrued. The Waterford side showed two changes from the side which defeated Cork in the final of the Brother Rice tournament at Waterford recently. Healy (U.C.C.) taking Daly (Army) place at right full back, while Galvin took the place of Feeney at left full forward. The Deise men did not much lifting and dallying with a heavy, wet ball, while the fast hard-hitting Tipperary men resorted to ground play from the very start. Tipperary took up the offensive from the throw-in and within five minutes Dwyer opened the scoring with an easy goal, to which the same player shortly after added a point. Healy, Curley and Hayes stemmed a number of Tipperary attacks, while Dowling was prominent in the half-back line. Sergt. Murphy sent Tipperary again on the offensive to add another goal. A 70 to Waterford went wide. Baston found the net in the next Waterford raid. Fleming and Hayes cleared a series of Tipperary attacks, while Healy, Curley and Ware cleared brilliantly in which attack Curley received a serious facial injury, but after treatment resumed his place with the team. Barron, Tipperary replied almost immediately with a major per Delahanty. Barron on the right wing sent across to Moylan, who was well positioned for the latter to send Galvin clear for a great goal. Wade retired injured and was replaced by Carew. Before the first half ended Tipperary added another point to their total, leaving the half-time tally: Tipperary, 3-2; Waterford, 2-1.

A feature of the second half was the brilliant goal-keeping of Maher in the Tipperary goal. Time and again he dashed the Waterford supporters' hopes to the ground. Healy was prominent in the Deise back line and sent well down to Hickey, who added a Waterford point. Sergt. Murphy and T. Doyle put Tipperary attacking, but Hayes, Dowling, Keane and Fleming each cleared in turn. Maher (goal) and Maher (full back) frustrated the Waterford forwards. Wall and Murphy initiated a Tipperary onslaught for O'Keefe to point. Maher (custodian) came to Tipperary's rescue on a number of successive occasions and was loudly applauded. Tipperary were again on the offensive for M. Maher to raise the green flag, with Waterford replied with a goal from Baston, but before the final whistle Tipperary added another major, to leave the full-time score: Tipperary, 5-3 (18); Waterford, 3-2 (11).

Tipperary—Jas. Maher, E. Leahy, M. Maher (Boherlahan), J. Purcell, T. O'Keefe (Moycarkey), J. Maher, J. Dwyer, E. Gleeson, J. Delahanty, J. Doyle, M. Murphy (Thurles), P. Hickey (Killenale), Thos. Wall (Carrick), Sgt. J. Murphy (Carrick), James Devitt (Cashel), J. Mason (sub). Waterford—J. Ware, C. Healy, C. Curley, P. Hayes, A. Fleming, John Keane, F. Dowling, P. Barry, M. Hickey, D. Power, W. Baston, W. Barron, C. Moylan, P. Wade, W. Galvin.
