YOUGHAL OLD AGE PENSIONS SLIB-COMMITTEE

At the monthly receting of the Youghal Old Age Pensions Sub-Committee, Mr. P. J. O'Gorman. P.C., U.D.C., presiding, a question arose in nied to St. Carthage's Church by a large concourse. After the late Mass on Sunday the interment was made in the parish cemetery. Rev. Father which in the parish cemetery. Rev. Father Ahearne, C.C., officiated. The chief mourners were Miss B. Power and money was to be kept for the son until his return. Mrs. P. Power (nieces); Misses Breda and Margaret Power (grand-nieces);

Mr. Savage said it should be realised now that the cost of living had increased, the big fellows, the ones with the big salaries do not mind it, but with the poor it is different as in their case it would appear that the cost of giving is never taken into consideration, to the extent that it should be.

Chairman-The income allowed to applicants for the Old Age Pension has remained static at £15 12s. 6d. and I think this should be increased applicant from £39 to £52 and still let such an applicant qualify for an allotment at the reduced rent of one shilling. The Local Government Department should have the same outlook as the Department of Agricul-

From reports to hand it seems that the married men could muster a formidable team, comprising many well-known players and a few stars of bygone days. It is intended that the proceeds of this game should go towards the cost of renovating the hurling field, so as the object is a worthy one, it is hoped that the Cappoquin team will rise to the occasion and make possible this unique game, which so many Gaels are waiting to see. that suggested was proposed by Mr. R. Savage and seconded by Mr. E. Fleming, P.C.

More Ceilidhthe.—We are pleased to report that, continuing their endeavours to revive the Irish language and culture, the local Cumann Culturdhe na h-Aiseirghe is arranging to hold weekly practice ceilidhthe at Bennett's Hall, Ballysaggart, commencing on Wed., Jan. 17th. given an aesthetic one. The Orchestra began with a stirring march "The Royal Trumpeter," and followed with the lovely "O Salo Mio." Then the chorus rendered "How Lovely are Thy Dwellings," and "Come Where the Rippling Waters Flow." Miss M. Donaldson, accompanied by Miss K. O'Neill played Drigo's "Serenata" in her usual efficient manner. A selection of Irish airs was played excellently on bamboo pipes and an interesting point is that each girl made her own pipe from a piece of bamboo cane. Mrs. R. GRAZING AND TILLAGE TO LET of which Mr. Donal Moloney, is the nnual reunion of the Mercy Convent Children of Mary took place on Tuesday evening, 2nd January. It began with Benediction in the beautiful Convent Chapel at which Very Rev. Canon O'Brien officiated. There followed a sumptuous tea-party and multi-coloured fairy lights added to the festive appearance of the room. Having partaken of a spiritual feast and a material feast they were then tics. Yes, "Bonzo," under the able direction of the traineress, Miss McCarthy, nearly brought the house down! Next, Miss Terry Ahearne danced "The Blackbird" in perfect

Smith, deeply regretted. Burial mode, and was followed by Miss took place on Tuesday, January Mary O'Gorman's splendid performance of Beethoven's Sonata. This difficult classic seemed "child's play" to her nimble fingers. Miss B. Whelan then played some "Fiddle Fancies" in lively fashion. The farce, "The Duplicity of David" was expertly interpreted by Miss B. McCarthy as Lena Hourihan; Miss K. O'Neill as David, her brother: Miss M. Donaldson as Jerry Malone; Miss N. O'Sullivan as Miss Enright, and Miss M. Walshe as the Hon, Mr. Enright. Each of these ladies gave a wonderful performace, but Miss McCarthy was really outstanding as Lena, and Miss O'Neill gave a splendid characterisation of quick-witted David. Very Rev. T. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F., Spiritual Director, in some well-chosen words expressed his appreciation of the evening's entertain-ment and exhorted the Children of Mary to make even greater effort in combating the modern craze for pleasure and sin. He stressed the power of good example and the important part a Child of Mary can play in the world. He thanked Rev. Mother Gerard for the grand reunion and paid a special tribute to

KNOCKANORE AND MOOREHILL The New Year was ushered in quietly in Ballyduff with the exception of the usual celebrations which consisted of playing out the old and ringing in the New Year. On that morning the usual big congregation attended the Masses in the Church, a very large number of which appreached the Altar Rails to receive Holy Communion. The opening day of the New Year passed off quietly in beautiful Spring-like weather and

The Crib erected in St. Brigid's Parish Church, Kilrossanty, on Xmast Eve, continues to be a centre of great devotion for young and old of the historic parish. In its construction and arrangement rare crafts-manship is displayed. The artisti-cally erected Crib in the Convent Church, Kilmacthomas, is also being visited by large numbers of the faith-leigh, Kilmacthomas. His reverence Mr. Joseph Kennedy, Killbeg, Kill, recently discovered a stone in a field near Killbeg Cemetery and on it are markings which he thinks are Ogham characters. Incidentally, we have it from Mr. Kennedy that no burial has taken place in Killbeg Cemetery within the memory of the oldest inwithin the memory of the oldest inhabitant of the district.

phen's Day, when the attendance-mounted and afoot-was the largest seen out for several years. A dense fog marred prospects of a good day's hunting, and it was not until late in the afternoon that visibility im-proved and hounds, finding in Ballycarmody Bog ran their fox to ground after a short spin. Moving on to Fenor, a fox was quickly away from Mr. Dower's gorse and swinging towards Dunhill Castle, turned sharply back there, on and over the road and brook into Ardnahoe where ds caught up with him in a field of kole. After a narrow escape here he sunk the glen into Dunni'l village where a rather twisty fox was left as it was now nearly dark. From the meet at the Sweep on Saturday last (30th inst) nounds quickly found in Amberhill and running down right-handed to Black Knock, swung back to Amberhill, Again pushing him out from here and out of the Black Knock, they raced on over the Kilmenden-Ballyduff wood on their left crossed the main road at the shop into Fairbrook where they rolled over their fox short of the railway after a very fast hunt of about 45 minutes. Ballyduff Bog was blank, next draw being Carrigohilip Bog, hounds finding immediately. Going away left-handed From the meet at the Sweep on mediately. Going away left-handed towards the lake, they ran hard to the Kill-Sweep road, crossing into Ballyleen Bog, pointing towards Dunhill where they wheeled left-handed towards Castlecraddock, and nting more slowly now they were stopped re-entering Carrigphilip Bog near Smoore, as everybody had had enough after an excellent day's hun ing. Amongst those out were the Master, Mr. R. Russell; Mrs. Russe Master J. Russell, the Marchioness Waterford, Lord Waterford, Lord Petrick Beresford, Lady P. Millar Master D. Miliar, Lady Dawney, the Misses Dawney and Master Dawney Miss M. Walker, Mrs. Crosbie, Mr. fellowship—good luck to him.

Spring Valley Hall, Boamahon.—

The New Year's Night dance in this popularly established hall attracted an attendance of upwards of 250 phase, gaiety being the keynote throughout. The music was fault-lessly rendered by the Waterford Swing Aces' Band, under the baton of Mr. M. "Busty" Griffin. Dancing was from 9 to 3 a.m., and the playing of the National Anthem wound up the eclatic proceedings. A splen-did supper was served and the entire arrangements were to the complete satisfaction of all. Devotees will be delighted to note that the Newtown and Ballydurn Cow-Testing Association's grand annual dance will be brought off here on the 11th prox. The Brideside Serenaders are booked bridge; May, Colm, Ann and Margaret; Michael and May Harney, Ballydurn; Mary, Michael and family 21 The Ousy Waterford.

The Funeral of Mrs. M. Harris to Kilrossanty on Tuesday evening was large and representative. A most estimable lady, the deceased was wife of Mr. Michael Harris, The Smithy, Knockboy, Ballinamult, and sister of Mr. John Murphy, Boolattin, Kilrossanty. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones. Very Rev. D. Power, P.P. Kilrossanty, officers Rev. D. Power, P.P., Kilrossanty, officiated at the graveside.-May she clated at the graveside.—May she rest in peace.

A great Wave of Sympathy goes out to Mr. and Mrs. M. O'Brien, Kilcanavee, Kilmacthomas, in their very sad bereavement occasioned by the death of their daughter, Miss Catherine (Kitty) O'Brien, which occurred at St. Patrick's Hospital, Waterford, at the all-to-early age of 16 years. Her funeral to Portlaw on 16 years. Her funeral to Portlaw on Tuesday was of immense proportions. Peace to her gentle soul.

The Death, on Tuesday last, of Mr. William Coffey, at a comparatively young age, removes a familiar figure from our midst. Of fine, open, generous nature, the late Mr. Coffey was esteemed for his many virtues and splendid qualities, which were rooted in benevolence and human sympathy. He was respected by all sympathy. He was respected by all who knew him and his friends were legion on both sides of the Mahon. A very large funeral procession attended the removal of the remains to St. Anne's Church, Bailylaneen where they were received by Rev. P. F. Walsh, C.C., who said the prayers for the dead. Subsequent to the celebration of Requiem Mass for his soul on Thursday morning, interment was made in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of innumerable relatives, friends and sympathisers and amid every manifestation of profound sorrow. Fether Walsh pro-rounced the final absolution at the graveside. Mass cards and floral tributes were placed on the grave.
Many expressions of sympathy were conveyed to his bereaved brothers.
